Released from Villa Devoto prison on 10-12-77 with other 20 women. She had been arrested in April 1975 and released because they found her innocent of all charges. Previously she was arrested in 1974 and was in jail for some 6-8 months. She again was released. This time when she was released they did not return her Cedula and other documents, they told her her father Roberto had to come to get them. Family is concerned for the safety of Adriana thinking that it might be dangerous for her to remain in Buenos Aires.

Killed - notified formally December 1977

Arrested on 5-16-77 by a group of armed men. They also kidnapped his wife María Cristina Bernart de De Cristófaro and brother in law Julian Bernart. On June 2, thru the newspapers it was said that he had been shot as a member of ERP. Also his wife shot at Monte Grande. No news from the brother. It was impossible for me to obtain the corps of them. Are they really dead?

E. O. 12065: N/A
TAGS: CI, PGOV, PINS
SUBJECT: LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE: APPEAL POSTPONED; SYMPATHETIC INTERVIEW WITH CONTRERAS

REF: SANTIAGO 4210

1. SUMMARY: DEFENSE LAWYER REQUESTS POSTPONEMENT OF EXTRADITION APPEAL HEARINGS. NEWSWEEKLY "ERCILLA" FEATURES A LENGTHY INTERVIEW WITH MANUEL CONTRERAS, PORTRAYING HIM AS A GOOD SOLDIER. "HOY" NEWSWEEKLY DENIES CONTRERAS' CAMP GAVE IT THE INSDIDE SCOOP; COLUMNIST STRESSES INCONSISTENCY IN BORQUEZ' RULING THAT EVIDENCE NOT GOOD ENOUGH TO EXTRADITE BUT IS GOOD ENOUGH TO START LOCAL TRIAL. DAILY PRESS REPRINTS BRAZILIAN PAPER'S INTERVIEW WITH USG PROSECUTORS; FEW SHORT ITEMS REFER TO RENEWED ARGENTINE INTEREST IN 1974 PRATS ASSASSINATION. END SUMMARY.

2. JUNE 20 PRESS, IN BRIEF ITEMS BURIED ON INSIDE PAGES, REPORTS THAT ALTHOUGH HEARINGS ON THE APPEAL OF THE EXTRADITION REQUEST ARE STILL OFFICIALLY SCHEDULED TO BEGIN TODAY, IT IS KNOWN THAT FERNANDEZ LARIOS' LAWYER HAS REQUESTEED WEEK'S POSTPONEMENT.

STORIES NOT THAT UP TO THREE POSTPONEMENTS ARE POSSIBLE. (COMMENT: THE EFFECT OF A SECOND POSTPONEMENT WOULD BE TO PUT THE HEARINGS BEFORE THE OTHER (JULY) PANEL OF THE SUPREME COURT. IT IS WIDELY RUMORED THAT THE JUNE PANEL OF THE COURT CONTAINS SOME MEMBERS IN DISAGREEMENT WITH THEO BORQUEZ DECISION. END COMMENT)

3. "EXCLUSIVE: GENERAL CONTRERAS SPEAKS" HEADLINES AN "ERCILLA"

COVER. FEATURE STORY, REPORTEDLY TAKEN FROM FIVE HOUR SESSION WITH CONTRERAS IN HIS ROOMS AT THE MILITAY HOSPITAL, IS LENGTHY INTERVIEW. AFTER TELLING REPORTED THAT TIME IN HOSPITAL HAS GIVEN HIM OPPOTRUNITY TO MEDITATE AND READ UP ON OTHER INTELLIGENCE SERVICES, CONTRERAS DESCRIBES DINA AS AN ORGANIZATION NEEDED TO ROUT OUT CLANDESTINE TERRORISM AFTER THE MILITARY HAD QUASHED OPEN OPPOSITION. HE ASSERTS THAT EVENTUALLY THE "MARTYRS" KILLED IN SOME 160 SKIRMISHES WITH TERRORISTS WILL BE GIVEN A PLACE OF HONOR IN CHILEAN HISTORY. CONTRERAS DESCRIBED HIMSELF AS A CATHOLIC WHO HAS ABSOLUTE RESPECT FOR HUMAN LIFE -- ALTHOUGH HE SAYS THAT IN WARTIME PEOPLE GET KILLED.

4. QUESTIONED ABOUT DINA'S ROLE IN THE VELOSO CASE (WHICH, AS REPORTED IN THE PRESS DURING MAY-JUNE 1977, ESTABLISHED THAT DINA ATTEMPTED TO FRAME OPPONENTS FOR THE TORTURE/RAPE OF A YOUNG BOY), CONTRERAS REPEATS THE DISCREDITED FRAME-UP STORY JUST AS IF THE REST OF THE ACCOUNT HAD NOT BECOME KNOWN. CONTRERAS ALSO DENIES DINA RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE LONQUEN MASS GRAVE. (COMMENT: CONTRERAS IS RIGHT. THE SIXTEEN LONQUEN VICTIMS WERE KILLED BY LOCAL CARABINEROS BEFORE DINA CAME INTO EXISTENCE. END COMMENT) HE ALSO SAYS THAT MANY DINA FILES WERE BURNED AND LAUGHS OFF THE RUMOR THAT HE SOUHT TO SPIRIT SOME DINA FILES ABROAD, PART OF WHICH WERE ALLEGEDLY INTERCEPTED BY THE FBI.

5. QUESTIONED ABOUT THE LETELIER/MOFFITT ASSASSINATION, CONTRERAS SAYS THAT THE [illegible] EVIDENCE CONTAINS FALSE DOCUMENTS AND LIMITED OFFICIAL USE

UNCLASSIFIED

~~LIMITED OFFICIAL USE~~

INCONSISTENCIES, THAT THE "PROFF" IS JUST "TO DECEIVE THE AMERICAN PEOPLE." TO EXPLAIN WHY TOWNLEY KILLED LETELIER, CONTRERAS SUGGESTS THAT FIDEL CASTRO STOOD MOST TO GAIN; ALTERNATIVELY HE STATES THAT LETELIER PROVIDED JACK ANDERSON WITH THE ITT PAPERS WHICH LED TO THE HELMS TRIAL. HE ALSO SAYS THAT TWO SENIOR CIA OFFICIALS HAVE TESTIFIED THAT TOWNLEY BELONGED TO THE AGENCY. (COMMENT: OF COURSE THE STATEMENTS SAY JUST THE OPPOSITE -- TOWNLEY WAS CLEARED FOR FURTHER CONTACT BUT SUCH CONTACT NEVER OCCURRED. END COMMENT) CONTRERAS SAYS THAT DINA HAD NO INTEREST IN LETELIER, WHOM HE DESCRIBES AS A SMALL-FRY LIVING FAR FROM CHILE. HE ASSERTS THAT TOWNLEY COULD NEVER HAVE WORKED FOR DINA SINCE HE WAS JUST A PAID KILLER AND CROOK. THEN ASKED WHY TOWNLEY WAS SENT TO ACCOMPANY FERNANDEZ ON THE PARAGUAY CAPER, CONTRERAS BLASELY REPEATS THE DEFENSE ARGUMENT THAT TOWNLEY WAS GOING ALONG TO INTERPRET. CHARACTERISTIC OF THE ARTICLE'S SYMPATHETIC TREATMENT OF CONTRERAS, THE INTERVIEWER NEVER ASKS THE OBVIOUS QUESTION: WHY WOULD DINA SEND THIS ALLEGEDLY NOTORIOUS KILLER AND CROOK ON SUCH A MISSION?

6. THE INTERVIEWER DID PRESS CONTRERAS ON HIS ALLEGED ROLE AS THE HERO OF HARDLINERS WITHIN THE MILITARY. CONTRERAS DENIES THAT THERE ARE, IN FACT, DIFFERENCES OF OPINION WITHIN THE MILITARY. THE REPORTER WAS A LITTLE PUT OFF BY CONTRERAS' REFUSAL TO COMMENT ON HIS CONSTITUTIONAL ACCUSATIONS AGAINST THE THREE CIVILIAN MINISTERS.

7. BOTH "ERCILLA" AND CHRISTIAN-DEMOCRAT "HOY" LED INTO THEIR WEEKLY "NEWS IN REVIEW" STORIES WITH THE LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE, MENTIONING FERNANDEZ LARIOS' LETTER TO PINOCHET DENYING PARTICIPATION IN THE CONTRERAS/ESPINOZA CHARGES AGAINST THE MINISTERS, ESPINOZA'S TRANSFER TO "LO AGUIRRE," AND THE RECALL OF CHILEAN AMBASSADOR BARROS (SEE SEPTEL). "HOY"DENIED THAT IT HAD BEEN GIVEN CLOSELY HELD DOCUMENTS BY THE CONTRERAS' CAMP -- A RIDICULOUS CHARGE MADE LAST WEEK IN TABLOID "SEGUNDA." "HOY" ALSO MENTIONED THAT ARGENTINE AUTHORITIES HAS REOPENED THE PRATS ASSASSINATION CASE. AN EFE ITEM ALONG THE SAME LINES APPEARED

IN JUNE 20 "MERCURIO", AND A SIMILAR SQUIB, ATTRIBUTED TO ONE OF PRATS'S DAUGHTERS, APPEARED IN A RECENT "SEGUNDA."

8. "MERCURIO" REPRINTED THE SPANISH TRANSLATION OF THE FULL STORY WHICH APPEARED IN RIO'S "O GLOBO" ON JUNE 17. IN THE STORY, USG PROSECUTORS ARE QUOTED MAKING UNFLATTERING STATEMENTS ABOUT THE CHILEAN COURTS AND PRESIDENT PINOCHET (SEE RIO DE JANEIRO 2625 FOR TEXT OF "O GLOGO" STORY).

9. CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT IDEOLOGUE JAIME CASTILLO WRITES IN THIS WEEK'S "HOY" PICKING UP ON EDUARDO FREI'S COLUMN LAST WEEK DESCRIBING CHILE AS AN INSANE ASYLUM. CASTILLO SAYS THAT CHILEANS MUST BE CRAZY IF THEY UNDERSTAND JUDGE BORQUEZ' DECISION ON THE EXTRADITION CASE. HOW IS IT, HE ASKS, THAT BORQUEZ FINDS THE EVIDENCE INSUFFICIENT TO BELIEVE THAT THE THREE OFFICERS WERE INVOLVED IN THE LETELIER/MOFFITT KILLINGS (CASTILLO NOTES THAT THE EVIDENCE DID NOT HAVE TO MEET THE TEST FOR CONVICTION, BUT ONLY REASONABLE CAUSE), AND YET ORDERS A MILITARY TRIAL JUDGE TO LOOK INTO ABSURDITIES AND CONTRADICTIONS IN THE TESTIMONY OF THE OFFICERS.

SUBJECT: :C) LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE: AMBASSADOR BARROS' STATEMENTS AND HIS RETURN PLANS

1. (C) AMBASSADOR BARROS FINALLY CALLED ME TODAY AND HE AGREED TO VISIT ME AT THE RESIDENCE FRIDAY EVENING, JUNE 22. HE WILL BE LEAVING SANTIAGO JUNE 23 TO GO TO ROME IN CONNECTION WITH THE SOUTHERN ZONE MEDIATION WITH ARGENTINA, BUT PLANS TO RETURN TO WASHINGTON PRIOR TO JULY 4.

2. (U) BARROS MET FOR AN HOUR WITH PRESIDENT PINOCHET JUNE 19, AND HIS POST-MEETING COMMENTS HAVE BEEN GIVEN WIDE PLAY ON TELEVISION AND RADIO AND IN THIS MORNING'S PRESS. HIS REMARDS AND MEDIA QUESTIONS CENTERED ON THE LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE AND HOW IT MAY AFFECT US-CHILE RELATIONS. BARROS DESCRIBED THE MEETING WITH PINOCHET AS "HIGHLY IMPORTANT FOR MY MISSION AS AMBASSADOR", SAID HE HAD RECEIVED VERY CLEAR IDEAS FROM THE PRESIDENT, AND THAT HE WILL CONTINUE TO DO EVERYTHING POSSIBLE IN ORDER THAT US-CHILE RELATIONS MAY BE GOOD -- "WITHIN THE FRAME OF RESPECT FOR THE FUNDAMENTAL PRINCIPLES OF NON-INTERVENTION AND FOR CHILEAN INSTITUTIONS AND JUDICIAL DECISIONS."

3. (U) ASKED TO CATEGORIZE THE PRESENT STATE OF US-CHILE RELATIONS, BARROS DESCRIBED THEM AS "MORNAL GIVEN THE CIRCUMSTANCES."

CONFIDENTIAL

ON THE SPECIFIC QUESTION OF WHETHER THE LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE COULD BRING ABOUT A BREAK IN RELATIONS, BARROS BEGGED OFF ANY PREDICTIONS, SAYING THAT LOGIC DOES NOT ALWAYS GOVERN INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS; BUT HE ADDED THAT INTERNATIONAL LAW PROVIDES THE BASIS FOR A JUDICIAL SOLUTION AND THAT THIS IS THE ONLY MEANS TO RESOLVE THE PROBLEM. "WE ARE VERY CONSCIOUS," SAID BARROS,

"OF WHAT THIS (LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE) MEANS FOR RELATIONS BETWEEN THE TWO COUNTRIES. BUT THE ACCUSED PERSONS ALSO HAVE RIGHTS AND A PRESUMPTION OF INNOCENCE UNTIL PROVEN OTHERWISE." WITH A REFERENCE TO CHILE'S EXPERIENCE WITH ARGENTINA OVER THE BEAGLE CHANNEL, BARROS EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT THE USG, AFTER AGREEING TO FOLLOW LEGAL PROCEDURES, WOULD NOT DISREGARD THE RESULT SIMPLY BECAUSE IT MIGHT BE UNFAVORABLE. HE NOTED THAT USG ADHERANCE TO LEGAL PROCESS HAS BEEN RATIFIED MOST RECENTLY BY THE DECISION TO APPEAL THE BORQUEZ DECISION.

4. (U) BORQUEZ WAS AT PAINS TO MAKE A DISTINCTION BETWEEN THE EXPRESSED OPINIONS OF SOME US CONGRESSMEN AND THE POSITION OF THE USG: "I AM CONFIDENT THAT THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES HIMSELF IS AGAINST IMPORPER PRESSURES. IT IS THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES THAT MANAGES INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS; THEREFORE, IT IS NOT ALWAYS USEFUL TO EQUATE THE POSITIONS OF THE WHITE HOUSE WITH ATTITUDES OF CERTAN ELEMENTS OF THE CONGRESS." GOING ON: "WITHOUT DISCARDING THE POSSIBILITY THAT SOME MEMBERS OF CONGRESS WANT TO EXERT UNACCEPTABLE AND ILLEGITIMATE PRESSURES, IT WOULD NOT BE FAIR TO THINK OR BELIEVE THAT THIS POSITION CORRESPONDS TO THE WISHES OF THE STATE DEPARTMENT OR THE WHITE HOUSE." ASKED WHETHER THE USG HAS EXERTED PRESSURES, BARROS REPLIED THAT IT IS HANDLING THE MATTER STRICTLY IN ACCORDANCE WITH INTERNATIONAL LAW. ASKED WHETHER HE HIMSELF HAD BEEN SUBJECT TO PRESSURES, BARROS SAID THERE HAD BEEN NONE AND IF THERE HAD BEEN HE WOULD NOT HAVE ACCEPTED THEM: "YOU CAN REST EASY ON THAT SCORE; THE AMBASSADOR OF CHILE DOES NOT

E.O. 12065: GDS 6/5/85 (DOLLIS, EDWARD W.)

TAGS: ETRD, EFIN, EAID, IDB

SUBJECT: BILATERAL WITH ARGENTINA AT THE IDB ANNUAL MEETING

1. UNDER SECRETARY OF TREASURY SOLOMON AND OTHER U.S. DELEGATION REPS BUSHNELL, DUNCAN, FINKEL AND SWEENEY MET WITH FINANCE MINISTER MARTINEZ DE HOZ AND OTHER ARGENTINE DELEGATION REPS, DANTE SIMON, SOLA, ZUBARAN, AND TAREZZA. TOPICS DISCUSSED INCLUDED ARGENTINA'S ECONOMIC SITUATION, HUMAN RIGHTS, IDB PROCEDURAL QUESTIONS, A DOUBLE TAXATION TREATY, EXPORTS OF HIDES FROM ARGENTINA, AND DEFINITIONS ON LENDING TO THE POOR.

2. THE ARGENTINE ECONOMY. MARTINEZ DE HOZ OPENED WITH A SKETCH OF ARGENTINE ECONOMIC PROGRESS OVER THE PAST THREE YEARS. HE POINTED OUT THAT WHEN THE NEW GOVERNMENT ACCEDED TO POWER IN 1976, INFLATION WAS 950 PERCENT AND ONLY 19 PERCENT OF GOVERNMENT EXPENDITURES WERE COVERED BY TAXES. SINCE THAT TIME, IT HAS BEEN NECESSARY TO REVERSE THE ENTIRE DIRECTION OF THE ECONOMY BY OPENING IT, FREEING THE EXCHANGE RATE AND INTEREST RATES, SHIFTING EMPHASIS TO PRIVATE ENTERPRISE TO SPUR GROWTH, AND REDUCING THE BUDGET DEFICIT AS A SHARE OF GDP. THESE MEASURES HAVE WORKED WELL AS REFLECTED BY A LARGE TRADE SURPLUS LAST YEAR, A RAPID INCREASE IN FOREIGN EXCHANGE RESERVES TO $7 BILLION, AND AN EXPANSION IN THE INTERNAL SAVINGS RATE TO 28 PERCENT OF GDP. AT THE SAME TIME, ARGENTINA IS NOW 90 PERCENT SELF-SUFFICIENT IN ENERGY AND IT IS IN THE PROCESS OF GREATLY INCREASING ITS HYDRO BASED ENERGY SURPLUSES, IN PART THROUGH A LARGE HYDRO PROJECT AT YACYRETA FOR WHICH LOANS FROM THE IDB AND IBRD PLAY A PART. THE IBRD LOAN WILL COME TO THE BOARD IN JUNE IF PROBLEMS WITH PARAGUAY ARE RESOLVED.

3. THE MINISTER CAUTIONED, HOWEVER, THAT SOME PROBLEMS REMAIN. THE MOST DIFFICULT ONE IS INFLATION WHICH IS STILL RUNNING AT 150 PERCENT. THIS IS LARGELY DUE TO CONTINUED INFLATIONARY EXPECTATIONS WHICH HAVE BUILT UP OVER THE PAST FEW DECADES AND, DESPITE CONSIDERABLE PROGRESS, IT IS STILL DIFFICULT TO CONVINCE PEOPLE THAT THE RULES OF THE GAME ARE CHANGING. ALSO, THE BALANCE OF TRADE SURPLUS AND CAPITAL INFLOWS HAVE PRODUCED AN INFLUX OF FOREIGN EXCHANGE WHICH HAS ADDED TO INFLATIONARY PRESSURES. IN FACT, 85 PERCENT OF THE CURRENCY ISSUE THIS YEAR HAS BEEN DUE TO EXTERNAL INFLOWS OF CAPITAL. HOWEVER, THESE ARE NOT INSURMOUNTABLE DIFFICULTIES AND IT IS CRITICAL THAT ARGENTINA CONTINUE FIRMLY ON THE TREND OF THE PAST FEW YEARS TOWARD ECONOMIC STABILIZATION.

4. IDB RESOLUTIONS. SOLOMON MENTIONED THAT HE HAD BEEN CONCERNED BY THE FACT THAT THE RESOLUTION ON THE IDB PRESIDENT'S SALARY HAD BEEN RAISED FOR VOTE AT THE FIRST SESSION BY ARGENTINA WITHOUT PRIOR NOTIFICATION TO THE U.S. DELEGATION. HE OBSERVED THAT IDB REGULATIONS CALLED FOR PRIOR NOTIFICATION AND THAT THIS RULE, WHICH APPARENTLY HAD FALLEN INTO DISUSE, SHOULD BE REINVIGORATED. HE SUGGESTED THAT SECRETARY BLUMENTHAL SEND A LETTER TO THE OTHER IDB GOVERNORS ON IMPLEMENTATION OF IDB REGULATIONS AND INQUIRED WHETHER ARGENTINA WOULD SUPPORT THIS INITIATIVE. MARTINEZ DE HOZ REPLIED THAT HE THOUGHT THAT THE US DELEGATION HAD BEEN PREVIOUSLY INFORMED OF THE RESOLUTION. HE APOLOGIZED IF THERE HAD BEEN ANY MISUNDERSTANDING AND PROMISED TO SUPPORT THE U.S. ON THIS ISSUE.

5. HUMAN RIGHTS. BUSHNELL SAID THAT THE U.S. HAD BEEN ENCOURAGED BY THE DECLINE IN PERSONS DISAPPEARED IN ARGENTINA SINCE JANUARY, BUT THAT TWO MAJOR PROBLEMS STILL REMAINED: (A) THE OVER 2500 POLITICAL PRISONERS; AND (B) INFORMATION ON THOSE PEOPLE WHO HAVE DISAPPEARED AND LACK OF MOVEMENT IN THE LEGAL PROCESS WITH RELATION TO THESE INDIVIDUALS. HE ADDED THAT SEVERAL LISTS OF MISSING PERSONS HAD BEEN PUBLISHED BUT NOT EVERYONE ON THESE LISTS IS REALLY MISSING. HOWEVER, BECAUSE ARGENTINA HAS DONE SO LITTLE TO MAKE INFORMATION AVAILABLE WITH REGARD TO THESE LISTS, THE IMPRESSION IN THE U.S. IS THAT 13,000 TO 15,000 INDIVIDUALS HAVE DISAPPEARED.

6. MARTINEZ DE HOZ EXPLAINED THAT ARGENTINA HAD GONE THROUGH A PERIOD OF 8 OR 9 YEARS OF TERRORIST ACTIVITY AND THAT MANY PERSONS HAD DISAPPEARED OR WERE KILLED BECAUSE OF THE FIGHTING, PRIVATE VENDETTAS, AND LEAVING THE COUNTRY. HE ADDED THAT JUDGES PREVIOUSLY HAD BEEN FORCED TO RELEASE TERRORIST SUSPECTS FOR FEAR OF REPRISALS, BUT OVER THE PAST YEAR THEY HAD AGAIN BEGUN TO CONVICT PEOPLE THROUGH THE NORMAL LEGAL PROCESS. HE STATED THAT THE MOST IMPORTANT ADVANCE HAD BEEN THE REINTRODUCTION OF "DUE PROCESS OF LAW" WHEREBY DETAINEES EITHER ARE RELEASED, GIVEN THE OPTION TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY, OR TURNED OVER TO THE COURTS. FOR EXAMPLE, 72 PEOPLE HAD RECENTLY BEEN RELEASED BECAUSE THEY WERE ONLY MINOR SUSPECTS. HE ADDED THAT THERE WERE STILL MORE THAN 2,000 PERSONS UNDER DETENTION AND THEIR NAMES HAD ALL BEEN MADE PUBLIC. HE ALSO OBSERVED THAT THERE WILL ALWAYS BE A RESIDUE OF MISSING PERSONS, SOME OF WHOM WERE HIDING IN ARGENTINA OR ABROAD, ABOUT WHOM THE GOVERNMENT DOES NOT KNOW THEIR WHEREABOUTS.

7. SOLOMON INQUIRED WHEN THE BACKLOG OF DETAINED PERSONS MIGHT BE CLEANED UP. MARTINEZ DE HOZ RESPONDED THAT A FULL TIME COMMITTEE WAS WORKING ON THIS, BUT THAT SOME CASES WERE VERY DIFFICULT SUCH AS THOSE INDIVIDUALS WHO HAD BEEN CONVICTED OF TERRORIST ACTS BY THE REGULAR JUDICIAL PROCESS BUT RELEASED UNDER THE PERON AMNESTY. HE ALSO STATED THAT PROPAGANDA BY ARGENTINE TERRORISTS LIVING ABROAD WAS MAKING THE SITUATION MORE DIFFICULT. SOLOMON OBSERVED THAT THE BEST WAY TO ANSWER SUCH CRITICISM WAS TO MOVE AHEAD RAPIDLY ON AS MANY CASES AS POSSIBLE.

8. BILATERAL TAX TREATY. MARTINEZ DE HOZ INDICATED THAT

UNCLASSIFIED

Box 17404

HE HOPED THAT PROGRESS WOULD BE MADE ON CONCLUDING A DOUBLE TAXATION TREATY WITH THE U.S. LAREZZA STATED THAT AN AGREEMENT IN PRINCIPLE HAD BEEN REACHED AND THAT IT WAS BEING CIRCULATED FOR PUBLIC COMMENT IN THE U.S. BUSHNELL OBSERVED THAT THE NEXT MEETING ON THE TAX TREATY WOULD BE IN JULY AND HE HOPED THAT FURTHER PROGRESS WOULD BE MADE BY THAT TIME.

9. HIDE EXPORTS. SOLOMON INQUIRED ABOUT EXPORTS OF RAW HIDES FROM ARGENTINA. MARTINEZ DE HOZ REPLIED THAT ARGENTINA HAD MADE EVERY EFFORT TO OPEN ITS ECONOMY, REDUCE SUBSIDIES, LIFT IMPORT PROHIBITIONS, AND REACH AGREEMENT

IN THE GATT NEGOTIATIONS. HOWEVER, THE CASE OF HIDES WAS DIFFICULT BECAUSE BRAZIL AND URUGUAY WERE PURCHASING ARGENTINE HIDE EXPORTS, THEN FURTHER PROCESSING THEM FOR RE-EXPORT. SINCE BOTH OF THE COUNTRIES OFFER LARGE SUBSIDIES TO THEIR PRODUCERS, THIS REPRESENTED UNFAIR COMPETITION FOR ARGENTINE PRODUCERS OF THE PROCESSED PRODUCT. BUSHNELL NOTED THAT BRAZIL AND URUGUAY WERE REDUCING THEIR SUBSIDIES AND AS THEY DID SO THE PROBLEM FOR ARGENTINA SHOULD DISAPPEAR, AS IT WOULD IF BRAZIL AND URUGUAY ALLOWED THE EXPORT OF RAW HIDES. MARTINEZ DE HOZ AGREED.

10. DUNGAN MENTIONED THAT THE U.S. WOULD LIKE TO MOVE AHEAD RAPIDLY ON DEFINITION OF LOW INCOME GROUPS FOR IDB LENDING PURPOSES. MARTINEZ DE HOZ CONCURRED, BUT SAID THAT IT WOULD NOT BE POSSIBLE TO TAKE A COUNTRY BY COUNTRY APPROACH BASED ON PER CAPITA INCOME BUT RATHER IT SHOULD BE LOOKED AT IN TERMS OF ZONES AND REGIONS, SINCE 70 PERCENT OF THE POOR IN LATIN AMERICA LIVED IN BRAZIL, MEXICO, AND VENEZUELA. ALSO, ARGENTINA STILL HAD POCKETS OF POVERTY. HE FURTHER SSTATED THAT IT IS SOMETIMES DIFFICULT TO SEPARATE ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL PROJECTS BUT THAT EVERY EFFORT SHOULD BE MADE TO WORK OUT APPROPRIATE GUIDELINES ON THIS ISSUE. VANCE

CAN NOW BEGIN WILL BE JUNE 27, BUT THERE IS SPECULATION THAT OTHERS OF THE DEFENSE LAWYERS WILL ALSO REQUEST THE ONE-WEEK POSTPONEMENTS TO WHICH EACH IS ENTITLED. THUS, ACCORDING TO THE "MERCURIO" STORY, THE HEARING MAY NOT BEGIN UNTIL NEAR THE MIDDLE OF JULY.

3. "MERCURIO" (AND SISTER PAPER "ULTIMAS NOTICIAS") GAVE

PROMINENT COVERAGE TO "CLARIFICATIONS" MADE BB USG PROSECUTORS PROPPER AND BARCELLA IN WASHINGTON AND THE EMBASSY HERE REGARDING ERRORS IN AN "O GLOBO" STORY WHICH APPEARED IN RIO JUNE 17. IN THE RIO STORY, THE USG OFFICIALS WERE QUOTED AS STATING FOR A FACT THAT CONTRERAS ORDERED PLACING THE BOMB WHICH EXPLODED LAST FALL AT THE HOUSE OF SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT BORQUEZ, THAT "THE REGIME IMPOSED BY GENERAL PINOCHET VIOLATES INTERNATIONAL STANDARDS FOR CIVILIZED BEHAVIOR," AND THAT "NOT EVEN MINIMUM RESPECT FOR HUMAN RIGHTS EXISTS IN CHILE." THE RESPECTIVE CLARIFICATIONS STRESSED THAT NEITHER PROSECUTOR SPOKE PORTUGUESE AND WERE MISUNDERSTOOD OR MISQUOTED. "MERCURIO'S" JUNE 21 EDITORIAL WELCOMED THE CLARIFICATIONS BUT WENT ON TO POINT OUT THAT SINCE CHILE WAS HARDLY A MAJOR ISSUE FOR SENIOR U.S. POLICYMAKERS, "SECONDARY OFFICIALS" WERE HANDLING THE SITUATION WITH A LESS THAN DEFT TOUCH. "MERCURIO" ASSERTED THAT CHILE WAS WILLING THE SUPPORT AND RECOGNITION OF THE U.S. BUSINESS COMMUNITY; THAT THE AFL-CIO BOYCOTT THREAT HAD FADED INTO THE BACKGROUND; AND THAT TOP OFFICIALS WERE TIED UP OVER NNICARAGUA. THUS, THE REMAINING PROBLEM IN U.S.-CHILE RELATIONS WAS THE LETELIER CASE, AND IT WAS BEING HANDLED BY JUSTICE DEPARTMENT PROSECUTORS WHO "ARE YOUNG, HAVE A POLITICAL CAREER AHEAD OF THEM, AND HAVE ATTITUDES NOT SUPPORTED BY THE BROADER CONSIDERATIONS OF DIPLOMACY NOR OF JURISPRUDENCE."

4. "COSAS" BIWEEKLY CONTAINS AN INTERVIEW WITH MIRANDA CARRINGTON IN WHICH CONTRERAS' LAWYER REITERATES THAT HE DID NOT PARTICIPATE IN HIS CLIENT'S REQUEST THAT THE JUNTA IMPEACH THE THREE CABINET MEMBERS. HE ASSERTS, HOWEVER, THAT BOTH HE AND CONTRERAS ARE ONE HUNDRED PERCENT SUPPORTIVE OF PINOCHET. REPEATING PREVIOUS CLAIMS, MIRANDA SAYS THAT DINA NEVER VIOLATED THE LAW, THAT IT NEVER EMPLOYED TOWNLEY, AND THAT USG EVIDENCE IS WORTHLESS. HE SAYS TOWNLEY HAS NO PERSONAL DISLIKE OF CONTRERAS, THAT HE WAS FOLLOWING ORDERS OF SOME FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SERVICE WHEN HE KILLED LETELIER. MIRANDA VENTS HIS SPLEEN ON A FAVORITE TARGET: FBI SPECIAL AGENT SCHERRER, "A BIG LIAR, A DR. JEKYLL AND MR HYDE."

5. AFTERNOON NEWSPAPER "LA SEGUNDA" SOMEHOW GOT WIND THAT SCHERRER WENT TO BUENOS AIRES FOLLOWING THE RIO DE JANIERO MEETING WITH ETCHEBERRY. THE JUNE 21 EDITION CARRIES A TELEPHONE INTERVIEW WITH SCHERRER IN BUENOS AIRES IN WHICH THE LATTER EXPLAINS THAT HE IS SIMPLY FILLING IN TEMPORARILY FOR THE LEGAL ATTACHE ON LEAVE

IN THE UNITED STATES AND THAT HIS VISIT HAS NOTHING TO DO WITH THE REPORTED REOPENING OF THE PRATS' MURDERS BY ARGENTINE AUTHORITIES.

The following is a description of 12 certifications all signed by Acting Legal Attache Robert W. Scherrer at Buenos Aires on June 22, 1979 and which were attached to a June 19, 1979 letter to General Mena from Scherrer.

The certifications are not numbered but are described in the order in which they appear, all are copies.

Spanish language translation of statement given by Officer Charles F. Kuchovich on September 22, 1979; it is further marked as Government Exhibit 3, PD 119 12/73

Spanish translation of statement by Michael Townley, 42 pages and further marked as Government Exhibit No. 41.

Document dated June 5, 1978 in memorandum form, from Propper and Bracella to General Hector Orozco, titled Letelier/Moffitt Murder Investigation. The memo states that there are copies attached, i.e. autopsy report and crime scene reports, but they are NOT. There is only a Spanish translation attached to the English.

Spanish translation of statement dated September 21, 1976 given by Det. Walter I. Johnson, DC Police. It is further marked as Government Exhibit No. 2.

Spanish translation of document dated September 21, 1976 given by Michael P. Moffitt. It is further marked as Government Exhibit No. 1 Spanish translation of autopy report dated September 21, 1976 for Orlando Letelier by Washington D.C. Coroner. The first page is numbered 11 and continues through page 20 -- page 21 is a Supplement of testimony by Dr. Luke.

DATE: June 25, 1979

FROM : DCM - Charles W. Grover

SUBJECT: FACT SHEET ON THE USG EXTRADITION CASE

The murder of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt, the United States Government case against those accused of participating in their assassination, and claims made by those defending the three Chilean officers whose extradition we seek have produced an indigestible volume of stories and commentary. The enclosed paper summarizes the evidence on which the USG case is built and describes the principal points made by the defense. It does not address the legal issues per se.

I think the paper will give your American staff a good background on the facts of the case and help them field questions on the subject. All the information comes from what are legally public documents -- the entire extradition file is technically public, although access has been closely controlled by the Chilean Courts. While you and your American staffs are free to draw on the information in the paper in casual conversations it should not be cited, quoted, or circulated outside the official USG community.

1. [redacted] ENTIRE TEXT)

2. SUMMARY: GENERAL DENIAL ENTERED BY GENERAL VIOLA ON JACOBO TIMERMAN'S REPORTED IMMINENT RELEASE. HE LABELED RECENT NEWSPAPER STORIES AS TOTALLY INACCURATE. VIOLA AGAIN PROMISED HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS WOULD BE REDUCED SUBSTNATIALLY. HE ALSO PREDICTED GREAT MOVEMENT IN RIGHT OF OOPTION CASES. VIOLA EXPRESSED GREAT CONFIDENCE IAHRC WOULD FIND IMPRESSIVE IMPROVEMENTS IN HUMAN RIGHTS FIELD, BUT OFFERED NO HOPE FOR "DESAPARECIDOS." HE EXPRESSED DEEP CONCERN ABOUT NICARAGUA STRESSING GOA'S WILLINGNESS TO COOPERATE WITH USG IN ITS OBJECTIVES. VIOLA FELT AN OAS MILITARY PEACE FORCE PROBABLY NEEDED BUT NOT ACCEPTABLE TO LA COUNTRIES. END SUMMARY

VIOLA SINCE ABOUT MIDDLE OF APRIL. HE MET ME WITH THE TRADITIONAL "ABRAZO" AND INQUIRED ABOUT HOW THINGS STOOD

IN WASHINGTON, DC. HE EXUDED FRIENDLINESS BUT YET SHOWED CONCERN ABOUT RECENT WAVE OF NEGATIVE NEWSPAPER ARTICLES ON ARGENTINA APPEARING IN CONUS.

4. NEWSPAPER ARTICLES: VIOLA WAS SPECIFIC IN HIS DISDAIN FOR NEW YORK TIMES SERIES WRITTEN BY MR OAKS AND ENSUING EDITORIAL. HE TERMED WASHINGTON POST EDITORIAL CONTEMPTIBLE AND IRRESPONSIBLE. HE HOPED DEPARTMENT WOULDN'T ACCEPT VERACITY OF ARTICLES "IN TOTO", RECOGNIZING SOME MERIT TO PORTIONS OF REPORTING. I MADE IT CLEAR TO VIOLA AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS ARE INDEPENDENT AND ATTRIBUTION SHOULD NOT BE TO EMBASSY OR DEPARTMENT. HE ACKNOWLEDGED TOTAL INDEPENDENCE OF NEWS MEDIA AND STATED NO LINKAGE OR ATTRIBUTION SHOULD BE MADE TO USG. VIOLA'S CONCERN WAS THAT DUE TO IMPORTANCE OF NEW YORK TIMES AND WASHINGTON POST, DEPARTMENT MIGHT CAVE IN ASSUME AN ARBITRARY AND CAPRICIOUS POSTURE TOWARDS GOA. I ALLAYED VIOLA'S FEARS BY TELLING HIM DEPARTMENT AND USG TOOK AN OBJECTIVE AND JUDICIOUS VIEW ON ARGENTINA. I REMINDED VIOLA THE STRAIN IN RELATIONS IS DUE TO HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, BUT USG WELCOMED IMPROVEMENTS. I EMPHASIZED "BALL NOW IN THEIR COURT"ND IMPROVED RELATIONS WERE CONTIGENT ON MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS. HE ACCEPTED THIS AS A FACT.

5. IAHRC VISIT: VIOLA REMINDED ME IAHRC WOULD BE VISITING ARGENTINA STARTING SEPTEMBER 6. HE STATED THIS DATE WAS CHOSEN BY IAHRC AND NOT BY GOA, WHO HAVE BEEN ANTICIPATING ITS VISIT SINCE LATE MAY. VIOLA STATED PRISON CONDITIONS HAVE IMPROVED TREMENDOUSLY AND RELEASES WILL OCCUR IN LARGE NUMBERS. HE SAID ALL [redacted]

OF GOA IS BEING GEARED FOR IAHRC VISIT RESULTING IN VIRTUALLY NO DISAPPEARANCES, NO TORTURE AND NO IRREGULAR ARRESTS. I REMINDED HIM OF SIX DISAPPEARED STUDENTS AS OF A FEW WEEKS AGO. HE AGREED THIS WAS A BLACK MARK IN THEIR RECORD, BUT DESPITE ALL INVESTIGATORY EFFORTS NO INFORMATION EXISTED ON THIS BIZARRE OPERATION.

5. DESAPARECIDOS: VIOLA STATED IN 1978 THERE WAS AN AVERAGE OF ABOUT FIFTY "DESAPARECIDOS". AT THIS POINT HE LOOKED AT HE WITH DIABOLICAL GRIN -- FROM EAR TO EAR -- JOINING HIS GREY MUSTACHE WITH HIS SIDEBURSNS, AS IF THOUGH HE HAD ONE ON ME AND SAID: "I TAKE YOUR FIGURES OF FIFTY PER MONTH LAST YEAR. LOOK AT THE RECORD THIS YEAR. IT'S ONLY SEVENTEEN DISAPPEARED IN SIX MONTHS." I INTERRUPTED HIM STATING OUR FIGURES INDICATED TWENTY-TWO DISAPPEARANCES. HE SAID "EVEN SO, YOU MUST ADMIT THERE IS A MAJOR IMPROVEMENT." I ACKNOWLEGED THE IMPROVEMENT BUT TOLD HIM HE WOULD NOT GET MUCH SOLACE FROM USG UNTIL THE FIGURE WAS ZERO. HIS REPLY WAS THAT THEY WERE GETTING THERE AND WAS CONFIDENT BY TIME IAHRC ARRIVED GOA WOULD REACH THE ZERO STATUS. VIOLA MADE IT CLEAR TO ME THE "DESPARECIDOS" WOULD NOT RETURN. I INQUIRED ABOUT HIS STATEMENT. HE REPEATED IN HIS OPINION THE DISAPPEARED WOULD NOT BE SURFACING. AGAIN, I ASKED ON WHAT HE BASED HIS OPINION. VIOLA'S REPLY WAS THAT GOA LACKED INFORMATION ON THE DISAPPEARED AND IN VIEW OF THE EXTENDED PERIODS OF DISAPPEARANCE HE DOUBTED ANY OF THESE PEOPLE WERE ALIVE. HE SAID THERE MIGHT BE A FEW CASES SURFACING - THOSE UNACCOUNTED FOR IN PRISON DUE TO ERROR -- BUT THESE WERE RARE EXCEPTIONS. VIOLA STATED GOA WOULD PROBABLY HAVE SOME STATEMENT ON DISAPPEARED WHEN IAHRC ARRIVED. HE SAID IT WOULD BE A STATEMENT WITHOUT SPECIFICS, BUT HOPEFULLY WOULD BE PALATABLE TO SOCIETY.

7. RIGHT OF OPTION: I TOLD VIOLA THE RIGHT OF OPTION [redacted]

PROGRAM HAD BEEN A FIASCO UP TO NOW. HE WAS REMINDED GOA -- THROUGH ITS APPROPRIATE AGENCIES -- HAD NOT GIVEN EMBASSY REASONABLE COOPERATION, BUT TO CONTRARY HAD RAISED ALL KINDS OF BARRIERS. AMAZINGLY ENOUGH, HE AGREED WITH MY STATEMENT, BUT RETORTED RIGHT OF-OPTION CASES WOULD BE MOVING FAST FROM NOW ON. HE SAID THESE CASES WERE HIGH ON THE AGENDA.

8. TIMERMAN CASE: RECENTLY "CONVICCION", NAVY ORIENTED NEWSPAPER, AND THE BUENOS AIRES HERALD, ENGLISH-AMERICAN NEWSPAPER, FRONT-PAGED TIMERMAN'S IMMINENT RELEASE.I TOLD VIOLA USG HOPED THESE PREDICTIONS WERE ACCURATE. HE DENIED ANY TRUTH TO THE REPORTS. HE SAID TIMERMAN WAS NO CLOSER NOW THAN HE WAS SIX MONTHS AGO TO BEING RELEASED. VIOLA AGAIN EXCULPATED HIMSELF BY STATING IF IT WERE LEFT UP TO HIM TIMERMAN WOULD HAVE BEEN RELEASED A LONG TIME AGO. IN A JESTING FASHION, I SUGGESTED TO VIOLA THAT AS ARMY COMMANDER AND PRESIDENT OF THE JUNTA HE WAS IN A UNIQUE POSITION OF AUTHORITY TO LEAD THE WAY. HE SMILED AND REPLIED HIS OBSTACLES WERE WELL KNOWN TO ME. IT WAS THEN I INQUIRED IF IT WOULD BE PROPER TO DISCUSS THE TIMERMAN CASE WITH GENERAL SUAREZ MASON, CHIEF OF STAFF AND TIMERMAN'S NEMESIS. I EXPECTED A MINOR EXPLOSION ON THIS SUGGESTION FOR AS LONG AS I HAVE DEALT WITH VIOLA HE HAS NEVER ADMITTED SUAREZ MASON TO BE ONE OF HIS PROBLEMS. MUCH TO THE CONTRARY, VIOLA LOWERED HIS VOICE AND TOLD ME HE STRONGLY RECOMMENDED I DISCUSS THE TIMERMAN CASE WITH SUAREZ MASON. I TOLD VIOLA THAT RECENTLY SUAREZ MASON HAD INVITED HIMSELF TO MY RESIDENCE FOR AN "ASADO" - "GAUCHO BARBECUE". IT WAS SUGGESTED BY VIOLA THAT DURING THIS BARBECUE I DISCUSS THE TIMERMAN CASE. VIOLA INDICATED EVEN THOUGH TIMERMAN'S RELEASE IS NOT IMMINENT, THERE

IS STILL SOME HOPE.

9. SARAGOVI CASE: I REMINDED VIOLA OF RENEWED AND CONTINUED CONGRESSIONAL INTEREST ON THE HORACIO SARAGOVI CASE. HE APPEARED NOT TO BE FAMILIAR WITH THE CASE. I TOLD HIM THE CASE WAS DIRECTLY IN HIS LAP AS IT WAS A MILITARY TRIBUNAL CASE. THE CASE WAS UP FOR REVIEW BY HIM. HE TOOK NOTES AND PROMISED TO LOOK INTO THE MATTER.

10. SOCCER GAME: LAST NIGHT ARGENTINA, WORLD CHAMPIONS,

PLAYED AGAINST A TEAM, COMPRISED OF OUTSTANDING PLAYERS FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD. ARGENTINA LOST 2 TO 1 WITH A FULL STADIUM OF OVER 75,000 PEOPLE. I ATTENDED THE GAME. I WAS PREPARED TO SIT WITH THE REST OF THE "COMMON HERD" BUT AS I WALKED INTO THE STADIUM AN UNKNOWN GENTLEMAN SPOTTED ME AND TOLD ME I WAS TO SIT IN THE "PALCO DE HONOR" (VIP BOX). I TOLD THIS PERSON MY TICKETS WERE NOT THE VIP AND I WAS PERFECTLY CONTENT TO SIT AT MY DESIGNATED PLACE. THIS GENTELMAN WAS QUITE STERN IN TELLING ME I BELONGED IN THE PRESIDENT'S BOX. I WAS THE ONLY AMBASSADOR IN THAT SPECIFIC AREA. THERE WERE SEVERAL AMBASSADORS IN ATTENDANCE, BUT I WAS THEONLY ONE PERMITTED TO SIT NEAR THE PRESIDENT AND THE JUNTA. I THOUGHT THIS WAS AN UNUSUAL TWIST CONSIDERING SOMEWHAT STRAINED RELATIONS DUE TO NEGATIVE NEWSPAPER STORIES FROM USA.

11. COMMENT: THROUGHOUT THE MEETING VIOLA KEP TELLING ME HIS PURPOSE IN WANTING TO SEE ME WAS TO DISCUSS NICARAGUA. WE DID DISCUSS NICARAGUA, BUT I FELT IT WAS ONLY AN EXCUSE TO DISCUSS MULTIPLE OTHER MATTERS. HE SAID GOA WAS FULLY IN AGREEMENT WITH USG ON NICARAGUAN POLICY, BUT FEARED SENDING A MILITARY PEACE FORCE WOULD NOT BE ACCEPTABLE TO LA COUNTRIES. HIS REASONING
[redacted]

WAS MOST OF LA COUNTRIES HAVE INTERNAL PROBLEMS AND EACH COUNTRY FEARED A PRECEDENT WOULD BE ESTABLISHED IN SENDING MILITARY UNITS TO SETTLE BASIC DOMESTIC PROBLEMS. VIOLA SAID THE NICARAGUAN PROBLEM WAS NOW BEYOND DIALOGUE AND NECESSITATED CURTAILING THE INFILTRATION OF MATERIAL AND TROOPS THROUGH PANAMA AND COSTA RICA. VIOLA RATIONALIZED THIS COULD ONLY BE DONE WITH A MILITARY PEACE FORCE, BUT THE ARGENTINE PUBLIC WOULD NEVER BUY IT. IT APPEARED TO ME HE WAS GROPING OR HOPING FOR ME TO GIVE HIM SOME JUSTIFICATION FOR SENDING A PEACE FORCE TO NICARAGUA, WHICH WOULD INCLUDE ARGENTINA.

12. ADMIRAL MASSERA: STRANGELY ENOUGH AS I WAS LEAVING VIOLA' OFFICE I RAN INTO ADMIRAL MASSERA, WHO WAS COMING TO REPORT TO VIOLA ON HIS RECENT TRIP TO MEXICO. MASSERA WAS COMPLETELY SURPRISED TO SEE ME AS I WAS TO SEE HIM. THE ONLY ONE NOT SURPRISED WAS VIOLA AND I FELT HE HAD PLANNED IT THAT MASSERA AND I WOULD MEET. IT APPEARED VIOLA WANTED MASSERA TO KNOW I HAD BEEN WITH HIM. IT'S JUST THE CASE OF THE OLD "ARGENTINE INTRIGUE" JUST AS SUAREZ MASON WANTED VIOLA TO KNOW THAT I WAS HAVING AN "ASADO" WITH HIM.

1. JUST BEFORE ORAL ARGUMENTS WERE TO HAVE BEGUN IN THE APPEAL OF THE BORQUEZ DECISION ON EXTRADITION, LAWYER SERGIO MIRANDA CARRINGTON REQUESTED A FURTHER ONE WEEK POSTPONEMENT ON BEHALF OF HIS TWO CLIENTS, MANUEL CONTRERAS AND PODRO ESPINOZA. THIS MEANS THAT THE ORAL ARGUMENT CAN NOW NOT BEGIN UNTIL JULY 4 AT THE EARLIEST. RATHER THAN THE SECOND CHAMBER OF THE SUPREME COURT WHICH HAD RESPONSIBILITY FOR JUNE APPEALS, THE CASE WILL NOW BE HEARD BY THE FIRST CHAMBER. MIRANDA DID NOT GIVE ANY REASON FOR REQUESTING THE NEW POSTPONEMENT.

2. WE HAVE RECEIVED COPIES OF ARTICLES THAT WERE TO APPEAR IN THIS WEEK'S ISSUE OF "HOY" MAGAZINE. THE [redacted]

[redacted]

MAGAZINE WAS SUSPENDED FOR TWO MONTHS JUNE 22, OSTENSIBLY BECAUSE IT HAD PUBLISHED INTERVIEWS WITH TWO LEADING

UNCLASSIFIED

CHILEAN MARXISTS IN EXILE. MORE BASICALLY, AS A MINISTRY OF INTERIOR STATEMENT MADE CLEAR, THE GOVERNMENT THINKS "HOY" HAS ENGAGED IN A SYSTEMATIC STRATEGY OF UNDERMINING ITS AUTHORITY. ONE OF THE TWO COVER STORIES FOR THIS WEEK WOULD HAVE BEEN "THE INTERNATIONAL TRAVELS OF TOWNLEY: THE PRATS AND LEIGHTON CASES." THE STORY, APPARENTLY BASED IN LARGE PART ON INVESTIGATIVE REPORTING BY US NEWSMAN JOHN DINGES, IS A FAIRLY DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE VARIOUS PIECES OF EVIDENCE AND INFORMATION THAT PLACE TOWNLEY IN BUENOS AIRES JUST PRIOR TO THE MURDER OF GENERAL PRATS AND HIS WIFE IN 1974 AND IN ROME SHORTLY BEFORE THE ATTEMPT ON BERNARDO LEIGHTON AND HIS WIFE IN 1975. IT INCLUDES SPECULATION THAT FERNANDEZ LARIOS WAS INVOLVED WITH TOWNLEY IN THE PRATS AFFAIRS AND IT SAYS THAT IN ARGENTINA TOWNLEY WORKED WITH CIVILIANS LINKED TO THE NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE SERVICE (SIDE) AND IN ITALY WITH FASCIST TERRORIST GROUPS. (COMMENT: THE OTHER LEAD STORY IN "HOY" THIS WEEK WAS TO HAVE BEEN THE REPORT THAT JUDGE BANADOS WROTE TO THE MILITARY COURT WHEN HE SURRENDERED JURISDICTION OVER THE ONQUEN MASSACRE INVESTIATION. WITHOUT SAYING SO EXPLICITLY, IT POINTS AN ACCUSING FINGER AT THE LOCAL CARABINERO DETACHMENT.)

3. "LA SEGUNDA" OF JUNE 26 REPEATED FOR THE THIRD TIME A STORY ABOUT A $2,500 CHECK TOWNLEY BOUNCED OFF A PLASTIC SURGEON NAMED ZARHI IN OCTOBER, 1978. A PHOTOSTAT OF THE ALLEGED SOUTHEAST FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF MIAMI BEARS AN OCTOBER 4 DATE (SIX MONTHS AFTER TOWNLEY'S EXTRADITION) AND THE SIGNATURE OF "ANDRES WILSON."ONE OF TOWNLEY'S CHILEAN ALIASES. ZARHI, CONTACTED BY "SEGUNDA," REFUSED COMMENT EXCEPT TO ACKNOWLEDGE THAT HE HAD TURNED THE CHECK [redacted]

OVER TO HIS LAWYERS FOR COLLECTION AFTER THE MIAMI BANK REFUSED PAYMENT BECAUSE THE ACCOUNT HAD BEEN CLOSED. THE NEWSPAPER ASSERTS THAT FBI AGENTS HAVE QUESTIONED ZARHI ABOUT THE CHECK AND THAT THE CIA IS INTERESTED ALSO. THE DEFENSE APPARENTLY HOPES TO USE THE EXISTENCE OF VARIOUS "ANDRES WILSON" BANK ACCOUNTS (SUPPOSEDLY AT LEAST FIVE AREKNOWN) TO BOLSTER ITS CLAIM THAT TOWNLEY WAS A DOUBLE AGENT -- EMPLOYED BY CIA AS WELL AS BY DINA.

SUBJ: (U) HUMAN RIGHTS SUMMARY - JUNE 28, 1979

REF: BUENOS AIRES 5055

1. (U) INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: THE SIGNIFICANT NEWS OF THIS WEEK IS THAT NUMBERS OF PEN PRISONERS ARE BEING RELEASED BUT, FOR REASONS WE DO NOT YET KNOW, THESE RELEASES ARE NOT BEING PUBLISHED AS BEFORE. IN A SEPARATE TELEGRAM WE DESCRIBE REPORTS OF 112 RELEASES OR PROSPECTIVE RELEASES WITHIN THE PAST WEEK OR TEN DAYS. THIS DOES HOWEVER PLAY HOB WITH PEN STATISTICS THE EMBASSY MAINTAINED BY ADDING TO AND SUBSTRACTING FROM LISTS WE HELD BASING THESE ENTRIES ON OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS. ALREADY THERE WAS DISCREPANCY OF SOME 350 BETWEEN OUR ESTIMATES

AND AN OFFHAND ESTIMATE GIVEN EMBOFF BY COL. SAN ROMAN OF THE INTERIOR MINISTRY--SAN ROMAN'S FIGURES WERE LOWER, INDICATING THAT SIGNIFICANT UNRECORDED RELEASES MAY HAVE TAKEN PLACE BEFORE THEY COMMENCED COMING TO OUR ATTENTION. EMBOFFS ARE SEEKING INTERVIEWS NEXT WEEK TO COME UP WITH ANNEX PEN FIGURE.

2. (U) ALSO REPORTED SEPARATELY (BUENOS AIRES 5223) WERE 13 NAMES OF PERSONS RECENTLY GRANTED RIGHT OF OPTION FOR THE UNITED STATES. THESE ARE IN ADDITION TO SIX PERSONS WHO BY ARGENTINE COUNT ALSO RECEIVED OPTION TO SETTLE IN THE UNITED STATES. (THREE WERE BY ARGENTINE COUNT AND OURS "OPTIONED", WHILE ONE-[ ]WAS AN IMMIGRANT PREFERENCE CASE UNDER OUR COUNT AND TWO-[ ]-ARE UNITED STATES CITIZENS.) B3 N A B3 N A

3. [redacted] THE FINAL PARAGRAPH OF THIS MESSAGE RECAPITULATES THE NUMBER OF DISAPPEARED REPORTED TO THE EMBASSY THUS FAR THIS CALENDAR YEAR. IT STANDS NOW AT 25, WITH SOME RECORDINGS ADMITTEDLY DUBIOUS. GENERAL VIOLA, IN A RECENT CONVERSATION WITH THE AMBASSADOR SPOKE OF 17 DISAPPEARANCES. END INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY.

4. (U) JUDGE DELVING INTO DISAPPEARANCE OF SZNAIDER ET AL -----
THE BUENOS AIRES HERALD REPORTED IN A FRONT PAGE STORY ON JUNE 27 THAT FEDERAL JUDGE LEON C. ARSALANIAN ON MAY 31 CALLED WITNESSES IN THE DISAPPEARANCE CASE OF JORGE V. SZNAIDER AND FIVE COMPANIONS (SEE BUENOS AIRES 4082). MRS. SZNAIDER HAD PREVIOUSLY FILED A HABEAS CORPUS PETITION BEFORE JUDGE BONIFATI ON MAY 15, WHICH WAS REJECTED THREE DAYS LATER. GATHERING FURTHER INFORMATION ON THE ABDUCTION,
[redacted]

[redacted]

MRS. SZNAIDER FILED ANOTHER HABEAS CORPUS WRIT ON MAY 31. THE WITNESSES CALLED WERE THE PORTERO IN THE BUILDING FROM WHERE THE SIX WERE ABDUCTED, POLICE OFFICERS, THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD AND MRS. SZNAIDER. MRS. SZNAIDER IS QUOTED AS SAYING THAT THE SIX HAD FORMED A WRITERS' WORKSHOP, AND THE WRITING THAT THEY HAD DONE WAS TAKEN WHEN THEY WERE KIDNAPPED. HOWEVER, SHE AND HER HUSBAND HAD GONE THROUGH THEIR SON'S WORK AT HOME AND WERE SATISFIED THAT HIS WORK WAS COMPLETELY NONPOLITICAL.

5. (U) JUDGE SEEKING INFORMATION ON US INTEREST CASE -----
ON JUNE 25 CRONICA CARRIED AN ANNOUNCEMENT THAT JUDGE CARLOS

OLIVERI IS INVESTIGATION AN ACCUSATION OF ILLEGAL DEPRIVATION OF LIBERTY IN THE CASE OF EDUARDO MIGUEL O'NEIL(L) (EMBASSY CASE NO. 94/77/9) WHO DISAPPEARED AFTER HAVING BEEN KIDNAPPED. THE ANNOUNCEMENT DID NOT GIVE ANY DATES, HOWEVER EMBASSY FILES REVEAL THAT DR. O'NEILL WAS ABDUCTED ON 9/9/77 BY A GROUP OF ARMED MEN. DR. O'NEILL IS AN INTEREST CASE BY CONGRESSMAN ROSENTHAL, SEN. MOYNIHAN, AND THE CANCER CONGRESS. EMBASSY PREVIOUSLY MADE TWO REQUESTS TO THE FOREIGN OFFICE WORKING GROUP ON 11/10/77 AND 3/10/78, TO WHICH NEGATIVE REPLIES WERE RECEIVED.

6. (U) INTEREST GROUP FORMED TO LOOK INTO DISAPPEARANCES OF WRITERS AND JOURNALISTS -----
THE BUENOS AIRES HERALD ON JUNE 26 REPORTED THAT A SPECIAL COMMITTEE HAS BEEN FORMED BY RELATIVES OF MISSING JOURNALISTS. THEY HAVE COMPILED A LIST OF 63 PERSONS WHO HAVE DISAPPEARED SINCE THE 1976 MILITARY COUP AND WHO WORKED AS WRITERS OR AS JOURNALISTS. THE HERALD, WHICH PRINTED THE LIST, REPORTED THAT THE GROUP WAS ALSO TRYING TO HAVE IT PUBLISHED IN A LOCAL SPANISH DAILY "ALONG WITH AN APPEAL TO PUBLIC OPINION TO JOIN THEM IN THEIR 'SEARCH FOR TRUTH AND JUSTICE.'" THE GROUP ALSO REPORTED THAT OVER 400 JOURNALISTS HAVE LEFT THE COUNTRY SINCE THE 1976 TAKEOVER. EMBASSY FILES CONTAIN ALL BUT THREE OF THE PERSONS

DIRECTIONS. MONS. MIGUEL MEDINA, BISHOP OF TUCUMAN, ANSWERED A MESSAGE FROM A HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATION--PRESUMARLY AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL--STATING THAT "IN MY COUNTRY THERE ARE NO OFFICIAL KIDNAPPINGS." HE ALSO INDICATED THAT THE GOVERNMENT MUST NOT BE BLAMED FOR

ALL THE DISAPPEARANCES. ON THE OTHER HAND, RAUL CARDINAL PRIMATESTA, BISHOP OF CORDOBA, IN EFFECT WARNED THE GOVERNMENT ABOUT THE RISK OF "CONFUSING NATIONAL SECURITY WITH THE SECURITY OF THE STATE." THESE STATEMENTS WERE GIVEN WIDE PUBLICITY, BUT NO ATTEMPT AT ELABORATION WAS MADE.

10. (U) MORE PRE-JUNTA CRIMINALS SENTENCES -----
THE ARGENTINE PRESS REPORTS THAT
(A) ON JUNE 22, ERNESTO FERNANDO VILLANUEVA, A 34 YEAR OLD ARGENTINE SOCIOLOGIST, WAS SENTENCED TO 5 YEARS IN PRISON AND LOSS OF CIVIL RIGHTS ON CHARGES OF POSSESSION OF ARMS, MUNITIONS, EXPLOSIVES, AND FALSE IDENTITY PAPERS. MR. VILLANUEVA WAS ARRESTED IN MARCH OF 1975.
(B) RETIRED COL. MARIANO CARTAGO SMITH WAS FOUND GUILTY AND SENTENCED TO SEVEN YEARS IN PRISON FOR MASTERMINDING THE 1975 KIDNAPPING OF AN ARGENTINE BUSINESSMAN. IN ADDITION, ACCOMPLICES RAMON MARCELINO RODRIGUEZ AND FELIPE EDUARDO ACA WERE SENTENCED TO SEVEN YEARS EACH, JOSE MARIA VIERA AND CLAUDIO PATRICIO VARELA TO FIVE AND A HALF YEARS EACH, AND MARIA DE LAS MERCEDES MORALES DE RIVERO TO FIVE YEARS IN PRISON.
(C) TWO "TERRORISTS" WERE SENTENCED TO SIX YEARS AND THREE AND A HALF YEARS EACH IN PRISON IN PARANA. MARIA DEL CARMEN OVALLE DETAINED IN SANTA FE IN 1975, AND HER NEPHEW, ANGEL EDGARDO DIAZ, ALSO DETAINED IN 1975 WERE FOUND GUILTY OF POSSESSION OF SUBVERSIVE LITERATURE. MS. OVALLE WAS GIVEN A MAXIMUM SENTENCE FOR BEING

RESIDENT IN A HOUSE (ALTHOUGH ABSENT AT THE TIME) WHERE THE SECURITY FORCES SEARCHED AND FOUND THE LITERATURE. HER NEPHEW WAS SENTENCED TO A LESSER SENTENCE FOR BEING RESIDENT AND CARETAKER OF THE HOUSE AT THE TIME OF THE SECURITY FORCE SWEEP. MR. DIAZ HAS BEEN SET FREE, HIS PREVIOUS TIME SERVED TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT. IN THE SAME CASE, THE JUDGE IS SEEKING THE EXTRADITION OF LAWYER JOSE LEONARDO ACOSTA, PRESENTLY RESIDENT IN MEXICO, ON CHARGES OF HAVING KNOWLEDGE OF THIS CASE. (NOTE: ACOSTA'S NAME FIGURES ON A LIST SUBMITTED BY THE NEW YORK CITY BAR ASSOCIATION AS A DETAINEE HERE IN ARGENTINA.)

11. (U) CHARGES AGAINST POLICE -----
(A) PRESS REPORTS STATE THAT TWO POLICE OFFICERS SERVING AS WARDENS OF WOMEN PRISONERS IN SANTA FE PROVINCE ARE

BEING HELD FOR ARRAIGNMENT BECAUSE OF A COMPLAINT BY A WOMAN PRISONER, 7LEMA CARMEN MARTINEZ, WHO WAS MISTREATED BY THE TWO WHILE BEING TRANSFERRED TO A HOSPITAL BECAUSE OF ILLNESS. THE TWO OFFICER, ONE A CHAUFFEUR, TOOK A CIRCUITOUS ROUTE TO THE HOSPITAL AND ARE CHARGED WITH MISTREATMENT OF MS. MARTINEZ ENROUTE.
(B) ON JUNE 27 LA NACION REPORTED THAT A POLICE OFFICER, LUIS MARCOS MINCOFF, WAS SENTENCED TO THREE YEARS IN PRISON IN CORDOBA FOR AN AUGUST 1978 INCIDENT WHERE HE BROKE INTO AND ENTERED A RESIDENCE, MADE THREATS, THREATENED BODILY HARM, ILLEGALLY DEPRIVED A PERSON OF HIS LIBERTY AND WOUNDED THE PERSON. MINCOFF BROKE INTO THE RESIDENCE OF MRS. NIEVES PAREDES DE MONTIEL LOOKING FOR HIER SON, JUAN RAMON; LATER LOCATING THE YOUTH, HE HIT HIM AND THREATENED HIM, AND AT ONE POINT PULLED THE TRIGGER OF HIS REVOLVER, BUT THE GUN DIDN'T FIRE. MONCOFF WAS TRYING TO LOCATE TWO PERSONS WHO CONTRIBUTED TO THE CONVICTION OF A POLICE EMPLOYEE THROUGH JUAN RAMON.

12. (U) BOMB EXPLODES IN SANTA FE PROVINCE -----
[redacted]

THE BUENOS AIRES PRESS REPORTED THAT ON JUNE 27 A BOMB EXPLODED UNDER THE CAR OF A JUDGE IN ROSARIO, SANTA FE PROVINCE, WHO WAS INVOLVED IN INVESTIGATING THE CASE OF SEVERAL ROSARIO POLICEMEN WHO WERE ACCUSED OF BEATING A GROUP OF PRISONERS. THE CAR WAS PARKED IN FRONT OF THE JUDGE'S HOUSE AT THE TIME OF THE INCIDENT.

13. (U) NORMA KENNEDY TRIED AND RELEASED -----
THE ARGENTINE PRESS REPORTS THAT NORMA KENNEDY, A FORMER PERONIST HEAD OF A SECTION OF A MINISTRY OF SOCIAL WELFARE ("MESAS DE TRABAJO PERONISTAS"--A SORT OF STOREFRONT STATE EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY AGENCY), WAS SENTENCED TO TWO YEARS IN PRISON AND PERPETUAL LOSS OF CIVIL RIGHTS ON CHARGES OF MISUSE OF FUNDS. 15. (U) TELEVISION INTERFERENCE IN SANTA FE ----- LA PRENSA REPORTED THAT ON SATURDAY THE 23RD, AT 10:30 PM SANTA FE'S CHANNEL 13'S TRANSMISSION WAS INTERRUPTED

FOR 8 MINUTES. THE INTERRUPTING TRANSMISSION CONSISTE OF A "SUBVERSIVE PROCLAMATION" AND THE PLAYING OF THE PERONIST MARCH. LATER THAT EVENING AT MIDNIGHT A CAR PASSED THE THIRD SECTION POLICE STATION AT A HIGH VELOCITY. THE POLICE GAVE CHASE, BUT THE CAR DISAPPEARED.

16. [redacted] 1979 DISAPPEARANCES: RECAPITULATION -- INAMBASSADOR'S CABLE REPORTING HIS JUNE 25 CONVERSATION WITH GENERAL VIOLA (BUENOS AIRES 5172) THE GENERAL ASSERTED THAT THUS FAR IN 1979 HE KNEW OF ONLY 17 REPORTED DISAPPEARANCES. DISCOUNTING A SMALL NUMBER OF PERSONS WHO WERE APPARENTLY PICKED UP BY POLICE OR OTHER SECUTITY FORCES, INTERROGATED WHILE HELD INCOMMUNICADO, AND THEN WERE SURFACED UNDER PEN OR RELEASED, THE EMBASSY HAS NOW REPORTS OF 25 DISAPPEARANCES DURING 1979, 19 OR 20 OF WHICH CAN BE REGARDED AS FAIRLY CREDIBLY DOCUMENTED. HERE WAS THE PATTERN:
A. JANUARY. THE JANUARY LIST INCLUDES 9 PERSONS ABDUCTED IN MAR DEL PLATA AND STILL NOT SURFACED. (NOTE: IN AN EARLIER CONVERSATION VIOLA ADMITTED TO KNOWING OF 6 MAR DEL PLATA ABDUCTIONS. WE CANNOT EXPLAIN THIS DIFFERENCE EXCEPT TO SUGGEST THE GENERAL HAD NOT BEEN FULLY BRIEFED OR THAT 3 PEOPLE ON OUR LIST MAY HAVE ABSENTED THEMSELVES WHEN NEWS OF THEIR PST COMPANIONS' ABDUCTIONS REACHED THEM.) ALL WERE REPORTEDLY MEMBERS OF PARTIDO DE TRABAJADORES SOCIALISTAS. THEY WERE:

PRADO, ANGEL ALBERTO
RODRIGUEZ, MARIO GERMAN
ROMOLI, ANA MARIA
SASSO, MARIO
SCHIPANNI DE SASSO, NORMAN
SCIUCA DE RUIZ, PALMIRA
IN ADDITION THE DISAPPEARANCE OF PERONIST BUSINESSMAN ANTONIO HECTOR ABRALES WAS WIDELY PUBLISHED HERE BECAUSE OF HIS PROMINENCE IN BUSINESS AND EARLIER TIES WITH THE PERONIST PARTY. HORACIO AGUILERA'S DISAPPEARANCE WAS ONLY RECENTLY REPORTED IN A LIST

PUBLISHED BY THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS AND WE HAVE NO FURTHER DETAILS. WE HAVE COUNTED IN THE DISAPPEARED CATEGORY ALSO OSCAR OYARZUN MANZO, A CHILEAN CITIZEN WHO APPARENTLY WAS ABDUCTED ON JANUARY 26 AND WAS FOUND DEAD ON JANUARY 31, IN CIRCUMSTANCES WHICH CAUSED THE (COMMUNIST LINKED)
"LEAGUE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS" TO PROTEST THE DISAPPEARANCE
AS A HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATION.
THRRSONS WERE APPARENTLY ABDUCTED AND THEN SURFACED; LUSI ALBERTO BARALDI AND GUILLERMO
PREZ APPEARED UNDER PEN IN EARLY FBRUARY IN LA PLATA PRISON; JOURNALIST JORGE FONTVECCHIA SURFACED AND REFUSED TO DISCUSS HIS WHEREABOUTS DURING THE SEVERAL DAYS HE WAS MISSING. TOTAL: 12
B. FEBRUARY. ONE REPORTED DISAPPEARANCE,THAT OF PARAGUAYAN CITIZEN MARIO RAMIREZ, TURNED OUT TO BE AN ARR T FOR SUBVERSION (SEE BUENOS AIRES 2444).
C. MARCH. DURING MARCH THREE PERSONS WERE REPORTED DISAPPEARED IN TIGRE (EDY BARRIONUEVO, JOSE SOSA AND JORGE ALBERTO STESSER). ALL TURNED UP LOCALLY ARRESTED ON MARCH 29, 1979. THE DISAPPEARANCE OF ROBERTO BARREIROS AND HIS WIFE MARIA ROSA CONTINUES TO BE A MYSTERY EVEN THOUGH THE COUPLE HAS REPORTEDLY

SUBJ: LABOR LAW: GOC OUTLINES LABOR PLAN LEGISLATION DUE THIS WEEK

REFS: (A) SANTIAGO 4023, (B) SANTIAGO 4401

1. SUMMARY: OVER NATIONAL TV NET, LABOR MINISTER JOSE PINERA OUTLINED THE NEW LABOR PLAN TO BE PUBLISHED SOME TIME THIS WEEK. THE LEGISLATION CONTAINS PROVISIONS FOR TRADE UNION ORGANIZATION, ELECTIONS, AND AFFILIATION AND FOR COLLECTIVE BARGAINING BEGINNING AUGUST 16. THE NEW LEGISLATION WILL PERMIT MULTIPLE UNIONS TO BE CONSTITUTED WITHIN EACH PLACE OF WORK BY A MINIMUM OF TWENTY-FIVE WORKERS. STRIKES WILL BE LIMITED TO A MAXIMUM OF SIXTY DAYS, AFTER WHICH TIME STRIKERS NOTT ACCEPTING THE EMPLOYER'S CONTRACT OFFER MUST QUIT. EMPLOYERS ARE OBLIGED TO OFFER A CONTRACT CONTAINING FULL COST-OF-LIVING INCREASES. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING IS ONLY FOR INCREASES TO THIS MINIMUM POSITION. THE MINISTER ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT THE LABOR PLAN WOULD CONTAIN SOME PROVISIONS TO ENCOURAGE EMPLOYMENT OF OLDER PERSONS, TO STANDARDIZE REGULATIONS GOVERNING TRADE

UNIONS AND EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATIONS, AND TO RESTRICT THE MONOPOLY POWER OF BOTH LABOR AND BUSINESS. END SUMMARY

2. ON JULY 1, LABOR MINISTER JOSE PINERA ANNOUNCED THAT THE LABOR PLAN PROMISED ON JANUARY 2 HAD BEEN SIGNED BY THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT AND WOULD BE SENT TO THE COMPTROLLER GENERAL OF THE REPUBLIC ON JULY 2. THE COMPTROLLER IS EX-

PECTED TO PUBLISH THE NEW LAWS LATER THIS WEEK. WE WILL BE REPORTING AND ANALYZING THE NEW LEGISLATION AS IT COMES OUT. THE MAIN POINTS OF THE PINERA SPEECH, LISTED BELOW, DO NOT CONSTITUTE A COMPLETE OR SYSTEMATIC SUMMARY OF THE LABOR PLAN.

3. FREE ASSOCIATION:
--FULL FREEDOM FOR EACH WORKER TO JOIN OR NOT JOIN A TRADE UNION OF HIS CHOICE WITHIN HIS FIELD OF WORK.

--WORKERS MAY JOIN ONLY TRADE UNIONS ORGANIZED WITHIN THEIR PLACES OF EMPLOYMENT.

-- SEVERAL TRADE UNIONS MAY EXIST IN ANY PLACE OF WORK WITH A MINIMUM OF TWENTY-FIVE MEMBERS EACH, REPRESENTING AT LEAST 10 PERCENT OF THE WORK FORCE. IN BUSINESSES OR FARMS WITH LESS THAN TWENTY-FIVE PERSONS EMPLOYED, WORKERS MAY FORM TRADE UNIONS WITH AS FEW AS EIGHT MEMBERS.

--ONCE ORGANIZED, A TRADE UNION IS LEGALLY CONSTITUTED WITH THE SIMPLE DEPOSIT OF ITS CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAYS WITH THE LABOR INSPECTOR OF THE LABOR MINISTRY. THE INSPECTOR MAY NOTT REFUSE JURIDICAL IDENTITY (PERSONA JURIDICA). FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS EN[illegible] THE SAME PRIVILEGE. (THIS REPRESENTS AN EAS-ING OF PREVIOUS REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS.)

-- TRADE UNIONS ARE PERMITTED TO MANAGE THEIR OWN FUNDS WITHOUT GOVERNMENT INTERVENTION AND USE WHATEVER BANK THEY CONSIDER BEST TO DEPOSIT FUNDS. FORMERLY, A LABOR INSPECTOR HAD TO SIGN OFF ON ALMOST ALL DISBURSEMENTS AND ALL ORGANIZATIONS HAD TO MAINTAIN THEIR FUNDS IN THE BANCO DEL ESTADO.

4. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING:
-- THE FIRST ROUND OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WILL BEGIN ON AUGUST 16, 1979, AND END ON APRIL 17, 1980, ACCORDING TO A SCHEDULE TO BE PUBLISHED BY THE GOVERNMENT. TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY.

- COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WILL TAKE PLACE BY COMPANY AND NOTT BY AREA OF ACTIVITY, SECTOR OR PROVINCE. (THERE MAY BE EXCEPTIONS FOR MARITIME AND COPPER WORKERS).

-- EMPLOYERS ARE REQUIRED TO OFFER A CONTRACT CONTAIN-ING WAGE INCREASES TO THE FULL AMOUNT OF THE COST-OF-LIVING INCREASE (RATE OF INFLATION). BARGAINING WILL BE FOR INCREASES ABOVE THIS BASE.

-- COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WILL BE BETWEEN THE EMPLOYER AND ONE OR ALL OF THE TRADE UNIONS ORGANIZED WITHIN THE COMPANY JOINTLY OR SEPARATELY, AS AGREED UPON BETWEEN THE EMPLOYER AND THE UNIONS CONCERNED.

-- STRIKES ARE PROHIBITED FOR NATIONAL AND MUNICIPAL EMPLOYEES AND IN COMPANIES WHERE A STRKE WOULD CAUSE GRAVE DANGER TO THE HEALTH AND WELL-BEING OF THE POPULACE, TO THE ECONOMY, OR TO THE NATIONAL SECURITY. IN ORDER TO CLARIFY THE RESTRICTED APPLICATION OF THIS PROHIBITION, THE GOVERNMENT WILL ISSUE A LIST OF FIRMS IN WHICH THE STRIKE WEAPON IS

6. ELECTIONS:
-- ELECTIONS ARE PERMITTED IN TRADE UNIONS NINETY DAYS AFTER A CONTRACT IS SIGNED.

-- IN UNIONS HAVING AFFILIATES FROM MORE THAN ONE COMPANY (E.G., ACTORS, CHAUFFEURS, JUSICIANS, ETC.), ELECTIONS MAY BEGIN WITHIN NINETY DAYS OF THE PUBLICATION OF THIS LAW.

-- IN UNION WHICH ELECTED NEW LEADERS UNDER DL 2376 (IN OCTOBER, 1978), NEW ELECTIONS MAY BE HELD ONLY IF THE PRESENT UNION LEADERS ARE CENSURED. OTHERWISE, THESE LEADERS MAY COMPLETE THE FOUR YEAR TERM PRESCRIBED.

-- ALL OTHER UNION LEADERS MAY REMAIN IN THEIR PRESENT POSITIONS FOR ONE MORE YEAR WITHOUT ELECTIONS.

7. OTHER PROVISIONS:
-- THERE WILL BE PROVISIONS ENCOURAGING EMPLOYERS TO HIRE WORKERS OVER 55.

--THE LABOR PLAN WILL BE COMPLEMENTED BY REGULATIONS TO APPLY THE SAME CRITERIA TO EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATIONS AS TO RADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS.

-- PINERA PROMISED THAT ANTIMONOPOLY LEGISLATION, AFFECTING BUSINESS AS WELL AS LABOR, WILL BE APPLIED MORE STRICTLY.

8. COMMENT: CHILE'S TRADE UNIONISTS WILL PROBABLY FIND ACCEPTABLE THE PROVISIONS PROVIDING FOR LEGAL RECONGNITION

OF UNIONS, NO CONTROL OVER TRADE UNION FUNDS, AN EMPLOYER OBLIGATION TO OFFER A CONTRACT BASED UPON 100 PERCENT OF THE COST-OF-LIVING, AND FUTURE ELECTIONS. THEY AR LIKELY TO HAVE SERIOUS DIFFICULTIES, HOWEVER, WITH, THE PROVISIONS PROHIBITING FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS FROM ENGAGING IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING, RESTRICTING MONOPLISTIC PRACTICES LIMITING STRIKE EFFECTIVENESS BY ALLOWING EMPLOYERS TO FILL STRIKERS' JOBS DURING SIXTY DAY PERIOD AND ELIMINATING THE RIGHT TO AN EXCLUSIVE BARGAINING AGENT. SMALL BUSINESSMEN (TRUCK OWNERS AND SMALL FARMERS) APPEAR UPSET BY THE REFERENCE TO ANTIMONOPOLY PROVISIONS IN THE LAW AS THEY MAY RESTRICT THEIR FEDERATIONS' ABILITY TO SET FREIGHT CHARGES AND AGRICULTURAL PRICES. OTHER BUSINESSMEN HAVE EXPRESSED SOME UNHAPPINESS WITH THE PROVISIONS FOR FORMING UNIONS WITH AS FEW AS EIGHT WORKERS AND ARE CONCERNED THAT THE SIXTY DAY CUT-OFF FOR STRIKES WILL PROVE UNWORKABLE AND THEREFORE UNDESIRABLE.

DEMANDA (MODIFICADA) POR CONDUCTA CONSTITUTIVA DE DELITO CIVIL EN VIOLACION DEL DERECHO INTERNACIONAL: POR CONSPIRACION PARA PRIVAR DE DERECHOS CIVILES: POR CAUSAR MUERTE A ORTOS: POR AGRESION Y VIAS DE HECHO: SE SOLICITA UN JURADO

Los demandantes sostienen que:

1. Esta Corte tiene jurisdicción para conocer de esta demanda en virtud del Código 28 de los E.E.U.U. §§ 1330, 1331, 1332, 1343(1), 1343(2), 1350, 1602-11; Código 18 de los E.E.U.U. § 112 con respecto a la persona de Orlando Letelier, una persona amparada internacionalmente conforme se define en el Código 18 de los E.E.U.U. § 1116, Código 42 de los E.E.U.U. § 1985(3), y las doctrinas sobre jurisdicción accesoria. La cuantía de la causa excede la suma de diez mil dólares ($10,000.00), intereses y costas exclusive. Ninguno de los actos que se imputan supone el ejercicio de una función privativa de la República de Chile ni de ninguno de sus organismos o agencias.

2. La demandante Isabel Morel de Letelier demanda por sí y como viuda de su difunto marido, Orlando Letelier. Ella y Christian A. Letelier, José I. Letelier, Francisco J. Letelier, y Juan Pablo Letelier, estos cuatro últimos, hijos de Orlando Letelier, son nacionales de la República de Chile y no lo son de los Estados Unidos. El demandante Michael Maggio demanda como representante de Orlando Letelier. Michael Maggio es ciudadano de los Estados Unidos y del Distrito de Columbia. El demandante Michael Moffitt demanda por sí y como viudo y representante de su difunta cónyuge, Ronni Karpen Moffitt. Michael Moffitt es ciudadano de los Estados Unidos y del Estado de Maryland. Murray H. Karpen e Hilda Karpen, padres de Ronni Karpen Moffitt son ciudadanos de los Estados Unidos y del Estado de New Jersey.

3. En cuanto esta es una demanda por causar muerte a otros, son aplicables las disposiciones del Código 16 del Distrito de Columbia §§ 1701-02. En su calidad de representantes, los demandantes Isabel Morel de Letelier, Michael Maggio y Michael Moffitt entablan esta acción de acuerdo al Código 16 del Distrito de Columbia §§ 101, 1701-02. La eventual prescripción, si la hubiera, ha sido suspendida por el hecho de que los individuos demandados han estado fugados y por el hecho de que los demandados habían callado u ocultado la responsabilidad que les cabe en las muertes de Orlando Letelier y Ronni Karpen Moffitt sólo vino esa responsabilidad a establecerse cuando se reveló, en o alrededor de junio de 1978, el papel que los demandados habían jugado en los hechos en cuestión.

4. La República de Chile ("Chile") es un Estado extranjero. La Central Nacional de Informaciónes ("CNI") es una institución o agencia de un Estado extranjero, de acuerdo a como se define en el Código 28 de los E.E.U.U. § 1603(b). CNI era conocida anteriormente como Dirección de Inteligencia Nacional ("DINA"), también ésta una institución o agencia de un Estado extranjero según se define en el Código 28 de los E.E.U.U. § 1603(b). Los demandados Juan Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda, Pedro Espinoza Bravo y Armando Fernández Larios son o fueron en épocas pertinentes al caso, funcionarios y agentes de CNI y DINA, y son demandados personalmente y además en su calidad de tales funcionarios y agentes. El Estado de Chile, CNI y DINA, actuando a través de los individuos demandados llevaron a cabo y ejecutaron los actos ilegales que se exponen en esta demanda, incluyendo, aunque no exclusivamente, las acciones de ordenar, dirigir, obtener la participación y financiar las actividades de los individuos demandados. El Estado de Chie y el CNI no tienen fuero o inmunidad en esta causa, en razón de que la acción es de un tipo enumerado en el Código 28 de los E.E.U.U. § 1605(a)(5).

5. Los individuos demandados son ciudadanos de un Estado extranjero o bien de un Estado de los Estados Unidos que no es el Estado de Maryland, el Estado de New Jersey o el Distrito de Columbia.

PARA UNA PRIMERA DEMANDA

los demandados provocaron la muerte de Orlando Letelier y Ronni Karpen Moffitt, el 21 de Septiembre de 1976, en el Distrito de Columbia.

PARA UNA SEGUNDA DEMANDA

8. Se incorporan aquí los párrafos 2 a 6 de esta demanda los que pasan por esta referencia a ser parte de este punto.

9. Con fecha 21 de Septiembre de 1976, a alrededor de esa fecha, en el Distrito de Columbia, los demandados, en forma voluntaria, maliciosa, deliberada e intencional agredieron y recurrieron a vías de hecho contra Orlando Letelier y Ronni Karpen Moffitt, causándoles la muerte.

PARA UNA TERCERA DEMANDA

10. Se incorporan aquí los párrafos 2 a 6 de esta demanda los que pasan por esta referencia a ser parte de este punto.

11. A partir de o alrededor de agosto de 1976 y hasta el 21 de Septiembre de 1976 o alrededor de esa fecha, en el Distrito de Columbia y en otros lugares los demandados, negligente y temerariamente y con razones para creer que su conducta creaba un grave riesgo de muerte para Orlando Letelier, Ronni Karpen Moffitt otros, transportaron y acordaron transportar explosivos y colocarlos y detonarlos dentro del Distrito de Columbia, las consecuencias de cuyos actos resultaron en la muerte de Orlando Letelier y Ronni Karpen Moffitt.

13. A partir de o alrededor de 1975 y hasta el 21 de septiembre de 1976 inclusive, los demandados violaron las normas de derecho internacional incluyendo (aunque no exclusivamente) actos de tortura, privación ilegal de libertad y asesinato, con el fin de perpetuar el régimen militar de la República de Chile y para silenciar a sus opositores. Debido a la oposición que Orlando Letelier, embajador y ex-ministro de legítimo Gobierno de Chile, y sus asociados hacían contra las políticas del presente Gobierno de Chile, y debido a las actividades de Orlando Letelier y sus asociados, en ejercicio de sus derechos protegidos por el derecho internacional, para procurar y obtener acceso a organizaciones y agencias internacionales, personal y agencias diplomáticas, organismos gubernamentales y otras entidades reconocidas bajo el derecho internacional, para llevar adelante una campaña, ajustada a la ley, por la restauración de un gobierno democrático en la República de Chile, los demandados asesinaron y provocaron el asesinato de Orlando Letelier y Ronni Karpen Moffitt.

PARA UNA QUINTO DEMANDA

14. Se incorporan aquí los párrafos 2 a 6 de esta demanda los que pasan por esta referencia a ser parte de este punto.

15. Con fecha 21 de septiembre de 1976 o alrededor de esa fecha, y dentro del Distrito de Columbia, los demandados atacaron, agredieron, hirieron y usaron de violencia contra Orlando Letelier, una persona amparada internacionalmente, y condujeron un violento ataque contra su vehículo, y facilitaron, instigaron, urgieron, aconsejaron, promovieron y causaron dichos actos, resultando directamente de los cuales, como los demandados podían razonablemente prever y de hecho previeron, la muerte de Orlando Letelier y Ronni Karpen Moffitt.

16. A consecuencia de los actos ilegales expuestos en los párrafos 7 a 15, los demandantes han sufrido y continuarán sufriendo grave daño emocional, pérdida económica y perjuicios en un monto todavía no completamente determinado. Cuando dicho monto esté determinado, solicitaremos autorización para modificar esta demanda.

POR TANTO, los demandantes solicitan respetuosamente:

1. Una indemnización de perjuicios ascendiente a una suma que excede los diez mil dólares ($10,000.00) intereses y costas exclusive. El monto de los perjuicios no está aún completamente determinado. Cuando lo esté solicitaremos autorización para modificar esta demanda.

2. Una indemnización penal contra todos los demandados res que esten de acuerdo cos esos perjuicios en una cantidad que sera determinada.

3. El pago de honorarios de abogados y sus costas proccsales.

4. Toda otra justa reparación.

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR TORTIOUS CONDUCT IN VIOLATION OF LAW OF NATIONS; CONSPIRACY TO DEPRIVE OF CIVIL RIGHTS; WRONGFUL DEATH; ASSAULT AND BATTERY; JURY DEMAND

Plaintiffs allege:

1. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1330, 1331, 1332, 1343(1), 1343(2), 1350, 1602-11; 18 U.S.C. § 112 in respect of the person of Orlando Letelier, an internationally protected person as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 1116, 42 U.S.C. § 1985(3), and the pendent and ancillary jurisdiction doctrines. The amount in controversy exceeds the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), exclusive of interest and costs. None of the acts alleged involve the exercise of any discretionary function of the Republic of Chile or any of its agencies or instrumentalities.

2. Plaintiff Isabel Morel de Letelier sues individually and as widow of Orlando Letelier, deceased. She, Christian A. Letelier, Jose I. Letelier, Francisco J. Letelier, and Juan Pablo Letelier, the latter four being the sons of Orlando Letelier, are citizens of the Republic of Chile and are not citizens of the United States. Michael Maggio sues as personal representative of Orlando Letelier. He is a citizen of the United States and of the District of Columbia. Plaintiff Michael Moffitt sues individually and as widower and personal representative of Ronni Karpen Moffitt, deceased. He is a citizen of the United States and of the State of Maryland. Murray H. Karpen and Hilda Karpen, parents of Ronni Karpen Moffitt, are citizens of the United States and of the State of New Jersey.

3. To the extent that this is an action for wrongful death, the provisions of 16 D.C. Code §§ 1701-02 are applicable. In their representative capacities, plaintiffs Isabel Morel de

GAIR & HUTTON

Letelier, Michael Maggio and Michael Moffitt bring this action pursuant to 16 D.C. Code §§ 101, 1701-02. The statute of limitations, if any, is tolled by the individual defendants having been fugitives, and by the fact that responsibility of the defendants for the death of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Karpen Moffitt was concealed by defendants and not established until revelation of defendants' role in or about June 1978.

4. The Republic of Chile ("Chile") is a foreign state. The Central Nacional de Informaciones ("CNI") is an agency or instrumentality of a foreign state as defined in 28 U.S.C. § 1603(b). CNI was formerly known as the Direccion de Inteligencia Nacional ("DINA"), also an agency or instrumentality of a foreign state as defined in 28 U.S.C. § 1603(b). Defendants Juan Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, Pedro Espinoza Bravo and Armando Fernandez Larios are or were at relevant times officers and agents of CNI and DINA, and are sued individually and as such officers and agents. Chile, CNI and DINA, acting through the individual defendants, performed and caused the wrongful acts alleged in this complaint, including but not limited to commanding, directing, procuring and financing the activities of the individual defendants. Chile and CNI are not immune from suit herein, because the action is of a type enumerated in 28 U.S.C. § 1605(a)(5).

5. The individual named defendants are either citizens of a foreign state or of a state of the United States other than the States of Maryland, New Jersey or the District of Columbia.

6. With respect to each claim for relief set out below, all named defendants acted in concert with one another and with John Does One through Ten. Plaintiffs do not know the identity of John Does One through Ten, and when their identities are known, leave will be sought to add them as named defendants.

FOR A FIRST CLAIM

7. From in and about 1976 to and including the present, all defendants conspired and the individual defendants, or some of them, acting in concert with Chile and CNI went in disguise within States and Territories of the United States, including but not limited to the States of New York, New Jersey, and Florida, and the District of Columbia, for the purpose of depriving Orlando Letelier, Ronni Karpen Moffitt and other persons opposed to the lawless and inhumane actions of the government of the Republic of Chile and its agents of equal protection of the laws, and for the purpose of hindering the constituted authorities of the aforesaid States and District from giving and securing the equal protection of the laws. In furtherance of this unlawful combination and conspiracy, and to deprive Orlando Letelier and Ronni Karpen Moffitt of the rights and privileges of, among others, freedom of speech, press, association, and petition, the defendants caused the death of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Karpen Moffitt on September 21, 1976, in the District of Columbia.

FOR A SECOND CLAIM

8. Paragraphs 2-6 of this complaint are incorporated herein and by reference made a part hereof.

9. On or about September 21, 1976 in the District of Columbia, the defendants willfully, maliciously, deliberately and intentionally committed an assault and battery upon Orlando Letelier and Ronni Karpen Moffitt, which caused their deaths.

FOR A THIRD CLAIM

10. Paragraphs 2-6 of this complaint are incorporated herein and by this reference made a part hereof.

LAW OFFICES
ISAACS & DUFFOSE

UNCLASSIFIED

11. Beginning in or about August 1967 and continuing to on or about September 21, 1976, in the District of Columbia and elsewhere, defendants negligently, recklessly, and with reason to believe that their conduct created a grave risk of death to Orlando Letelier, Ronni Karpen Moffitt, and others, transported and agreed to transport explosives and to place and detonate said explosives within the District of Columbia, which acts resulted in the death of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Karpen Moffitt.

FOR A FOURTH CLAIM

12. Paragraphs 2-6 of this complaint are incorporated herein and by this reference made a part hereof.

13. Beginning in or about 1975 and continuing to and including September 21, 1976, defendants violated the norms of the law of nations, including but not limited to acts of torture, unlawful confinement and assassination to perpetuate the military regime of the Republic of Chile and to silence those opposed to its policies. For and because of the opposition of Orlando Letelier, an ambassador and former minister of the lawful government of the Republic of Chile, and his associates, to the policies of the present government of the Republic of Chile, and because of the activities of Orlando Letelier and his associates, among other exercises of rights protected by the law of nations, in seeking and obtaining access to international organizations and agencies, diplomatic personnel and agencies, governmental bodies and other entities recognized under the law of nations to carry on a lawful campaign for the restoration of democratic government in the Republic of Chile, the defendants assassinated and caused the assassination of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Karpen Moffitt.

UNCLASSIFIED

FOR A FIFTH CLAIM

14. Paragraphs 2-6 of this complaint are incorporated herein and by this reference made a part hereof.

15. On or about September 21, 1976, within the District of Columbia, the defendants assaulted, struck, wounded, and offered violence to Orlando Letelier, an internationally protected person, and made a violent attack upon his means of transportation, and aided, abetted, counselled, advised, procured and caused said acts, as a proximate result of which, as the defendants could reasonably have foreseen and did foresee, Orlando Letelier and Ronni Karpen Moffitt were killed.

16. Because of the wrongful acts alleged in paragraphs 7 through 15, the plaintiffs have suffered and will continue to suffer great emotional harm and financial loss and damage in an amount not yet completely determined, when said amount is determined leave will be sought to amend this complaint.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs pray:

1. For compensatory damages in an amount in excess of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) exclusive of interest and costs. The amount of plaintiffs' damages are not yet completely determined, when said amount is determined leave will be sought to amend this complaint.

2. For punitive damages against all defendants amenable to such damages in an amount to be determined.

3. For attorneys fees and their costs of suit.

4. For such other relief as may seem just.

My comments on RUBIN'S article and PROPPERSs draft answer:

1.- According to Chilean law, he who forces or directly induces another person to commit a crime, is considered a principal author thereof, on a level with the actual killer, and receives the same penalty. This rule applies also to whom, having conspired to commit a crime, facilitates the means by which it is carried out.

2.- Conspiracy is not an independent crime under Chilean law. But if the intended crime is committed (or even attempted) the previous conspiracy is considered as a part of the homicide itself. On the other hand, extradition is sought in this case not only on the charde of conspiracy, but on three different charges of homicide as well.

3.- The possibility of considering these offences as political ones was not even raised in the Bórquez's decision, and would be contrary to Chilean treaty law and judicial precedent.

4.- Several provisions in the Chilean law grant a lenient treatment to informers that help the police and the courts. Some do even exempt them from any penalty whatsoever.

5.- It is outrageous to say that the extradition of the three officers is sought on the charge of "some sort of complicity" in the murder. That "sort of complicity" is nothing less than having conceived the whole scheme, having planned its details, having actually ordered the murders had having provided every means to carry it out.

If it is necessary to quote Chilean legal provisions and court decisions:

Par. 2: Chilean Penal Code, arts. 8 and 15, nº 2º and 3º.

OTHER ADDITIONS: WORKERS CANNOT BE REQUIRED TO DROP UNION MEMBERSHIP AS A CONDITION FOR RETAINING THEIR JOBS; TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS ARE PROHIBITED FROM ENGAGING IN PARTISAN POLITICAL ACTIVITIES OR FROM HAVING PROFIT MAKING OBJECTIVES; THE STATE IS REQUIRED TO IDENTIFY IN ADVANCE THOSE ENTERPRISES IN WHICH STRIKES ARE ILLEGAL. 2. DECREE LAW 2755 OF JULY 5 IS ONE OF SIX LAWS MAKING UP THE GOC'S LABOR PLAN (OTHER BEING REPORTED BY SEPTELS). ITS PURPOSE IS TO GIVE SOME ELEMENTS OF THE LABOR PLAN A CONSTITUTIONAL BASIS. OSTENSIBLY DL 2755 REPLACES ARTICLE 1 PARAGRAPHS 20 AND 22 OF CONSITUTIONAL ACT 3 OF SEPTEMBER 11, 1976. THOSE PROVISIONS HAD BEEN

SOMEWHAT FURTHER AMENDED IN THE DRAFT OF A NEW CONSITUTION NOW BEING REVIEWED BY THE COUNCIL OF STATE. ALTHOUGH TECNICALLY THERE CAN BE FURTEHR CHANGES BEFORE THE NEW CONSITUTION IS SUBMITTED TO A PLEBISCITE FOR APPROVAL, THE PRESENT INTENT IS TO INCORPORATE DL 2755 INTO THE FINAL DOCUMENT.

3. THE CONSTITUTION OF 1925, AS AMENDED THROUGH 1971, DEVOTED FIVE SHORT PARAGRAPHS TO LABOR RIGHTS. EVERY INDIVIDUAL HAD THE RIGHT TO A FREE CHOICE OF EMPLOYMENT AND TO AN INCOME THAT WOULD PROVIDE A DECENT LIVING AND A JUST PARTICIPATION IN THE PRODUCT OF HIS LABOR. WORKERS HAD THE RIGHT TO FORM UNIONS AND TO STRIKE. UNIONS, FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS COULD OBTAIN JURIDICAL IDENTITY SIMPLY BY REGISTERING THEIR STATUTES IN THE MANNER PRESCRIBED BY LAW. UNIONS WERE FREE TO CARRY OUT THEIR OWN OBJECTIVES. NO TYPE OF WORK OR ACTIVITY COULD BE PROHIBITED UNLESS IT WAS CONTRARY TO PUBLIC MORES, PUBLIC SECURITY OR HEALTH OR THE NATIONAL INTEREST, AND A SPECIFIC LAW SO DECLARED.

4. CONSTITUTIONAL ACT 3 ADDED A PROVISION THAT NO ONE COULD BE REQUIRED TO BELONG TO A UNION AS A CONDITION FOR HOLDING A GIVEN JOB (UNDER PRE-1973 LABOR LAW, BLUE COLLAR UNIONS ONCEL LEGALLY RECOGNIZED WERE OBLIGATORY FOR ALL WAGE EARNERS IN AN ENTERPRISE). THE COMPANY

("EMPRESA") WAS RECOGNIZED AS THE BASIC UNIT OF PRODUCTIVE HUMAN ACTIVITY. NEW OR GIVEN CONSTITUTIONAL STATUS FOR THE FIRST TIME WERE: PROVISIONS FOR DISPUTE SETTLEMENT BY CONCILIATION AND COMPULSORY ARBITRATION: A CLAUSE DENYING THE RIGHT TO STRIKE TO STATE AND MUNICIPAL WORKERS AS WELL AS THOSE WORKING IN PUBLIC UTILITIES OR WHERE THE HALTING OF WORK COULD CAUSE GRAVE DAMAGE TO HEALTH, PUBLIC SUPPLY OF NECESSARY COMMODITIES, THE ECONOMY OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY; A STIPULATION THAT TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS MUST BE AUTONOMOUS AND SELF-FINANCED; AS SPECIFIED IN LAW AND WHEN REQUIRING UNIVERSITY EDUCATION, MEMBERSHIP IN PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS IS OBLIGATORY.

5. DL 2755 FUTHER AMENDS THE LABOR PROVISIONS OF CONSTITUTIONAL ACT IN THE FOLLOWING RESPECTS:
-- THERE IS AN EXPLICIT STATEMENT THAT ALL LABOR LAWS APPLY EQUALLY TO ALL CHILEAN WORKERS.

NOTE BY OC/T: NOT PASSED AFL-CIO.

-- THE PROVISION SAYING UNION MEMBERSHIP IS NOT A REQUIREMENT FOR HOLDING ANY JOB IS NOW BALANCED BY A CLAUSE SAYING THAT NO WORKER CAN BE REQUIRED TO ABANDON UNION MEMBERSHIP AS A CONDITION FOR RETAINING HIS JOB.

-- COLLECTIVE BARGAINING IS GIVEN CONSTITUTIONAL STAUTS FOR THE FIRST TIME; IT IS DESCRIBED AS A RIGHT OF THOSE WORKERS WHO ARE EXPRESSLY GRANTED AUTHORIZATION BY LAW TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY; THE LAW WILL ALSO SPECIFY THOSE AREAS ("CASOS") IN WHICH FAILURE TO REACH AGREEMENT IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING MUST BE FOLLOWED BY COMPULSORY ARBITRATION.

-- THE FORMULA PROSCRIBING STRIKES BY SOME WORKERS AND IN SOME CIRCUMSTANCES REMAINS AS PREVIOUSLY, BUT THERE IS NOW A REQUIRMENT THAT THE LAWS SPECIFY THOSE COMPANIES WHOSE WORKERS CANNOT AVAIL THEMSELVES OF THE STRIKE WEAPON.

- THERE IS AN EXPLICIT PROHIBITION AGAINST TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS GETTING INVOLVED IN PARTISAN POLITICAL ACTIVITES (WHILE NOT IN CONSTITUTIONAL ACT 3, THIS IDEA WAS ADDED TO THE CONSTITUTIONAL DRAFT NOW BEFORE THE COUNCIL OF STATE).

MENT THAT UNIONS MUST BE AUTONOMOUS AND SELF-FINANCED, TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS ARE NOW PROSCRIBED FROM HAVING PROFIT MAKING ACTIVITIES OR OBJECTIVES.

6. COMMENT: MANY OF THE IDEAS NOW GIVEN CONSTITUTIONAL STATUS WERE PREVIOUSLY INCLUDED IN LABOR LEGISLATION: FOR EXAMPLE, THE RIGHT TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY AND PROHIBITIONS AGAINST THE USE OF STRIKES BY SOME CATEGORIES OF WORKERS. THE ONLY ONES WHICH DID NOT EVEN HAVE LEGISLATIVE STATUS PRIOR TO THE NEW LABOR LAWS ARE THOSE REMOVING UNION MEMBERSHIP AS A REQUIREMENT FOR HOLDING ANY JOB, PROSCRIBING PROFIT MAKING OBJECTIVES FOR TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS AND PROBHITING THEM FROM POLITICAL ACTIVITIES. THE CLAUSE APPLYING LABOR LEGISLATION TO ALL WORKERS WAS MOTIVATED BY THE FACT THAT COPPER WORKERS SINCE 1971 HAVE BEEN UNDER A SEPARATE LAW WITH CONSTITUTIONAL STATUS. THE STATUS IS NOW REVOKED AND THE COPPER WORKER'S ORGANIZATIONS HAVE ONE YEAR IN WHICH TO COMPLY WITH THE RELEVANT PORTIONS OF THE NEW LABOR LEGISLATION.

REF: BUENOS AIRES 3496

1. (U) SIX LABOR LEADERS JAILED SINCE APRIL 27 FOR CALLING A STRIKE WERE RELEASED FROM PREVENTIVE ARREST ON JULY 7 BY AN ARGENTINE APPEALS COURT. CITING "INSUFFICIENT EVIDENCE" UNDER APPLICABLE LAW NO 21,400, THE COURT REVOKED THE PREVENTIVE ARREST ORDERS AGAINST ROBERTO GARCIA (TAXIS), ROBERTO DIGAN (TOBACCO WORKERS), RAUL RAVITTI (RAILWAY WORKERS), ENRIQUE MICO (GARMENT WORKERS), DEMETRIO LORENZO (FOOD WORKERS), AND JOSE LUIS CASTILLO (BOAT MECHANICS). THE COURT ORDERED THAT THE INVESTIGETION INTO POSSIBLE ILLEGAL ACTIVITIES COMMITTED BY THE SIX BE CONTINUED. THE SIX WERE THE ONLY ONES TURNED OVER FOR TRIAL AND THE LAST SIX TO BE RELEASED OF THE 30 LABOR LEADERS DETAINED IN LATE APRIL FOR THE STRIKE CALL.

2. (U) LABOR LEADER JORGE ALBERTO TRIACA, WHO REPRESENTED ARGENTINE LABOR UNIONS AT THE ILO MEETING IN GENEVA LAST MONTH, REFUTE OFFICIAL CRITICISM OF HIS DECLARATIONS MADE IN GENEVA, CLAIMING THAT HIS STATEMENTS REFLECTED THE SENTIMENTS OF THE ARGENTINE LABOR MOVEMENT. TRIACA, WHO AT THE ILO ACCUSED GOA OF COMMITTING "ECONOMIC SUBVERSION" THROUGH ITS ECONOMIC POLICIES, WAS PUBLICLY CRITICIZED BY LABOR MINISTRY UNDERSECRETARY AMERICO DAHER AND BY ECONOMY MINISTER MARTINEZ DE HOZ FOLLOWING HIS REMARKS IN GENEVA. TRIACA DEFENDED HIMSELF AS ACCURATELY REPRESENTING WORKERS' COMPLAINTS, UPON HIS ARRIVAL IN BUENOS AIRES O JULY 6 FROM A TRIP WITH OTHER UNION LEADERS TO GENEVA AND THE US. REPORTED SEPARATELY IN THE NEWS WERE REMARKS FROM PETROLEUM WORKERS UNION LEADER ANTONIO CASSIA ON JULY 6 CRITICIZING TRIACA FOR AIRING PROBLEMS IN AN INTERNATIONAL FORUM THAT SHOULD BE RESOLVED WITHIN ARGENTINA.

3. COMMENT: DESPITE DISAPPROVAL BY SOME OFFICIALS OF TRIACA'S STATMENT, HIS REMARKS IN GENEVA ARE COMMONLY BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN PREVIOUSLY CLEARED BY MEMBERS OF THE GOVERNMENT INCLUDING GENERAL VIOLA HIMSELF. GOVERNMENT LABOR OFFICIALS APPARENTLY REMAIN ON GOOD TERMS WITH TRIACA, HAVING INTERVENE AT HIS

URGING LAST WEEKEND TO OBTAIN A VISA TO THE US FOR A SOND OF ABDALA BALUCH, WHO COLLAPSED IN THE US AND DIED ON JULY 9 EN ROUTE HOME FROM GENEVA. END COMMENT.

4. (U) ALSO RELEASED WAS HECTOR HUGO CEBALLOS, WHO WAS HELD IN PARANA, ENTRE RIOS PROVINCE, FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE PARIL 27 STRIKE CALL.

SUBJECT: GOC PUBLISHES A NEW COLLECTIVE BARGAINING LAW

REFS: (A) SANTIAGO 4736, (B) SANTIAGO 4694, (C) SANTIAGO 4576

1. SUMMARY: THE GOC PUBLISHED JULY 6 A NEW LAW (DL 2758) REGULATING LABOR CONFLICTS. THIS LAW IS ONE OF SIX LAWS OF THE GOVERNMENT LABOR PLAN. THE NEW LAW DEFINES A CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHT OF CERTAIN SECTORS TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY; STES UP STRICT PROCEDURES, NROMS, AND DEADLINES FOR EXERCISING THIS RIGHT; DRAWS UP A LIST OF UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES; PROVIDES FOR LIMITED STRIKES AND LOCK-OUTS, INCLUDING A NINETY DAY COOLING-OFF PERIOD IF A POTENTIAL STRIKE WILL DAMAGE NATIONAL SECURITY; AND, SETS UP A SYSTEM OF ARBITRATION COVERING ALL ASPECTS OF CONTRACT NEGOTIATION AND SETTLEMENT. STATE-OWNED COMPANIES, FARMS, AND PRIVATE ENTERPRISES ARE COVERED BY THIS LAW. END SUMMARY.

2. DECREE LAW 2758 PUBLISHED JULY 6, DEALS WITH THE RIGHT OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING, MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURES, STRIKES AND LOCK-OUTS, AND UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES FOR BOTH EMPLOYERS AND WORKERS. AS SUCH IT REPLACES TITLE II, BOOK IV OF THE PRE-JUNTA

LABOR CODE.

3. GENERAL PROVISIONS: PROHIBITED FROM COLLECTIVE BARGAINING ARE ADMINISTRATIVE EMPLOYEES OF THE STATE, THOS EMPLOYED BY THE JUDICIARY OR THE LEGISLATIVE BRANCHES, AND THOSE IN PUBLIC OR PRIVATE INSTITUTIONS WHOSE BUDGETS DURING THE PREVIOUS TWO

YEARS HAVE BEEN FINANCED MORE THAN 50 PERCENT OUT OF GOVERNMENT FUNDS (E.G., UNIVERSITIES). IN ADDITION, THE LAW EXCLUDES FROM THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PROCESS APPRENTICES, TEMPORARY WORKERS, SUPERVISORS AND MANAGERS.THE RIGHT TO STRIKE IS DENIED TO WORKERS IN PUBLIC UTILITIES OR IN INETERPRISES WHOE PARALYZATION WOULD CAUSE GRAVE DAMAGE TO THE HEALTH OR BASIC SUPPLIES OF THE POPULACE, TO THE ECONOMY OF THE COUNTRY, OR TO THE NATIONAL SECURITY. THIS RESTRICTION IS QUALIFIED BY THE STIPULATION THAT ANY SUCH ENTERPRISE MUST REPRESENT A"SIGNIFICANT SHARE" OF THE RESPECTIVE ACTIVITY, AND THE ENTERPRISES IN WHICH STRIKES WILL NOT BE LEGAL MUST BE LISTED EACH JULY BY THE GOVERNMENT. FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS ARE SPECIFICALLY EXCLUDED FROM ENGAGING IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AND THERE CAN BE NO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING IN A NEW ENTERPRISE FOR AT LEASE ONE YEAR. THE FOLLOWING METTERS ARE NOT SUBJECT TO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING:

-- THOSE WHICH MODIFY INALIENABLE RIGHTS OF THE WORKERS AS ESTABLISHED BY LAW;

-- MATTERS EXTERNAL TO THE OPERATION OF THE ENTERPRISE;

-- THOSE WHICH RESTRICT THE ABILITY OF THE MPLOYER TO ORGANIZE, DIRECT AND ADMINISTER THE ENTERPRISE;

-- THOSE WHICH COULD RESTRICT THE USE OF THE WORK FORCE OR OTHER INPUTS, SUCH AS LIMITATIONS ON THE HIRING OF NON-UNION WORKERS OR APPRENTICES, MATTERS RELATING TO THE SIZE OF THE WORK TEAM, THE SPEED OF PRODUCTION, THE PROMOTION SYSTEM AND THE USE OF MACHINERY;

-- THOSE WHICH RELATE TO THE PAY AND CONDITIONS OF WORK FOR PERSONS NOT BELONGING TO THE UNION OR NEGOTIATING GROUP;
UNCLASSIFIED

-- THOSE WHICH IMPLY AN OBLIGATION ON THE PART OF THE EMPLOYER TO PAY WORKERS DURING A STRIKE;

-- THOSE WHICH DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY PROVIDE FINANCING TO UNION OR WORKER ORGANIZATIONS;

-- THOSE WHICH REFER TO THE DREATION OF UNION-CONTROLLED FUNDS OR SIMILAR ENTITIES FINANCED TOTALLY OR IN PART BY THE EMPLOYER (HOWEVER, CONTRIBUTIONS TO ENTITIES ALREADY ESTABLISHED AND LEGALLY RECOGNIZED CAN FORM PART OF NEGOTIATIONS).
THESE PROHIBITIONS ARE MUCH MORE SPECIFIC THAN ANYTHING EXISTING PREVIOUSLY IN CHILEAN LABOR LAW.

4. NEGOTIATIONS LEADING TO A COLLECTIVE CONTRACT: THE ONLY STIPULATION

PREEVIOUSLY REGARDING TIMING FOR COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WAS THAT WORKERS SHOULD PRESENT THEIR PROPOSAL WHEN AN EXISTING CONTRACT EXPIRED. UNDER DL 2758, WORKERS, WITH AN EXISTING COLLECTIVE CONTRACT MUST PRESENT THIER NEW PROPOSAL WITHIN 45 AND 40 DAYS BEFORE ITS EXPIRATION IN A LARGE PLANT, AND 30 AND 25 DAYS BEFORE-HAND IN A SMALL PLANT. WORKERS NOT UNDER COLLECTIVE CONTRACTS

CAN PRESENT A PROPOSAL AT ANY TIME; HOWEVER, THE EMPLOYERS HAVE A RIGHT TO EXCLUDE BY PRIOR NOTIFICATION ANY PERIOD UP TO SIXTY DAYS DURING THE YEAR IF HE SO DESIRES. FOR THE FIRST ROUND OF NEW COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WORKERS MUST PRESENT THEIR PROPOSALS ACCORDING TO A TIMETABLE SET FORTH IN THE TRANSITORY ARTICLES TO DL 2758, THE INTENT OF WHICH IS TO SPACE OUT CONTRACT NEGOTIATIONS OVER THE PERIOD BEGINNING 16 AUGUST, 1979 AND ENDING 17 APRIL 1980.

5. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PROPOSALS CAN BE PRESENTED BY UNIONS OR GROUPS OF WORKERS REPRESENTING AT LEST TEN PERCENT OF THE WORK FORCE (AT LEAST 25 WORKERS) OR MORE THAN 50 PERCENT OF THE WORK FORCE (WITH A MINIMUM OF EIGHT WORKERS), OR BY AT LEAST 250 WORKERS REGARDLESS OF PERCENTAGE OF TOTAL WORK FORCE (SEE PARAGRAPH 5 OF SANTIAGO 4694).

WHEN AN EMPLOYER RECEIVES A COLLECTIVE CONTRACT PROPOSAL, HE MUST NOTIFY ALL OTHER WORKERS IN THE ENTERPRISE OF THE FACT. OTHER EMPLOYEES HAVE 30 DAYS IN WHICH TO PRESENT SIMILAR OR SEPARATE BARGAINING POSITIONS. COLLECTIVE CONTRACT PROPOSALS MUST INCLUDE AT A MINIMUM THE NAMES OF THE PERSONS TO BE COVERED, THE SPECIFIC CLAUSES TO BE INCLUDED IN THE CONTRACT, THE DURATION OF THE CONTRACT AND THE NAMES OF NEGOTIATING COMMISSION FOR THE WORKERS. WHEREAS PREVIOUSLY, COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WAS DONE BY THE ELECTED DIRECTORS OF A UNION, (AS WILL BE DONE IN THE UPCOMING BARGAINING IN UNIONS WHICH PARTICIPATED IN LAST YEAR'S SNAP ELECTIONS), UNDER DL 2758, WORKERS MUST ELECT BY SECRET BALLOT A COMMISSION SPECIFICALLY FOR THIS PURPOSE. THE SIZE OF THE COMMISSIO
N
VARIES FROM THREE TO SEVEN DEPENDINGON THE TOAL NUMBER OF WORKERS REPRESENTED. EACH WORKER HAS THE RIGHT TO TWO, THREE OR FOUR VOTES

DEPENDING ON THE SIZE OF THE NEGOTIATING COMMISSION. BOTH THE NEGOTIATING COMMISSION AND THE EMPLOYER CAN CALL UPON A MAXIMUM OF THREE OUTSIDE EXPERTS TO ASSIST IN THE NEGOTIATIONS.

6. AN EMPLOYER IS REQUIRED TO REPLY IN WRITING TO THE UNION OR GROUP PRESENTING A COLLECTIVE CONTRACT PROPOSAL (PREVIOUSLY THERE WAS NO SUCH REQUIREMENT AND EMPLOYERS COULD SIMPLY REJECT PROPOSALS

OUT OF HAND). IN HIS REPLY, THE EMPLOYER MUST ADDRESS EACH SPECIFIC POINT RAISED. THE NORMAL TERM FOR REPLY IS TEN DAYS BUT THIS CAN BE EXTENDED BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT. THE RESPONSE OF THE EMPLOYER CANNOT PROPOSE A REDUCTION IN THE TOAL VALUE OF WAGES AND BENEFITS BELOW THAT ESTABLISHED IN PREVIOUS CONTRACTS AS ADJUSTED BY THE INDEX OF CONSUMER PRICES. NO MAINTENANCE OF REAL VALUE CLAUSE EXISTED PREVIOUSLY IN CHILEAN LABOR LAW DEALING WITH COLLECTIVE BARGAINING.

7. UNDER PREVIOUS CHILEAN LABOR PRACTICE, THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PROCESS WENT BEFORE A PERMANENT BOARD OF CONCILIATION AND ARBITRATION. THE NORM PROPOSED IN DL 2758 IS FOR WORKERS AND EMPLOYERS GROUPS TO NEGOTIATE DIRECTLY AND AS FREQUENTLY AS MAY BE NECESSARY TO REACH AGREEMENT; MEDIATION IS VIEWED AS THE EXCEPTION RATHER THAN THE RULE (SEE PARAGRAPH 8 BELOW). AN AGREED UPON CONTRACT MUST INCLUDE A PRECISE LISTING OF THE PERSONS AFFECTED, THE AGREEMENTS REACHED REGARDING WAGES AND BENEFITS AND CONDITIONS OF WORK (ANY BENEFITS OR CONDITIONS CARRIED FORTH FROM PREVIOUS AGREEMENT MUST BE SPECIFICALLY SPELLED OUT), THE DURATION OF THE CONTRACT AND THE DESIGNATION OF AN ARBITRATOR TO INTERPRET CONTRACT CLAUSES AS THE NEED MAY ARISE. UNDER DL 2758 COLLECTIVE CONTRACTS MUST BE FOR A DURATION OF AT LEAST TWO YEARS; PREVIOUSLY THE NORMAL PERIOD WAS ONE YEAR.

8. MEDIATION: THE PARTIES TO A NEGOTIATION MAY AT ANY TIME AGREE TO REFER THE MATTER TO MEDIATION, COSTS TO BE SHARED EQUALLY. A MEDIATOR HAS TEN DAYS FROM HIS DESIGNATION TO PRESENT HIS REPORT, IN WHICH HE MUST INCLUDE THE FINAL POSITIONS OF BOTH PARTIES.

9. ARBRITRATION: ARBITRATION IS OBLIGATORY IN THOSE ENTERPRISES WHERE STRIKES ARE PRHIBITED AND WHEN THE PARTIES TO COLLECTIVE BARGAINING CANNOT REACH AGREEMENT THROUGH NEGOTIATION. ELSEWHERE THE PARTIES MAY RESORT TO VOLUNTARY ARBITRATION EITHER DURING NEGOTIATIONS OR AFTER A STRIKE OR LOCK-OUT HAVE BEEN DECLARED.

FOR PURPOSES OF ARBITRATION, THE GOVERNMENT WILL ESTABLISH A LIST OF ARBITRATORS, THE MEMBERS OF WHICH WILL BE PROPOSED BY THE ARBITRATION GROUP ITSELF AND APPOINTED BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC. ARBITRATOR WILL BE CHOSEN BY MUTUAL AGREEMENT OR FAILING THAT ON THE BASIS OF EACH PARTY LISTING ITS PREFERENCES IN DESCENDING ORDER. THE ARBITRATOR HAS 30 DAYS, WHICH CAN BE EXTENDED TO 40, TO DELIVER HIS DECISION, IN CASES OF OBLIGATORY ARBITRATION HE IS REQUIRED TO DECIDE IN FAVOR OF ONE OR THE OTHER FINAL POSITION. HE CANNOT PROPOSE A COMPROMISE. IN MAKING HIS DECISION, THE ARBITRATOR IS REQUIRED TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE FOLLOWING ELEMENTS: GENERAL WAGE LEVELS FOR THE VARIOUS TYPES OF WORK UNDER NEGOTIATION, THE DEGREE OF SPECIALIZATION AND EXPERIENCE OF THE WORKERS, THE LEVEL OF EMPLOYMENT IN THE ENTERPRISE. THE ARBITRATION DECISION CAN BE APPEALED TO A THRE MEMBER ARBITRATION PANEL. AT ANY STAGE IN THE ARBITRATION PORCESS THE PARTIES ARE PERMITTED TO REACH AGREEMENT SEPARATELY AND SIGN A COLLECTIVE CONTRACT. AS WITH MEDIATION ALL COSTS OF ARBITRATION ARE SHARED BY BOTH PARTIES.

10. STRIKES AND LOCK-OUTS: PREVIOUSLY, WORKERS COULD DECLARE A STRIKE ONCE AN EXISTING CONTRACT HAD EXPIRED AND AS APPROVED BY A MAJORITY VOTE OF A QUORUM OF AT LEAST TWO-THIRDS OF THE WORKERS AFFECTED. UNDER DL 2758, THE STRIKE VOTE MUST BE TAKEN PRIOR TO EXPIRATION OF AN EXISTING CONTRACT AND MUST BE APPROVED BY AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY OF ALL WORKERS AFFECTED. THE VOTE MUST BE BEFORE A COMPETENT OFFICIAL. IF AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY IS NOT OBTAINED IT IS UNDERSTOOD THAT THE WORKERS ACCEPT THE FINAL PROPOSAL OF THE EMPLOYER; HOWEVER, IT MAY BE MUTUALLY AGREED TO CONTINUE NEGOTIATIONS FURTHER. ONCE VOTED A STRIKE MUST BEGIN NO EARLIER THAN THE THIRD DAY FOLLOWING THE VOTE NOR LATER THAN THE FIFTH DAY. IF THE STRIKE DOES NOT BEGIN, IT WILL BE UNDERSTOOD THAT THE WORKERS HAVE ACCEPTED THE FINAL OFFER OF THE EMPLOYER. AT ANY TIME DURING A STRIKE THE NEGOTIATING COMMISSION FOR THE WORKERS, OR 10 PERCENT OF THE WORK FORCE INVOLVED, CAN REQUEST A VOTE ON ANY PROPOSALS MADE BY THE EMPLOYER. THE VOTE TO TERMINATE A STRIKE MUST ALSO HAVE AN ABSOLUTE MAJORITY OF THE WORKERS INVOLVED.

11. ONCE A STRIKE IS IN EFFECT, THE EMPLOYER HAS A RIGHT TO DECLARE A TOTAL OR PARTIAL LOCK-OUT. THE LOCK-OUT CAN NOT CONTINUE FOR MORE THAN 30 DAYS. AM EMPLOYER CAN DECLARE A LOCK-OUT ONLY IF MORE THAN 50 PERCENT OF THE WORKERS ARE ON STRIKE OR IF, WHEN LESS THAN 50 PERCENT, THE STRIKE CAUSES VITAL DISRUPTION OF ACTIVITIES. DURING A LOCK-OUT AN EMPLOYER CAN HIRE TEMPORARY WORKERS TO REPLACE THOSE ON STRIKE. STRIKERS FOR THEIR PART MAY ENGAGE IN OTHER ACTIVITIES WITHOUT LOSING THEIR RIGHTS IN THE ENTERPRISE. BOTH OF THESE PROVISION ARE NEW.

12. AFTER 30 DAYS OF A STRIKE (THE MAXIMUM DURATION OF A LOCK-OUT) ANY WORKERS MAY WITHDRAW FROM THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AND RETURN TO WORK. AFTER A STRIKE HAS GONE ON FOR SIXTY DAYS, IT WILL BE UNDERSTOOD THAT THE WORKERS HAVE VOLUNTARILY RESIGNED THEIR JOBS, THUS ENDING ALL LEGAL OBLIGATIONS TOWARD THEM ON THE PART OF THE EMPLOYER. OR BASIC SUPPLIES OF THE POPULACE, OR TO THE ECONOMY OR NATIONAL SECURITY, THE PRESIDENT OF THE REPUBLIC CAN DECREE A RESUMPTION OF WORK FOR 90 DAYS. THE TERMS OF EMPLOYMENT WILL BE THE SAME AS THOSE PERTAINING AT THE TIME OF PRESENTING A COLLECTIVE CONTRACT PROPOSAL. PREVIOUSLY UNDER CHILEAN LAW THERE WAS NO RESTRICTION ON THE LENGTH OF STRIKES.

14. UNFAIR PRACTICES: DL 2758 CONTAINS A LONGER AND MORE DETAILED LISTING OF UNFAIR EMPLOYER AND WORKER PRACTICES THAN PREVIOUSLY EXISTED IN CHILEAN LABOR LAW. EMPLOYERS CANNOT: IMPEDE THE FORMATION OF UNIONS BY THREATS OR LOSS OF JOB OR BENEFITS OR CLOSING OF THE FACTORY; OFFER SPECIAL BENEFITS FOR THE EXCLUSIVE

PURPOSE OF PREVENTING THE FORMATION OF A UNION OR TO DISCOURAGE WORKERS FROM JOINING A UNION; INTERVENE ACTIVELY IN A TRADE UNION ORGAINZATION; EXERT PRESSURES SO THAT WORKERS WILL JOIN A SPECIFIC UNION; DISCRIMINATE AMONG EXISTING UNIONS IN AN UNJUST AND ARBITRARY MANNER GIVING SOME SPECIAL BENEFITS AND CONCESSIONS; DISCRIMINATE AMONG WORKERS FOR THE EXCLUSIVE PURPOSE OF DISCOURAGING UNION MEMBERSHIP. ACTIONS BY AN EMPLOYER WHCIH DELAY OR INTERFERE WITH COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WILL ALSO BE CONSIDERED UNFAIR PRACTICES: EFUSING TO RECEIVE OR NEGOTIATE WITHIN THE TIME PERIODS ESTABLISHED BY LAW; REFUSING TO PROVIDE INFORMATION TO JUSTIFY POSITIONS TAKEN; MANIFEST BAD FAITH DURING THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS; THE USE OF PHYSICAL OR MORAL FORCE AGAINST PERSONS INVOLVED IN THE NEGOTIATING PROCESS; IMPROPER USE OF THE LOCK-OUT PROVISIONS OF THE LAW.

15. THE FOLLOWING ARE CONSIDERED UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES ON THE PART OF WORKERS: ANY COLLUSION WITH AN EMPLOYER TO ENGAGE IN THE UNFAIR PRACTICES LISTED ABOVE; ANY COLLUSION WITH AN EMPLOYER TO BRING ABOUT THE FIRING OF A WORKER OR OTHER MEASURES OF DISCRIMINATION FOR FAILURE TO PAY FINES, DUES OR DEBTS TO A UNION; THE PUNISHMENT OR EXPULSION OF A FELLOW WORKER FOR NOT SUPPORTING AN ILLEGAL DECISION; PRESSURE AGAINST AN EMPLOYER TO DESIGNATE A SPECIFIC REPRESENTATIVE FOR THE NEGOTIATIONS OR REFUSAL TO NEGOTIATE WITH EMPLOYER REPRESENTATIVES, INSTEAD DEMANDING THEIR REPLACEMENT OR THE PERSONAL INVOLVEMENT OF THE EMPLOYERS; MANIFEST BAD FAITH IN THE COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PROCESS; THE USE OF PHYSICAL OR MORAL FORCE AGAINST PERSONS DURING A COLLECTIVE BARGAINING; ANY AGREEMENT WITH THE EMPLOYER THAT TENDS TO CONTRAVENE THE LEGAL STIPULATIONS GOVERNING COLLECTIVE BARGAINING; ANY PHYSICAL OR MORAL FORCE AGAINST A WORKER TO OBTAIN HIS AFFILIATION OR DISAFFILIATION FROM A UNION OR WHICH OBLIGES A WORKER TO SUPPORT THE FORMATION OF A TRADE UNION; ANY PHYSICAL OR MORAL FORCE DIRECTED TO PREVENTING FREEDOM OF OPINION AMONG MEMBERS OF A UNION.

16. JUDICIAL PROCEDURES: ALL DISPUTES ARISING OUT OF DL 2758 REGARDING MATTERS OF LAW ARE SUBJECT TO THE JURISDICTION OF LABOR COURTS.

17. OTHER ARTICLES: FOR ONE TIME ONLY, AS COLLECTIVE BARGAINING RESUMES AFTER A LAPSE OF ALMOST SIX YEARS, WORKERS WHO ARE NOT MEMBES OF A UNION BUT WHO RECEIVE THE BENEFITS OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING CONTRACT MUST PAY TWO MONTHS DUES TO THE UNION NEGOTIATING THE CONTRACT. ALSO DURING THE FIRST ROUND OF COLLECTIVE BARGAINING ARBITRATORS IN CASES OF OBLIGATORY ARBITRATION ARE NOT REQUIRED TO DECIDE STRICTLY IN FAVOR OF ONE

POSITION OR THE OTHER. THE MINISTRY OF ECONOMY IS GIVEN RESPONSIBILITY

FOR DETERMINING THE DATES ON WHICH COLLECTIVE BARGAINING CAN BEGIN IN ENTERPRISES THAT HAVE STATE PARTICIPATION.

18. COMMENT: THIS LAW AND DL 2756 COVERING LABOR ORGANIZATIONS (SANTIAGO 4694) ARE THE CENTER PIECES OF THE GOC'S LABOR PLAN. SOME OF THE KEY ELEMENTS HAVE BEEN GIVEN CONSTITUTIONAL STATUS BY DECREE LAW 2755 (SANTIAGO 4736). DECREE LAWS 2757 ON TRADE ASSOCIATIONS AND 2760 ON THE DEFENSE OF FREE ENTERPRISES (BEING REPORTED SEPTELS) RELATE PRIMARILY TO EMPLOYRS BUT ALSO HAVE

1. THE FIRST PANEL OF THE CHILEAN SUPREME COURT BEGAN ITS HEARING OF THE USG APPEAL IN THE CONTRERAS, ESPINOZA, AND FERNANDEZ EXTRADITION CASE JULY 11. ONLY THE GOVERNMENT NEWSPAPER FAILED TO REPORT THAT THE EARINGS WERE TO BEGIN.

2. IN PINOCHET'S JULY 9 SPEECH TO CHIEAN YOUTH (REF A), HE DENOUNCED AS IMPERIALISTIC "ANY EFFORTS TO PLACE IN THE POLITICAL ARENA ISSUES WHICH BY THEIR NATURE BELONG ELSEWHERE"" -- A CLEAN SWIPE AT THE U.S. HANDLING OF THE LETELIER/MOFFITT CASE. WITH UNINTENTIONAL IRONY, THE CHILAN LEADER WENT ON TO ASSERT THAT IT WAS "NOT THE RESPONSIBLITY OF CHILE THAT THE FREE WORLD LACKS MORAL LEADERSHIP."

3. GOC REACTION TO THE JULY 9 WASHINGTON POST EDITORIAL "JUSTICE

HE DECRIED THE EFFORT OF A FOREIGN PUBLICATION TO PRESSURE THE TRIBUNALS IN HIS COUNTRY. ALTHOUGH NO CHILEAN JOURNAL HAS PRINTED THE FULL TEXT OF THE U.S. EDITORIAL, COVERAGE OF GOC REBUTTALS HAS BEEN WIDESPREAD. THE LDETTER FROM THE CHILEAN PRESS

ATTACHE IN WASHINGTON TO THE EDITOR OF THE POST GOT PROMINENT PLACEMENT. THE AUTHOR REPEATS FERNANDEZ' CONTENTIONS AND ADDS THAT THE USG HAS NEVER ACCUSED THE GOC OF COMPLICITY IN THE MURDERS OF LETELIER AND MOFFITT.

E. O. 12065: GDS: 7-12-85 (LANDAU, GEORGE W.) OR-M

SUBJECT: A FIRST ASSESSMENT OF THE CHILEAN LABOR PLAN

(G) SANTIAGO 4802 (NONE SENT TO CARACAS)

1. ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY: THE GOC HAS PUBLISHED THE LAWS MAKING UP THE LABOR PLAN PROMISED AFTER JOSE PINERA WAS NAMED LABOR MINISTER SIX MONTHS AGO. THE SEVEN LAWS REPRESENT A SYSTEMATIC EFFORT TO REVISE CHILEAN LABOR LAW IN CONFORMITY WITH CHILE'S CURRENT MIXED ECONOMIC SYSTEM BASED ON FREE ENTERPRISE CAPITALISM AND ITS PROJECTED "PROTECTED DEMOCRACY" (BY PRECLUDING FURTHER CLOSE INVOLVEMENT OF TRADE UNION ORGANIZATIONS IN PARTISAN POLITICS). THE NEW LAWS WILL LESSEN THE ECONOMIC POWER AND WEAKEN THE POLITICAL ROLE OF LABOR IN CHILEAN SOCIETY FROM ITS HIGH WATER MARK DURING THE ALLENDE PERIOD. COMMENTS FROM LABOR LEADERS HAVE BEEN LARGELY NEGATIVE; BUT MANY CLAIM TO SEE SOME POSITIVE ASPECTS. REACTIONS FROM BUSINESSMEN ARE MORE POSITIVE, BUT NOT TOTALLY CONFIDENTIAL

UNCRITICAL. THE LABOR PLAN IS A BIT RIGID, THE PRODUCT OF TECHNICIANS. THIS NEW LABOR CODE IS LIKELY TO BE A PRIME TARGET FOR SUBSTANTIAL REVISION AT SUCH TIME AS CHILE RETURNS TO DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT. MEANWHILE, AT THIS EARLY STAGE, THE EMBASSY IS OF DIFFERNET MINDS AS TO THE INTENT AND LIKELY CONSEQUENCES; OUR DIFFERING ASSESSMENT CONCLUDES THE MESSAGE. END SUMMARY.

UNCLASSIFIED

3. LABOR MINISTER JOSE PINERA ANNOUNCED THE NEW LABOR LEGISLATON IN A NATIONWIDE SPECIAL JULY 2 (SANTIAGO 4576). THE LABOR PLAN CONSISTS OF SEVEN LAWS:

-- DECREE LAW 2755 AMENDS CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS DEALING WITH LABOR (SANTIAGO 4736);

-- DECREE LAW 2756 REPLACES EARLIER LAWS GOVERNING LABOR ORGANIZATIONS (SANTIAGO 4694);

-- DECREE LAW 2757 APPLIES SOME OF THE SAME PROVISIONS TO TRADE ASSOCIATION (SANTIAGO 4761);

-- DECREE LAW 2758 DEALS WITH COLLECTIVE BARGAINING, MEDIATION AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURES, STRIKES AND LOCK-OUTS, AND UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES (SANTIAGO 4802);

-- DECREE LAW 2759 IS A POTPOURRI BUT RELATES PRIMARILY TO THE ACCURED ECONOMIC RIGHTS OF COMPANY WORKERS;

-- DECREE LAW 2760 IS A NEW ANTI-MONOPOLY LAW (SANTIAGO 4760);

-- DECREE LAW 2761 AUTHORIZES GOVERNMENT SUBSIDIES TO EMPLOYERS HIRING ADDITIONAL WORKERS WITH SPECIAL INCENTIVE FOR HIRING THOSE OLDER THAN 55.

ALL TTE LAWS HAVE BEEN PUBLISHED AND ARE NOW IN EFFECT.

4. BACKGROUND: WHEN THE MILITARY OUSTED ALLENDE IN 1973, IT FIRST ASSURED ORGANIZED LABOR THAT ALL ACCRUED RIGHTS AND BENEFITS WOULD BE PROTECTED AND THEN SUSPENDED ALL BASIC RIGHTS FOR THE DURATION OF THE EMERGENCY. ALMOST ALL NON-MARXIST-LENINIST LABOR LEADERS INITIALLY SUPPORTED THE COUP AND THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT; HOWEVER, AS THE YEARS WENT BY WITH EMERGENCY

UNCLASSIFIED

CONFIDENTIAL

UNCLASSIFIED

RULE CONTINUING AND BASIC RIGHTS SUSPENDED, THEY BECAME INCREASINGLY CRITICAL OF GOC POLICIES AND SKEPTICAL OF PROMISES REGARDING FUTURE RESTORATION. GIVEN THE GENERALLY STATIST PROPENSITIES OF THIS GROUP, THE CONCERTED EFFORT BEGINNING IN 1975 TO RESTRUCTURE THE CHILEAN ECONOMY ACCORDING TO FREE-MARKET PRINCIPLES DID LITTLE TO ASSUAGE THEIR FEARS. MANY INTERNATIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATIONS WERE HOSTILE TO THE PINOCHET REGIME FROM THE START. THE AFL-CIO WAS SYMPATHETIC TO THE NTI-MARXIST CREDENTIALS OF THE REGIME BUT, FROM 1976 ON, APPLIED INCREASING PRESSURE ON THE GOC TO RESTORE TRADE UNION RIGHTS. BY 1978, THE AFL-CIO LEADERS WERE TALKING OPENLY OF SUPPORTING A BOYCOTT AGAINST CHILEAN IMPORTS AND EXPORTS IF LABOR RIGHTS WERE NOT RESTORED, AND THE ORIT MEETING IN LIMA OF NOVEMBER LAST YEAR APPROVED SUCH A BOYCOTT.

5. ACCORDING TO THE GOC ECNOMIC TEAM, THEY HAD ALL ALONG INTENDED TO "RATIONALIZE" THE LABOR MARKET AS THEY HAD THE CAPITAL AND PRODUCT MARKETS. PROMPTED BY THE BOYCOTT THREAT, THE GOC ECONOMIC TEAM THEN CONVINCED PINOCHET THAT BASIC LABOR RIGHTS SHOULD BE RESTORED AND THAT THIS COULD BE DONE WITHIN THE CONTEXT

OF THE ECONOMIC MODEL AND WITHOUT OPENING THE WAY FOR THE INTENSE POLITICIZATION OF ORGANIZED LABOR THAT HAD CHARACTERIZED CHILE IN THE PERIOD LEADING UP TO THE OVERTHROW OF ALLENDE. JOSE PINERA, A HARVARD PHD IN ECONOMICS, WAS THE CHOSEN INSTRUMENT OF THE ECONOMIC TEAM TO DRAW UP THE LABOR PLAN. ON JANUARY 2, PINERA PROMISED THAT THE PLAN WOULD BE IN PLACE BY JUNE 30. HE MISSED BY ONLY A FEW DAYS.

6. ASSESSMENT OF THE OVERALL PLAN: THE NEW LEGISLATION RECOGNIZES BASIC RIGHTS OF ORGANIZED LABOR TO ELECT LEADERS, TO MEET FREELY, TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY, AND TO STRIKE. PREVIOUS LEGAL DISTINCTIONS BETWEEN BLUE COLLAR, PROFESSIONAL, AND FARM WORKERS ARE ELIMINATED. THE NUMBER OF WORKERS REQUIRED TO FORM A UNION IS GREATLY REDUCED AND PROCEDURES FOR OBTAINING LEGAL RECOGNITION OF A NEW UNION, FEDERATION, OR CONFEDERATION ARE NOW VIRTUALLY AUTOMATIC AND MUCH SIMPLIFIED.

DUES CHECKOFF FOR UNION MEMBERS IS ALLOWED, BUT CONTRIBUTIONS TO CONFEDERATIONS AND FEDERATIONS WILL HAVE TO BE COLLECTED BY CONSTITUENT UNIONS RATHER THAN THE EMPLOYER. LEGALLY CONSTITUTED UNIONS FOR THE FIRST TIME HAVE NEARLY COMPLETE CONTROL OVER THEIR FINANCES. THE LEGAL RIGHT TO BARGAIN COLLECTIVELY HAS BEEN EXTENDED TO ALL STATE-OWNED ENTERPRISES AND FOR THE FIRST TIME WILL BE INCLUDED AS A CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISION. EMPLOYER ORGANIZATIONS ARE NOW SUBJECT TO MANY OF THE SAME RESTRICTIONS

APPLYING TO TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS AND THE LIST OF UNFAIR PRACTICES ON THE PART OFF BOTH MANAGEMENT AND LABOR HAS BEEN EXPANDED.

7. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING NEGOTIATIONS WILL BE BASED ON REAL WAGE INCREASES -- I.E., THE ESTABLISHED WAGE WILL BE AUTTOMATICALLY AJUSTED FOR INCREASES IN THE CONSUMER PRICE INDEX AND THESE AUTOMATIC INCREASES WILL NOT BE NEGOTIABLE. (NOTE: U.S. VOLUNTARY WAGE PRICE GUIDELINES ARE SET AT 7.5 PPRCENT, WELL BELOW THE CURRENT ANNUAL RATE OF U.S. INFLATION.) THE LABOR PLAN ENVISIONS THAT COLLECTIVE BARGAINING WILL CENTER ON HOW TO DISTRIBUTE THE FIRM'S MARGINAL REVENUE PRODUCT AFTER INFLATION HAS BEEN NETTED OUT. IN OTHER WORDS, LABOR AND MANAGEMENT WILL HAVE TO DECIDE THE RELATIVE PRODUCTIVITY OF LABOR VERSUS CAPITAL.

8. WHILE BASIC RIGHTS ARE RECOGNIZED, SOME ARE NOW MORE CIRCUMSCRIBED THAN PREVIOUSLY. COLLECTIVE BARGAINING CAN ONLY TAKE PLACE AT THE UNION/COMPANY LEVEL, AND FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS ARE EXPLICITLY EXCLUDED AS ARE EMPLOYER ORGANIZATIONS. STRIKES ARE NOW LIMITED TO A MAXIMUM LENGTH OF SIXTY DAYS, AFTER WHICH TIME WORKERS MUST EITHER ACCEPT THE FINAL OFFER OF THE EMPLOYER OR RESIGN. PREVIOUSLY, AGRICULTURAL UNIONS WERE ABLE TO BRING TOGETHER WORKERS FROM DIFFERENT FARMS IN A GIVEN AREA; NOW THEY ARE RESTRICTED TO A SINGLE AGRICULTURAL ENTERPRISE. UNDER EARLIER LEGISSLATION, ONCE A BLUE COLLAR INDUSTRIAL UNION WAS FORMED (REQUIRING 55 PERCENT SUPPORT OF THE WORKERS IN THE PLANT OR ACTIVITY), ALL OTHER BLUE COLLAR WORKERS WERE REQUIRED TO JOIN AND TO PAY DUES. THE OPEN SHOP NOW AAPPLIES EQUALLY TO INDUSTRIAL, PROFESSIONAL, AND FARM WORKERS. REQUIREMENTS FOR AFFILIATION WITH FEDERATIONS AND CONFEDERATIONS ARE ALSO CHANGED. PREVIOUSLY, AFFILATION WASOFTEN DECIDED ONLY BY A UNION'S BOARD OF DIRECTORS. NOW, THERE MUST BE A SECRET, ABSOLUTE MAJORITY VOTE AND THE AFFILIATION MUST BE RECONFIRMED EVERY TWO YEARS. DISAFFILIATION IS AUTOMATIC IF NOT RECONFIRMED. FOR THE FIRST TIME EMPLOYERS ENJOY A CLEARLY DEFINED LEGAL RIGHT TO ENGAGE IN LOCKOUTS AND TO HIRE TEMPORARY WORKERS TO REPLACE THOSE ON STRIKE.

9. THE OBJECTIONS OF LABOR UNION LEADERS TO THE NEW LEGISLATION DO NOT FOCUS SO MUCH ON SPECIFIC PROVISIONS AS ON THE OVERALL PHILOSOPHY UNDERLYING THE PLAN. THEY BELIEVE THAT THIS GOVERNMENT IS DEDICATED TO POLICIES THAT ARE MORE FAVORABLE TO BUSINESS THAN TO LABOR. LABOR LEADERS ARGUE THAT THE MAIN EFFECT OF THE NEW LEGISLATION WILL BE TO SERIOUSLY DIVIDE AND WEAKEN ORGANIZED LABOR. THEY POINT TO THE REQUIREMENT THAT COLLECTIVE BARGAINING BE CARRIED OUT ONLY AT THE COMPANY/SHOP LEVEL, TO THE TECHNICAL/EDUCATIONAL ROLE FOR FEDERATIONS AND

CONFEDERATIONS, AND TO THE PROHIBITION AGAINST WORKERS ORGANIZING SLATES FOR UNION OFFICE. ANOTHER PERCEPTION OF LABOR UNION LEADERS IS THE FACT THAT A GREAT DEAL OF CHILEAN LABOR PRACTICE PRIOR TO 1973 OPERATED ON THE MARGIN OR OUTSIDE THE SPECIFIC TERMS OF THE LABOR CODE. IN CRITICIZING THE NEW LABOR PLAN, THEY ARE COMPARING IT NOT WITH PRECEDING LAWS SO MUCH AS WITH HOW THE SYSTEM ACTUALLY WORKED.

10. THERE IS ALSO AN ELEMENT OF POSTURING IN CURRENT LABOR-STATED OBJECTIONS TO THH NEW LEGISLATION. ALL LABOR LEADERS, EXCEPT A HANDFUL TOTALLY COMMITTED TO THE REGIME, MUST HAVE DUE REGARD FOR THE LIKELIHOOD THAT MANY ELEMENTS IN THE NEW LEGISLATION WILL BE MODIFIED. SUPPORT NOW -- EVEN IF ONLY FOR THOSE ELEMENTS WHICH ARE POSITIVE FROM LABOR'S POINT OF VIEW -- MAY BE CONSTRUED LATER ON TO HAVE REPRESENTED "BACKING FOR A DICTATORIAL REGIME WHICH FAVORED BUSINESS OVER LABOR."

11. SUPPORTERS OF THE LABOR PLAN SAY THAT WHAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS ACTUALLY DONE IS REDRESS THE BALANCE WHICH HAD BY SEPTEMBER OF 1973 BECOME HEVILY WEIGHTED IN FAVOR OF TRADE UNIONISM. THE GOC SAYS THAT THE NEW LABOR CODE IS BASED ON THE PRINCIPLES OF RIGHT TO WORK; FEEDOM OF CHOICE; NO POLITICAL AFFILIATION; AND MINIMAL GOVERNMENT REGULATION. THE CODE RESOLVES THE BASIC CONFLICT BETWEEN THE OPEN VERSUS THE CLOSES SHIP, COMING DOWN IN FAVOR OF THE RIGHT TO WORK. LABOR MINISTER PINERA TELLS US THAT FORMER U.S. SECRETARY OF LABOR WILLARD WIRTZ AND STANFORD LABOR LAW EXPERT, JOHN PENCAVEL, WERE CONSULTED THROUGHOUT THE DRAFTING PROCESS.

12. COMMENT: TACTICALLY, THE LINES WERE LARGELY DRAWN ON THE LABOR PLAN BEFORE THE GOC BEGAN TO RELEASE THE VARIOUS IMPLEMENTING DECREES. PREDICTABLY, SOME LABOR AND POLITICAL ELEMENTS WERE FOURSQUARE AGAINST IT AND, JUST AS PREDICTABLY, THE GGOC SPONSORS LAUDED IT AS A FARSEEING AND INNOVATIVE SCHEME. JUAN DE ONIS BASED HIS ONE-SIDED ARTICLE (STATE 178330) ALMOST EXCLUSIVELY UPON THE CONTENTIONS OF OPPONENTS. THE FACT IS THAT IT IS TOO EARLY TO EVALUATE FULLY THE LABOR PLAN. THE PLAN IS A MATRIX OF COMPLEX MEASURES; THAT IS WHY WE HAVE BEEN SUMMARIZING AND CABLING DECREES AS THEY HAVE COME OUT. WE ALSO WISH TO ENCOURAGE WASHINGTON EXPERTS,BOTH WITHIN THE DEPARTMENT AND WITHIN THE LABOR COMMUNITY, TO SHARE (IF NOT TAKE THE LEAD) IN PERFORMING THE ANALYTICAL TASK. THEY, AFTER ALL, ARE GOING TO HAVE TO TELL US WHETHER THE PLAN MEETS OR FAILS "INTERNATIONAL NORMS."

13. WITHIN THE EMBASSY, AT THIS EARLY STAGE THERE IS A SIGNIFICANT DIVISION REGARDING THE INTENT AND LIKELY CONSEQUENCES OF THIS LABOR LEGISLATION. ONE ELEMENT SEES IT AS BASICALLY AN OVERLY TECHNICAL SERIES OF LAWS DESIGNED TO ENSURE THAT THE CHILEAN TRADE UNION MOVEMENT WILL NEVER POSE A SERIOUS THREAT TO THE PERCEIVED INTERESTS OF CERTAIN POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC SECTORS, MANY OF WHOM HAVE FORGOTTEN THE CONTRIBUTION MADE BY

DEMOCRATIC TRADEUNIONISTS AGAINST THE ALLENDE REGIME'S EXCESSES). LABATT FOR HIS PART BELIEVES THAT IN SPITE OF SOME GOOD FEATURES, THE PLAN REMOVES A NATIONAL LABOR VOICE AND FUTHERS THE "NATIONAL SECURITY STATE" TYPE OF POLITICAL AUTHORITARIAN THE GOVERNMENT WANTS OF CHILE. CHILEAN TRADE UNIONISM REMAINS A PTENT FORCE IN THE SOCIETY AND UNION LEADERS WILL OF COURSE COMPLAIN BITTERLY AT AN EFFORT TO FRAGMENT AND WEAKEN IT. AAT THE SAME TIME, THESE LEADERS NOW HAVE AN INSTITUTIONAL BASTION WHICH TO CONTINUE THE STRUGGLE TO CREATE ONCE AGAIN A STRONG DEMOCRATIC LABOR MOVEMENT IN CHILE.

14. OTHERS BELIEVE THAT THE LABOR PLAN IS A POSITIVE STEP FORWARD IN THAT IT RECOGNIZES BASIC FREEDOMS, ESTABLISHES A LABOR LAW STRUCTURE, AND GIVES LEGITIMACY TO THE LABOR UNION CONCEPT. NO ONE YET CLEARLY UNDERSTANDS THE LABOR PLAN, THE PROOF OF WHICH WILL BE IN THE PRACTICE. WHAT ANALYSIS IS AVAILABLE NOW IS LARGELY BASED ON BIASES AND POLITICAL POSTURING. NEVERTHELESS, SOME IN THE EMBASSY BELIEVE IT PLAUSIBLE THAT IN THE LONG RUN THE PLAN MAY PROVE TO BE CLEARLY IN THE U.S.

POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC INTERESTS. IT IS POSSIBLE THAT THE PLAN WILL ENGENDER A STRONGER, INDEPENDENT, NONPOLITICAL TRADE UNION MOVEMENT CONTRIBUTORY TO A STABLE AND INCREASINGLY PROSPEROUS CHILE COMMITTED TO A FREE-ENTERPRISE, FREE-MARKET SYSTEM SIMILAR TO AND COMPATIBLE WITH THAT OF THE UNITED STATES. THOSE INCLINED TO GIVE THE PLAN A CHANCE IN PRACTICE FURTHER SUGGEST THATIN ITSELF IT IS A SIGNIFICANT MEASURE IN EASING THE WAY TOWARD CIVILIAN DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT.

15. WHATEVER OUR INTERNAL DIFFERENCES, ALL ELEMENTS OF EMBASSY AGREE THAT WASHINGTON VISIT BY LABOR MINISTER PINERA TO HELP CLARIFY THE ISSUES IS DESIRABLE OUTCOME, AND I URGE THAT DEPARTMENT TAKE STEPS TO IMPLEMENT MY RECOMMENDATION IN SANTIAGO 4401.

1. [redacted] INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: A BIZARRE NON-EVENT WAS THIS WEEK'S MOST INTERESTING HUMAN RIGHTS HAPPENING: FRIDAY AFTERNOON'S "LA RAZON" (JULY 6) AND SEVERAL DAILIES ON SATURDAY MORNING (INCLUDING "LA NACION", WHICH ACCORDING TO SUAREZ MASON HIMSELF STUDIOUSLY AVOIDS MENTIONING THE GENERAL) REPORTED THAT CHIEF OF THE ARMY GENERAL STAFF SUAREZ MASON HAD DELIVERED A HARD-HITTING SPEECH OUTLINING THE COUNTRY'S "NEW ANTI-SUBVERSION STRATEGY" BEFORE A GROUP OF ARGENTINE AND FOREIGN DIPLOMATS. THE FOREIGN MINISTRY'S "FOREIGN SERVICE INSTITUTE" WAS CITED AS SCENE OF THE SPEECH, AT WHICH THE GENERAL

WAS ALLEGED TO HAVE WARNED THAT SUBVERSIVES WERE STILL PLENTIFUL AND THAT THEY AND THEIR SUPPORTERS AND FRIENDS OF SUPPORTERS WERE TO BE FOUND VIRTUALLY EVERYWHERE IN THE SOCIETY--ALL PART OF THE MARXIST-COMMUNIST WORLD PLOT. ON SATURDAY THE GENERAL DENIED THE SPEECH IN A PRIVATE CONVERSATION WITH AMBASSADOR CASTRO (ALTHOUGH NOT THE SENTIMENTS, WHICH HE ADMITTED FINDING CONCENIAL), AND ON SUNDAY (JULY 8) THE NEWSPAPERS PRINTED OFFICIAL DENIALS. ACCORDING TO THE OFFICIAL NEWS AGENCY TELAM'S ORIGINAL STORY THE SUAREZ MASON "REVELATIONS" WERE TAKEN FROM A DOCUMENT HE PRESENTED TO THE CABINET ABOUT ONE MONTH AGO--AN EVENT PUBLISHED AT THE TIME AND NOT AFTERWARDS DENIED. THE "FSI" STORY APPARENTLY GREW FROM A TALK GIVEN BY TWO ARMY COLONELS, REPORTEDLY FROM SUAREZ MASON'S STAFF, WHO DID IN FACT GIVE A "SECURITY LECTURE" AT THE FOREIGN SERVICE TRAINING FACILITY. THERE WAS LITTLE REPORTABLE NEWS IN OTHER FRONTS. END INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY.

2. [redacted] PERMANENT ASSEMBLY MEMBER CONSULTS WITH INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ----- PERMANENT ASSEMBLY MEMBER EMILIO MEGNONE DESCRIBED TOEEMBOFF JULY 6 HIS JUNE 18-JUNE 22 CONSULTATIONS WITH THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS. MIGNONE'S PRINCIPAL CONTACT WAS EDMUNDO VARGAS CARRENO, THE COMMISSION'S EXECUTIVE SECRETARY, ALTHOUGH HE ALSO WAS ABLE TO TALK WITH VARGAS' PRINCIPAL ASSISTANT PAZ BARNICA (A HONDURAN) AND WITH US CITIZEN STAFF MEMBER CHARLES MOYER. MIGNONE HAD ONE FORMAL, TWO-HOUR SESSION WITH ALL SIX COMMISSION MEMBERS. (MIGNONE EXPLAINED THAT THE MEXICAN COMMISSION MEMBER HAD RESIGNED SHORTLY AFTER HIS ELECTION AND WILL NOT BE [redacted] REPLACED UNTIL THE OAS MEETS IN OCTOBER IN LA PAZ.)

PAZ BARNICA PLANS TO VISIT ARGENTINA LATER THIS MONTH TO MAKE HOTEL AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE COMMISSION'S SEPTEMBER ARRIVAL, ALTHOUGH PAZ BARNICA WANTS TO KEEP A LOW PROFILE AND NEITHER ENCOUNTER A FLOOD OF "DENUNCIAS" NOR MEET WITH POLICY LEVEL ARGENTINE OFFICIALS. ABOUT 30 COMMISSION MEMBERS AND STAFFERS WILL COME TO BUENOS AIRES IN SEPTEMBER--ALL BUT A SKELETON STAFF THAT WILL REMAIN IN WASHINGTON. (THE COMMISSION HAS DECIDED AS A MATTER OF POLICY NOT TO HIRE A LOCAL STAFF, MIGNONE SAID.)
MIGNONE REPORTED THAT AS OF JUNE 22 THE

COMMISSION HAD RECEIVED SOME 2,900 "DENUNCIAS" REGARDING APPROXIMATELY 7,000 PERSONS, WHO IN SOME WAY HAD BEEN VICTIMS OF REPRESSION-DISAPPEARED, IMPRISONED OR TORTURED. THE COMMISSION, IN ITS ATTEMPT TO DO AS MUCH AS POSSIBLE IN ADVANCE, ASKED THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT TO MAKE PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATIONS OF THESE COMPLAINTS, BUT HAS RECEIVED NO RESPONSES SINCE LAST SEPTEMBER. THE COMMISSION HAS ALSO REQUESTED THE NAMES OF ALL PERSONS FOR WHOM "DENUNCIAS" HAVE BEEN REGISTERED WITH MINISTRY OF INTERIOR, AND OF ALL PERSONS FOR HABEAS CORPUS WRITS HAVE BEEN FILED IN THE COURTS SYSTEM.

ALSO IN ITS EFFORTS TO DO AS MUCH WORK IN ADVANCE AS POSSIBLE, EVEN TO PREPARING PARTS OF ITS REPORTS, COMMISSION STAFFERS ARE PREPARING A LEGAL BRIEF ON ARGENTINA'S LAWS AND CONSTITUTIONAL PROVISIONS REGARDING STATE OF SIEGE AND THE REPRESSION OF TERRORISM/SUBVERSION. ALTHOUGH IT PROBABLY WILL NOT BE POSSIBLE TO COMPLETE THE FULL COMMISSION REPORT AND ALLOW THE REQUIRED THREE WEEKS FOR STUDY AND A REPLY BY THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT BEFORE THE MEETING OF THE OAS IN LA PAZ IN OCTOBER, EXECUTIVE SECRETARY VARGAS MENTIONED TO MIGNONE THE POSSIBILITY OF THERE BEING AN "INFORMAL DRAFT" WHICH COULD BE CIRCULATED AT THAT TIME.

[redacted] SECTION 2 OF 3 BUENOS AIRES 5670

THE COMMISSION IS TRYING TO FIND OTHER MEANS OF SAVING TIME DURING ITS RELATIVE SHORT STAY HERE IN BUENOS AIRES. IT PLANS TO PRINT NOTICES IN LOCAL NEWSPAPERS IN ADVANCE OF ITS VISIT THAT MEMBERS OF THE PUBLIC SEEKING INTERVIEWS CAN BE RECEIVED DURING CERTAIN HOURS, BUT BEFORE APPEARING THEY SHOULD FILL OUT QUESTIONNAIRES REGARDING THEIR COMPLAINTS. THE QUESTIONNARIES--COMMISSION MEMBERS HOPE--WILL BE PART OF THE NEWSPAPER ANNOUNCEMENT. USING THE QUESTIONNAIRES SHOULD REDUCE INTERVIEWS TO A FORMALITY OF ACCEPTING WRITTEN "DENUNCIAS".

THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY MEANWHILE IS WORKING ON A LIST OF 300 "BEST CASES"--THOSE WITH PARTICIPATION BY "IDENTIFIABLE" MEMBERS OF THE SECURITY FORCES--FOR THE COMMISSION TO STUDY "ON THE GROUND" HERE.

ONE OF THE THINGS THAT MIGNONE SUGGESTED THAT THE COMMISSION DO BEFORE ARRIVING WAS ISSUE A STATEMENT EXPLAINING THE VERY REAL DIFFICULTIES MEMBERS OF THE [redacted]

COMMISSION HAD IN FINDING A TIME WHEN ALL OF THEM COULD COME TO BUENOS AIRES--TO DISPEL SUGGESTIONS IN HUMAN RIGHTS CIRCLES HERE THAT ARGENTINE "MACHINATIONS" WERE THE CAUSE OF OF THE VISIT'S POSTPONEMENT.

3. [redacted] REARRESTS ----

ONE CASE HAS BEEN REPORTED TO THE EMBASSY OF A PERSON RELEASED UNDER THE JUNE LIST OF 190 DELETED FROM THE PEN WHO WAS SUBSEQUENTLY REARRESTED. CARLOS RAUL ARANDA, ACCORDING TO HIS SISTER WHO VISITED THE EMBASSY' WAS AT LIBERTY FOR APPROXIMATELY ONE WEEK BEFORE BEING REARRESTED BY MILITARY AUTHORITIES AND TAKEN TO RESISTENCIA FOR "FURTHER IDENTIFICATION AND INQUIRY ABOUT HIS RESIDENCE". ARANDA HAD RECEIVED A RIGHT OF OPTION CERTIFICATE FROM THE EMBASSY, BUT HIS OPTION PETITION HAD BEEN DENIED ABOUT TEN DAYS BEFORE IT WAS ANNOUNCED HE WAS TO BE SET FREE.

4. [redacted]MORE ON THE TIMERMAN CASE -----
"LA NACION" REPORTED ON JULY 12 THAT WHILE SPECULATION ABOUNDS THAT THE MILITARY JUNTA MIGHT RELEASE TIMERMAN, THERE ARE SOME IMPORTANT GAPS IN THE REASONING. LA NACION OPINES THAT NO ACTION WILL BE TAKEN UNTIL OCTOBER OR NOVEMBER, IN VIEW OF THE FACT THAT TOP ARMY BRASS DURING A MEETING IN MAY VOTED TO OPPOSE HIS RELEASE. NACION MENTIONS ONLY AS A POSSIBILITY THAT TIMERMAN COULD BE RELEASED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE VISIT OF THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION FOR HUMAN RIGHTS IN SEPTEMBER. TIMERMAN IS PRESENTLY APPEALING THE GOVERNMENT'S DECISION TO CONFISCATE SOME OF HIS ASSETS. "IT WILL THEN BE INTERESTING TO SEE WHAT WILL BE SAID ABOUT THIS IN THE FEDERAL COURT, WHICH IS THE CORRECT TRIBUNAL THAT INTERVENES IN SUCH CASES,"

5. [redacted]FOR WASHINGTON AREA RESIDENTS WHO MISSED IT:
BA HERALD EDITOR APPEARS ON MEET THE PRESS -----
BUENOS AIRES HERALD EDITOR ROBERT COX AND MRS. HELENA AROCENA (WHO LOST A SON) APPEARED ON "MEET THE PRESS" SUNDAY, JULY 8. COX DISCUSSED DISAPPEARANCES IN ARGENTINA, DOWN FROM 50 TO 60 A MONTH IN 1978 TO 25 IN THE FIRST SIX MONTHS OF 1979. HE TALKED OF THE COUNTER-TERRORISM IN RESPONSE TO A SITUATION HE LIKENED TO THE FEELING OF TERROR EVOKED BY THE ASSASSINATIONS OF MARTIN LUTHER KING AND BOTH THE KENNEDYS--EXCEPT THAT HERE ASSASSINATIONS RAN AT MAYBE THREE A DAY--AND SAID THAT THAT ATMOSPHERE OF TERROR CONTINUED WELL INTO 1978. COX SAID THAT WHAT HAPPENS IN A COUNTRY IS USUALLY OF INTEREST ONLY TO THOSE DIRECTLY AFFECTED. THE AVERAGE ARGENTINE REACTION TO HUMAN RIGHTS CRITICISM FROM ABROAD, HE SAID, WAS A PATRIOTIC RE-SPONSE--TO DEFEND ARGENTINA RIGHT OR WRONG WHEN UNDER ATTACK, EVEN AMONG PERSONR
GITH SERIOUS REFERVATIONS
ABOUT THIS GOVERNMENT. TO ONE QUESTION COX REPLIED THAT "OUT OF CONTROL GROUPS" WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR DISAPPEARANCES. AT ANOTHER POINT HE POINTED TO A BETTER WORKING COURTS SYSTEM AS CREATING SOME OPTIMISM.
MRS. AROCENA FOR THE MOST PART DESCRIBED THE DISAPPEARANCE OF HER SON, MARCOS, A WELL-KNOWN ARGENTINE WRITER WO WAS ABDUCTED ONE MORNING AT 5 AM

NEARLY THREE YEARS AGO. SHE SAID THAT SHE HAD PURSUED LOCATING HIM THROUGH THE VARIOUS MINISTRIES, BUT THAT AT THE TIME OF HIS DISAPPEARANCE LAWYERS AND COURTS WERE NOT TAKING SUCH CASES. MR. COX, IN RESPONDING TO A QUESTION ABOUT THE RULE OF LAW, POINTED OUT THAT THE HABEAS CORPUS PROCESS WAS SIMILAR TO THAT IN THE UNITED STATES--A METHOD OF LOCATING A PERSON BEING HELD, RATHER THAN AN INVESTIGATIVE

PROCESS. HE SAID THAT JUDGES, HOWEVER, WERE TAKING THEIR CUE FROM A SUPREME COURT JUDGEMENT AND BEGINNING TO CALL AS MANY WITNESSES AS POSSIBLE TO GET AT THE FACTS OF DISAPPEARANCES. MR. COX SAID, THAT "TO GET BACK TO THE RULE OF LAW, IT IS TERRIBLY NECESSARY THAT THE JUDGES START TO ACT AS JUDGES."

IN RESPONSE TO A QUESTION ABOUT WHAT THE AMERICAN PEOPLE COULD DO ABOUT THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN ARGENTINA, COX SPOKE OF FACING THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION NOT AS A POLITICAL ISSUE BUT AS A HUMANITARIAN ONE, AND OF APPEALING TO THE GOODNESS IN THE ARGENTINE PEOPLE TO RESOLVE THE PROBLEM.

6. [redacted] JUDGE SEEKING INFORMATION ON DISAPPEARED -----
JUDGE OLIVERI (SEE REF B, PARA 5) IS REPORTED ACTIVELY INVESTIGATING THE 1977 DISAPPEARANCE OF ALEJANDRO DANIEL FERRARI, A 29 YEAR OLD ARGENTINE DOCTOR WHO DISAPPEARED (EMBASSY HUMAN RIGHTS FILES CONTAIN HIS NAME) ON JULY 22, 1977 FROM THE POLICLINICO FERROVIARIO CENTRAL. THE STORY WAS CARRIED IN THREE OF THE SPANISH LANGUAGE BUENOS AIRES NEWSPAPERS ON JULY 6. EMBASSY COMMENT: THIS IS THE SECOND CASE IN A SHORT PERIOD OF TIME IN WHICH FEDERAL JUDGE OLIVERI HAS RENEWED EFFORTS TO LOOK INTO THE DISAPPEARANCE OF A DOCTOR. END EMBASSY COMMENT.

7. [redacted] MASS FOR MISSING HELD ON JULY 8 -----
THE JULY 9 BUENOS AIRES HERALD CARRIED A SHORT NEWS ITEM THAT THE BISHOP OF QUILMES, MONSIGNOR JORGE NOVAK CELEBRATED A MASS FOR MISSING PEOPLE ON JULY 8 IN BERAZATEGUI (A SUBURB OF BUENOS AIRES). MOTHERS AND [redacted]

RELATIVES OF MISSING PERSONS ATTENDED THE SPECIAL AFTERNOON MASS, AT WHICH MONSIGNOR NOVAK "REFERRED TO THE PROBLEM OF MISSING PEOPLE IN ARGENTINA IN HIS SERMON." COMMENT: THE BISHOP OF QUILMES HAS BEEN ACTIVE IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS MOVEMENT FROM THE BEGINNING. END COMMENT.

8. [redacted] SECURITY MEASURES IN SANTA FE YIELD SUBVERSIVE SUSPECT ----
"LA PRENSA" AND "EL DIA" CARRIED STORIES ON JULY 10 THAT THE SECURITY FORCES IN SANTA FE DURING THE PAST 24 HOURS HAD TIGHTENED SECURITY MEASURES AND SURVEILLANCE BECAUSE OF A BOMBING AT THE LOCAL FEDERAL COURTHOUSE AND AN INTERRUPTION OF THE TRANSMISSION OF CHANNEL 13 IN THAT CITY (REPORTED REF B, APRAS 15 AND 12). THEY ARRESTED SERGIO ORLANDO RIGOLI, A 22 YEAR OLD RESIDENT OF THAT CITY, WHO WAS DRIVING A MOTORCYCLE AND ALLEGEDLY HAD IN HIS POSSESSION A BRIEFCASE FULL OF "MNOTONERO SUBVERSIVE LITERATURE" DESTINED FOR DISTRIBUTION IN A SLUM ("VILLA DE EMERGENCIA"). THE EL DIA STORY

FURTHER RELATED THAT RIGOLI, HAVING BEEN ARRESTED IN THE MILITARY SECTOR OF THE CITY WOULD BE HELD UNDER THAT AUTHORITY.

9. [redacted] NEILSON ON THE CLAMOR -----
EARLY IN THE WEEK, HERALD COLUMNIST JAMES NEILSON MENTIONED "GROWING UNEASE ABOUT THE FATE OF THE 'MISSING' AND THE LEGAL STATUS OF THE MANY PEOPLE BEING HELD IN JAIL WITHOUT CHARGES." HE SAW A PROMISING SIGN IN THE FACT THAT "MEMBERS OF THE GOVERNMENT AND SENIOR REPRESENTATIVES ARE REFERRING TO THE MATTER WITH INCREASING FREQUENCY AND, WHAT

[redacted]

IS MORE, THEY ARE BEING ASKED ON OCCASION WHAT THEIR OFTEN CRYPTIC WORDS MEAN."

NEILSON ALSO POINTED OUT THAT "ONE OF THE MANY DISADVANTAGES OF GOVERNMENT INACTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IS THAT IT GIVES AN OPPORTUNITY TO CYNICAL INDVIDUALS LIKE THE COMMUNISTS TO EXPLOIT A GREAT TRAGEDY FOR THEIR OWN SQUALID ENDS."

10. [redacted] PRESS REPORTS DURING THE PAST WEEK DESCRIBED INTERIOR MINISTER HARGUINDEGUY LASHING OUT AT "PEOPLE WHO TODAY POSE AS DEFENDERS OF HUMAN RIGHTS, BUT UNTIL QUITE RECENTLY WERE CRIMINALS IN TERRORIST BANDS... AND ARE CONDUCTING A CAMPAIGN FROM ABROAD SO THAT A BUNCH OF USEFUL IDIOTS PICK UP WHAT THEY SAY AND TRY TO USE IT AGAINST THE ARGENTINE PEOPLE." CASTRO

UNRESOLVED DISAPPEARANCES SINCE

Roberto and Maria Rosa Barreiros

Reported picked up by the police on March 12. Mr. Barreiros's mother subsequently received a telephone call from her daughter-in-law advising that the couple was well and would reappear. There has been no word from them since.

Julio Cesar Abruzzese

Reported picked up by police on April 11. Mr. Abruzzese was reputed to be involved in criminal activities and his disappearance does not appear to have political significance.

Thelma Doroty Jara de Cabezas

Mrs. Jara de Cabezas was reported picked up by the police on April 27. She was a key official of the Argentine Communist Party-associated Relatives of the Disappeared and Detained (FDD). Letters have subsequently been received from her (one by Ambassador Castro) describing in detail her work for the FDD and denouncing the Montoneros for having used her for subversive political ends. Family members are convinced that the letters are genuine. There has been no further word from her.

Mario Marrero (April 20), Jorge Sabador Gullo (April 26), and Elbio Jose Rodriguez (April 23). All are in their 20's.

These three persons were reported disappeared in separate incidents in Buenos Aires. We have received no information concerning their whereabouts.

Jorge V. Sznaider, Jorge Perez Brancato, Hugo Malosovsky, Noemi Graciela Beltone, Carlos Alberto Perez, and Mirta Silber de Perez. All are in their 20's.

These six persons were reported picked up by the police on May 13 in a Buenos Aires apartment while they were holding a political discussion. No word has been received since on their whereabouts.

Introduction

Today, far more than at any time in the past, extreme leftist forces in Central America are supported by an extensive foreign intelligence and training apparatus, modern military equipment and a large and sophisticated propaganda network. With Soviet bloc support, Cuba is using contacts nurtured over more than 20 years to provide political and military training, plus material and propaganda support, to many violent groups in a number of Central American countries. The immediate goals are to consolidate control of the Sandinista Directorate in Nicaragua and to overthrow the Governments of El Salvador and Guatemala. Honduras and Costa Rica also have been targeted (see Map #1).

[redacted] he set the pattern [redacted] Sandinistas are repeating in Nicaragua. [redacted] an inner core of trusted [redacted] built the instruments of power (the army, [redacted] "revolutionary tribunals," and new mass [redacted] democratic allies were kept busy in [redacted] such as the Council of State and government [redacted] This strategy helped him consolidate power and [redacted] democratic allies until they could no longer unite [redacted] many of these allies later were executed or [redacted] or left the country.

[redacted] democratic opposition to Somoza established a "broad opposition front" in coalition with the Sandinistas, who assured their democratic allies (as Castro had done in 1957-59) of their commitment to democratic elections "after Somoza." The presence of noncommunist elements in the Sandinista-led "broad coalition" served to deceive many Western governments about the true character of the Sandinista Directorate. As in Cuba, two decades earlier, this broad coalition provided a political network that could be used by the extreme left to mislead Western opinion [redacted] On June 21, 1979 the OAS gave provisional recognition to the anti-Somoza forces, contingent upon the establishment of a democratic political system including free political parties, free elections, free trade unions, religious freedom and an independent [redacted] The Sandinistas promised that they would hold [redacted] freedoms. The Sandinistas have yet to implement this promise.

During this period, Cuba provided about 500 tons of weapons and other military supplies directly to the Sandinista [redacted] Cuba also trained and deployed an "Internationalist Brigade," whose personnel fought with the Sandinistas. And on July 18, 1979, Julian Lopez Diaz, a leading Cuban covert action operative, flew to Managua from Costa Rica, where he had been the Sandinistas' key adviser. He became, and remains, the Cuban Ambassador.

After their victory, the Sandinistas followed Castro's example and established a dual governing structure. The inner core was headed by the Sandinista National Liberation Front (FSLN), a nine-person Directorate, which immediately moved with Cuban help to establish a new army, an internal security apparatus and a variety of controlled organizations: neighborhood "defense committees," trade unions, professional organizations and media organs. The Sandinistas also came to dominate the nominally independent executive branch: the Junta, the quasi-legislative Council of State, and most government ministries.

The Sandinistas encouraged their democratic allies to participate in [illegible] executive branch institutions, both to use the skills of these [illegible] and their international credibility. This helped [illegible] in Western aid from July 1979 to the end of 1980. The United States, along with other democratic governments, recognized the new government. During the first 15 months of the regime, the United States provided more than $118 million in direct aid and endorsed more than $220 million in Inter-American Development Bank credits.

Repression of the democratic political parties, trade unions, and media began within weeks of Somoza's departure. In August and September 1979, the Sandinistas launched a campaign against the social democratic and Christian Democratic trade unions and their national federations, and tried to consolidate organized labor in two Sandinista-controlled groupings. A conference of Sandinista leaders in late September 1979 produced a specific plan for consolidating power. It stated that the democratic groups were to be "isolated" and brought under Sandinista control and that "while political parties must be permitted to exist" because of "international opinion," the Sandinistas would "work within them to get them to support the revolution."

Finally, in August 1980, the Sandinistas declared publicly that elections would not be held until 1985. Even then, these are not [illegible] will serve only to "ratify" the revolution.

As a further measure of internal repression, in December 1981 the Sandinistas began destroying more than 40 villages of the [illegible] in northeastern Nicaragua. [illegible] Miskito by the [illegible] from their homes. The proof of these crimes [illegible] (Photos 1, 2, and 3 provide photographic evidence of the destruction of these villages.)

[illegible] campaign has served to consolidate power [illegible] the Sandinistas genuinely democratic groups and ethnic minorities have been excluded from real political participation. Although some are permitted to survive under surveillance and pressure, political control is held only by the Marxist-Leninist Sandinista directorate.

Within a week after the Sandinistas' takeover, Cuba had some 100 military and security personnel in Nicaragua. Three months later, by October 1979, this figure had increased to 200. Today, Nicaragua "hosts" 7,000 to 8,000 Cubans, including 1,500 to 2,000 military and security advisers, and many high-level Sandinistas have counterpart Cuban advisers. Cubans have trained virtually all Nicaraguan recruits in the General Directorate of Sandinista State Security, the new State police organization responsible for maintaining Sandinista control over the populace.

SUMUBILA, NICARAGUA

The Sandinista military buildup also began immediately. Somoza's National Guard numbered about 9,000 before 1977, and 15,000 at the height of the fighting. The Sandinistas have increased their military forces to some 35,000 regular troops on active duty, plus another 50,000 in active reserve and militia forces. In addition, they have added 36 new military bases and Soviet-bloc weapons, including 45-50 tanks, armored personnel carriers, mobile rocket-launchers and helicopters. Airfields are being constructed or improved which could service military jet aircraft.

For example, construction of a new dual runway airfield at Punta Huete, near Managua, is proceeding at an extremely rapid pace. About 800 meters of the estimated 3,600 meter main runway have been completed and work has begun on a parallel runway-taxiway; large, square area is being leveled for a probable parking apron. The location of Punta Huete strongly suggests that the new airfield, when completed, will be Nicaragua's main military airbase as well as the largest military airfield in Central America. This conclusion is based on: the relatively isolated location near Lake Managua (7 miles northwest of Managua); the estimated length of the runway, as well as the fact it will have a dual runway-taxiway [illegible] parking [illegible].

[illegible] military activity in [illegible] has [illegible] achieving power in Cuba, seeking to [illegible] Western Hemisphere, particularly during the 1970s, as well as [illegible] Soviet KGB and Soviet military. He also has cultivated close ties with the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), Libya and pro-Soviet factions in Africa and the Middle East in support of terrorism and subversion. Castro has a method of operation with the following principal components:

-- Establishment of a "broad coalition"--led by the extreme left but including some noncommunist opposition elements--which makes direct or ambiguous promises of a "broad based" government after victory;

-- Use of the "broad coalition" and systematic propaganda and political action techniques in order to obtain noncommunist international support and isolate the target governments from Western political and material help;

-- Provision of Soviet bloc, Cuban, and other anti-Western military support as an incentive for extreme left unity.

This approach proved successful in Nicaragua. It was then turned against El Salvador in late 1979. Similar efforts have been made in Guatemala since 1980, accompanied by stepped-up covert activities against Honduras and Costa Rica starting in 1981 and 1982. The rapid expansion of these violent techniques in Central America is illustrated by the fact that while the total armed strength of the Marxist-Leninist left in El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Costa Rica was estimated at about 1,450 in 1978, by 1981 it was nearly 8,000.

VIII. El Salvador

Soon after defeating Somoza, the Sandinistas began training guerrillas from El Salvador and other Central American countries. This was the beginning of a steadily expanding partnership between Cuba and the Sandinistas in exporting subversion in the region--a partnership that has included the establishment in Nicaragua of numerous guerrilla training camps, the transportation of tons of weapons and the establishment on Nicaraguan territory of guerrilla command and control facilities along with a variety of propaganda and covert activities.

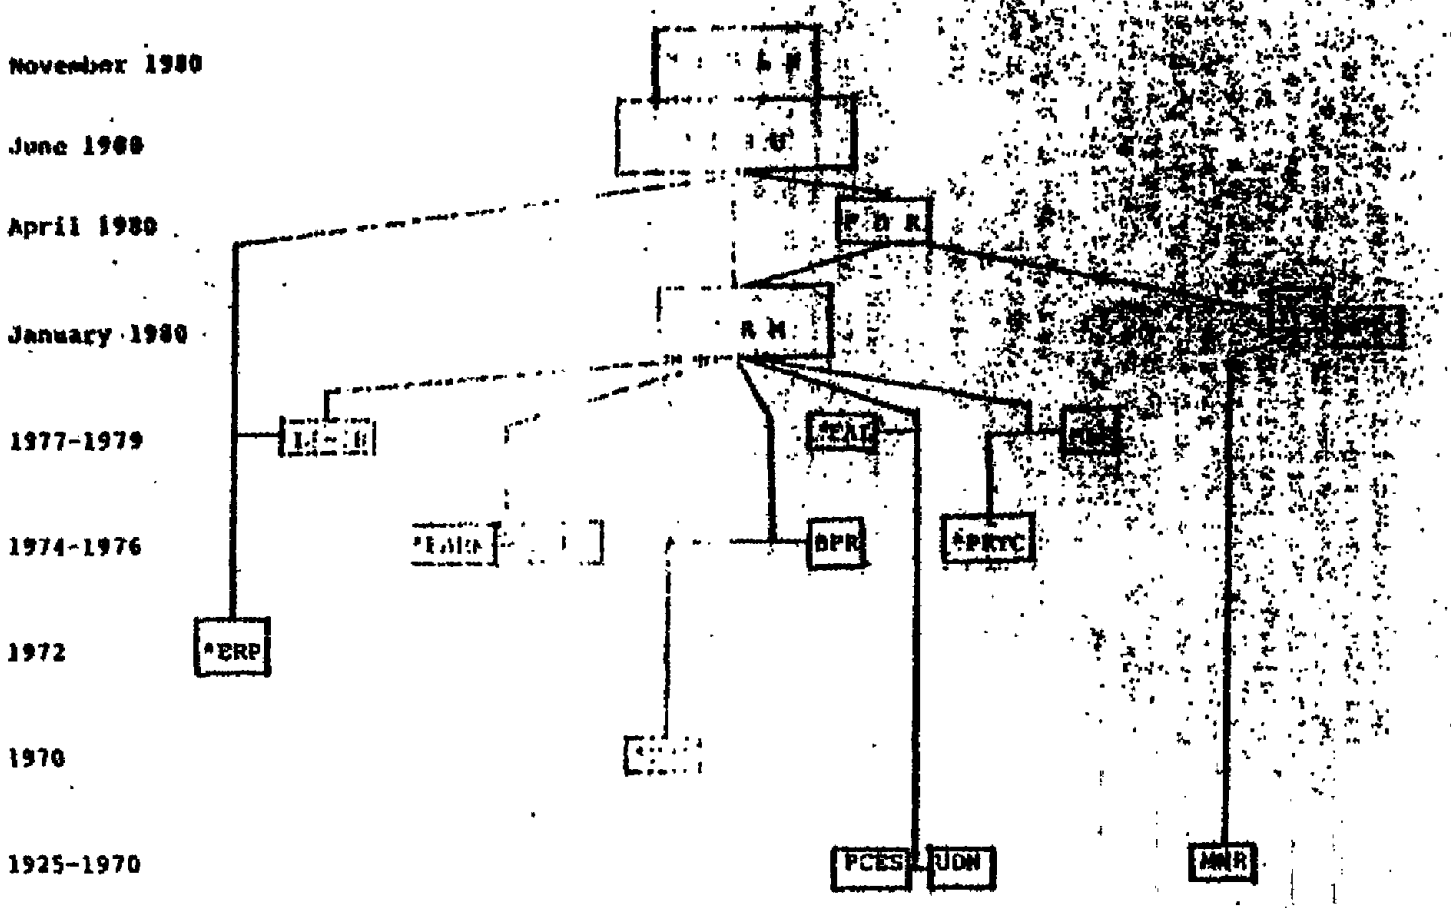
Three small noncommunist groups in El Salvador formed the "Democratic Front" in April 1980. Shortly thereafter, the Marxist-Leninist leaders and the noncommunist leaders of the "Democratic Front" formed the "Revolutionary Democratic Front" (FDR), thereby establishing the "broad coalition" which has been used to give the impression that the guerrillas are democratic and not Marxist-led. In June 1980, a meeting in Cuba united the military and political components of the extreme left under a "United Revolutionary Directorate" (DRU). In November 1980, a military alliance of the five insurgent factions, the Farabundo Marti Liberation Front (FMLN), was created. Chart #1 depicts the evolution of this organizational framework.

The DRU became the command structure for the Marxist-Leninist organizations and also the directing authority over the "Democratic Front," for which representatives of three small noncommunist groups often act as spokesmen. The result was an unequal coalition in which the Marxist-Leninist groups controlled the armed units, weapons, intelligence, and covert support from the Soviet bloc/Cuba, while the non-Marxist-Leninist element provided a useful facade for maintaining international respectability.



terrorist groups

Having achieved the unified command for the extreme left, a communist-led "broad coalition," and some noncommunist international support, Cuba moved to increase the military strength of the Salvadoran guerrillas with full but discreet support from the Soviets. In April 1980, Salvadoran guerrilla leaders met in the Hungarian Embassy in Mexico City with representatives of Cuba, the USSR, Bulgaria, East Germany, Poland and Vietnam. In June and July 1980, the Salvadoran communist leaders went to Moscow and then with Soviet endorsement visited East Germany, Bulgaria, Vietnam and Ethiopia--all of which promised them military and other support. The commitment of weapons was estimated at about 800 tons.

The Cuban/Soviet bloc military supply operation used Western weapons (some from Vietnam) for "cover" and covertly shipped some 200 tons of weapons through Cuba and Nicaragua to arm the Salvadoran guerrillas for their intense but unsuccessful "final offensive" in January 1981.

Although the offensive failed, it led President Carter to authorize U.S. military aid for arms, ammunition and equipment for the first time since 1977 to "support the Salvadoran government in its struggle against left-wing terrorism supported covertly with arms, ammunition, training and political and military [illegible]

The guidance flows to guerrilla units widely spread throughout El Salvador. The FMLN headquarters in Nicaragua also coordinates propaganda and logistical support for the insurgents, including food, medicines, clothing, money and--most importantly--weapons and ammunition.

Although some guerrilla actions take place as targets of opportunity appear, the headquarters in Nicaragua decides on most locations to be attacked and coordinates supply deliveries. The guerrillas themselves have centralized their control procedures. For example, on March 14, 1982, the FMLN clandestine Radio Venceremos, then located near the Salvadoran border, broadcast a message to guerrillas in El Salvador urging them "to maintain their fighting spirit 24 hours a day to carry out the missions ordered by the FMLN general command (emphasis supplied)." Mexico and Central America: A Global Perspective

Introduction

Today, far more than at any time in the past, extreme leftist forces in Central America are supported by an extensive foreign intelligence and training apparatus, modern military equipment and a large and sophisticated propaganda network. With Soviet bloc support, Cuba is using contacts nurtured over more than 20 years to provide political and military training, plus material and propaganda support, to many violent groups in a number of Central American countries. The immediate goals are to consolidate control of the Sandinista Directorate in Nicaragua and to overthrow the Governments of El Salvador and Guatemala. Honduras and Costa Rica also have been targeted (see Map #1).

I. Nicaragua

When Fidel Castro seized power in Cuba, he set the pattern which, 20 years later, the Sandinistas are repeating in Nicaragua. Castro established a dual government. An inner core of trusted guerrillas controlled and built the instruments of power (the army, the secret police, "revolutionary tribunals," and new mass organizations), while his democratic allies were kept busy in formal institutions such as the Council of State and government ministries. This tactic helped him consolidate power and neutralize his democratic allies until they could no longer unite against him. Many of these allies later were executed or imprisoned, or left the country.

In Nicaragua, the democratic opposition to Somoza established a "broad opposition front" in coalition with the Sandinistas, who assured their democratic allies (as Castro had done in 1957-59) of their commitment to democratic elections "after Somoza." The presence of noncommunist elements in the Sandinista-led "broad coalition" served to deceive many Western governments about the true character of the Sandinista Directorate. As in Cuba, two decades earlier, this broad coalition provided a political network that could be used by the extreme left to mislead Western opinion democratic political system including free political parties, free elections, free trade unions, religious freedom and an independent

During this period,

Julian Lopez Diaz, a leading Cuban covert action operative, based in Managua from Costa Rica, where he had been the Sandinistas' top adviser. He became, and remains, the Cuban Ambassador.

After their victory, the Sandinistas followed Castro's example and established a dual governing structure. The inner core was headed by the Sandinista National Liberation Front (FSLN), a nine-person Directorate, which immediately moved with Cuban help to establish a new army, an internal security apparatus and a variety of controlled organizations: neighborhood "defense committees," trade unions, professional organizations and media organs. The Sandinistas also came to dominate the nominally independent executive branch: the Junta, the quasi-legislative Council of State, and most government ministries.

The Sandinistas encouraged their democratic allies to participate in the executive branch institutions, both to use the skills of their allies and their international credibility. This helped obtain more than $1.6 billion in Western aid from July 1979 to the end of 1981. The United States, along with other democracies, immediately recognized the new government. During the first 18 months of the regime, the United States provided more than $118 million in direct aid and endorsed more than $220 million in Inter-American Development Bank credits.

Repression of the democratic political parties, trade unions, and media began within weeks of Somoza's departure. In August and September 1979, the Sandinistas launched a campaign against the social democratic and Christian Democratic trade unions and their national federations, and tried to consolidate organized labor in two Sandinista-controlled groupings. A conference of Sandinista leaders in late September 1979 produced a specific plan for consolidating power. It stated that the democratic groups were to be "isolated" and brought under Sandinista control and that "while political parties must be permitted to exist" because of "international opinion," the Sandinistas would "work within them to get them to support the revolution."

Finally, in August 1980, the Sandinistas declared publicly that [illegible] Even then, these are not [illegible] alleged suicide of leaders of El Salvador's largest guerrilla group (the FPL) residing in Managua in April 1983 provided dramatic evidence of the guerrillas' base in Nicaragua.

After El Salvador scheduled free elections for a Constituent Assembly for March 28, 1982, the Salvadoran Government invited the Social Democrats (MNR) and the Communist-front UDN, both of which support the FMLN, to compete openly in those elections. This offer was rejected and the top priority of the guerrillas became the disruption or prevention of these elections. In December 1981, after meetings in Havana with Salvadoran guerrilla leaders, Fidel Castro directed that external supplies of arms to FMLN units be stepped up to launch a offensive to disrupt the elections.

During the first 3 months of 1982, arms shipments into El Salvador surged. Cuban-Nicaraguan arms flowed through Honduras into El Salvador by sea, air, and overland routes. In February, for example, Salvadoran guerrilla groups picked up a large shipment on the Salvadoran coast, near Usulutan, after the shipment arrived by sea from Nicaragua.

In addition to vitally needed ammunition, these supply operations included greater quantities of more sophisticated heavy [illegible] several thousand sticks of TNT and detonators from Nicaragua [illegible], five sticks are needed to blow up an electrical pylon). [illegible] explosives, uniforms, passports [illegible] guerrillas. Map #2 displays the known major [illegible] for arms during [illegible].

With this support, thousands of Salvadoran guerrillas attempted to prevent the March 1982 election by destroying public buses, blocking highways and attacking villages, town, and voting places. Nonetheless, with several hundred election observers from democratic countries and about 700 foreign journalists as witnesses, the people of El Salvador repudiated the extreme left by voting in overwhelming numbers. More than 80% of the eligible voters participated.

Following their obvious repudiation in the elections, the FMLN leaders reacted as they had after their failed 1981 "final offensive." They consulted the Nicaraguan and Cuban officials [illegible] plan strategy and to obtain more and better military and communications equipment for their forces. For the next 6 months, they continued terrorist harrassment and economic sabotage. In mid-October 1982, they used their expanded capabilities to begin a new series of military attacks. By early 1983 the guerrillas had controlled about a dozen towns for more than 2 months, and their morale clearly had recovered--in part due to the continued Cuban, Nicaraguan and Soviet bloc support, which enabled them to sustain operations despite their rejection by the Salvadoran people. During 1982, guerrilla operations resulted in about 2,500 government forces wounded and 1,300 killed. These intensified attacks have continued through the first 5 months of 1983.

Although Castro has often denied responsibility for shipping weapons to the Salvadoran guerrillas, German Social Democrat leader Hans-Jurgen Wischnewski stated publicly in 1981 that Castro had admitted the Cuban role. Cuban Vice President Carlos Rafael Rodriguez confirmed Cuban training of Salvadoran guerrillas in interviews given in the fall of 1981. In an article published in the Toronto Globe and Mail on February 12, 1982, a reporter interviewed a Salvadoran guerrilla trainee who described courses for Salvadoran guerrillas in demolition and intelligence operations, taught by Cubans, and attended by the Salvadorans at that time.

Several pilots who regularly flew the route into El Salvador have been identified in Nicaragua. This particular route has been closed down, but air infiltration over new routes continues to this day.

In addition to the air infiltration routes, the Salvadoran guerrillas make extensive use of sea and overland infiltration routes through Honduras and Guatemala from Nicaragua. Photo #5 taken in May 1983, in San Salvador, demonstrates that the guerrillas use sophisticated vehicular concealment devices to confound detection by local authorities.

Details of Cuban/Nicaraguan support have been provided by two high-level FMLN leaders captured in mid-1982. One of them, known as "Alejandro Montenegro," was seized on August 22, 1982, in conjunction with a raid on an FMLN safehouse in Honduras. Montenegro's importance is underscored by the fact that the September 1982 taking of 108 civilian hostages in San Pedro Sula, Honduras, was essentially an attempt by a leftist Honduran terrorist group (with close ties to the Salvadoran insurgents) to secure his release. The hostage seizure failed because Montenegro had already been transferred to Salvadoran military authorities. Montenegro provided some significant information:

-- He said that the Cubans played a major role in training those who conducted the successful January 27, 1982, raid on the Salvadoran air base at Ilopango, which damaged or destroyed a dozen aircraft.

-- Montenegro himself directed the attack, leading an eight-man team that had received 5 months of special infiltration and sabotage training in Cuba.

-- He said that he personally had attended two high-level meetings with Cuban officials in 1981--one in Havana and the other in [illegible]

-- One of the guerrillas captured with Montenegro made [illegible] trips to Managua in 1982 to pick up arms [illegible]

[illegible] weapons and ammunition. Although he [illegible] some weapons and ammunition from the Salvadoran military.

The other captured Salvadoran guerrilla leader, Lopez Arriola, admitted attending a platoon leaders' course in Cuba in July 1979. He said that:

-- Hundreds of Salvadoran guerrillas have received military training in Cuba;

-- Cubans give special courses for combatants, commanders, staff officers, and intelligence officials;

-- He had attended an insurgent strategy meeting in Havana in June 1981, at which Castro himself appeared.

Lopez Arriola also revealed that the Sandinistas control weapons delivered from Vietnam to Nicaragua for the Salvador insurgents and that the guerrillas must ask for permission to draw on the supplies. He added that the Sandinistas give the insurgents an extensive base of operations in and around Managua and provide a school for their children.

IV. Guatemala

In Guatemala, although there was increased guerrilla activity in the months proceeding the elections, this violence failed to disrupt the national elections of March 7, 1982. A widespread, but unconfirmed, perception of extensive electoral fraud by the government together with pervasive and excessive government corruption and international isolation led to a junior officer coup on March 23, 1982. The new President, General Efrain Rios Montt, who had been on inactive duty for four years, acted quickly.

He disbanded various semi-official groups that had taken part in violence against opposition leaders and offered amnesty for guerrillas who surrendered before the end of June 1982. (The Guatemalan Government has since renewed this offer and it is currently in force). From that point on, the Guatemalan Government [illegible] intensive counter-insurgency program. The Cubans and the Soviet bloc have continued to provide military training and support to various factions of the Guatemalan insurgency.

V. Honduras

The new democratic government of Honduras--inaugurated in January 1982--increased its cooperation with the United States and neighbors in the region to neutralize the threat posed by the large military buildup in Nicaragua as well as by the guerrillas in the region. Having failed in 1981 to persuade Honduras to be neutral by promising that Cuba and Nicaragua would "spare Honduras" from the terrorism affecting El Salvador and Guatemala, Cuba now seeks to intimidate Honduras and its leaders into passivity through acts of terrorism. By doing so, the Cubans hope to eliminate a major obstacle to arms shipments to El Salvador and thus to increase the chance that the Salvadoran guerrillas can succeed.

Cuba and Nicaragua have worked actively to keep the Honduran Government from cooperating with El Salvador's efforts to prevent the transit of guerrilla supplies. Increased Cuban/Nicaraguan training and support have been provided to the Honduran extreme left, and Havana has stepped up efforts to promote unity among the Honduran leftist groups as part of a campaign to destablize the Honduran Government. Examples of extreme leftist actions in Honduras during 1981 included the following:

-- In early January 1981, Honduran police caught six persons unloading weapons from a truck enroute from Nicaragua. The six identified themselves as members of the International Support Commission of the Salvadoran Popular Liberation Forces, a part of the FMLN. They had in their possession a large number of altered and forged Honduran, Costa Rican, and Salvadoran passports and other identity documents. One truck contained more than 100 M-16/AR-15 automatic rifles, 50 81mm mortar rounds, about 100,000 rounds of 5.56mm ammunition, machineguns [illegible]

[illegible] for the Morazanist Front for the Liberation of [illegible] was described in the pro-government newspaper El Nuevo Diario, by "Octavio," one of its founders, as a political-military organization formed as part of the "increasing regionalization of the Central American conflict." The raid occurred on November 27, 1981, in Tegucigalpa. Following a gunfight the Honduran police captured several members of this group. This cell included a Honduran, a Uruguayan, and several Nicaraguans. The captured terrorists told Honduran authorities that the Nicaraguan Government had provided them with funds for travel expenses, as well as explosives.

Captured documents and statements by detained guerrillas further indicated that the group was formed in Nicaragua at the instigation of high-level Sandinista leaders. The group's chief of operations resided in Managua. Members of the group received military training in Nicaragua and Cuba. The documents included classroom notebooks from a 1-year training course held in Cuba in 1980. Other captured documents revealed that guerrillas at one safehouse were responsible for transporting arms and ammunition into Honduras from Esteli, Nicaragua.

Our information shows that Nicaraguan agents and Salvadoran extreme left groups have played a leading role in the Honduran operation:

-- The Salvadoran guerrillas have links with almost all Honduran terrorist groups and assist them in subversive planning, training, and operations.

-- The December 1982, kidnapping of Honduran President Suazo's daughter in Guatemala was the work of a Guatemalan Marxist-Leninist guerrilla faction.

-- Discussions reportedly were held in mid-1982 among the [illegible]

Costa Rica now [illegible] and social tensions [illegible] May 1982. [illegible] Right and Left, was inaugurated as President.

Because his government has attempted to stop the continued use of its territory for the supply of weapons to the region's Marxist-Leninist guerrrillas, Cuba and Nicaragua also have made Costa Rica a target for subversion. During 1982, for example:

-- Cuba funded a new leftist political party designed to unify various leftist elements and attract broader popular support;

-- The Cubans and Sandinistas provided weapons and training for Costa Rican leftist terrorists;

-- Since the beginning of 1982, several guerrilla arms caches and safehouses have been discovered in Costa Rica.

-- In March 1982, the Costa Rican Judicial Police discovered a large arms cache in a house in San Jose. Among the nine people arrested there were Salvadorans, Nicaraguans, an Argentine, a Chilean, and a Costa Rican. Costa Rican police so far have seized 13 vehicles designed for arms smuggling and more than 170 weapons, including machineguns, TNT, fragmentation grenades, a grenade-launcher, ammunition and 500 combat uniforms.

-- Nicaragua has instigated terrorist actions in Costa Rica, leading to increased tensions between the two countries. Although the Sandinistas denied complicity, the July 3, 1982, bombing of the Honduran airlines office in San Jose took place at Nicaragua's direction, according to a Colombian M-19 member arrested by Costa Rican authorities on July 14, 1982.

-- The captured terrorist also stated that the July 3, bombing was part of a broader Nicaraguan plan that included sabotage, kidnappings, bank robberies, and other terrorist acts designed to discredit Costa Rica internationally.

-- In November 1982, Salvadoran guerrillas attempted to kidnap [illegible] Costa Rica to destabilize the government.

[illegible] to invade El Salvador using the armies of Honduras and Guatemala with assistance from Brazil, Argentina, and [illegible] was characterized as a last ditch effort by the U.S. [illegible] transform the situation in El Salvador in favor of government forces prior to the U.S. elections in November 1980.

Captured documents indicate that the FMLN has coordinated the FDR's international activities (in the United States, Canada, and Europe) from Mexico City. The Soviets in Mexico City are also in contact with the Salvadoran guerrillas. Logistics and international relations policy, however, are handled in Havana. The Cuban press agency, Prensa Latina, provides international communications for the FDR and its representatives abroad.

The Soviets and Cubans met in June 1980 with several Salvadoran insurgent leaders in Havana to establish a strategy for an international political campaign on El Salvador. Evidence from captured guerrilla documents indicates that the strategy includes:

-- Propaganda: Spokesmen should emphasize that the Salvadoran "revolution" represents the people and is fighting against oppression and for freedom from outside intervention. The United States seeks direct military intervention in El Salvador to keep the "junta" in power.

-- International Support: Representatives should gain recognition and support for the insurgents from a broad range of international organizations and political and regional groups.

-- U.S. Initiatives: Representatives should strengthen ties with sympathetic American organizations and seek support from American politicians.

-- Public Posture: From the outset, representatives should call for a dialogue to seek resolution of the conflict. "The policy of a dialogue is a tactical maneuver to broaden [illegible] peace and justice.

[illegible] with Cuban cronies, since that time Havana and the Salvadoran guerrilla leadership in Nicaragua have followed it [illegible]

[illegible] El Salvador, and widespread use has been made of disinformation to substantiate the message. Moscow also has employed its international fronts, such as the World Peace Council and the World Federation of Trade Unions, in support of the propaganda campaign.

Communist parties in Europe, Latin America, Canada and Australia have participated in the propaganda campaign and helped organize demonstrations. Their publications have continuously printed articles on El Salvador and contributed to disinformation circulating about the situation in that country. For instance, the Communist Party of Spain, in its maganzine Mundo Oberro Semanal amid pictures of blood-covered bodies, accused the United States of encircling El Salvador with the aid of Honduras and Guatemala, of sending tanks and helicopters "piloted by Yankees," of invading El Salvador, and of murdering Salvadoran Archbishop Romero.

Meanwhile, the FDR-FMLN, with Soviet and Cuban support, has directed the establishment of "Solidarity Committees" throughout Europe and Canada, Australia and New Zealand. These serve as propaganda outlets and conduits for contributions to the guerrillas. These committees also have helped plan, in conjunction with Communist parties and local leftist groups, many of the demonstrations that have taken place in support of the Salvadoran guerrillas. The timing and location of the demonstrations, such as those held worldwide after the failure of the January 1981 FMLN "final offensive" and those to protest the March 1982 Salvadoran elections, show that they resulted from a well-coordinated effort.

VIII. Extent of Outside Support

Since the Sandinista victory in July 1979, both Cuba and Nicaragua have steadily increased the size and quality of their "Revolutionary" military forces. The Soviets have played a major role in this militarization of the region.

[redacted]

-- In April 1982, a communist bloc ship delivered four Soviet heavy tank ferries, one small patrol boat, and 12 small mobile multiple-rocket-launchers.

-- The tank ferries provide the Sandinista army with an offensive water-crossing capability, while the mobile rocket-launchers gave them a mass firepower weapon unmatched in the region.

-- In mid-1982, the Sandinistas completed a new garrison for their Soviet T-54/55 tank battalion just outside of Managua. They also completed two new infantry battalion garrisons near Managua and have begun work on another major military installation south of the capital.

-- As is evident from photos #6-8, all of these military installations have a common layout similar to Cuban garrisons designed and constructed with Cuban assistance.

-- It is noteworthy that Cuban Defense Minister Raul Castro visited Nicaragua in mid-1982 with a high-level military delegation, ostensibly to offer aid for flood damage. It was announced later that 2,000 Cuban construction workers were being sent to Nicaragua. Since then, we have detected a spurt in military construction activity.

-- In November 1982, a Soviet bloc ship delivered an additional group of 25 T-54/55 tanks, bringing the total to about 50. The delivery followed a visit by Sandinista Directorate member, Daniel Ortega, to Moscow earlier in the year. To enhance the mobility of Sandinista ground forces, the Soviets have delivered MI-8 helicopters, AN-2 aircraft and armored personnel carriers also have been provided.

-- During early December 1982, eight new 122mm howitzers were delivered, supplementing the twelve 152mm guns delivered in 1981.

-- Finally, in late December 1982, the first delivery was made of sophisticated Soviet electronic gear--a high frequency/the security services, and the Cubans are attached to the Nicaraguan General Staff and the headquarters services. By mid-1982, they had concluded military agreements with Nicaragua estimated to be worth at least $125 million.

There are also about 35 military and 200 economic advisors from East European countries in Nicaragua. Most are East Germans, but some Bulgarians, Czechoslovakians, Poles and Hungarians are also present. The East Germans are most active in the Nicaraguan internal security organizations.

As many as 50 Libyan and PLO advisors have been active in Nicaragua. The Libyan advisors have been engaged mostly in assisting the Soviet-built Mi-8 light helicopters they provided the Nicaraguan [illegible]. The Libyans also provided the Sandinistas with four Soviet-built aircraft useful in counter-insurgency operations.

In April 1983, Brazil detained four Libyan aircraft transporting large quantities of weapons to Nicaragua, including two jet aircraft. This event, and a high-level delegation to Managua in May underscored Libyan leader Qadhafi's commitment to the Central American struggle (see photos 39 and 40). (Salvadoran guerrilla leader Cayetano Carpio returned to Nicaragua from Libya immediately before his April 72 purported suicide in Managua.)

PLO leader Yasir Arafat agreed to provide military equipment to Nicaragua, including arms and aircraft, when he was in Managua on July 22, 1980. The PLO has trained selected Salvadorans in the Near East and in Nicaragua. Arafat affirmed to a group of Palestinian journalists in Beirut on January 11, 1982, that "there are Palestinian revolutionaries with the revolutionaries in El Salvador..." About 30 PLO personnel are providing pilot training and aircraft maintenance in Nicaragua.

[illegible] It is a large-scale intervention in the political affairs of the nations directly concerned, for the clear purpose of bringing to power governments on the Cuban model.

ISABEL MOREL DE LETELIER, et al., Plaintiffs, v. THE REPUBLIC OF CHILE, et al., Defendants.	Civil Action No. 78-1477

REQUEST FOR INTERNATIONAL JUDICIAL ASSISTANCE

To the appropriate Judicial Authority in the Republic of Chile:

There is currently pending before this Court a suit captioned Docket No. Civil Action No. 78-1477, in which the plaintiffs seek a civil judgment against Pedro Espinoza Bravo, retired Colonel of the Army. It has been represented to this Court that defendant Espinoza may be found at Comandancia en Jefe del Ejercito, Ministerio de Defensa or the military headquarters of "lo Aguirre".

The Court respectfully requests that you cause one copy of the attached Summons and Complaint to be served upon Pedro Espinoza Bravo at the above address, or wherever else he may be found in the Republic of Chile, in the manner prescribed for the service of similar documents under the laws of the Republic of Chile. The Court further requests that, after service has been made, you cause the person who serves the documents upon Pedro Espinoza Bravo to execute the attached "Certificate of Service" and return it, together with your certification and a copy of the documents served, to this Court.

This Court stands ready to reimburse your authority for all expenses incurred in executing the instant request for judicial assistance.

The Courts of the United States are authorized by statute, Section 1696, Title 28, United States Code, to extend similar assistance to the Tribunals of the Republic of Chile in like cases.

SUBJ: LABOR LAW: GOC MODIFIES PAST LEGISLATION TO CONFORM WITH THE LABOR PLAN

REF: SANTIAGO 4844, SANTIAGO 4802

1. SUMMARY: THE GOC PUBLISHED DECREE LAW 2759 JULY 6. THE DECREE REPEALS AND PUTS SEVERAL PREVIOUS LAWS IN CONFORMITY WITH THE LABOR PLAN. THE NEW LEGISLATION REPEALS SPECIAL LEGISLATION FOR NATIONAL ORGANIZATION OF COPPER WORKERS AND STATE BANK WORKERS AND PLACES THEM AND EMPLOYEES OF OTHER STATE-OWNED CORPORATIONS UNDER THE SAME LEGISLATION REGULATING PRIVATE SECTOR LABOR ACTIVITY. UNIONS WITHIN THE STATE-OWNED SECTOR WILL HAVE UP TO A YEAR TO ADJUST THEIR ORGANIZATIONS TO THE NEW RULES. MARITIME WORKERS REMAIN EXCLUDED FROM LABOR PLAN LEGISLATION. THE NEW LAW ALSO MAKES ADJUSTMENTS IN THE LABOR CODE TO ESTABLISH COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AT THE COMPANY/ UNION LEVEL AND PROHIBIT EMPLOYEE AND EMPLOYER FEDERATIONS FROM ENGAGING IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AND TO PERMIT EMPLOYERS TO FIRE WORKERS PARTICIPATING IN ILLEGAL WORK STOPPAGES. END SUMMARY.

2. THE GOC PUBLISHED DECREE LAW 2759 ON JULY 6, 1979. IT MODIFIES DECREE LAW (DL) 2200 ON INDIVIDUAL CONTRACTS, DL 2079 ON STATE BANK ORGANIZATION, AND DL 1350 ON CODELCO-CHILE THE STATE-OWNED COPPER MINING COMPANY. IT REPEALS THE 1956 DECREE (DFL)313 ESTABLISHING A NATIONAL COPPER UNION FOR COPPER WORKERS IN THE LARGEST

AND NOW STATE-OWNED COPPER MINES.
IN THE PAST, WORKERS IN THE FIVE OPERATING DIVISIONS WERE REQUIRED TO MAINTAIN SEPARATE UNIONS PARTICULAR TO EACH PLANT JOINED AT THE FEDERATION LEVEL.)

3. THE NEW LEGISLATION REQUIRES EMPLOYEES OF STATE-OWNED CORPORATIONS TO COME UNDER THE SAME REGULATIONS AS EMPLOYEES OF PRIVATELY-OWNED COMPANIES IN FORMING TRADE UNIONS. TRADE UNIONS AND TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS REPRESENTING EMPLOYEES IN THE STATE-OWNED CORPORATIONS NOTT REGISTERED LEGALLY WITH THE LABOR MINISTRY ARE NOW REQUIRED TO DO SO. PREVIOUSLY, MANY TRADE UNIONS HAD SPECIAL LEGISLATION PERMITTING THEM TO UNIONIZE (COPPER WORKERS AND STATE BANK WORKERS), REGISTER WITH THE JUSTICE MINISTRY AS A NONPROFIT CORPORATION (RAILROAD WORKERS), OR NOTT REGISTER WITH THE GOVERNMENT AT ALL (MARITIME WORKERS, PETROLEUM WORKERS, AND SUGAR WORKERS). ALL EXCEPT MARITIME WORKERS MUST REGISTER THEIR ORGANIZATIONS UNDER THE NEW LEGISLATION. IN MOST CASES THIS WOULD MEAN ESTABLISHING WITHIN THE COMPANY LOCAL SHOP-BASED UNION ORGANIZATIONS WHICH THEN RENEW THEIR AFFILIATION WITH THE NATIONAL LEVEL ORGANIZATION EVERY TWO YEARS AS NOW REQUIRED IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR. THE LAW ALLOWS UNIONS WITHIN THE STATE-OWNED SECTOR ONE YEAR IN WHICH TO ADJUST THEIR CONSTITUTIONS AND BYLAWS TO THE NEW REQUIREMENTS.

LABOR CODE (78 SANTIAGO 4833) TO EXCLUDE PARTICIPATION OF TRADE UNION FEDERATIONS AND EMPLOYER ORGANIZATIONS IN COLLECTIVE BARGAINING. THE LAW ALSO ESTABLISHES ONE EXEMPTION FROM THE BLANKET PROSCRIPTION AGAINST FIRING MORE THAN TEN PERSONS (OR 10 PERCENT OF WORK-FORCE) IN A MONTH WITHOUT GOVERNMENT AUTHORIZATION BY PERMITTING DISMISSALS FOR ILLEGAL WORK STOPPAES, UNLESS ARTICLE 38 OF THE INTERNAL SECURITY LAW (LAW 12,927) IS BEING INVOKED. THE DECREE ALSO MAKES A CONTRACTOR RESPONSIBLE FOR ILLEGAL LABOR ACTIONS OR UNFAIR LABOR PRACTICES OF SUBCONTRACTORS EXCEPT ON CONSTRUCTION SITES. IT SPECIFICALLY MAINTAINS PRE-JUNTA RULES ALLOWING COPPER WORKERS TO SHARE IN 30 PERCENT OF THE COMPANY'S PROFITS, AS WELL AS THE 1974 LEGISLATION ESTABLISHING A FORMULA EQUIVALENT NOW TO APPROXIMATELY $600 PER YEAR BONUS PAYMENT.

MEMORANDUM TO: The Ambassador

THROUGH: DCM - Charles E. Grover

FROM: POL - Daniel H. Clare

SUBJECT: Additional Advance Against Fuels Exchange Agreement

The attached message, prepared by MILGP and supported by DAO (the organization responsible for drawing up and administering the fuels exchange agreement with the Chilean Navy), proposes a nearly three million dollar loan of bunker fuel which under normal circumstances would not be drawn against until 1985-7. It comes at a time when: the USN's petroleum is in short supply even from traditional suppliers; the Chilean Navy already has a projected six year supply on hand (given past usage); the USN has already ruled against allowing the Chilean Navy to purchase fuel under the agreement; and FMS sales are prohibited.

While under current circumstances (i.e. Letelier case), we are not hassling the GOC. On the other hand this is one big favor, and I do not believe we should convey that signal to the GOC at this time. I also believe it unwise to put the Embassy or its components on record as requesting such a favor for the Chilean Navy at this time.

My understanding is that this long-term loan is designed to spare the Chilean Navy from having to buy on the spot market. Nonetheless, if they wish to keep their war reserves topped off for a contingency six months down the road, that is their decision.

I recommend that, as a matter of USG policy, this message be held in abeyance at least until there are favorable developments in the Letelier case, when it could be reconsidered.

3."HOY" MAGAZINE LOSES APPEAL: IN A SPLIT DECISION ANNOUNCED JULY 19 A THREE JUDGE APPEALS COURT DENIED THE APPLICABILITY IN THE "HOY"CASE OF A JUDICIAL REMEDY CALLED A "RECURSO DE PROTECCION". A MAJORITY OF THE COURT RELED THAT ACCORDING TO ANOTHER JUNTA LAW THE REMEDY DID NOTT EXTEND TO ACTS OF MILITARY ZONE COMMANDERS DURING PERIODS OF NATIONAL EMERGENCY. THE MINORITY DECIDION CONTENDED THAT THE ZONE COMMANDER HAD EXCEEDED HIS AUTHORITY AND THAT "HOY'S" CASE SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ON ITS MERITS. THE CURRENT STATE OF EMERGENCY WITHIN ITS PURVIEW. END COMMENT)

4. "HOY" WILL APPEAL THE CURRENT RULING TO THE SUPREME COURT. ALREADY BEFORE THAT COURT ON APPEAL IS ANOTHER ACTION STARTED BY "HOY" ASSERTING THAT THE ZONE COMMANDER INVOKED THE WRONG PROVISION OF THE NATIONAL SECURITY LAW IN CLOSING IT DOWN FOR TWO MONTHS. MEANWHILE THE PUBLIC AND PRESS OUTCRY OVER THE SUSPENSION IS WANING. NONETHELESS, THE PRESS HAS REPORTED THAT 120 SELF-DESCRIBED JOURNALISTS HAVE CIRCULATED A PETITION OBJECTING TO THE SUSPENSION, AND "FRIENDS OF HOY" CONTINUE SOLICITING SYMBOLIC CONTRIBUTIONS OF SUPPORT FOR THE MAGAZINE. (COMMENT: "HOY" WILL NOTT WIN IN THE COURTS. IN LARGE MEASURE, THE IMPACT OF THE SUSPENSION WILL HAVE GREATER IMPACT ABROAD THAN IN CHILE. HERETOFORE, THE GOC HAD AT LEAST BEEN ABLE TO CONTEND THAT PRESS FREEDOMS IN CHILE WERE BASICALLY OBSERVED. WITHIN CHILE, WE JUDGE THAT MOST PEOPLE ARE INURED TO SUCH ACTIONS BY THE GOVERNMENT. END COMMENT)

5. OTHER INTERNAL SECURITY NOTES: TWO LOUD NOISE BOMBS EXPLOED THE NIGHT OF JULY 15/16. ALTHOUGH ONE WENT OFF IN THE GENERAL VICINITY OF THE RESIDENCES OF CONTROVERSIAL GOVERNMENT FIGURES (MINISTER OF LABOR PINERA AND UNIVERSITY OF CHILE RECTOR GENERAL TORO DAVILA), NEITHER DEVICE SEEMED DESIGNED TO CAUSE PERSONAL OR PROPERTY DAMAGE. A GROUNDLESS BOMB THREAT CAUSED THE LAN-CHILE FLIGHT CARRYING URUGUAYAN FOREIGN MINISTER FOLLE MARTINEZ TO RETURN TO

PUDAHUEL AIRPORT. THE U.S. MISSION ALSO RECEIVED A BOGUS BOMB THREAT JULY 20, FROM A BARELY COHERENT CALLER DESCRIBING HIMSELF AS AN ANTI-COMMUNIST. (COMMENT: THESE BOMBINGS AND THREATS FOLLOW A RELATIVELY QUIET PERIOD DURING WHICH SECURITY SERVICES MADE A NUMBER OF DETENTIONS AND DROVE A PAIR OF LEFTIST TERRORISTS INTO ASYLUM-- SEE BELOW. THAT THEY HAVE STARTED AGAIN RAISES A NUMBEROF QUESTIONS. END COMMENT)

6. MEANWHILE, THERE WAS A MINOR STIR IN THE TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY (UTE) STUDENT CENTER IN SANTIAGO ABOUT THE DETENTION OF A UTE STUDENT BY THE SECURITY SERVICES. THE GENERALLY PRO-GOVERNMENT STUDENT LEADERS DEFENDED THEMSELVES FROM OTHER STUDENTS' COMPLAINTS THAT THEY HAD NOTT GONE TO THEIR COLLEAGUES DEFENSE. ON JULY 20, THE JUDGE ORDERED THE RELEASE OF THE DETAINEE FOR LACK OF EVIDENCE. HE HAD BEEN HELD AT LEAST A WEEK. SAME DAY, SECURITY SERVICES ANNOUNCED THE DETENTION OF NINE PERSONS IN ARICA; ALLEGEDLY THEY ARE MEMBERS OF THE MOVEMENT OF THE EVOLUTIONARY LEFT (MIR) BUT CHARGED WITH INTERNAL SECURITY CODE VIOLATIONS RATHER THAN ARMS CONTROL VIOLATIONS, I.E., PROPAGANDA RATHER THAN VIOLENT CRIMES.

7. THE PANAMANIAN EMBASSY HAS OFFICIALLY REQUESTED SAFE-CONDUCTS FOR ITS TWO VISITORS WHO SOUGHT ASYLUM LAST WEEK (SEE REFTEL B). FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS HAS TWICE REPEATED THAT THE GOC DOES NOTT CONSIDER PERSONS RESPONSIBLE FOR COMMON CRIMES TO BE POLITICAL PRISONERS, BUT WE ASSUME THAT THIS IS FOR DOMESTIC AND INTERNATIONAL CONSUMPTION AND THAT SAFE-CONDUCTS WILL EVENTUALLY BE FORTHCOMING.

E. O. 12065: GDS 7/23/85 (ARCHER, EDWARD E.) OR-P
TAGS: ELAB, SHUM, PGOV, CI
SUBJECT: (L) REACTION TO CHILEAN LABOR PLAN: PRO-GOVERNMENT LABOR CONFEDERATION GRUMBLING; COMMUNISTS UNUSUALLY TACITURN

1. (C) SUMMARY: AFTER TWO WEEKS OF STUDY, THE PRO-GOVERNMENT LABOR CONFEDERATION ISSUED A STATEMENT DESCRIBING THE LABOR PLAN AS HARMFUL TO WORKERS' INTERESTS AND CALLING FOR A WORKERS' PLEBISCITE AND JOINT LABOR-GOVERNMENT NEGOTIATIONS TO REDRAFT IT. THE COPPER WORKER WHO REPRESENTS LABOR ON THE APPOINTED COUNCIL OF STATE COMPLAINS ABOUT THE GOC'S REMOVAL OF SPECIAL LEGAL RECOGNITION FOR COPPER WORKERS. AN EX:CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT, WHO HELPED DRAFT THA LABOR PLAN, SAYS THAT HE LIKES 20 PERCENT BUT HAS TROUBLE WITH THE OTHER 80. ON THE OTHER SIDE OF THE WALK, THE COMMUNISTS HAVE BEEN SURPRISINGLY MUTED IN THEIR CRITICISMS .
TWO COMMUNIST UNIONISTS TOLD OUR LABATT THAT PROVISIONS IN THE PLAN SPECIFICALLY ENCOURAGING UNIONS TO SERVE AS HIRING HALLS IN THE CONSTRUCTION AND BUILDING TRADES WILL REDOUND TO THEIR ADVANTAGE. THE DIFFERENT SIDES ARE OBVIOUSLY PLAYING VARIOUS ANGLES, BUT THEIR REACTIONS ARE SOMEWHAT UNEXPECTED. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) TWO WEEKS OF CAREFUL STUDY LATER, THE PRO-GOVERNMENT

UNION OF CHILEAN WORKERS (UNTRACH) HAS PUBLICLY CALLED FOR A WORKERS' PLEBISCITE TO DETERMINE THEIR OPINION ON WHAT THE CONFEDERATION DESCRIBED AS A LABOR PLAN WHICH HARMS WORKERS' INTERESTS. THE JULY 19 ANNOUNCEMENT PROPOSED THE CREATION OF A LABOR/GOVERNMENT BILATERAL COMMISSION TO REDRAFT LABOR LEGISLATION AND URGED THE END OF "THE CAMPAING TO DISCREDIT LABOR LEADERS,"

BY ALLOWING THE GRASS ROOTS TO DECIDE BY WHOM AND HOW THEY WANTED TO BE LED.

3. (L) THE GOVERNMENT-DESIGNATED LABOR REPRESENTATIVE TO THE COUNCIL OF STATE, A COPPER CONFEDERATION LEADERS, HAS NOT SURPRISINGLY CRITICIZED THE GOC DECREE WHICH RECINDS THE PREVIOUS LEGISLATION MAKING SPECIAL PROVISIONS FOR THE COPPER WORKERS AND THEIR ORGANIZATION. PRIVATELY HE TOLD EMBOFFS OF HIS CONCERN OVER PROVISIONS IN THE NEW LAWS AIMMD AT ENDING THE POLITICIZATION OF LABOR BY ENCOURAGING PROLIFERATION OF LOCAL UNIONS. MEDINA DOUBTED THAT THIS APPROACH WOULD WORK -- SPECULATING THAT PARTY PHILOSOPHIES WOULD MERELY RESULT IN THE POLITICALLY LIKE-MINDED CREATING THEIR SMALL BASE UNIONS IN EACH PLANT. ULTIMATELY, THIS WOULD ACTUALLY BENEFIT THE COMMUNISTS BECAUSE OF THEIR PROVEN ORGANIZATIONAL AND CONTROL ABILITIES.

4. (U) WILLIAM THAYER, A LONG-TIME CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT WHO WAS REMOVED FROM PARTY ROLLS BECAUSE OF HIS WILLINGNESS TO WORK WITH THE CURRENT GOC, PROVIDED "COSAS" BIEWEEKLY WITH A LENGTHY INTERVIEW. HE WAS ONE OF THE DRAFTERS OF THE LABOR PLAN, BUT ACCORDING TO THE MAGAZINE HE SAYS HE "LIKES 20 PERCENT OF IT" BUT "HAS SEVERE CRITICISMS OF THE OTHER 80 PERCENT." AMONG OTHER THINGS, THAYER CRITICIZED THE EFFORT TO ATOMIZE THE UNION MOVEMENT AND REDUCE THE ROLE OF FEDERATIONS. HE ALLOWED THAT IN PRACTICE TRADE UNIONISTS MAY FIND WAYS AROUND THIESE PROSCRIPTIONS ON THEIR ACTIVITIES, BUT HE THOUGHT THE WHOLE

UNCLASSIFIED

PROCESS WAS DEEPLY FLAWED BY THE DECADE OF ALLENDE AND THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT WHICH TOGETHER HAVE KEPT GOVERNMENT, LABOR, AND MANGEMENT FROM THE KIND OF ONGOING DISCUSSIONS WHICH WOULD HAVE PRODUCED A BETTER SYSTEM.

5. (L) LOOKING AT THE OTHER SIDE OF THE TRACKS, WE HAVE BEEN SURPRISED AT THE EXTREMELY MUTED REACTION OF THE COMMUNISTS. IN THE PAST, WHEN INTERESTS THE PARTY THOUGHT VITAL WERE BEING THREATENED, THE PCCH FOUND AVENEUES TO LET ITS SQUAWKS BE HEARD. WE HAVE COMBED THE OPPOSITION PUBLICATIONS AND SOUGHT FOR THE USUAL BARRAGE OF FLYERS WHICH INDICATE COMMUNISTS CONCERN. WE HAVE FOUND EXCEPTIONALLY LITTLE.

6. (L) SHORTLY AFTER THE LABOR PLAN WAS ANNOUNCED, HECTOR CUEVAS -- COMMUNIST LEADER OF THE GOC-BANNED BUILDING TRADES CONFEDERATION -- AND RICARDO LECARIOS -- COMMUNIST PRESIDENT OF THE BANNED METAL WORKERS FEDERATION -- TOLD LABATT THAT IN SPITE OF THE GOC BANS THEY HAD OPENED NEW OFFICES. THEY CLAIM TO BE BUSY CREATING NEW PROVINCIAL LEVEL FEDERATIONS UNDER THE NEW LEGISLATION

AND AS AN INTERIM MEASURE. CUEVAS -- WHILE OBVIOUSLY NOT PLEASED WITH THE LABOR PLAN IN GENERAL -- ASSERTED THAT FROM HIS POINT OF VIEW IT CONTAINED AT LEAST ONE VERY USEFUL PROVISION: THE LAW ENCOURAGES THE UNIONIZATION OF THE BUILDING AND CONSTRUCTION TRADES AND THE USE OF THESE UNIONS AS HIRING HALLS. GIVEN THE LARGE NUMBER OF UNEMPLOYED CONSTRUCTION WORKERS, CUEVAS IS CONFIDENT THAT HIS ALREADY TIGHT-KNIT CADRE WILL FIND AN AMPLE POOL OF NEW UNION MEMBERS.

7. (C) COMMENT: OBVIOUSLY, UNTRACH WANTS TO AVOID BEING PORTRAYED AS LACKEY-FLACKS FOR THE GOVERNMENT; YET IT IS CLEAR THAT ITS FORCEFUL ANNOUNCEMENT HAS IRKED THE GOC AND LABOR MINISTER PINERA. PINERA, FOR HIS PART, HAS TOLD EMBOFFS THAT HE IS PREPARING CHARTS OF HOW FEW UNIONS JOINED FEDERATIONS UNDER THE NEW GROUND RULES WHICH, HE ASSERTS, SHOWS THAT CURRENT LABOR LEADERSHIP REPRESENTS LITTLE. UNTRACH'S CRITICISM, HOWEVER, DEMONSTRATES THAT MAJOR PARTS OF THE NEW LAWS DO NOT SIT WELL WITH LABOR LEADERS

OF ANY STRIPE.

8. (C) THE POSITION OF THE COMMUNISTS IS MORE DIFFICULT TO FATHOM. IT HAS BEEN REPORTED ELSEWHERE THAT TOP COMMUNISTS VIEW THE LABOR PLAN AS THE VIRTUAL DEATH KNELL TO THEIR ORGANIZATION. SHOULD THAT BE THE CASE, WE WOULD HAVE EXPECTED THE KIND OF OUTCRY WE KNOW THE PARTY CAN PUT OUT WHEN IT WANTS TO. AS TROUBLESOME IS THE FACT THAT COMMUNISTS TRADE UNIONISTS HAVE CONTINUED TO ACT WITH IMPUNITY. OUSTING THE COMMUNISTS FROM THE CONSTRUCTION AND BUILDING TRADES OR ERODING THEIR BASE WOULD HAVE BEEN DIFFICULT EVEN WITHOUT THE NEW LAWS. WHILE CUEVAS UNDOUBTEDLY SPOKE WITH A BRAVADO HARD TO WEIGH, OUR OWN ASSESSMENT IS THAT HE SHOULD BE ABLE TO EXPLOIT THESE PROVISIONS OF THE NEW LAW TO COMMUNISTS ADVANTAGE.

1. SUMMARY: USG LOCAL LAWYER ETCHEBERRY SPOKE FOR NEARLY THREE HOURS JULY 23, IN THE OPENING PRESENTATION OF ORAL ARGUMENTS BEFORE A FIVE-JUDGE PANEL OF THE SUPREME COURT REVIEWING THE USG EXTRADITION REQUEST. ETCHEBERRY CONCENTRATED ON ESTABLISHING TOWNLEY'S CREDIBILITY. TWO RADIO STATIONS CARRIED THE HEARINGS LIVE; TV FEATURED THE STORY. THE TWO LEADING DAILIES FRONT-PAGED THE EVENT; GOC-OWNED "CRONISTA" OBVIOUSLY BURIED IT IN A FEW INSIDE PARAGRAPHS. SO FAR, MEDIA HAS GIVEN STRAIGHT FORWARD COVERAGE; ONLY EDITORIAL ("TERCERA'S") SAID UNPRECEDENTED LIVE BROADCAST AND LARGE NUMBER OF PRESS WILL SHOW WORLD THAT CHILE HAS NOTHING TO HIDE. JULY 24 ETCHEBERRY CONTINUES AND WILL OUTLINE USG CASE. END SUMMARY.

2. TWO EMBOFFS WERE AMONG HUNDRED SPECTATORS FILLING THE CHAMBER AS ALFREDO ETCHEBERRY LED OFF THE ORAL PRESENTATIONS BEFORE THE FIRST PANEL OF THE SUPREME COURT. OTHER PRESS, LAWYERS, LAW STUDENTS, AND THOSE INTERESTED IN HUMAN RIGHTS FILLED A SECOND ROOM WHERE SPEAKERS TRANSMITTED ETCHEBERRY'S PRESENTATION. PDC-ORIENTED "RADIO COOPERATIVA" AND WIDELY HEARD "RADIO MINERIA" BROADCAST HIS ARGUMENTS LIVE, AN EVENT DESCRIBED BY THE PRESS AS UNPRECEDENTED. THE FORMAL ORAL PRESENTATIONS OF THE LAWYERS FOR THE PARTIES IS THE ONLY PHASE OF THE JUDICIAL PROCESS WHICH IS TRULY PUBLIC AND INTEREST IS HIGH.

3. ETCHEBERRY, FOLLOWING CHILEAN PROCEDURES, SITS BEHIND A DESK AND GIVES A FORMAL SPEECH TO FIVE SOMBER JUDGES WHO TRY MANFULLY TO PAY ATTENTION. DEFENSE ATTORNEYS BUSILY TAKE NOTES, WHILE COURT RAPPORTEUR BENQUIS SITS AT ANOTHER DESK SILENTLY CONTEMPLATING A LARGE STACK OF PAPERS -- THE EXTRADITION FILE. THE THREE DEFENDANTS ARE NOT PRESENT. IN SUM, FOR A LAYMAN EXPOSED TO POPULARIZED VIEWS OF THE TENSION AND DRAMA OF U.S. COURTROOM PROCEDURES IN CRIMINAL CASES, THIS IS A RATHER TAME AFFAIR.

4. ETCHEBERRY DEDICATED HIS FIRST DAY'S PRESENTATION TO SHOWING THAT THE USG HAD MET THE REQUIREMENTS FOR EXTRADITION. HE DISCUSSED POSSIBLE CHILEAN JURISDICTION -- EITHER CIVILIAN OR MILITARY -- AND POINTED OUT THE INCONSISTENCY OF TRYING TO SPLIT FIRST INSTANCE JURISDICTION BETWEEN TWO STATES. HE ALSO REBUTTED THE DEFENSE'S PASSING REFERENCES TO INVOKING THE TREATY PROVISIONS REGARDING POLITICAL CRIMES BY OBSERVING THAT THE MURDER OF RONNI MOFFITT AUTOMATICALLY EXCLUDES THIS LINE OF DEFENSE. HE ALSO DREW FROM CHILEAN LAW TO SHOW THAT GROUNDS FOR INDICTMENT REQUIRED ONLY "REASONABLE CAUSE" WHILE CONVICTION REQUIRED A HIGHER DEGREE OF CERTAINTY.

5. ETCHEBERRY CONCENTRATED ON ESTABLISHING MICHAEL TOWNLEY'S CREDIBILITY. HE WAS HARSH INCRITICIZING BOTH FISCAL CHAMORRO AND SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT BORQUEZ'S DECISIONS FOR CONTAINING ONLY PASSING MENTION OF THE SUPPORTING EVIDENCE. ETCHEBERRY SAID THAT TOWNLEY'S TESTIMONY HAD BEEN SUBSTANTIATED ON EVERY VERIFIABLE POINT AND THE REAL QUESTION BEFORE THE COURT WAS HIS TRUTHFULNESS. ETCHEBERRY SAID A PLEA BARGAIN REQUIRING TESTIMONY UNDER OATH WAS NOT ONLY ACCEPTED U.S. PRACTICE, BUT THE THREAT OF CANCELLING THE DEAL IF THE WITNESS LIED LENT CREDENCE TO THE VERACITY OF THE TESTIMONY (IN ROMAN LAW, A DEFENDANT DOES NOT TESTIFY UNDER OATH AND HAS NO LEGAL OBLIGATION TO TELL THE TRUTH -- HOWEVER, HE HAS NO FIFTH AMENDMENT PROTECTION). MOREOVER, ETCHEBERRY WENT ON TO POINT TO ANALOGOUS EXAMPLES IN CHILEAN LAW WHICH PROVIDE REDUCED SENTENCES, TO THOSE ACCUSED OF CERTAIN CRIMES, FOR COOPERATION WITH THE COURTS. THE DEFENSE HAD MADE MUCH OF TOWNLEY'S FIRST STATEMENTS BEFORE MILITARY PROSECUTOR OROZCO BEFORE LEAVING CHILE (IN WHICH HE DENIED PARTICIPATING IN THE ASSASSINATION). ETCHEBERRY, THEREFORE, REVIEWED OROZCO'S QUESTIONABLE BEHAVIOR: HIS RE-

LUCTANCE TO EXPLAIN CANDIDLY TO BORQUEZ THE REASON FOR HIS MID-APRIL 1978 TRIP TO SEE TOWNLEY IN THE U.S.; AND HIS ILLEGAL ACTIONS IN PROVIDING CONTRERAS WITH TOWNLEY'S OSTENSIBLE SECRET FIRST DECLARATION. ETCHEBERRY PROMPTED A REACTION FROM THE SPECTATORS WHEN HE READ OROZCO'S FRIENDLY NOTE TO "MAMO" (CONTRERAS' NICKNAME) IN TRAKNSMITTING THE DOCUMENT.

6. TV FEATURED THE OPENING OF THE HEARINGS WHILE " ERCURIO" AND "TERCERA," THE LEADING DAILIES, GAVE IT FRONT-PAGE ATTENTION. LOW-CIRCULATION TABLOID "ULTIMAS NOTICIAS" CARRIED A FULL PAGE, STRAIGHTFORWARD ACCOUNT INSIDE. GOC-OWNED "CRONISTA" RATHER OBVIOUSLY RELEGATEE THE STORY TO A FEW PARAGRAPHS ON PAGE SIX. "TERCERA'S " EDITORIAL SAID THAT THE PRESS AND RADIO COVERAGE WOULD DEMONSTRATE THAT CHILEAN JUSTICE IS OPEN AND IMPARTIAL.

Dear Senator Williams:

I am replying to your letter to the Department of Justice of March 5 on behalf of [redacted] concerning the death in Chile of American citizen Charles Horman.

As [redacted] knows, Mr. Horman was killed in Santiago shortly after the military coup in Chile of September 11, 1973. The circumstances of his death have not been established, despite intensive efforts by the Department of State, our Embassy in Santiago, and Mr. Horman's own family. Charges have been made that he was killed by forces of the military government that took power by force just before his death. The Chilean Government has denied these charges, and to date the matter remains unresolved.

Many allegations have been advanced since Mr. Horman's death. Some of them are based upon simple misunderstandings of facts, some are distorted, and some appear to be inventions. Careful and exhaustive investigation by this Department has not substantiated the allegations of negligence or wrongdoing by U.S. Government employees.

We remain interested in this case and determined to pursue any information that may lead to its resolution.

Sincerely,

PA/PC/CM:HHGilsnis:dj

REF: SANTIAGO 5124

1. ON JULY 24 ALFREDO ETCHEBERRY COMPLETED HIS ORAL PRESENTATION TO THE FIVE JUDGES OF THE SUPREME COURT HEARING THE EXTRADITION REQUEST. ETCHEBERRY LAID OUT THE USG CASE AGAINST CONTRERAS, ESPINOZA, AND FERNANDEZ FOR THE FIRST TIME IN PUBLIC. HE BUILT THIS CASE ON THE EVIDENCE SUBMITTED IN OUR INITIAL EXTRADITION REQUEST AND STATEMENTS THE THREE DEFENDANTS HAD GIVEN HERE IN THE COURSE OF THE INVESTIGATIONS CONDUCTED BY JUDGE BORQUEZ. WITH VIRTUALLY NO NEED TO RELY ON THE TOWNLEY DECLARATION, ETCHEBERRY SHOWED THAT: 1) TOWNLEY KILLED LETELIER AND MOFFITT, 2) HE HAD BEEN AN IMPORTANT AND LONG-TIME MEMBER OF DINA (THE CHILEAN INTELLIGENCE AGENCY), AND 3) HE TRAVELED TO THE U.S. IN SEPTEMBER, 1976, UNDER ORDERS OF DINA. ETCHEBERRY THEN DEMONSTRATED THAT, BY THEIR OWN STATEMENTS, THE THREE DEFENDANTS ACKNOWLEDGED HAVING BEEN DIRECTLY,

PERSONALLY INVOLVED IN ARRANGEMENTS, ALTHOUGH FOR OTHER PURPOSES. ETCHEBERRY LISTED NUMEROUS FLAWS, LIES, AND INCONCSISTENCIES MADE BY THE DEFENDANTS IN EXPLAINING THESE "OTHER PURPOSES."

2. ETCHBERRY SAID THAT THE GOC HAD A PERFECT RIGHT TO REJECT EXTRADITION ON GROUNDS OF NATIONALITY, AND THAT SHOULD

IT DO SO, TG WOULD HAVE NO LEGAL RECOURSE GIVEN THE TERMS OF THE EXTRADITION TREATY. BUT HE OBSERVED THAT THE RESULT OF INVOKING THE NATIONALITY OPTION, OR PERMITTING THE BORQUEZ DECISION TO STAND, WOULD IN PRACTICAL TERMS MEAN THAT THE DEFENDANTS COULD NOT RECEIVE A MEANINGFUL TRAIL IN CHILE. HE STRONGLY OBJECTED TO DEFENSE ASSERTION THAT THE EXTRADITION WAS DIRECTED AGAINST "CHILE" OR EVEN ITS GOVERNMENT. ETCHEBERRY CONTENDED THAT THE BEST INTEREST OF CHILE WAS TO PERMIT THE MEN TO STAND TRIAL IN THE U.S. WHERE THEY MIGHT VINDICATE THEMSELVES. COUNTERING A DEFENSE ASSERTION THAT TURNING OVER THE CHIEF OF SECRET POLICE PLACED IN JEOPARDY NATIONAL SECURITY SECRETS, ETCHEBERRY ARGUED THAT ON THE CONTRARY SUCH A PERSON BEST UNDERSTOOD THE IMPORTANCE OF NOT REVEALING INFORMATION DAMAGING TO CHILE'S NATIONAL SECURITY.

3. LIVE RADIO COVERAGE CONTINUED: TV NEWS FEATURED THE HEARINGS FOR THE SECOND CONSECUTIVE DAY. IN THE WRITTEN PRESS, HOWEVER, "MERCURIO" RATHER OBVIOUSLY RELEGATED THE STORY TO ONE QUARTER OF AN INSIDE PAGE. ONLY "TERCERA" GAVE FULLY APPROPRIATE PLAY. THERE HAS BEEN NO EDITORIAL COMMENT SO FAR ON THE MERITS OF THE CASE.

1. (U) GENERAL GUSTAVO LEIGH, FORMER CHILEAN AIR FORCE CHIEF AND OUSTED MEMBER OF THE ORIGINAL JUNTA, HELD A PRESS CONFERENCE JULY 24, THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF HIS FORCED DEPARTURE. LEIGH CALLED HIS DISMISSAL "THE DIRECT RESULT OF HIS LOYALTY TO THE PRINCIPLES WHICH MOTIVATED THE SEPTEMBER 11 MOVEMENT." HE CRITICIZED THE CURRENT GOVERNMENT AS "PERSONALIST, IMMOBILE, AND LEADING TO A STRATIFICATION OF THIS SOCIETY" WHICH COULD LEAD CHILE TO AN EXPLOSIVE SITUATION LIKE THAT IN NICARAGUA. HE STATED THAT CHILE'S INTERNATIONAL SITUATION "COULD NOT BE WORSE," THAT CHILE FINDS ITSELF ABSOLUTELY ALONE IN THE WORLD.

2. (U) CONTINUING, THE FORMER OFFICER EXPLAINED THAT THE LETELIER KILLING WAS A CRIME THAT HAS SEVERELY PREJUDICED CHILE IN THE EYES OF THE WORLD. HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT NO JUNTA MEMBER WAS AWARE OF THE ASSASSINATION PLAN AND THAT HE, AS A MAN WHO RESPECTS THE LAW, WOULD ACCEPT THE SUPREME COURT DECISION.

3. (U) FINALLY, LEIGH DENIED THAT HE HAS ANY POLITICAL AMBITIONS. HE CONTENDED THAT HIS ONLY AMBITION IS, FOR THE GOOD OF THE COUNTRY, TO PROMOTE CHANGE IN THE STULTIFYING POLITICAL SITUATION IN CHILE.

WE ALSO DOUBT THAT IT WILL HAVE MUCH IMPACT WITHIN THE AIR FORCE AND LESS IN THE OTHER SERVICES. NONETHELESS, LEIGH'S CONTINUING CRITICISMS ANNOY THE GOC AS PINOCHET'S EFFUSIVE WORDS OF PRAISE TO MATTHEI DEMONSTRATE. 2. A SLIGHTLY SMALLER CROWD LISTENED TO CRUZ COKE SUMMARIZE THE DEFENSE ARGUMENTS FOR ARMANDO FERNANDEZ LARIOS, THE CHILEAN ARMY OFFICER WHO SURVEILLED LETELIER TO SET UP THE ASSASSINATION. CRUZ COKE REVIEWED THE DEFENSE'S CONTENTION THAT FERNANDEZ ACCOMPANIED TOWNLEY TO PARAGUAY TO GET DOCUMENT TO SEE GENERAL WALTERS. HE STRESSED THAT FERNANDEZ' TRIP TO THE US WITH THE MYSTERIOUS "LILIANA WALKER" WAS AS HER BACKSTOP ON THE CODELCO CAPER AND DOWNPLAYED EARLIER, EQUALLY SPECIOUS, ARGUMENTS THAT IT WAS A CONSOLATION PRIZE AWARDED BY CONTRERAS SINCE HE SENT TWO OTHERS ON THE SECOND UNSUCCESSFUL TRY TO SEE GENERAL WALTERS. CRUZ COKE SOUGHT TO FUZZ UP FERNANDEZ' EARLIER TRIP TO BUENOS AIRES TO GET FALSE ARGENTINE DOCUMENTATION. HE USED A CLASSIFIED CHILEAN EMBASSY REPORT TO DENY THAT LETELIER WAS IN WASHINGTON IN LATE AUGUST (INSINUATING THAT THE GOC WAS MAINTAINING A SURVEILLANCE OF LETELIER FROM THE EMBASSY). COMMENT: WE HAD ALREADY ENTERED INTO THE RECORD PROOF THAT LETELIER WAS IN WASHINGTON DURING THE CRUCIAL PERIOD. END COMMENT.

3. TURNING TO THE USG EVIDENCE AGAINST FERNANDEZ, HE WENT AFTER TOWNLEY WHOM HE ASSERTED WORKED FOR THE CIA. HE TOOK OUT OF CONTEXT A USG AFFIDAVIT ACKNOWLEDGING TOWNLEY HAD BEEN CLEARED FOR USE AS AN AGENT WITHOUT MENTIONING THAT THE SAME AND ACCOMPANYING AFFIDAVITS SHOWED THAT HE HAD NEVER BEEN USED BY THE AGENCY. CRUZ COKE ALSO DEDICATED A CONSIDERABLE PORTION OF HIS ARGUMENT TO DISCREDITING THE LAN-CHILE EMPLOYEE AT KENNEDY AIRPORT WHO TESTIFIED THAT THE MEETING BETWEEN TOWNLEY AND FERNANDEZ WAS PRE-ARRANGED. HE CLAIMED THAT THE EMPLOYEE HAD MADE HIS INCRIMINATING STATEMENTS AS PART OF A DEAL WITH PROSECUTORS NOT TO INDICT HIM FOR HIS ROLE IN PASSING EXPLOSIVES TO ANTI-CASTRO CUBANS. IN CONCLUDING, CRUZ COKE SAID THAT AS A LOYAL ARMY OFFICER, CHILE OWED FERNANDEZ SUPPORT.HE ANSWERED THAT THE USG HAD NO EVIDENCE AGAINST HIM, BUT IF THERE WAS TO BE A FURTHER HEARING IT SHOULD BE BEFORE CHILEAN MILITARY COURTS.

4. ALTHOUGH TWO RADIO STATIONS WERE TO BROADCAST THE HEARINGS LIVE, RADIO MINERIA HAD "TECHNICAL TROUBLES" EARLY THE FIRST DAY AND OSTENSIBLY HAD BEEN UNABLE TOCOME THEM. THIS HAS PROMPTED STORIES THAT THE STATION HAS BEEN COUNSELED NOT TO TRANSMIT THE HEARINGS. CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT-ORIENTED RADIO COOPERATIVE CONTINUES TO COVER THE CASE. THE GOVERNMENT'S LITTLE-READ "CRONISTA," SUDDENLY FOUND THE HEARINGS IMPORTANT AFTER ALL AND DEDICATED MOST OF A PAGE TO A PHOTO OF CRUZ COKE AND HIS PRESENTATION. WITH ITS NOW NOTORIOUS FACILITY FOR MISHANDLING A STORY, "CRONISTA" CHOSE TO HEADLINE THE DEFENSE'S MOST BLATANT LIE: "LETELIER IN HOLLAND WHEN FERNANDEZ IS U.S." OTHER DAILIES ACCORDED PRESENTATION NORMAL COVERAGE.

CARACAS AND MEXICO FOR LABATT

E.O. 12065: N/A
TAGS: ELAB PGOV CI
SUBJECT: CHILEAN LABOR PLAN

REF: A) SANTIAGO 5083, B) SANTIAGO 5219

1. SUMMARY: DEBATE OVER LABOR PLAN INTENSIFIES. GROUP OF TEN (G-10) AND AFL-CIO ISSUE JOINT DECLARATION ATTACKING PLAN. HEAD OF G-10 CALLS FOR USE OF STRIKES AS WEAPON AGAINST GOVERNMENT'S LEGISLATION. PINOCHET DEFENDS PLAN AND ATTACKS G-10 (NOT BY NAME) AS "TRAITORS" WHO SEEK EXTERNAL SOLUTIONS. PINERA DENOUNCES INTERVENTION IN CHILEAN AFFAIRS. EXTENSIVE PRESS COVERAGE INCLUDES VITUPERATIVE EDITORIALS. THIS MAY BE SOUND AND FURY TO BE FOLLOWED, AS IN THE PAST, BY DISCUSSION AND MODIFICATIONS OF THE PLAN. BOYCOTT DOES NOT APPEAR TO BE A MAJOR ISSUE. END SUMMARY.

2. RIOS STATEMENT: THE RETURN OF GROUP OF TEN (G-10) CHIEF EDUARDO RIOS AND HERNOL FLORES FROM THE US AND THE ISSUANCE OF A JOINT G-10/AFL-CIO DECLARATION JULY

26 HAS INTENSIFIED THE DEBATE OVER THE GOC LABOR PLAN. RIOS STRONGLY ATTACKED THE LEGISLATIION INSISTING THAT IT WAS REGRESSIVE AND DESTRUCTIVE OF THE RIGHTS OF WORKERS. IN OPPOSITION TO THE PLAN, RIOS URGED THE USE OF STRIKES--OUTLAWED IN CHILE SINCE 1973. HE PREDICTED THAT THE LEGISLATION MAY LAST BUT ONLY SO LONG AS THE CURRENT REGIME LASTS. RIOS WENT ON TO SAY THAT A US LABOR UNION BOYCOTT OF CHILEAN GOODS COULD OCCUR, THAT THE G-10 WOULD SYMPATHIZE WITH SUCH A BOYCOTT, BUT THAT THE GROUP HAS NOT ASKED FOR SUCH AN ACTION, A DECISION FOR INTERNATIIONAL LABOR ORGANIZATIONS TO MAKE.

3. JOINT DECLARATION: THE JOINT DECLARATION ITSELF CASTIGATED THE GOC FOR "THWARTING LEGITIMATE LABOR ASPIRATIONS IN CHILE" AND CONTINUING THE "UNION DIVISIONIST PRACTICES INITIATED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF DR ALLENDE." THE DOCUMENT FAULTED GOC FOR CLAIMING THAT THERE HAD BEEN CONSULTATIONS BETWEEN IT (THE GOVERNMENT) AND AFL-CIO WHEN, IN FACT, NONE HAD TAKEN PLACE. CHASTISED ALSO WAS THE GOVERNMENT'S FAILURE TO CONSULT WITH DEMOCRATIC WORKER ORGANIZATIONS.

4. GOC REACTION: GOC REACTION WAS SWIFT AND COMBATIVE. CHILEAN PRESIDENT PINOCHET, IN HIS JULY 26 PRESS CONFERENCE, HAD ALREADY DEFENDED THE LABOR PLAN, PORTRAYING HIMSELF AS THE DEFENDER OF THE VOICELESS. HE CALLED MONOPOLISTIC UNIONS AND THEIR LEADERS INIMICAL TO THE INTERESTS OF WORKERS, AND LABELED THEM INSTRUMENTS OF MARXIST DOGMA. FINALLY, WHILE NOT NAMING THE G-10 BUT CLEARLY REFERRING TO THEM, PINOCHET SAID THAT "TRAITORS HAVE REAPPEARED WHO SEEK FOREIGN SOLUTIONS" TO CHILEAN PROBLEMS. PRESIDENT PINOCHET SPOKE BEFORE THE G-10 PRESS CONFERENCE TOOK PLACE. THE MORNING OF JULY 26 CHILEAN PRESS CONTAINED A VERSION OF THE JOINT DECLARATION. (COMMENT: THE LEAK, TRACED BACK TO WASHINGTON, STOLE G-10 THUNDER AND, ALSO, ALLOWED GOC TO HIGHLIGHT "INTERVENTIONIST" NATURE OF G-10 ACTIONS.)

5. SO FAR THREE GOC CABINET MEMBERS HAVE RESPONDED TO RIOS' STATEMENT AND THE JOINT DECLARATION. LABOR MINISTER PINERA ISSUED A LENGTHY STATEMENT DENOUNCING THE AFL-CIO FOR "OPEN INTERVENTION IN CHILEAN INTERNAL AFFAIRS." HE DENIED THAT THERE HAD BEEN AN AGREEMENT TO CONSULT WITH AFL-CIO ON THE DRAFTING OF THE LABOR LEGISLATION; HE SAID GOC HAD AGREED TO KEEP THAT ORGANIZATION INFORMED AND HAD DONE SO. PINERA CALLED THE G-10 MEMBERS "PUPPETS" WHO SOUGHT TO PROVOKE GOC TO TAKE MEASURES AGAINST THEM. THE GOC, HE SAID, WOULD NOT MAKE "VICTIMS" OF THE PERPETRATORS OF THIS "MANEUVER" BUT WOULD ACT AGAINST ANYONE, "POLITICAL-

LABOR LEADER OR NO", ATTEMPTING TO FOLLOW THROUGH ON THEIR THREATS OF "AGGRESSION AGAINST CHILE." AT ONE POINT, THE MINISTER ARGUES THE POLITICAL, EVEN SUBVERSIVE, NATURE OF THE G-10 AND ITS DEPENDENCE ON FOREIGN PATRONAGE. HE REFERS TO A G-10 TRIP TO THE SOUTH OF CHILE "NOT ONLY TO IMPUGN THE LABOR PLAN BUT ALSO TO APPEAL FOR THE END OF THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT (INCLUSO A PEDIR EL TERMINO DEL ACTUAL GOVIERNO), ALL THIS IN THE COMPANY OF THE US LABOR ATTACHE" (COMMENT: THIS REFERS TO A VISIT TO THE SOUTH BY THEN LABATT ARCHER AND SOME MEMBERS OF G-10 PRINCIPALLY TO CLOSE AN AIFLD SEMINAR).

THE MINISTER'S STRIDENT STATEMENT WAS MODERATED ONLY BY HIS ACKNOWLEDGEMENT (OFTEN REPEATED PUBLICLY) THAT GOC WAS AND IS PREPARED TO LISTEN TO RESPONSIBLE DISSENT AND IS "DISPOSED TO PERFECT SPECIFIC ASPECTS OF THE LABOR PLAN"--THE G-10'S ACTIONS, FOR HIM WERE CLEARLY OUTSIDE THE REALM OF RESPONSIBLE DISSENT.

6. FOREIGN MINISTER CUBILLOS AND ECONOMY MINISTER KELLY ALSO COMMENTED ON THE SUBJECT. CUBILLOS, POINTING OUT THAT THE AFL-CIO WAS NOT A USG AGENCY, LIMITED HIS COMMENTS BUT OFFERED A FEW CONDEMNATORY WORDS OF HIS OWN IN LABELING THE DECLARATION AN "UNJUSTIFIED INTERVENTION" WHICH "DEFORMS THE ACTUAL SITUATION." MINISTER KELLY CALLED THE G-10'S ACTION UNPATRIOTIC AND "INCREDIBLE," AND MOCKED THE BOYCOTT AS AN EFFECTIVE PRESSURE DEVICE.

7. PRESS COVERAGE: PRESS COVERAGE OF RIOS' STATEMENT AND OF THE JOINT DECLARATION WAS HEAVY. "EL MERCUURIO" JULY 27 HEADLINED RIOS' CALL FOR THE USE

OF STRIKES AGAINST THE PLAN AND PRINTED THE FULL TEXT OF THE JOINT DECLARATION. EDITORIAL REACTION WAS SWIFT AND PREDICTABLY ANGRY. "LA TERCERA" DIRECTED

OUTRAGE AT THE AFL-CIO WHICH IS CALLED A "SUPRA-NATIONAL POLITICAL ENTITY." GOC-OWNED "EL CRONISTA", WHILE NOT NAMING THE G-10, WAS MAKING THE OBVIOUS REFERENCE WHEN IT INVEIGHED AGAINST THOSE "DESPERATE MINORITIES" WHO, FINDING NO SUPPORT IN CHILE, HAVE TO SEEK THE ASSISTANCE OF FOREIGNERS. "EL MERCURIO" ON JULY 28 CHARGED THAT THE AFL-CIO UNCHARACTERISTICALLY IS INJECTING AN IDEOLOGICAL ELEMENT INTO ITS ACTIVITIES IN CHILE. "EL MERCURIO'S" STRONG BUT REASONED EDITORIAL CONTRASTS WITH A COMMENTARY OVER NATIONAL RADIO IN CHICH RAFAEL KITTSTEINER EXCORIATED G-10 MEMBERS AS "TRAITORS AND SERVANTS OF A FOREIGN POWER." HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT THE AFL-CIO ACTION WAS PART OF A USG CAMPAIGN TO PRESSURE CHILE INTO GRANTING THE EXTRADITION OF CONTRERAS, ET. AL.

8. COMMENT: THE GOC IS STUNG BY THE AFL/CIO-G 10'S COMPREHENSIVE CONDEMNATION OF THE LABOR PLAN AND, AS IN THE PAST, IS ATTEMPTING TO MOBILIZE NATIONALIST SENTIMENT AGAINST "FOREIGN INTERVENTION" INCLUDING RAISING THE SPECTRE OF BOYCOTT. FOR THE GOC, THE VISIT TO WASHINGTON AND THE LEAKED JOINT DECLARATION MAKE THE G-10 AN ATTRACTIVE TARGET. YET, NO MAJOR CHILEAN LABOR LEADER SO FAR HAS SPOKEN ON THE INTER-VENTIIONIST ISSUE. THE CHOICE, EVEN FOR PRO-GOC NATIONALIST LABOR LEADERS, IS A DIFFICULT ONE SINCE FEW IF ANY SEEM TO WISH TO ASSOCIATE THEMSELVES WITH THE PLAN, AND THE ISSUES OF "INTERVENTIONISM" AND BOYCOTT, AT THIS POINT, APPEAR TO BE INEXTRICABLY LINKED WITH THE PLAN.

9. NONETHELESS, THE TRAIN OF EVENTS MAY REPLICATE THOSE OF THE PAST YEAR. UNLESS AN UNEXPECTED EXTERNAL EVENTS FUELS THE CONTROVERSY, SUCH AS THE DECLARATION

OF EVEN A SYMBOLIC BOYCOTT AT CARACAS, THE SOUNDD AND FURY MAY SUBSIDE AND THE PARTIES BEGIN TO RECONCILE MORE QUIETLY SOME OF THEIR DIFFERENCES. THE LABOR MINISTER'S STATEMENT INVITES FURTHER DISCUSSION OF

"LEGITIMATE DIFFERENCES OF OPINION" AND NOTES GOC WILLINGNESS TO PERFECT SPECIFIC ASPECTS" OF THE PLAN. THIS INVITATION COULD OFFER THE BASIS FOR EVENTUAAL INTERNAL DIALOGUE AND ADJUSTMENT BETWEEN THE GOC AND LABOR SECTOR.

10. FINALLY, THE STRENGTH OF THE JOINT AFL/CIO STATEMENT AIMS TO COMPENSATE, IN PART, FOR THE FACT THAT THE THREAT OF AN AFL/CIO SUPPORTED BOYCOTT IS NOT A CREDIBLE ISSUE IN THE PRESENT SITUATION. NEITTHER RIOS NOR THE OTHERS SERIOUSLY VOICE IT. UNDERNEATH THE FUROR, WE BELIEVE THE GOC MAY BE HEAVING A SIGH OF RELIEF (BUT AT THE SAME TIME KNOCKING WOOD).

1. IN EDITORIALS JULY 29 "EL MERCURIO" WENT FURTHER THAN ANY TIME PREVIOUSLY IN ATTRIBUTING THE LETELEIR/MOFFITT CASE AND US SUPPORT FOR DEMOCRATIC LABOR IN CHILE TO A CONCERTED USG POLICY AIMED AT DESTABILIZING THE GOC. ONE OF THE EDITORIALS, PRAISING COMMENTS BY PRESIDENT PINOCHET IN HIS JULY 26 PRESS CONFERENCE (PARAGRAPH 4 OF REFTEL A), SAID THAT THE REAL INTEREST OF US LABOR LEADERS IS NOT THE CHILEAN LABOR PLAN BUT RATHER TO BRING PRESSURE ON THE GOC AND THREATEN PINOCHET. THE OTHER EDITORIAL, EDITOR ARTURO FONTAINE'S WEEKLY POLITICAL ANALYSIS, ATTRIBUTES THE PRESSURE OF AMERICAN LABOR LEADERS TO AN INTERVENTIONIST POLICY OF THE UNITED STATES IN CHILE -- "THE 'BIG HAND' AS THEY SAY IN CENTRAL AMERICA."

2. ACCORDING TO FONTAINE, WASHINGTON HAD HOPED THAT THE LETELIER/ MOFFITT CASE WOULD BE THE INSTRUMENT THAT WOULD DESTABILIZE THE GOC BY CREATING DIFFICULTIES WITHIN THE ARMED FORCES. NOW

THAT EVEN THE USG LAWYER HAD ADMITTED BEFORE THE SUPREME COURT THAT "CHILEAN AUTHORITIES WERE NOT INVOLVED IN THE LETELIER MATTER" (SIC), THE INTERESTED PRESSURE GROUPS IN WASHINGTON ARE PUSHING THE AFL-CIO TO THE FRONT OF THE STAGE. ELSEWHERE IN HIS EDITORIAL, FONTAINE ARGUES THAT THE JOINT AFL-CIO/GROUP OF TEN PRESS RELEASE ON THE LABOR PLAN DID NOT GO INTO ANY KIND OF SUBSTANTIAL ANALYSIS. UNSUPPORTED CHARGES OF THIS TYPE,

ACCORDING TO FONTAINE, HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO THE AFL-CIO'S BAD IMAGE IN SOME COUNTRIES, AS WELL AS TO THE ACCUSATIONS THAT IT IS SOMETHIMES THE VISIBLE ARM OF THE CIA ON LABOR MATTERS.

3. LEAD CIRCULATION "LA TERCERA" CARRIES AN EDITORIAL JULY 30 REPUDIATING THE AFL-CIO/GROUP OF TEN ATTACK ON THE LABOR PLAN, CLAIMING THAT ALL CHILEANS WILL UNDERSTAND THIS AS A FOREIGN POLITICA L INTERVENTION. CHILE, SINCE IT HAS NEVER SUBMITTED TO FOREIGN DOMINATION, WILL NOT BE AFFECTED.

4. THE MEDIA HERE HAS SO FAR GIVEN ONLY LOW-KEY REPORTING TO THE ONE-WEEK SYMBOLIC BOYCOTT OF CHILE APPARENTLY AGREED UPON AT CARACAS OVER THE WEEK-END. THERE HAS BEEN NO EDITORIAL COMMENT AS YET.

5. COMMENT: THE RECENT DENOUEMENT IN NICARAGUA, INCLUDING AMBASSADOR PEZZULLO'S WIDELY MISQUOTED STATEMENT ON US POLICY TO REMOVE SOMOZA, HAS UNDOUBTEDLY CONTRIBUTED TO THE VEHEMECY OF OFFICIAL CHILEAN REACTION TO THE AFL-CIO STATEMENT ON THE LABOR PLAN. GOC IDEOLOGUE JAIME GUZMAN DEVOTED HIS COLUMN IN "ERCILLA" LAST WEEK TO AN EXPLANATION OF WHY CHILE IS NOT NICARAGUA: THE SOMOZA REGIME WAS NOT AND IN FACT HAS HAD TO CONTEND WITH THE ANIMOSITY OF THE US FOR MUCH OF THE TIME SINCE IT CAME TO POWER. FONTAINE IN HIS JULY 29 EDITORIAL ALSO REFERS TO THE MISGUIDED IMPRESSION IN WASHINGTON (PART OF AN OVERALL MISUNDERSTANDING OF LATIN AMERICA) THAT PINOCHET CAN BE EQUATED WITH SOMOZA AND TRUJILLO.

WORK OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE

The Special Committee was established by the Inter-Parliamentary Council at its 124th session, held at Prague on 21 April 1979.

It is composed of representatives of the National Groups of Belgium, Costa Rica, Czechoslovakia, Mexico and Senegal.

It met at the Union's headquarters in Geneva from 10 to 13 July 1979.

Participation

(a) National Groups

The Mexican National Group had been unable to send a representative to the Special Committee's session due to the general elections held in Mexico on 1 July 1979.

The other National Groups on the Special Committee had sent the following representatives: Belgium: Mr. E. Cuvelier; Costa Rica: Mr. R. Madrigal Nieto; Czechoslovakia: Mr. B. Kucera; Senegal: Mr. I. Wane.

Mr. Madrigal Nieto and Mr. Wane were appointed respectively Chairman and Rapporteur of the Special Committee.

(b) Authorities of Argentina, Chile, Nicaragua and Uruguay:

The National Group of Nicaragua and the Governments of Argentina, Chile and Uruguay had been invited to delegate a representative to the Special Committee if they so desired. However, none of these authorities expressed the wish to send a representative to the session. Nevertheless, the Argentinian authorities had sent a memorandum outlining the Government's position regarding the human rights situation in Argentina.

(c) International organizations:

In accordance with practice and the Council's decision, the following international organizations had been invited to delegate a representative to the Special Committee: United Nations (Commission on Human Rights); United Nations High Commission for Refugees; International Labour Organisation; Organization of American States; Amnesty International; International Commission of Jurists; World Council of Churches.

The following international organizations had sent a representative:

United Nations: Mr. R. McCarthy, Special Assistant to the Director of the Division of Human Rights; United Nations High Commission for Refugees: Mr. R. Muller, Head of the American, Iberia and Oceania section, and Mr. L.

Franco, officer responsible for protection; Amnesty International: Miss P. Feeney, of the Latin America Research Department; International Commission of Jurists: Mr. A. Donadio, legal adviser for Latin America.

The following international organizations had sent either a memorandum or documentation: International Labour Organisation; Organization of American States; Amnesty International; International Commission of Jurists.

(d) Personalities invited in an individual capacity:

In accordance with practice and the Council's decision, various personalities had been invited to testify before the Special Committee regarding the situation of human rights in their country, namely:

Argentina: Senator Hipolito Solari Yrigoyen and former Deputy Anibal Augusto Iturrieta;

Chile : Senator Luis Valente Rossi; Senator Renan Fuentealba, who had also been invited, was unable to come to Geneva;

Nicaragua: The Archbishop of Managua; he was unable to reply to the invitation sent to him;

Uruguay : Senator Wilson Ferreira Aldunate and Senator Enrique R. Erro.

The personalities present had submitted memoranda on the situation of human rights in their respective countries.

Methods of work:

In accordance with the mandate given to it by the Inter-Parliamentary Council, the Special Committee firstly carried out a comprehensive review of the human rights situation in Latin America, and then considered the specific situation of the four countries named in the definition of its mandate, i.e. Argentina, Chile, Nicaragua and Uruguay.

In order to do this, it studied the written documentation sent to it and heard statements by the representatives of the international organizations and personalities invited.

Report of the Special Committee:

The members of the Inter-Parliamentary Council will find below the report prepared by the Special Committee upon the conclusion of its work. This report contains firstly a general part concerning the human rights situation in Latin America as a whole, followed by reports on the specific situation of Argentina, Chile, Nicaragua and Uruguay.

Each of these reports contains a statement of the various findings made by the Special Committee, followed by recommendations.

REPORT

It emerges from the information gathered by the Special Committee that in several Latin American countries, despite the fact that some of them are parties to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the American Convention on Human Rights, the rule of law does not exist.

The present régimes, which in many cases took power by force, are repressive régimes which are not based on respect for the internationally recognized principles regarding human rights but on the so-called doctrine of national security which tends to privilege the power of the State and collective security at the expense of the individual and the values inherent in his dignity.

The advent of these régimes is generally preceded by increasing infiltration of the armed forces into the State apparatus and followed by the suppression of representative institutions, the suppression of political parties or the suspension of their activities, and by persecutions against their members. The armed forces are generally presented as the providential élite charged with the mission of mitigating the deficiencies of a civilian authority which has been declared unfit to guarantee national security.

Thereafter, the executive authority - entrusted either to a Governing Junta or a head of State with wide discretionary powers - begins to control legislative and judicial powers closely, and even to concentrate them directly in its hands.

The state of emergency is often maintained when it is no longer justified by the circumstances. Emergency legislation thus acquires a permanent nature and is used to legalize political repression.

The task of repression is assigned to the armed forces and the police but also, in many cases, to para-military and para-police forces, which act with complete impunity and often without co-ordination.

Military justice takes the place of civil justice which has been rendered inoperative by emergancy legislation; legal remedies for protection (Amparo; Habeas Corpus)are also rendered inoperative.

These régimes tend to institutionalize this de facto situation through decrees or institutional acts which illegally amend the Constitution. Furthermore, in some countries, Constitutions are being prepared by the authorities and the drafts already published do not fully guarantee human rights.

These facts give rise to a number of consequences which affect human rights, particularly:

- Right to life: murders for political reasons are a common practice in several Latin American countries; the Special Committee's attention was particularly drawn to Argentina, El Salvador, Guatemala and Nicaragua. The murders are committed either by the regular security forces or their intelligence services, or by para-military or para-police groups. To the Special Committee's knowledge, these murders are generally not investigated seriously and impartially nor are their perpetrators or instigators punished. Such murders are in fact extrajudicial executions.

- Right to personal integrity: although the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and international, universal or regional legal instruments, to which some of the countries in question are parties, provide that "no one shall be subjected to torture or to cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment", the Special Committee received information and, in certain cases, testimony which reveal that such practices are commonplace in several countries. The Special Committee received allegations of such practices - with considerable differences regarding the magnitude and frequency of the phenomenon - concerning Argentina, Chile, El Salvador, Nicaragua and Uruguay.

- Right to liberty and security of person: information received by the Special Committee reveals that kidnapping and arrests, often carried out by security agents acting anonymously and without a warrant and frequently followed by temporary or definitive disappearances, are a common practice in Latin America; that applications made on behalf of the victimes (Amparo; Habeas Corpus) have no effect; that detainees remain at the disposal of the Executive for indefinite periods, often incommunicado and without access to any of the minimum guarantees generally accorded to persons under arrest.

- Particular case of disappeared persons: the phenomenon of disappearances for political reasons, which is a new form of repression, has grown increasinglyin a number of Latin American countries, particularly in Argentina. Although there is abundant proof that disappearances generally follow arrest by State security forces, the governmental authorities deny any responsibility in this connection and impute the disappearances to action by opposing political factions. The courts refuse, or show themselves unable, to grant the appeals and applications by relatives of the victims, even when they have clear proof of arrest; in some cases, the military authorities state that disappearances are the price to be paid for national order and security.

- Right to justice and a proper and fair trial: according to information received by the Special Committee, a large number of persons detained for political reasons in the countries in question are held in detention, at the disposal of the Executive, without precise charges being brought against them and without trial; it also happens that they have no access to counsel or that such counsel is imposed by the court; when they are brought to trial, they are often brought before a military court, without guarantees of defence being fully respected.

- Right to reside in one's country or to leave it: the Special Committee received information which reveals that, on account of the foregoing, a large number of citizens of the countries in question are compelled to go into exile; that a large number are expelled from the national territory and prevented from returning; that, in some of the countries under consideration, the right to choose to leave one's country has been suspended. The universally recognized principle of non-expulsion has not always been respected in Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Paraguay and Uruguay.

- Collusion in repression: the Special Committee received information that in various countries of the Southern Cone there is collusion between their security organizations to repress persons sought for political reasons.

- Situation of parliamentarians: the above-mentioned facts have affected and affect a large number of parliamentarians whose cases have mostly been treated by the Inter-Parliamentary Council, which is seized of a new case, that of Deputy Alberto Fuentes-Mohr, who was murdered in Guatemala.

- Education, science and culture: in several countries, the contents of education programmes and the functioning of universities, schools, colleges and cultural institutes have been placed under the strict control of the military authorities and the police.

- Freedom of association: in several Latin American countries, albeit parties to the Conventions of the International Labour Organisation, trade union activity has been considerably reduced: trade union organizations have been dissolved or placed entirely under the control of the State; the main achievements of the labour movement, such as the right to strike, have been practically suppressed; and the labour movement itself tends to be fragmented as a result of the persecution of its leaders and the constraints imposed upon it. At its session in June 1979, the Governing Body of the International Labour Organisation was seized of complaints alleging violation of freedom of association in the following countries: Argentina, Chile, Colombia, Guatemala, Honduras, Nicaragua and Uruguay.

- Freedom of opinion and expression: in several countries, the freedom of opinion and expression has been widely reduced or suppressed; officials of Press organs are either persecuted or compelled to conform to the policy of the authorities and exercise self-censorship; in addition, strict censorship is often imposed.

- Economic and social rights: the economic policy of these régimes often has a negative impact on the social situation of the most disadvantaged social strata; it generates increased inequalities in living standards.

B.

Foreign military and economic assistance: information available to the Special Committee reveals that most of the régimes considered receive considerable foreign military and economic assistance, despite the widespread violations of human rights for which they are responsible.

C.

Refugees: despite the generous welcome accorded to refugees by several countries, particularly in Latin America, their situation remains precarious and does not always give them the right to work.

Some Latin American countries have not yet acceded to the 1951 Convention on the Status of Refugees and to the 1967 Protocol, whose provisions supplement those existing in Latin America under various conventions on the right of asylum, and others have acceded to it with reservations as to its scope; most of the States parties to these two instruments do not yet have domestic legislation permitting the full implementation of all their provisions.

RECOMMENDATIONS

I. The Special Committee recommends to the Inter-Parliamentary Council to request the Governments of the countries considered above:

1. To restore forthwith the rule of law and in particular:

- To put an end to the state of emergency.* The state of emergency should be lifted as soon as possible, particularly in the following countries: Argentina, Chile, Paraguay and Uruguay. The Special Committee also considers that the declaration of a state of emergency should be subject to parliamentary oversight and independent judicial oversight.

- To give full legal effect on their territory to the International Covenants on human rights and the American Convention on Human Rights;

- To restore constitutional rights and guarantees;

* At its 123rd session, the Inter-Parliamentary Council expressed the opinion that measures derogating from the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and the American Convention on Human Rights, authorized by Article 4 of the Covenant and by Article 27 of the Convention "in time of public emergency which threatens the life of the nation and the existence of which is officially proclaimed", can only be of an exceptional and transitory nature.

 The following Latin American States are parties:

(a) To the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights:

Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Jamaica, Panama, Peru, Surinam, Uruguay, Venezuela

(b) To the American Convention on Human Rights:

Colombia, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, El Salvador, Grenada, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Jamaica, Panama, Peru, Venezuela

- To restore the freedom of political parties and to re-establish representative institutions after a free and democratic electoral process;

- To restore and respect the independence of the judiciary.

2. - To put an end to the persecution of citizens for their opinions, to arbitrary arrests and to torture;

- To ensure that political murders and extrajudicial executions can no longer be perpetrated;

- To prosecute and punish those responsible for such practices;

- To bring all prisoners to trial, with all the guarantees set out in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and in the American Convention on Human Rights, or to release them immediately;

- To put an end to the practice of arrests followed by disappearances and to provide full information about the situation of disappeared persons, as it is their duty to do so;

- To restore fully the legal remedies for protection (Amparo; Habeas Corpus);

- To put an end to expulsions and to enable exiles to return to their countries legally; to restore the right to choose to leave one's country where this right exists; to put an end to the practice of refusing passports to exiles or of granting them with restrictions;

3. To guarantee the right to intellectual freedom and, in particular, to respect freedom of opinion and expression and freedom of education.

4. To restore fully trade union rights and freedoms.

II. The Special Committee also recommends to the Inter-Parliamentary Council to request the National Groups:

1. To ensure the widest possible distribution of this report and, in particular, to bring it to the attention of their respective Parliaments and Governments so that they may take appropriate action; to make its contents known to public opinion;

2. To encourage the sending of parliamentary missions to the countries in question;

3. To urge their Governments to make all necessary representations to the authorities of the countries in question so that disappearances cease, such occurrences constituting a new method of repression;

4. To sponsor exiled Latin American parliamentarians in order to ensure their return to their countries;

5. To recommend to their Governments to refrain from granting military or financial assistance to the Governments of the countries in question, without prejudice to the humanitarian assistance given to the people of those countries;

6. To ensure that their respective States accede, if they have not already done so, as soon as possible and without reservations to the 1951 Convention on the Status of Refugees and the 1967 Protocol; that possible reservations are removed; and to promote, as soon as possible, domestic legislation permitting the implementation of these instruments;

7. To inform the Secretary General regularly of the measures taken and the results achieved.

III. The Special Committee lastly recommends to the Inter-Parliamentary Council to request the Secretary General to transmit this report and the decisions of the Council to the authorities of the countries mentioned therein, as well as to all competent organizations.

IV. The Special Committee suggests to the Inter-Parliamentary Council that it envisage including again in the agenda of one of its coming sessions consideration of the situation of human rights in Latin America.

II - ARGENTINA

FINDINGS

On 24 March 1976, after a long process of infiltrating the State apparatus, the armed forces took power by force in Argentina. The reason given by the Junta which had acceded to power was the necessity of the anti-subversive struggle.

The National Congress and the provincial assemblies were immediately suppressed - it should be noted that general elections should have taken place at the end of 1976 and that the elected authorities should have taken office in May 1977; all elective responsibilities were rendered null and void and a large number of persons with such responsibilities were harassed; political activities were suspended; the judiciary was placed under the strict control of the military authorities; the General Confederation of Labour and many trade unions suffered the same fate. This situation continued to prevail when the Special Committee met.

The state of siege - which had been brought into effect on 6 November 1974 by the previous Government at a time when Parliament was not meeting, and without any restriction as to time or space - was maintained and is still in force, thus acquiring a permanent nature. The Special Committee notes that this situation is contrary to the provisions of the Argentinian Constitution. It also notes that since the Argentinian authorities themselves say that they control the situation in the country as a whole, the present circumstances are not of an exceptional nature and do not justify the maintenance of the state of emergency.

The political violence and repression which had characterized the last years of the previous Government were intensified as from the coup d'Etat. The following aspects in particular reveal the existence of repression:

1. Disappeared persons

The practice of disappearances has acquired in Argentina a magnitude which is unprecedented in Latin America. The Special Committee considers that this problem is the most serious with regard to Argentina. According to Amnesty International, the number of victims is estimated at 15,000. Disappearances are either definitive or temporary, the person appearing subsequently in a prison at the disposal of the Executive. The authorities deny responsibility in this connection even when there is proof that the person was arrested by the security services. Legal remedies remain inoperative, with the result that the relatives of the victims are left in anguish. In a recent statement, quoted in the international Press, the commander-in-chief of the army, General Viola, said that missing persons should be regarded as "absent for ever". The Special Committee learned, however, that several persons who had reappeared after "disappearance" had testified to the existence of numerous secret concentration camps operating in military establishments in various parts of the country.

When kidnappings take place, security forces, which generally arrive in plain clothes and without a warrant, often ransack the homes of the victims, the booty being regarded as spoils of war.

The relatives of missing persons are often arrested themselves and harassed when they try to obtain information.

The Special Committee has learned that in many cases, young children whether or not arrested at the same time as their parents, have also disappeared or been thrown into the street. In addition, the number of children who were born in prisons and who have disappeared is also large.

2. Right to life

The Special Committee was informed that murders for political reasons are frequent in Argentina. The authorities sometimes claim that the persons murdered were killed in clashes between security forces and terrorists. Detainees are also often executed during transfers, on the pretext of attempted escape.

3. Right to personal integrity

Information received by the Special Committee reveals that the practice of torture in Argentina has acquired the dimension of an habitual practice. The prison system tends towards the moral and physical destruction of political prisoners. They are subject to the régime of "maxima peligrosidad" (maximum security) instituted by decree 2023 adopted in November 1974 and increased in scope in May 1976.

4. Right to liberty and security of person

According to the Government, there are 2,700 political prisoners in Argentina, but this figure may be lower than the real number. These persons are mostly detained at the disposal of the Executive for indefinite periods without any legal guarantees. Some of them are subject to re-education; according to a statement by the Minister of the Interior, "they volunteer".

5. Right to justice and a proper and fair trial

Due to repression, lawyers of political detainees are either detained or harassed and compelled to go into exile; as a result, lawyers are afraid to defend prisoners. Under decree 21264, councils of war have become competent to deal with certain categories of political prisoners, who do not have any guarantee of defence and no access to a civilian lawyer.

Legal remedies have proved to be inoperative. It should be noted, however, that, for the first time since 1976, the Supreme Court asked a Court of Appeal on 3 March 1979 to carry out an investigation into two applications for a writ of Habeas Corpus made on behalf of a missing person, Mr. Alfredo Antonio Giorgi.

6. Right to reside in one's own country or to leave it

Hundreds of thousands of Argentinians have been compelled to leave the country as the result of repression. The Government has revoked the constitutional right to choose to leave the country for political prisoners at the disposal of the Executive; subsequently, it decreed that this right depended on the Executive; new legislation makes persons who have benefited from this right liable to four years' imprisonment in the event of their return. Furthermore, the Argentinian Government's refusal to grant the necessary safe-conducts to persons who have found asylum in embassies is contrary to a norm recognized in inter-American law.

7. Persecution of refugees

The Special Committee has learnt that a large number of refugees, particularly Bolivians, Chileans, Paraguayans and Uruguayans, have been persecuted in Argentina. In many cases, these persons have been handed over by Argentinian security forces to the security forces of their own countries; some have been found murdered in their own countries.

The Special Committee wishes particularly to mention the cases of General Carlos Prats Gonzalez, commander-in-chief of the Chilean army; General Juan José Torres, former President of Bolivia; Senator Zelmar Michelini and the President of the Uruguayan House of Representatives, Hector Gutierrez Ruiz, who were murdered in Argentina.

The Special Committee also wishes to recall the case of Senator Enrique R. Erro which was examined by the Inter-Parliamentary Union in 1977, in accordance with the special procedure for communications: Senator Erro, who was a refugee in Argentina, was arrested in that country and kept in detention for two years under the régime of "maxima peligrosidad" (maximum security) without ever being charged, before his expulsion from the country without any explanation; he was ill-treated.

8. Situation of parliamentarians

A number of Argentinian parliamentarians have been arrested, tortured, murdered or kidnapped. Under its procedure for communications regarding individual situations which has been in force since 1 January 1977, the Inter-Parliamentary Union has had before it several cases regarding which the following facts should be recalled: Deputy Mario Abel Amaya died in prison from the effects of torture; Senator Luis Carnevali is reported missing; Senator Hipolito Solari Yrigoyen, who is now forbidden to return to Argentina, was kidnapped on 7 August 1976, imprisoned and tortured, and then released in April 1977; Deputies Julio Mera Figueroa and Manuel Isauro Molina were imprisoned in April and December 1976 respectively and then released in November and March 1978 respectively. It is to be hoped that the Argentinian Government will also release in the near future Deputies Juan Ramirez, who has been in prison since March 1976, and Antonio Isaac Guerrero, in prison since 1977.

The Special Committee has received specific information concerning Deputy Elvio Lumello who is said to be at the disposal of the Executive, and former Deputy Carlos Kunkel who is reported to have been brought to trial; provincial Deputies Orlando Stirneman, Victor Marchesini, who are detained at the disposal of the Executive, and Mario Medina who is being brought to trial; former President of the Chamber of Deputies and former constitutional President of the Republic, Hector J. Campora, who took refuge in the Mexican Embassy and to whom the authorities refuse to grant a safe-conduct to leave the country.

9. Freedom of expression

The Special Committee has been informed that, due to repression, self-censorship is widely practised. About a hundred journalists and many writers are reported to have disappeared or to be detained.

10. Freedom of association

The trade union organizations have been placed under strict military control; the right to strike is practically suspended and its exercise is regarded as subversive.

Since 1976, the Governing Body of the International Labour Organisation has been seized of numerous complaints alleging violation of freedom of association in Argentina. The last report, presented by the Committee on Freedom of Association and approved by the Governing Body in May-June 1979, dealt with the detention or disappearance of trade unionists and former trade unionists, the taking over of trade union organizations and restriction on trade union activities, as well as with arrests for calling a general strike.

11. Economic and social rights

According to information received by the Special Committee, the living standards of the workers have considerably deteriorated since the coup d'Etat.

RECOMMENDATIONS

I. The Special Committee recommends to the Inter-Parliamentary Council to request the Government of Argentina:

1. To repeal the repressive legislation and to restore the rule of law and the representative institutions founded on the sovereignty of the people;

2. To provide full information about the situation of all disappeared persons; to give, in particular, information about the fate of Senator Luis Agustin Carnevali;

3. To publish the complete list of persons detained for political reasons or trade union activities and who are at the disposal of the Executive or brought to trial;

4. To put an end to torture, kidnapping and persecution and to prosecute those responsible for such acts; to humanize the prison system;

5. To bring political prisoners to trial in accordance with a procedure which respects human rights or to release them and particularly: national Deputies Juan Manuel Ramirez, Antonio Isaac Guerrero and Elvio Lumello; former Deputy Carlos Kunkel; provincial Deputies Orlando Stirneman, Victor Marchesini and Mario Medina;

6. To respect the right of asylum and to grant a safe-conduct to the former President of the Chamber of Deputies and former constitutional President Hector J. Campora;

7. To respect the right to life and security, as well as individual guarantees;

8. To respect the right to live in one's own country or to leave it;

9. To restore freedom of opinion and expression and in particular to provide full information about the situation of detained or missing journalists, particularly Rodolfo Walsh, Haroldo Conti, Julian Delgado, Edgardo Sajon and Luis Rodolfo Guagnini.

10. To restore political activities and to put an end to the control exercised over trade union organizations.

II. The Special Committee recommends to the Inter-Parliamentary Council to request the National Groups:

1. To take measures to accelerate procedures for the admission of Argentinian political refugees and emigrants;

2. To ask their Governments to denounce in international bodies the violations of human rights for which the Argentinian Government is responsible, and particularly the practice of disappearances, and to exert pressure on the Argentinian Government so that it puts an end to that situation.

U.S. Lawyers' Group Reports to UN on Argentine Human Rights Abuses

The Lawyers Committee for International Human Rights has submitted a report on Argentine human rights abuses to the United Nations under ECOSOC Resolution 1503. The report says these abuses constitute "evidence of a consistent pattern of gross violations of human rights." The UN Human Rights Commission has not so far addressed the problem of human rights abuses in Argentina.

As you know, the Association of the Bar of the City of New York sent a mission to Argentina in April to study the human rights situation. The Lawyers Committee's report to the UN is based largely on the mission's findings.

The report contends that changes in Argentina's political and legal structure since 1976 have seriously undermined the most basic protections of human rights and have permitted government security forces to conduct a virtual reign of terror. It says the "desaparecidos" (disappeared persons) are the chief victims of this terror and criticizes the Argentine Government for its refusal to admit knowledge of the abductions or whereabouts of the victims, and for its failure to remedy the situation.

The report also discusses the plight of persons detained without formal charge or trial under the Executive's "state of siege" power, and assesses conditions in prisons. It also discusses secret camps where many of the disappeared have reportedly been held.

The report says members of the media, trade unionists, and lawyers have suffered particularly harsh treatment under the present regime because of their potential to challenge Government policies.

The report concludes that the Argentine Government has either suspended or violated a large number of internationally-recognized human rights and undermined virtually all due process guarantees and minimal judicial safeguards for the protection of these rights. Repressive statutes, such as the abolition of the Congress, and banning of political parties and activities, severe restrictions on trade union activities, limitations on press freedom, and the vastly increased power of military authorities in cases involving "subversives" have contributed to the breakdown of the legal structure. The Lawyers Committee concludes that these actions, and the Government's failure to address effectively the problems of the detained and disappeared, have produced "a complete breakdown of the rule of law in Argentina."

El Hecho

Dos criaturas, (1) Anatole Boris Julien Grisona, nacido en Uruguay el 27.09.72, y (2) Eva Lucía Julien Grisona, nacida en la Argentina el 07.05.75, secuestradas el 26.09.78 en Buenos Aires, en una operación conjunta de las fuerzas policiales uruguayas y argentinas, fueron encontradas en la ciudad de Valparaiso, Chile. Las criaturas están bien. Sus padres, Roger Julien Cáceres (uruguayo) y Victoria Grisona (argentina), secuestradas en esa misma operación, continúan desaparecidos. La familia entera fué secuestrada de su residencia en Partido de San Martín, Provincia de Buenos Aires.

Misión de Juristas Internacionales

En diciembre de 1977, una misión de juristas internacionales, representando a la Federación Internacional de los Derechos Humanos, al Movimiento Internacional de Juristas Católicos y a la Federación de Juristas Democráticos, visitó Uruguay a fin de investigar la desaparición de 80 ciudadanos uruguayos en la Argentina en los años 1975 y 76. Esta misión era integrada por Jean Louis Weil, abogado del tribunal en Paris, Robert Goldman, profesor de derecho internacional en Washington y relator del informe de la OEA sobre el Uruguay, y el diputado español Martínez Bjorkman.

En entrevista con el Presidente del Supremo Tribunal Militar del Uruguay, éste informó a los juristas que Roger Julien Cáceres se encontraba detenido en el Establecimiento de Reclusión Militar Nº 1, Penal de Libertad. (El Presidente del referido tribunal es el Coronel Silva Ledesma.) A pesar de eso, sus familiares nunca consiguieron verlo, porque las autoridades uruguayas, después de diciembre de 1977, se niegan a admitir su detención.

Testigos oculares, vecinos y la prensa argentina informaron que, durante el secuestro en la residencia de la familia Julien, se produjo un intenso tiroteo del que resultó con herida grave uno de los miembros adultos de la familia, aunque sin precisar cuál.

Telon de Fondo

Entre Setiembre y Octubre de 1976 hubo una ola de secuestros de uruguayos residentes en Argentina. Entre ellos se encontraban dos familias -- Roger Julien Cáceres y Victoria Grisona, y Jorge Zaffaroni y María Emilia Islas -- todos militantes del Partido por la Victoria del Pueblo, del Uruguay. Juntamente con los dos hijos del primer matrimonio, fué secuestrada la hija del segundo matrimonio, con dos años de edad, Mariana Zaffaroni Islas.

Apesar de las incontables denuncias formuladas ante la ONU, la OEA, la Cruz Roja, la UNICEF, y otros organismos internacionales, nada se sabe sobre la suerte de esas familias. Varias misiones de abogados y juristas internacionales visitaron el Uruguay y la Argentina en el curso de estos tres últimos años. La respuesta del gobierno uruguayo fué siempre la misma: "No hay uruguayos desaparecidos. Son autosecuestros que se fabrican por la subversión internacional para desprestigiar la imagen del país en el exterior."

Está bien presente en la memoria del pueblo brasilero el secuestro en Porto Alegre de Universindo Rodríguez Díaz, Lilián Celiberti y sus dos hijos Camilo y Francesca, ocurrido el 12.11.76. Innumerables pruebas fueron presentadas en la CPI sobre la colaboración entre elementos represivos brasileros y uruguayos en este secuestro.

Autosecuestros?

Un hecho echa por tierra los alegatos uruguayos de que las desapariciones resultan de "autosecuestros" inventados para perjudicar la imagen externa del aquel país: DE LAS CRIATURAS SECUESTRADAS EN LA ARGENTINA POR FUERZAS REPRESIVAS URUGUAYAS, DOS DE ELLAS ACABAN DE SER ENCONTRADAS EN VALPARAISO, EN CHILE: Anatole Boris Julien Grisona y Eva Lucía Julien Grisona. FUERON ABANDONADAS EN UNA PLAZA EN DICIEMBRE DE 1976, TRES MESES DESPUES DEL SECUESTRO, SIN QUE NADA SE SUPESE DE DONDE VENIAN O QUIENES ERAN SUS PADRES.

Cómo consiguieron dos criaturas de 4 y de 1 1/2 años cruzar la cordillera de los Andes, sólos, sin sus padres? Quién los llevó de la Argentina a Chile? Dónde están sus padres? Quién los robó de sus legítimas familias para abandonarlas en una plaza cualquiera de Valparaiso? Dónde están las otras criaturas uruguayas desaparecidas en la Argentina, especialmente Mariana Zaffaroni Islas y Simón Antonio Riquelo(*)? Dónde están sus padres? Qué ocurrió con los demás uruguayos desaparecidos en Argentina?

(*)Simón Antonio Riquelo, con 20 días de edad, fué arrancado de las manos de su madre en la Argentina, en julio de 1976. Desde entonces su madre, que se encuentra detenida en el Establecimiento de Reclusión Militar Nº 1, para mujeres, en Punta de Rieles, no ha tenido ninguna noticia de su hijo.

Otras Preguntas

Hasta cuándo prevalecerá la doctrina de la seguridad nacional en los países del Cono Sur sobre los más elementales principios del derecho internacional?

Hasta cuándo los gobiernos del Cono Sur continuarán más preocupados con la doctrina de la seguridad nacional que con la Declaración Universal de los Derechos Humanos?

Hasta cuándo los regímenes de fuerza del Cono Sur prestarán apoyo a secuestros, asesinatos y robos de criaturas, violando, así, todos los acuerdos internacionales que firmaron sobre asilo político?

Hasta cuándo la soberanía nacional será violada sin que países del Cono Sur reconozcan que la solidaridad y la defensa de los derechos humanos transcienden fronteras políticas y ideológicas?

AIRES HERALD SMOKED OUT A PROMPT REPLY BY POLICE AUTHORITIES THAT MIGUEL ANGEL DE NICHILO HAD IN FACT BEEN ARRESTED BY THE POLICE FOR UNSPECIFIED REASONS. WE HAVE ONE FAIRLY RECENT REPORT OF A PRISONER HELD AT THE NAVY MECHANICS SCHOOL. END INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY.

2. (U) VARGAS CARRENO VISIT -----
ALL BUENOS AIRES NEWSPAPERS GAVE WIDE - EVEN LAVISH - COVERAGE OF THE VISIT HERE OF THE EXECUTIVE SECRETARY OF THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS, EDMUNDO VARGAS CARRENO, WHO ARRIVED HERE ON JULY 22 AND RETURNED TO WASHINGTON ON JULY 27. OF GREATEST HEADLINE INTEREST WAS VARGAS CARRENO'S ANNOUNCEMENT THAT WHILE HERE HE HAD BEEN APPROACHED BY THE ATTORNEY OF MRS. PERON AND HAD ACCEPTED A PETITION THAT THE COMMISSION MEET WITH HER DURING THE VISIT HERE OF ITS MEMBERS. VARGAS CARRENO WENT ON TO STATE THAT THE COMMISSION WOULD IN FACT ATTEMPT TO INTERVIEW ALL LIVING FORMER PRESIDENTS OF ARGENTINA INCLUDING HECTOR CAMPORA, STILL EXILED WITHIN THE MEXICAN EMBASSY HERE. THE COMMISSION'S EXECUTIVE SECRETARY SAID ALSO THAT THE COMMISSION WILL SEEK AN INTERVIEW WITH JACOBO TIMERMAN, AND THAT GIVEN THE FACT OF THE GOVERNMENT'S HAVING PROMISED FULL COOPERATION HE ANTICIPATED THAT THERE WOULD BE NO PROBLEM IN OBTAINING THE INTERVIEW. REPORTING ON THE VISIT, AND ON THE UPCOMING SEPTEMBER 6-20 VISIT OF THE FULL COMMISSION, WAS PURELY FACTURAL AND UPBEAT EXCEPT FOR ONE EDITORIAL IN THE INFLUENTIAL (BECAUSE THIS NEWSPAPER SO OFTEN REGISTERS THE VIEWS OF PROVINCIAL GOVERNOR SAINT JEAN AND ARMY HEARDLINERS)

LA NUEVA PROVINCIA OF BAHIA BLANCA, WHIC SAW ARGENTINA'S RECEIVING THE INTER-AMERICAN COMMISSION AS PERMISSION TO VIOLATE THIS COUNTRY'S SOVEREIGNTY. THE MOST HOSPITABLE AND FAVORABLE EDITORIAL CAME IN THE TOP CIRCULATION "CLARIN" OF JULY 25, DRAWN IN LARGE MEASURE FROM A CONVERSATION HELD OFF THE RECORD BETWEEN AMBASSADOR CASTRO AND CLARIN MANAGING EDITOR GYTRYNBLUM.

UNCLASSIFIED

Case Number: S200000044

[redacted] AT THE SAME TIME STORIES OF ARMY UNREST ABOUT THE PROSPECTIVE MISSION VISIT ARE COMING TO THE SURFACE. ONE REPORTER FROM A MAJOR NEWSPAPER DESCRIBED CONSIDERABLE ARMY UNREST AND REPORTEDLY SAID THAT THIRD CORPS COMMANDER GENERAL MENENDEZ HAD SAID THAT THE COMMISSION WOULD NOT BE PERMITTED TO ENTER HIS TERRITORY.

3. (U) DE NICHILO "DISAPPEARANCE" -----
THE BUENOS AIRES HERALD REPOTED JULY 21 THE DISAPPEARANCE OF MIGUEL ANGEL DE NICHILO ON JULY 14, AND ON THE AFTERNOON OF JULY 23 MRS. DE NICHILO VISITED THE EMBASSY TO GIVE FURTHER DETAILS AND REQUEST ASSISTANCE. ON JULY 24 SEVERAL NEWSPAPERS REPORTED A STATEMENT BY THE POLICE THAT DE NICHILO HAD, AFTER ALL, BEEN ARRESTED BY POLICE AUTHORITIES AND WAS BEING HELD FOR UNSPECIFIED CRIMES.
[redacted] IN HASTENING TO ACKNOWLEDGE THAT IT HELD DE NICHILO IN CUSTODY, THE POLICE DEMONSTRATED A RARELY SHOWN CONCERN FOR PUBLISHED NEWS OF A DISAPPEARANCE. ALTHOUGH THIS COULD TURN OUT TO BE A COMMON CRIMINAL CASE, AT THE TIME OF MRS. DE NICHILO'S REPORTING HER HUSBAND'S DISAPPEARANCE TO THE HERALD AND TO THE EMBASSY SHE WAS FEARFUL THAT THE CASE WAS A POLITICAL ONE. TEN YEARS AGO DE NICHILO HAD BEEN A MEMBER OF A TERRORIST GROUP CALLED THE "FRENTE ARGENTINO DE LIBERACION" --- "FAL". MRS. DE NICHILO AFFIRMED, HOWEVER, THAT HER HUSBAND CUT HIS TIES WITH

THAT ORGANIZATION 10 YEARS BACK. MRS. DE NICHILO WAS ALSO CONCERNED BECAUSE ONE YEAR AGO HER HUSBAND'S CLOSEST FRIEND AND CO-PARTICIPATIONIST IN THE FAL, JORGE KARAVELOS, WAS TAKEN BY POLICE AUTHORITIES ALONG WITH HIS ESTRANGED WIFE AND NEVER RETURNED.

SEVERAL MONTHS LATER THE FAMILY WAS TOLD BY POLICE AUTHORITIES THAT JORGE AND LUCIA HAD BEEN KILLED "IN A SERIOUS TRAFFIC ACCIDENT," AND THAT THEIR BODIES COULD NOT BE RETURNED TO THE FAMILY.)

[redacted] EMBASSY WILL TRY TO INTERVIEW MRS. DE NICHILO AGAIN FOR THE DETAILS OF THIS CASE.

E. (U) CAPUTO ARREST ----
THE ARREST OF RIOBO CAPUTO, THE MANAGING EDITOR OF THE SANTE FE DAILY "EL LITORAL" ON JULY 24 FOR PUBLISHING NEWS THAT MONTONERO LEADERS FIRMENICH AND VACA NARVAJA HAD [redacted]

SURFACED IN NICARAGUA THIS WEEK SET OFF A FUROR OF PRESS COVERAGE AND EDITORIAL DISAPPROVAL. CAPUTO WAS ORDERED TO PREVENTIVE DETENTION BY A FEDERAL JUDGE IN SANTE FE FOR ALLEGED VIOLATION OF NATIONAL LAW 20.840, "APOLOGIA DE SUBVERSION" --

ADVOCACY OF SUBVERSIVE GROUPS OR TACTICS. ANOTHER JOURNALIST, REYNALDO ACTIS OF THE NEWSPAPER "LA OPINION" OF THE TOWN OF RAFAELA WAS ORDERED INTO CUSTODY BY THE SAME JUDGE BUT AT WEEK'S END WAS REPORTED TO HAVE ELUDED THE REGULAR POLICE AND WAS STILL BEING SOUGHT. (LATE NEWS: ACTIS TURNED HIMSELF IN ON JULY 29.) THE IRONY OF CAPUTO'S SITUATION WAS THAT PRACTICALLY ALL OF THE BUENOS AIRES DAILIES AND ONE MAJOR NEWS MAGAZINE HAD ALSO PRINTED ACCOUNTS OF THE FIRMENICH-VACA NARVAJA SIGHTINGS WITH IMPUNITY. THE ARGENTINE PROVINCIAL PRESS ASSOCIATION (ADIRA) AND THE ARGENTINE NEWSPAPER OWNERS ASSOCIATION (ADEPA) PROTESTED TO THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR, WHICH IN TURN ISSUED A STATEMENT THAT IT HAD NOT ORDERED CAPUTO'S ARREST. PROVINCIAL GOVERNOR DESIMONE VISITED CAPUTO IN JAIL AS SOON AS CAPUTO WAS PERMITTED TO RECEIVE VISITORS, AND THERE WERE OTHER SIGNS OF OFFICIAL DISMAY AT THE FEDERAL JUDGE'S APPARENTLY PRECIPITOUS AND ILL-JUDGED ACTION. CAPUTO WAS SUBSEQUENTLY MOVED TO HOUSE ARREST BY THE JUDGE, BUT NOT BEFORE IT HAD BEEN HEADLINED THAT HIS WORLDLY GOODS HAD BEEN ATTACHED. WE ASSUME THIS CASE WILL WIND DOWN QUICKLY WITH RESULTS NO MORE SERIOUS THAN THE JUDGE'S PUBLIC HUMILIATION.

5. [redacted] GIORGI CASE ----
THE FATHER OF ALFREDO ANTONIO GIORGI, WHO WAS TAKEN BY SECURITY FORCES FROM HIS WORK AT THE INSTITUTO NACIONAL DE TECNOLOGIA INDUSTRIAL ("INTI") ON NOVEMBER 27, 1978, VISITED THE EMBASSY ON JULY 25 TO DISCUSS LATEST DEVELOPMENTS IN THE LEGAL ACTION HE HAS TAKEN IN BEHALF OF HIS SON. IT LOOKED POSSIBLE WHEN FIRST REPORTED BACK IN EARLY MARCH OF THIS YEAR [redacted]

[redacted]

THAT IN THE GIORGI CASE SOME KIND OF LEGAL BREAKTHROUGH MIGHT BE ACHIEVED, IN THAT THE SUPREME COURT AT THAT TIME ORDERED THAT AJUDGE BE CHOSEN TO PROBE THE EVENTS SURROUNDING YOUNG GIORGI'S ABDUCTION. MR. GIORGI TOLD US, HOWEVER, THAT THE RESULT OF ALMOST FOUR MONTHS OF INVESTIGATIONS DONE BY FEDERAL JUDGE DR. GITARD, OF THE PROVINCIAL CITY OF SAN MARTIN, HAD BEEN UNFRUITFUL, AND THAT HE HAD JUST BEEN NOTIFIED BY THE SUPREME COURT THAT IN ABSENCE OF FURTHER EVIDENCE THE HIGH COURT FOUND NO REASON FOR REOPENING CONSIDERATION OF THE CASE.

[redacted]XDS-4) SINCE HIS SON'S DISAPPEARANCE, MR. GIORGI

HAS RECEIVED SEVERAL REPORTS WHICH HE BELIEVES THAT THE YOUNG SCIENTIST IS BEING HELD AT THE NAVAL MECHANICS SCHOOL. MOST RECENTLY MR. GIORGI WAS TOLD THAT HIS SON WAS STILL THERE BY A PERSON WHOSE LAST NAME IS AZZAN, AN ARGENTINE OF ARAB DESCENT, WHO WAS RELEASED ABOUT TWO WEEKS AGO -- ACCORDING TO MR. GIORGI AT THE BEHEST OF THE SAUDI AMBASSADOR HERE, WHO IS REPORTEDLY A DISTANT RELATIVE OF AZZAN. ALTHOUGH AZZAN WAS WILLING TO TELL MR. GIORGI PRIVATELY THAT HE (AZZAN) HAD ONLY A SHORT TIME BEFORE HIS RELEASE SEEN YOUNG GIORIGI ALIVE AT THE NAVY MECHANICS SCHOOL, AZZAN WAS UNWILLING TO TESTIFY TO JUDGE GITARD TO THIS EFFECT -- OUT OF FEAR FOR HIMSELF, ACCORDING TO MR. GIORGI.

(U) IN CONNECTION WITH THE GIORGI DISAPPEARANCE INVESTIGATIONS AND OTHER INVESTIGATIONS RECENTLY ORDERED BY JUDGES LOOKING INTO HABEAS CORPUS PETITIONS, A PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT WAS MADE THIS WEEK BY JUDGE CARLOS A. OLIVIERI THAT HE REQUIRES ANYONE HAVING KNOWLEDGE OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE DISAPPEARANCE OF OR THE PRESENT WHEREABOUTS OF BEATRIZ LEFOUR DE CARRARA TO REPORT THAT INFORMATION TO HIS OFFICE. BEATRIZ DE CARRARA WAS TAKEN FROM HER HOME BY A GROUP OF ARMED MEN ON JUNE 16, 1976. (THE DE CARRARA CASE IS LISTED IN EMBASSY FILES AS ONE DOCUMENTED BY THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS.)

3. [redacted]XDS-4) VOGLER ALLEGATIONS ----
THE AUNT OF VILLA DEVOTO PRISONER LILIANA VOGLER -- A MRS. HINOJOSA -- VISITED THE EMBASSY JULY 24 AND ALLEGED THAT HER NIECE HAS TOLD HER THAT NUMBERS OF OTHER PERSONS DETAINED WITH HER ARE BEING FORCED NOW TO SIGN DECLARATIONS ADMITTING THEIR LINKS WITH TERRORISTS. THE AUNT HAS SAID THAT THE WOMEN ARE THREATENED WITH PUNISHMENT IF THEY REFUSE. MRS. HINOJOSA, WHOSE ACCOUNTS OF EVENTS AT VILLA DEVOTO ARE USUALLY MORE LURID THAN THOSE OF OTHER SOURCES, HAS ALSO TOLD US A CAMPAIGN IN THE UNITED STATES IS BEING ORGANIZED TO OBTAIN COMMUTATION OF LILIANA'S PRISON SENTENCE. THE EMBASSY WILL INQUIRE [redacted] WHETHER THEY HAVE REPORTS OF THE SITUATION MRS. HINOJOSA DESCRIBED. B1

4. [redacted] ISABEL MIGNONE ----

ON JULY 6 WITH THE STORY OF AN ALARMING NEW INQUIRY INTO ISABEL'S ACTIVITIES. ACCORDING TO ISABEL AND CLAUDIA CASEY, AN ASSITANT TO THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE ASSOCIATION, A PERSON CLAIMING TO BE A MEMBER OF THE ARGENTINE CUSTOMS BUREAU HAD VISITED ISABEL INQUIRING ABOUT FOREIGN TRIPS SHE MIGHT HAVE MADE OR FOREIGN VISITORS SHE MIGHT HAVE RECEIVED. HE EXPLAINED THAT ANY ACTIVITIES INVOLVING TEACHERS, BOOKS AND FOREIGNERS WERE OF COURSE SOMETHING THAT WOULD BE OF "CONERN TO THE GOVERNMENT." ALTHOUGH ISABEL WAS IN ONE SENSE RELIEVED TO HAVE ACTUALLY CONFRONTED SOMEONE IN PERSON WHO CLAIMED AN INTEREST IN HER, SHE REMAINED NERVOUS AT WHAT SHE TOOK TO

BE IN FACT THE DISGUISED INQUIRY OF A SECURITY SERVICE. WE HAVE TAKEN THIS UP WITH ONE OF THE SECURITY SERVICES AND HAVE BEEN ASSURED THAT THE SERVICE IS INTERESTED [redacted]

[redacted]

ONLY IN THE FOLLOWING THE ACTIVITIES OF ISABEL'S FATHER, NOT THE GIRL HERSELF. THIS IS ENCOURAGING, BUT WE FEAR NOT DEFINITIVE SINCE THERE ARE OTHER "LEGITIMATE" SECURITY SERVICES. WE WILL STAY IN CLOSE TOUCH WITH THE MIGNONE FAMILY ON DEVELOPMENTS.

8. [redacted] ANTONIO ZARATE -----
IN ADDITION TO THOSE YOUNG MEN REARRESTED IN RESISTENCIE FOLLOWING THEIR RELEASE FROM PEN (SEE PREVIOUS WEEK'S HUMAN RIGHTS ROUNDUP) WE HAVE RECEIVED A LETTER FROM THE MOTHER OF ANTONIO E. ZARATE INFORMING US THAT HER SON WAS REARRESTED ON JUNE 27 IN RESISTENCIA AFTER HAVING BEEN RELEASED FROM THE PRISON IN LA PLATA ON JUNE 16. EMBOFF HAS INFORMATION THAT AFTER BEING ALLOWED INITIAL VISITS BY THEIR FAMILIES THE RESISTENCIA PRISONERS ARE NOW BEING HELD INCOMMUNICADO.

9. (U) PAT DERIAN CRITICIZED -----
A BRUTAL CRITICISM OF ASSISTANT SECRETARY DERIAN HAS APPEARED IN THE BAHIA BLANCA NEWSPAPER "LA NUEVA PROVINCIA" UNDER THE BYLINE OF MALENA GAINZA DE ETCHEBARNE. MRS. ETCHEBARNE ACCUSES MRS. DERIAN OF SILENCE IN THE CASE OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN IRAN SINCE TO SPEAK OF THAT COUNTRY WITH THE FRANKNESS WOULD BE TO RISK JEOPARDIZING THE OIL SUPPLIES THAT THE UNITED STATES RECEIVES FROM IRAN. AN ENGLISH VERSION OF THE ETCHEBARNE ARTICLE ALSO APPEARED IN THE BUENOS AIRES HERALD AS A LETTER IN ENGLISH TO THE EDITOR.

10. (U) ALFONSIN ON HUMAN RIGHTS -----
SEVERAL NEWSPAPERS CARRIED THIS WEEK REPORTS [redacted]

[redacted]

THAT RADICAL POLITICAN RAUL ALFONSIN HAS CALLED UPON POLITICAL PARTIES TO BECOME INVOLVED IN HUMAN RIGHTS AFFAIRS AND SHOW THEIR METTLE BEFORE THE VISIT OF THE INTER-AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION. ALFONSIN, UNLIKE ALMOST ALL OTHER ARGENTINE POLITICIANS, HAS BEEN OUTSPOKEN IN HIS HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS CRITICISM AND IS A LEADING MEMBER OF THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY FOR HUMAN RIGHTS.

11. (U) TIMERMAN ----
SEVERAL NEWSPAPERS COVERED A RECENT STATEMENT BY THE 44TH CONGRESS OF THE INTERNATIONAL PEN CLUB AT ITS MEETING IN RIO DE JANEIRO CALLING FOR THE RELEASE OF JACOBO TIMERMAN. THE PEN CLUB ALSO DISPATCHED A TELEGRAM TO PRESIDENT VIDELA EXPRESSING ITS MEMBERS CONCERN FOR DETAINED AND DISAPPEARED WRITERS AND JOURNALISTS IN ARGENTINA.

12. (U) THE PRESS REPORTED ON JULY 26 THAT IN BAHIA BLANCI FIVE PERSONS LINKE WITH TERRORISM (TWO MEN AND THREEE WOMEN) HAD BEEN SENTENCED TO TERMS RANGING BETWEEN ONE AND NINE YEARS. THE INCIDENT FOR WHIC SENTENCES WERE GIVEN TOOK PLACE ON 7 AUGUST 1974 WHEN THE ARMED ASSAILANTS TOOK OVER AN INSTALLATION OF THE ARGENTINE COAST GUARDS IN PUERTO GALVAN.

13. (U) FORMER SUBVERSIVE RELEASED -----
CONSIDERING A RECENT STATEMENT BY THE MINISTER OF INTERIOR THAT THE NAMES OF DEFECTOR MONTONEROS MUST BE MAINTAINED IN SECRECY LEST THEY BE MURDERED BY THEIR FORMER COMPANIONS, AN INTERESTING NEWS ITEM ON JULY 19 APPEARED FROM MENDOZA DESCRIBING HOW A YOUNG WOMAN NAMED SUSANA PORRAS HAD BEEN SET FREE BY THE "COMMANDER OF SUB ZONE 33" IN VIEW OF THE FACT SHE HAD DEMONSTRATED A "HIGH SPIRIT OF COLLABORATION" AND THAT HER REINTEGRATION

2. Embassy received information this morning (July 31) that Federico Guillermo Westerkamp, 30 year old son of human rights activist Jose Westerkamp, had been taken from his neighborhood by three men dressed in civilian clothes before noon on July 30. (Jose is the father of Gustavo Westerkamp, imprisoned since 1975 on charges of terrorism and now held at La Plata Prison.)

3. The Ambassador immediately telephone General Viola's office to inquire. That office replied at 1600 that Westerkamp is being held on a narcotics trafficking charge. (Comment: Mrs. Westerkamp told us subsequent to our first information of her son's involvement with a young woman whom Federico had described to his family as a narcotics addict, and of association with friends of the young woman Mrs. Westerkamp feared

Mujeres "desaparecidas" que estaban embarazadas en el momento de su detención

El presente informe se basa en el estudio de la documentación de 57 casos, preparada para su presentación ante la Comisión Interamericana de Derechos Humanos de la O.E.A. por parte de los familiares de las víctimas.

de 26 a 30 años: 32,5%.
de 31 años y más: 7,5%.

Tiempo de gestación

de 3 a 5 meses : 27,5%.
de 5 a 7 meses : 37,5%.
de 7 meses y más: 22,5%.

1. Características de los procedimientos.

En todos los casos estudiados, los procedimientos reproducen las características propias de este tipo de operativo: despliegue de efectivos fuertemente armados, uniformados o no, a menudo protegidos por chalecos anti-balas, que se desplazan en varios automóviles sin identificación. Además en un número importante, se registran uno o varios de los siguientes hechos debidamente documentados:

-- Interrupción del tránsito, a veces por lapsos prolongados, frente al domicilio donde se efectúa el procedimiento. Disparos intimidatorios. Uso del megáfono. Colocación de una faja clausurando la vivienda por orden de determinadas fuerzas de seguridad.

-- Robo de bienes de la familia afectada, perpetrado en el momento del secuestro o con posterioridad, por fuerzas de idénticas características a las que actuaron durante el operativo.

-- Allanamientos en domicilios de otros familiares o amigos de las víctimas, con pocas horas de diferencia, antes o después del secuestro.

-- Secuestro de otros miembros de la familia, posteriormente liberados, de cuyo testimonio surge que operaron fuerzas que disponen de importantes infraestructura logística, en varios casos perfectamente identifiable.

-- Secuestro de otro miembro de la familia, cuyo cadáver es entregado a los deudos por fuerzas de seguridad.

Pero cualesquiera sean los episodios que matizan estos operativos - asimilándolos a los que han dejado como saldo miles de desaparecidos durante los últimos tres años - en los casos aquí documentados resaltan un elemento específico. La víctima de la acción represiva no es una mujer, ni siquiera una pareja, aunque en la inmensa mayoría se trate de secuestros dobles. Aquí, en un solo acto se destruye a toda una familia, en sus tres generaciones.

2. La madre en cautiverio

El hecho de llevar un hijo en sus entrañas, no mejora el trato que recibe la mujer por parte de las fuerzas que intervienen en el operativo. A pocos meses o pocas semanas de dar a luz - en uno de los casos cinco días antes - la futura madre es arrojada con igual violencia que su marido en el piso o el baúl de uno de los coches, y desaparece con destino desconocido.

Será sometida a apremios y vejámenes? Los testimonios de personas secuestrada en operativos similares, y posteriormente liberadas, coinciden en señalar a la tortura como un procedimiento rutinario y sistemático. Quisieramos creer que el embarazo - realidad biológica respetada por todas las culturas, inclusive las más primitivas - ha eximido a estas mujeres encintas de la picana eléctrica. No sabemos, sin embargo, por falta de datos, si la denuncia documentada de una mujer que sufrió la interrupción de su embarazo a raíz de torturas padecidas durante su secuestro y detención, constituye o no un caso atípico.

Aún así, y basándonos en el testimonio de mujeres secuestradas durante el proceso de gestación, pero liberadas antes del parto, podemos afirmar que las condiciones impuestas durante la detención, habrán de perjudicar seriamente a la futura madre y el niño, tanto desde el punto de vista físico como psíquico.

Pero nada comparable a la tortura espiritual a la que aquélla está sometida, cuando, desde el cautiverio, ve avanzar la hora del alumbramiento, sin saber cuál será el destino de ese ser cuyo nacimiento tanto había deseado y por cuya vida se siente responsable.

3. Contexto familiar.

Para sus futuros padres y abuelos, este ser es el bien más preciado, compartido desde antes de su nacimiento por ambas generaciones, las cuales, en la inmensa mayoría de los casos documentados, están unidas por estrechos vínculos afectivos.

Los futuros abuelos saben cómo y dónde viven sus hijos, y cuáles son las expectativas que la joven pareja abriga con respecto a su descendencia. El nombre que se dará a los niños ha sido elegido. El ajuar y la cunita esperan.

La atención pre-natal que recibe la futura madre testimonia un alto grado de responsabilidad y sus actividades se desarrollan a la vista de familiares, vecinos y compañeros de trabajo. Algunas de estas embarazadas son primerizas; otras dejan en el hogar a niños de corta edad a la que estaban dedicadas. El caso más notable es el de C. G. quien fue secuestrada cuando le faltaban tres meses para ser madre por sexta vez.

4. Derecho a la vida y Seguridad Nacional.

No hemos indagado las ideas de estas mujeres, pero su conducta potencial puede deducirse del contexto que acabamos de describir. Podría alguna de ellas constituir un peligro inmediato? Y si hubiera tenido conexiones que fuere preciso investigar. Es lícito manejar dicha investigación haciendo caso omiso de su estado y poniendo en serio peligro físico y espiritual al ser que de ella habría de nacer?

Porque ya en el momento del secuestro materno, estos seres tienen entidad propia.

Según la Ley de Dios, son personas con todos los atributos que su filiación divina les confiere.

Nuestro Código Civil define como "personas por nacer" a las que, no habiendo nacido, están concebidas en el seno materno, y como tales, les concede la protección de las leyes y el derecho absoluto a la vida (Tit. III, art. 63).

Frente a la claridad de la Ley, nada sabemos sin embargo, sobre el cumplimiento de esas normas éticas y jurídicas con referencia a estas madres y sus hijos. Ignoramos si se ha respetado la vida como valor supremo o si se la ha supeditado a otras consideraciones tácticas o estratégicas.

5. Incógnitas y desenlace.

En todos los casos documentados, el niño fue entregado a sus abuelos por disposición de fuerzas de seguridad, tres y cinco meses después del alumbramiento, respectivamente. En otros tres, los abuelos tuvieron noticias extraoficiales del nacimiento de su nieto, probablemente por intermedio del personal que intervino en el parto. Nada se supo de los demás, pese a las numerosas acciones legales interpuestas y a las gestiones personales realizadas por los familiares, que recorren incansablemente oficinas, juzgados de menores y asilos.

Cabe por tanto, formular las siguientes hipótesis:

a) Nacimiento en término de la criatura, que comparte la detención e incomunicación de la madre;

b) Muerte o traslado de la madre, pero entrega del hijo nacido en esas circunstancias a personas ajenas al grupo familiar o a instituciones públicas;

c) muerte de la madre y/o de la criatura que lleva en su seno, como consecuencia de malos tratos, de acción criminal deliberada o de sentencia penal.

Aún dentro de la primera hipótesis, la más optimista, resultan obvios los perjuicios físicos y espirituales que tal situación habrá de provocar en el niño, comprometiendo peligrosamente su normal desarrollo, así como el equilibrio psíquico de su madre. Por otra parte, deberá dilucidarse qué jurisdicción decidió segregar al niño de su grupo familiar (abuelos, hermanos, padre, etc.) en evidente colisión con las leyes que establecen la protección y promoción de la familia, célula fundamental de nuestra sociedad.

Pero la posible entrega de estos niños a padres adoptivos o a la tutela estatal, plantea problemas jurídicos aún más delicados. La suspensión de la patria potestad no puede establecerse al margen de las prescripciones legales (art. 7 de la Ley 17.771 y 307 - 308 del Código Civil), sin intervención del juez competente, y del defensor de menores que lo es también de "incapaces" o de "ausentes". No puede negarse, tampoco, a los familiares el derecho preferencial en el otorgamiento de la tutela, asegurando así la preservación de la familia.

Aunque resulte inconcebible admitir que en el caso de niños tan pequeños, hubieran intervenido fueros especiales o tribunales "ad hoc", ninguno de los recaudos señalados fueron tomados en los casos a que nos referimos, con excepción de uno de ellos.

Más inadmisible aún resulta la tercera hipótesis, dentro de su aterradora simplicidad. Ya no sería menester preguntarse con qué poder y con qué objetivos se los habría condenado a estos niños a un cautiverio inhumano, o se los habría desposeído de su grupo familiar legítimo. Simplemente habría muerto, al igual que sus madres. Tal ha sido el desenlace de uno de los casos, como pudo comprobarse por la entrega del cadáver materno a sus familiares.

Pese a todo, inmunes a la desesperación y con fuerza que les infunde un gran amor y un inmenso dolor, la mayoría de los abuelos los sigue bregando por la devolución de sus seres queridos y por la dilucidación de situaciones aberrantes.

Qué puede hacer cada uno de nosotros en su ayuda?

ción" (ver página 4).

LAS MADRES DE
ROBERTO TORANZO Y PATRICIA DINA PALACIN DE TORANZO
LAS ABUELAS DE LA CRIATURA NACIDA EN EL CAUTIVERIO

Hace un año nuestros hijos no regresaron. Personas desconocidas, inhallables, intocables, practicaron una vez más, el oscuro ejercicio de su poder y les llegó a Roberto y Patricia, el turno de desaparecer. Un hecho de rutina. Archivaron nuestras denuncias. Rechazaron los Hábeas Corpus.

Nuestros hijos son trabajadores y estudiantes, ella es Docente, él es Técnico y alumno de Ingeniería. Son conocidos y queridos por numerosos compañeros, amigos y familiares. Nada tienen que ocultar. Nada de qué avergonzarse. Construían un hogar. Forjaban la Patria. Piensan. Tienen legítimos ideales. Si fueron detenidos por ello, entonces tienen mucho trabajo por delante los secuestradores. Les resta por secuestrar a una inmensa mayoría de jóvenes argentinos.

Patricia esperaba un hijo. Nuestro primer nieto. Debe haber nacido en octubre último. Quisiéramos saber donde está. Qué han hecho con él. En qué ambiente lo están criando. Qué destino le reservan.

No entendemos de política. Pero, durante todo un año hemos visto, pensado y aprendido mucho. Creemos que algo tiene que ver el destino de nuestros hijos con el de toda la Nación. Creemos que una sociedad que esconde y tolera la barbarie va preparando su propia destrucción, porque se hace cómplice. Porque las personas más capaces y prestigiosas se habitúan a callar. Mientras tanto, los más inescrupulosos y prepotentes, los sanguinarios y los cobardes se van haciendo fuertes. Se van haciendo dueños.

Quisiéramos que para este 5 de abril, después de año de angustia se nos concediera tan solo esto: QUE IMPERE LA LEY, PARA NUESTROS HIJOS, PARA NUESTRO NIETO, PARA TODOS LOS HABITANTES DE ESTA TIERRA.

AMBICIONAMOS UNA PATRIA LIBRE, ORGULLOSA, CON HOMBRES QUE LEVANTEN SUS VOCES PARA QUE IMPERE POR SIEMPRE LA JUSTICIA Y LA PAZ.

Current Human Rights Situation in Argentina

(U) Following is a description of key human rights developments since the Task Force completed its assessment in early February:

Disappearances

[redacted] We have received reports of seventeen disappearances for the period since February 1. We immediately communicated these reports to high GOA authorities and asked for information on their whereabouts. The GOA has provided us with information that three of the persons were arrested and charged in the courts. One person was briefly detained and then released. The GOA has been unable to provide information on the thirteen other cases. In three cases, however, the disappeared persons have contacted relatives by letter or telephone call to advise that they were well and would eventually reappear. The last disappearance took place May 13. A list of unresolved disappearances, including those three, is attached.

[redacted] The victims of these abductions/disappearances have no confirmed connection with terrorist groups. Some, such as members of the Socialist Workers' Party, and the Argentine Communist Party-associated Relatives of Disappeared and Detained Persons are related to the nonviolent political left.

[redacted] This record since February compares to previous years when disappearances averaged about 55 per month in 1978, 180 per month in 1977, and 300 per month in 1976. In mid-May 1979 the Argentine Permanent Assembly for Human Rights published a list of 5,465 disappearances since 1975; in the month following publication, the Assembly received reports of an additional 105 previously unreported cases. An earlier Assembly report contained 80 1978 disappearances unknown to the Embassy and one from 1979.

Accounting for the Disappeared

[redacted] The GOA has not yet taken any public step to account for the disappeared. The Government has addressed the broad issue internally and is seeking solutions to specific aspects of the problem, such as shortening the period for legal presumption of death. There are also indications that it is seeking to establish what documentary evidence exists throughout the security apparatus.

[redacted] Foreign Minister Pastor briefed EC-9 ambassadors in Buenos Aires recently on the terms of new legislation and said that relatives will be able to petition the Government for assistance and information three months after the occurrence of a disappearance. The Government will have three months to establish the whereabouts of the missing person and, if no information is developed, relatives will be able to claim survivors' benefits and regularize their legal status. Although he did not supply details, Pastor said relatives will be able to claim indemnization.

[redacted] General Viola reiterated to Ambassador Castro on June 25 that the GOA does not have information on the fate of the disappeared and in view of the extended periods of disappearance he doubted any of these people were alive. He said a few of the disappeared may reappear, but these would be rare exceptions. In a public speech delivered on Army Day (May 29) Viola referred obliquely to the fate of the disappeared, calling them "those who will be absent forever." Argentine human rights groups have interpreted this tacit statement as an admission that many of the disappeared were killed by Argentine police and military forces.

[redacted] The Embassy concluded in a recent trends report (May 31) that "we are reasonably certain that the apparatus for disappearing people still exists although, even considering a small upsurge of disappearances in the past several weeks, it appears less used than in the past."

PEN Prisoners

[redacted] The GOA has continued to release detainees from PEN. The Embassy estimated in mid-June that the political prisoner population in this category is now at about 2,200. The GOA announced June 29 that there are now 1,723 PEN prisoners. At the end of 1978, this figure stood at about 2,900 and at the beginning of 1978 at about 3,500. It is not clear how many of those removed from PEN are at liberty and how many remain in custody under some form of charges in judicial processes, or after having been convicted by either military or civilian tribunals. The Embassy [redacted] estimate the total current prison population of persons confined because of the GOA's counter-subversion campaign at just under 3,000, including those held under PEN and persons who have been tried and convicted in civil or military courts. We have been told by a source on President Videla's staff that the GOA will continue to review the status of PEN detainees and plans to have the number down to 800 to 1,000 by the end of this year; these prisoners would continue to be held indefinitely under PEN since the "Campora amnesty" of 1973 makes it impossible to prosecute them. Other high-level Argentine officials have said that a certain number of persons will continue under PEN since the GOA considers them committed subversives although it lacks evidence that will stand up in court.

[redacted] Foreign Minister Pastor said the GOA has augmented its legal staff reviewing PEN detention from four to 30.

Clandestine Prisoners

[redacted] The Embassy has received fragmentary but credible data which suggest the GOA may continue to hold a number of prisoners that it has not publicly acknowledged. In a recent case a woman, who had disappeared in late 1978, was released by the authorities. It appears that most of the persons being held clandestinely are either the "disappeared" in process through the security apparatus or former terrorists who are cooperating with the authorities. As the number of new disappearances has dropped, there is little reason to think that there are still substantial numbers "in process." The Embassy believes that if clandestine prisoners exist, their number could not be more than a few hundred as an outside limit, and it considers it unlikely that the figure be that high. There are fragmentary data supporting, in the Embassy's view, that some small, scattered clandestine detention centers still exist, each holding no more than perhaps 25 persons. It is believed that such centers would be closed before the arrival of the IACHR in November.

Right of Option

Argentine Government action on the right of option program continues at a slow pace. The GOA has given permission for 18 detainees to travel to the U.S. under the right of option program; 13 entered the U.S. under our parole program. The Embassy has issued 95 certificates of eligibility. General Viola assured Ambassador Castro again that approval of right of option cases would proceed more quickly. GOA officials announced that about 170 persons have been released under right of option for travel to all countries.

Prison Conditions

The GOA has published uniform regulations for the treatment of detainees in a move designed to end variations in treatment at different facilities. The ICRC urged this step and has called the rules a significant improvement for the treatment of detainees. We have reports, however, that the regulations have not yet been fully implemented in all facilities. The GOA has consolidated PEN detainees in six facilities.

According to reports from other prisoners, in February one person disappeared from prison, another was tortured, and a third died as a result of beatings by guards. In early May, the Permanent Assembly for Human Rights reported that some of the 200 prisoners moved from Resistencia prison to the La Plata prison were beaten and robbed during the transfer.

The Judiciary

(U) As the NYC Bar mission noted in its report, the executive power continues to decline to provide information in response to habeas corpus petitions filed by the relatives of disappeared persons. Regarding PEN detainees, the Executive response is that "links with subversives" constitute sufficient grounds for continued detention, invoking its alleged power to hold individuals without charge under the Constitutional state of siege authority. The NYC Bar mission report was sharply critical of the lack of professional objection to the denial of due process and deterioration in the executive power of the judiciary in recent years.

(U) The courts have recently tried a number of persons on pre-1976 subversive charges and sentenced them to prison terms. Three police officers were recently prosecuted for abuse of prisoners.

Argentine Attitudes Toward the Human Rights Issue

[redacted] President Videla and Army Commander Viola are maintaining their leadership position within the GOA on human rights policy and appear to have begun carrying out commitments made to us repeatedly in the past to bring disappearances to an end and reduce PEN detention. Hardliners in the Argentine military still favor repressive policies directed at a broad range of political dissidents. Army Chief of Staff General Suarez Mason, for example, recently proposed to the Cabinet a broad offensive against political subversives which clearly would include groups unrelated to the terrorist movements of the past. General Menendez, Third Corps Commander, has called for continued strong efforts to battle "ideological subversion."

(U) The prestigious daily La Prensa has joined The Buenos Aires Herald in championing human rights. However, no paper has agreed to publish the Permanent Assembly's latest list of disappearances. The Catholic Church addressed an appeal to President Videla on May 4 on behalf of disappeared persons, PEN detainees, jailed labor leaders, and lower income groups adversely affected by present GOA economic policy.

(U) The New York Bar Association's report on human rights conditions in Argentina noted that ingredients are present for future progress in human rights observance, but that the support of the Argentine legal profession is essential for a quick return to civilized legal practices. The New York Bar Association exhorted its Argentine colleagues to take a more active role in this area.

ANNEX PROCEDURE FOR THE EXAMINATION AND TREATMENT BY THE INTER-PARLIAMENTARY UNION OF COMMUNICATIONS CONCERNING VIOLATIONS OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS OF PARLIAMENTARIANS

I. WORK OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE

1. The Special Committee on Violations of the Human Rights of Parliamentarians held its sixth session at the headquarters of the Inter-Parliamentary Union in Geneva from 25 to 28 June 1979.

2. The following persons took part in the session: Mr. André Chandernagor (France), Chairman of the Special Committee, Mr. Derikoye Tita Avungara (Zaïre), and Mr. S.N. Sinha (India), titular members of the Special Committee; Mr. T. Draganu (Romania), substitute for Mr. Bogdan Osolnik (Yugoslavia), and Mr. C. Tattenbach, substitute for Mr. Carlos Canache Mata (Venezuela).

3. The Special Committee examined the situation of 32 parliamentarians from 9 countries in different regions, in accordance with the "Procedure for the examination and treatment by the Inter-Parliamentary Union of communications concerning violations of the human rights of parliamentarians".

4. Twenty-four cases had been the subject of a report by the Special Committee to the 124th session of the Inter-Parliamentary Council (Prague, 21 April 1979); most of them had given rise to a resolution of the Council. The cases in question are the following:

Manuel Isauro Molina (Argentina); Luis Agustin Carnevali (Argentina); Mohsen Marhoun (Bahrain); Marcelo Gatto, Nelson Fabiano Sobrinho, Nadir Rossetti, Amauri Muller, Lysaneas Maciel, Marcos Tito and Alencar Furtado (Brazil); Carlos Lorca Tobar and Vicente Atencio Cortes (Chile); Umiharti Sardjono (Indonesia); John Marie Seroney, George Moseti Anyona, Martin Shikuku and Wasonga Sijeyo (Kenya); Lee Tee Tong (Singapore); José Luis Massera Lerena, Jaime Gerschuni Perez, Vladimir Ilitch Turiansky, Alberto Altessor Gonzales, Rosario Pietrarroia Zapala and Gerardo Cuesta Villa (Uruguay).

5. The Special Committee continued examination of unresolved cases. It also resumed confidential examination of the cases of 14 parliamentarians; 7 of these cases are submitted to the Council for examination for the first time, namely the cases of Deputies Juan Manuel Ramirez and Antonio Isaac Guerrero (Argentina); Deputy Mohamed Jabir Subah Siyyadi (Bahrain); and Deputies Eddy Abdurachman Martalogawa, Richard Paingot Situmeang, [redacted] Abdurachman Sundari and Karel Supit (Indonesia).

6. Lastly, the Special Committee studied for the first time a communication about the murder of Deputy Alberto Fuentes-Mohr (Guatemala). The report on this case will be found on page 33 .

7. The Special Committee examined all these cases in the light of the replies from the authorities of the countries concerned to the requests by the Inter-Parliamentary Council and its own requests - where it had received such replies - and in the light of further information gathered during investigation of the cases,

8. The Special Committee also took account of information supplied by three National Groups - those of Australia, Austria and Poland - which will be found in Section II of this report (page 7).

9. At its session, the Special Committee examined, in particular, the report of the mission to Singapore to visit Mr. Lee Tee Tong, carried out at the request of the Council by a member of the Committee, Mr. S.N. Sinha (India), and the Secretary General. The report on the case of this parliamentarian is contained in document CL/125/79/6 Add.1.

10. The members of the Council will find in Section III the reports prepared by the Special Committee on 25 cases, together with draft resolutions.

"The Inter-Parliamentary Council,

Considering that the action it undertakes for the defence of of the human rights of parliamentarians will be all the more effective if it is amplified and supported by the National Groups,

1. Calls on the National Groups to take all such measures as they may deem suitable for the support of the decisions of the Inter-Parliamentary Union in this matter and to inform the Organization's Secretariat of their initiatives and the results obtained;

2. Recalls that these measures include :

- Oral or written approaches by the National Groups, their Presidents or their members to their Governments and to the Speakers or Bureaux of their Parliaments, with a view to action by the latter directed towards the authorities of the countries concerned;

- Use of the mass media for the dissemination of the reports of the Special Committee and the decisions of the Council;

- Direct material and legal aid in appropriate forms to the victims."

4. In reply to his requests, the Secretary General has received the following information from the National Groups of Australia, Austria and Poland :

AUSTRALIA.- The Council's resolutions were communicated to all the members of the two Houses of the Australian Parliament.

AUSTRIA.- The resolutions adopted in Prague by the Inter-Parliamentary Council on the above-mentioned parliamentarians were transmitted to the Federal Chancellor with a request that all the necessary measures be taken.

POLAND.- A detailed report on the Prague meetings was sent to the members of the Bureau of the Diet, the 460 Deputies of the Diet, including the Chairmen of the Standing Committees, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, the heads of the regional departments of the Foreign Ministry and the heads of the Institute for International Affairs. The report of the Special Committee and the resolutions of the Council were communicated more especially to the Minister of Foreign Affairs so that he might intervene at international meetings and during bilateral diplomatic contacts. These documents were widely commented on by the Press, particularly in articles written by Polish parliamentarians and in televized interviews with them.

III. CASES SUBMITTED TO THE INTER-PARLIAMENTARY COUNCIL

Case No. ARG/08 - LUIS AGUSTIN CARNEVALI - ARGENTINA

(a) Source of communication:

Mrs. Juana Romero, member of the Argentinian Parliament at the time of the coup d'Etat in March 1976.

(b) Outline of the case:

It emerges from the evidence that Senator Luis Agustin Carnevali was arrested on 24 March 1977 and that he has been missing since then. The Argentinian authorities state that they have no information about his arrest and present whereabouts; they have indicated that the competent authorities have begun an investigation and have not disclosed its results.

Although Senator Carnevali was reportedly arrested at his home in San José de la Quintana, province of Cordoba, by members of the Third Army Corps, at that time under the command of General Luciano Benjamin Menendez, and although neighbours witnessed his arrest, Senator Carnevali has never been brought to trial. He may have been murdered.

(c) Previous treatment:

This case, which the Special Committee examined at its second session (August 1977), was the subject of a report by the Special Committee to the 122nd, 123rd and 124th sessions of the Inter-Parliamentary Council and of unanimous resolutions by that body.

In the resolution which it adopted at its 124th session, the Inter-Parliamentary Council urged "the Government of Argentina, in the light of this information (which it possesses regarding this parliamentarian), to hasten its inquiry and to inform the Special Committee of the results thereof as rapidly as possible".

(d) Report concerning the implementation of the resolution adopted by the Inter-Parliamentary Council at its 124th session:

(i) On 22 March 1979, the Secretary General transmitted the report of the Special Committee to the Argentinian governmental authorities. Following the 124th session of the Council, on 7 June 1979, he officially transmitted the report again, together with the Council's resolution on the case of Senator Carnevali.

(ii) These communications had not been answered with regard to Senator Carnevali when the Special Committee met.

(e) Decision of the Special Committee:

The Special Committee,

Decides to recommend to the Inter-Parliamentary Council that it adopt the following resolution :

Case No. ARG/08 - LUIS AGUSTIN CARNEVALI - ARGENTINA

The Inter-Parliamentary Council,

Referring to the resolutions which it adopted at its 123rd session (September 1978) and 124th session (April 1979) concerning Senator Luis Agustin Carnevali, of Argentina,

Taking note of the report of the Special Committee,

Recalling that the Argentinian authorities stated, on 22 August 1978, that "Mr. Luis Agustin Carnevali is not among those persons whose whereabouts were recently ascertained by the governmental authorities",

Considering, however, that the information received by the Special Committee reveals that Senator Luis Agustin Carnevali was arrested on 24 March 1976 at his home in San José de la Quintana, in the province of Cordoba, by members of the IIIrd Army Corps under the command of General Luciano Benjamin Menendez; that Senator Carnevali's neighbours were witnesses to his arrest; that it is to be feared that he might have lost his life,

Recalling that, by letter of 26 August 1977, confirmed on 18 January 1978, the Government of Argentina stated that the competent authorities had opened an inquiry into his case,

Deeply concerned over the fate of Senator Carnevali,

1. Regrets that the Argentinian authorities have not replied to the pressing request of the Council to hasten this inquiry and inform the Special Committee as soon as possible of the results thereof;

2. Earnestly repeats that request.

Case No. ARG/17 - JUAN MANUEL RAMIREZ - ARGENTINA

(a) Source of communication:

Mrs. Juana Romero, member of the Argentinian Parliament at the time of the coup d'Etat in March 1976.

(b) Outline of the case:

The evidence in the case reveals that Deputy Juan Manuel Ramirez, representative of the Province of Chaco, was arrested in March 1976; that he has been detained since then without trial; that he has been transferred from the prison of the Province of Chaco, where he was initially detained, to the Resistencia prison in Buenos Aires, where he is subject to the maximum security régime ("maxima peligrosidad"); that he is accused of being a "Montonero" but appears never to have belonged to that movement; that, at the time of his arrest, his wife was placed under house arrest and died some time later, Deputy Ramirez's young children thus now being left to fend for themselves.

(c) Investigation of the case:

(i) The Special Committee first examined the case of Deputy Juan Manuel Ramirez at its 5th session (February 1979). It then approached the Argentinian authorities in order to :

1. Ask them whether it is correct that Deputy Ramirez was arrested in March 1976 and has been detained since then without trial;

2. Ask them, if so, whether the competent authorities contemplate releasing him rapidly;

3. In the event that it is not planned to release him rapidly, ask them to inform him of :

   (a) The legal provisions under which he was arrested and is held in detention, having regard to the provisions of Article 9 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and of Article 7 of the American Convention on Human Rights;

   (b) The charges against him; the present status of the procedure under way; the court seized of his case and the date of the trial; the guarantees available to him for his defence, having regard to the provisions of Article 14 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and of Article 8 of the American Convention on Human Rights.

These requests were made by letter of 14 February 1979.

(ii) When the Special Committee met they had not been answered.*

(d) Decision of the Special Committee:

The Special Committee,

Decides to recommend to the Inter-Parliamentary Council that it adopt the following resolution **:

The Inter-Parliamentary Council,

Having before it the case of Deputy Juan Manuel Ramirez, of Argentina, who was the subject of a study and a report by the Special Committee on Violations of the Human Rights of Parliamentarians, in accordance with the "Procedure for the examination and treatment by the Inter-Parliamentary Union of communications concerning violations of the human rights of parliamentarians",

Taking note of the report of the Special Committee,

Considering that the evidence in the case reveals that Deputy Juan Manuel Ramirez, representative of the Province of Chaco, was arrested in March 1976; that he has been detained since then without trial; that he was recently transferred from the prison of the Province of Chaco to the prison of Resistencia in Buenos Aires where he is subject to the maximum security régime ("maxima peligrosidad"); that he is accused of being a "Montonero" but appears never to have belonged to that movement; that, at the time of his arrest, his wife was placed under house arrest and died some time later, Deputy Ramirez's young children thus now being desolate,

Regretting that the Argentinian authorities have not replied in substance to the requests which the Special Committee addressed to them,

1. Instructs the Secretary General to approach the Argentinian authorities again in order to:

(a) Inform them of the Inter-Parliamentary Council's concern over the fate of Deputy Ramirez who has been under administrative imprisonment for more than three years;

* A few days after the meeting, however, the Secretary General received from the Argentinian authorities a letter dated 18 May, which had not been properly routed. It states that:

"Former parliamentarian Juan Manuel Ramirez:
He is at the disposal of the national executive authorities under decree No. 2426/76; he is accused of sabotage and possession of material of the "Montoneros" subversive organization; he is at Unit No.7 in the Resistencia prison."

 When the Special Committee prepared this draft resolution it did not possess the information from the Argentinian authorities contained in footnote *.

(b) Inform them of the pressing request of the Inter-Parliamentary Council that this parliamentarian either be tried as soon as possible at a trial offering all the guarantees set out in the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, or be released immediately;

2. Declares that, should no action be taken on the above requests before its next session, it will have to conclude in a violation of the human rights of Deputy Ramirez.

Case No. ARG/18 - ANTONIO ISAAC GUERRERO - ARGENTINA

(a) Source of communication:

Mrs. Juana Romero, member of the Argentinian Parliament at the time of the coup d'Etat in March 1976.

(b) Outline of the case:

The evidence in the case reveals that Deputy Antonio Isaac Guerrero was arrested by the army at Tucuman in March 1976, transferred to the Buenos Aires Prison and subsequently to the prison in La Plata, where he is currently detained without trial.

(c) Investigation of the case:

(i) The Special Committee first examined the case of Deputy Antonio Isaac Guerrero at its 5th session (February 1979). It then approached the Argentinian authorities in order to:

1. Ask them whether it is correct that Deputy Guerrero was arrested in March 1976 and has been detained since then without trial;

2. Ask them, if so, whether the competent authorities contemplate releasing him rapidly;

3. In the event that it is not planned to release him rapidly, ask them to inform him of:

(a) The legal provisions under which he was arrested and is held in detention, having regard to the provisions of Article 9 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and of Article 7 of the American Convention on Human Rights;

(b) The charges against him; the present status of the procedure under way; the court seized of his case and the date of the trial; the guarantees available to him for his defence, having regard to the provisions of Article 14 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights and of Article 8 of the American Convention on Human Rights.

These requests were made by letter dated 14 February 1979.

(ii) When the Special Committee met they had not been answered.*

(d) Decision of the Special Committee:

The Special Committee,

Decides to recommend to the Inter-Parliamentary Council that it adopt the following resolution:

* Several days after the meeting, however, the Secretary General received from the Argentinian authorities a letter dated 18 May which had not been properly routed. It states that "Former parliamentarian Antonio Isaac Guerrero is at the disposal of the national executive authorities under decree 1660/77; he is accused of subversive activities and is at Unit No.9 in La Plata prison".

 When the Special Committee prepared this draft resolution it did not possess the information from the Argentinian authorities contained in the footnote *.

Case No. ARG/18 - ANTONIO GUERRERO - ARGENTINA

The Inter-Parliamentary Council,

Taking note of the report of the Special Committee,

Considering that the evidence in the file reveals that Deputy Antonio Guerrero was arrested by the army at Tucuman in March 1976; that he appears to be detained in the prison of La Plata,

Regretting that the Argentinian authorities have not replied in substance to the request which the Special Committee addressed to them,

1. Instructs the Secretary General to approach the Argentinian authorities again in order to:

DIPLOMATIC NOTE

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs presents its compliments to the Embassy of the United States of America and has the honor to refer to Note Nº 72 of the Embassy, dated November 17, 1978, and to the responding note of the Ministry dated January 16, 1979, relating to the case of Letelier, et al. v. Central Nacional de Informaciones, et al. (Civil Action 78-1477) in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

More than six months has elapsed since the Ministry presented its last note concerning this matter. In the intevening time, the Ministry has not been informed of the position of the United States or of the District Court with respect to the points r raised in that note, and, in particular, the Ministry has not been advised if the case in question has been dismissed for lack of jurisdiction.

Since the Ministry's note of January 16, 1979, the Ministry has studied further the legal considerations, both internacional and municipal, which are relevant to the jurisdictional issue. The results of this study are incorporated in a Memorandum of Law which is annexed to this note. The Memorandum of Law makes two essential points.

First, the District Court like courts in other countries has the authority to determine its own jurisdiction; without jurisdiction the court ...ver to maintain the civil action. Under the relevan... ited States Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act as well as under international law upon which the statute is based, it is clear that the court lacks jurisdiction in this case.

Second, the exercise of jurisdiction would involve inquiry into alleged acts and policies of a foreign sovereign, and would implicitly question itsdiplomatic and public representations, thus contravening the "Act of State Doctrine" applied by United States courts.

The Ministry is aware of the policy of the Department of State, in cases involving the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, that a diplomatic note presented by a foreign governement concerning the assertion of jurisdiction under this statute will be transmitted by the Department of State to the appropriate court. In accordance with this policy, the Ministry request that a copy of this note and the Annexed Memorandum Of Law be transmitted to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, so that the Court may be further aware of the position taken by the Republic of Chile in this matter.

The Ministry emphasizes that an exercise of jurisdiction in this case would be contrary to legal authority and would be without precedent in international law or practice. Although there is a shared concern to bring all the guilty parties to justice in accordance with the law, this objective cannot justify an unwarranted assertion of one nation's judicial processes against another sovereign nation.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

The Ministry requests that it be advised by the Embassy of the decision by the District Court on these questions of jurisdiction, so that, if the position of the Republic of Chile is not accepted, the Ministry may consider alternative means of resolving the jurisdictional dispute that would then exist between two sovereign States. The Ministry in its last note suggested the possibility of international adjudication, and the Ministry would welcome an indication from the Embassy as to whether the United States is prepare: to submit to international adjudication any jurisdictional dispute which may arise as a result of decision in this matter.

THE STATE ENTERPRISES ARE ALSO PREDOMINANTLY UTILITIES OR RELATED TO TRANSPORTATION. OTHERS INCLUDED ARE ENAP, THE GOVERNMENT OIL COMPANY, AND THE BANCO DEL ESTADO. OF THE MAJRO COPPER MINES ONLY WORKERS AT CHUQUICAMATA (WHICH PRODUCES CLOSE TO HALF OF CHILE'S COPPER) ARE DENIED THE STRIKE WEAPON. THIS HAS DRAWN AN EXPECTED NEGATIVE REACTION FROM A UNION LEADER AT THE MINE. (COMMENT:

Current Human Rights Situation in Argentina

(U) The following is a summary of the human rights situation in Argentina. A more detailed review of current conditions is set forth in the attachment.

Disappearances: Seventeen since February 1; three have turned up arrested by the GOA, one was released, and 13 remain unresolved. The last reported disappearance occurred May 13. In 1978, 55 persons disappeared per month; in 1977, 180; in 1976, 300.

Accounting for the Disappeared: The GOA is preparing new legislation to shorten to six months the time period for declaring presumptive death. Army Commander and Junta Member Viola has spoken publicly for the first time of the disappeared as "those who will be absent forever" and told the Embassy he thinks, with rare exceptions, most of the disappeared are dead. The GOA has so far refused to provide individual accounting.

PEN Prisoners: The GOA announced on June 29 it now holds 1,723 persons under PEN (executive detention). It is not clear how many former PEN detainees have been freed and how many have continued in prison after civil or military trials, but the Embassy and the ICRC estimate the total number of political prisoners at just under 3,000 in all of these categories. GOA officials plan to reduce the PEN category to 800-1,000 by late 1979; the latter will continue to be held for an unstated period. In early 1978, the GOA acknowledged that it held about 3,500 PEN prisoners.

[redacted] Clandestine Prisoners: The question of whether clandestine prisoners exist in significant numbers remains unresolved. If there are, they could number up to a few hundred as an outside limit; our Embassy considers it unlikely that the number would be that high; We have no firm evidence. Fragmentary data, however, suggest the existence of at least some unacknowledged prisoners and of some small scattered clandestine detention centers about to be closed.

[redacted] Right of Option: Moving at a slow pace, with only 18 GOA approvals so far for PEN prisoners seeking to come to the U.S. The GOA has approved approximately 170 applications since September 1977 for all countries.

[redacted] Prison Conditions: The GOA issued nation-wide uniform prison regulations in late April and consolidated PEN detainees in six facilities. In February, there were reports of two beatings (one fatal) and a disappearance in prisons and, in May, of a number of beatings and robberies among a group of prisoners in transit.

B1

[redacted] The Judiciary: The NYC Bar Association mission noted that the Executive continues to be uncooperative in responding to habeas corpus petitions. The Judiciary has made some attempts to force greater cooperation, but its effective power remains limited.

[redacted] Argentine Attitudes Toward the Human Rights Issue: Videla and Viola appear to be trying to carry out commitments to us to end disappearances and reduce PEN detentions. Hardliners such as General Suarez Mason and General Menendez have recently stepped up calls for a new GOA offensive to root out "intellectual subversion." A political test of strength between these two points of view is shaping up for year's end.

(U) The NYC Bar Association mission noted that progress is possible but would come much faster if the Argentine legal profession would take a more active interest in return to rule of law.

[redacted]

(U) The Church and some elements of the press have become more outspokenly critical in dealing with human rights.

MEMORANDUM OF CONVERSATION

PARTICIPANTS: Emilio Mignone, Permanent Assembly for Human Rights
William H. Hallman, Political Counselor, American Embassy, Buenos Aires

DATE : July 30, 1979

SUBJECT : Argentine Police Raid on Printing House

Background. Several newspapers reported on July 29 and July 30 that on Saturday afternoon July 28 police personnel from the First Precinct raided the Alemann Printing Company, where they confiscated galley plates and other materials having to do with a publication regarding the disappeared. According to the same reports, police authorities surrounded the building (which is located near the "Casa Rosada") and prevented people from leaving between about 5 in the afternoon and 6:30.

Although the company does a large amount of job printing, it is best known for the newspaper Argentinisches Tageblatt, the newspaper which serves Argentina's German speaking community and is published by the family of Juan Alemann, the present secretary for treasury in the Ministry of Economy, and his brother Roberto, a former Economy Minister. (The family is of Swiss German descent.)

According to a communique issued subsequently by the federal police: "Personnel of this organization in compliance with Executive Decree No. 1829 enacted a procedure yesterday afternoon in a building in which the Alemann and Company print shop is located. They proceeded to confiscate 3,500 copies, printing plates and other materials related to a publication. The contents of that publication asserted certain activities unacceptable to the public forces, attributing acts without describing those persons responsible. The decree cited prohibits the distribution, sale, circulation and partial or total reproduction of the publication by whatever means throughout the national territory.

The police proceedings took place only in the commercial printing section -- apart from the daily newspaper and its presses -- where several kinds of publications of persons outside the company are done.

What Mignone Added. Mr. Mignone explained that the confiscated publication was in fact a printed version of the Permanent Assembly for Human Rights most recent tabulation of the disappeared, containing some 5,200 names. The Assembly had been rebuffed by several newspapers. The Buenos Aires Herald declined to publish the list on grounds of costs involved and other factors. (The Herald has a policy of not accepting human rights announcements as paid advertisement, as do other newspapers, so it would have been faced with the problem of a large news printing job the list would have entailed. The editor of Prensa, whose owner-editor Gainza had promised to accept the list as advertisement, subsequently declined to accept the list when Assembly members visited his office to pay for the announcement. The Assembly had therefore ordered 30,000 commercially printed versions of the disappeared list from the Alemann Company, which the organization expected to mail out to large numbers of people in Argentina and abroad.

Mignone heard that in fact the police had visited the printing company the day before, a Friday, and had taken enough material to indicate the nature of the printing job the Alemann Company was undertaking. He believes that the prestige of the company and the prominence of its owners caused a small flurry in government, so that when police authorities came the following afternoon they did so armed with a carefully drawn statement which clearly distinguished between the newspaper the Alemann family owns and its other printing activities. The Permanent Assembly is now studying what legal action can be taken to regain what it regards as in part its property. A large deposit had been left with the Alemann Company for the printing job.

DECLARACION JURADA

En una declaración jurada presentada ante la Corte en enero de 1979, relaté el contenido de una entrevista que sostuve con el Sr. Jack Holcomb, Presidente de Audio Intelligence Devices, Inc. el 15 de marzo de 1978 en Washington, D.C.

El tercer anexo de dicha declaración consiste en la primera página de una factura de Audio Intelligence Devices que mostraba un pedido con fecha del 7 de febrero de 1975 y una fecha de entrega del 15 de febrero de 1975. Bajo la casilla de observaciones de la factura, el Sr. Holcomb anotó de su puño y letra que para el 15 de febrero de 1975, fecha de entrega del pedido, él (Holcomb) había indagado sobre las credenciales de Juan Andrés Wilson/Kenneth Enyart/Michael Townley, con el General Washington Carrasco, a quien él (Holcomb) conocía como un funcionario de la Embajada de Chile.

La antedicha factura, unida a la declaración de Holcomb, indica claramente que se utilizó al General Washington Carrasco como punto de referencia de Juan Andrés Wilson/Kenneth Enyart/Michael Townley en 1975 para establecer sus credenciales. Al General Carrasco se le habló por teléfono en algún momento entre el 7 de febrero de 1975, fecha en que se hizo el pedido, y el 15 de febrero de 1975, fecha en que se hizo entrega de los materiales.

Holcomb no señaló la fecha exacta de su llamada telefónica al General Carrasco, pero indicó que su norma era confirmar las credenciales de los clientes potenciales de un

Gobierno extranjero poco después de hacerse un pedido (en este caso, el 7 de febrero de 1975) y antes de la fecha de entrega del mismo (en este caso, 15 de febrero de 1975), para evitar trabajo innecesario a sus empleados en caso de que no se confirmen las credenciales del cliente potencial.

Holcomb declaró asimismo que en el momento de hacer la llamada telefónica (entre el 7 y el 15 de febrero de 1975), él sabía que el General Carrasco formaba parte del personal de la Embajada de Chile, lo cual indica claramente que había habido previo trato, o contactos, entre Carrasco y Holcomb.

La investigación realizada por la FBI confirma que en febrero de 1975 los dos números anotados en la casilla de observaciones de la factura eran números de teléfono no públicos y en funcionamiento, asignados a la Misión Militar de la Embajada Chilena en Washington, D.C.

AFFIDAVIT

I, L. Carter Cornick, Jr., Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, do hereby affirm the following under oath:

In a sworn affidavit submitted to the Honorable Court during January 1979, I previously related the substance of an interview between Mr. Jack Holcomb, President of Audio Intelligence Devices, Inc. and me which took place March 15, 1978 at Washington, D. C.

The third attachment to that affidavit was the first page of an invoice of Audio Intelligence Devices, Inc. which showed an order date of February 7, 1975 and a delivery date of February 15, 1975. Under the remarks block on the invoice, Mr. Holcomb noted in his own handwriting that by February 15, 1975, the delivery date of the order, he (Holcomb) had checked the bonafides of Juan Andres Wilson/ Kenneth Enyart/Michael Townley with General Washington Carrasco, known to him (Holcomb) to be an employee of the Embassy of Chile.

UNCLASSIFIED

The above-mentioned invoice, when taken together with Holcomb's statement clearly indicates that General Washington Carrasco was utilized as a point of reference by Juan Andres Wilson/Kenneth Enyart/Michael Townley in 1975 to establish his bonafides. General Carrasco was contacted telephonically sometime between February 7, 1975, the date the order was placed, and February 15, 1975 the date the materials described in the invoice were delivered.

Holcomb did not name the specific date of his confirmation call to General Carrasco, but he did indicate that it was his standard procedure to confirm the credentials of a potential customer of a foreign Government soon after the placement of the order (in this case February 7, 1975) and before the delivery date (in this case February 15, 1975) so as to avoid needlees effort on the part of his staff in the event the credentials of the potential customer were not confirmed.

Holcomb also stated that General Carrasco was known to him (Holcomb) at the time of the call (February 7-15, 1975) to be a member of the staff of the Chilean Embassy, thereby clearly indicating previous dealings or contacts with Carrasco by Holcomb.

DECLARACION JURADA

Yo, Robert W. Scherrer, Agente Especial de la Oficina Federal de Investigaciones (FBI), por la presente afirmo bajo juramento lo siguiente:

En enero de 1979 fui en viaje oficial a Santiago de Chile. El día 14 de enero de 1979 por la tarde fui al aeropuerto internacional de Pudahuel para regresar a los Estados Unidos. En el aeropuerto me encontré con Su Excelencia el Sr. George Walter Landau, Embajador de los Estados Unidos en Chile, que iba a viajar conmigo a los Estados Unidos en el vuelo 150 de la Línea Aérea LAN Chile. Debido a algunos problemas en el avión se retrasó la salida del vuelo 150 de la LAN, y el Embajador Landau y yo fuimos a la sala de espera VIP del aeropuerto. Cuando estábamos en la sala de espera, el Embajador Landau y yo nos encontramos con el general del Ejército chileno Washington Carrasco que había ido al aeropuerto a despedir a alguien que salía en el mismo vuelo de la LAN que el Embajador y yo íbamos a tomar.

En el curso de la conversación, el general Carrasco dijo que había oído decir que el FBI aseguraba que el Sr. Jack Holcomb, presidente de Audio Intelligence Devices, de Fort Lauderdale, Florida, había llamado por teléfono al general Carrasco en Washington, D.C. el 15 de febrero de 1975, con objeto de establecer las credenciales de Kenneth Enyart y Andres Wilson (dos de los nombres falsos de Townley). El general Carrasco observó que el Sr. Holcomb de ninguna manera podría haberse puesto en contacto con él en Washington, D.C. el 15 de febrero de 1975, puesto que él, el general Carrasco, había salido de dicha ciudad el día 13 de febrero de 1975, o alrededor de esa fecha, para regresar a Chile y tomar posesión de su nuevo cargo de Intendente en el Sur de Chile. Le dije al general Carrasco que todos los documentos relacionados con Enyart/Wilson obtenidos por el FBI de Audio Intelligence Devices, le habían sido proporcionados al director del CNI, general Odlanier Mena, a principios de 1978 y también se habían incluido en la solicitud de extradición del general Contreras, el coronel Espinosa y el capitán Fernández para corroborar la información facilitada por el Sr. Holcomb. Se hace notar que durante nuestra conversación, el general Carrasco no negó en ningún momento el haber hablado con el Sr. Holcomb en otras ocasiones con anterioridad al 13 de febrero de 1979. Deseo señalar a la atención de la Corte una declaración jurada del Agente Especial L. Carter Cornick, Jr. que esclarece la información previamente suministrada por el Sr. Holcomb con respecto a sus contactos telefónicos con el general Carrasco en Washington, D.C., durante el mes de febrero de 1975.

Según información que me facilitó Michael Vernon Townley, el general Carrasco, además de hablar con el Sr. Holcomb por teléfono sobre compras efectuadas en Audio Intelligence Device por Kenneth Enyart y Andrés Wilson en febrero de 1975, también estuvo en contacto telefónico con el propio Townley en diciembre de 1974. Townley me dijo que en diciembre de 1974 había llamado al general Carrasco a Washington, D.C. desde Florida, usando el nombre de Andrés Wilson, para pedirle al general Carrasco que le ayudase a establecer las credenciales de Wilson (Townley) en Audio Intelligence Device, a fin de facilitar la compra de material electrónico que iban a utilizar los agentes de seguridad de S.E. el Presidente Pinochet en un viaje a Lima, Perú, que por entonces se estaba organizando. Townley me dijo asimismo, que había solicitado la ayuda del general Carrasco para conseguir la colaboración del coronel Sepúlveda, que entonces era cónsul de Chile en Miami, Florida, en el envío a Chile por la Línea Aérea LAN Chile, del material electrónico adquirido en diciembre de 1974 en Audio Intelligence Devices.

AFFIDAVIT

I, Robert W. Scherrer, Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), do hereby affirm the following under oath:

During January 1979, I visited Santigo, Chile, on official business. On the evening of January 14, 1979, I went to Pudahuel International Airport, in order to return to the United States. At the airport, I met the Honorable George Walter Landau, United States Ambassador to Chile, who was traveling with me to the United States via LAN Chile Airlines, Flight 150. Due to equipment problems,the departure of LAN Chile Flight 150 was delayed and Ambassador Landau and I went to the VIP lounge at the airport to wait. While in the VIP lounge area, Ambassador Landau and I encountered Chilean Army General Washington Carrasco, who was at the airport to see someone off on the same LAN Chile flight that the Ambassador and I were to take.

During conversation, General Carrasco mentioned that he learned that the FBI claimed Mr. Jack Holcomb, the President of Audio Intelligence Devices, Fort Lauderdale, Florida had telephonically contacted General Carrasco in Washington, D. C., on February 15, 1975, in order to establish the bona fides of Kenneth Enyart and Andres Wilson (two of Townley's false identities). General Carrasco noted that Mr. Holcomb could not have possibly reached him by telephone in Washington, D. C., on February 15, 1975, inasmuch as he, General Carrasco, departed Washington, D. C., on or about February 13, 1975, to return to Chile to take up new duties in Southern Chile as an Intendente. I told General Carrasco that all documents related to dealings with Enyart/Wilson obtained by the FBI from Audio Intelligence Devices had been provided to CNI Director, General Odlanier Mena, during early 1978, and also included in the United States Government's request for extradition of General Contreras, Colonel Espinosa and Captain Fernandez to clearly support information provided by Mr. Holcomb. It is emphasized that, at no time during our conversation, did General Carrasco deny that he had spoken with Mr. Holcomb on occasions prior to February 13, 1979. The attention of the Honorable Court is invited to an affadavit of FBI Special Agent L. Carter Cornick, Jr., which clarifies information previously provided by Mr. Holcomb concerning his telephonic contacts with General Carrasco in Washington, D. C. during February 1975.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

In addition to speaking with Mr. Holcomb on the telephone concerning Audio Intelligence Device purchases by Kenneth Enyart and Andres Wilson during February 1975, General Carrasco, according to information provided to me by Michael Vernon Townley, also spoke on the telephone with Townley himself during December 1974. Townley told me that he called General Carrasco in Washington, D. C., from Florida in December 1974, using the Andres Wilson identity, in order to ask General Carrasco's help in establishing Wilson's (Townley's) bona fides with Audio Intelligence Devices to facilitate the purchase of electronic equipment to be used by security personnel of SE President Pinochet on a then pending trip to Lima, Peru. Additionally, Townley also told me that he asked General Carrasco's assistance in arranging for the colaboration of Colonel Sepulveda, the then Chilean Consul in Miami, Florida, in shipping the electronic equipment purchased during December 1974 from Audio Intelligence Devices to Chile via LAN Chile Airlines.

The Embassy of Chile presents its compliments to the Department of State and upon instructions from its Government, has the honor to refer to Note No.72 of the Embassy of the United States of America in Santiago, dated November 17, 1978, and to the responding note of the Chilean Ministry for Foreign Relations, dated January 16, 1979, relating to the case of Letelier, et al. v. Central Nacional de Informaciones, et al. (Civil Action 78-1477) in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

2.- More than six months has elapsed since the Chilean Ministry presented its note concerning this matter. In the intervening time, the Government of Chile has not been informed of the position of the United States or of the District Court with respect to the points raised in that note, and, in particular, it has not been advised if the case in question has been dismissed for lack of jurisdiction.

3.- Since its above mentioned note of January 16, 1979, the Chilean Ministry for Foreign Relations has studied further the legal considerations, both international and municipal, which are relevant to the jurisdictional issue. The results of this study are incorporated in a "Memorandum of Law" which is annexed to this note. The Memorandum makes two essential points:

(a) The District Court like courts in other countries has the authority to determine its own jurisdiction; without jurisdiction the court lacks power to maintain the civil action. Under the relevant statute (the United States Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act) as well as under international law upon which the statute is based, it is clear that the court lacks jurisdiction in this case.

(b) The exercise of jurisdiction would involve inquiry into alleged acts attributed by the amended complaint to the Republic of Chile and portrayed in that complaint as political decisions. Adjudication of the validity of such allegations formulated in a complaint against a foreign State, is outside the jurisdiction which a local court may exercise with respect to a foreign State, both under international public law and under the "Act of State Doctrine" applied by the United States courts.

4.- The Embassy of Chile understands that it is the policy of the Department of State, in cases involving the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, that a diplomatic note presented by a foreign government concerning the assertion of jurisdiction under this statute is transmitted by the Department of State to the appropriate court. In accordance with this policy, the Embassy begs leave to request that a copy of this note and the annexed Memorandum of Law be transmitted to the United States District Court for the District of Columbia, so that the Court may be further aware of the position taken by the Republic of Chile in this matter.

The Embassy has been instructed to emphasize that an exercise of jurisdiction in this case would be contrary to legal authority and would be without precedent in international law or practice. Although there is a shared concern to bring all the guilty parties to justice in accordance with the law, this objective cannot justify an unwarranted assertion of one nation's judicial processes against another sovereign nation.

The Embassy request that it be advised by the Department of State of the decision by the District Court on these questions of jurisdiction, so that, if the position of the Republic of Chile is not accepted, the Government of Chile may consider alternative means of resolving the jurisdictional dispute that would then exist between two sovereign States. In the Chilean note of January 16, 1979, the Chilean Ministry for Foreign Relations suggested the possibility of international adjudication, and the Chilean Embassy would welcome an indication from the Department of State as to whether the United States is prepared to submit to international adjudication any jurisdictional dispute which may arise as a result of a United States judicial decision in this matter.

The Embassy of Chile avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Department of State the assurances of its highest and most distinguished consideration.

ANNEX

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

The Republic of Chile and one of its government departments, the Central Nacional de Informaciones, have been named as defendants in a civil legal proceeding that has been brought before the United States District Court for the District of Columbia in a case entitled Letelier, et al. v. Central Nacional de Informaciones, et al. (Civil Action 78-1477).

This memorandum presents legal authorities in support of the position that the Republic of Chile and its government departments cannot be subjected to the jurisdiction of a United States court in this case. First, the District Court in this case lacks jurisdiction over a sovereign nation with respect to the type of claims which have been asserted. Second, an exercise of jurisdiction by the District Court in this particular case would implicitly call into question the position taken and representations made by the Republic of Chile with respect to the crime that has been committed, and would involve judicial inquiry into alleged acts, policies and motivations of the Chilean Government, in violation of the Act of State Doctrine as applied by United States courts.

In demonstrating that the District Court cannot properly exercise jurisdiction, the following facts are relevant to the analysis:

1.- On September 21, 1976, Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt were slain by a bomb while in an automobile in the District of Columbia.

2.- In the aftermath of this crime, the Republic of Chile has conducted its own investigation and has assisted United States authorities in their investigations. In the latter regard, the Republic of Chile has taken the extraordinary step of allowing United States prosecutors to come to Chile and to interrogate, in Chile, officers and employees of the Chilean Government. The Republic of Chile also expelled from Chile Michael Vernon Townley, an action which ensured his entering into the custody of United States authorities and his becoming the principal witness in the criminal prosecutions which are occurring in the United States.

UNCLASSIFIED

3.- The Republic of Chile has taken the position and has represented both to the United States Government as well as publicly that it was not responsible for these crimes. The highest officials of the Chilean Government have stated publicly that no Chilean official was in any way authorized to commit the alleged acts that are the basis of the civil action that has been brought in the District of Columbia, or to engage others to commit these acts.

4.- On August 1, 1978, a criminal indictment against several individuals was brought in the District of Columbia concerning the same events. On August 23, 1978, an amended complaint was filed in the pending civil action.

5.- With respect to the individual defendants in the civil action, the amended complaint essentially presents a claim for wrongful death, the plaintiffs being survivors of the deceased victims. Any recovery that would be available to survivors appears to be governed by the District of Columbia Code.

6.- The amended complaint in the civil action attempts to implicate the Republic of Chile itself in the crime for which certain individuals have been indicted, by attempting to portray the crime as involving a political decision by a sovereign nation. For example, the amended complaint alleges not only that a sovereign nation was responsible for two murders, but that these alleged actions were part of a conspiracy for the "purpose of depriving" of their rights "persons opposed to the lawless and inhumane actions of the government of the Republic of Chile" (Amended Complaint, paragraph 7); that a sovereign nation allegedly committed these crimes "willfully, maliciously, deliberately and intentionally" (Amended Complaint, paragraph 9); that a sovereign nation allegedly "violated the norms of the law of nations, including but not limited to acts of torture, unlawful confinement and assassination" and allegedly "assassinated and caused the assassination" of the slain victims (Amended Complaint, paragraph 13); and that a sovereign nation allegedly made "a violent attack" upon an internationally protected person (Amended Complaint, paragraph 15).

UNCLASSIFIED

7.- On November 17, 1978, the Embassy of the United States of America in Santiago, Chile, delivered a Diplomatic Note to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Chile, to which were attached certain judicial documents purporting to serve legal process on the Republic of Chile in the civil action pending in the District of Columbia. On January 16, 1979, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs delivered a Diplomatic Note in response to the Embassy's communication. The Ministry's Note rejected the purported service and returned the original judicial documents to the Embassy of the United States of America. In so doing, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs took the position that the District Court from which the documents originated lacked jurisdiction in a matter of this nature, and stated also that "the Republic of Chile cannot in this matter permit itself to be subjected to the inquiries of a national court of another state, or to permit such a court implicitly to question the statements made by the Chilean Government concerning this crime." It was requested that the Note be transmitted to the District Court "so that the Court may be aware of the position taken by the Republic of Chile in this matter."

8.- On September 20, 1978, one month after the filing of the amended complaint in the civil action, the Embassy of the United States of America in Santiago, Chile, presented to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs a request for extradition under the Treaty on Extradition between the United States and Chile of 1902. The request and supporting documents sought the extradition to the United States of three Chilean nationals who were indicted in the related criminal case and who are defendants in the pending civil action: former Colonel Juan Manuel Contreras Sepúlveda, former Major Pedro Espinoza Bravo, and former Army Lieutenant Armando Fernandez Larios. On the following day, September 21, 1978, the Ministry transmitted the request and supporting documents to the Supreme Court of Chile, and it so advised the Embassy of the United States, noting that the Supreme Court of Chile, like the United States Supreme Court, was separate from and independent of the executive branch of the government, and that the extradition request was under Chilean law to be decided in the first instance by the President of the Supreme Court of Chile in accordance with the relevant Treaty.

9.- On May 13, 1979, the President of the Supreme Court of Chile announced his decision that, under the relevant Treaty, the request for extradition had to be denied. The decision noted that under Article 1 of the 1902 Treaty on Extradition, it was required that the evidence in support of the extradition request be assessed "according to the laws of the place" where the persons charged are found; that under Chilean law testimony obtained in exchange for a bargained plea cannot be the basis for a conviction; that under Article 5 of the Treaty, neither Chile nor the United States are "bound to deliver up its own citizens or subjects"; that the United States Supreme Court has previously ruled that the United States President lacks the authority to extradite U.S. citizens under a similar treaty provision, Valentine v. U.S. ex rel. Neidecker, 299 U.S. 5, October Term, 1936; and that in view of the military status of the three individuals concerned, a certified copy of this decision would be transmitted to the Second Military Court in Santiago for appropriate proceedings "to investigate what responsibility may be charged to Fernandez, Espinoza, and Contreras in the homicides of Orlando Letelier and Ronni Moffitt". The attorney representing the United States Government in the extradition proceedings in Chile has appealed this decision to the Supreme Court. This appeal is now pending.

UNCLASSIFIED

10.- The Republic of Chile has not yet been informed whether the District Court in the civil action has made a decision as to its own jurisdiction, in light of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs note of January 16, 1979.

In view of this background, the following legal points must be considered.

THE DISTRICT COURT LACKS JURISDICTION

1.- The Court Must Determine Its Jurisdiction in Cases Involving A Foreign Sovereign

It is an elementary legal principle that a court may not exercise judicial authority unless it has jurisdiction. Under United States law, federal courts must establish that they have "subject matter jurisdiction." A United States district court may at any time, and at its own initiative, determine whether it has subject matter jurisdiction. Louisville & Nashville Railroad v. Mottley, 211 U.S. 149, October Term, 1908. Thus, in Mellos v. Brownell, 250 F.2d 35, United States Court of Appeals, District of Columbia Circuit, decided November 27, 1957, the Court of Appeals concluded that jurisdiction "may be raised at any time, by the parties or by the court sua sponte," and it dismissed the suit because the United States was entitled to immunity -- it had not "consented" to be sued.

UNCLASSIFIED

In cases involving foreign sovereigns, subject matter jurisdiction is determined under section 1330(a) of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, United States Code, Title 28, Section 1330(a) which states:

> The district court shall have original jurisdiction... of any nonjury civil action against a foreign state... as to any claim for relief in personam with respect to which the foreign state is not entitled to immunity... under Sections 1605-1607 of this title... /Underscoring added./

The legislative material accompanying this statute indicates that an action is to be dismissed for lack of jurisdiction where "the foreign state is entitled to sovereign immunity." House of Representatives Report No. 94-1487, September 9, 1976, page 13.

Therefore, the District Court must determine that the Republic of Chile is not entitled to sovereign immunity in order to determine that it has jurisdiction. This determination in each case is necessary because, as suggested in the legislative material, "a disparate treatment of cases involving foreign governments may have adverse foreign relations consequences." House of Representatives Report No. 94-1487, September 9, 1976, page 13.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act makes a distinction between establishing jurisdiction (where it must be determined whether a foreign state is "entitled" to immunity) and attempts by a foreign state to claim sovereign immunity as a separate defense. Even though a foreign state may have to meet certain burdens in support of a separate defense, the underlying jurisdiction of the court must be established through an inquiry into the entitlement of the foreign state concerned to immunity under sections 1605-1607 of the statute.

2.- There is No Jurisdiction Under Sections 1330(a) and 1605(a)(5) of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act

Since the existence of jurisdiction depends upon a determination that the Republic of Chile is "not entitled to immunity... under sections 1605-1607" of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, one must examine the latter provisions relating to immunity. With respect to the Letelier civil action, the only relevant provision relating to the non-entitlement to immunity is Section 1605(a)(5) of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act. Indeed, the Amended Complaint (paragraph 4) refers only to Section 1605(a)(5) as a basis for concluding that the Republic of Chile and CNI are not entitled to immunity.

Section 1605(a)(5) relates to claims based upon private "torts". As stated in the legislative material, "Section 1605(a)(5) is directed primarily at the problem of traffic accidents but is cast in general terms as applying to all tort actions for money damages...". The legislative material states also:

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

> The purpose of section 1605(a)(5) is to permit the victim of a traffic accident or other non-commercial tort to maintain an action against a foreign state to the extent otherwise provided by law.

House of Representatives Report No. 94-1487, September 9, 1976, page 21.

Recent decisions by United States courts interpreting this provision demonstrate that Section 1605(a)(5) relates to private torts, particularly traffic accidents, and clearly does not cover scurrilous allegations of political assassinations and similar assertions designed to implicate a foreign sovereign in a crime. In particular, these U.S. decisions emphasize that the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act denies immunity only with respect to commercial and private acts, and not with respect to acts which are alleged to be of a governmental or political origin or nature.

Thus, in Carey v. National Oil Corp., 453 F. Supp. 1097, United States District Court, S.D. New York, June 15, 1978, it was stated:

> The structure of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act leaves no question that non-commercial activities of a foreign state will be treated with the same deference to which they were entitled before 1976. (page 1102)

A similar principle was announced in Yessenin-Volpin v. Novosti Press Agency, 443, F. Supp. 849, United States District Court, S.D. New York, January 23, 1978. In that case, a Soviet dissident brought a suit claiming that two Soviet news agencies, TASS and Novosti, had engaged in political attacks against his reputation which constituted libel. After noting that the particular claim of libel was expressly exempted under one provision of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act, the Court then considered a second immunity provision -- Section 1605(a)(2) -- and whether the plaintiff's claim was of a commercial/private character or of a governmental/political character. The Court concluded that although it was opposed to the political tone of the TASS and Novosti articles, it nevertheless had to conclude that the publication of Soviet political commentary constituted "an activity whose essential nature is public or governmental." (at page 857) The claims pending against the Republic of Chile are much more extreme in two respects. First, the Republic of Chile, unlike TASS and Novosti, has repeatedly reaffirmed that it did not engage in the acts that are alleged in the Complaint. Second, Plaintiffs' efforts to implicate the Republic of Chile in the civil action have led the plaintiffs to allege that a political assassination has occurred -- clearly an allegation whose essential nature is not private or commercial.

In Gittler v. German Information Service, 408 N.Y.S. 2d 600, Supreme Court, Special Term, New York County, Part I, June 20, 1978, the Court concluded that the engagement of a public relations consultant "in connection with fostering cultural relations in promoting understanding between Germany and the United States" was not of a private or commercial nature under the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act.

Cases decided prior to the enactment of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act are also relevant. As stated in the legislative material, the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act in the area of jurisdictional immunities simply "codified" the preexisting law in the United States as followed by the courts and the executive branch. House of Representatives Report No. 94-1487, September 9, 1976, page 7.

UNCLASSIFIED

Thus, in Heaney v. Government of Spain, 445, F.2d 501, United States Court of Appeals, Second Circuit, July 2, 1971, the Court concluded that a foreign state's engaging of a private individual to create political propaganda against a third country clearly fell within the category of strictly political or public acts for which a foreign state is entitled to immunity. (page 503) The Court then considered the argument of the appellants that political conduct which was improper should not give rise to immunity. The Court rejected that argument:

> We are likewise unable to accept appellant's alternative contention that even if the acts in question may be characterized as political, they are political acts of a sort which are incompatible with the appropriate exercise of diplomatic functions by a foreign sovereign in this country and therefore unprotected by whatever immunity Spain might otherwise enjoy...
> But even assuming that there were some basis (for contending that Spain's actions were improper or unlawful), we are not persuaded that the suggested conclusion would follow... Rather, to condition a foreign sovereign's immunity on the outcome of a preliminary judicial evaluation of the propriety of its political conduct, with the attendant risks of embarassment at the highest diplomatic levels, would frustrate the very purpose of the doctrine itself. (page 504)

The present civil action presents an even more extreme political situation because the Government of Chile's involvement in the events giving rise to the action has been categorically denied.

In summary, the allegations appearing in the amended complaint cannot be fitted into a "commercial or private" framework. It is only be alleging conduct of a political character that the amended complaint can attempt to implicate the Republic of Chile.

3.- Jurisdiction Must Also be Denied Under International Law, Upon Which the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act Is Based

The Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act provisions on jurisdictional immunities are based on international law. This is made clear in the legislative material. House of Representatives Report No. 94-1487 states that the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act codifies the restrictive principle of sovereign immunity "as presently recognized in international law" (page 7); that "the United States has found that sovereign immunity is a question of international law" (page 9); that "sovereign immunity is a doctrine of international law" (page 8); and that the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act provides "a statutory regime which incorporates standards recognized under international law" (page 14).

International law, in particular court decisions in other countries, reaffirms the distinction between commercial/private and governmental/political claims that is embodied in the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act. The following list of decisions from several nations shows that alleged conduct not of a purely private character cannot be the basis for asserting jurisdiction over a foreign sovereign:

Immunity of United Kingdom from Jurisdiction Case, 24 International Law Reports 207 (Federal Republic of Germany: Ct. of App. Schleswig, March 26, 1957). In that case, an individual accompanying the British forces in Germany following World War II was sent to the Soviet Zone in Germany to bring back certain arms and military plans. He was arrested by Soviet forces, sustained injuries, and subsequently brough suit against the United Kingdom in a

West German court. The court concluded that even though one might attempt to portray the plaintiff's claim as being "of a private character," the claim in fact alleged "performance of sovereign functions by the British Army" and thus the United Kingdom was immune from suit.

The Ditta Pomante v. Federal Republic of Germany, 40 International Law Report 64 (Italy: Civil Ct. L'Aquila, December 7, 1960). This was an action for wrongful conversion and alleged breach of a contract committed by the German Military Command in Italy during World War II. The plaintiff, who had provided timber to the Nazi forces, claimed he had not been paid. The court stated that the distinction between private and political claims must be respected:

> "The efforts of counsel for the plaintiff to endow with contractual and private law characteristics something which ... seems to be and is no more and no less that a requisitioning of works and services for the benefit of the occupying forces, must therefore fail ..."

The Italian court concluded that since the claim was based on alleged exercise of sovereign and political power, the foreign state was immune from suit.

Societe Anonyme Eau, Gaz, Electricite et Applications v. Office D'Aide Mutuelle, 23 International Law Reports 205 (Belgium: Ct. of App. Brussels, January 25, 1956). The plaintiff suffered damages in a traffic accident involving a British military truck transporting troops. The court concluded that claims relating to the transport of troops on the order of a foreign government did not involve private wrongs, and that the foreign state was entitled to immunity.

Henon V. Egyptian Government and British Admiralty,

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

[1947] Annual Digest 78 (Egypt: Civil Tribunal Mixed Courts, April, 1947). Plaintiff's villa was requisitioned by the British Forces in Egypt during World War II. Extensive damage was done to the villa and plaintiff brought suit after the war. The court dismissed the suit on grounds of immunity.

The Hanna I, 15 International Law Reports 146 (Norway: Supreme Court, August 18, 1948). A maritime lien was asserted against a ship, alleging that the ship had negligently caused damages after it had been requisitioned by the German Occupation authorities in Norway during World War II. The court recognized immunity even though the ship had subsequently been returned to private activities.

U Kyaw Din v. The British Government, [1956] 23 International Law Reports 209 (Burma: High Court of Rangoon, July 14, 1948). Immunity accorded in a tort action relating to the destruction of property by the British forces when evacuating Rangoon in 1942.

The countries of Latin America have consistently taken an even stronger position with respect to the immunities of foreign states than have the countries of North America and Western Europe. Virtually all countries of Latin America are parties to the Inter-American Convention on Private International Law of 1928 (Bustamante Code). Under Articles 333-335 of this international treaty, foreign states are entitled to immunity except in cases involving a claim with respect to real property, a waiver of immunity, or a counter-claim.

It should be noted that the Republic of Chile is a party to this treaty and, indeed, has incorporated its provisions into Chilean domestic law. Codigo de Derecho Internacional Privado, art. 333-335. Under this codification, the Republic of Chile extends a broad immunity to all foreign states in accordance with the immunity principles of the Inter-American Convention on Private International Law. A refinement to this approach is contained in a recent enactment in Chile which states:

UNCLASSIFIED

> Any foreign state and its organizations, institutions and enterprises will be able to ask for immunity from jurisdiction and from execution in Chile, according to the circumstances of the case, on the same terms and with equal breadth and identical exceptions as are recognized in its own legislation in favor of the State of Chile or its organizations, institutions and enterprises.

Decree Law No. 2.349 of October 13, 1978, art. 90.

These principles, which clearly extend immunity for claims alleging political or governmental conduct, have been applied in Latin American judicial decisions. Thus, the Supreme Court of Uruguay recognized immunity of a foreign state in a case involving the construction of a government railway. Sociedad Europea de Estudios y Empresas, S.A. v. Government of the Peoples Federal Republic of Yugoslavia, Judgment of the Supreme Court of Justice, Uruguay, Anuario Uruguayo de Derecho Internacional, 247 (1962).

The United States a few years ago benefitted from these rules of immunity in a case involving the discharge of a Brazilian national by the United States Information Service in Brazil. United States Information Service v. Torres Brandao, Judgment of May 4, 1967, Tribunal Superior do Trabalho, Brazil, reported in A. Dias da Silva, Direito Processual Internacional, 193 (1971).

All of these authorities demonstrate that unless a claim is clearly of a private nature, a foreign state is entitled to immunity. Certainly, the more extreme claims in the pending civil suit -- claims of political assassination, of conspiracy, of malicious and deliberate assault with intent to murder a political opponent -- do not involve the clearly private claims to which a sovereign nation may be subjected under international law and which are contemplated in the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act.

In summary, the joining of the Republic of Chile is based upon various alleged acts which are portrayed in the complaint as political conduct of a foreign sovereign. Wholly apart from the absence of any basis for this imputation, it must be pointed out that it cannot be concluded that the Republic of Chile "is not entitled to immunity under Section 1605-1607" of the Foreign Sovereign Immunities Acts, because the amended complaint with respect to the Republic of Chile is not based upon allegations of commercial or private acts. Consequently, jurisdiction does not exist under United States Code, Title 28, Section 1330(a) and the civil action against the Republic of Chile must be dismissed.

THE DISTRICT COURT MAY NOT EXERCISE JURISDICTION BECAUSE OF THE ACT OF THE STATE DOCTRINE

The Act of State Doctrine is a longstanding principle of American law under which United States courts decline to adjudicate cases relating to the acts, conduct and policies of foreign governments. The United States Supreme Court in the case of Banco Nacional de Cuba v. Sabbatino, 376 U.S. 398, October Term, 1963, stated that the Act of State Doctrine has "constitutional underpinnings"

In the earlier case of Oetjen v. Central Leather Co., 246 U.S. 297, October Term, 1917, the Supreme Court stated:

> The principle that the conduct of one independent government cannot be successfully questioned in the courts of another is as applicable to a case involving the title to property brought within the custody of a court, such as we have here, as it was held to be to the cases cited, in which claims for damages were based upon acts done in a foreign country, for it rests at last upon the highest consideration of international comity and expediency. To permit the validity of the acts of one sovereign State to be reexamined and perhaps condemned by the courts of another would very certainly "imperil the amicable relations between governments and vex the peace of nations." (at pages 303-304).

These principles received additional explanation in the recent case of Hunt v. Mobil Oil Corp., 550 F. 2d 68, United States Court of Appeals, Second Circuit, decided January 12, 1977. In that decision, the Court of Appeals concluded that the Act of State Doctrine precluded United States courts from making inquiry into the "motivation" and "policies" of the Libyan Government. The Court Stated:

> The American judiciary is being asked to make inquiry into the subtle and delicate issue of the policy of a foreign sovereign, ... precluded by the act of state doctrine as well as the realities of the fact-finding competence of the court in an issue of far-reaching national concern. (at page 77)

The Court of Appeals noted that the United States Department of State had condemned the Libyan actions which were involved in the case, and concluded that this was an additional reason for the Court not to exercise jurisdiction. Then the Court stated:

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

> Even if the Department of State had not spoken, the inquiry required by the third claim in this private litigation is hardly within the fact-finding competence of the judicial branch...
> This necessarily would require a wholesale examination of Libyan policy--how did it treat other companies, what provoked its displeasure, how far could concessions by Hunt appease President al-Qadhafi... To dismiss this examination as an issue of fact and not of law and therefore beyond the ambit of the act of state doctrine is, in our view, neither conceptually nor pragmatically sound. (at page 78)

The same considerations apply to the pending civil action.—The Republic of Chile has repeatedly represented, both diplomatically and publicly, that it was not responsible for the crimes which have occurred, and that no Chilean official was in any way authorized to commit those acts or to engage others to do so.

If the District Court were to exercise jurisdiction in the pending civil action, it would be implicitly questioning the foregoing representations--representations which have been made in Chile by the highest officials of the Chilean Government.

In addition, judicial inquiry into these representations as well as into the amended complaint would require the District Court to "find facts" relating to events which occurred in Chile. The amended complaint in effect alleges that the Republic of Chile directed a United States citizen (Townley) and several Cuban nationals to commit a crime -- and that this alleged direction of a crime was committed by Chilean officers within Chile. Thus, the district Court would not only be making inquiry into the representations made in Chile, but also into claims cocerning alleged events in Chile.

Finally, as in the case of Hunt v. Mobil Oil Corp.,

the amended complaint makes allegations concerning the motivation and policies of a sovereign nation. It alleged that a sovereign nation commited crimes and did so "willingly, maliciously, deliberately and intentionally." It alleges a "conspiracy" by a sovereign nation, that crimes were allegedly committed as part of alleged policies to deny fundamental rights, "to silence those opposed to its policies," and to commit other wrongful acts.

There can be no more extreme example than this case, where a United States court is being asked to inquire into the motivations and policies of another sovereign state. When these considerations are added to the other reasons for applying the Act of State Doctrine discussed above, it becomes clear that the Doctrine precludes an exercise of jurisdiction in this situation.

CONCLUSIONS

I. The District Court lacks jurisdiction under United States Code, Title 28, Section 1330(a).

II. Even if jurisdiction were found to exist --which would be an improper result-- nevertheless such jurisdiction could not be exercised because the claims would require judicial review of the acts, representations, policies and motivation of a foreign sovereign -- judicial endeavors prohibited by the Act of State Doctrine.

The Embassy of the United States of America presents its compliments to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Chile and transmits herewith three duly certified requests for international judicial assistance issued by the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia. The District Court requests the appropriate judicial authority in the Republic of Chile to cause to be served the enclosed Summonses and Complaints upon Manuel Contreras Sepulveda, Pedro Espinoza Bravo, and Armando Fernandez Larios; to complete the respective "Certificates of Service" once it has done so; and, to have them returned to this Embassy for transmission to the District Court.

The enclosures to this note include copies in English and Spanish of the respective requests for international judicial assistance and the appropriate format for the certifications, as well as duplicate copies of the Summonses and Complaints in both languages.

It should be noted that the Courts of the United States of America are authorized by statute, Section 196, Title 28, United States Code, to extend similar assistance to the Tribunals of the Republic of Chile in like cases. Further, the District Court stands ready to reimburse the Chilean judicial authority for all expenses incurred in executing this specific request for judicial assistance.

SEPULVEDA Y OTROS, a US[illegible] digo:

Iniciada la vista de la causa, durante los alegatos, la defensa de los acusados CONTRERAS y ESPINOZA a-compañó diversos documentos y presentó no menos de siete escritos con observaciones sobre el fondo de la causa y sobre el alegato de esta defensa.

Con fecha 13 de Agosto US. dictó una resolución por la cual decretó diversas diligencias para mejor resolver del fallo y entre ellas, con la letra (i) concedió a esta defensa conocimiento de los antecedentes presentados por la defensa de CONTRERAS y ESPINOZA.

Habiendo tomado conocimiento de tales antecedentes y documentos, esta defensa estima del caso formular las siguientes observaciones:

no confidenciales, reservados o secretos, van codificados mediante el empleo de claves diferentes y exclusivas. Tratándose de mensajes secretos o reservados, aquellos que sean cifrados y descifrados personalmente por el remitente y el destinatario. Solo estos últimos podrían entonces garantizar la autenticidad del mensaje, pero con ello dejarían al descubierto un sistema criptográfico castrense nacional y lo que hace inconcebible que algunos de ellos ya hayan entregado a CONTRERAS. Obsérvese la mención "CRIPTO" en el texto de la supuesta telex.

Por lo demás, se trataría en todo caso de un mensaje de una autoridad judicial militar chilena a la misión también militar de Chile en Washington, que en nada afecta a las autoridades norteamericanas ni a las autoridades de Gobierno o judiciales chilenas vinculadas a la extradición solicitada. Y además, con la sola lectura del supuesto telex nuestro que, aun suponiendo lo auténtico, sólo significaría una diligencia de investigación de la Fiscalía ad hoc, frente a la explicación dada por CONTRERAS acerca de la misión ante WALTERS, cuya veracidad desea el Fiscal comprobar. Por lo demás, las auto- declaraciones categóricamente negativas del General WALTERS en cuanto a cualquier gestión o intervención suya sobre el asunto materia [illegible] ya [illegible] nos remitimos.

2. Sobre los restantes antecedentes

Escrito de fs. 839. Nos merecen las siguientes observaciones:

1° Básicamente el escrito está destinado a demostrar la existencia de supuestas presiones de las autoridades norteamericanas. Tales presiones no han existido, pero en todo caso, nada tendrían que ver con la concurrencia o ausencia de los requisitos que la ley exige para otorgar puestos medios de fortuna cuantiosos por parte de TOWNLEY, ya que el cheque no se pagó y fue protestado por cuenta cerrada.

En fin, se trata de un documento absolutamente irrelevante en relación con la extradición solicitada, pues no se refiere, ni siquiera indirectamente, a los requisitos que la ley y el Tratado establecen para otorgar o denegar la extradición.

f) Documento de fs. 848. Se trata de una supuesta copia fotostática del acuerdo de 7 de Abril de 1978 entre los señores EARL J. SILBERT, Fiscal de los Estados Unidos y en representación de este país, y ENRIQUE MONTERO, Subsecretario del Interior, como representante del Gobierno de Chile. No consta a esta defensa que dicha fotocopia corresponda realmente al documento original. Para tales efectos el tribunal de USE. ha citado al Sr. MONTERO, firmante del mismo, a la presencia judicial. No obstante, es cierto que un acuerdo de esta naturaleza se firmó en la fecha indicada entre aquellas personas, y que en lo sustancial, sus términos son los que se contienen en el documento de fs. 848.

g) Documento de fs. 897. Se trataría de la copia de un cable o telex enviado por el General OROZCO, Fiscal instructor ad hoc en el proceso 192-78 de la Justicia Militar, al jefe de la Misión Militar de Chile en Washington al 4 de Abril de 1978. Sobre este documento debemos señalar en primer término que su autenticidad no aparece certificada ni reconocida, ni por su firmante, General OROZCO, ni por su destinatario, el jefe de la Misión Militar chilena en Washington. Además, su autenticidad resulta tanto más sospechosa cuanto que los telex provenientes del Ministerio de Defensa Nacional son recibidos en la Misión Militar chilena en Washington directamente en el aparato telex de que dispone. Los mensajes

La defensa de los acusados (vuelve en este escrito a repetir por enésima vez las mismas argumentaciones ya hechas en torno de temas como el principio de identidad de la norma, el comienzo de ejecución del delito, la ley que rige la admisibilidad de la prueba). Respecto de estos temas estimamos que el debate está agotado y que dichos argumentos han sido contestados suficientemente en nuestras presentaciones anteriores sobre estos temas, a las cuales nos remitimos.

2°) No ha sostenido esta defensa que la sentencia de extradición sólo deba mencionar una causal de rechazo de la misma. Es evidente que si concurren varias, bien puede indicarlas todas. Lo que hemos sostenido, y creemos que con claridad, es que el rechazo en virtud de la cláusula opcional sobre nacionalidad sólo puede entrar a aplicarse cuando se admite que concurren todos los restantes requisitos para conceder la extradición. En otras palabras, cuando esta es la causal, ella es única. Y esto, en virtud de que ordinariamente el rechazo por la nacionalidad trae aparejada la obligación de juzgamiento local, en tanto que si falta alguno de los otros requisitos el acusado queda en libertad inmediata y no se le juzga. Es evidente que en este último caso (por ejemplo, si la acción está prescripta o el hecho no es delictivo para el Estado requerido) la circunstancia de ser además nacional no podría obrar en su perjuicio y obligar a someterlo a un juicio inútil.

3°) No es exacta la afirmación de que dentro del Art. 274 del C. de P. Penal el "delito" o "cuerpo del delito" sea lo que la doctrina penal llama el "tipo". El tipo es una descripción legal abstracta, en tanto que el cuerpo del delito es el "hecho punible" mismo. Podría en todo caso, ser caso Extradición de HUMBERTO URBINA (R.D.J. XXIV, 1523). Sin embargo, transcribe entre comillas (fs. 852 vta. línea 30, hasta fs. 853 línea 9) un párrafo que no forma parte de la sentencia, sino que está tomado del resumen doctrinal que hacen los redactores de la Revista antes del texto, y que en este caso no corresponde fielmente al contenido del fallo. En efecto, basta con leer los considerandos del mismo (que es muy breve) para darse cuenta de que los considerandos segundo y tercero dejan establecido que el artículo 5° del Tratado con los Estados Unidos considera facultativa la entrega de los nacionales, y que AGUIRRE (porque ese es su verdadero nombre) es chileno. Pero no se agrega nada, ni se fundamentan conclusiones o decisiones en ese hecho. En otras palabras el fallo se limita a advertir inicialmente que se encuentra ante un caso de extradición facultativa y no obligatoria, y nada más. Luego se dedica a examinar las exigencias del Tratado y encuentra en ellas el fundamento del rechazo, ya que las pruebas no acreditaban el cuerpo del delito, este último, en caso de estar probado, no era de los enumerados en el Tratado de Extradición, y por último, según la ley chilena, el reo está favorecido por una excusa legal absolutoria. La frase "en consecuencia, (refiriéndose a la cláusula opcional), no procede acoger la solicitud del Gobierno de Estados Unidos en que pide la extradición de un chileno, y con mayor razón [illegible] que se cita por la defensa de CONTRERAS, no figura en el fallo, y no corresponde al tenor de éste, ni a su contenido.

Es una afirmación gratuita que "con anterioridad al año 1944, de manera uniforme se denegó la extradición de chilenos, cuando no había Tratado sobre el particular" (fs. 860 vta.) y que en ese año se haya concedido por primera vez la extradición de un chileno. La defensa de CONTRERAS incurre en el mismo vicio que nos reprocha reiteradamente, esto es, el de hacer afirmaciones sin demostrarlas. No ha podido citar ni un solo caso anterior al año 1944 en que se haya rechazado la extradición de un chileno, por razón de su nacionalidad, que es el punto en debate. El único caso es el de DIAZ CHACON.

c) Escrito de fs. 862. Pretende explicar la flagrante contradicción entre la indagatoria de CONTRERAS y las conclusiones de las investigaciones practicadas por el Sr. Presidente instructor. Todo lo expresado en este escrito es simple invención de CONTRERAS, que para tener un mínimo de credibilidad requeriría por lo menos certificaciones oficiales de la C.N.I. en apoyo de lo que sostiene. No merece mayores comentarios.

d) Escrito de fs. 870. Se limita a acompañar el documento de fs. 871, al cual ya nos hemos referido en la primera parte de este escrito.

e) Escrito de fs. 872. Se limita a acompañar los documentos de fs. 873 a 893, ya comentados en la primera parte de este escrito.

f) Escrito de fs. 894. Se limita a acompañar los documentos de fs. 895 y 896, sobre los cuales nos remitimos a lo ya dicho en la primera parte de este escrito.

g) Escrito de fs. 898. Se limita a acompañar el documento de fs. 897, sobre el cual ya hemos efectuado observaciones precedentemente, a las cuales nos remitimos.

MATTER OF FACT, BECAUSE OF THE PASSAGE OF TIME AND THE OCCURRENCE OF RELATED EVENTS, WE HAVE HAD TO GO BEYOND THE LITERAL TEXT OF THAT INSTRUCTION BUT HAVE BEEN CAREFUL ALWAYS TO DO SO IN A MANNER FULLY CONSISTENT WITH ITS SPIRIT AND INTENT.

THIS WAS DONE ON JUNE 13, WAS GROUPED UNDER THE SAME THREE CATEGORY HEADINGS WHICH WE HAD USED, THAT IS CATEGORY HUMAN RIGHTS, CATEGORY II, AND CATEGORY III, AND HAS BEEN REPORTED TO THE DEPARTMENT IN THREE SEPARATE BUT RELATED TELEGRAMS, SS 3271, 3297 AND 3328. THE SINGLE OUTSTANDING ITEM REMAINS THE WRITTEN MEMORADUM PROMISED US BY SUBSECRETARY OF DEFENSE COL. 6. OUR INITIAL EVALUATIVE COMMENT IS THAT THE GOES DESERVES CREDIT FOR ITS INITIATIVE IN RECOGNIZING THE APPROP ATENESS OF SUCH DISCUSSION AND FOR NAMING TO HIGH-LEVEL A COMMISSION TO UNDERTAKE SAME.

7. WE WOULD, SECONDLY, GIVE CREDIT TO THE HIGH-LEVEL GOES OFFICIALS FOR THE SERIOUSNESS WITH WHICH THEY HAVE APPROACHED THIS DIALOGUE, THE VERY CONSIDERABLE AMOUNT OF TIME THEY HAVE PUT INTO IT, THE EFFORT WHICH THEY HAVE EXPENDED, AND THE COLLABORATIVE ATTITUDE WITH WHICH THEY HAVE ACCEPTED OUR INHERENTLY CRITICAL REMARKS AND ATTEMPTED TO RESPOND TO THEM.

8. WITH REGARD TO SUBSTANCE, WE WOULD RATE THE THREE SALVADORAN PRESENTATIONS IN VERY GENERAL TERMS AS FOLLOWS:

A. CATEGORY I HUMAN RIGHTS - COL. IRAHETA DID A SOLIDERLY JOB OF DENYING THE UNDENIABLE AND TRYING TO DEFEND THE INDEFENSIBLE (SS 3328). THERE CAN REALLY BE NO QUESTION BUT THAT THE GOES IS GUILTY OF SERIOUS VIOLATIONS OF CATEGORY I HUMAN RIGHTS. AT THE SAME TIME, IT HAS NEVER ADMITTED TO ANY OF THESE, REJECTS CHARGES OF POLITICAL MURDERS, CHALLENGES THE CONCEPT OF POLITICAL DISAPPEARANCES, DENIES THAT IT HOLDS ANY POLITICAL PRISONERS, AND MAINTAINS THAT POLICE

THE WEIGHT OF EVIDENCE AND ALLEGATION IS OVERWHELMINGLY TO THE CONTRARY, BUT AT THE SAME TIME WE MUST ASK OURSELVES IF IT IS REASONABLE TO EXPECT A GOVERNMENT TO REPUDIATE ITS PUBLICLY EXPRESSED AND OFT REPEATED POSITION ON SUCH MATTERS. COL. IRAHETA DID HIS BEST TO CARVE OUT SOMETHINGOF A MIDDLE POSITION.

IN VIEW OF THIS MIXED BAG OF SOMEWHAT DIFFERENTIAL PROGRESS, I WOULD RECOMMEND THAT WE CONTINUE WITH THE HIGH LEVEL DIALOGUE BUT ON THE BASIS OF RENEWED AND UPDATED INSTRUCTIONS FROM WASHINGTON. I BELIEVE THAT THE EMBASSY SHOULD BE INSTRUCTED AND AUTHORIZED TO EXPRESS OUR GENERAL APPRECIATION FOR THE HIGH LEVEL DIALOGUE CONDUCTED TO DATE, THEN TO SEEK SUCH CLARIFICATIONS AS THE DEPARTMENT MAY CONSIDER APPROPRIATE, AND FINALLY TO PUSH FORWARD ALONG THE FOLLOWING LINES:

B. CATEGORY II HUMAN RIGHTS - GIVE THE GOES SOME CREDIT FOR ITS ACHIEVEMENTS AND EFFORTS TO DATE BUT THEN PRESS IT FOR FUTURE ACTION WHICH WILL BE LESS PALLIATIVE IN NATURE AND MORE BOLD AND STRUCTURALLY REFORMIST.

C. CATEGORY III HUMAN RIGHTS - REITERATE OUR APPROVAL FOR THE MEASURE WHICH HAVE BEEN PUBLICLY PROMISED BY PRESIDENT ROMDERO BUT MAKE CLEAR THAT DEEDS, NOT FSUVORDS, WILL PEKE THE DIFFERENCE. POINT OUT THAT TIME IS SHORT AND MAY BE RUNNING OUT. ON THIS BASIS, PRESS FOR IMMEDIATE, CONTINUING, AND DEMONSTRABLE IMPLEMENTATION OF ALL THAT HAS BEEN PROMISED, PLUS SUCH OTHER MEASURES AS WILL ADD UP TO INTERNATIONALLY ACCEPTABLE ELECTIONS AND OFFER SOME CHANGE OF RESTORING THE FAITH IN DEMOCRACY OF THE BY NOW DISILLUSIONED PEOPLE AND YOUTH OF EL SALVADOR.

4. IF THE UNITED STATES WERE TO DROP ITS REQUEST FOR EXTRADITION AGAINST FERNANDEZ, WILLOUGHBY IMPLIED THAT HE WOULD LIKELY BE IN A POSITION TO INSURE THAT CONTRERAS AND ESPINOSA WOULD BE EXTRADITED. HE AGREED THAT

FERNANDEZ WOULD PROVIDE A STATEMENT AND WOULD BE WILLING TO TESTIFY IN THE UNITED STATES TO THE EFFECT THAT HE, FERNANDEZ LARIOS, WAS ORDERED BY ESPINOSA AND CONTRERAS TO COME TO THE UNITED STATES FOR THE PURPOSE OF SURVEILLING LETELIER AND THAT HE WAS TO REPORT THE FRUITS OF THAT SURVEILLANCE TO TOWNLEY. HE ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT HE WOULD GO ON TO SAY THAT HE WAS UNAWARE OF THE PURPOSE FOR WHICH HE WAS CONDUCTING THAT SURVEILLANCE. WE INDICATED TO MR. WILLOUGHBY THAT THIS WAS CONTRARY TO OUR EVIDENCE. LATER WHEN FERNANDEZ LARIOS' BROTHER ALSO MET WITH US AND WILLOUGHBY, WE REPEATED THE FACT THAT OUR EVIDENCE INDICATED THAT FERNANDEZ LARIOS WAS FULLY AWARE OF THE PURPOSE FOR THE MISSION AND HAD BEEN SPECIFICALLY ORDERED TO CARRY OUT THE MISSION WITH THE END RESULT BEING THE ASSASSINATION OF LETELIER. BECAUSE OF THIS FACTUAL DISPUTE, WE WOULD BE UNABLE TO REACH ANY AGREEMENT. WE INDICATED THAT IF FERNANDEZ LARIOS WAS WILLING TO TELL US THE COMPLETE TRUTH, WE MIGHT THEN BE IN A POSITION TO BARGAIN. AT THE TIME OF OUR DISCUSSIONS, THERE WAS NO EXPLICIT AGREEMENT BETWEEN THE PARTIES WITH REGARD TO THE DISCLOSURE OF THAT INFORMATION. IF, IN YOUR VIEW, IT WOULD BECOME APPROPRIATE TO MAKE THE FACT OF MR. WILLOUGHBY'S TRIP TO THE UNITED STATES AND THE SUBSTANCE OF FERNANDEZ LARIOS' STATEMENT KNOWN TO PERSONS IN CHILE, WE COULD PERCEIVE NO PROHIBITION AGAINST IT.

WHILE WE THINK THAT THIS, OF COURSE, WOULD BE AN UNFORTUNATE DECISION, IF THAT IS THE MANDATE OF THE SUPREME COURT, THE CHILEANS SHOULD REALIZE CERTAIN FACTS. THE UNITED STATES DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, SPECIFICALLY THE UNITED STATES ATTORNEY'S OFFICE FOR THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA AND THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION, WOULD PROVIDE TO THE APPROPRIATE CHILEAN AUTHORITIES ALL POSSIBLE ASSISTANCE. THIS WOULD INCLUDE ALLOWING THEM TO USE (WITH THE UNDERSTANDING THAT WE MUST ULTIMATELY RETAIN) ALL OUR PHYSICAL EVIDENCE INCLUDING, BUT NOT LIMITED TO, ANY TESTIMONY OR EXHIBITS WE UTILIZED DURING THE COURSE OF THE TRIAL UP HERE. SUBJECT: (U) HUMAN RIGHTS SUMMARY - SEPTEMBER 5-12

SUMMARY: THE IACHR VISIT HAS DRIVEN HOME THE EXISTENCE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUE TO VIETUALLY EVERY ARGENTINE, TO THE PLEASURE OF SOME AND THE UNHAPPINESS OF OTHERS. IN THE PROCESS, HUMAN RIGHTS HAS BECOME A POLITICAL ISSUE BETWEEN THE PERONISTS AND THE GOVERNMENT AS THE FORMER PUBLICLY BELABORED THE LATTER FOR BEING BOTH "DE FACTO" AND ABUSING HUMAN RIGHTS (BUENOS AIRES 7559), AND THE GOVERNMENT WEIGHED IN WITH A WITHERING RESPONSE. THERE HAS BEEN ONE REPORTED DISAPPEARANCE IN SEPTEMBER. THE CONTROVERSIAL LAW ON PRESUMPTIVE DEATHS (BUENOS AIRES 7565) HAS BEEN PROMULGATED. END SUMMARY.

1. IAHRC VISIT ----
THE VISIT OF THE INTER-AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (IAHRC) ECLIPSED ALL OTHER VENTS ON THE HUMAN RIGHTS FRONT IN THE PERIOD UNDER REVIEW. COMMISSION MEMBERS CALLED ON THE PRESIDENT, THE JUNTA, THE FOREIGN MINISTER, GENERALS, GOVERNORS, PROMINENT PRISONERS, EX-PRESIDENTS, AND THE LEADERS OF THE CHURCH. THE COMMISSION ALSO VISITED JAILS. THE COMMISSION WILL BE MEETING UNDER CONDITIONS OF RELATIVE PRIVACY TO DISCUSS SELECT CASES WITH VICTIMS OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS, WHOHAVE DETAILED ACCUSATIONS. BUT PERHAPS THE MOST DRAMATICALLY AFFECTING ASPECT OF THE VISIT TOOK PLACE WHEN HUNDREDS OF PEOPLE COULD BECSEEN DAILY LINED UP OUTSIDE THE COMMISSION'S OFFICE, DESPITE SOME CLUMSY ATTEMPTS AT POLICE INTIMIDATION, TO WAIT FOR THEIR TURN TO DE..OUNCE HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. THE INTER-SIVE COVERAGE GIVEN THE COMMISSION'S ACTIVITIES AND RE-FERCUSSIONS BY ALL THENEWS MEDIA--THE LIMITS OF SELF-CENSORSHIP ALL BUT COLLAPSED--SHOULD HAVE DRIVEN HOME TO ALL ARGENTINES THAT HUMAN RIGHTS ARE AN ISSUE OF IMPORTANCE.

2. ANY REMAINING DOUBTS ON THIS SCORE WERE PROBABLY ERASED WHEN THE PERONISTS TOOK UP THE HUMAN RIGHTS CAUSE AS THEIR OWN, USINGTHE VISIT OF THE COMMISSION AS THE OCCASION TO MAKE AN UNPRECEDENTED ATTACKSON THE GOVERNMENT, WHICH IT ACCUSED AS BEING BOTH "DE FACTO" AND HAVING GROSSLY VIOLATED HUMAN RIGHTS. THE GOVERNMENT IMMEDAITELY ISSSUED A FIERY REJOINDER, LABELING THE PERON-IST STATEMENT INTOLERABLE AND REMINDING THE PERONISTS THAT THEIR GOVERNMENT AND PARTY WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SITUATION WHICH FORCED THE MILITARY TO TAKE OVER IN 1976. WHILE THE DURABILITY OF THE PERONISTS' COMMITMENT TO THE HUMAN RIGHTS CAUSE IS UNCERTAIN, IT IS SIGNIFICANT THAT WHAT IS UNDOUBTEDLY ARGENTINA'S LARGEST SINGLE POLITICAL FORCE HAS FOR THE FIRST TIME SPOKEN OUT ON THE ISSUE. OF NO LESS SIGNIFICANCE IS THAT BY TAKING A STAND, THEY HAVE MADE HUMAN RIGHTS AN ISSUE IN THE GREAT POLARIZATION THAT DIVIDES ARGENTINE SOCIETY--PERONISTS AGAINST ANTI-PERON-ISTS. IF THIS DEVELOPMENT PERSISITS, IT WILL VASTLY COM-PLICATE US INVOLVEMENT IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS QUESTION HERE.

3. MANY OTHERS BESIDES THE PERONISTS MADE KNOWN THEIR TTOUGHTS ABOUT THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION, WITH MORE OR LESS ELOQUENCE AND WITH OPPOSING STANCES. THE MOST ELOQUENT OF ALL WAS ISSUED BY ARGENTINE WRITER ERNESTO SABATO, WHO DEFENDED THE RULE OF LAW AND STATED THAT THERE "IS NOT SUCH THING AS INEXCUSALBE AND EXCUSABLE VIOLATIONS, EVEN IF THE LATTER ARE COMMITTED IN THE DE-FENSE OF GREAT IDES." ON THE OTHER SIDE WERE GROUPS AND INDIVIDUALS--SOME WITH THE BACKING OF THE GOA--WHO SOUGHT TO REMINDSALL THAT THE NATION HAD BEEN SAVED BY THE ARMED FORCES FROM A "REVOLUTIONAY WAR" IN WHICH TERRORISTSD GROSSLY VIOLATED HUMAN RIGHTS. THE TOWN ALSO BLOSSOMED WITH STICKERS IN THE NATIONAL COLORS--PROCLAIMING THAT "WE ARGENTINES ARE RIGHTFUL AND HUMAN" ("LOS ARGENTINOS SOMOS DERECHOS Y HUMANOS"). 4. [redacted] TWO SMALL GLITCHES DEVELOPED DURING THE VISIT SO FAR. THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT HAS VETOED A COMMISSION INTERVIEW AT THE MEXICAN EMBASSY WITH FORMER PRESIDENT CAMPORA. AND THE COLOMBIAN MEMBER OF THE COMMISSION, GERARDO MONROY CABRA, A MEMBER OF THE COLOMBIAN SUPREME COURT, WAS TEMPORARILY RECALLED TO COLOMBIA BY THE COURT, A RECALL WHOSE REASONS WERE NOT CLEARLY REPORTED IN BUENOS AIRES.

5. (U) DISAPPEARANCES----
TWO REAPPEARANCES (BUENOS AIRES 7407) BY MEN WHO REPORTEDLY DISAPPEARED IN AUGUST--RAUL ALBERTO ARAMENDI AND OSCAR RICARDO ROMERO--LEFT UNEXPLAINED, KNOWN DISAPPEARANCES FOR THE MONTH OF AUGUST AT TEN. IN ADDITION, MRS. ELIO VALDERRAMOS (WHOSE HUSBAND'S DISAPPEARANCE ALSO WAS REPORTED IN BA 7407) HAS REPORZEDLY MADE AN OFFICIAL COMPWAINT THAT HER HUSBAND, A DOCTOR WAS TAKEN FROM THE MENDOZA PROVINCIAL HOSPITAL WHERE HE WORKED BY A GROUP OF MEN WHO IDENTIFIED THEMSELVES AS BELONGING TO THE SECURITY FORCES. MRS/ VALDERRAMOS REPORTEDLY STATED AUGUST 10 THAT SHE WAS UNABLE TO LOCATE HER HUSBAND IN ANY MENDOZA POLICE OR SECURITY FACILITY.

6. [redacted] REPORTS THAT AT LEAST SOME OF THE AUGUST DISAPPEARANCES RELATE TO THE BREAK UP OF AN UNDERGROUND "FAP". ("FUERZAS ARMADAS PERONISTAS") CELL CONTINUE TO REACH US. IT IS CLEAR THAT THIS INFORMATION IS CIRCULATING WIDELY THROUGHT THE ARGENTINE SECURITY FORCES. SIMILARLY CIRCULATING IS A REPORT THAT THE MONTONEROS ARE ACTIVELY SEEKING TO INFILTRATE TERRORISTS BACK INTO THE COUNTRY. WE HAVE NO WAY OF INDEPENDENTLY JUDGING THE VALIDITY OF THESE REPORTS. WE NOTE, HOWEVER, THAT WHATEVER THEIR VELIDITY, SOME ELEMENTS IN THE GOA WILL USE SUCH REPORTS TO ATTEMPT TO JUSTIFY A CONTINUATION OF THE SECURITY FORCES'S PRACTICES.

7. (U) PRESUMPTIVE DEATH LAW PUBLISHED---
THE GOA PROMULGATED ITS CONTROVERSIAL LAW ON PRESUMPTIVE DEATH SEPTEMBER 12. THE PROVISIONS OF THE LAW WHICH GIVE THE STATE THE RIGHT TO SEEK A DECLARATION OF PRESUMPTIVE DEATH FOR A MISSING PERSON AND WHICH CAUSED OBJECTIONS, INSIDE AND OUTSIDE ARGENTINA, ARE UNCHANGED. THE RELATIVES OF THE DISAPPEARED HAVE ASKED THE SUPREMED COURT TO DECLARE THIS LAW UNCONSTITUTIONAL, IN A MOTION WHICH ALSO PROTESTS THE CONTINUED UNRESPONSIVENESS OF THE GOVERNMENT TO HABEAS CORPUS PETITIONS. MEANWHILE, A GOVERNMENT SPOKESMAN REPORTEDLY CLAIMED THAT THE STATE HAS BEEN GIVEN A ROLE BY THE LEGISLATION ONLY TO ALLOW IT TO ACT IN BEHALF OF ORPHANED CHILDREN, WHO HAVE NO RELATIVES.

TO: The Deputy Secretary

FROM: ARA - Viron P. Vaky

SUBJECT: Letelier-Moffitt Case

ISSUE: U. S. Government reactions to decision of the Review Panel of the Chilean Supreme Court on the Letelier-Moffitt Case.

ESSENTIAL FACTORS: The Review Panel of the Chilean Supreme Court is expected to issue its decision sometime soon after September 24. That decision will constitute the critical decision point from a public, political and legal perspective for the U.S. Government.

The U.S. Government position, as defined in the June 1, 1979 Cable of Instructions to Ambassador Landau (attached) was that the Borquez decision was "unacceptable" and "inconsistent with international norms of justice." In the cable you approved, it was stated that we did not accept the Borquez conclusion that the evidence was insufficient to warrant extradition. The cable stated that "we remain primarily interested" in the extradition of the defendants. Recognizing the discretion contained within the Extradition Treaty permitting a trial if the nationality clause of the treaty were invoked, the cable noted that it was essential that there be "a reversal of Borquez' holding that our evidence is not credible or convincing and hence is insufficient to establish probable cause. Unless that holding is reversed, we do not see how a trial of the defendants in Chile could be genuine and thorough-going."

With that underlying determination, Ambassador Landau conveyed the message to the GOC that the Borquez ruling would make it impossible for any proceeding conducted here in Chile to be genuine and thorough-going."

[redacted] UNCLASSIFIED

If extradition was not granted or the Borquez ruling on the sufficiency of the evidence not reversed as part of an order directing a trial, then Ambassador Landau said, "the reaction of my government, the Congress, and the American people will be severe -- more severe than anything we have yet seen in our relations."

Failure to take such actions would result in a judgment that we were faced with "a case of unpunished terrorism."

We therefore called, first for the Chileans to reverse the Borquez decision with regard to the sufficiency of the evidence, order either extradition, or failing that, fair and genuine trial based on all our evidence -- untainted by the deprecations of insufficiency bestowed by the Borquez ruling; and, second for the GOC to "energize" the military court to diligently pursue its investigation and subsequent trial rather than continuing to proceed in the dilatory fashion that has characterized its more than a year-long investigation of passport fraud.

The specific potential consequences of a failure to satisfy those criteria cited by Ambassador Landau included:

1. A determination by the President that the Ex-Im Bank should deny applications for Chile on the grounds that Chile is harboring international terrorists;

2. An unhelpful attitude by the U.S. on external problems Chile may have.

3. The raising of the question of influencing private bank lending.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

The Embassy now believes that an intentionally lengthy and confusing ruling will be issued. The bottom line will be the decision that there still is insufficient evidence to indict/extradict the ex-~~Dina~~ DINA officers.

Although we will want to study the ruling before acting definitively, presumably with Ambassador Landau consulting with us, our response should come within a short time frame.

PERSPECTIVES:

In weighing appropriate U.S. reaction, we would want to examine the impact on our efforts to discourage international terrorism, and the impact in Chile of our decisions. In the absence of satisfaction of our two criteria, we already have determined that our objective of bringing the three ex-Dina officials to justice would be a forlorn hope in a military court.

-- Even with the fullest affirmation of our evidence by the Court, the record of the Chilean military justice would make the likelihood of a decision uninfluenced by Pinochet slim. This judgment is reinforced by the recent event in which the Lonquen bodies were directed by the court to be returned to the families but the military prosecutor disregarded that order and had them buried in a mass grave on an offshore island. Without the fullest affirmation of our evidence through the reversal of the Borquez ruling, the military trial would be a sham.

-- Our actions must demonstrate clearly that the governments engaging in international terrorism, and those harboring its perpetrators will suffer penalties. Our objective is to act so as to deter any other would-be assassins from Chile or elsewhere.

-- Chile's human rights performance has improved in some aspects of Basket One, although recent incidents of torture and death after detention demonstrate that such practices remain part of the repressive apparatus. Civil and political liberties remain circumscribed and even a narrowly conceived constitutional structure is to be delayed until at least the mid-1980s.

-- Chile remains diplomatically isolated, with the United Nations Resolutions -- while more restrained than in years past -- still evidence of Chile's image and symbol of destruction of democracy. The Andean countries continue to hold Pinochet at arms length and the lack of any response on the disappeared has drawn sharp and public criticism in both Mexico and Venezuela.

-- U.S. Congressional restrictions on economic and military assistance remain in force.

-- Despite the arms-length relationship of our official ties, private U.S.-Chilean business relations have continued with both direct and portfolio investment increasing.

-- Any critical U.S. response will be seized upon by Pinochet as an excuse to try to drum up nationalist support. However, Chilean opinion is divided; DINA is unpopular in most quarters and many Chileans -- including all of the moderate political sectors and the church -- would respect and support our posture. The groups seeking an end to authoritarian rule still hope that the Letelier case, either through the extradition or the U.S. pressure in the absence of extradition, will encourage pressures in Chile for a return to democracy.

UNCLASSIFIED

II. SCENARIOS

There are four potential Supreme Court Review Panel decisions:

A. Acceptance of our request for extradition;

B. No extradition, reversal of the Borquez decision on evidence and directing a trial in military court;

C. No extradition, trial in military court, vague or middle-of-the-road characterization of U.S. evidence admissibility and significance but without reversing President Borquez on characterization of U.S. evidence as "insufficient";

D. No extradition, no trial.

HA's and S/P's view is that any action other than A or B fails to meet the standard we had set forth as constituting compliance with the obligations of the Extradition Treaty and effectively entails allowing terrorists to go unpunished.

Scenario C, the most likely according to the Embassy, rules out a fair and genuine trial and insures a long and drawn-out process with every likelihood of the effective exoneration of the defendants. For this reason, the Department previously determined that a reversal of Borquez on the sufficiency of the evidence for extradition was a requirement for anything less than severe U.S. reaction.

ARA's view

UNCLASSIFIED

III. RECOMMENDED RESPONSES

A. Extradition: Issue statement commending Chilean decision and announcing that USG will proceed to try the extradited individuals. Follow with a review of positive actions that might be taken in our relations with Chile in the light of the favorable outcome of this case.

N.B. If only Contreras (head of DINA at time of Letelier/Moffitt assassination) or Contreras and Espinoza (Chief of Operations of DINA0 and not Fernandez (Lieutenant at the time),were extradited we could still issue an overall commending statement because we would have for trial the person or two persons whom we believe ordered the assassination.

B. No extradition, reversal of the Borquez decision on evidence and directing a trial in military court: Chile can deny extradition of its nationals to the U.S. under the nationality provision of our bilateral extradition treaty.

-- Issue statement expressing disappointment with failure to extradite but welcoming Chilean full acceptance of our evidence and Chilean intention to proceed with trial. Emphasizing that we will be diligent in our monitoring of trial in our desire to see that justice be meted out in an expeditious fashion.

C. No extradition, trial in military court, vague or middle-of-the-road characterization of U.S. evidence admissibility and significance but without reversing President Borquez on characterization of U.S. evidence as "insufficient".

D. No extradition, no trial.

If C or D occur, the following action should definitely be taken:

-- Issue especially strong deploring statement.

-- Reduce representation to Charge until early 1981.

-- End Ex-Im lending with a presidential finding on the legal grounds that Chile is harboring international terrorists.

-- Be less helpful to Chile on external issues such as on Bolivian demarche for access to sea, but, to avoid raising nationalist reaction, without reference to specific cases, and without prejudicing U. S. interests in each case.

-- Announce suspension of FMS pipeline.

-- Withdraw MILGP.

-- Cancel UINTAS with Chile for foreseeable future.
-- Lobby in IDBs against non-BHN loans for Chile.
-- Lower number of official visitors and consider reducing Embassy staff in Santiago.

-- Concentrate IVP program on opposition leaders.

-- Stay away from selected GOC official events.

-- Raise matter rhetorically in OAS and UN.

We should also weigh these additional measures:

-- Permanent reduction to Charge.

-- Pending private bank lenders to halt resource flows for Chile.

PRESIDENTIAL DETERMINATION

Pursuant to Subsection 2(b)(1)(B) of the Export-Import Bank Act of 1945, as amended, I determine that it is in the national interest and would clearly and importantly advance United States policy in combatting international terrorism for the Export-Import Bank of the United States to deny guarantees, insurance, extensions of credit and participations in the extension of credit in support of the purchase or lease of any product or service by any purchaser or lessee in Chile.

This determination shall be published in the Federal Register.

ISSUE

U.S. Government reactions to decision of the Review Panel of the Chilean Supreme Court on the Letelier-Moffitt Case.

ESSENTIAL FACTORS

The Review Panel of the Chilean Supreme Court is expected to issue its decision sometime soon after September 24. That decision will constitute the critical decision point from a public, political and legal perspective for the U.S. Government.

The U.S. Government position, as defined in the June 1, 1979 Cable of Instructions to Ambassador Landau (attached) was that the Borquez decision was "unacceptable" and "inconsistent with international norms of justice." In the cable you approved, it was stated that we did not accept the Borquez conclusion that the evidence was insufficient to warrant extradition. The cable stated that "we remain primarily interested" in the extradition of the defendants. Recognizing the discretion contained within the Extradition Treaty permitting a trial if the nationality clause of the treaty were invoked, the cable noted that it was essential that there be "a reversal of Borquez' holding that our evidence is not credible or convincing and hence is insufficient to establish probable cause. Unless that holding is reversed, we do not see how a trial of the defendants in Chile could be genuine and thorough-going."

With that underlying determination, Ambassador Landau conveyed the message to the GOC that the "Borquez ruling would make it impossible for any proceeding conducted here in Chile to be genuine and thorough-going."

If extradition was not granted or the Borquez ruling on the sufficiency of the evidence not reversed as part of an order directing a trial, then Ambassador Landau said, "the reaction of my government, the Congress, and the American people will be severe -- more severe than anything we have yet seen in our relations."

Failure to take such actions would result in a judgment that we were faced with "a case of unpunished terrorism."

We therefore called, first for the Chileans to reverse the Borquez decision with regard to the sufficiency of the evidence, order either extradition, or failing that, fair and genuine trial based on all our evidence -- untainted by the deprecations of insufficiency bestowed by the Borquez ruling; and, second for the GOC to "energize" the military court to diligently pursue its investigation and subsequent trial rather than continuing to proceed in the dilatory fashion that has characterized its more than a year-long investigation of passport fraud.

The specific potential consequences of a failure to satisfy those criteria cited by Ambassador Landau included:

1. A determination by the President that the Ex-Im Bank should deny applications for Chile on the grounds that Chile is harboring international terrorists;

2. An unhelpful attitude by the U.S. on external problems Chile may have.

3. The raising of the question of influencing private bank lending.

The Embassy now believes that an intentionally lengthy and confusing ruling will be issued. The bottom line will be the decision that there still is insufficient evidence to indict/extradite the ex-Dina officers.

Although we will want to study the ruling before acting definitively, presumably with Ambassador Landau consulting with us, our response should come within a short time frame.

PERSPECTIVES

In weighing appropriate U.S. reaction, we would want to examine the impact on our efforts to discourage international terrorism, and the impact in Chile of our decisions. In the absence of satisfaction of our two criteria, we already have determined that our objective of bringing the three ex-Dina officials to justice would be a forlorn hope in a military court.

-- Even with the fullest affirmation of our evidence by the Court, the record of Chilean military justice would make the likelihood of a decision uninfluenced by Pinochet slim. This judgment is reinforced by the recent event in which the Lonquen bodies were directed by the court to be returned to the families but the military prosecutor disregarded that order and had them buried in a mass grave on an offshore island. Without the fullest affirmation of our evidence through the reversal of the Borquez ruling, the military trial would be a sham.

-- Our actions must demonstrate clearly that the governments engaging in international terrorism, and those harboring its perpetrators will suffer penalties. Our objective is to act so as to deter any other would-be assassins from Chile or elsewhere.

-- Chile's human rights performance has improved in some aspects of Basket One, although recent incidents of torture and death after detention demonstrate that such practices remain part of the repressive apparatus. Civil and political liberties remain circumscribed and even a narrowly conceived constitutional structure is to be delayed until at least the mid-1980s.

-- Chile remains diplomatically isolated, with the United Nations Resolutions -- while more restrained than in years past -- still evidence of Chile's image as a symbol of the destruction of democracy. The Andean countries continue to hold Pinochet at arms length and the lack of any response on the disappeared has drawn sharp and public criticism in both Mexico and Venezuela.

-- U.S. Congressional restrictions on economic and military assistance remain in force.

-- Despite the arms-length relationship of our official ties, private U.S.-Chilean business relations have continued with both direct and portfolio investment increasing.

-- Any critical U.S. response will be seized upon by Pinochet as an excuse to try to drum up nationalist support. However, Chilean opinion is divided; DINA is unpopular in most quarters and many Chileans -- including all of the moderate political sectors and the church -- would respect and support our posture. The groups seeking an end to authoritarian rule still hope that the Letelier case, either through the extradition or the U.S. pressure in the absence of extradition, will encourage pressures in Chile for a return to democracy.

II. SCENARIOS

There are four potential Supreme Court Review Panel decisions:

A. Acceptance of our request for extradition;

B. No extradition, reversal of the Borquez decision on evidence and directing a trial in military court;

C. No extradition, trial in military court, vague or middle-of-the-road characterization of U.S. evidence admissibility and significance but without reversing President Borquez on characterization of U.S. evidence as "insufficient";

D. No extradition, no trial.

HA's view is that any action other than A or B fails to meet the standard we had set forth as constituting compliance with the obligations of the Extradition Treaty and effectively entails allowing terrorists to go unpunished.

Scenario C, the most likely according to the Embassy, rules out a fair and genuine trial and insures a long and drawn-out process with every likelihood of the effective exoneration of the defendants. For this reason, the Department previously determined that a reversal of Borquez on the sufficiency of the evidence for extradition was a requirement for anything less than severe U.S. reaction.

UNCLASSIFIED

III. RECOMMENDED RESPONSES

A. Extradition: Issue statement commending Chilean decision and announcing that USG will proceed to try the extradited individuals. Follow with a review of positive actions that might be taken in our relations with Chile in light of the favorable outcome of this case.

N.B. If only Contreras (head of DINA at time of Letelier/Moffitt assassination) or Contreras and Espinoza (Chief of Operations of DINA) and not Fernandez (Lieutenant at the time), were extradited we could still issue an overall commending statement because we would have for trial the person or two persons whom we believe ordered the assassination.

B. No extradition, reversal of the Borquez decision on evidence and directing a trial in military court: Chile can deny extradition of its nationals to the U.S. under the nationality provision of our bilateral extradition treaty.

-- Issue statement expressing disappointment with failure to extradite but welcoming Chilean full acceptance of our evidence and Chilean intention to proceed with trial. Emphasize that we will be diligent in our monitoring of trial in our desire to see that justice be meted out in an expeditious fashion.

C. No extradition, trial in military court, vague or middle-of-the-road characterization of U.S. evidence admissibility and significance but without reversing President Borquez on characertization of U.S. evidence as "insufficient".

D. No extradition, no trial

If C or D occur, the following actions should definitely be taken:

-- Issue especially strong deploring statement.

-- Reduce representation to Charge until early 1981.

-- End Ex-Im lending with a presidential finding on the legal grounds that Chile is harboring international terrorists.

UNCLASSIFIED

UNCLASSIFIED

-- Be less helpful to Chile on external issues such as on Bolivian demarche for access to sea, but, to avoid raising nationalist reaction, without reference to specific cases, and without prejudicing U.S. interests in each case.

-- Announce suspension of FMS pipeline.

-- Withdraw MILGP.

-- Cancel UNITAS with Chile for foreseeable future.

-- Lobby in IDBs against non-BHN loans for Chile.

-- Lower number of official visitors and consider reducing Embassy staff in Santiago.

-- Concentrate IVP program on opposition leaders.

-- Stay away from selected GOC official events.

-- Raise matter rhetorically in OAS and UN.

-- Persuade private bank lenders to halt resource flows for Chile.

-- Remove Peace Corps.

THEY CAN DEMONSTRATE THE EFFECTIVENESS OF SUCH METHODS AS REFLECTED IN THE CLAIMED DEATH OF TWO IMPORTANT MONONERO LEADERS IN A REPORTES SHOOT-OUT WITH THE POLICE, AFTER EVIDENTLY HAVING REEENTERED THE COUNTRY CLANDESTINELY. THE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, WHILE VERY PLEASED WITH THE IAHRC VISIT, REMAIN CONCERED ABOUT THE ONGOING INVESTIGATION INTO THEIR ACTIVITIES BY THE JUDGE WHO ORDERED LAST MONTH'S JURAID ON THEIR HEADQUARTERS. END SUMMARY.

1. [redacted] TIMERMAN AND CAMPORA-ON WAY TO FREEDOM?----
THERE WERE SEVERAL INDICATIONS THAT TWO OF ARGENTINA'S MOST NOTED POLITICAL DETAINEES MAY BE MOVING CLOSER TO LEAVING THE COUNTRY. IN A REMARKABLE WELL PUBLICIZED, BUT STILL SECRET DECISION, THE ARGENTINE SUPREME COURT HAS REPORTEDLY ORDERED THE JUNTA TO RELEASE JACOBO TIMERMAN. IT WAS ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT FORMER PRESIDENT HECTOR CAMPORA, WHO IS AN ASYLEE IN THE MEXICAN EMBASSY, IS SUFFEREING FROM CANCER. HIS SICKNESS MAY LEAD GOA TO ALLOW HIM TO DEPART FOR TREAT-MENT ABROAD. HOWEVER, THESE DEVELOPMENTS ARE NO MORE THAN BEGINNINGS WHICH COULD BE ABORTED BY THOSE MILITARY-MEN WHO SEE TIMERMAN AND CAMPORA AS ARCHEVIL TYPES RESPONSIBLE FOR A GENERATION OF RADICALIZED YOUTH.

2. [redacted] TWO MONTONEROS REPORTED KILLED ----
THE GOVERNMENT HAS ISSUED A STATEMENT THAT ARMANDO DANIEIL CROATTO AND HORACIO MENDIZABAL, TWO HIGH RANKING MONTONEROS, WERE KILLED IN A SHOOT-OUT WITH SECURITY FORCES IN THE BUENOS AIRES SUBURB OF MUNRO SEPTEMBER 17. MENDIZABAL WAS THE MILITARY SECRETARY OF THE MONTONEROS AND CROATTO, A FORMER PERONIST DEPUTY WITH CONNECTIONS TO THE TERRORIST ORGANIZATION, WAS HEAD

OF THE MONTONEROS LABOR BRANCH. CROATTO WAS REPORTED "MISSING"BY HIS ACQUAINTANCES SEPTEMBER 17 WHEN THEY WENT TO THE IAHRC TO SEEK HELP-AN EVENT THAT THE PRESS REPORTED SEPTEMBER 18. HOWEVER, SEVERAL OF OUR SOURCES EXPRESSED GREAT SURPRISE THAT HE WAS IN THE COUNTRY, GIVEN THE RECORD AND ASSOCIATIONS. IF REPORTS OF THEIR DEATH ARE ACCURATE, IT SEEMS THAT BOTH HE AND MENDIZABAL WERE LIVING HERE CLANDESTINELY. THE DEATH OF THESE TWO MEN IN ARGENTINA, SIGNIFICANT REVERSALS FOR THE MONTONEROS, SEEMS TO GIVE SUBSTANCE TO RUMORS AND REPORTS WE HAVE HAD THAT THE GOVERNMENT IS CONCERNED THAT MONTONEROS ARE RETURNING TO THE COUNTRY. WHILE WE DO NOT THINK THE THREAT FROM THE TERRORIST IS VERY HIGH, SECURITY FORCES WILL ALMOST CERTAINLY USE THE PRESENCE OF THESE TWO MEN IN ARGENTINA TO JUSTIFY CONTINUING THEIR TECHNIQUES.

3. [redacted] CONTINUED DISAPPEARANCES -----
DURING THE PERIOD UNDER REVIEW WE BECAME AWARE OF SIX MORE SOLID REPORTS OF DISAPPEARANCES INCLUDING THE TAKING OF THREE MINOR CHILDREN ALONG WITH THEIR PARENTS. THE FAMILY INVOLVED, REGINO ADOLFO GONZALES, HIS WIFE, AND THEIR THREE SMALL DAUGHTERS WERE SEIZED SEPTEMBER 13. ACCORDING TO WHAT THE FAMILY OF THE GONZALES HAS TOLD US THAT THE COUPLE LEFT ARGENTINA IN 1976, SOON AFTER THE MILITARY COUP, AND RETURNED TO LIVE IN MUNRO ONLY A FEW MONTHS AGO. BY THE FAMILY'S STATEMENTS THEY WERE INVOLVED IN UNIVERSITY POLITICS PRIOR TO THEIR DEPARTURE. (WE HAVE NO RECORD FOR A REGINO ADOLFO GONZALES BUT AN ADOLFO GONZALES WAS REPORTED TO A MONTONERO LEADER LIVING IN DAC ES SALAAM IN 1978.) ONE SECURITY FORCE HAS TOLD US, TOO THAT THE GONZALES' WERE MONTONEROS WITH A LONG RECORD. THE GOVERNMENT COMMUNIQUE RELEASED SEPTEMBER 21, ALLEGED THAT MRS GONZALES IS A MONTONERO. IT ALSO SAID THAT THE CHILDREN WERE TAKEN UNDER
[redacted]

PROTECTIVE CUSTODY AND HAVE NOW BEEN RELEASED. THE PARENTS OF DANIEL CROSTA, A NINETEEN YEAR OLD WORKER, HAVE ALSO REPORTED HIS SEPTEMBER 15 DISAPPEARANCE TO US.

4. [redacted] OFFICIAL INVESTIGATION INTO TORTURE-----
ACCORDING TO THE PRESS, THE ARMY IS CARRYING OUT AN UNUSUAL INVESTIGATION INTO THE AUGUST 22 ABDUCTION AND TORTURE OF SERGIO HUGO SILMAN IN ROSARIO. SILMAN WAS HELD SIX DAYS BEFORE BEING TURNED OVER TO A HOSPITAL, SUFFERING GRAVELY FROM THE MISTREATMENT HE RECEIVED. HE WAS REPORTEDLY ARRESTED BY MEN IDENTIFYING THEMSELVES AS ARMY SECURITY AFTER PASSING OUT A HANDOUT HELD SIX DAYS BEFORE BEING TURNED OVER TO A HOSPITAL,

THE MILITARY HAS BEEN OUTRAGED BY THE BITTEL STATEMENT AND ARMY COMMANDER VIOLA REPORTEDLY HAS BEEN SUBJECTED TO CRITICISM FROM OTHER FLAG OFFICERS FOR ALLEGEDLY TREATING THE PERONISTS TOO COMPLACENTLY. ON THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY'S LIST OF DISAPPEARED (WHICH NOW HAS MORE THAN 6,000 NAMES) ARE ACTUALLY LIVING ABROAD WHILE ANOTHER 50 ARE BEING LEGALLY PROSECUTED.
THE JUDGE IS REPORTEDLY SEEKING TO DETERMINE WHERE THE ORGANIZATIONS GET THEIR FUNDS TO SUPPORT HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS' "INEXPLICABLE ABILITY" TO TRAVEL IN ARGENTINA AND ABROAD. THE REPORTS ALSO SUGGEST THAT THE JUDGE IS INVESTIGATING THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS, INCLUDING THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY, HAVE ENGAGED NOT ONLY IN A "PROCEDURAL FRAUD" BUT ALSO IN AN ORGANIZED CAMPAIGN TO DEFAME ARGENTINA, SOME REPORTS NOTE THAT FOLLOWING THE RAIDS THE JUDGE RECEIVED NUMEROUS LETTERS FROM AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL CHAPTERS ABROAD
ASKING HIM TO STOP HIS "PERSECUTION". THE JUDGE IS ALSO REPORTEDLY EXAMINING THE POSSIBILITY THAT THE HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS CONSTITUTE "ILLICIT ASSOCIATIONS." SOURCES IN THE PERMANENT ASSEMBLY ARE WORRIED BY THE IMPLICATION THAT IT MAY AT SOME TIME
HAVE TO FACE THE CHARGE THAT IT IS AN ILLEGAL ASSOCIATION.
THE EXACT IMPACT OF SUCH A CHARGE IS UNCLEAR AT THIS POINT, BUT THIS IS NOT A BATTLE THAT THE ASSEMBLY WANTS TO FIGHT, PARTICULARLY SINCE IT WOULD HAVE A CHILLING EFFECT ON THOSE WHO MIGHT OTHERWISE APPROACH THE ASSEMBLY FOR HELP.

Letelier-Moffitt Case

ISSUE

ESSENTIAL FACTORS

The Review Panel of the Chilean Supreme Court is expected to issue its decision sometime soon after September 24. That decision will constitute the critical decision point from a public, political and legal perspective for the U.S. Government.

The U.S. Government position, as defined in the June 1, 1979 Cable of Instructions to Ambassador Landau (attached) was that the Borquez decision was "unacceptable" and "inconsistent with international norms of justice." In the cable you approved, it was stated that we did not accept the Borquez conclusion that the evidence was insufficient to warrant extradition. The cable stated that "we remain primarily interested" in the extradition of the defendants. Recognizing the discretion contained within the Extradition Treaty permitting a trial if the nationality clause of the treaty were invoked, the cable noted that it was essential that there be "a reversal of Borquez' holding that our evidence is not credible or convincing and hence is insufficient to establish probable cause. Unless that holding is reversed, we do not see how a trial of the defendants in Chile could be genuine and thorough-going."

UNCLASSIFIED

With that underlying determination, Ambassador Landau conveyed the message to the GOC that the "Borquez ruling would make it impossible for any proceeding conducted here in Chile to be genuine and thorough-going."

If extradition was not granted or the Borquez ruling on the sufficiency of the evidence not reversed as part of an order directing a trial, then Ambassador Landau said, "the reaction of my government, the Congress, and the American people will be severe -- more severe than anything we have yet seen in our relations."

Failure to take such actions would result in a judgment that we were faced with "a case of unpunished terrorism."

We therefore called, first for the Chileans to reverse the Borquez decision with regard to the sufficiency of the evidence, order either extradition, or failing that, fair and genuine trial based on all our evidence -- untainted by the deprecations of insufficiency bestowed by the Borquez ruling; and, second for the GOC to "energize" the military court to diligently pursue its investigation and subsequent trial rather than continuing to proceed in the dilatory fashion that has characterized its more than a year-long investigation of passport fraud.

The specific potential consequences of a failure to satisfy those criteria cited by Ambassador Landau included:

1. A determination by the President that the Ex-Im Bank should deny applications for Chile on the grounds that Chile is harboring international terrorists;

2. An unhelpful attitude by the U.S. on external problems Chile may have.

3. The raising of the question of influencing private bank lending.

The Embassy now believes that an intentionally lengthy and confusing ruling will be issued. The bottom line will be the decision that there still is insufficient evidence to indict/extradite the ex-Dina officers.

UNCLASSIFIED

Although we will want to study the ruling before acting definitively, presumably with Ambassador Landau consulting with us, our response should come within a short time frame.

PERSPECTIVES

In weighing appropriate U.S. reaction, we would want to examine the impact on our efforts to discourage international terrorism, and the impact in Chile of our decisions. In the absence of satisfaction of our two criteria, we already have determined that our objective of bringing the three ex-Dina officials to justice would be a forlorn hope in a military court.

-- Even with the fullest affirmation of our evidence by the Court, the record of Chilean military justice would make the likelihood of a decision uninfluenced by Pinochet slim. This judgment is reinforced by the recent event in which the Lonquen bodies were directed by the court to be returned to the families but the military prosecutor disregarded that order and had them buried in a mass grave on an offshore island. Without the fullest affirmation of our evidence through the reversal of the Borquez ruling, the military trial would be a sham.

-- Our actions must demonstrate clearly that the governments engaging in international terrorism, and those harboring its perpetrators will suffer penalties. Our objective is to act so as to deter any other would-be assassins from Chile or elsewhere.

-- Chile's human rights performance has improved in some aspects of Basket One, although recent incidents of torture and death after detention demonstrate that such practices remain part of the repressive apparatus. Civil and political liberties remain circumscribed and even a narrowly conceived constitutional structure is to be delayed until at least the mid-1980s.

-- Chile remains diplomatically isolated, with the United Nations Resolutions -- while more restrained than in years past -- still evidence of Chile's image as a symbol of the destruction of democracy. The Andean countries continue to hold Pinochet at arms length and the lack of any response on the disappeared has drawn sharp and public criticism in both Mexico and Venezuela.

-- U.S. Congressional restrictions on economic and military assistance remain in force.

-- Despite the arms-length relationship of our official ties, private U.S.-Chilean business relations have continued with both direct and portfolio investment increasing.

-- Any critical U.S. response will be seized upon by Pinochet as an excuse to try to drum up nationalist support. However, Chilean opinion is divided; DINA is unpopular in most quarters and many Chileans -- including all of the moderate political sectors and the church -- would respect and support our posture. The groups seeking an end to authoritarian rule still hope that the Letelier case, either through the extradition or the U.S. pressure in the absence of extradition, will encourage pressures in Chile for a return to democracy.

II. SCENARIOS

There are four potential Supreme Court Review Panel decisions:

A. Acceptance of our request for extradition;

B. No extradition, reversal of the Borquez decision on evidence and directing a trial in military court;

C. No extradition, trial in military court, vague or middle-of-the-road characterization of U.S. evidence admissibility and significance but without reversing President Borquez on characterization of U.S. evidence as "insufficient";

D. No extradition, no trial.

HA's view is that any action other than A or B fails to meet the standard we had set forth as constituting compliance with the obligations of the Extradition Treaty and effectively entails allowing terrorists to go unpunished.

Scenario C, the most likely according to the Embassy, rules out a fair and genuine trial and insures a long and drawn-out process with every likelihood of the effective exoneration of the defendants. For this reason, the Department previously determined that a reversal of Borquez on the sufficiency of the evidence for extradition was a requirement for anything less than severe U.S. reaction.

III. RECOMMENDED RESPONSES

A. Extradition: Issue statement commending Chilean decision and announcing that USG will proceed to try the extradited individuals. Follow with a review of positive actions that might be taken in our relations with Chile in light of the favorable outcome of this case.

N.B. If only Contreras (head of DINA at time of Letelier/Moffitt assassination) or Contreras and Espinoza (Chief of Operations of DINA) and not Fernandez (Lieutenant at the time), were extradited we could still issue an overall commending statement because we would have for trial the person or two persons whom we believe ordered the assassination.

B. No extradition, reversal of the Borquez decision on evidence and directing a trial in military court: Chile can deny extradition of its nationals to the U.S. under the nationality provision of our bilateral extradition treaty.

-- Issue statement expressing disappointment with failure to extradite but welcoming Chilean full acceptance of our evidence and Chilean intention to proceed with trial. Emphasize that we will be diligent in our monitoring of trial in our desire to see that justice be meted out in an expeditious fashion.

C. No extradition, trial in military court, vague or middle-of-the-road characterization of U.S. evidence admissibility and significance but without reversing President Borquez on characertization of U.S. evidence as "insufficient".

D. No extradition, no trial

If C or D occur, the following actions should definitely be taken:

-- Issue especially strong deploring statement.

-- Reduce representation to Charge until early 1981.

REF: A) STATE 234044, B) SANTIAGO 6079

1. ENTIRE TEXT ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

2. ALFREDO ETCHEBERRY'S COURT SOURCES CONFIRM THAT THE EXTRADITION VERDICT IS BEING TYPED IN FINAL AND SHOULD BE READY FOR REVIEW BY THE COURT MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 24. MOST LIKELY IT WILL BE GIVEN THE PARTIES LATE MONDAY OR ON TUESDAY.

3. EARLIER ETCHEBERRY HAD FORMALLY SUBMITTED THE BARCELLA AFFIDAVIT REGARDING JACK HOLCOMB OF AUDIO INTELLIGENCE DEVICES (REF A) TOGETHER WITH HIS VIEWS ON THE ADDITIONAL EVIDENCE REQUESTED BY THE COURT (REF B). AS HE HAD EXPECTED, THE COURT RULED THAT THE BARCELLA AFFIDAVIT HAD ARRIVED TOO LATE TO BE ENTERED IN EVIDENCE. BUT EACH OF THE JUDGES ACTUALLY READ THE AFFIDAVIT BEFORE DECIDING ON ITS INADMISSIBILITY -- THUS IT SERVED ITS PURPOSE. THE COURT DID ACCEPT ETCHEBERRY'S COMMENTS ON THE OTHER MATERIAL. HE CONCENTRATED ON HIGHLIGHTING THE OBVIOUS ERRORS OF FACT IN THE GUANES MEMO WHICH THE PARAGUAYANS HAD GIVEN CNI'S MENA.

4. ETCHEBERRY STRESSED AGAIN THE IMPORTANCE HE ATTACHES TO THE WORDING OF THE REVIEW PANEL VERDICT IF THE COURT FINDS OUR EVIDENCE INSUFFICIENT FOR EXTRADITION BUT NONETHELESS SENDS THE FILE TO MILITARY JUSTICE. IN THIS CASE ETCHEBERRY BELIEVES THAT THE VERDICT'S PRECISE WORDING WILL GREATLY INFLUENCE THE PROBABILITY OF INDICTMENT. SINCE ANY TRIAL PROCESS IN CHILE BEGINS WITH AN INVESTIGATIVE -- "SUMMARIO" -- PHASE, THE FIRST GOAL IS TO HAVE THE JUDGE DECIDE TO INDICT -- "DECLARAR REO." ETCHEBERRY THINKS THAT CLOSE STUDY OF THE STRUCTURE AND PHRASING OF THE RULING WILL OFFER CLUES AS TO THE LIKELIHOOD OF INDICTMENT.

1. [redacted] INTRODUCTION AND SUMMARY: THE MEMBERS OF THE INTER-AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (IAHRC) CAME, SAW AND LISTENED DURIN THEIR SEPTEMBER 5-20 VISIT TO ARGENTINA. IT IS MORE DIFFICULT TO SAY WHAT IF ANYTHING THEY CONQUERED, SINCE THOUGH THEIR VISIT MAY HAVE MADE HUMAN RIGHTS AN ISSUE FOR MANY HITHERTO UNCONCERNED OR UNCARING ARGENTINES, IT IS LESS CERTAIN IT CHANGED VERY MANY MINDS OR CONTRIBUTTED TO A CESSATION OF THE PRACTICES THAT HAVE EARNED ARGENTINA A REPUTATION AS A MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATOR AND HAVE STRAINED US-ARGENTINE RELATIONS. 2. (U) A PROGRAMMATIC SUCCESS -----
JUDGED FROM A DISTANCE-AND WE ABOIDED DIRECT CONTACT WITH THE COMMISSION-THE VISIT WAS A SUCCESS IN TERMS OF WHAT THE COMMISSION WANTED TO DO. THEY MET WITH PRESIDENT VIDELA AT THE BEGINNING AND THE END OF THEIR VISIT. INTTHE LATTER ENCOUNTER THEY REPORTEDLY LEFT HIM WITH A CONFIDENTIAL AND PRELIMINARY LIST OF "RECOMMENDATIONS", PRESUMABLY ON WHAT ARGENTINA MIGHT DO TO IMPROVE ITS HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION. IN ADDITION THEY HELD CONFABS WITH ALL THE LEADING LIGHTS OF THE GOVERNEMTN, WITH PROMINENT PRISONERS LIKE TIMERNMAND AND MRS PERON, WIHT OTHER EX-PRESIDENTS, WITH HUMAN RIGHTS LEADERS, WITH POLITICANS, JUDGES, GENERALS AND THE LIKE. THEY ALSO TOOK TESTIMONY FROM THE FAMILY MEMBERS OF THE DISAPPEARED AND FROM FORMER PRISONERS; CHECKED OUT AT LEAST THREE SITES OF FORMER CLANDESTINE PRISONS; AND INVESTIAGED DISAPPEARANCES.

3. [redacted] THROUGHOUT THEIR VISIT THE COMMISSION SEEMED TO DISPLAY BOTH PROFESSIONALISM AND, ON OCCASION, CREATIVITY. FOR EXAMPLE, EMBMERS VISITED CEMETERIES, COMPARING THE UNUSUALLY LARGE NUMBERS OF ANONYMOUS BURIALS IN POTTERS FIELDS WITH THE DATES OF KNOWN CLASHES BETWEEN SECURITY FORCES AND TERRIRSTS-THE ASSUMPTION BEING THAT IF THERE WERE NO CORRELATION BETWEEN DATES OF THE BURIALS AND THE CLASHES, THE THE UNKNOWN DEAD MAY WELL BE DISAPPEARED WHO WERE KILLED BY THE AUTHORITIES.

4. [redacted] A MEDIA BARRAGE -----
THE COMMISSION'S VISIT WAS MASSIVELY COVERED BY THE ARGENTINE PRESS, TELEVISION AND RADIO. THERE CAN HARDLY BE AN ARGENTINE ALIVE WHO IS NOW UNAWARE THAT HUMAN [redacted]

RIGHTS ARE AN ISSUE OF SIGNIFICANCE. EVERYWHERE THE COMMISSION WENT AND EVERYBODY THEY MET WITH-EXCEPT FOR CASES WHERE THE COMMISSION SOUGHT AND OBTAINED MORE CONFIDENTIAL MEETINGS-WAS REPORTED. THE DRAMATIC ASSEMBLY OF HUNDRES OF PEOPLE WAITING OUTSIDE THE ORGANIZATIONS BUENOS AIRES OFFICE TO REPORT DISAPPEARANCES DROVE HOME THE POINT HERE THAT MANY HAVE COMPLAINTS.

5. [redacted] THERE WAS LITTLE DISCUSSION OF THE SUBSTANCE OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUE-WHAT VIOLATIONS HAVE ACTUALLY TAKEN PLACE AND HOW MANY. NO PAPER EVEN PUBLISHED AN INTERIVEW WITH THOSE WAITING TO GIVE TESTIMONY ABOUT VIOLATIONS TO THE COMMISSION.

6. [redacted] BUT THERE WERE MANY NATIONALISTIC PUBLIC PROTESTS ABOUT THE VIOLATIONS OF ARGENTINA'S SOVEREIGNTY, ABOUT THE ALLEGED FAILURE OF THE COMMISSION TO DEAL WITH TERRORIST PAST, AND, ABOUT EH NECESSITY FOR STERN MEASURE TO COUNTER A MAJOR SUBVERSIVE THREAT. GOVERNMENT ELEMTNS CLEARLY HELPED STIMULATE THIS OUTBURST OF NATIONALIST SENTIMENT. IT WAS ALSO SPONTANEOUS AND RELFECTED THE CHAUVINISTIC MOOD THAT RUNS STRONGLY HERE. THUS, THOUG HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVITS HAVE TOLD US THAT THEY ARE PLEASED THAT THE VIST BROUGHT SO MUCH ATTENTION TO THE ISSUE, WE ARE FORCED TO CONCLUDE THAT IT ALSO STIRRED SENTIMENTS THAT MAY NOT BE HELPFUL TO THE HUMAN RIGHTS CAUSE.

7. [redacted] THERE WAS ONE DISAPPOINTMENT IN THE REAMS OF PUBLIC RESPONSES TO THE VISIT, SOME MORE ELOQUENT AND OTHER LESS SO, BUT MOST PREDICTABLE. PUBLISHERS OF ARGENTINAS MAJOR DAILIES REFUSED THE INVITATION TO MEET WITH THE COMMISSION. SEVERAL PUBLISHERS ALSO RELEASED RINGING-AND LESS-THAN-CANDID-STATEMENTS CLAIMING THE COMPLETE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS IN ARGENTINA.

AND ONE PUBLISHER VIGOROUSLY DENOUNCED IAHRC'S MEDLDLING IN ARGENTINE AFFAIRS. AS MEN WHO EARN THEIR BREAD SELLING A COMMODITY TO THE PUBLIC, THE PUBLISHERS' REACTION TO THE VISIT MAY HAVE BEEN A COMMENT ON THEIR READING OF THE PUBLIC MOOD.

8. [redacted] THE PERONISTS POLITICIZE THE ISSUE-TEMPORARILY AT LEAST -----
THE BIGGEST SURPRISE OF ALL WAS DELIVERED BY A GROUP OF PERONISTS. USING THE COMMISION'S VISIT AS AN OPPORTUNITY, THEY ISSUED THE FIRST STRONG PUBLIC STATEMENT OF OPPOSITION TO THE GOVERNMENT SINCE 1976, BLASTING

THE MILITARY FOR EXERCISING DE FACTO POWER AND GROSSLY ABUSING HUMAN RIGHTS. GIVEN THE PAST RECORD OF PERONIST GOVERNMENTS ON HUMAN RIGHTS, THE STATEMENT SUBSTITUTED HYPOCRISY FOR THE MOVEMENT'S RECENT INDIFFERENCE TO THE ISSUE. BUT FOR THE MOMENT IT ALSO PUT A SECTOR OF THE NATION'S LARGEST SINGLE CIVILIAN POLITICAL FORCE ON THE SIDE OF HUMAN RIGHTS. THUS, AT LEAST SOME POLITICIANS SEEM TO HAVE TAKEN A READING THAT DEFENDING HUMAN RIGHTS MAKES POLITICAL SENSE IN ARGENTINA.

3. [redacted] THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS DEVELOPMENT ARE STILL UNCERTAIN. WHETHER THE DECLARATION WAS PURELY A TACTIC--THE PERONISTS HAVE CURIOUS IDEAS ABOUT HOW TO BARGAIN WITH THE MILITARY--OR A WELL THOUGHT OUT MOVE BY MEN

WHO BELIEVE THE TIME IS RIPE TO BEGIN AN OPPOSITION CAMPAIGN IS UNCLEAR. THE GOVERNMENT HAS CHOSEN TO INTERPRET IT AS A POLITICAL MOVE BY "COMMUNIST-INSPIRED" ELEMENTS IN THE PERONIST MOVEMENT ANY MANY OTHER PERONIST LEADERS QUICKLY DISOWNED THE STATEMENT AND DISTANCED THEMSELVES FROM BITTLE.

10. [redacted] IF THE PERONIST'S GRAB FOR THE HUMAN RIGHTS BANNER HAD ENDURED IT WOULD HAVE POLITICIZED THE ISSUE ALONG THE LINES OF THE GREAT SCHISM IN ARGENTINE SOVIETY-THE PERONISTS AND THE ANTI-PERONISTS. THE DEFENSE OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN ARGENTINA HAS ON BALANCE BENEFITTED BECAUSE IT WAS, AT LEAST SUPERFICIALLY NON POLITICAL. THE DEGREE THAT IT BECOMES POLITICIZED COULD INFLUENCE--AND RESTRICT--THE ABILITY OF THIRD PARTIES LIKE THE UNITED STATES TO INTERJECT THEMSELVES INTO THE ISSUE.

11. [redacted] THE REAL POLITICS: UNIFORMED POLITICS -----
THE MOST IMPORTANT IMMEDIATE POLITICAL BATTLE IN THE COUNTRY CONCERNS THE MILITARY SUCCESSION PROBLEM AND NOT THE PERONISTS. IT SEEMS UNLIKELY THAT THE IAHRC VISIT WILL NOT BECOME AN ISSUE IN THE STRUGGLE THAT PITS RELATIVE MODERATES--PRESIDENT VIDELA, ARMY COMMANDER VIOLA--AGAINST THE KNOWN HARDLINERS--ARMY CHIEF OF STAFF CARLOS SUAREZ MASON AND GENERAL LUCIANO MENENDEZ. WE HAVE NO DIRECT KNOWLEDGE OF HOW THE GOVERNMENT AND THE MILITARY HAVE RESPONDED TO THE VISIT. FOR EXAMPLE, DOES VIDELA THINK IT WAS A SUCCESSFUL GAMBLE, THUS FAR?

12. [redacted] THE HARDLINERS ARE CLEARLY TRYING TO SHOW HIM-- AND THEIR COLLEAGUES--THAT IT WAS NOT. THUS, WE HAVE [redacted]

SEVERAL PUBLIC STATEMENTS FROM THEM WHICH SUGGESTS THAT THEY ARE SEEKING TO USE THE VISIT TO STOKE THEIR AMBITIONS AND FIRE NATIONALISTIC SENTIMENT AT THE EXPENSE OF THE PRESIDENT AND VIOLA. SUAREZ MASON TOLD THE PRESS THAT "WE DO NOT NEED ADVICE FROM ABROAD," ADDING THAT HE ACCEPTED THE VISIT BECAUSE IT WAS A DECISION OF THE GOVERNMENT. MENENDEZ WAS EVEN BLUNTER, DECLARING TO THE PRESS THAT IT HAD "HURT" HIM TO HAVE

TO TALK TO THE COMMISSION ABOUT ARGENTINE AFFAIRS. HE ADDED THAT HE HAD DONE SO ONLY BECAUSE HE HAD BEEN ORDERED TO. HE ALSO DENIED THAT ANY SORT OF HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS HAD TAKEN PLACE UNDER HIS COMMAND. SEVERAL ARGENTINES HAVE COMMENTED TO US THAT MENENDEZ' REMARKS WERE INSUBORDINATE AND WOULD HAVE BEEN ENOUGH TO GET HIM SACKED UNDER EARLIER GOVERNMENTS. THAT HE GOT AWAY WITH SUCH CONTEMPTUOUS TALK, IN THE VIEW OF THESE MEN, IS AN INDICATION OF THE WEAKNESS OF VIOLA AND THE PRESIDENT. (ON THE OTHER HAND, HE DID OBEY ORDERS AND RECEIVED THE COMMISSION--WHICH MAY BE A MORE IMPORTANT FACT THAN HIS SUBSEQUENT STATEMENT TO THE PRESS.)

13. [redacted] BRIGHTENING ARGENTINA'S IMAGE -----
ONE OF THE GOA'S GOALS IN INVITING THE COMMISSION WAS TO BRIGHTEN ARGENTINA'S BENT AND TARNISHED IMAGE ABROAD. THE FINAL REPORT OF THE COMMISSION WILL DETERMINE IN GREAT MEASURE HOW SUCCESSFUL THAT BID WILL BE. BUT AT LEAST AS SIGNIFICANT WILL BE THE BEHAVIOR OF THE NATION'S SECURITY FORCES, WHOSE BRUTAL PRACTICES EARNED THE COUNTRY THE LABEL OF A MAJOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATOR.

AND THESE SAME SECURITY FORCES BY DESIGN OR INADVERTENCE CONTINUED THOSE PRACTICES PRIOR TO AND DURING THE COMMISSION'S VISIT. THE GROSSEST PUBLIC MANIFESTATION OF THIS PROBLEM WAS THE TAKING OF THREE SMALL CHILDREN DURING THE LAST DAYS OF THE COMMISSION'S STAY. AND THE SECURITY FORCES INDULGED IN ACTIONS RANGING FROM THE HARSH

[redacted]

--CONTINUING DISAPPEARANCES--TO THE KEYSTONE COPPISH--CLUMSY AND UNSUCCESSFUL ATTEMPTS TO INTIMIDATE THOSE APPROACHING THE COMMISSION, AND SETTING OF "BLACK" PAMPHLET BOMBS WHICH SOUGHT TO IDENTIFY THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS WITH THE TERRORISTS.

IT SEEMS UNLIKELY THAT PRESIDENT VIDELA AND GENERAL VIOLA WANTED SUCH ACTIONS TO TAKE PLACE, EITHER AS PRELUDES OR ACCOMPANIMENT TO THE IAHRC VISIT. BUT THEY DID, EMPHASIZING THAT THE SECURITY FORCES ARE SEIZED WITH A DIFFERENT MENTAL FRAMEWORK. THE RULE OF LAW CONTINUES TO BE BREACHED WHENEVER THE MILITARY OR ELEMENTS WITHIN THE SECURITY FORCES DEEM IT JUSTIFIED--NO MATTER WHAT THE IMPLICATIONS FOR US-ARGENTINE RELATIONS.

SUGGESTED TALKING POINTS

-- Jacobo Timerman has become a symbol of the struggle to vindicate human rights in Argentina. His steadfast courage during his long ordeal has won him the admiration of countless Americans.

-- Our Government has taken a strong interest in Mr. Timerman's case since the time of his arrest. The President raised his case with President Videla during the latter's visit to the U.S. in 1977. Secretary Vance did the same during his visit to Buenos Aires in November of 1977. Other high-ranking Department of State officials have made similar approaches to the Argentine Government during visits to Argentina, and Ambassador Castro and the U.S. Embassy staff have made numerous representations on Mr. Timerman's behalf.

-- We shall continue to make representations to the Argentine Government at all levels to release Mr. Timerman and permit him to leave the country. We will continue to make clear to the Argentines that his case is a major element of concern in our relations and that his early release would have a favorable impact in United States official and public circles.

MEMORANDUM FOR DR. ZBIGNIEW BRZEZINSKI

Subject: Mrs. Rische Timerman's Request for a Meeting with Mrs. Carter

Mrs. Rische Timerman, the wife of detained Argentine newspaper editor and publisher Jacobo Timerman, wishes to meet with Mrs. Carter to discuss her husband's case. Jacobo Timerman's continued arbitrary detention is a particularly flagrant human rights violation which in some ways has become a symbol of the Argentine human rights situation. We believe a meeting with Mrs. Carter would be helpful in promoting overall U.S. human rights policy objectives but could further complicate the prospects for Mr. Timerman's early release. Mrs. Timerman is prepared to take this risk. We therefore recommend that Mrs. Carter agree to receive Mrs. Timerman.

The attached paper provides background information and suggested talking points that emphasize our deep concern for Mr. Timerman and our determination to continue urging the Argentines to release him from house arrest and permit him to leave the country.

Peter Tarnoff
Executive Secretary

BACKGROUND ON THE TIMERMAN CASE

Jacobo Timerman, publisher and editor of the Buenos Aires newspaper La Opinion, was detained by Argentine security forces in April, 1977. He was held incommunicado for several months and severely tortured during that period. Although a military court found Mr. Timerman innocent of any wrongdoing, he remained in prison by executive order. The Argentine Supreme Court subsequently ruled last year that no legal basis existed for his continued detention. The Executive, however, ignored this ruling and merely transferred Mr. Timerman from prison to house arrest where he remains. Armed guards occupy his apartment, and he is permitted few visitors or contact with the outside world other than his family and his rabbi. He is forbidden, of course, to leave the apartment and was unable to attend his son's wedding in Israel earlier this year or to accept the Hubert Humphrey Freedom Award from B'nai B'rith in New York this summer.

Because Jacobo Timerman had earned a reputation for excellence in journalism and for his honest and courageous portrayal of human rights abuses, his arrest and continued detention have drawn widespread criticism in international journalistic circles, as well as among Members of Congress and other important sectors of American opinion. His continued deprivation of liberty, after having been fully exonerated by the courts, clearly illuminates the Military Junta's arbitrariness as well as the impotence of the Argentine judiciary in the face of flagrant abuses. His case has come to symbolize the plight of the thousands of Argentines who have been deprived of their liberty during the last 3½ years, of whom over 1500, including Mr. Timerman, remain in executive detention.

Congressional and public interest in this case remains high. Numerous articles have appeared in the U.S. press, and important nongovernmental organizations have joined their voices in the general protest.

The President raised Mr. Timerman's case with President Videla when the latter was in Washington for the Panama Canal Treaties signing ceremony. Secretary Vance reviewed his case in detail when he visited Argentina in November of 1977. Under Secretary Newsom and Assistant Secretaries Todman and Derian and others have reiterated our concerns in the interim. Ambassador Castro continues to intercede energetically on every possible occasion with the highest levels of the Argentine Government in an effort to secure Mr. Timerman's release.

SUBJECT: RELEASE AND PROTECTION FOR TIMERMAN

REF: BUENOS AIRES 7849

1. [redacted] - ENTIRE TEXT)

2. WE NOTE EMBASSY'S ASSUMPTION THAT ARGENTINE JUNTA'S MEETINGS MONDAY AND TUESDAY WILL DISCUSS TIMERMAN CASE AND ARE HOPEFUL THAT SUPREME COURT'S DECISION MIGHT TIP BALANCE IN FAVOR OF DECISION TO RELEASE TIMERMAN AND PERMIT HIM TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY.

3. -WHILE WE RECOGNIZE THAT AMBASSADOR-HAS RAISED TIMERMAN'S CASE NUMEROUS TIMES WITH GOA (MOST RECENTLY WITH VIOLA AND FOREIGN MINISTRY) UNLESS EMBASSY SEES OBJECTION WE SUGGEST THAT AMBASSADOR SEEK APPOINTMENT AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AT AS HIGH A LEVEL AS YOU CONSIDER APPROPRIATE AND URGE TIMERMAN'S RELEASE AND PERMISSION TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY. WE RECOGNIZE THE AMBASSADOR HAS TENTATIVE APPOINTMENT TO SEE GENERAL VIOLA ON WEDNESDAY, UUT NOTE THAT HIS MEETING WOULD OCCUR AFTER THE JUNTA HAS CONSIDERED THE ISSUE.

4. IN THIS CALL, AMBASSADOR SHOULD ALSO EXPRESS OUR CONCERN FOR TIMERMAN'S PERSONAL SAFETY SHOULD THE MODALITIES OF HIS RELEASE NOT INCLUDE PROVISION FOR HIS PROTECTION DURING THE PERIOD PRIOR TO HIS DEPARTURE FROM THE COUNTRY (ASSUMING THAT HE WOULD WISH TO DO SO). WE ARE COGNIZANT OF YOUR PARAGRAPH 4 WHICH GIVES TIMERMAN'S ESTIMATE THAT, IF GRANTED A PASSPORT, THERE WOULD BE NO PROBLEM. GOA APPARENTLY MAY HAVE CONCERNS OF ITS OWN ABOUT TIMERMAN'S SAFETY.

5. COMMENT: WE WOULD APPRECIATE SOONEST FURTHER DETAILS ON THE SUPREME COURT'S DECISION. WITH THIS DECISION, WHAT IS THE PRESENT LEGAL AND PRACTICAL STATUS OF TIMERMAN'S CASE? HAS TIMERMAN NOW BEEN FULLY ABSOLVED BY THE ARGENTINE JUDICIAL SYSTEM? I THERE STILL SOME LEGAL BASIS ON WHICH HE COULD BE HELD? WHAT IN THE EMBASSY'S VIEW IS THE PRESENT STATE OF PLAY WITHIN THE ARGENTINE REGIME? PLEASE ADVISE.

SUBJECT (U) REPORTS THAT TIMERMAN MAY BE EXPELLED FROM COUNTRY

REF: BUENOS AIRES 7834

1. (U) THE PRESS CARRIES REPORTS CITING "RUMOS CIRCULATING AMONG OFFICIAL SOURCES" THAT THE ARGENTINE GOVERNMENT IS PLANNING TO ORDER JACOBO TIMERMAN'S RELEASE SOMETIME THIS WEEK, STRIPPING HIM OF HIS ARGENTINE CITIZENSHIP AND EXPELLING HIM FROM THE COUNTRY IN THE AFTERMATH OF THE RECENT SUPREME COURT FINDING THAT HIS CONTINUED DETENTION BY THE JUNTA WAS UNCONSTITUTIONAL. A JUNTA MEETING IS SCHEDULED FOR WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, AND ACCORDING TO INFORMED PRESS SPECULATION, THE JUNTA DECISION REGARDING TIMERMAN WILL BE ISSUED AT THAT TIME. A MEETING OF THE FULL PLENARY OF ARGENTINE ARMY GENERALS IS SCHEDULED FOR TODAY SEPTEMBER 24 AND THERE IS SPECULATION THAT THE TIMERMAN ISSUE WILL BE AMONG THOSE DEALT WITH AT THAT MEETING ALSO.

2. (U) THERE HAS BEEN NO OFFICIAL COMMENT OF THE PRESS SPECULATION REGARDING TIMERMAN'S POSSIBLE RELEASE, BUT ARMY COMMANDER GENERAL VIOLA INFORMED THE PRESS SEPTEMBER 21 THAT IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENTS IN THE TIMERMAN CASE WERE IN THE OFFING.

3. (U) THE PRESS HAS ALSO REPORTED THAT THE GUARD ON TIMERMAN'S RESIDENCE HAS BEEN STRENGTHENED IN THE WAKE OF THE SUPREME COURT DECISION AND PRESS REPORTS CONCERNING HIS POSSIBLE RELEASE.

4. (U) TO DATE THE TEXT OF THE SUPREME COURT DECISION HAS EVIDENTLY BEEN KEPT SECRET AND THE COURT HAS NOT EVEN CONFIRMED THAT IT HAS RULED IN THIS MATTER. CLARIN, SEPTEMBER 23, COMMENTING ON THE SUPREME COURT ACTION STATED THAT THE EXECUTIVE BRANCH WAS SURPRISED BY THE COURT DECISION WHICH CLARIN HERALDS AS A NEW DEMONSTRATION OF THE COURT'S INDEPENDENCE VIS-A-VIS THE EXECUTIVE.

5. (U) THIS CONTENTION SEEMS TO BE SUPPORTED BY A COMMENT GIVEN US LAST WEEK BY THE RECENTLY ARRIVED FRENCH MINISTER-COUNSELOR WHO WHEN CALLING ON SUPREME COURT PRESIDENT GABRIELLI LAS WEEK WAS INFORMED THAT THE COURT WAS ABOUT TO ISSUE A BOMB SHELL THAT THE EXECUTIVE HAD NOT ANTICIPATED.

6. (U) CLARIN ALSO REPORTED THAT WHEN THE IAHRC RAISED THE REPORTED COURT DECISION REGARDING TIMERMAN IN A MEETING WITH PRESIDENT VIDELA, THE PRESIDENT RESPONDED THAT ARGENTINA WOULD FULFILL ITS CONSTITUTIONAL TRADITION IN THIS MATTER.

HUMAN RIGHTS HIGHLIGHTS

ARGENTINA: TIMERMAN RELEASE?

SOURCES: Buenos Aires 7838; 7881; 7917

(Entire text [redacted])

Rumors about the impending expulsion of Jacobo Timerman have attained such currency, according to Embassy Buenos Aires, that his release is being taken for granted in Buenos Aires press and political circles. Press speculation concerning the fate of Argentina's best known political detainee was ignited by a reported Supreme Court decision of September 17 that ordered Timerman's release from house arrest. According to Embassy sources, the Court acted independently. However, the text of the decision has not been published, and government spokesmen have made no comment on the case. The executive's reaction to the Court's decision is expected after ~~the~~ September 26 Junta meeting.

INR Comment: The situation looks promising, but this is not the first spate of rumors concerning Timerman's release. Nor is it the first time that the Supreme Court has ruled his detention illegal; it did so in July 1978.

No evidence has ever been made public to substantiate charges ~~that Timerman aided or encouraged subversion~~ that Timerman was involved in political or economic subversion. His continued detention has seriously damaged the government's reputation at a time when the frequency of category one human rights violations has declined significantly. Despite these facts, Timerman has been held because he symbolizes for military hardliners what they hold responsible for Argentina's ills. While Timemman was not a terrorist, per se, his detractors believe that he encouraged (and justified) terrorism through his journalism, associated with those who financed terrorism (Graiver, et. al.), and participated in a variety of corrupt business practices. That he is a Jew ~~and can be arrogant~~ has compounded his problem with anti-Semitic military officers, as does his tendency to be arrogant.

UNCLASSIFIED

The fact that so much is suspected in Timerman's case and so little is proven seems only to be regarded as evidence that he is very clever and , therefore, all the more dangerous. Given this attitude, those like Brig. Gen. Camps, who directed the original investigation of Timerman's affairs, are irrational about the case. If moderate officers are able to gain Timerman's release despite Camps and others like him, it will be a significant accomplishment.

2. WE HAVE NOW HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO MEET WITH TIMERMAN'S LAWYER, GENARIO CARRIO WHO SPOKE TO US IN CONFIDENCE.
3. INCUDE HE HAS NOT SEEN THE SUPREME COURT DECISION ON TIMERMAN, CARRIO FEELS PRESS REPORTS ABOUT IT ARE PROBABLY CORRECT, AT LEAST SO FAR AS ITS MAJOR THRUST--THE JUNTA HAS BEEN TOLD BY THE COURT THAT THE CONTINUED DETENTION OF TIMERMAN IS ILLEGAL. MOREOVER, CARRIO BELIEVES THAT IN SECRT ORDER--PROBABLY THIS WEEK--TIMERMAN WILL PROBABLY BE STRIPPED OF HIS CITIZENSHIP AND EXPELLED FROM THE COUNTRY BY THE JUNTA WHICH WILL TAKE THESE STEPS UNDER THE POWERS IT CONFERRED ON ITSELF WITH THE INSTITUTIONAL ACT OF 1976.
4. CARRIO STATED TO US THAT HIS PRESENTATION TO THE COURT IN TIMERMAN'S BEHALF HAD TWO THRUSTS: A: THAT TIMERMAN'S DETENTION UNDER THE INSTITUTIONAL

B: THAT THE INSTITUTIONAL ACT IN ITSELF IS UNCONSTITUTIONAL.
5. HE BELIEVES THAT IN ORDERING TIMERMAN FREED THE COURT PROBABLY DEALT WITH THE FIRST OF THESE ARGUMENTS, BECAUSE TO DECLARE THE INSTITUTIONAL ACT ITSELF UNCONSTITUTIONAL WOULD OPEN UP A PANDORA'S BOX FOR THE JUNTA, AFFECTING AS IT WOULD THE MANY PEOPLE BEING HELD OR WHO HAVE BEEN PUNISHED UNDER THE INSTITUTIONAL ACT.
6. THE BASIC ARGUMENT HE USED TO ATTACK THE LEGALITY, AS OPPOSED TO ITS CONSTITUTIONALITY, OF TIMERMAN'S DETENTION WAS NARROWLY AIMED AT PARAGRAPH (E) OF ARTICLE TWO OF THE ACT WHICH STATES THAT AMONG THE MEASURES THAT CAN BE APPLIED TO THOSE BEING PUNISHED UNDER THE BILL IS "DETENTION IN A PLACE DETERMINED BY THE EXECUTIVE POWER FOR SO LONG AS THE INDIVIDUAL

REF: STATE 249264

1. THE ARGENTINE MILITARY IS CONTINUING A SERIES OF DISCUSSIONS IN WHICH THE TIMERMAN CASE (AS WELL AS THAT OF FORMER PRESIDENT HECTOR CAMPORA) ARE PROBABLY CENTRAL ISSUES. ON SEPTEMBER 24, THE JUNTA HELD AN UNSCHEDULED MEETING. ON SEPTEMBER 25 THE GENERAL OFFICERS OF EACH SERVICE ARE GATHERING IN SEPARATE CONFABS PRESIDED OVER BY EACH SERVICE CHIEF, AND ON SEPTEMBER 26 THE JUNTA IS SCHEDULED TO RECONVENE.

2. COMMENT: THE DECISION TO RELEASE TIMERMAN -- EVEN STRIPPED OF HIS CITIZENSHIP AND EXPELLED FROM THE COUNTRY -- CANNOT BE AN EASY ONE FOR THE MILITARY. STUBBORN INFLEXIBILITY CAUSED THE MILITARY TO DETAIN TIMERMAN DESPITE THE PAST COURT ORDER AND DESPITE THEIR UNDERSTANDING THAT HE IS AN INTERNATIONAL CAUSE CELEBRE BADLY DAMAGING ARGENTINA IN FOREIGN EYES. THERE MAY BE MILITARY MEN WHO ARE STILL GRASPING FOR A WAY TO KEEP HIM UNDER LOCK AND KEY. IN THIS REGARD WE NOTE THAT THE PRESS QUOTES SOURCES STATING THE COURT FIXED NO DEADLINE FOR TIMERMAN'S RELEASE. WHILE THIS MAY INDICATE THAT SOME IN THE MILITARY COULD SEEK TO HOLD TIMERMAN ON THIS EXCUSE, WE BELIEVE THAT THE ANONYMOUS SPOKESMAN MAY HAVE BEEN TRYING TO SUGGEST THAT THE ARMED FORCES WERE ACTING LEGALLY IN TAKING TIME TO DELIBERATE THE SUPREME COURT'S DECISION.

3. NOTE: WE RECEIVED A TELEPHONE CALL MINUTES AGO FROM AN AMERICAN NEWSMAN SAYING HE HAD BEEN TOLD BY A CONTACT IN THE PRESIDENCY THAT A DECISION ON TIMERMAN WILL BE MADE PUBLIC TOMORROW SEPTEMBER 26. CASTRO

SOURCE EXPRESSED DISBELIEF THAT BOWDLER COULD HAVE VISITED EL SALVADD AT THIS CRITICAL TIME WITHOUT (A) CARRYING SOME MESSAGE FOR GOES AND/OR OTHER SECTORS OR (B) FORUMULATING USG POSITION ON CRISIS IN EL SSXVADOR, ADDING THAT THIS FACT IN ITSELF MIGHT HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO INCLINATION OF GOES AND MOST CONSERVATIVE ELEMENTS IN PRIVATE SECTOR TO ADOPT A HARDER LINE TOWARD OPPOSITION SECTORS ON ASSUMPTION THAT USG SATISFIED WITH PROGRES TOWARD DEMOCRATIC OPENING.

WHILE UNDER-STANDING OF THE PDC'S NEED TO ASSURE ITSELF OF A MORE VIABLE ELECTORAL CLIMATE AND OBTAIN A REDUCTION OF OFFICIAL VIOLENCE DIRECTED AGAINST NON-EXTREMIST SECTORS, SOURCE SAID THE PARTY HAS UNFORTUNATELY NOW ADOPTED A HARD AND INTRANSIGENT PUBLIC POSITION WHICH WILL COMPLICATE ANY POSSIBILITY OF PRIVATE NEGOTIATIONS WITH THE GOVERNMENT. IN THIS REGARD THE PDC'S PUBLIC PARTICIPATION AND STATEMENTS IN THE SO-CALLED POPULAR FORUM ON SEPT 20 WILL ONLY STRENGTHEN THE HADN OF PARTY CRITICS IN THE GOVERNMENT AND PRIVATE SECTOR WHO

SAME TIME, HOWEVER, HIS REFUSAL TO ENGAGE IN A SERIOUS, PRIVATE DIALOGUE WITH MODERATE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE OPPOSITION, THE CONTINUATION, IF NOT ESCALATION, OF OFFICIAL VIOLENCE, AND ROMERO'S RENEWED EMPHASIS ON COMBATTING SUBVERSION HAVE RAISED SERIOUS QUESTIONS ABOUT SINCERITY OF HIS INTENTIONS. IN ASSESSING REGIME'S POSTURE TOWARD THE ELECTORAL PROCESS, ONE SHOULD KEEP IN MIND THAT A GENUINE DEMOCRATIC OPENING WITH RELATIVELY UNFETTERED ELECTORAL PARTICIPATION BY THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND OTHER OPPOSITION GROUPS COULD WELL BE REGARDED BY THE CURRENT MILITARY LEADERSHIP AND THEIR CIVILIAN ALLIES IN ANEP AS MORE OF A THREAT TO THEIR POLITICAL SURVIVAL THAN THE POWERFUL BUT AS YET FRAGMENTED GROUPS ON THE EXTREME LEFT.

IF THEY GO TO ELECTIONS WITHOUT GREATER GOVERNMENT GUARANTEEBSN THEY FACE NOT ONLY THE POSSIBILITY OF ELECTORAL DEFEAT BUT -- EVEN MORE IMPORTANT -- A LOSS OF POPULAR SUPPORT WHICH WOULD UNDERMINE THEIR CREDIBILITY AND FUTURE POLITICAL INFLUENCE IF AND WHEN -- AS MANY NOW ASSUME -- THE ROMERO GOVERNMENT IS FORCED TO RELINQUISH POWER. CONFRONTED WITH THE CHOICE OF GOING TO ELECTIONS OR ABSTENTION, THE MIDDLE SECTORS ARE LIKELY TO DIVIDE WITH THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS AND OTHERS AS OF NOW LEANING TOWARD REJECTION OF THE PRESIDENT'S ZIECTORAL OFFER AND SHIFTING TO A WAIT-AND-SEE POSTURE FURTHER TO THE LEFT; WHILE OTHERS, OUT OF DESPERATION AND FEAR OF THE EXTREME LEFT, MAY EITHER DROP OUT OF POLITICS COMPLETELY OR THROW IN THEIR LOT WITH THE GOVERNMENT.

16. TO COMPLICATE THIS PICTURE STILL FURTHER, GROUPS ON THE EXTREME LEFT ARE GEARING UP FOR A RENEWED ASSAULT AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT AND WILL AMOST CERTAINLY MAKE EVERY EFFORT WITHIN THEIR POWER TO SABOTAGE AND PREVENT ELECTIONS, IRREGARDLESS OF OPPOSITION PARTICIPATION. TALK ABOUT A "POPULAR UPRISING" IN EARLY DECEMBER OR JANUARY MAY STILL BE PREMATURE BUT THERE IS LITTLE DOUBT THAT THE FAR LEFT IS GAINING STRENGTH AND IN SEVERAL MONTHS WILL PROBABLY BE ABLE TO CONFRONT THE GOVERNMENT WITH A FORMIDABLE CHALLENGE.

Sr. Mark Schneider
Deputy Assistant Secretary for Human Rights and Humanitarian Affairs
Department of State:

NOTHING

Nos dirigimos a Ud. a fin de que por su intermedio, el Departamento de Estado, tome conocimiento de la desaparición del ciudadano argentino Eduardo URRETAVIZCAYA.-

Eduardo URRETAVIZCAYA, fué Secretario General de la Federación Universitaria Argentina (FUA) en el año 1958, asesor laboral de diversos sindicatos argentinos, luchador por las libertades democráticas, y colaborador hasta el momento de su secuestro por de los organismos argentinos defensores de los derechos humanos en aquel país.-

El secuestro se produjo en la ciudad de Buenos Aires, el día 3 de septiembre de 1979, cuando transitaba por la vía pública, en horas del mediodía, 12.30 hs aproximadamente; siendo interceptado por varias personas vestidas de civil, fuertemente armadas, quienes lo introdujeron en un automóvil, partiendo luego con rumbo desconocido. A partir de ese momento no ha sido posible obtener noticia alguna sobre su paradero.-

Es de hacer notar que la desaparición de Eduardo URRETAVIZACAYA se produjo días antes de que se constituyera en la Argentina la Comisión Interamericana de Derechos Humanos de la Organización de Estados Americanos.-

Le infromamos asimisme que su esposa y dos hijos residen en Buenos Aires, pero se encuentran imposibilitados de emprender todo tipo de trámite con el objeto de obtener información sobre el paradero y estado de su esposo, debido a la situación imperante en la Argentina.-

A través de ésta, solicitamos respetuosamente que en

1. (U) JACOBO TIMERMAN WAS EXPELLED FROM ARGENTINA THE EVENING OF SEPTEMBER 25 BY THE MILITARY JUNTA IN ACCORDANCE WITH A DECREE WHICH ALSO STRIPPED HIM OF HIS ARGENTINE NATIONALITY. HE DEPARTED AT 1915 HOURS ON AEROLINEAS ARGENTINAS FLIGHT 116 TO ROME WITH A TRAVEL DOCUMENT BEARING AN ISRAELI VISA. TIMERMAN WAS DRIVEN TO THE DOWNTOWN BUENOS AIRES AIRPORT, AEROPARQUE, AND WAS THEN TRANSFERRED TO INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT EZEIZA BY HELICOPTER, WITH AN ADDITIONAL ESCORT HELICOPTER WHICH LANDED BESIDE THE AEROLINEAS 747 WHICH TIMERMAN IMMEDIATELY BOARDED. HE WAS REPORTEDLY ACCOMPANIED TO THE PLANE BY THE ISRAELI CHARGE. WIRE SERVICES REPORTED THAT TIMERMAN TELEPHONED HIS WIFE IN NEW YORK DURING THE FLIGHT'S STOPOVER IN RIO DE JANIERO AND THAT SHE WOULD BE JOINING HIM SHORTLY IN ISRAEL.

2. [redacted] DURING HIS INTERVIEW WITH AMBASSADOR CASTRO--WHICH WAS ALMOST SIMULTANEOUS WITH TIMERMAN'S BOARDING AIRCRAFT--GENERAL VIOLA STRESSED THAT THE EXPULSION DECISION HAD CREATED BITTER DIVISIONS WITHIN THE MILITARY AND HAD "CAUSED DEEP WOUNDS WHICH WOULD TAKE A LONG TIME TO HEAL." VIOLA SHOWED STRAIN AND ANXIETY FROM THE TENSE DISCUSSIONS PRECEDING THE JUNTA DECISION AND COMPLAINED THAT THE TIMING OF THE COURT'S DECISION COULD HARDLY HAVE BEEN WORSE. HE IMPLIED THAT THE HARD-LINERS HAD RESISTED THE DECISION BITTERLY AND THAT IT WOULD HAVE A POLITICAL IMPACT IN MANY OTHER AREAS. HE SAID THEY HAD EXPECTED A POSSIBLE ADVERSE DECISION EITHER WELL BEFORE THE IAHRC VISIT OR A MONTH AFTER, BUT THAT THE DECISION DURING THE VISIT TOGETHER WITH THE REVIVAL OF THE CAMPORA ASYLUM ISSUE HAD SERIOUSLY OVERLOADED THE MILITARY'S CIRCUITS. HE VOLUNTEERED THAT THE CAMPORA DECISION WOULD BE EVEN MORE DIFFICULT AND HE DID NOT KNOW HOW THAT WOULD TURN OUT.

3. (U) GOA CERTAINLY COMPLIED WITH ITS PROMISE TO PROVIDE TIMERMAN BEST PROTECTION. HIS MANNER OF TRAVEL TO THE AIRPORT IS USUALLY RESERVED FOR VISITING CHIEFS OF STATE. THE SUPREME COURT PUBLISHED ITS DECISION IN THE TIMERMAN CASE ON SEPTEMBER 25. DECISION WILL BE SUBJECT OF SEPARATE REPORT. DETAILS OF OTHER SUBJECTS DISCUSSED BY SEPTELS.

Dear Mark:

I enclose for your information a note of those cases of disappearance which we have had reported to us from Argentina for the period 1st of August to 16th of September 1979. Since this was the time immediately before and during the visit of the Inter American Commission of Human Rights it has particular significance.

Good wishes,

Yours,

Amnesty International is a worldwide human rights movement which works impartially for the release of prisoners of conscience, men and women detained anywhere for their beliefs, color, ethnic origin, sex, religion or language, provided they have neither used nor advocated violence. Amnesty International opposes torture and the death penalty in all cases without reservation and advocates fair and prompt trials for all political prisoners. Amnesty International is independent of all governments, political factions, ideologies, economic interests and religious creeds. It has consultative status with the United Nations (ECOSOC), UNESCO and the Council of Europe, has cooperative relations with the Organization of African Unity (Bureau for the Placement and Education of African Refugees). Amnesty International was the recipient of the 1977 Nobel Prize for Peace.

Dear Claus:

Tuesday night was Timerman's despedida. When General Viola told the Ambassador about Timerman's departure, he asked what they would have to discuss in the future since Timerman had always been topic number one on the Ambassador's list. In the Embassy we are wondering how Marshall Meyer will occupy himself, since he had tended to neglect his congregation in favor of Timerman. [redacted]

B6

The really interesting developments in Argentina will be in the military politics of the next month or so. We still do not know what to make of recent developments such as the Supreme Court decision, the IAHRC visit, the disappearances, and the elimination of Mendizabal and Croatta. The Ambassador said General Viola was unusually anxious during the meeting on September 25 and said he simply did not know how the military would sort itself out. We were all hoping that the Commission visit would come to symbolize a major milepost in this government's transition to normality. That still may be the case, but the shocks of the past week may instead have unsettled military politics and strengthened the blindly reactionary hardliners. Viola implies as much and others suggest that the disposal of the two Montoneros will simply serve to confirm the view of the hardliners that their counterterrorist tactics have been the correct ones. We hope the military reach some consensus about the current situation before Patt's testimony on October 18.

Since dictating the above, the bombing of the Klein house has occurred, and that may well be a response of one sector of the military to recent events. We also note that yesterday the GOA felt called upon to formally deny a Clarin story which implied that Videla had made a commitment to Andres Aguilar to free Timerman, or that Pastor had discussed human rights with the Secretary in New York. To this we add press reports that Videla imposed the decision to free Timerman on the Generals by a threat to resign. In our discussion of all this at the meeting this morning, the Ambassador reemphasized that Viola was deadly serious when he said on Tuesday that the military was in serious disarray and he didn't know how matters would turn out. At the moment, military politics seem to be taking an ominous turn.

We have had only a glance at the enclosure to your letter which described a secret camp identified as Olimpio. The Political Section will try to determine if it is a new location. The other location was well known and has been destroyed. The Commission reportedly made two unprogrammed visits to sites which were presumed to have been secret prisons, but we have no report on the details.

We follow the process you describe as the erosion of safeguards with considerable interest. As you know, we have always felt that the emphasis on deferring reprocessing was made at a potential risk to full scope safeguards. We hope the discussions in Switzerland are productive.

Sincerely,

Maxwell Chaplin

ARGENTINA: TIMERMAN'S RELEASE

Q. Do you have any comment on Jacobo Timerman's release from house arrest and expulsion from Argentina?

A. As you know, Mr. Timerman's case has been the subject of considerable interest and concern in this country. We are pleased that the Government of Argentina has released Mr. Timerman and has allowed him to join his family in Israel.

Q. Do you know why Mr. Timerman was released at this time?

A. We understand that the Argentine Supreme Court recently found in Mr. Timerman's favor when his case was taken before it. We assume that his release was a result of the actions of the Court. If so, the functioning of the Argentine judiciary now in this case may be a positive signal for the future. At the same time, is to be regretted that he had to endure prison and detention for two and one-half years.

Q. How does the release of Timerman affect U.S. policy toward Argentina?

A. The release of Timerman is [redacted] a positive action. At the same time, we continue to be concerned about the human rights situation in Argentina, such as the remaining political prisoners and the thousands who have disappeared.

3. POLITICAL GOSSIP AND PRESS ARE NOW TAKING FOR GRANTED THAT A JUNTA DECISION HAS BEEN MADE TO EXPEL TIMERMAN AND CANCEL HIS ARGENTINE NATIONALITY. OUR ESTIMATE IS THAT IF IN FACT THIS IS NOT THE CASE, THE MEDIA AND MILITARY OPINION ARE BEING MANIPULATED TO MAKE SUCH A DECISION EASIER.

4. IN A DISCUSSION WITH RABBI MEYER THIS AFTERNOON I INFORMED HIM OF DEPARTMENT'S POLICY RE REFUGE AND AGAIN REASSURED THAT I THOUGHT POSSIBILITY OF TIMERMAN'S BEING LEFT UNPROTECTED IN BUENOS AIRES WAS EXTREMELY UNLIKELY. IT WOULD MAKE NO SENSE FOR MODERATES IN GOA TO FORCE THE ISSUE OF HIS RELEASE AND THEN FURTHER BLACKEN COUNTRY'S IMAGE BY PERMITTING HIS DEATH OR DISAPPEARANCE.

8. MEETING ENDED ON RATHER SOMBER TONE WITH PROMISE OF A SUBSEQUENT MEETING ONCE DEMANDS FOR RELEASE OF U.S. CAPTIVES WERE KNOWN.

9. COMMENT: ISCE OFFICIALS ARE CLEARLY CONCERNED THAT KIDNAPPING OF U.S. BUSINESSMEN EMPLOYED ON ZONA FRANCE MAY SPELL BEGINNING OF END FOR SAN BARTOLO SINCE, ON ONE HAND, CONSTITUENT FIRMS ARE NOW CONVINCED THAT THEY ARE PRIME TERRORIST TARGETS AND SEVERAL ARE MAKING NO SECRET THAT PLANS FOR ALTERNATIVE PLANT SITES IN OTHER COUNTRIES ARE EITHERACTIVELY UNDERWAY OR BEING DUSTED OFF, AND ON OTHER HAND, PROSPECTIVE NEW INVESTORS FOR SAME REASON LIKELY TO BECOME INCREASINGLY SCARCE.

2. THE NEWS THAT JACOBO TIMERMAN HAS BEEN RELEASED AND PERMITTED TO JOIN HIS FAMILY IN ISRAEL IS MOST WELCOME. HIS CASE WAS SEEN AS A SYMBOL OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES OF THE GOA IN THE UNITED STATES AND ELSEWHERE AROUND THE WORLD. WE CAN HOPE THAT HIS RELEASE WILL MARK A SIGNIFICANT STEP IN ARGENTINA'S JOURNEY BACK TO GENERAL RESPECT FOR BASIC HUMAN RIGHTS AND THE RULE OF LAW.

3. I WOULD LIKE TO EXPRESS TO YOU MY PERSONAL APPRECIATION FOR THE EFFORTS THAT YOU HAVE MADE WITH THE GOA TO SECURE MR. TIMERMAN'S RELEASE. I AM SURE THAT THE STRONG REPRESENTATIONS THAT YOU HAVE MADE TO THE LEADERSHIP OF THE GOA WEIGHED VERY HEAVILY ON MR. TIMERMAN'S SIDE WHEN THE DECISION WAS MADE FOR HIS RELEASE. VANCE

1. FOLLOWING WAS GUIDANCE PREPARED ON CONTINGENCY BASIS FOR PRESS BRIEFING SEPTEMBER 28. QUOTE:

Q. HAS THERE BEEN ANY OFFICIAL REACTION TO THE TERRORIST ATTACK ON THE HOME OF ARGENTINE SECRETARY OF PLANNING GUILLERMO WALTER KLEIN?

A. YES, THE U.S. GOVERNMENT DEPLORES AND CONDEMNS SUCH VIOLENCE. IT SEES NO JUSTIFICATION FOR IT, WHATEVER ITS SOURCE, AND PARTICULARLY IT REGRETS THAT TWO GUARDS WERE KILLED AND MEMBERS OF KLEIN'S FAMILY WERE INJURED IN THE ATTACK ON DR. KLEIN'S HOME. DR. KLEIN HAS MANY FRIENDS IN THIS COUNTRY AND IN THE INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL COMMUNITY. A MESSAGE HAS BEEN SENT TO DR. KLEIN -DEEPLY REGRETTING THE ATTACK ON HIS HOME AND THE INJURIES TO DR. KLEIN AND HIS FAMILY.
Q. WHO SIGNED THE MESSAGE FROM STATE?

A. MR. JOHN BUSHNELL, DEPUTY ASSISTANT SECRETARY OF INTER-AMERICAN AFFAIRS. VANCE

E.O. 12065 GDS 9-28-85 (FREEMAN, ANTHONY G.) OR-P
TAGS PGOV, AR
SUBJECT [redacted] DIVISIONS IN THE MILITARY

REF: BUENOS AIRES 7963

1. [redacted] SUMMARY: WE SEE SEVERAL REASONS FOR THE DEEP CONCERN GENERAL VIOLA EXPRESSED TO THE AMBASSADOR WHEN THEY MET SEPTEMBER 25 (REFTEL). ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS, TIMERMAN WAS RELEASED OVER THE OBJECTIONS OF A NUBER OF SENIOR ARMY GENERALS, LENDING SUBSTANCE TO VIOLA'S ASSERTION THAT THE TIMERMAN EXPULSION HAD DANGEROUSLY DIVIDED THE ARMY. THE TIMERMAN DEBACLE ALONG WITH OTHER DRAMATIC EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK, INCLUDING THE DISCOVERY AND ELIMINATION OF TWO TOP MONTONERO LEADERS AND THE ATTACK ON THE RESIDENCE OF ECONOMY SECRETARY KLEIN, COULD UPSET VIOLA'S REPORTED PLANS TO NAME GENERAL GALTIERI AS ARMY COMMANDER AND RETIRE FROM THE ARMY IN DECEMBER 1979 AS THE FIRST STEP TOWARDS HAVING HIMSELF NAMED PRESIDENT-DESIGNATE NEXT YEAR. END SUMMARY.

2. (U) THE BUENOS AIRES HERALD SEPTEMBER 27 CARRIED A NOTICIAS ARGENTINAS NEWS AGENCY REPORT THAT THE GOA DECISION TO FREE JACOBO TIMERMAN IN COMPLIANCE WITH A SUPREME COURT RULING WAS MADE OVER THE OBJECTIONS OF A NUMBER OF SENIOR ARMY GENERALS. ACCORDING TO THE HERALD'S RENTION OF THE NEWS AGENCYS REPORT, SIX OF THE NINE MOST SENIOR ARMY GENERALS VOTED AGIANST COMPLYING WITH THE SUPREME COURT RULING, TRANSMITTING THIS OPINION TO ARMY COMMANDER GENERAL VIOLA ON SEPTEMBER 24. PRESIDENT VIDELA'S REACTION REPORTEDLY WAS TO THREATEN TO RESIGN FROM OFFICE IF THE JUNTA, RESPONDING TO THE GENERAL'S OPOINION, REFUSED TO COMPLY WITH THE SUPREME COURT ORDER, VIDELA TAKING THE POSITION THAT ONE OF THE COMMITMENTS OF THE ARMED FORCES WHEN THEY ASSUMED POWER IN 1976 WAS TO RESPECT THE DECISIONS OF THE COURTS. ACCORDING TO THE STORY, THE JUSTICE MINISTER AND ALL FIVE MEMBERS OF THE SUPREME COURT ALSO PLANNED TO RESIGN.) IN THE FOLLOWING DAY, AFTER AN UNUSUAL 6:30 AM MEETING OF THE ARMY COMMAND BETWEEN PRESIDENT VIDELA AND GENERAL VIOLA, THE LATTER, PRESUMABLY AFTER BRIEFING ARMY GENERALS ON THE PRESIDENT'S REACTION, ASKED THE GENERALS AGAIN FOR THEIR OPINIONS. THIS TIME ONLY TWO OPPOSED THE FREEING OF TIMERMAN PROVIDING HE WAS STRIPPED OF HIS CITIZENSHIP AND EXPELLED FROM THE COUNTRY. IT WAS THEN THAT TIMERMAN WAS WHISKED AWAY TO THE AIRPORT AND PLACED ON A FLIGHT TO ISRAEL.

3. [redacted] THIS REPORT PROVIDES FURTHER SUBSTANCE TO GENERAL VIOLA'S COMMENTARY TO THE AMBASSADOR (REFTEL) EXPRESSING THAT THE TIMERMAN EXPULSION DECISION HAD CREATED BITTER DIVISIONS WITHIN THE MILITARY WHICH COULD TAKE A LONG TIME TO HEAL, IMPLYING THAT THERE COULD BE ADVERSE IMPACT ON OTHER POLICITAL DECISIONS. ONE OF THE MORE IMMEDIATE ISSUES IS WHAT TO DO ABOUT FORMER PRESIDENT HECTOR CAMPORA. (ACCORDING TO ONE REPORT CITING INFORMED SOURCES, THE GOVERNMENT WILL GRANT CAMPORA SAFE CONDUCT TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY WHEN IT HAS BEEN CONFIRMED THAT CAMPORA HAS CANCER. A BIOPSY REPORTEDLY CAN BE MADE WITHOUT CAMPORA'S LEAVING MEXICAN EMBASSY PRECINCTS.)

4. (U) A WEIGHTIER DECISION TO BE MADE IN TERMS OF THE FUTURE DIRECTION OF THE MILITARY GOVERNMENT, HOWEVER, RELATED TO THE VIOLA SUCCESSION ISSUE. IT HAS BEEN SEMI-OFFICIALLY STATED FOR LONG THAT VIOLA WOULD NAME HIS SUCCESSOR AND RETIRE FROM THE ARMY IN DECEMBER 1979, AND THE BE DESIGNATED BY THE JUNTA AROUND SEPTEMBER 1980 TO SUCCEED PRESIDENT VIDELA AT THE END OF THE LATTER'S MANDATE IN MARCH 1981. VIOLA ISSUED A STATEMENT ON AUGUST 30 IN TUCUMAN CONFIRMING THAT "IN PRINCIPLE" HE PLANNED TO RETIRE AT THE END OF THIS YEAR AND ADMITTING THE POSSIBILITY THAT HE WOULD SUCCEED VIDELA. HOWEVER, IN THAT STATEMENT VIOLA ACKNOWLEDGED SOMETHING COULD ALWAYS HAPPEN TO MODIFY HIS RETIREMENT PLANS. HE GVE NO EXMALES OF WHAT MIGHT UPSET HIS PLANS, BUT THE CONTEXT IN WHICH HE MADE THIS STATEMENT SUGGESTED TO SOME HE WAS THINKING PARTICULARLY OF THE BEAGLE CHANNEL PRLBME OR PERPAHS THE POSSIBILITY OF LABOR UNREST.

5. [redacted] ON THAT SAME DAY, PRESIDENT VIDELA, SPEAKING IN ROSARIO TOLD THE LOCAL GRAIN BOARD THAT HE WOULD GOVERN "WITHOUT DIMINUTION OF VIGOR" UNTIL 1981, AND IN A PRESS CONFERENCE STATED THAT HE HAD NO INTENTION OF CHANGING THE GOERNEMTN'S ECONOMIC POLICIES. THE CONTEXT IN WHICH THAT STATEMENT WAS MADE SUGGESTED THAT IT WAS INTENDED TO SCOTCH A RUMOR CAMPAIGN THAT VIOLA, INFLUENCED BY PRESSURES FROM SUAREZ MASON AND ALLEGEDLY FED UP WITH THE INABILITY OF THE GOVERNMENT TO SOLVE THE INFLATION AND RELATED ECONOMIC PROBLEMS, WAS CONTEMPLATING THE POSSIBILITY OF ASKING VIDELA TO STEP DOWN BEFORE THE END OF HIS TERM OF OFFICE, MAKING HIMSELF PRESIDENT IN VIDELA'S TEAD, AND FORCING THE RESIGNATION OF ECONOMY MINISTER MARTINEZ DE HOZ (SEE BUENOS AIRES 6112). ANOTHER FACTOR FEEDING SPECULATION ABOUT A VIOLA PRESIDENCY EARLER THAN MARCH 1981 IS THE REALIZATION THAT SOLDIERS WHO RESIGN FROM THE MILITARY WITH THE INTENTION OF SEEKING HIGHER POLITICAL OFFICE USUALLY FIND THAT THEIR PRESIDENTIAL PROSPECTS DWINDLE RAPIDLY AFTER THEY TAKE OFF THEIR UNIFORMS. ECOGNIZED HE COULD NOT AFFORD TO STEP INTO CIVILIAN

ND POSSIBLY AN EXPANSION OF THE TARGETS) BUT ALSO THE

LICIES. THESE CONTRASTING SCENARIOS ARE EXAGGERATED
OUR VIEW, BUT THEY REPRESENT (TO SOME DEGREE SELF-TERESTED) NOTIONS WHIC CIRCULATE AMONG POLITICAL RTY AND JOURNALIST SOURCES.

[redacted] IT SEEMS TO US NOW MORE LIKELY THAT SUAREZ SON, FACED WITH THE LIKELIHOOD THAT GALTIERI WAS OLA'S HAND PICKED SUCCESSOR, WILL TRY TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF ANY OPPORTUNITY BETWEEN NOW AND THE END OF THE YAEAR TO UPSET VIOLA'SGAME PLAN, INCLUDING A NEW OUTBREAK OF LABOR UNREST OR AHEATING UP THE BEAGLE CHANNEL
DISPUTE. THE DRAMATIC EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK, OR SO, INCLUDING THEVISIT OF THE INTER-AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS

MONTONERO LEADERS IN THE COUNTRY, THE TOUGH TEITMERMAN
DECISION AND NOW THE ARMED ATTACK BY UNIDENTIFIED
ASSAILANTS ON THE HOUSE OF MARTINEZ DE HOZ'S RIGHT-HAND MA, GUILLRMO WALTER KLEIN, JR., ARE JUST THE RIGHT ELEMENTS FOR UNSETTLING THE UNEASY BALANCE IN THE ARMY AND CREATING A CHANGED GAME BOARD ON WHICH VIOLA MUST NOW PLAN NEW STRATEGY.

1. [redacted] TIMERMAN FREED---
AFTER WHAT APPEARS TO HAVE BEEN WRENCHING AND FIFFICULT DELIVERATIONS BY THE JUNAT AND THE MILITARY, THE GOA ACCEPTED THE SUPREME COURT DECISION AND RELEASED JACOBO TIMERMAN SEPTEMBER 25 (SEPTELS). STRIPPED OF HIS CITIZENSHIP, HE WAS EXPELLED TO ISRAEL BY JUNTA ORDER. THE JUNTA HAS ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT FORMER PRESIDENT HECTOR CAMPORA--NOW IN ASYLUM AT THE MEXICAN EMBASSY--MAY ALSO BE EXPELLED FROM THE COUNTRY IF TESTS SHOW THAT HE NEEDS MEDICAL TREATEMENT ABROAD, THOUGH THIS IS FAR FROM CERTAIN. TIMERMAN'S LIBERATION IS A POSITIVE STEP, PARTICULARLY BECAUSE VIDELA AND VIOLA WERE ABLE TO CARRY THE DAY AGAINST WHAT APPARENTLY WAS DIEHARD RESISTANCE BY HARDLINERS WHO WANTED TO DEFY THE SUPREME COURT. THE AMPLE PRESS COVERAGE OF THE EVENTS LEADING UP TO THE TIMERMAN RELEASE, EVEN INCLUDING DETAILED REPORTS OF THE DIFFERENCES AMONG THE NATION'S TOP MILITARY MEN, ILLUSTRATED THE EXPANDING BOUNDS OF PRESS FREEDOM HERE. ON THE OTHER HAND, THOSE WHO OPPOSED VIDELA AND VIOLA ARE BOWED BUT NOT DEFEATED AND WILL BE LOOKING FOR THEIR CHANCE TO COME BACK.

2. (U) TERRORISTS STRIKE--
A GROUP OF 10-12 ARMED PERSONS ATTACKED THE RESIDENCE OF THE MINISTRY OF ECONOMY'S SECRETARY OF PLANNING AND COORDINATION, GUILLERMO WALTER KLEIN, SEPTERMBER 27 (SEPTELS). IN A WELL-COORDINATED AND PLANNED ATTACK THEY KILLED TWO GURADS AT THE HOUSE BEFORE BLOWING IT UP WITH THE ENTIRE KLEIN FAMILY (FATHER, MOTHER AND FOUR CHILDREN) IN IT. IN WHAT IS BEING REASONABLY DESCRIBED AS A MIRACLE, NONE OF THE KLEINS WERE SERIOUSLY HURT ALTHOUGH THE HOME WAS COMPLETELY DESTROYED. SUB-
[redacted]

SEQUENTLY, A GROUP IDENTIFYING ITSELF AS THE "HORACIO MENDIZABAL COMMAND" OF THE MONTONERO PARTY CLAIMED RESPONSIBILITY FOR THIS CRIME.

3. [redacted] JUNTA MEMBER DECLARES WAR STILL ON--
AIR FORCE COMMANDER AND JUNTA MEMBER, GENERAL OMAR GRAFFIGNA ANNOUNCED THAT "THE WAR HAS NOT ENDED" IN A SEPTEMBER 24 SPEECH. GRAFFIGNA STATED THAT GHOUGH THE ENEMY-MARXIST TERRORISM AND SUBVERSION-- HAD BEEN DE-

UNCLASSIFIED

FEATED IN COMBAT, "THE WAR CONTINUES" AND THE ENEMY CAN NOW BE EXPECTED TO "CHANGE TACTICS AND TERRAIN. IT WILL APPEAR TO BE IN RETREAT.... BUT WILL TRY TO INFILTRATE IN THE CLASSROOMS, IN THE UNIVERSITIES, IN INTERMDEDIARY ORGANIZATIONS, IN ALL THE AREAS OF NATIONAL LIFE THAT IT ONCE USED AS A BASE FOR ITS NATIONAL CAMPAIGN...." IN HIS SPEECH, WHICH ECHOES HARDLINE THINKING HERE, GRAFFIGNA ALSO DECLARED THAT ARGENTINA HAD ACUTALLY WON THE "UNDECLARED" THIRD WORLD WAR IN OVERCOMING THE TERRORISTS, ALLOWING THE NATION TO RESUME ITS RIGHTFUL PLACE AS THE "WEST'S RESERVE IN THE EXTREME SOUTH." IN WHAT IS A NEW DEPARTURE FOR THE REGIME'S PUBLIC DISCOURSE, GRAFFIGNA ALSO STATED THAT "LIBERTY, IN THE AMERICAS IS INDIVISIBLE... WE WILL NOT ALLOW ANY SISTER NATION TO FALL UNDER THE ENSLAVING YOKE (OF MARXISM) .... WE ACCEPT OUR RESPONSIBILITY IN DEFENSE OF COUNTRIES THREATENED BY THE COLLECTIVIST MENACE."

4. [redacted] THE GOA DEFENDS ITSELF OVER IAHRC VISIT---
"ARGENTINES ONLY CONFESS TO GOD," MINISTER OF INTERIOR GENERAL ALBANO HARGUINDEGUY TOLD THE NATION IN A NATIONAL RADIO AND TELEVISION ADDRES SEPTEMBER 21 DEALING WITH THE VISIT OF THE INTER-AMERIVAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (IAHRC). THE MINISTER ASSERTED THAT THE "LIES ABOUT ARGENTINA" WERE "DISPROVEN FOREVER" BY WHAT THE COMMISSION SAW AND HEARD DURING THEIR VISIT HERE. HE STOUTLY ASSERTED THAT THE GOA HAD NOT CONFESSED TO ANYONE BE-
[redacted]
[redacted]

CAUSE IT HAD NOTHING TO CONFESS. HARGUINDEGUY'S RADIO AND TELEVISION ADDRESS WAS DEFENSIVE ABOUT THE GOA'S DECISION TO INVITE THE IAHRC TO ARGENTINA AND, AS SUCH, WOULD SEEM TO REFLECT A READING BY THE GOA THAT THE COMMISSION'S VISIT DID NOT SIT WELL WITH MANY ARGENTINES.

. [redacted] REACTION OF THE IAHRC---
A SOURCE IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS MOVEMENT WHO SPENT A GOOD DEAL OF TIME WITH THE MEMBERS OF THE IAHRC TOLD AN EMBASSY OFFICER THAT COMMISSION DEPARTED ARGENTINA WITH AT LEAST FOUR CONCLUSIONS:

A) THAT TERRORIST VIOLENCE HAD ACHIEVED MUCH LARGER

B) THAT THE MILITARY'S RESPONSE TO THE TERRORIST THREAT WAS EMBODIED IN A SORT OF DOCTRINE OF REPRESSION.
UNDER THIS DOCTRINE THE TERRORISTS WERE ELIMINATED BUT AT THE SAME TIME WIDESPREAD HUMAN RIFHTS ABUSES TOOK

C) VERY FEW OF THE DISAPPEARED ARE STILL ALIVE--THERE ARE NO SIGNIFICANT CLANDESTINE CAMPS;
D) THAT THE MIDDLE AND UPPER CLASSES SUPPORTED WHAT THE

6. [redacted] THE DISAPPEARED---
OUR RECORDS NOW SHOW A TOTAL OF 13 PEOPLE WHO HAVE DISAPPEARED SINCE AUGUST 1 AND NOT REAPPEARED. THREE OF THESE UNEXPLAINED DISAPPEARANCES TOOK PLACE IN SEPTEMBER, INCLUDING THE MURKY CASE OF REGINO GONZALEZ. GONZALES' FAMILY DISAPPEARED SEPTEMBER 13 ONLY TO BE SURFACED A WEEK LATER BY SECURTIY SERVICES, WHEN THE CHILDREN WERE RELEASED AND IT WAS ANNOUNCED THAT MRS. GONZALES WAS BEING HELD IN CUSTODY. GONZALES REPORTEDLY WAS NOT AT HOME WHEN THE FAMILY WAS SEIZED, BUT HIS RELATIVES ASSUME HE WAS TAKEN ELSEWHERE SINCE HE WAS MISSING. THERE IS ONE REPORT THAT HE IS INDEED IN CUSTODY, AND ANOTHER THAT HE IS DEA. ON SEPTEMBER 25, FIVE AFRICAN LIBERARTION ORGANIZATIONS DEMANDED HIS RELEASE, ACCORDING TO PRESS REPORTS OUT OF DAR ES SALAAM, STATING HE HAD BEEN THE MONTONERO LIAISON WITH THEM.

7. [redacted] WE CONTINUE TO RECEIVE REPORTS THAT THE TEN PEOPLE DISAPPEARED IN AUGUST ARE STILL ALIVE AND PROBABLY CONNECTED WITH AN UDERGROUND CELL OF "FAP" ("FUERZAS ARMADAS PERONISTAS"), A TERRORIST GROUP ACTIVE IN THE EARLY 1970'S. [redacted] ADDED [redacted] "FAP" DETAINEES ARE BEING HELD IN THE CAMPO DE MAYO MILITARY BASE AWAITING TRIAL BY A SECRET MILITARY TRIBUNAL. INTERESTINGLY, A MOTHER OF ONE OF THE DISAPPEARED WHOSE FAMILY IS WELL CONNECTED TOLD US SEPTEMBER 21 THAT SHE HAD [redacted]

HEARD, WITHOUT BEING BALE TO CONFIRM IT, THAT HER SON WAS BEING HELD IN CAMPO DE MAYO.

8. [redacted] FOR THE YEAR AS A WHOLE WE NOW HAVE 35 SUBSTANTIAL REPORTS OF UNEXPLAINED DISAPPEARANCES.

9. (U) BITTEL LET GO BY ONE JUDGE--
ONE OF THE TWO FEDERAL JUDGES INVESTIGATING THE ANTI-

Summary Points Regarding Supreme Court Panel Decision on U.S. Extradition Request For Murder of Orlando Letelier

1. Court ruled inadmissable, and therefore refused to consider, the following evidence:

-- Plea bargained testimony (i.e., Michael Townley's statements after plea bargaining agreement with U.S. prosecutors)

Comment: We argued plea bargaining concept is recognized in numerous Chilean criminal statutes (reduced penalties or immunity for confessing or informing on others). The Court made no reference to this point in its decision.

-- Townley's pre-plea bargained statement before General Orozco, on grounds that Orozco (responsible for military investigation in Chile) was not authorized to act outside Chilean territory.

Comment: The Court did not directly rule this statement was inadmissable, but rather by implication in its criticism of General Orozco.

-- All evidence produced from activities from U.S. officials including Gene Propper in Chile, on grounds that such activity was an infringment of Chilean Sovereignty. In the same vein the Court criticized

4. Despite 3, above, the Court said there was no basis for an investigation of the murder (which requires only "suspicions" to initiate), overruling this part of Judge Borquez' decision, and stated further that initiation of any such investigation would have to be based on new evidence (Paragraph 178).

Comment: The Court here kills any realistic investigation by concluding that none of the U.S. evidence raises a suspicion as to any of the three defendants.

SUBJECT: Outside Assistance To Guerrillas in El Salvador

REF: Your request of September 27

Encouraged and stimulated by the FSLN victory in Nicaragua, El Salvador's extreme leftist guerrillas are increasingly aggressive. Some reports predict they will mount a major effort to seize power by early 1980. In the meantime, their demonstrated capability to carry out well-coordinated hit and run attacks on police stations and to conduct operations of a similar level of difficulty reveal a rising level of confidence and skill.

Reports from fairly reliable [redacted] sources support A5 the estimate that something more than 2,000 guerrillas who have received some training are available for combat in El Salvador at present. At least one or two hundred, possibly more, have been trained in Cuba, after which they trained others in El Salvador. Four or five hundred have been trained in Nicaragua, have fought there at the side of the FSLN, or both. The level and quality of training is probably uneven but equal to that of Nicaragua's FSLN core guerrillas in, say, late 1978.

In early September of this year, reports indicated that the guerrilla leaders in El Salvador were concerned over their inadequate stock of arms and materiel. They expected, however, to receive a substantial shipment by the end of the month. The guerrillas have, in fact, stepped up their attacks on National Guard (GN) posts in recent days, but the rather scanty evidence thus far available on the types of arms employed in these attacks suggests that stocks remain relatively small. Some of the arms reported could quite possibly have reached the guerrillas from Nicaragua or Cuba, though this cannot yet be definitely established. There had been earlier reports of Cuban efforts to arrange a channel for air delivery of arms to El Salvador from Costa Rica, but the results of these efforts are so far unknown.

In summary, the evidence now available indicates the following.

--A substantial number of trained guerrillas are available for combat in El Salvador--more, for example, than were estimated to be available to the FSLN leadership as late as spring of 1979.

--Arms and supplies to equip these guerrillas are probably still insufficient to permit a major, prolonged effort.

--Sufficient materiel may be on hand, however, to support a campaign of harassment against the Salvadoran security forces, providing at the same time combat experience to the guerrillas.

--Credible reports indicate that arms shipments have been expected during the past month.

--Given the stock of weaponry which could be made available to the Salvadoran rebels through Nicaraguan and/or Cuban channels, and in light of the experience of the FSLN arms supply effort in Nicaragua, arming the Salvadorans should not present major difficulties or entail significant delay once a firm decision to do so is made by the prospective donors. Background

Before 1978, Cuban help to Salvadoran insurgents was modest in nature and volume, consisting mainly of some training opportunities in Cuba, nominal financial support on occasion, encouragement and advice. During that period, as later, Cuban advice to the insurgent groups was invariably to work, along with the Communist Party of El Salvador (PCES), toward unification. (S/[redacted] A5

Spurred by increasing radicalization and polarization within El Salvador and stimulated by the example of the FSLN triumph in Nicaragua, Salvador's leftist extremists have now stepped up their activity. They have continued their strong ties with Cuba and are clearly receiving more assistance than before. The bulk of Cuban help has gone to the Popular Liberation Forces (FPL), but some attention is also devoted to the Armed Forces of National Resistance (FARN), the People's Revolutionary Army (ERP), and the PCES. (S/[redacted] A5

The Salvadoran insurgents have also strengthened their contact with Marxist groups elsewhere in Central America and have received some support from like-minded groups. They have sought the support of the Mexican Communist Party (PCM) as well as that of the ruling PRI party. There have been indications that Panama's Torrijos has maintained at least indirect links with the Salvadoran extremists, though we have seen no significant evidence that he is providing any assistance or encouragement to them. Finally, the Communist Party of the Soviet Union has reportedly given its (moral) support to the PCES in its decision to engage in armed struggle. (S/[redacted] A5

Training Assistance: Trained Salvadoran guerrillas now available for action probably number more than 2,000.

--A [redacted] source reported in August 1979 that 100 FPL members had trained in Cuba during the past year and later trained 1,000 FPL and Popular Revolutionary Bloc (BPR) members in El Salvador. Some 700 additional members were to complete the six-week course in late September, when still another group of some 450 members trained in Nicaragua was expected to return to El Salvador. (S/[redacted] A5 A5

--A [redacted] in early September quoted information received from [redacted] diplomat to the effect that Guatemalan and Salvadoran subversive groups had "joined forces", though El Salvador's insurgency was given precedence. They were to receive training, beginning in late September, in guerrilla campsbeing set up in Costa Rica. (S/[redacted] A5 A5

--The PCES decided last April to give military training to some 200 of its followers, some of whom were then in Nicaragua. (S/[redacted] A5

--A source [redacted] reported in August that Costa Rican Communist Party (PVP) members were assigned to give "technical advice" to the PCES. (S/[redacted] A5 A5

--A [redacted] source reported the arrival in El Salvador during late July of an Ethiopian arms and guerrilla warfare expert to provide advanced instruction to FPL members. (S/[redacted] A5 A5

[redacted] A5

The nature and effectiveness of the training evidently being given over the past year is not known. It must be assumed, however, that the instruction equals, and may be identical with, that given the Nicaraguan FSLN at an earlier period. (C)

Arms Supply: By the end of September, there were strong indications that shipments of arms to the guerrillas from abroad were in the offing but no adequate flow of arms and materiel had yet been established. (C)

--A [redacted] reported in August that the FPL leaders were concerned over the lack of arms, with only 1,300 weapons on hand. They expected a large shipment, however, from the FSLN in mid-September. The same source, perhaps referring to the same shipment, had earlier reported that 4,000 rifles were expected by the FPL. (S/[redacted] A5 A5

--A source [redacted] reported in May receipt by the ERP from Guatemala guerrillas of "significant quantities" of plastic explosive. A5

--Reports received from [redacted] sources by the DAO in San Salvador in late September indicate that guerrillas were using in attacks on National Guard (GN) posts "bazooka-type weapons" (possibly an anti-tank grenade fired from a Chinese Communist-manufactured launcher), German G-3 rifles (used by El Salvador's GN), Galil rifles (a type used by some members of Nicaragua's former National Guard, now presumably in FSLN hands), and FAL rifles. Other weapons were ill-assorted--pistols, shotguns, hand grenades. (C) A5

--A source [redacted] reported in July and August on efforts by [redacted] to arrange for possible air delivery of weapons from Costa Rica to leftist-extremist groups in El Salvador. (S/[redacted] A5 A5

Other Sources and Forms of Assistance

One report [redacted] indicated that the so-called Simon Bolivar International Brigade is involved as liaison between the FPL and Guatemalan insurgent groups. Some members of this group, made up of guerrillas of various nationalities who fought with the FSLN, remain in Nicaragua. The exact form of assistance they might provide to the FPL is unclear. (S/[redacted] A5 A5

A [redacted] source reported in late September A5
on meetings between Salvadoran revolutionaries and Mexican Communist Party (PCM) members. Agreement was reached whereby the PCM would help to raise funds in Mexico to aid the rebel cause in El Salvador, carry out an extensive propaganda campaign on the rebels behalf, and denounce the present government of El Salvador and US companies doing business there. Some training (primarily ideological) was also to be offered to Salvadoran guerrillas. The Salvadoran emissaries were also reported to have had some contact with representatives of the ruling party, the PRI. (S/[redacted] A5

One form of support may, in a sense, be inferred--that of tactical advice to Salvadoran guerrillas. A marked flare-up in guerrilla activity during reported in late September strongly suggests the influence of Cuban or Nicaraguan training and advice. A series of attacks on police stations followed a pattern and were quite similar in technique to operations carried out by the FSLN at one stage during the struggle against Somoza. Attacks were relatively brief and, of course, inconclusive, but probably highly effective as a method of harassment against the GN. In one case, the guerrillas dressed in pseudo-military uniforms, reminiscent of the FSLN guerrillas' disguise as Nicaraguan National Guardsmen when they seized the National Palace in Managua in mid-1978. SUMMARY. On August 4, Catholic priest was shot and killed in front of his church altar by three unknown assailants, causing widespread condemnation by members of both "progressive" and conservative wings of Catholic Church. On August 16, President Romero announced moves GOES was prepared to take (such as invitation to OAS to observe 1980 elections, return of all political exiles, reform of Electoral Law, restructuring of ORDEN) to ensure widespread participation in March, 1980 legislative-municipal elections. However, in talks with Embassy officers, officials of opposition political parties PDC and MNR pronounced themselves dissatisfied with announced moves, while Executive Committee of communist-dominated UDN had on August 14, announced its decision to abstain from elections. Other groups such as the Salvadoran Commission on Human Rights challenged assertion in President Romero's August 16 press conference that there are no political prisoners in El Salvador. Killing of eight persons in San Salvador machine shop on August 16, had earmarks of having been done by extreme rightist terrorist organization. During August, BPR-affiliated Jose Guillermo Rivas Union Coordinating Committee (CCS) continued to take over factories and hold hostages, including U.S. citizen William Boorstein. END SUMMARY.

CHURCH-STATE RELATIONS:

Assassination of Catholic Priest

On August 4 in church of San Esteban Catarina (Department of San Vicente), Catholic priest Alirio Napoleón Macías was shot and killed in front of church altar by three unknown assailants (San Salvador 4396). The Ambassador issued statement that assassination had "shocked and saddened" him, particularly in view of the fact that Father Macías "was killed inside of his own church at a time when he was asked to preside over a religious ceremony."

In August 10 bulletin, Archbishop Romero (in his capacity as Bishop of San Salvador), Bishops of Santa Ana, San Miguel and Santiago de María condemned "horrible and sacriligious assassination." Bishop of San Vicente (and head of Episcopal Conference) Pedro Arnoldo Aparicio called for "thorough" investigation and announced that Episcopal Conference had decided to withdraw its two delegates from the GOES-sponsored National Forum (San Salvador 4528).

Father Macías' death thus appeared to bring closer two wings of Catholic Church. However, unity was only temporary as controversy erupted between Archbishop Romero on one hand, and Auxiliary Bishop of San Salvador, Bishops of San Miguel, Santa Ana, San Vicente, on the other, over meeting of 248 members of clergy and subsequent letter (dated August 11) from them calling for end of "repressive" practices against Church and others (San Salvador 4715). Archbishop Romero stated meeting had been to "unify" Church in call for cessation of repression while other bishops called meeting an "abuse" and one that had been "manipulated" by a certain group (San Salvador 4726).

GOES AND OPPOSITION PARTIES AND GROUPS:

President Romero's August 16 Press Conference

At mid-day press conference on August 16, (San Salvador 4644), President Romero announced the following steps to ensure widespread participation in the March 1980 legislative-municipal elections: substantial reforms to be made in electoral law; return of all political exiles with their security and freedom of movement guaranteed (Romero made special reference to exiled PDC leader José Napoleón Duarte); invitation to OAS to verify purity of 1980 elections; Salvadoran and International Red Cross to investigate prisons to prove GOES contention that there are no political prisoners; promise that ORDEN would be restructured to ensure that it be "apolitical"; statement that next presidential candidate of ruling National Conciliation Party (PCN) should be a civilian; and changes in Central Council of Elections (CCE). During month of August, GOES implemented some of these proposed measures to extent, for example, of sending letters to OAS Secretary General and International Red Cross (San Salvador 4739, 4991, 5023, 5025, 5026). In separate conversations with Embassy officers, Julio Adolfo Rey Prendes, then Secretary-General of Christian Democratic Party (PDC), and Guillermo Manuel Ungo, Secretary-General of National Revolutionary Movement (MNR), denigrated impact of press conference and indicated their belief that published reaction to the press conference by the Department and Embassy was premature and disproportionate to actual importance of Romero's announcements (San Salvador 4783). In another conversation, PDC officials indicated to Embassy officers their view that more dramatic actions by GOES - such as replacement of chiefs of security forces and possible Cabinet changes - would be necessary (San Salvador 4963).

On August 14, Executive Council of communist-dominated Nationalist Democratic Union (UDN) had already announced its decision to abstain from March 1980 elections (San Salvador 4617).

In conversation with Embassy Officers, Marianella Garcia Villas, Vice President of Salvadoran Commission on Human Rights (CDHES) stated that she had received two death threats from the extreme rightist terrorist group White Warriors' Union (UGB). In August 24 conversation CDHES President Roberto Lara Velado stated that anonymous phone calls with death threats were still being made against him.

Continued Controversy Over Issue of "Political Prisoners"

After President Romero's statement that there were no "political prisoners" in El Salvador, the Salvadoran Commission on Human Rights, on August 18, issued bulletin of non-acceptance of Romero's contention. It cited statement made by former political prisoner to effect that political prisoners had been moved to other locations during January 1978 visit of Inter-American Commission on Human Rights (IAHRC).

In light of Romero's August 16 statement, the Committee of Mothers and Relatives of Political Prisoners and Disappeared Persons placed August 21 paid press insertion asking for an interview with President Romero. Opposition weekly "La Cronica del Pueblo" (August 23-30 reported remarks of several priests to effect that President Romero had "lied" when he stated there were no political prisoners.

In August 30 appearance at Legislative Assembly, Subsecretary of Defense José Eduardo Iraheta stated that many students give up their family ties to join terrorist movements without informing their relatives, who in turn go to the authorities to ask about their whereabouts. Iraheta then reportedly stated that "subversive groups" which these young people have joined start alleging that these same members are being held by the security forces.

Killing of Eight Persons in San Salvador Machine Shop

At approximately 1200 hours on August 16, eight persons were apparent: lined up and then machine-gunned to death in San Salvador machine shop Salvador 4674). Authorities stated victims may have been members of extreme leftist terrorist organization Popular Forces of Liberation (FPL). Incident had earmarks of having been committed by extreme rightist terrorist organization and led some opposition members to doubt sincerity or feasibility of steps outlined in President Romero's August 16 speech. Incident was one of worst in terms of numbers of victims killed and brazen manner in which it was carried out.

LABOR DISTURBANCES

Workers and non-workers affiliated with the BPR-affiliated José Guillermo Rivas Union Coordinating Committee (CCS) occupied San Salvador plant of U.S.-owned APEX, holding several persons hostage including resident manager William Boorstein (San Salvador 4602). Boorstein managed to escape during late evening of August 23 (San Salvador 4837). APEX dispute has not been resolved.

During August, CCS continued to take over factories and hold hostages. (San Salvador 4495, 4802, 4927). In conversations with Embassy Officers, Minister of Labor Col. Roberto Escobar Garcia stated that in order to counteract this phenomenon, he was planning to ask Legislative Assembly to introduce law that would nullify agreements signed between companies and unions in which force or duress had been used (San Salvador 5053, 4296).

In the meantime, one of companies affected by a CCS takeover (Sacos Sinteticos) announced its closing as of August 13 (San Salvador 4802). On August 20, San Salvador residence of Carlos Cuellar (Manager of U.S.-owned IMES) was fired on by unknown assailants. CCS-affiliated union at IMES plant took over factory on June 18 after company suspended operations (San Salvador 4927). CCS was group reportedly responsible for August 6 fire-bombing of Ministry of Labor Regional Office in San Miguel, allegedly protesting dismissal of 120 workers at local firm.

CHRONOLOGY OF OPPOSITION, TERRORIST, AND SECURITY FORCES ACTIVITIES

A. Activities of Overt Opposition Groups:

August 2 - Members of leftist Popular Leagues of February 28 (LP-28) occupied National Cathedral as act of solidarity with occupants of San Miguel Cathedral and to ask for release of four persons allegedly detained by security forces (see August 2 item under "Activities of Security Forces"). It was fifth time during this year that National Cathedral had been occupied. Occupants left Cathedral on August 21 and conducted march through the downtown area of San Salvador.

August 4 - Under Red Cross protection, LP-28 members gave up occupation of San Miguel Cathedral.

August 6 - Members of leftist Popular Revolutionary Bloc (BPR) joined in occupation of National Cathedral asking for resolution of labor disputes at IMES, Pan Lido, and Fabril de Aceites. BPR also announced that eighteen workers and ten BPR "militants" would maintain hunger strike until resolution of those disputes.

August 10 - Legal actions, on charges of illegal possession of a firearm and carrying false identification papers, against BPR Secretary-General Facundo Guardado Guardado were formally discontinued by criminal court judge. Guardado had originally been arrested on the charges in May and subsequently released.

August 12 - Elements of LP-28 took over Santa Ana Cathedral, asking among other things for release of Andrés de Jesus Aguirre and protesting alleged detention of one hundred sixty five "disappeared persons". Occupants left Cathedral on August 24.

August 14 - BPR held demonstration of "solidarity" in San Salvador for occupants of National Cathedral, causing some traffic congestion.

August 15 - During shootout in Santa Ana that occurred between several members of security forces and group of persons conducting meeting of "solidarity" with occupants of Santa Ana Cathedral at least one seventeen year old student (Alcides Mendoza Padilla) was wounded.

August 17 - Persons reportedly belonging to LP-28 occupied church in San Miguel.

August 18 - LP-28 members occupied church in La Union.

August 21 - LP-28 members occupied church in Usulután.

August 21 - Newspaper "El Mundo" printed letter from General José Alberto Medrano, a frequent critic of the government. Medrano stated that among methods of confronting climate of violence affecting El Salvador would be for GOES to ensure that human rights provisions are adhered to and also for GOES to set up effective means of counter-acting among government officials the tendency to engage in private business practices rather than attend to their governmental duties.

August 21 - Cathedral of San Vicente was occupied, reportedly by members of LP-28.

August 21 - Group of around three hundred demonstrators marched in front of Embassy (San Salvador 4761).

August 23 - An estimated one hundred fifty members of the BPR tried to block traffic on one of the main highways in the Department of Chalatenango in the jurisdiction of San Jerónimo, causing damage to several vehicles. Shooting broke out when members of security forces arrived on the scene resulting in the deaths of three BPR members.

August 23 - "La Cronica" reported that an employee of the Independent Newspaper Agency (API) had been abducted near Catholic University (UCA) and questioned before being released.

August 26-27 - Members belonging to BPR campesino organization FECCAS-UTC occupied churches in Apopa, Suchitoto, and San Salvador suburb of Mejicanos.

August 29 - Members of FAPU-affiliated Association of Salvadoran Students (ARDES), protesting "repression" against students in La Union, on August 28, occupied National Cathedral in San Salvador. ARDES members also tried to block traffic intersections in several areas of San Salvador, including area near Presidential Palace, by taking over buses, using them to block streets and then puncturing tires. No major confrontations with security forces were reported. According to local API news service, on August 28, three students in La Union were killed by National Guard agents and twenty arrested when the students occupied a school.)

B. Activities of Extreme Leftist Terrorist Groups:

July 28 - At approximately 0745 hours, two agents of National Police (NP) were attacked near Santa Cruz Michapa, with one being killed and having body covered by flag of extreme leftist terrorist organization Popular Foces of Liberation (FPL).

August 1 - During early morning, three bombs - reportedly planted by FPL - went off at mayoralty building in Nahulingo (Department of Sonsonate), entrance to local commandant's building in El Congo (Department of Santa Ana), and Santa Ana residence of Tadeo Calderón, member of ruling National Conciliation Party (PCN) and member of Legislative Assembly. As a result, two persons were wounded.

August 3 - House of local commandant in Ciudad Delgado section of San Salvador was dynamited, reportedly by the FPL. There were no injuries.

August 9 - During early morning hours in Guazapa (Department of San Salvador), elements - reportedly belonging to FPL - set off bomb in factory "Textiles de El Salvador", and wounded two (one of them later died) NG agents who were acting as watchmen. Agents of Policia de Hacienda (PH) who arrived on scene shortly afterwards engaged in a brief firefight with FPL members, with no casualties reported on either side.

August 9 - Members of alleged "subversive" group (otherwise not identified by the authorities) created traffic congestion in downtown section of San Salvador by placing tires in streets and intersections and setting them on fire.

August 9 - In action attributed to FPL, local commandant of Nahuizalco was attacked but escaped unharmed. One of persons accompanying him was slightly wounded in the exchange of gunfire. (San Salvador 4620)

August 10 - In action attributed to FPL, bomb exploded in Santa Ana regional office of Ministry of Labor. In pamphlets left at scene, FPL reportedly stated attack was one means of protesting slowness with which Ministry of Labor was attempting to resolve certain labor disputes. (San Salvador 4620)

August 14 - At Approximately 0715 hours in San Miguel, teacher Isidro Sanchez and his nine year old son were victims of shooting attack. Sanchez was killed outright while his son was wounded. Sanchez is relative of former President (1967-1972) Fidel Sanchez Hernandez. An ERP flag was left at scene, (San Salvador 4620) and ERP later claimed credit for attack.

August 14 - In action attributed to FPL, gasoline station near Apastepeque (Department of San Vicente) was set on fire (San Salvador 4620).

August 14 - In Santa Ana, ORDEN members Valentin Contreras Argueta and Alexander Aguilar Morales were shot and killed in actions attributed to FPL (San Salvador 4620).

August 14 - In action attributed to FPL, bus was stopped and burned near San Pedro Nonualco.

August 17 - Press reported death of Miguel Angel Escolero Ayala, who reportedly died of wounds caused by bomb thrown in his car while he was driving near San Miguel. Action was attributed to FPL.

August 17 - "La Prensa Grafica" quoted despatch from Mexico City newspaper "Excelsior" to the effect that three extreme leftist terrorist organizations (FPL, FARN, and ERP) were in a process of "unification". "Excelsior" quoted FPL official - only identified as "Comandante Anselmo" - as stating that "1980 will be the year of liberation of El Salvador."

August 19 - In action attributed to ERP, Modesto Jacobo Miranda, member of city council of Armenia, (Department of Sonsonate), was shot and killed by five assailants in his home. Miranda had reportedly previously received various death threats mailed to him in anonymous letters.

August 20 - Traffic congestion was caused on route to airport by tires placed in route and set on fire.

August 24 - In action attributed to FPL, ORDEN member Ambrosio Martinez Ibarra was assassinated in Tecoluca by individuals wearing what appeared to be police uniforms.

August 27 - First Criminal Court of San Salvador handed down ruling that only two (Rubin Aquino Belloso and Ricardo Alfonso Lemus Merino) of eight individuals arrested in connection with November, 1977, killing of Raul Molina Cañas (during a kidnap attempt) would be bound over for a formal trial.

C. Alleged Activities of Rightist Terrorist Groups:

July 27 - Corpse of Pedro Antonio Girón (who had been missing twenty two days) was found near Quelapa (Department of San Miguel) with message from extreme rightist organization White Warriors' Union (UGB) reading: "This man has had justice rendered onto him for being an enemy of the people and for belonging to the ERP. The same will happen to his companions Yeyo, Teto, Chencho, Wilbert and others who are militants in Marxist organizations."

July 28 - Newspaper "La Prensa Grafica" reported that teacher Alberto Salvador Palacios of San Matias (Department of La Libertad) had received note presumably sent by UGB telling him that he had fifteen days in which to leave the country.

August 15 - In weekly opposition newspaper "La Cronica", there was report that UGB had been threatening teachers in San Esteban Catarina area. "La Cronica" also reported July 20 assassination of teacher Atanasio Valladares Revelo in San Rafael Obrajuelo (Department of La Paz).

August 22 - UGB reportedly made threats against LP-28 members occupying National Cathedral.

D. Activities of Security Forces:

August 1 - In paid press insertion addressed to President Romero, parents asked for release or presentation before courts of Miguel Angel Terezon Ramos, allegedly arrested July 19 in San Salvador by members of security forces. Letter written by mother to President of the Inter-American Commission on Human Rights appeared as paid press insertion on August 7. In it, mother claimed that National Guard (NG) was holding her son and that security forces had taken his car and other property in act of arresting him.

August 2 - In paid press insertion, Salvadoran Commission on Human Rights (CDHES) claimed that members of security forces had on July 25 arrested campesinos Concepcion Claros, Guillermo Claros, Napoleon Velasquez near El Rosario (Department of Morazán) and Facundo Mendez near Meanguera (Department of Morazán). Commission claimed that four had not been heard from since. Four were released by judge on August 7 for lack of evidence. Four were accused of having provoked disorders in San Miguel on July 29.

August 3 - Weekly opposition newspaper "La Cronica" claimed that on July 20 corpses of Pablo Cortez (allegedly abducted July 17) and Celso Cruz (allegedly abducted July 18) had been found near Izalco, with signs of torture. "La Cronica" claimed that student Ricardo Isabel Amaya had been arrested in San Vicente, July 24, and taken to NP barracks; also, that student David Elioneo Ponce Torres had been arrested July 19 by NP agents near Pasaquina.

August 9 - In paid press insertion addressed to the Minister of Defense, mother of Rafael Humberto Alarcon claimed that her son had been arrested by NP and NG agents on August 5 in front of his family in their Chalchuapa residence. Mother claimed that NP had thus far refused to turn her son over to the courts in the time (seventy two hours) prescribed by law.

August 9 - In paid press insertion addressed to President Romero, mother of Juan Maria Leon Guevara claimed that her son had been arrested July 30 by members of security forces near El Paisnal (Department of San Salvador) in front of many witnesses. She stated security forces subsequently had denied holding her son.

August 11 - Newspaper "El Diario de Hoy" reported that Santos Ortiz Ascencio, allegedly arrested July 26 in San Vicente, had according to his parents still not been turned over to the courts. CDHES stated same thing in August 12 bulletin.

August 12 - Security forces reportedly announced arrest by NG agents in Chalchuapa of one of persons involved in takeover of radio stations in Santa Ana area.

August 15 - "La Cronica" reported July 31 arrest in Chalatenango of teacher Eva Ardón Martinez. (She was reportedly released after twenty four hours.) Ardón had allegedly been threatened previously by two ORDEN members.

August 17 - In paid press insertion, BPR teachers' organization "ANDES 21 de Junio" claimed that on July 28, teacher Romeo Cuadra had been arrested near Apopa and badly beaten before being released. Insertion (without giving any details) also claimed that teachers José Jorge Rauda and Humberto Cardoza had been "arbitrarily detained" by agents of Policía de Hacienda.

August 19 - Archbishop claimed that security forces had occupied zone near Guazapa and were engaging in acts of repression (San Salvador 4843). National Guard claimed that medical-dental unit was in area to give medical aid and to give talks on "civics". NG claimed that they had "not fired even one shot" in area and referred to area as birthplace of BPR campesino organization FECCAS-UTC.

August 24 - Student Alcides Mendoza Padilla was wounded in a shootout in Santa Ana that occurred between members of security forces and persons attempting to organize a demonstration at a school.

August 29 - BPR teachers' organization "ANDES 21 de Junio" and Catholic organization "Fe y Alegría" protested August 25 arrest of teacher Sergio Zamora, teacher at "Fe y Alegría" school in San Miguel and member of Directorate of ANDES for Department of San Miguel. Also, both organizations protested surrounding of school in Acajutla by armed individuals asking about whereabouts of female director of school.

August 28 - Six students arrested for trying to hold demonstration in school in La Union and for possession of "subversive" literature, were released same day. However, API News Service claimed that in same action, security forces had killed three students and arrested twenty.

August 29 - Eighteen members of municipal police of San Miguel reportedly tried to resign - but were persuaded not to do so - as a result of machine-gunning of their barracks that occurred August 28, resulting in one wounded policeman.

E. Non-Attributable Actions:

August 2 - Marcelino Imbers, Assistant Secretary General of ruling National Conciliation Party (PCN) in La Union, was seriously wounded in an attack near his home. Imbers managed to kill one of his assailants and wound another. No group took credit for the attack.

August 2 - In Chinameca, student Oscar Manuel Cuadra Villalobos and his mother Rosa Adriana Cuadra were shot by group of masked and armed men who entered the mother's house. Both died of wounds.

August 9 - Spanish businessman Jaime Conde Feijó was kidnapped by group of armed men in San Salvador. He was released on August 25, with no terrorist group taking credit for act.

August 9 - Newspaper "El Diario de Hoy" reported that various doctors and lawyers in the city of San Miguel had left El Salvador because of death threats they had received. Newspaper also reported that many San Salvador businessmen and industrialists had left for the same reason.

August 14 - In what press labelled "mysterious shootout", three persons were wounded in San Miguel. Death of person (BPR member Oswaldo Doño García), whose body was later found nearby was possibly due to shootout.

August 14 - Near Tacachico (Department of Santa Ana), nude corpse was found.

August 18 - In paid press insertion, Lawyers' Association of Eastern El Salvador condemned the "threats and acts of violence" directed the past several weeks against lawyers in San Miguel and other parts of eastern El Salvador. Insertion did not attribute these activities to any particular groups.

SUBJECT (U) HUMAN RIGHTS SUMMARY - OCTOBER 5-11

REF: BUENOS AIRES 8243

[redacted] SUMMARY: CONTINUED REPORTS OF INCREASED TERRORIST CAPABILITIES, SEVERAL INTERESTING COURT DECISIONS, CONTINUED ATTENTION TO THE REQUEST THAT FORMER PRESIDENT HECTOR CAMPORA BE ALLOWED TO TRAVEL ABROAD, AND A NEW PETITION BY THE JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES MARKED THE HUMAN RIGHTS SCENE THIS WEEK. END SUMMARY.

1. [redacted] TERRORIST RESURGENCE -----
WE CONTINUE TO RECEIVE FROM A VARIETY OF SOURCES REPORTS THAT A NUMBER OF MONTONEROS-ABOUT 20- HAVE RETURNED IN RECENT MONTHS TO THE COUNTRY TO CONDUCT SPECTACULAR ACTS OF TERRORISM, SIMILAR TO THE BOMBING OF THE KLEIN HOUSE TWO WEEKS AGO. IN ADDITION, ANOTHER GROUP OF MONTONEROS DEDICATED TO PROPAGANDA AND AGITATION ARE REPORTEDLY ORGANIZED AND ACTIVE IN THE COUNTRY. ONE OF THESE ACTIVIES IS THE INTERRUPTION OF TELEVISION BROADCASTS-WHICH HAVE TAKEN PLACE FROM TIME TO TIME-WITH MONTONERO PROPAGANDA, THROUGH THE USE OF SECRET MOBILE TRANSMITTERS. THE SECURITY FORCES HAVE REPORTEDLY SCORED SOME SUCCESSES AGAINST THE AGITATION TEAMS BUT NOT YET AGAINST THE TERRORIST SQUADS.

2. [redacted] FOR THE ARGENTINE PUBLIC, SQUEEZED BY INFLATION AND THE GOA'S ECONOMIC MEASURES, THE GOVERNMENT'S SUCCESS IN ENDING TERRORISM IS ONE OF ITS PALPABLE ACHIEVEMENTS. IF THE MONTONEROS DO MANAGE TO MOUNT A SIGNIFICANT CAMPAIGN OF TERRORISM HERE IT COULD STRIP THIS PIECE OF LEGITIMACY FROM VIDELA AND VIOLA. THE BENEFICIARIES ALMOST CERTAINLY WOULD BE THE HARDLINE MILITARY MEN WHO STILL CALL FOR A MASSIVE CRACKDOWN ON ALL DISSIDENTS SO AS TO ROOT OUT SUBVERSION. IN THESE CIRCUMSTANCES IT IS NOT SURPRISING THAT PRESIDENT VIDELA, GENERAL VIOLA AND THEIR SUPPORTERS TAKE A SOOTHING PUBLIC LINE-MOST RECENTLY IN PRESIDENT VIDELA'S STATEMENT ON LEAVING JAPAN-SUGGESTING THAT A MINIMUM LEVEL OF TERRORISM IS NATURAL, GIVEN THE RECENT PAST AND THE GOA WILL SUCCEED, ULTIMATELY, IN CONTROLLING IT. WE NEVERTHELESS BELIEVE THAT EVEN A THREAT OF RENASCENT TERRORISM BODES ILL FOR HUMAN RIGHTS PROGRESS HERE, AND WE WILL WATCH THE SITUATION CAREFULLY.

3. (U) JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES APPEAL -----
THE JEHOVAH'S WITNESSES HAVE APPEALED TO THE PRESIDENT THE FOREIGN MINISTRY'S SEPTEMBER DECISION CONFIRMING THE DECREE DENYING THEM THE STATUS OF A RECOGNIZED RELIGION. IF THE PRESIDENT SHOULD UPHOLD THE FOREIGN MINISTRY-AS MOST EXPECT-THE WITNESSES WILL TAKE THEIR CASE AGAIN TO THE COURTS. WE ARE TOLD THAT THE SUPREME COURT'S DECISION ORDERING SCHOOLS TO ENROLL WITNESS CHILDREN WHO ARE TOO YOUNG TO BE RESPONSIBLE FOR THEIR ACTS (IN PRACTICE THROUGH PRIMARY) IS BEING UNEVENLY APPLIED BY LOCAL ADMINISTRATORS, WITH THE RESULT THAT THE CHILDREN ARE BEING ENROLLED IN SOME LOCATIONS BUT NOT IN OTHERS. THE WITNESSES ARE APPEALING THROUGH THE COURTS IN AREAS WHERE CHILDREN ARE TURNED AWAY. THEY ARE ALSO BEGINNING LEGAL PROCEEDINGS TO ALLOW WITNESS CHILDREN ACCESS TO SECONDARY EDUCATION.

4. [redacted] CAMPORA CASE STILL ON THE BURNER -----
PRESIDENT VIDELA IS FACED WITH ANOTHER DIFFICULT PROBLEM: WHAT TO DO WITH FORMER PRESIDENT HECTOR CAMPORA, IN ASYLUM AT THE MEXICAN EMBASSY AND REPORTEDLY SUFFERING FROM CANCER. THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT HAS ASKED THE GOVERNMENT TO ALLOW CAMPORA TO TRAVEL ABROAD FOR TREATMENT. MINISTER OF INTERIOR HARGUINDEGUY OCTOBER 9 SAID THAT THE DECISION ON WHETHER TO ALLOW CAMPORA TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY RESTS WITH PRESIDENT VIDELA. HARGUINDEGUY SAID THAT THE GOVERNMENT HAS MEDICAL REPORTS BY ARGENTINE DOCTORS WHO HAVE EXAMINED CAMPORA.

5. [redacted] AS AN OBJECT OF CONTEMPT AND REVENGE, CAMPORA SURPASSES EVEN TIMERMAN IN THE MIND OF THE ARGENTINE MILITARY, WHO TRACE CORRUPTION AND TOLERATION OF TERRORISM DIRECTLY TO HIS PRESIDENCY. EVEN WITH THE VATICAN ON HIS SIDE, A DECISION TO RELEASE CAMPORA WILL CAUSE WAVES IN THE ARMED FORCES. NEVERTHELESS, TWO MEMBERS OF VIDELA'S OFFICE SUGGESTED TO US RECENTLY THAT LIKE IT OR NOT, CAMPORA IS A SICK MAN AND THAT SITUATION IS PROBABLY OVERRIDING. THE PERONISTS, HOWEVER, MAY HAVE DONE CAMPORA A SCANT FAVOR, WHEN ON OCTOBER 11, THEY RELEASED A STATEMENT CALLING FOR HIS RELEASE ALONG WITH THAT OF OTHER PERONIST LEADERS NOW BEING HELD, USING THE TIMERMAN DECISION AS A PRECEDENT.

6. (U) COURT ACCEPTS HABEAS CORPUS PETITION AND ORDERS ITS SUBJECT FREED -----
THERE WERE SEVERAL INTERESTING COURT DECISION ANNOUNCED DURING THE WEEK. IN ONE, AN APPELATE COURT UPHELD A HABEAS CORPUS PETITION AND, IN ADDITION, ORDERED THE SUBJECT OF THE PETITION-PERLA AMELIA DIEZ-RELEASED. THE COURT ALSO DENIED TWO OTHER PETITIONS. IN ANOTHER CASE, A COURT ORDERED THAT FIFTEEN EMPLOYEES OF THE STATE NEWS AGENCY-TELAM-WHO WERE FIRED IN 1978 IN CHARGES OF CORRUPTION BE IMMEDIATELY REHIRED AND INDEMNIFIED. THE COURT REPORTEDLY FOUND THAT THE MANAGEMENT OF TELAM HAD PROCEEDED ARBITRARILY AND ILLEGALLY AND WITHOUT SUFFICIENT CAUSE. WE ARE SEEKING TO LEARN MORE ABOUT THESE DECISIONS, PARTICULARLY THE POSITIVE ACTION ON THE HABEAS CORPUS PETITION, A VERY UNUSUAL DEVELOPMENT HERE.

1. [redacted] CAMPORA CASE -----
TWO MEMBERS OF GENERAL VIOLA'S STAFF CONFIRMED TO US THAT THE JUNTA HAS TAKEN THE DECISION TO ALLOW FORMER PRESIDENT CAMPORA TO TRAVEL ABROAD, IF IT IS CONFIRMED THAT HE IS SUFFERING FROM CANCER. HOWEVER, THEY SAID THAT UNTIL HE SUBMITS TO A BIOPSY, THE GOA WILL NOT ACT ON THAT DECISION. OUR SOURCES SAID THAT ONLY A BIOPSY CAN DEMONSTRATE WHETHER CAMPORA IS INDEED AS ILL AS IT IS CLAIMED. MEANWHILE, THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT IS APPARENTLY CONTINUING TO PRESS THE GOA TO ALLOW CAMPORA TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY-THE ARGENTINE PRESS REPORTS THAT A MEXICAN FOREIGN MINISTRY SPOKESMAN PUBLICLY CONFIRMED THAT CAMPORA WILL BE TREATED FOR CANCER IN MEXICO CITY, IF THE GOA ALLOWS HIM TO TRAVEL. IT WAS ALSO REPORTED THAT THE GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR'S OFFICE HAS REQUESTED A TWO-YEAR SENTENCE FOR ISABEL PERON IN ONE OF THE SIX COURT CASES PENDING AGAINST HER. THIS IS THE FIRST TIME A FORMAL REQUEST FOR A SENTENCE HAS BEEN MADE IN ANY OF THESE CASES.

2. [redacted] BASKET II CONTRADICTIONS -----
EMPHASIZING THE UNEVEN TEXTURE OF BASKET II HUMAN RIGHTS ISSUES, ARGENTINE LABOR IS ENGAGED IN A SERIES OF STRIKES FOR HIGHER WAGES. THESE STRIKES, WHICH ARE CURRENTLY ILLEGAL BUT SO FAR HAVE NOT BEEN INTERFERED WITH BY THE GOVERNMENT SECURITY FORCES, ARE ACCOMPANIED IN SOME OF THE PLANTS WITH INFORMAL CONSULTATIONS BETWEEN MANAGEMENT AND UNION SHOP STEWARDS, NOTWITHSTANDING THE FACT THAT COLLECTIVE BARGAINING CONTINUES SUSPENDED BY OFFICIAL DECREE. ON THE OTHER HAND, OSCAR ALENDE, LEFTIST LEADER OF THE INTRANSIGENT PARTY WAS PREVENTED BY POLICE FROM HOLDING A PRESS CONFERENCE OCTOBER 1. THE POLICE, THE PRESS REPOTED, STATED THEY WERE ACTING ON ORDERS FROM HIGHER AUTHORITY. 3. [redacted] RAWSON PRISONER COMMITS SUICIDE -----
EDGARDO GUERRA, A PRISONER IN THE MAXIMUM SECURITY SECTION AT RAWSON PRISON REPORTEDLY HUNG HIMSELF OCOTBER 13. ACCORDING TO A SOURCE WHO SUBSEQUENTLY VISITED A RELATIVE ALSO DETAINED AT RAWSON, GUERRA IS RUMORED AMONG THE PRISONERS

4305 AR321 BUENOS 08658 2515082

AS HAVING SUFFERED FROM SEVERE DEPRESSION. THE SOURCE OF THIS DEPRESSION, ACCORDING TO THESE RUMORS, WAS GUERRA'S REMORSE OVER HAVING BETRAYED HIS "MONTONERO" COMPANIONS AND HIS LONELINESS SINCE HE HAD NO FAMILY MEMBERS WHO WERE ABLE TO VISIT HIM-HIS MOTHER IS SERIOUSLY ILL AND HIS WIFE IS IN PRISON ELSEWHERE.

4. (U) DIVINE LIGHT RAID -----
POLICE REPORTEDLY HAVE ANNOUNCED THAT THEY ARRESTED FIVE MEMBERS OF THE DIVINE LIGHT MISSION (DLM) IN CORDOBA, CHARGING THEM WITH "REDUCING THEIR DISCIPLES TO SERVITUDE." THE FOLLOWERS OF GURU MAHARAJI HAD BEEN LIVING IN CORDOBA SINCE SEPTEMBER. THE DLM WAS DECREED ILLEGAL IN ARGENTINA IN 1977 BUT A LOCA COURT LAST MONTH IN LA PLATA SUSPENDED PROCEEDINGS IN A CASE AGAINST THE DLM AFTER ALLEGATIONS AGAINST THE GROUP WERE PROVED FALSE.

5. [redacted] IAHRC AFTERMATH -----
AFTER THE DEPARTURE OF THE INTER-AMERICAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION WE ATTEMPTED TO MONITOR WHETHER AND TO WHAT DEGREE ARGENTINES WHO COOPERATED WITH THE COMMISSION WERE SUBJECT TO REPRISALS BY THE GOA. UNTIL THIS WEEK, WE HAD NO REPORTS OF ANY REPRISALS, INCLUDING AGAINST 88-98 FORMER PRISONERS WHO TESTIFIED TO THE COMMISSION. NOW HOWEVER, HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS BELIEVE THAT THE TRANSFER OF THREE CURRENT PRISONERS FROM NORMAL DETENTION TO MUCH MORE RIGOROUS DETENTION AMONG "INCORRIGIBLES" IS ATTRIBUTABLE TO THESE THREE HAVING COOPERATED WITH THE IAHRC. THE HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVITISTS, WHO SAY THEY KNOW OF NO OTHER SUCH "REPRISALS," BASE THEIR ASSUMPTION PRIMARILY ON THE FACT THAT THE THREE INDIVIDUALS WERE ESPECIALLY IMPORTANT WITNESSES WITH THE IAHRC AND THAT "NOTHING ELSE" CAN EXPLAIN THEIR TRANSFERS. WE ARE STILL WITHHOLDING JUDGMENT AS TO THE ACCURACY OF THESE SUSPICIONS AND WILL CONTINUE TO WATCH TO SEE OF OTHER INSTANCES IF REPRISALS OCCUR AND IF THE FORM A PATTERN.

6. [redacted] A POSSIBLE DISAPPEARANCE -----
ACCORDING TO ONE SPANISH LANGUAGE BUENOS AIRES PAPER A WOMAN IN MENDOZA WAS SEIZED BY THREE UNIDENTIFIED MEN WHO SHOVED HER INTO A CAR AND DROVE OFF OCTOBER 14. THE REPORT STATES THAT BEFORE BEING DRIVEN OFF THE WOMAN, ESTER LILIANA BERBUDEZ DE HERRRERA WAS ABLE TO SHOUT TO WITNESSES FOR HELP. THERE HAVE BEEN NO FURTHER REPORTS OF THIS INCIDENT NOR HAS IT BEEN REGISTERED, THUS FAR, WITH ARGENTINE HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS.

D. IT WAS IMPORTANT THAT JRG PUNISH THOSE MEMBERS OF SECURITY FORCES WHO WERE RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES. ZALDANA CLAIMED TO HAVE RECIEVED INFORMATION THAT SOME MEMBERS OF SECURITY FORCES HAD BEEN JAILED FOR SUCH VIOLATIONS BUT THAT LITTLE PUBLICITY HAD BEEN MADE ABOUT THIS. HE FOUND DISTURBING AMBASSADOR'S REFERENCE TO OCTOBER 22 PRESS REPORT THAT GEN RAMON ALFREDO ALVARENGA HAD BEEN ALLOWED TO LEAVE EL SALVADOR OCTOBER 19, COMMENTING THAT PERSONS LIKE ALVARENGA SHOULD NOT BE ALLOWED TO GO UNPUNISHED;

THIS MAY SERVE A USEFUL PURPOSE IN FURTHER SENSITIZING NEW JUNTA, WHICH SEEMS WELL-DISPOSED TO GUARD AGAINST HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES AND DEVELOP A CLEAN RECORD IN SHARP CONTRAST WITH THAT OF THE ROMERO ADMINISTRATION. IN JUDGING HUMAN RIGHTS RECORD OF NEW JUNTA, HOWEVER, WE SHOULD BEAR IN MIND THAT LEFTIST GROUPS WILL ACTIVELY SEIZE EVERY CONCEIVABLE OPPOSRTUNITY TO ALLEGE VIOLATIONS BY NEW GOVERNMENT. Inconstitutionality of the state of siege

The first legal challenge to the constitutionality of the state of siege was presented last month in the case of Domingo Laíno, the opposition leader who was denied habeas corpus and sentenced to an extrajudicial "confinement" in Mbuyapey, department of Paraguarí, under the state of siege September 20.

The defense statement pointed out irregularities in the application of the measure: there was no written order for his arrest, no justification in terms of international conflict or internal commotion; he was confined in an area not covered by the state of siege; and the measure itself "was instituted as an exceptional measure, but through successive extensions it has been applied for 25 consecutive years. This has distorted its purpose, by making it a permanent state."

"The Supreme Court faces a hard choice," said a La Tribuna headline (September 26). "To deny the action would be to abdicate its responsibility to oversee the actions of the other branches of government. To admit it would have undeniable political consequences and would mean a real change in national political life." The court has not responded so far to the challenge.

The lawyers also reported that Laíno is not "confined" in Mbuyapey -- which would imply considerable freedom of movement and association within the town -- but imprisoned, under restrictions which vary from day to day. The lawyers, political associates, reporters, and friends who come daily from Asunción (2-1/2 hours away by car) are sometimes admitted, sometimes not. Those who are excluded have been forced to wait under police guard.

"An absolutely sovereign decision"

Eight North American congressmen, and 130 Brazilian legislators, criticized the detention without trial of the political economist. From Sao Paulo, Brazil, Cardinal Paulo Evaristo Arns expressed surprise that "declarations made in Brazil, which caused no negative reaction here, caused Laíno's imprisonment in Paraguay."

On September 27, U.S. Ambassador Robert E. White expressed his government's concern over this "step backwards" for human rights. On October 3, Interior Minister Sabino A. Montanaro, acting as interim foreign minister, replied that his government had acted "strictly within constitutional and legal norms". Montanaro, who as Interior Minister had ordered Laíno's detention, added that the U.S. comments were "a flagrant intromission to judge the motivations of an absolutely sovereign decision of the Government... a legitimate decision which requires no explanations." The criticism was based, he said, on erroneous and incomplete information: "that is the only explanation when a markedly reasonable decision to protect the higher interests of the nation is interpreted as a 'step backwards' in the Paraguayan Government's longstanding efforts to improve the integral protection of human rights..." (ABC, October 4, 1979).

Rabi-Vasconsellos: theatre of the absurd

We reported in September on the alleged abduction to Brazil of Dr. Julio César Vasconsellos, lawyer for the international financier Eduardo Rabi. Rabi is accused of fraud by Guaraní Cambios, an enterprise of Gen. Andrés Rodríguez (whose daughter is married to Stroessner's son, and who is considered number two in the military hierarchy). Dr. Sara Rivas de Vasconsellos, the exiled lawyer's wife, has taken over the case, but it was interrupted by the transfer of Rabi to a hospital for an emergency operation. While conciliation proceedings between Rabi and Guaraní Cambios continued, Mrs. Vasconsellos has flamboyantly discussed the case with the press and with one of the judges involved, as in this anecdote (the judge is not identified in the report):

Vasconsellos: "What they've done to Rabi is ridiculous, they're going to kill him with all this." Judge: "Watch your words, doctora." Vasconcellos: "The fact is that here they use a big stick for the law, and the law as a big stick." Judge: "Shut up, or I'll have you arrested." Vasconcellos: "Go ahead, that's all that was lacking, to eliminate all your lawyers they way you did my husband." The shouting match reportedly ended with the abrupt withdrawal of the judge (Hoy, September 25).

From Sao Paulo (Mr.) Dr. Vasconsellos formally requested the trial and removal of judge José Francisco Appleyard, who is handling the accusation lodged against him as a subversive after his kidnapping. Vasconsellos accused the judge of complicity in the abduction, because he had not proceeded on the basis of Vasconsellos' denunciation of the incident (ABC, September 29). Appleyard was slow to respond, saying, "I'll take all the time the law allows, and if I don't answer, Sarita is sure to have me tried and arrested" (ABC, October 5).

The Supreme Court rejected the challenge, based on procedure: the denunciation should have been presented in writing, and Vasconsellos had made it by telegram from Brazil. Said Vasconsellos: "Of course I expected this decision, obviously the pressure (on the court) is great." He added that the law of telecommunications "indicates that a telegram has the same effect as if it had been personally presented." He also referred to other cases where the same court has accepted telegraphed communications (ABC, October 6).

The government published international reports that Eduardo Rabi was sought by the police in Switzerland, Canada, Denmark, Belgium, Italy and Israel under the names of Jack Bender and Elie Rabiea (Ultima Hora, September 15). (Mr.) Vasconsellos replied from Brazil that "this cannot have judicial implications" in Paraguay. "I put it that way, because if it is true, it still does not attenuate or justify what they are doing to Mr. Rabi in Paraguay" (Ultima Hora, September 17).

Editorial commentary: Paraguay has a long history of international criminals who suddenly appear at the highest levels of national commerce. It also has seen apparently innocent individuals -- whose only crime was having crossed a high local or national official -- pointed out as international criminals, with pseudonym and all. We won't know which of the two applies to Rabi, until the government takes one of the two steps universally approved in such cases: to arrange his extradition to one of the countries that supposedly seek him, or try him in Paraguay with all the appropriate judicial guarantees. Nor will we know whether Vasconsellos' removal is a violation of the rights to defense and personal security, unless the judge considers his report that he was kidnapped, on the merits of the case.

What Paraguay needs is a Kafka or a Borges, to do literary justice to the judicial labyrinth. Until one appears, (Mrs.) Dr. Vasconsellos has turned a phrase worth laughing and thinking about: the big stick as law, and the law as a big stick.

Trials and releases

In the case of Dr. Joel Filártiga (father of Joelito, who died in 1976) against police officer Américo Peña Irala: on October 1 the mother in-law of Hugo Derlis Duarte Arredondo testified in favor of the official theory that Duarte Arredondo had killed Joelito Filártiga out of jealousy over an alleged affair between his wife and neighbor Filártiga (ABC, October 2). The Supreme Court accepted the case this year, after officer Peña was arrested in New York and it appeared he might be tried here, on the request of Filártiga's sister, Dolly.

In the case against police officer Lucio Sosa Cardozo, who admitted killing Agustín Bareiro Amarillo in September 1978: on October 5 the victim's body was exhumed to see whether he had died of one shot (as Sosa claims) or two (which under Paraguayan law would indicate malicious intent). Sosa testified that he killed Bareiro when the latter resisted arrest. The results will be given soon to Judge Appleyard (ABC, October 6).

In the case against the officials of Santa Rosa, Misiones, who allegedly raped a young woman who had come for a good conduct certificate on December 23 while they were having a Christmas party: Judge Antonio Escobar rejected a challenge against the rural judge who accepted the denunciation, but who was allegedly present during the incident (Ultima Hora, September 12). Three police recruits are being held in connection with the rape, but they have blamed higher officials in the Santa Rosa police station.

By chance or not, the three cases -- against Peña, Sosa and the Santa Rosa officials -- were lodged by the families with advice from Dr. Mario Melgarejo and his colleague, Dr. Celso Castillo Gamarra. All three deal with accusations of abuse of authority, and two of them -- the death of Bareiro and the rape in Santa Rosa -- led to the first two street demonstrations in recent memory against such abuses. The demonstrations were later cited as evidence in the case against Melgarejo on grounds of mutiny. The recent movement in all three cases is barely perceptible, but it does appear to indicate new life in the court as a result of the confirmation of the Supreme Court judges for 1978-83, which was announced in August 1979.

The government has published its case against Alfonso Silva and María Saturnina Almada, who were charged under law 209 last June. The couple had been in prison from 1968 to 1978 without trial; released last year, they were arrested again in May 1979. The police report indicates that in 1959 Silva joined the United National Liberation Front in Brazil, where the subjects of discussion were "' unmasking the character of the Stroessner dictatorship', 'the imbalance between the three branches of Government', 'the existence of a minority group of 1500 latifundistas', and 'landless peasants'". They are also alleged to have received political training at the University of Moscow in 1966-67 (La Tribuna, September 2).

Coronel in chains

There has been no movement in the case of Constantino Coronel, who was imprisoned from 1976-78, freed without a verdict, and rearrested this year after a failed assassination attempt. With his court case apparently paralyzed, we understand Coronel is being held in chains, seriously ill, in the Encarnación jail.

Four prisoners freed

The freedom of Amílcar Santucho and Severo Acosta, September 22 and October 8 respectively, has been confirmed. Santucho, an Argentine citizen and brother of a guerrilla leader there, went to Sweden under the auspices of the UN High Commission for Refugees. About Acosta, who has been in prison without trial for 15 years, we only know that he was released in Paraguay without the return of his identity documents.

Several days later two Argentine prisoners were freed: they were detained August 4 under the names of Enrique and Ofelia Landi, but by official reports their real names are Julio Regino Domínguez Funes and Marizza Estela Pizarro. Their son Andrés Domínguez Pizarro (Toto Landi) brought international attention: the Mexican Embassy asked for custody of the 3 year-old boy, who was born in Mexico, and who apparently had been handed over to a police officer's family. By various reports the parents were arrested for subversion or for carrying false identity documents, but were never charged. We have no news about the other Argentines arrested in August.

More about the disappeared

On October 4, Amnesty International presented to the Paraguayan Supreme Court a report on the deaths in November 1975, in police custody, of three Communist Party leaders: Miguel Angel Soler, Derlis Villagra and Rubén González Acosta.

On the next day Interior Minister Sabino A. Montanaro said that the reports were "absolutely false". According to Montanaro, Soler had been abroad many years and had finally gone from Montevideo to the Soviet Union; Villagra was imprisoned from 1965 to 1972, but left the country and never returned; González Acosta "is totally unknown to the security forces of the State, never was arrested, and we have no police reports on him" (ABC, October 6).

On August 19, Radical Liberal legislator Ligia Prieto de Centurión asked for government intervention on behalf of over 100 Paraguayans disappeared in Argentina. Her bill asks the government to request information from the Argentine junta, and asks the Paraguayan embassy in Argentina to make contact with the families of the Paraguayan desaparecidos, "in order to clarify the facts" (La Tribuna, September 23).

Carmen Lara Castro, president of the Paraguayan Commission for the Defense of Human Rights, also spoke out for Paraguayans disappeared in Argentina in a visit to Buenos Aires, where she met in September with Dr. Edmundo Vargas Carreño, secretary of the Interamerican Commission for Human Rights.

Enervating climate

"Favorable laws are only applied to the momentarily privileged; odious laws fall exclusively on the backs of the unprivileged, which creates an enervating climate of social insecurity and unrest; not only partisan political divergencies which might be legitimate within a democratic national structure, but real squabbles and persecution among opponents, in open contradiction to the preaching of orthodox patriotism and nationalism.

"...The practice of religiosity concretized at the surface of the conscience, with ritual practices and perhaps the fulfillment of precepts, without coming to the conversion of the 'old man' into 'new man' in justice and truth. The idol of money, the thirst for profit, growing out of this era of rapid economic progress in the country. Luxury, accepted as a purpose of life, carries along with it the corruption of customs, the downfall of the family and class struggle, an apt climate for the easy diffusion of foreign and dissolute ideas, like marxism."

-- Msgr. Ismael Rolón, Archbishop of Asunción, in a pastoral letter entitled "A heritage which commits us" (La Tribuna, September 11)

Inter-American Commission: inconclusive conclusions

The Interamerican Commission on Human Rights published its annual report on October 5, and it was a disappointment to the Paraguayans who had admired their deep and detailed analysis last year. The most interesting part of the report was a long reply from Foreign Minister Alberto Nogués to last year's conclusions, dated July 2, 1979, which said among other things:

There are only 4 persons detained under the state of siege; "no one is deprived of freedom without the intervention of the appropriate judicial authorities..." That "each of the branches of government, Executive, Judicial and Legislative, act within their assigned spheres... It can in no way be admitted that the gentlemen of the Judicial Branch work with their hands tied or under pressure, as it has been affirmed." That "the free interplay of the democratic parties in Paraguay is a permanent, everyday experience", but that the National Agreement (Acuerdo Nacional) "tries to attract, in a precarious and circumstantial way, small political groups of varying doctrinal origin which are united in the purpose of subverting the constituted legal order and harming the external image of Paraguay."

On the state of siege: "The Government, despite all these manifestations of social danger, uses the measure prudently", and that the measure is used only in the capital city, "which is exposed to the dangerous proximity of an international border and to the contingencies of incitations to subversion, terrorism and urban guerrilla activities. Regulation of the constitutional faculty of the state of siege is an iniciative which corresponds only to the legitimate leaders of the Paraguayan people, as represented in the National Congress." Mrs. Lara Castro, "the seditious president of a so-called Paraguayan Human Rights Commission which represents no one," was called to appear in court "only to give informative testimony as requested by the state's attorney."

The Interamerican Commission refrained from commenting on the Foreign Minister's reply, and simply observed that there had been several changes since 1978: "In the first place almost all the political prisoners have been set free." Torture "has diminished considerably during 1978", although there is no indication that alleged torturers have been tried. "Also as a positive fact, the Commission observes that there has been less control over the printed press." The only criticism repeated this year is that "there have been no institutional changes which might diminish fears that the past will be repeated. The state of siege is still a constant factor in the life of most Paraguayans, as long as it continues in effect in the capital city of Asunción."

This year's recommendations include only three of the changes recommended in 1978: 1) a Commission visit to Paraguay; 2) lifting the state of siege; 3) freedom or trials for the four remaining prisoners. The Commission did not question the number of untried prisoners, although it had sufficient information to add the names of Escolástico Ovando, Román Martínez, and quite a few confirmed but unrecognized prisoners. Nor did the Commission insist on some of the other recommendations made last year, though there has been no movement toward compliance: the regularization of arrests with written orders, notification of families and medical supervision; protection of the rights of habeas corpus and amparo; punishment for those who abuse prisoners; protection for lawyers and judges.

The report comprises pages 150-165 of document 1101/79 of the General Assembly of the Organization of American States, titled "Annual Report of the Interamerican Human Rights Commission to the General Assembly"; it may be requested from the General Secretariat of the OAS, Washington, DC 20006.

Clamor

A special issue on Paraguay came out in Clamor last month, published by the Comite de Defensa de los Derechos Humanos en el Cono Sur (Av. Higienópolis 890, 01238 Sao Paulo SP, Brasil). It is entitled "Human Rights in Paraguay, 1978-79", and it represents an amplification and updating of information compiled and presented last May to several international human rights organizations. Its subjects include recent deaths, torture, irregular detentions and disappearances; considerations on legal justice; the press, political parties, human rights organizations, labor unions and churches in Paraguay.

BID report

Also in September, the Inter-American Development Bank (BID) published its annual report, including among its 520 pages a section on Paraguay. One paragraph of the report says: "The prospect for 1979 (and future years) is still favorable. According to projections the real GDP will increase on the order of 10% in 1979, several percentage points above the rate set as a goal in the current Economic Development Plan, which covers the period from 1978-1983. Besides continued work on the hydroelectric projects, this optimistic projection also reflects a larger crop area for the principal agricultural products, especially soybeans and cotton. Inflation is still the main concern, since an additional accumulation of foreign exchange is predicted. Although this situation may lead to the adoption of restrictive monetary measures, such action may be unnecesary if the action of the central government in fiscal matters continues to improve as it did in 1977 and 1978 (Ultima Hora, September 10).

Political news

Colorado assemblies

After the Colorado Party assemblies in Asunción last August, the campaign opened in the interior for elections in November and December. The most controversial assembly will be in Fernando de la Mora, where the incumbent president, Senator Alfonso Colmán, "will put on the line his 10-year hegemony in this city, and with it the future of his economic power" (La Tribuna, September 15). His rival is Francisco Vergara, who is supported by Dr. Mario Melgarejo.

The campaign began with two incidents: Vergara partisans have denounced "a shooting spree several weeks ago in Tres Bocas, to intimidate the Women's Commission of our slate" (ABC, October 2), and the arrival of some 50 Colman partisans "shooting revolvers, pushing, and totally inebriated" at a sub-precinct meeting on September 29. Colmán commented: "They are just trying to blow up a balloon. This is all a normal part of a political campaign... It is natural in a partisan struggle; it's a momentary thing" (ABC, September 30).

All kinds of problems become political because of the interdependence of economic and social interests with local bosses of the governing party. In other elections the political implications of commercial and labor actions rarely went beyond the level of local gossip; this year the local press has picked up such items -- but gingerly, and only when it could quote the main participants.

Thus, for example, the foreign firm of Carlos Casado S.A. has been accused of interfering in the local elections of Puerto La Victoria (formerly Puerto Casado), on the upper Paraguay River. Casado has a long history of labor problems, and last August it dismissed 151 lumber and chemical workers -- among them the two principal labor leaders. Although the precinct president, Tarcisio Sostoa, defended the company (saying that the recent flood and the need to build a new plant had led to the layoffs), it later appeared that the company was supporting Sostoa's rival, Obdulio Ojeda. According to La Tribuna, September 23, Ojeda announced the additional dismissal of another 50 workers because they supported Sostoa. "Misery, overcrowding, illness and filth are the characteristics of this town, which only recently began to seek improvements in their standard of living, led by the Sostoa group," said La Tribuna.

Casado vice-president Sergio Peralta Ramos commented that the Ministry of Justice and Labor and the national labor union CPT (which has not been able to decide what to do) supported the company. A local precinct leader expressed his frustration, saying, "If we protest against Casado, our precinct is sure to be intervened. But they never do anything about the Colorados who ally themselves with the company to persecute their fellow party members" (La Tribuna, September 24 and 26).

In Emboscada, Cordillera Department, some people thought it was a political maneuver when the Ministry of Education intervened a local school. The school was named after Andrés Ferreira, who has been the local precinct president for 25 years. Apparently the director and some teachers were supporting the opposition, and they resisted a recent decision to manufacture insignias for required use on school uniforms, with the name of the school (the politician). But three parents went to Asunción to deny that the intervention was politically motivated, saying it was based only on technical and pedagogical factors (ABC, October 2 and 4).

Liberal convention

The former "legitimate directorate" of the Radical Liberal Party (PLR), led by Dr. Augusto Cáceres Carísimo, reunited with the Liberal Party led by Dr. Fulvio H. Celauro, on September 23. Cáceres became one of four vice-presidents on the enlarged Liberal directorate, and his fellow ex-Radicals were elected to two of six other offices.

"As long as they're going to another Liberal sector, it's fine," said PLR senator Enzo Doldán philosophically. "The risk would be if they were going over to the Colorado Party or another current besides ours" (Ultima Hora, September 25). But Dr. Justo Pastor Benítez asked the rules commission of the Chamber of Deputies to expel the five ex-Radicals who changed parties, calling them "political gypsies" (UH, September 14). Legislator Carlos Ferreira replied that Benítez -- whose own party status is unclear -- was a "political undesirable who has no place in any sector of Liberalism" (UH, September 19).

Patria editorialized for several days on "political minifundization" (an apt term in view of the historical relationship between minifundios and latifundios). Said the official daily: "Political parties should be gravitational and representative, they should respond to perfectly characterized principles and doctrines to establish their constitutional legality, and they should offer conditions of permanence and stability, so as to participate productively in the formation of elective authorities and in the orientation of national policy" (September 17, 1979).

Febrerista convention

The XI Ordinary Convention of the Febrerista Revolutionary Party will be held November 23-25, according to a recent press release. Drs. Euclides Acevedo and Carlos Caballero Gatti, and possibly also Dr. Ignacio Iramaín, will be candidates for the party presidency.

Febrerista leaders have denounced a planned electoral "reform", designed "to outlaw the political parties which refuse to participate in the elections" (La Tribuna, September 23). Only the Febrerista Party would be affected, since the other abstentionist parties are not recognized by the Colorado-controlled electoral board. But a Colorado spokesman told the press that the bill in question is five years old, and its passage is "unlikely" (La Tribuna, October 10).

League mission ends

A mission to Paraguay from the International League for Human Rights ended on October 21, after a full week of interviews with the Interior Minister, independent newspaper editors, lawyers, ex-prisoners and prisoners' relatives (they were not allowed to see Laíno). Dr. David Helfeld, specialist in constitutional law at the University of Puerto Rico, and the Rev. William Wipfler of the National Council of Churches in the U.S.A., promised to make their findings available "well before Christmas".

WILLINGNESS TO ASSIST THE JUNTA BY PROVIDING POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND EVEN SECURITY ASSISTANCE SHOULD THE JUNTA DEEM SUCH HELP APPROPRIATE AND CONSISTENT WITH ITS POLICIES AND PROGRAMS.

4. RESPONDING INITIALLY ON BEHALF OF THE JUNTA, DR. GUILLERMO UNGO EXPRESSED APPREICATION FOR THE CONTINUATION OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS AND MY STATEMENT REGARDING THE NATURE OF RELATIONS BETWEEN OUR TWO GOVERNMENTS. HE STATED THAT THE NEW GOVERNMENT WELCOMES AND LOOKS FORWARD TO THE POSSIBILITY OF "CLOSE COOPERATION" WITH THE US IN THE ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND POLITICAL AREAS. HE THEN TURNED TO HIS COLLEAGUES FOR THEIR ADDITIONAL RESPONSES AND COMMENTS.

5. ECONOMIC CRISIS AND NEED FOR EARLY ASSISTANCE -- COL. GUTIERREZ SPOKE OF THE SERIOUS ECONOMIC CRISIS CONFRONTING THE NATION REFLECTED IN HEAVY CAPITAL FLIGHT, LACK OF INVESTMENT AND VIRTUAL CUT-OFF OF FINANCIAL CREDITS -- BOTH INTERNALLY AND EXTERNALLY. ELABORATING ON THIS THEME, JUNTA MEMBER ANDINO MADE A STRONG PLEA (ENDORSED BY OTHER JUNTA MEMBERS) FOR US ASSISTANCE IN IMPROVING THE IMAGE OF THE COUNTRY AND THEREBY FACILITATING THE FLOW OF PUBLIC AND [redacted]

PRIVATE FINANCIAL CREDITS TO ASSIST NATION IN WEATHERING THIS DIFFICULT PERIOD.

6. IN SIMILAR VEIN ANDINO EXPRESSED HOPE THAT IMPROVEMENT IN NATIONAL SITUATION WILL PERMIT EARLY REMOVAL OF TRAVEL ADVISORY WHICH AS REFLECTION OF NATIONAL REALITY HAS SERIOUSLY AFFECTED TOURISM AND INVESTMENTS IN EL SALVADOR. I RESPONDED BY ASSURING JUNTA THAT TRAVEL ADVISORY HAS NEVER INTENDED AS MEANS OF PRESSURING EL SALVADOR. NOTHING INITIAL SIGNS OF IMPROVEMENT ATTENDANT UPON CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT, I STRESSED THAT THE EMBASSY AND USG STRONGLY DESIRE TO LIFT ADVISORY AS SOON AS SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR PERMITS.

7. PICKING UP ON ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE THEME, DR. MAYORGA IMPLIED THAT COUNTRY WOULD WELCOME AND NEED SUBSTANTIAL EXTERNAL HELP BOTH THROUGH BILATERAL AND MULTILATERAL MECHANISMS. HE IMPLIED THAT EL SALVADOR WOULD LIKE SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN AID PROGRAM WITH UNDERSTANDING THAT ADDITIONAL FUNDS COULD NOW BE USED MORE EFFECTIVELY FOR WELL BEING OF POOR AND DISADVANTAGED IN EL SALVADOR. HE, AS WELL AS OTHER JUNTA MEMBERS, ALLUDED SEVERAL TIMES TO JUNTA'S COMMITMENT TO STRUCTURAL CHANGES WHICH WOULD MAKE SUCH ASSISTANCE BOTH NECESSARY AND MORE USEFUL IN HELPING THE MOST NEEDY.

WHICH WILL CREATE GOOD RECORD AND OVERSHADOW NEGATIVE AND PROBABLY UNRECTIFIABLE EXCESSES COMMITTED IN THE PAST. THIS IS NOT THE IDEAL OR MOST DESIRABLE SOLUTION, UNGO SAID, BUT IT APPEARS TO BE THE ONLY VIABLE COURSE OF ACTION GIVEN EXISTING POLITICAL REALITIES.

11. ON THE EQUALLY SENSITIVE ISSUE OF EXCESSIVE OFFICIAL VIOLENCE IN THE PURSUIT OF LAW AND ORDER, I INFORMED THE JUNTA THAT A GROUP OF US HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS HAD MET WITH ME EARLIER IN THE DAY AND CRITICIZED THE SECURITY FORCES FOR USING UNNECESSARY AND EXCESSIVE VIOLENCE IN DISSOLVING TA FAPU ORGANIZED MARCH ON OCT 22 ON THE ROAD FROM THE AIRPORT. IN RESPONSE BOTH ANDINO AND GUTIERREZ UNEASILY ADMITTED THAT ALL OF THEIR EFFORTS TO DATE HAVE PRODUCED CONFLICTING VERSIONS AS TO WHAT REALLY HAPPENED IN TERMS OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR THIS VIOLENT CONFRONTATION. GUTIERREZ AND UNGO TACITEDLY ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THERE MAY BE SOME TRUTH TO CHARGES OF OVERREACTION BY THE SECURITY FORCES. GUTIERREZ ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE JUNTA IS COMMITTED TO STRENGTHENING ITS INVESTIGATIVE CAPABILITY AND AS SOON AS CIRCUMSTANCES PERMIT WILL PROCEED TO WEEK OUT UNDESIRABLE ELEMENTS IN THE SECURITY FORCES. IN THIS CONTEXT, GUTIERREZ

SAID THE JUNTA MET SEVERAL DAYS AGO WITH LEADERS OF ALL THE SECURITY FORCES AND WARNED THEM THAT EXCESSIVE USE OF VIOLENCE, TORTURE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS WILL NO LONGER BE PERMITTED. UNGO SAID THAT APPOINTMENT OF NEW ATTORNEY GENERAL AND A THOROUGH RESTRUCTURING OF JUDICIAL SYSTEM SHOULD GREATLY ASSIST IN HANDLING VIOLENCE AND ILLEGAL ACTIONS IN A MORE HUMANE WAY. WHILE IT WOULD BE UNREALISTIC TO EXPECT 100 PERCENT IMPROVEMENT OVERNIGHT, THEY STRESSED THAT THE JUNTA IS COMMITTED TO AND ENGAGED IN IMPROVING HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES IN EL SALVADOR.

12. US ASSISTANCE AND INDEPENDENCE POSITION OF JUNTA -- CONVERSATION THEN SHIFTED TO ANDINO, WHO IN NAME OF JUNTA EXPRESSED HOPE THAT USG WOULD UNDERSTAND AND ACCEPT THAT NEW GOVERNMENT MUST MAINTAIN ITS "INDEPENDENT CRITERIA" REGARDING PROGRAMS AND PRESUMABLY RELATED QUESTION OF POSSIBLE US ASSISTANCE. IN THIS CONTEXT HE ALSO MADE A SPECIFIC REFERENCE REGARDING UNHELPFUL NATURE OF A US-ORIGINATED REPORT ABOUT POSSIBLE US KNOWLEDGE OF THE COUP. I REPLIED THAT USG UNDERSTANDS AND RESPECTS DOMESTIC AND EXTERNAL SENSITIVITIES OF NEW JUNTA. REITERATED OUR DESIRE TO BE HELPFUL WHILE RESPECTIG JUNTA'S INSTINCTS AND GUIDANCE REGARDING WHAT FORMS SUCH

HAS COMPLETED ITS ECONOMIC DIAGNOSIS I SAID USG WILL BE PLEASED TO CONSIDER AND RESPOND TO REQUESTS FOR ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE.
IN ADDITION, I REITERATED THAT USG IS DISPOSED TO HELP IN ANY OTHER WAY THE JUNTA CONSIDERS APPROPRIATE.
(IT WAS INTERESTING AND PERHAPS SIGNIFICANT THAT AT NO TIME DID ANY JUNTA MEMBER BRING UP SUBJECT OF SECURITY ASSISTANCE.)

SUBJ: MEETING WITH NEW CIVILIAN/MILITARY JUNTA OF EL SALVADOR ON THE CONTINUATION OF RELATIONS

REFS (A) STATE 275713, (B) SAN SALVADOR 6141

1. (S - ENTIRE TEXT)

2. ON OCT 23 AT 1600 DCM HOWARD AND I MET FOR APPROXIMATELY ONE HOUR WITH THREE CIVILIAN AND TWO MILITARY MEMBERS OF THE NEW JUNTA TO PRESENT THE OFFICIAL DIPLOMATIC NOTE (REF A) ON THE CONTINUATION OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS BETWEEN THE GOES AND THE USG. MEETING MARKED CONSTRUCTIVE, SUBSTANTIVE AND USEFUL BEGINNING.

3. AFTER EXPRESSING THE USG'S PLEASURE AT ESTABLISHING FORMAL RELATIONS WITH THE JUNTA I COVERED PASSAGES FROM MY SEPARATE PUBLIC STATEMENT (REF B) COMMENDING THE JUNTA'S EXPRESSED DETERMINATION TO ADHERE TO PRINCIPLE OF HUMAN RIGHTS, TO HOLD FREE AND DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS AND TO SEEK A MORE JUST FUTURE FOR THE PEOPLE OF EL SALVADOR. FROM THE OUTSET, I EMPHASIZED USG'S DESIRE TO STRENGTHEN BILATERAL RELATIONS AND OUR

WILLINGNESS TO ASSIST THE JUNTA BY PROVIDING POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND EVEN SECURITY ASSISTANCE SHOULD THE JUNTA DEEM SUCH HELP APPROPRIATE AND CONSISTENT WITH ITS POLICIES AND PROGRAMS.

4. RESPONDING INITIALLY ON BEHALF OF THE JUNTA, DR. GUILLERMO UNGO EXPRESSED APPREICATION FOR THE CONTINUATION OF DIPLOMATIC RELATIONS AND MY STATEMENT REGARDING THE NATURE OF RELATIONS BETWEEN OUR TWO GOVERNMENTS. HE STATED THAT THE NEW GOVERNMENT WELCOMES AND LOOKS FORWARD TO THE POSSIBILITY OF "CLOSE COOPERATION" WITH THE US IN THE ECONOMIC, SOCIAL AND POLITICAL AREAS. HE THEN TURNED TO HIS COLLEAGUES FOR THEIR ADDITIONAL RESPONSES AND COMMENTS.

5. ECONOMIC CRISIS AND NEED FOR EARLY ASSISTANCE -- COL. GUTIERREZ SPOKE OF THE SERIOUS ECONOMIC CRISIS CONFRONTING THE NATION REFLECTED IN HEAVY CAPITAL FLIGHT, LACK OF INVESTMENT AND VIRTUAL CUT-OFF OF FINANCIAL CREDITS -- BOTH INTERNALLY AND EXTERNALLY. ELABORATING ON THIS THEME, JUNTA MEMBER ANDINO MADE A STRONG PLEA (ENDORSED BY OTHER JUNTA MEMBERS) FOR US ASSISTANCE IN IMPROVING THE IMAGE OF THE COUNTRY AND THEREBY FACILITATING THE FLOW OF PUBLIC AND [redacted]

PRIVATE FINANCIAL CREDITS TO ASSIST NATION IN WEATHERING THIS DIFFICULT PERIOD.

6. IN SIMILAR VEIN ANDINO EXPRESSED HOPE THAT IMPROVEMENT IN NATIONAL SITUATION WILL PERMIT EARLY REMOVAL OF TRAVEL ADVISORY WHICH AS REFLECTION OF NATIONAL REALITY HAS SERIOUSLY AFFECTED TOURISM AND INVESTMENTS IN EL SALVADOR. I RESPONDED BY ASSURING JUNTA THAT TRAVEL ADVISORY HAS NEVER INTENDED AS MEANS OF PRESSURING EL SALVADOR. NOTHING INITIAL SIGNS OF IMPROVEMENT ATTENDANT UPON CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT, I STRESSED THAT THE EMBASSY AND USG STRONGLY DESIRE TO LIFT ADVISORY AS SOON AS SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR PERMITS.

7. PICKING UP ON ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE THEME, DR. MAYORGA IMPLIED THAT COUNTRY WOULD WELCOME AND NEED SUBSTANTIAL EXTERNAL HELP BOTH THROUGH BILATERAL AND MULTILATERAL MECHANISMS. HE IMPLIED THAT EL SALVADOR WOULD LIKE SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN AID PROGRAM WITH UNDERSTANDING THAT ADDITIONAL FUNDS COULD NOW BE USED MORE EFFECTIVELY FOR WELL BEING OF POOR AND DISADVANTAGED IN EL SALVADOR. HE, AS WELL AS OTHER JUNTA MEMBERS, ALLUDED SEVERAL TIMES TO JUNTA'S COMMITMENT TO STRUCTURAL CHANGES WHICH WOULD MAKE SUCH ASSISTANCE BOTH NECESSARY AND MORE USEFUL IN HELPING THE MOST NEEDY.

8. REFERRING TO FORTHCOMING IDB MISSION, MAYORGA LODGED A SPECIAL REQUEST FOR USG UNDERSTANDING AND ACTIVE SUPPORT -- NOT JUST NEUTRALITY -- IN NEW GOVERNMENT'S EFFORTS TO OBTAIN SUBSTANTIAL ASSISTANCE IN SOFT LOANS TO CARRY OUT PROGRAM OF ECONOMIC TRANSITION. MAYORGA SAID NEW GOES IS PUTTING TOGETHER "EMERGENCY" ECONOMIC PROGRAM WHOSE PRIMARY OBJECTIVES WILL BE TO CREATE EMPLOYMENT, STIMULATE PRODUCTION AND PUT UNUSED CAPACITY TO WORK. PROGRAM'S SUCCESS WILL,

IN IMPORTANT MEASURE, DEPEND ON AFFIRMATIVE US SUPPORT IN THE IDB. EL SALVADOR DESPERATELY NEEDS A RAPID AND AGILE RESPONSE TO ITS AID REQUESTS, MAYORGA EMPHASIZED.

9. HUMAN RIGHTS -- AT THIS JUNCTURE CONVERSATION SHIFTED TO QUESTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND COROLLARY AND THORNY ISSUES OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS. IN RESPONSE TO UNGO'S INQUIRY ABOUT HOW FOREIGN PRESS IS REACTING TO JUNTA, I POINTED OUT THAT INITIAL REACTION TO NEW JUNTA HAS BEEN POSITIVE WITH

TINGE OF SKEPTICISM AS TO WHETHER NEW LEADERSHIP WILL BE ABLE TO COPE WITH EXTREMES OF LEFT AND RIGHT WHILE FOLLOWING THROUGH ON PROMISED RE-FORMS IN HUMAN RIGHTS
AND OTHER FIELDS. GUTIERREZ AND UNGO THEN OUTLINED DIFFICULTY JUNTA IS ENCOUNTERING IN COPING WITH CONTINUING VIOLENCE AND NEARLY INSOLUBLE PROBLEM OF DISAPPEARED PERSONS.

10. REGARDING LATTER, JUNTA HAS SEARCHED JAILS AND NOW VERIFIED THAT ALLEGED 300 POLITICAL PRISONERS NO LONGER EXIST, BUT IT DOES NOT KNOW HOW TO REVEAL AND ADMIT THIS FACT PUBLILY WITHOUT PROVOKING PUBLIC OUT-CRY. MEANWHILE, HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, COMMITTEE OF MOTHERS, LEFTISTS GROUPS, ETC., ARE DEMANDING THAT JUNTA [redacted]

PAGE 02 SAN SA 06150 02 OF 02 251629Z

OBTAIN EXTRADITION OF EX-PRESIDENTS MOLINA AND ROMERO AND BRINGING OF CHARGES AGAINST NUMEROUS OFFICERS IN MILITARY AND SECURITY FORCES FOR THEIR ALLEGED RESPONSIBILITY IN PAST HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS. HE SAID ROOTING OUT AND PUNISHING PAST VIOLATORS IS A DESIRABLE BUT POLITICALLY IMPOSSIBLE TASK UNDER CURRENT CIRCUMSTANCES. AS A RESULT, UNGO EXPLAINED THAT CHALLENGE AND PRIMARY OBJECTIVE OF JUNTA IS TO IMPLEMENT POSITIVE HUMAN RIGHTS MEASURE IN FUTURE

WHICH WILL CREATE GOOD RECORD AND OVERSHADOW NEGATIVE AND PROBABLY UNRECTIFIABLE EXCESSES COMMITTED IN THE PAST. THIS IS NOT THE IDEAL OR MOST DESIRABLE SOLUTION, UNGO SAID. BUT IT APPEARS TO BE THE ONLY VIABLE COURSE OF ACTION GIVEN EXISTING POLITICAL REALITIES.

11. ON THE EQUALLY SENSITIVE ISSUE OF EXCESSIVE OFFICIAL VIOLENCE IN THE PURSUIT OF LAW AND ORDER, I INFORMED THE JUNTA THAT A GROUP OF US HUMAN RIGHTS ACTIVISTS HAD MET WITH ME EARLIER IN THE DAY AND CRITICIZED THE SECURITY FORCES FOR USING UNNECESSARY AND EXCESSIVE VIOLENCE IN DISSOLVING TA FAPU ORGANIZED MARCH ON OCT 22 ON THE ROAD FROM THE AIRPORT. IN RESPONSE BOTH ANDINO AND GUTIERREZ UNEASILY ADMITTED THAT ALL OF THEIR EFFORTS TO DATE HAVE PRODUCED CONFLICTING VERSIONS AS TO WHAT REALLY HAPPENED IN TERMS OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR THIS VIOLENT CONFRONTATION. GUTIERREZ AND UNGO TACITEDLY ACKNOWLEDGED THAT THERE MAY BE SOME TRUTH TO CHARGES OF OVERREACTION BY THE SECURITY FORCES. GUTIERREZ ADDED, HOWEVER, THAT THE JUNTA IS COMMITTED TO STRENGTHENING ITS INVESTIGATIVE CAPABILITY AND AS SOON AS CIRCUMSTANCES PERMIT WILL PROCEED TO WEEK OUT UNDESIRABLE ELEMENTS IN THE SECURITY FORCES. IN THIS CONTEXT, GUTIERREZ [redacted]

SAID THE JUNTA MET SEVERAL DAYS AGO WITH LEADERS OF ALL THE SECURITY FORCES AND WARNED THEM THAT EXCESSIVE USE OF VIOLENCE, TORTURE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND OTHER HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS WILL NO LONGER BE PERMITTED. UNGO SAID THAT APPOINTMENT OF NEW ATTORNEY GENERAL AND A THOROUGH RESTRUCTURING OF JUDICIAL SYSTEM SHOULD GREATLY ASSIST IN HANDLING VIOLENCE AND ILLEGAL ACTIONS IN A MORE HUMANE WAY. WHILE IT WOULD BE UNREALISTIC TO EXPECT 100 PERCENT IMPROVEMENT OVERNIGHT, THEY STRESSED THAT THE JUNTA IS COMMITTED TO AND ENGAGED IN IMPROVING HUMAN RIGHTS PRACTICES IN EL SALVADOR.

12. US ASSISTANCE AND INDEPENDENCE POSITION OF JUNTA -- CONVERSATION THEN SHIFTED TO ANDINO, WHO IN NAME OF JUNTA EXPRESSED HOPE THAT USG WOULD UNDERSTAND AND ACCEPT THAT NEW GOVERNMENT MUST MAINTAIN ITS "INDEPENDENT CRITERIA" REGARDING PROGRAMS AND PRESUMABLY RELATED QUESTION OF POSSIBLE US ASSISTANCE. IN THIS CONTEXT HE ALSO MADE A SPECIFIC REFERENCE REGARDING UNHELPFUL NATURE OF A US-ORIGINATED REPORT ABOUT POSSIBLE US KNOWLEDGE OF THE COUP. I REPLIED THAT USG UNDERSTANDS AND RESPECTS DOMESTIC AND EXTERNAL SENSITIVITIES OF NEW JUNTA, REITERATED OUR DESIRE TO BE HELPFUL WHILE RESPECTIG JUNTA'S INSTINCTS AND GUIDANCE REGARDING WHAT FORMS SUCH

ASSISTANCE MIGHT TAKE. WHEN JUNTA
HAS COMPLETED ITS ECONOMIC DIAGNOSIS I SAID USG WILL BE PLEASED TO CONSIDER AND RESPOND TO REQUESTS FOR ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE.
IN ADDITION, I REITERATED THAT USG IS DISPOSED TO HELP IN ANY OTHER WAY THE JUNTA CONSIDERS APPROPRIATE.
(IT WAS INTERESTING AND PERHAPS SIGNIFICANT THAT AT NO TIME DID ANY JUNTA MEMBER BRING UP SUBJECT OF SECURITY ASSISTANCE.)

13. THE MEETING CONCLUDED ON A POSITIVE NOTE WITH

JUNTA MEMBERS STATING THEIR DESIRE TO MAINTAIN CLOSE, INFORMAL AND DISCREET CONTACT WITH ME AND OTHER KEY

READILY AGREED, TO WORK OUT FLEXIBLE AND INFORMAL CHANNELS OF COMMUNICATION WHICH WILL ENABLE OUR TWO GOVERNMENTS TO WORK TOGETHER EFFECTIVELY IN THE DIFFICULT PERIOD THAT LIES AHEAD.

2. POLOFF MET WITH FRONT FOR UNIFIED POPULAR ACTION (FAPU) SECRETARY GENERAL JOSE ALBERTO RAMOS MORNING OCTOBER 24 TO DISCUSS FAPU'S CURRENT ATTITUDE AND ACTIONS IN WAKE OF COUP THAT BROUGHT REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERNMENT (JRG) TO POWER. RAMOS SAID FAPU COULD NOT SUPPORT JRG, BUT ON OTHER HAND WAS NOT ACTIVELY OPPOSING IT. HE STATED THAT FAPU [redacted]

DECLARATION CRITICIZING COUP (REF B) HAD NOT BEEN DRAWN UP UNTIL AFTER JUNTA HAD ALREADY ACTED VIOLENTLY TO DISLODGE STRIKERS FROM FACTORIES OCT 16 EVEN ALTHOUGH SOME OF STRIKES ALREADY HAD BEEN IN PROGRESS FOR A LONG TIME. IN ADDITION, HE CLAIMED HARASSSMENT AND PERSECUTION OF FPAU WAS CONTINUING AND THAT IN SOME PARTS OF COUNTRYSIDE, OPPRESSION WAS CONTINUING AS IT HAD PRIOR TO COUP.

PARTICIPATED DIRECTLY IN POPULAR FORUM, IT HAD BEEN REPRESENTED INDIRECTLY BY FAPU-CONTROLLED LABOR MOVEMENT (FENASTRANS). HOWEVER, UNDER PRESENT CIRCUMSTANCES, FAPU AFFILIATES HAD WITHDRAWN AT LEAST TEMPORARILY FROM POPULAR FORUM BECAUSE OF LATTTER'S SUPPORT FOR JRG. CONSEQUENTLY, FAPU WOULD NOT PARTICIPATE IN POPULAR FORUM DEMONSTRATION AFTERNOON OCT 24 BECAUSE OF IMPLIED SUPPORT FOR JRG. RAMOS INDICATED THAT CONTACTS AND NEGOTIATIONS WITH POPULAR FORUM WERE CONTINUING, HOWEVER, AND THERE WAS POSSIBILITY THAT SOME KIND OF "FRONT" WOULD BE FORMED TO WHICH FAPU COULD SUBSCRIBE. HE EXPRESSED GENERAL APPROVAL OF COMMON PLATFORM.

4. ON OTHER HAND, RAMOS STATED FAPU IS NOT ACTIVELY OPPOSING JRG. FAPU SUSPECTS AND DISTRUSTS SALVADORAN MILITARY ON BASIS OF HISTORY AS WELL AS CONTINUING REPRESSIVE ACTS AFTER COUP. HE COMMENTED ON OCT 22 INCIDENT IN WHICH SEVERAL PEOPLE WERE KILLED WHILE PARTICIPATING IN FAPU SPONSORED DEMONSTRATION AS INDICATIVE OF SITUATION. RAMOS MAINTAINED DEMONSTRATION WAS FIRED UPON FROM REAR BY MILITARY PERSONNEL IN UNIFORM AND THAT THERE WAS ALSO FIRE FROM SOME NATIONAL GUARD PPERSONNEL AND PEOPLE IN CIVILIAN CLOTHES. FAPU, HE SAID, WAS CONVINCED THAT THIS WAS "OFFICIAL" REPRESSION, RATHER THAN AN ISOLATED, INDEPENDENT ACT BY RIGHTIST ELEMENT. BUT HE SAID FAPU DID NOT KNOW AT WHAT LEVEL RESPONSIBILITY FOR ACTION LIES, WHETHER WITH UNIT COMMANDERS OR HIGHER UP IN JRG.

5. STILL, FAPU RECOGNIZED JUNTA PROCLAMATIONS CONTAINED DESIRABLE CHANGES, AND TIME SHOULD BE ALLOWED FOR REFORMS TO BE REALIZED. HOWEVER, RAMOS CRITICIZED SLOWNESS WITH WHICH JRG IS ACTING, INDICATING THIS REFLECTED ADVERSELY ON JUNTA'S CREDIBILITY. BUT FAPU HOPED FOR BASIC, ENDURING REFORMS AND IS WILLING TO ALLOW REASONABLE PERIOD OF GRACE IF THERE ARE SIGNS OF PROGRESS. HE MENTIONED SIX MONTHS AS A VERY GENERAL POSSIBILITY. AT SAME TIME, HE INDICATED IN FAPU'S OPINION JRG IS IN DANGEROUS POSITION, BESEIGED BY RIGHT AND LEFT AND NOT ACTING FAST ENOUGH AND RESPONSIVELY ENOUGH TO ATTRACT POPULAR SUPPORT.

6. RAMOS QUESTIONED USG SPONSORSHIP AND GUIDANCE OF COUP, CITING INFORMATION FAPU HAD ON EMBASSY CONTACTS PRIOR TO COUP. (NOTE: EXAMPLES RAMOS GAVE WERE VERY WIDE OF MARK, DEMONSTRATING NO SUBSTANTIVE INFORMATION ON SUBJECT). HE ALSO EXPRESSED VIEW IT WAS WITH USG PLANNING AND CONNIVANCE THAT LEADERS OF ROMERO GOVERNMENT HAD BEEN ALLOWED TO LEAVE EL SALVADOR. RAMOS ACCEPTED WITHOUT CONTRADICTION POLOFF'S CATEGORIC STATEMENT OF NO USG INVOLVEMENT, BUT IT IS EXTREMELY UNLIKELY

HE WAS CONVINCED.

7. WASHINGTON ORIGINATED STATEMENT OF POSSIBILITY OF MILITARY ASSISTANCE FOR JUNTA WERE STRONGLY CRITICIZED BY RAMOS. HE AFFIRMED JUNTA DID NOT NEED SUCH ASSISTANCE AND THAT FAPU FEARED IT WOULD SUBSEQUENTLY BE USED TO REPRESS PUBLIC.
8. POLOFF RAISED OCT 8 FAPU DEMONSTRATION AGAINST EMBASSY. RAMOS SAID PURPOSE OF DEMONSTRATION WAS NOTHING MORE THAN TO COMMEMORATE ANNIVERSARY OF DEATH OF [redacted]

CHE GUEVARA AND AS USG HAD BEEN INVOLVED IN HIS CAPTURE AND DEATH. DEMONSTRATIOON IN FRONT OF EMBASSY WAS CONSIDERED APPROPRIATE. HE STATED CATEGORICALLY THAT THERE HAD NEVER BEEN ANY INTENTION TO TAKE VIOLENT ACTION AGAINST EMBASSY PROPERTY OR PERSONNEL ALTHOUGH HE ADMITTED EMBASSY GUARDS MIGHT HAVE FELT ENDANGERED.

9. LOCAL PRESS CARRIED FAPU AD INVITING NEWSMEN TO PRESS CONFERENCE AT NATIONAL UNIVERSITY AT 9:00 A.M. OCTOBER 24, BUT RAMOS SAID HE HAD ALREADY INFORMED COLLEAGUES HE WOULD BE LATE FOR CONFERENCE BECAUSE OF EMBASSY APPOINTMENT. HE INDICATED SAME BASIC POINTS WOULD BE COVERED IN PRESS CONFERENCE THAT HE HAD DISCUSSED WITH POLOFF.

10. COMMENT: RAMOS WAS MUCH MORE RELAXED AND ELOQUENT THAN IN INITIAL MEETING WITH POLOFF, BUT AGAIN THERE WERE NO POLEMICS NOR DIATRIBES. RAMOS GIVES IMPRESSION OF BEING FRANK, BUT OPINIONS HE EXPRESSED MUST BE VIEWED IN TERMS OF ORIENTATION AND SELF-INTERESTS OF ORGANIZATION HE REPRESENTS.

SUBJECT: CONVERSATION WITH ARGENTINE EXILE JACOBO TIMERMAN
1. [redacted] - ENTIRE TEXT)

2. IN CONVERSATION WITH PRESS ATTACHE DIETERICH, WHO KNEW HIM IN ARGENTINA DURING A 1972-74 TOUR THERE, TIMERMAN DISCUSSED INTER ALIA HIS INTERROGATION BY POLICE AUTHORITIES IN ARGENTINA, ANTI-SEMITISM ON THE ARGENTINA MILITARY RIGHT, HIS PERSONAL DILEMMA AS TO WHETHER TO WRITE ABOUT HIS EXPERIENCES, AND THE FUTURE OF ARGENTINE POLITICS. TIMERMAN WILL BE IN THE UNITED STATES TO RECEIVE AN AWARD FROM THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE ON SATURDAY, OCT. 27. AFTER THAT HE PLANS TO TRAVEL TO NEW YORK WHERE HE EXPECTS TO SEE ASSISTANT SECRETARY DERIAN. THEN HE WILL GO TO WASHINGTON FOR VARIOUS MEETINGS ON THE HILL, AT THE DEPARTMENT, AND AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

3. TIMERMAN SAID THAT THE MAIN FOCUS OF QUESTIONING DURING HIS IMPRISONMENT WAS HIS ROLE AS THE ARGENTINE "LEADER" OF AN ALLEGED WORLD ZIONIST CONSPIRACY, AND THAT THERE WAS VERY LITTLE EMPHASIS ON ANY LEFTIST OR TERRORIST CONNECTIONS. HE WAS ONCE TORTURED IN LA PLATA IN A ROOM WITH AN ORGANIZATION CHART WHICH SHOWED ZBIGNIEW BRZEZINSKI AS THE LEADER OF THE CONSPIRACY. ON ANOTHER OCCASION HE WAS TOLD THAT HE WAS BEING BEATEN BECAUSE HE HAD DARED TO USE THE TERM LEFTIST-FASCISTS IN A CONVERSATION WITH ASSISTANT SECRETARY DERIAN, THE OBJECTION APPARENTLY BEING THAT HE HAD SLANDERED FASCISM. HE WAS ALSO QUESTIONED CONCERNING SUPPOSED CONTACTS BETWEEN MENACHEM BEGIN AND THE MONTONERO GUERILLAS DURING A BEGIN VISIT TO ARGENTINA IN 1976. TIMERMAN BELIEVED THESE QUESTIONS STEMMED FROM THE FACT THAT BEGIN'S BOOK "WAR IN THE HOLY LAND" HAD BEEN FOUND AMONG MATERIALS USED BY THE MONTONEROS. TIMERMAN WAS BROUGHT FROM PRISON TO AN INTERVIEW WITH GEN. MARGUINDEGUY IN THE CASA ROSADA PRIOR TO A DERIAN VISIT. THE GENERAL INFORMED HIM THAT THE ARGENTINA GOVERNMENT WAS AWARE THAT PATT DERIAN WAS INTERESTED IN HIS CASE BECAUSE SHE WAS HIS COUSIN.

4. TIMERMAN ALSO REPORTS THAT HE BELIEVES LANUSSE'S EXPRESS SECRETARY EDGARDO SAJON DIED OF A HEART ATTACK DURING TORTURE BY ELECTRIC SHOCK. SINCE HE WAS A RELATIVELY YOUNG MAN, THE MILITARY DID NOT SUSPECT THAT HE HAD A HEART CONDITION.

5. TIMERMAN IS NOW RELUCTANT TO WRITE ABOUT HIS EXPERIENCES IN ARGENTINA BECAUSE HE FEARS REPRISALS BY THE MILITARY AGAINST FRIENDS STILL IN ARGENTINA. AS AN EXAMPLE OF THIS HE MENTIONED THAT ROBERT COX, EDITOR OF THE BUENOS AIRES HERALD, HAD SENT A MESSAGE TO HIM THROUGH THE ISRAELI EMBASSY IN BUENOS AIRES ASKING HIM

4328 AK328 TEL AV 22928 01 OF 02 280404Z Argentina

NOT TO MENTION COX IN ANY ARTICLES.

6. TIMERMAN ALSO MENTIONED THAT HE BELIEVES THE RIGHT-WING AND VERY ANTI-SEMITIC NEWSPAPER CABILDO IS FINANCED BY DIANA DE MASSOT, PUBLISHER OF NUEVA PROVINCIA IN BAHIA BLANCA. (NB: MRS. MASSOT WAS WELL-KNOWN TO THE EMBASSY, AND IF MEMORY SERVES, RECEIVED A MARIA MOORS CABOT OR IAPA AWARD IN 1973 OR 1974.)

7. AS TO THE FUTURE OF ARGENTINE POLITICS, TIMERMAN SAYS HE SEES A SITUATION IN WHICH MODERATE AND RIGHT WING ELEMENTS IN THE MILITARY WILL COMPETE FOR PERONIST SUPPORT, WHICH MAY CREATE A SITUATION IN WHICH ISABEL PERON WILL BE IN A POSITION TO DECIDE WHO RUNS ARGENTINA.

8. IN CONVERSATION WITH TIMERMAN ONE IS LEFT WITH A CHILLING IMPRESSION THAT HE IS SIMPLY REPORTING WHAT HE HAS EXPERIENCED AND BELIEVES. HE CHARACTERIZES THE ARGENTINE MILITARY RIGHT AS CLASSICALLY TOTALITARIAN AND ANTI-SEMITIC.

9. TIMERMAN IS NOW EMPLOYED BY THE IMPORTANT TEL AVIV DAILY MAARIV AND SEEMS COMFORTABLE WITH THAT FACT, ALTHOUGH HE SAID HE MIGHT BE INTERESTED IN SPENDING SOME TIME AT AN ACADEMIC INSTITUTION IN THE US. HE SPECIFICALLY MENTIONED COLUMBIA. THUS FAR HE HAS WRITTEN ONLY ON LATIN AMERICAN MATTERS, BUT IT IS TO BE EXPECTED THAT HE WILL BRANCH INTO BROADER DISCUSSION OF INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL MATTERS. HE SAID THAT THE THEME OF A SPEECH HE WILL GIVE IN THE UNITED STATES WILL BE HUMAN RIGHTS AS THE IDEOLOGY OF THE EIGHTIES, AND ADDED THAT THE US

AS STATED REFTEL, LT:.COL WALKER AND I DINED LAST NIGHT WITH REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNING JUNTA (JRG) MEMBER COLONEL JAIME ABDUL GUTIERREZ, MINISTER OF DEFENSE COLONEL GARCIA, AND SECRETARY OF INFORMATION MAJOR (RETIRED) SALAZAR BRENES. LET ME AT THE OUTSET THANK DEPARMENT AND EMBASSY MANAGUA FOR THE INVALUABLE INFORMATION AND COMMENT WITH WHICH THEY SO QUICKLY ARMED US FOR THIS DISCUSSION.

3. I WAS IMMEDIATELY STRUCK BY HOW TIRED COLONEL GUTIERREZ APPEARED. WHEN WE SUGGESTED THAT THE PAST TWO WEEKS MUST HAVE BEEN TRYING ONES, HE AGREED AND THEN ADDED WARILY THAT THINGS HAD BEEN GOING WELL "UNTIL TODAY".

4. OUR DISCUSSION LASTED OVER THREE HOURS AND WAS A FAR-RANGING ONE, VARIOUS ASPECTS OF WHICH WILL BE REPORTED OR ENLARGED UPON IN SEPTELS. WE MADE CLEAR TO OUR VISITORS THE APPROVAL OF USG FOR THEIR PROCLAIMED PROGRAM OF POLITICAL, ECONOMIC, AND SOCIAL REFORM, THEIR COMMITMENT TO FREE ELECTIONS, ETC., AND OUR DESIRE TO BE OF SUPPORT. WE TRIED TO COMMENT HELPFULLY

UPON POLITICAL ASPECTS OF THEIR SITUATION, EMPHASIZING THE IMPORTANCE WHICH ATTACHES TO RETENTION AND ENLARGEMENT OF THEIR BASE OF POLITICAL SUPPORT. WE DISCUSSED WITH THEM IN SYMPATHETIC AND HOPEFULLY HELPFUL TERMS THEIR PROBLEM RELATING TO POLITICAL PRISONERS AND THE DISAPPEARED PERSONS. WE STRESSED THE POSITIVE IMPACT WHICH HAD BEEN CREATED BY THEIR COMMITMENT TO HUMAN RIGHTS AND URGED THAT THEY HOLD TO THIS IN THE FACE OF OBVIOUS PROVOCATION FROM THE EXTREME LEFT. AT THE SAME TIME, WE ASSURED THEM OF OUR PRACTICIAL RECOGNITION OF THEIR NECESSITY TO DEFEND THE JRG AND SALVADORAN SOCIETY AGAINST POLITICAL VIOLENCE INTENDED TO LEAD TO CIVIL INSURRECTION, BUT WE URGED THAT THIS BE DONE WITH MINIMUM POSSIBLE COUNTER-VIOLENCE.

5. FOR THEIR PART, OUR DINNER GUESTS WERE RELAXED AND REMARKABLY FORTHCOMING. THEY ADMITTED TO SOME DIFFERENCES OF APPROACH BETWEEN THE MILITARY AND CIVILIAN MEMBERS OF JRG BUT ACCEPTED WITH GOOD GRACE OUR SUGGESTION THAT IT WAS HIGHLY IMPORTANT TO GET THEM ALL ON THE SAME WAVELENGTH. THEY DENIED THE RUMOR THAT JRG MEMBER MARIO ANDINO MIGHT BE READY TO RESIGN AND SAID SMILINGLY THAT TO THE CONTRARY HE MIGHT BE THE LAST TO GO. JRG MEMBER GUILLERMO MANUEL UNGO THEY DESCRIBED AS AN EXPERIENCED POLITICAN WHO UNDERSTOOD THE TRIALS OF THE MOMENT. BUT WITH RESPECT TO THE FINAL CIVILIAN MEMBER OF JRG, RECOTOR [redacted]

ROMAN MYRDGA, THEY TERMED HIM A "MAGNIFICENT PERSON" BUT ONE WHO IS OVERWHELMED BY THE ABRUPT CHANGE FROM ACADEMIC LIFE TO THE PRACTICAL PRESSURES OF RUNNING A GOVERNMENT.

6. IN THE COURSE OF THE CONVERSATION, I MENTIONED HAVING READ THAT EL SALVADOR'S NEW FOREIGN MINISTER HAD STATED AT LA PAZ THAT GOES WOULD BE RECOGNIZING AND ESTABLISHING RELATIONS WITH CUBA. REPEATING MY EARLIER ASSURANCES THAT THIS WAS OBVIOUSLY AN INHERENT RIGHT AND THE SOVEREIGN DECISION OF EACH GOVERNMENT, I THEN IMPLEMENTED STATE 281136. SALVADORAN GUESTS HEARD ME OUT, COMMENTED THAT EVERY JOURNALIST WHOM THEY SEE PRESSES THEM ON THIS, SAID THAT THE ESTABLISHMENT OF RELATIONS WITH CUBA HAS A VERY LOW PRIORITY WITH THEM, AND THAT WHILE THEY MIGHT BE MOVING TOWARD THIS END IT MIGHT TAKE THEM A VERY LONG TIME EVER TO GET THERE. IT WAS AGAIN APPARENT FROM THEIR MANNER,ESPECIALLY THAT OF COLONEL GUTIERREZ, THAT HE THOUGHT THEY MIGHT NEVER MAKE IT.

7. WHEN THEY BROUGHT UP NICARAGUA AND THEIR CONCERN OVER REPORTS OR OTHER INDICATIONS OF A POSSIBLE SANDINISTA-SPONSORED THREAT TO EL SALVADOR, I DREW UPON MANAGUA 5209, MANAGUA 5245, AND STATE 282423 TO MAKE APPROPRIATE REPLY. ALL THREE GUESTS LISTENED INTENTLY TO ENTIRE PRESENTATION, SEEMED REASSURED BY ITS GENERAL TENOR AND CONTENTN, RELAXED VISIBLY ON THE SUBJECT OF NICARAGUA, AND RAISED VARIOUS POINTS FOR DISCUSSION. WE CAUTIONED THEM THAT WHAT WE

WERE SUPPLYING WAS OUR BEST ESTIMATE BUT THAT THEY SHOULD IN NO WAY LET DOWN THEIR GUARD, ESPECIALLY SINCE WE HAVE TERECEIVED REPEATED REPORTS OF SIZEABLE ARMS SHIPMENTS INTO EL SALVADOR PLUS A STEADILY INCREASING LEVEL OF TRAINING
COUNTRY. IN CONCLUDING THIS PART OF CONVERSATION, OUR GUESTS EXPRESSED CONTUING INTEREST IN ANYTHING ELSE WE MIGHT DEVELOP ON THE SUBJECT AND ACCEPTED WITH ENTHUSIASM
OUR OFFFER (STATE 282423 PARA 7) TO COOPERATE WITH JRG IN TERMS OF INTELLIGENCE EXCHANGES ON SUBVERSIVE ACTIVITIES

THEY SEEMED TO AGREE ON THIS LATTER POINT AND EXPRESSED CONFIDENCE THAT JRG WOULD BE ACTING AS A UNIFIED TEAM. WE LEFT IT THAT LT.COL. BOWEN AND LT.COL. GEORGES OF OUR MILGROUP WOULD BE IN EARLY TOUCH WITH THEM TO WORK OUT DETAILS AND FACILITATE FORWARD MOVEMENT ON THIS FRONT.

10. AS INDICATED ABOVE, WE WILL BE REPORTING SEPARATELY ON OTHER ASPECTS OF CONVERSATION, BUT WE DID TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO IMPRESS UPON OUR GUESTS THE IMPORTANCE OF ESTABLSHING EARLY AND EFFECTIVE WORKING CONTACT BETWEEN THE VARIOUS ELEMENTS OF OUR MISSION AND THE CORRESPONDING MINISTERS IN THE NEW CABINET (RECOGNIZING, OF COURSE, THAT MINISTERS OF ECONOMY, PLANNING AND LABOR HAVE ALL BEEN HOSTAGES OF THE BPR DURING PAST FEW DAYS). I DESCRIBED IN GENERAL TERMS NATURE OF OUR USAID PROGRAM AND SOME OF ITS CAPABILITIES. WHEN OUR VISITORS EXPRESSED OVERRIDING PREOCCUPATION WITH CURRENT LIQUIDITY PROBLEM OF GOES, I

HE SAID THAT "WE WANT AND NEED THESE TYPES OF THINGS IN ORDER TO AVOID NEEDLESS BLOODSHED IN THE DIFFICULT TIMES THAT ARE AHEAD OF US ALL." ADDITIONALLY, COLONEL GARCIA STATED THAT JRG WAS SPECIFICALLY INTERESSTED IN NTHAL TYPE BULLETS, I.E. RUBBER, PLASTIC, OR WHATEVER IS AVAILABLE, RIO CONTROL TYPE HELMETS (NOT STEEL HELMETS), IN ADDITION TO OTHER ITEMS LISTED FIRST IN REF A.

B. SPECIFIC ITEMS IN QUANTITIES THAT JRG WILL BE NEEDING ARE BEING STAFFED WITHIN MINISTRY OF DEFENSE AT THIS POINT AND A SPECIFIC FORMAL REQUEST AND FINANCING DATA WILL BE FORTHCOMING FROM MOD IN VERY NEAR FUTURE.

C. MOD WILL DESIGNATE A POINT OF CONTACT TO REPRESENT MOD IN SECURITY ASSISTANCE REQUESTS TO DEAL DIRECTLY WITH MILGROUP IN HOPES OF EXPEDITING ANY AGREEMENTS.

D. OTHER CATEGORIES OF ITEMS LISTED IN PARA 6 REF A ARE NOT BEING REQUESTED AT THIS TIME AS JRG DOES NOT FEEL THAT THESE TYPES OF ITEMS ARE OF PRIORITY NATURE VIS A VIS RIOT CONTROL EQUIPMENT.

E. COLONEL GARCIA ASSURED MILGROUP THAT ANY FORMAL REQUEST FOR MILITARY ASSISTANCE WOULD BE A COORDINATED JRG POSITION AND NOT SOLELY A MILITARY DECISION.

F. MILGROUP EXPLAINED THAT A FORMAL REQUEST FOR RESUMPTION OF MILITARY ASSITANCE IF DESIRED BY JRG WOULD AID IN EXPEDITING ANY FUTURE REQUESTS FOR ANY TYPE OF [redacted]

3. DUARTE, OBVIOUSLY TIRED AND UNDER GREAT PERSONAL TENSION, LED OFF DISCUSSION BY FIRST SUMMARIZING HIS OUTSIDE ANALYSIS OF THE CRISIS IN EL SALVADOR AS SHARED WITH US OFFICIALS IN CARACAS. DUARTE AND OTHERS REITERATED PDC'S CONCLUSION IN EARLY SEPTEMBER THAT ROMERO GOVERNMENT WAS UNABLE AND/OR UNWILLING TO DIRECT COUNTRY TO GENUINE DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS; HENCE, SOME OTHER SEMI-CONSTITUTIONAL SOLUTION OF "GOLPE DE ESTADO" WAS REQUIRED TO REMOVE ROMERO FROM POWER

AND OPEN WAY FOR MORE BROADLY-BASED GOVERNMENT THAT COULD SEIZE POLITICAL INITIATIVE/POPULAR SUPPORT FROM EXTREME LEFT AND HOLD DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS. IN THIS CONTEXT DUARTE WAS SOMEWHAT CRITICAL OF US POLICY NOT REACHING CONCLUSION EARLIER THAT ROMERO WAS A LOST CAUSE AND TAKING INTELLIGENT STEPS IN LINE WITH OBVIOUS BACKNRUPTCY OF ROMERO'S PROTESTATIONS REAGARDING DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS. IN LIEU OF INTELLIGENT ACTION BEFORE FACT, HE SAID, USG SEEMED WEDDED TO REACTIVE POSTLY BWHICH AWAITED MOMENT OF CRISIS AND THEN CAME ON FULL THROTTLE WITH MOMENTUM OF BUREAUCRATIC RESPONSE CALLING FOR ALL-OUT SUPPORT TO NEW JUNTA. WHILE US SUPPORT FOR JRG IS IMPORTANT -- INDEED, PERHAPS ESSENTIAL -- TO ITS SURVIVAL, IT MUST BE GIVEN WITH INTELLIGENCE, SUBTLY, AND RESPONSIVE TO INTERNAL POLITICAL SENSITIVITIES IN JRG. IT MUST BE PROFFFERED SO AS TO AVOID PUBLIC STIGMA OF US CREATION.

4. DUARTE AND OTHER PDC LEADERS WERE ALL VERY CONCERNED BY EVIDENT STRENGTH AND AGGRESSIVE POSTURE OF EXTREME LEFT WHICH SEEMS BENT UPON IMMEDIATE AND VIOLENT CHALLENGE TO JRG BEFORE IT CAN ORGANIZE

AND CONSOLIDATE ITS POSITION. DUARTE THEN MENTIONED REPORTS FROM AN UNKNOWN SOURCE THAT SANDINISTA LEADER TOMAS BORGE HAD SAID PRIVATELY THAT 100 OF 600 TRAINED GUERRILLAS HAVE BEEN DISPATCHED TO EL SALVADOR AND THAT AN INTERNATIONAL FORCE OF SOME 3000 IS IN TRAINING FOR USE AT THE PROPER MOMENT. ALLEGED REPORT IS SIMILAR TO INFORMATION JRG PUBLIC RELATIONS CHIEF SALAZAR BRENES PASSED TO DATT PAST WEEKEND. BASED ON WASHINGTON INTELLIGENCE ASSESSMENT, AMBASSADOR TOLD DUARTE THAT USG HAS NO INTELLIGENCE THAT NICARAGUANS CONTEMPLATING INTERVENTION OF TYPE AND SCALE INDICATED. MORALES EHRLICH ALSO DOUBTED SANDINISTAS WOULD RISK SUCH BLATANT INTERVENTION, ALTHOUGH ALL AGREED THAT PROVISION OF WEAPONS AND TRAINING MUST BE EXPECTED FROM NICARAGUA AND CUBA.

5. ALTHOUGH THERE IS NO CLEAR EVIDENCE AS YET THAT GUERRILLAS IN EL SALVADOR HAVE RECEIVED HEAVY WEAPONS FROM OUTSIDE SOURCES, MORALES SAID THIS CANNOT BE DISCOUNTED AND CONSIDERABLE CONTACT AND PRESUMABLY ISTANCE BETWEEN SANDINISTAS AND GUERRILLAS IN EL SALVADOR MUST BE ASSUMED. WHATEVER CURRENT CAPABILITIES OF CLANDESTINE GROUPS HERE, ALL-OUT STRUGGLE CAN BE ANTICIPATED DURING COMING SIX MONTHS WITH LEVEL OF VIOLENCE LIKELY TO INCREASE THROUGHOUT COUNTRY. AT THIS POINT PDV LEADERS ALL SAID THAT THEY ARE UNDOUBTEDLY PRIMARY TARGETS FOR ASSASSINATION.

6. DUARTE AND MORALES EXPRESSED SERIOUS CONCERN ABOUT THE THREAT OF AN EARLY COUNTERMOVE AGAINST THE JUNTA BY THE EXTREME RIGHT, USING DISCONTENTED SENIOR OFFICERS WHO HAVE EITHER BEEN PUSHED ASIDE BY THE JUNTA OR PERHAPS INFILTRATED THEMSELVES INTO POSITION OF RESPONSIBLITY. THEY CITED NO NAMES AND OFFERE NO SPECIFICS EXCEPT TO CITE REPORTS THAT SOME PERSONS

IN THE REACTIONARY WING OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR ARE REPORTEDLY SPREADING MONEY AROUND AMONG SEVEN OR EIGHT MILITARY OFFICERS AND PUSHING THE ALLEGED VACUUM OF POWER AND WEAKNESS OF THE JUNTA IN COPING WITH THE EXTREME LEFT AS JUSTIFICATION FOR A COUNTER "GOLPE".

7. ABOUT THIS POINT IN CONVERSATION DUARTE, WHO LOOKED VERY ILL, LEFT THE ROOM TO LIE DOWN. RETURNING LATER FOR A FEW MINUTES, HE EXPLAINED THAT COMBINATION OF HEAVY SCHEDULE, PERSONAL TENSION AND CHANGE OF DIET WOULD REQUIRE HIS WITHDRAWAL FROM THE CONVERSATION. THE HARSH REALITY OF HIS PRESENT GUARDED AND RECLUSIVE POSITION IN EL SALADOR.

8. AFTER DUARTE'S DEPARTURE, REMAINING PDC LEADERS SHIFTED CONVERSATION TO NEW JUNTA AND ITS INITIAL CHALLENGES AND WEAKNESSES. IN ADDITION TO FIVE-MAN JUNTA'S COLLEGIATE AND HETEROGENEOUS NATURE, SLOWNESS IN ORGANIZING, LACK OF EXPERIENCED POLITICAL LEADERSHIP AND DISPROPROTIONATELY HEAVY MILITARY INFLUENCE, PDC LEADERS SAID JUNTA SEEMS TO LACK BOTH A POLITICAL STRATEGY AND A DEFINED PROGRAM. IN DEALING WITH EXTREMIST DEMONSTRATIONS, THE JUNTA (OR MORE SPECIFICALLY ITS MILITARY LEADERS) EITHER USE EXCESSIVE AND REPRESSIVE FORCE OR PULL BACK AND LEAVE A VACUUM OF POWER. CHAVEZ MENA SAID THAT UNDER THE ROMERO GOVERNMENT THE LEFT WAS ORGANIZING A POPULAR INSURRECTION; THE COUP TURNED THE TABLES AND FORCED THEM INTO AN INSURGENCY EFFORT WITHOUT A MASS FOLLOWING, BUT IF THE JUNTA DOES NOT ACELLIGENTLY, THE SITUATION COULD SHIFT BACK TO INSURRECTION WITH THE IMPORTANT DIFFERENCE THAT THE CHURCH, PDC, ETC., WOULD NOW BE LUMPED WITH THE ANTI-POPULAR FORCE OF REPRESSION.

9. TO AVERT THIS SITUATION CHAVEZ MEAN SAID THE PDC HAS FORMULATED A FIVE-POINT STRATEGY FOR "DESTABILIZING" THE EXTREME LEFT. PDC LEADERS HOPE TO MEET IN A DAY OR SO WITH THE MILITARY LEADERS OF THE JUNTA TO EXPLAIN THEIR CONCEPT WHICH HELDESCRIBED AS FOLLOWS:

A. DEVELOP A POLITICAL STRATEGY WHICH WOULD BE AGREED TO BY THE MODERATE POLITICAL OPPOSITION: THE CHURCH, THE PRIVATE SECTOR AND THE NEW GOVERNMENT.

B. WITHIN THIS STRATEGY SPECIFIC AND URGENT ACTIONS WOULD BE CONTEMPLATED ON ISSUES SUCH AS THE FOLLOWING:

(1) POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS -- COMMISSION MUST INVESTIGATE AND TAKE PUBLICLY CREDIBLE STEPS TO IDENTIFY AND PUNISH AT LEAST SOME OF GUILTY (HE RECOGNIZED THIS COULD CAUSE SERIOUS STRAINS IN THE MILITARY WHILE IT AND JUNT ARE FACING AGGRESSIVE ATTACK BY EXTREME LEFT);

(2) RESTRUCTURE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION WHICH IS FALLING UNDER INCREASED INFLUENCE OF THE EXTREME LEFT; AND

(3) IMMEDIATE APPOINTMENT OF RESPECTED CITIZENS TO SERVE AS INTERIM MAYORS THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY, THEREBY HELPING TO UNDERCUT POLITICAL SUPPORT OF EXTREME LEFT IN RURAL [redacted]

AREAS.

C. REINFORCE JUNTA'S POLITICAL SUPPORT AMONG KEY NATIONAL SECTORS BY REORGANIZING AND EXPANDING THE SO-CALLED TABLE ONE AND TWO DIALOGUE GROUPS AS A NEW SOURCE OF POLITICAL BAKCING AND POTENTIAL COUNTERWEIGHT TO POPULAR FORUM WHICH HAS NO REAL LEFTIST ORIENTATION THAN WOULD RECONSTITUTED SECOND TABLE.

D. JUNTA MUST IMMEDIATELY DEFINE ITS ROLE AS TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT AND FORMULATE AND ANNOUNCE ITSV PLAN FOR HOLDING DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS. PDC FAVORS EARLY ELECTIONS BUT STATED THAT COMMUNIST-ORIENTED GROUPS LED BY UDN ARE SEEKING AT LEWO-YEAR DELAY TO STRENGTHEN THEIR POSITION AND FORCE JUNTA INTO SEIES OF SWEEPING REFORM INITIATIVES WHICH PDC THINKS SHOULD BETTER BE LEFT TO POPULARLY ELECTED GOVERNMENT. PDC COMPROMISE ELECTORAL PREFERENCE TO GET UDN ON BOARD IS: HOLD CONSITUTIENT ASSEMBLY ELECTIONS IN EIGHT MONTHS AND HAVE ASSEMBLY CHOOSE INTERIM PRESIDENT WHO WOULD SERVE UNTIL PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS COULD BE HELD IN ABOUT 18 MONTHS. DESPITE ALLEGATIONS OF WEAKNESS PDC IS CONFIDENT THAT DUARTE'S POPULARITY IS INTACT AND THAT PARTY IS NUMBER ONE ELCTORAL FORCE IN COUNTRY AND CAN EASILY DEFEAT ANY LEFTIST ELECTORAL FORCE NOW ON THE HORIZON. IN NON-DEMOCRATIC CONTEXT, PARTY CANNOT COMPETE WITH EXTREME LEFT BUT IN DEMOCRATIC ENVIRONMENT

PDC IS STILL NUMBER ONE POLITICAL FORCE.
F. JUNTA MUST CONSOLIDATE INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT, PARTICULARLY FROM US, ANDEAN GROUP AND EUROPEAN COUNTRIES LIKE GERMANY. IN THIS CONTEXT PDC SAID POLITICAL UNDER STANDING AND ADVICE TO JUNTA IS MORE URGENT NEED THAN MATERIIAL SUPPORT. BATTLE WILL BE WON OR LOST IN TERMS OF INTELLIGENT POLITICAL CONDUCT OF THE JUNTA. MOST IMMEDIATE MATERIAL NEED IS RIOT CONTROL EQUIPMENT TO ENABLE JUNTA TO DEAL WITH EXTREMIST DEMONSTRATORS WITHOUT RESORTING TO EXCESSIVE FORCE WHICH PRODUCES MARTYRS AND

MORE POPULAR SUPPORT FOR EXTREME LEFT. PDC HOPED US COULD PROVIDE SUCH SUPPORT QUICKLY BUT UNOBTRUSIVELY SO AS TO AVOID CREATING POLITICAL PROBLEMS AND EMBARRASSMENT FOR JUNTA, WHICH NEEDS TO AVOID OVERLY CLOSE US EMBRACE TO MAINTAIN BROADEST POSSIBLE POLITICAL SUPPORT. REGARDING OTHER POTENTIAL INTERNATIONAL SUPPORT FOR JUNTA, PDC LEADERS SAID NEW FOREIGN MINISTER AND PDC FOUNDER HECTOR DADA, TOGETHER WITH PARTY'S ESTABLISHED INTERNATIONAL CONNECTIONS, SHOULD PROVE GREAT ASSET IN ENSURING INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL BACKING FOR JUNTA. MORE SERIOUS PROBLEM AND IMMEDIATE THREAT IS TO BROADEN JUNTA'S NAL POLITICAL LEADERSHIP AND SUPPORT.

10. PDC LEADERS URGED USG TO AVOID SWEEPING BUREAUCRATIC GESTURES AND INSTEAD TO USE POLITICAL SENSITIVITY AND INTELLIGENCE IN ITS EFFORTS TO STRENGTHEN JUNTA'S PROSPECTS FOR SURVIVAL, WHILE STRESSING PARTY'S DESIRE TO CONTINUE WORKING CLOSELY WITH EMBASSY AND USG IN THIS COMMON OBJECTIVE. EVENING'S DISCUSSION CONCLUDED WITH AGREEMENT TO MAINTAIN CONTACT AND MEET AGAIN AS SOON AS DUARTE HAS RECOVERED AND BELIEVES ANOTHER SESSION WOULD BE USEFUL.

1. COMMENT: WE WILL USE OUR EXISTING CONTACTS WITH THE JUNTA TO ENCOURAGE THEM TO MEET WITH THE PDC AND FOCUS ON THE NEED FOR A POLITICAL STRATEGY OF THE KIND OUTLINED IN THIS MESSAGE.

AUG. 1979 NOTES ON REPORTED LOCATIONS OF CLANDESTINE DETENTION CENTERS IN ARGENTINA.

ALFREDO ANTONIO GIORGI, disappeared November 1978, was seen by a fellow inmate at the Naval Mechanics School in mid-July, 1979.

ESTRELLA IGLESIAS, disappeared August 11, 1978, was tortured at La Tablada Infantry Regiment during the following months. This barracks is located near Buenos Aires Province's border with the Federal Capital. There have been other, fragmentary reports that this center may still be in operation.

A facility near the General Paz-Ricchieri interchange.

The Army Arsenal of "Viejo Bueno" near Monte Chingolo.

A military base in the Buenos Aires suburb of San Justo.

A recent (August) report of "a center near Ezeiza Airport" - this could be the La Tablada or Paz-Ricchieri facility.

There were reports last year of facilities in the Ezeiza area at the Hq of the Buenos Aires Mounted Police (located behind the Atomic Energy Commission Bldg.) and at heavily-guarded barracks near the General Paz-Ballester intersection on Rte. 3.

La Plata: a) "Robberies Investigation Unit" at 55th Street, No. 12-13.

b) The Marine Barracks.

c) Pereyra Railroad Station.

We understand from a La Plata human rights activist that detainees transferred from the now-closed clandestine facility at Estancia La Armonia, near Arana in the La Plata area, were transferred earlier this year to the La Plata 5th, 8th, and 9th Comisarias, La Carcel de la Magdalena, La Unidad Regional de La Plata, and to the Comisaria de Robos y Hurtos. The same source reported his understanding that a large number of desaparecidos were being held earlier this year at the Armored Regiment base in Azul, about 400 km. southwest of Buenos Aires. They were reportedly being guarded by uniformed gendarmeria forces and not regular army personnel. Other places believed by source to hold clandestine prisoners are the infantry regiment base in Bahia Blanca and the Brigada Policial in Lanus and Comisarias in La Matanza and a place called Carloto. (We have no further identifying information on these last two.)

SUBJ: (LOU) ISSUE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS CONTINUES TO CAUSE PROBLEMS OF CREDIBILITY FOR NEW GOVERNMENT

REF: SAN SALVADOR 6110

1. (LOU) SINCE OCTOBER 15 CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT, QUESTION OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND "DISAPPEARED PERSONS" HAS CONTINUED TO BE CONTROVERSIAL AND VEXATIOUS ISSUE FOR REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERNMENT (JRG). THE FOLLOWING ARE SOME OF INCIDENTS AND POSITIONS TAKEN CONCERNING THIS ISSUE:

A. DURING WEEK OF OCTOBER 21, THERE WAS REPORT THAT JUDGES OF SOME SAN SALVADOR COURTS SAW PROBLEMS WITH GENERAL [redacted]

ON OCTOBER 27, LEGAL AID SOCIETY "SOCORRO JURIDICO", AFFILIATED WITH ARCHBISHOPRIC, PLACED PAID PRESS INSERTIONS IN NEWSPAPERS STATING THAT IT COULD NOT ACCEPT JRG CLAIM THAT THERE WERE NO PRISONERS OR DISAPPEARED PERSONS FOUND IN BASEMENTS AND "CLANDESTINE JAIL CELLS" OR SECURITY FORCES. INSERTION ALSO CLAIMED THAT BY ITS SLOWNESS IN RESPONDING TO CERTAIN PETITIONS, JRG WAS PERHAPS TRYING TO COVER UP RESPONSIBILITY OF CERTAIN PERSONS ASSOCIATED WITH ASSASSINATIONS AND "DISAPPEARANCES" CARRIED OUT BY FORMER REGIMES. INSERTION ASKED "WHERE ARE THE 176 PERSONS ARRESTED FOR POLITICAL REASONS AND SUBSEQUENTLY UNACCOUNTED FOR?" VIEWS OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO HIMSELF WERE GIVEN IN SAN SALVADOR 6243.

H. IN FULL-PAGE PAID PRESS INSERTION THAT APPEARED ON OCTOBER 30, SALVADORAN COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS --(CDHES)--(ONLY NAME THAT APPEARED ON INSERTION WAS THAT OF CDHES VICE PRESIDENT MARIANELA GARCIA VILLAS) REVIEWED SITUATION ON POLITICIAL PRISONERS SINCE OCTOBER 15 CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT AND CLASSIFICATION 'ACTIONS OF JRG IN RELATION TO THIS SITUATION AS "CENSURABLE AND DEMAGOGIC". CDHES CITED FAILURE OF JRG TO PREVENT DEPARTURE FROM EL SALVADOR OF HIGH SINCTIONARIES OF PREVIOUS GOVERNMENT " RESPONSIBLE" FOR PLIGHT OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND "DISAPPEARED PERSONS", ASCNG "DO UES EXIST BETWEEN PRESENT AND FORMER GOVERNMENTS THAT PREVENT COMPLIANCE WITH PROMISES PREVIOUSLY MADE?" CDHES THEN CALLED FOR, AMONG OTHER THINGS: "IMMEDIATE CESSATION OF REPRESSION -- ESPECIALLY IAL AREAS", "IMMEDIATE TRIAL" FOR THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS IN PAST, EXTRADITION OF EX-PRESIDENTS ROMERO AND MOLINA AND OTHER FORMER FUNCTIONARIES, AND "CESSATION OF HARASSMENT OF MEMBERS OF THIS COMMISSION".

I. AS PART OF FULL-PAGE PAID PRESS INSERTION THAT APPEARED ON OCTOBER 30, CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) STATED QUESTION OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND "DISAPPEARED PERSONS" POSED "GRAVE OBSTACLE" FOR COMMENCEMENT OF DEMOCRATIC PROCESS AND THAT IT WAS "PROFOUNDLY"PREOCCUPIED" WITH WHOLE QUESTION. INSERTION STATED THAT JRG MUST "GIVE A SATISFACTORY AND COMPLETE RESPONSE ON THIS ISSUE TO THE PEOPLE... IT MUST INVESTIGAGE AND DISCOVER THE WHEREABOUTS OF THE DISAPPEARED AND SUBMIT TO THE CRIMINAL PROCESS THOSE GUILTY OF THIS SITUATION; IT MUST ALSO INDEMNIFY THE FAMILIES OF DISAPPEARED PERSONS".

J. IN PRESS STATEMENT THAT APPEARED OCTOBER 30, CDL ERNESTO CLARAMOUNT, OPPOSITION CANDIDATE IN 1977 PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS (WHO RETURNED FROM COSTA [redacted]

RICAN EXILE ON OCTOBER 27) CALLED ISSUE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS A "SERIOUS PROBLEM" FOR JRG BUT SAID THAT JRG MEMBERS WERE ACTING IN GOOD FAITH. HE SAID IT WOULD BE NECESSARY FOR JRG TO CLARIFY QUESTION OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR POLITICAL PRISONERS. HE CALLED FOR PUNISHMENT OF THOSE RESPONSIBLE FOR CRIMES UNDER PREVIOUS GOVERNMENT. CLARAMOUNT STATED THAT SUCH PUNISHMENT SHOULD NOT BE CONFINED TO MEMBERS OF ARMED FORCE, BUT SHOULD BE METED OUT TO CIVILIANS WHO PARTICIPATED IN HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS AND OTHER CRIMES.

K. IN TWO-PAGE PAID PRESS INSERTION THAT APPEARED ON OCTOBER 31, SALVADORAN POPULAR PARTY (PPS) CALLED ON JRG FOR AMONG OTHER THINGS, "PROMPT CLARIFICATION" OF ISSUE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS.

2. (C) COMMENT: PDC, PPS, AND PCED HAVE ALL CALLED ON JRG TO RESOLVE EXPEDITIOUS QUESTION OF POLITICAL PRISONERS. IT IS NOT CLEAR AT THIS POINT IF OCTOBER 30 CDHES PRESS INSERTION REFLECTS POSITION OF COMMISSION AS A WHOLE AS COMMISSION IS DEEPLY, AND PERHAPS IRREVOCABLY SPLIT OVER OCTOBER 15 COUP. ALSO, ONE OF MOST PROMINENT MEMBERS OF CDHES, FERNANDO AUGUSTO MENDEZ (NOW SUBSECRETARY OF JUSTICE) DID CALL ON COMMITTEE OF MOTHERS TO HAVE CONFIDENCE IN DECLARATIONS OF JRG.

3. (C) IT IS SIGNIFICANT THAT SOME OF PERSONS WHOSE RELEASE COMMITTEE OF MOTHERS HAS CALLED FOR DO NOT FALL UNDER CATEGORY OF DISAPPEARED PERSONS BUT ARE RATHER PEOPLE WHO PREVIOUS GOVERNMENTS ACKNOWLEDGED HOLDING AND TRIED FOR COMMITTING WHAT THEY CONSIDERED

COMMON CRIMES. IN ANY CASE, SHEER VOLUME AND INTENSITY OF RECENT REPRESENTATIONS TO JRG ON POLITICAL PRISONERS ISSUE INDICATE THAT IT IS QUESTION THAT WILL NOT GO AWAY AND THAT JRG CAN ONLY DEFUSE BY TAKING MORE CONCRETE AND PUBLIC ACTIONS. OTHERWISE ITS PUBLIC CREDIBILITY COULD BECOME SERIOUSLY AFFECTED BOTH DOMESTICALLY AND INTERNATIONALLY.

3. FONMIN LED OFF BY EXPRESSING HIS REGRET OVER OCT 30 ATTACK BY 150-200 PERSONS ON OUR EMBASSY CHANCERY. I FILLED HIM IN AS TO DETAILS OF THE INCIDENT AND USED THE OCCASION TO EMPHASIZE OUR DEEP INTEREST IN PROMPT AND EFFECTIVE POLICE RESPONSE UPON SUCH OCCASIONS.

4. FONMIN THEN SAID THAT HE HAD COME AT REQUEST OF COLONEL MAJANO OF THE REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNING JUNTA (JRG9 TO EXPLORE WITH ME POSSIBILITIES OF QUICKLY ACQUIRING RIO CONTROL EQUIPMENT FROM U.S.

SOURCES. IT SEEMED APPARENT THAT HE AND COL. MAJANO WERE SOMEWHAT BEHIND POWER CURVE SO I FILLED FONMIN IN AT SOME LENGTH ON STATUS OF THIS MATTER, ON MONDAY EVENING CONVERSATION WITH COLONEL GUTIERREZ AND OTHERS ON THIS SUBJECT (SAN SALVADOR 6270), ON WEDNESDAY CONVERSATION OF OUR MILGRP OFFICERS WITH MINISTER OF DEFENSE AND HIS ASSOCIATES ON SAME SUBJECT, AND ON FACT THAT WE WERE NOW ONLY WAITING FOR GOES TO INFORM US WHAT ITEMS AND WHAT QUANTITIES IT WANTED. I ASSURED HIM OF OUR DESIRE TO BE MAXIMUM POSSIBLE ASSISTANCE ON EXPEDITED BASIS. FONMIN THANKED ME FOR BACKGROUND BRIEFING ON THIS ENTIRE SUBJECT AND SAID THAT HE WOULD CORRESPONDINGLY INFORM COLONEL MAJANO.

5. WE THEN HAD A SUBSTANTIVE DISCUSSION OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION OF THE MOMENT IN EL SALVADOR. HE WAS AWARE THAT DCM HOWARD AND I HAD BEEN WITH NAPOLEON DUARTE PRECEDING EVENING, AND TALK INEVITABLY TURNED
TO STABILITY OR INSTABILITY OF JRG. WHEN I SAID THAT WE WERE HEARING FROM MANY SOURCES THAT INITIAL POSITIVE IMPRESSION ACHIEVED BY
JRG WAS ERODING DUE TO SLOWNESS
IN GETTING ON WITH THE BUSINESS OF GOVERNMENT AND REFORM, FONMIN SAID THAT WHAT I WAS TELLING HIM HE HAD JUST BEEN TELLING THE CABINET. WE DISCUSSED AND BOTH AGREED AS TO ESSENTIALITY OF JRG
[redacted]

MAINTAINING AND EXPANDING ITS POPULAR BASE.

6. WITH REGARD TO PROSPECT OF USG ASSISTANCE, I TOLD FONMIN THAT WE WERE VERY FAVORABLY IMPRESSED BY JRG, ITS EMPHASIS UPON HUMAN RIGHTS, ITS COMMITMENT TO REFORM, AND ITS PLEDGE OF FREE ELECTIONS. FOR THIS REASON, I SAID, IT WAS MY PERSONAL IMPRESSION THAT USG WOULD BE FORTHCOMING WITH ECONOMIC AND OTHER TYPES OF ASSISTANCE. WE DO NOT, HOWEVER, WISH TO PROFFER THIS SO PUBLICLY OR ON SUCH A SCALE AS TO GIVE THE WRONG IMPRESSION, "CONTAMINATE" THE JRG IN EYES OF THE PUBLIC, OR COMPLICATE ITS ALREADY DIFFICULT EXISTENCE. WE ARE HOPEFUL, I SAID, THAT ANY USG ASSISTANCE WILL BE ACCEPTABLE TO JRG AS A WHOLE AND WILL NOT CONTRIBUTE TO INTERNAL PROBLEMS OR DIVISIONS. PURSUING THIS MATTER, ISAID THAT WE ARE ANXIOUS FOR OUR U.S. MISSION STAFF MEMBERS TO ESTABLISH EARLY CONTACT WITH NEW MINISTERS SO THEY CAN BEGIN TO REVIEW WITH THEM ONGOING ASSISTANCE BEING EXTENDED IN THEIR RESPECTIVE FIELDS PLUS NEW WAYS IN WHICH WE MAY BE ABLE TO TO BE OF EVEN GREATER ASSISTANCE. OUR EFFORTS IN THIS DIRECTION HAD BEEN HAMPERED THUS FAR BY FACT THAT THREE KEY MINISTERS PLUS SOME SUB-SECRETARIES ARE STILL BEING HELD HOSTAGE IN MINISTRIES OCCUPIED BY EXTREMIST GROUPS. FONMIN WAS UNDERSTANDING AND ENCOURAGED US TO GET ON WITH PROCESS OF MEETING NEW MINISTERS.

7. AT ONE POINT, FONMIN TOLD ME THAT THERE ARE ALREADY RUMORS OF A COUNTER-COUP BY FORCES OF THE POLITICAL RIGHT, PARTICULARLY BY SOME HIGH-RANKING MILITARY OFFICERS DISPLACED BY THE RECENT

CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT. MENTIONING ONE OF THESE BY NAME, HE QUOTED UNKN OWN
INFORMANTS TO EFFECT THAT THIS OFFICER HAD BEEN ENCOURAGED IN SUCH ACTIVITES BY OUR AMERICAN EMBASSY. AT THIS POINT, I LAUGHED, TOLD HIM THAT I WAS PROBABLY THE ONLY PERSON FROM THE AMERICAN EMBASSY WHO HAS BEEN IN TOUCH WITH THAT OFFICER SINCE THE RECENT COUP, DESCRIBED IN DETAIL MY VERY PERSONAL CONVERSATION WITH HIM, AND ASSURED FONMIN THAT SUBJECT OF ANY COUNTER-COUP COULD NOT HAVE BEEN FURTHER FROM OUR DISCUSSION. I THEN REVIEWED FOR HIM SIMILAR REPORTS ARISING ON PREVIOUS OCCASION S DURING ROMERO ADMINISTRATION AND

CAUTIONED AGAINST TAKING LOCAL RUMOR MILL TOO SERIOUSLY. IN POINT OF FACT, I AID, USG FEELS THAT JRG MAY BE BEST POSSIBLE ANSWER TO EL SALVADOR'S LONGSTANDING PROBLEMS AND IS THEREFORE INTERESTED IN SUPPORTING AND STRENGTHENING IT RATHER THAN ENCOURAGING MOVE-MENTS AGAINST IT. PARENTHETICALLY, I MENTIONED ONE REPORT REACHING US THAT HIGH-RANKING OFFICER IN QUESTION MIGHT BE SENT ABROAD ON A DIPLOMATIC ASSIGNMENT, WHEREUPON FONMIN LAUGHTED, SAID THAT HE WILL NEXT WEEK BE PROPOSING HIM FOR AN AMBASSADORIAL POST, AND CONFIDED THAT HE WOULD PROBABLY MAKE A CONSIDERABLY BETTER AMBASSADOR THAN MANY OTHERS NOW IN SERVICE.

8. AS CONVERSATION DREW TO A CLOSE, I TOLD FONMIN THAT IN VIEW OF OUR MANY SHARED INTERESTS AND USG DESIRE TO BE OF ASSISTANCE, I HOPED THERE MIGHT BE OPPORTUNITY FOR INFORMAL, OFF-THE-RECORD, FRIELDLY DISCUSSION FROM TIME TO TIME WITH MEMBERS OF JRG. HE ASSURED ME THAT THIS WOULD BE POSSIBLE.

9. AS I ESCORTED FONMIN TO THE DOOR, HE REMINDED ME THAT WE HAD FIRST MET LONG AGO AT TIME WHEN THEN ASSISTANT SECRETARY TODMAN HAD VISITED EL SALVADOR AND AS PART OF HIS PROGRAM HAD MET IN MY OFFICE WITH A GROUP OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC LEADERS. OVER-ALL, TODAY'S MEETING WAS FRIENDLY AND DEFINITELY PROMISING OF A USEFUL FUTURE RELATIONSHIP.

PROCLAMATION. OE AFFIRMED JRG IS TRANSITION GOVERNMENT, WITH CABINET BEING AN ALLIANCE OF FORCES REPRESENTING MAJOR CURRENTS IN COUNTRY. WARNING DEMOCRATIC PROCESS WOULD TAKE TIME, HE CALLED UPON THE PEOPLE TO MAKE SURE THAT IT IS NOT INTERRUPTED. FINALLY HE CALLED FOR HARMONY, MUTUAL RESPECT, AND POPULAR PARTICIPATION.

3. (U) GUILLERMO UNGO SPOKE ON POLITICAL MATTERS. HE STATED THAT MILITARY SOLUTION TO PROBLEMS POSED BY ROMERO REGIME WOULD HAVE MEANT "TOTAL WAR" AND "NATIONAL SUICIDE". INSTEAD, JRG IS CALLING FOR PARTICIPATION, DIALOGUE, AND PLUSALISM. AS DID MAJANO, UNGO EMPHASIZED JRG IS COMPLETE BREAK WITH PAST, EL SALVADOR, HE SAID, MUST LARN DEMOCRACY AND HOW TO PRACTICE IT. UNDER THESE CIRCUMSTANCES VIOLENCE IS NO LONGER JUSTIFIED AND SHOULD CEASE. HE TOO CALLED JRG AN ALLIANCE OF SECTORS, POINTING OUT THAT HE PERSONALLY WAS CHOSEN TO REPRESENT POPULAR FORUM AND ITS COMMON PLATFORM. HE CALLED UPON SALVADORANS NOT TO SEE THEMSELVES AS ENEMIES, BUT AS PARTICIPANTS, NOTING AT CLOSE THAT BIRTH OF DEMOCRATIC PROCESS WOULD HAVE ITS PAINS AND THAT ALL SHOULD SACRIFICE

A. GENERAL AMNESTY FOR POLITICAL PRISONERS.
B. JUNTA MEETINGS WITH HUMAN RIGHTS GROUPS INCLUDING COMMITTEE OF MOTHERS, SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION AND INTERNATIONAL RED CROSS.
C. JUNTA MEETING WITH HEADS OF SECURITY FORCES WHERE IT WAS LEARNED THERE ARE NO POLITICAL PRISONERS BEING HELD AND NO RECORDS OF WHAT HAPPENED TO THEM OR OTHER DISAPPEARED PERSONS.

5. (U) GUTIERREZ SAID ALL SECTORS OF COUNTRY HAD SUFFERED IN THIS RESPECT AND THAT TRAGEDY COULD NOT BE ERASED IN SINGLE DAY OR FORGOTTEN IN FEW DAYS. BUT IT MUST BE INVESTIGATED AND CLARIFIED. HE ANNOUNCED DECREE NO. 9 TO TAKE EFFECT IMMEDIATELY UPON OFFICIAL PUBLICATION, WHICH:

BPR, ANDINO STATED, SHOULD REALIZE THAT THE SOONER IT DECIDES TO ACT WITHIN LEGAL FRAMEWORK, SOONER ITS OWN REPLEVIN PLATFORM CAN BE REALIZED. CURRENT BPR ACTIONS, HOWEVEY, ONLY COMPLICATE ECONOMIC PROBLEMS FOR WHICH THERE ARE NO PANACEAS IN ANY CASE. TACTIC OF VIOLENT ACTIONS UTILIZED AGAINST PREVIOUS REGIME ARE NO LONGER JUSTIFIED AS POLITICAL PARTICIPATION IS NOW POSSIBLE, AND COUNTRY NEEDS PEACE TO DEVELOP ITS RESOURCES FOR BENEFIT OF PEOPLE. HE NOTED, HOWEVER, THAT ESTIMATED FOREIGN RESERVES AT YEARS END WOULD BE EQUIVALENT OF 500 MILLION COLONES AND THAT DEVALUATION OF COLON IS THEREFORE NOT NECESSARY. A. REACTIVE ECONOMY FOR BENEFIT OF PEOPLE.
B. SELECTIVE CONTROL OF INFLATION TO PROTECT PRICES OF BASIC CONSUMER ITEMS.
C. INCREASE IN GENERAL EMPLOYMENT.
D. ERADICATE CORRUPTION IN PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION.
E. PREPARE BASIS FOR MORE BASIC ECONOMIC CHANGES.

A. REVISION OF BUDGET TO HALT SPECTACULAR PROJECTS WITH LITTLE PUBLIC VALUE AND REDIRECT FUNDS FOR GREATER GOOD OF PEOPLE.
B. STUDY OF MINIMUM SALARIES, ESPECIALLY THOSE IN RURAL AREAS.
C. REDEFINITION OF ITEMS OF BASIC POPULAR CONSUMPTION.
D. REACTIVE FOREIGN BORROWING (WHICH NEW IMAGE OF SALVADOR NOW MADE POSSIBLE).

E.ERADICATE OFFICIAL CORRUPTION
F. STUDY OF TAX STRUCTURE
G. INITIATE NATIONAL LITERACY AND NUTRITION CAMPAIGNS.
H. REORIENT URBAN POLICY.

9. (U) IN CONCLUDING REMARKS, COL. MAJANO ASKED SALVADORAN PEOPLE TO REFLECT THAT IT IS FACED WITH CHOICE BETWEEEN TWO PATHS; THAT OF VIOLENCE AND CIVIL WAR ESPOUSED BY EXTREME RIGHT AND LEFT, OR THAT OF REAL PARTICIPATION BY THE PEOPLE. HE REPEATED SLOGAN WHICH HE PREVIOUSLY INTRODUCED (AND WHICH HAS BECOME MOST WIDELY REPEATED WORDS ARISING FROM COUP): "JUSTICE, NOT VENGEANCE"

10. (C) COMMENT: JRG'S PRESENTATION, ALTHOUGH OVERDUE, WAS A PROMISING FIRST STEP TOWARD CLEARER POLICY DIRECTION AND DEFINITION. HOPEFULLY IT SIGNALS THAT NEW GOVERNMENT IS NOW GETTING ORGANIZED AND INTENDS TO PROCEED WITH FORMULATION AND INITIAL IMPLEMENATION OF PROGRAMS. EFFECTIVE AND PUBLICLY-ARTICULATED FOLLOW-UP, HOWEVER, WILL BE REQUIRED TO COUNTERACT EARLIER PUBLIC PERCEPTION OF DRIFT AND LACK OF DIRECTION. NEXT FEW WEEKS WILL BE EXTREMELY IMPORTANT IN DEMONSTRATING WHETHER JRG IS READY AND ABLE TO MOVE AHEAD IN ESTABLISHING CREDIBILITY AND EXPANDING POPULAR SUPPORT.

2. ON OCTOBER 31 NEW FOREIGN MINISTER HECTOR DADA HIREZI ASKED TO CALL ON ME AT EMBASSY RESIDENCE AT 3:00 P.M. AS THAT HOUR APPROACHED, I WAS PINNED DOWN BY HOSTILE DEMONSTRATIONS IN EMBASSY CHANCERY AND TELEPHONED FOREIGN MINISTRY TO SEEK A POSTPONEMENT. ON NOV 1, BY SUBSEQUENT ARRANGEMENT, FONMIN DADA VISITED ME AT EMBASSY RESIDENCE.

3. FONMIN LED OFF BY EXPRESSING HIS REGRET OVER OCT 30 ATTACK BY 150-200 PERSONS ON OUR EMBASSY CHANCERY. I FILLED HIM IN AS TO DETAILS OF THE INCIDENT AND USED THE OCCASION TO EMPHASIZE OUR DEEP INTEREST IN PROMPT AND EFFECTIVE POLICE RESPONSE UPON SUCH OCCASIONS.

4. FONMIN THEN SAID THAT HE HAD COME AT REQUEST OF COLONEL MAJANO OF THE REVOLUTIONARY GOVERNING JUNTA (JRGB TO EXPLORE WITH ME POSSIBILITIES OF QUICKLY ACQUIRING RIO CONTROL EQUIPMENT FROM U.S.

SOURCES. IT SEEMED APPARENT THAT HE AND COL. MAJANO WERE SOMEWHAT BEHIND POWER CURVE SO I FILLED FONMIN IN AT SOME LENGTH ON STATUS OF THIS MATTER, ON MONDAY EVENING CONVERSATION WITH COLONEL GUTIERREZ AND OTHERS ON THIS SUBJECT (SAN SALVADOR 6270), ON WEDNESDAY CONVERSATION OF OUR MILGRP OFFICERS WITH MINISTER OF DEFENSE AND HIS ASSOCIATES ON SAME SUBJECT, AND ON FACT THAT WE WERE NOW ONLY WAITING FOR GOES TO INFORM US WHAT ITEMS AND WHAT QUANTITIES IT WANTED. I ASSURED HIM OF OUR DESIRE TO BE MAXIMUM POSSIBLE ASSISTANCE ON EXPEDITED BASIS. FONMIN THANKED ME FOR BACKGROUND BRIEFING ON THIS ENTIRE SUBJECT AND SAID THAT HE WOULD CORRESPONDINGLY
INFORM COLONEL MAJANO.

5. WE THEN HAD A SUBSTANTIVE DISCUSSION OF THE POLITICAL SITUATION OF THE MOMENT IN EL SALVADOR. HE WAS AWARE THAT DCM HOWARD AND I HAD BEEN WITH NAPOLEON DUARTE PRECEDING EVENING, AND TALK INEVITABLY TURNED
TO STABILITY OR INSTABILITY OF JRG. WHEN I SAID THAT WE WERE HEARING FROM MANY SOURCES THAT INITIAL POSITIVE IMPRESSION ACHIEVED BY
JRG WAS ERODING DUE TO SLOWNESS
IN GETTING ON WITH THE BUSINESS OF GOVERNMENT AND REFORM, FONMIN SAID THAT WHAT I WAS TELLING HIM HE HAD JUST BEEN TELLING THE CABINET. WE DISCUSSED AND BOTH AGREED AS TO ESSENTIALITY OF JRG

MAINTAINING AND EXPANDING ITS POPULAR BASE.

6. WITH REGARD TO PROSPECT OF USG ASSISTANCE, I TOLD FONMIN THAT WE WERE VERY FAVORABLY IMPRESSED BY JRG, ITS EMPHASIS UPON HUMAN RIGHTS, ITS COMMITMENT TO REFORM, AND ITS PLEDGE OF FREE ELECTIONS. FOR THIS REASON, I SAID, IT WAS MY PERSONAL IMPRESSION THAT USG WOULD BE FORTHCOMING WITH ECONOMIC AND OTHER TYPES OF ASSISTANCE. WE DO NOT, HOWEVER, WISH TO PROFFER THIS SO PUBLICLY OR ON SUCH A SCALE AS TO GIVE THE WRONG IMPRESSION, "CONTAMINATE" THE JRG IN EYES OF THE PUBLIC, OR COMPLICATE ITS ALREADY DIFFICULT EXISTENCE. WE ARE HOPEFUL, I SAID, THAT ANY USG ASSISTANCE WILL BE ACCEPTABLE TO JRG AS A WHOLE AND WILL NOT CONTRIBUTE TO INTERNAL PROBLEMS OR DIVISIONS. PURSUING THIS MATTER, ISAID THAT WE ARE ANXIOUS FOR OUR U.S. MISSION STAFF MEMBERS TO ESTABLISH EARLY CONTACT WITH NEW MINISTERS SO THEY CAN BEGIN TO REVIEW WITH THEM ONGOING ASSISTANCE BEING EXTENDED IN THEIR RESPECTIVE FIELDS PLUS NEW WAYS IN WHICH WE MAY BE ABLE TO TO BE OF EVEN GREATER ASSISTANCE. OUR EFFORTS IN THIS DIRECTION HAD BEEN HAMPERED THUS FAR BY FACT THAT THREE KEY MINISTERS PLUS SOME SUB-SECRETARIES ARE STILL BEING HELD HOSTAGE IN MINISTRIES OCCUPIED BY EXTREMIST GROUPS. FONMIN WAS UNDERSTANDING AND ENCOURAGED US TO GET ON WITH PROCESS OF MEETING NEW MINISTERS.

7. AT ONE POINT, FONMIN TOLD ME THAT THERE ARE ALREADY RUMORS OF A COUNTER-COUP BY FORCES OF THE POLITICAL RIGHT, PARTICULARLY BY SOME HIGH-RANKING MILITARY OFFICERS DISPLACED BY THE RECENT

INFORMANTS TO EFFECT THAT THIS OFFICER HAD BEEN ENCOURAGED IN SUCH ACITIVITES BY OUR AMERICAN EMBASSY. AT THIS POINT, I LAUGHED, TOLD HIM THAT I WAS PROBABLY THE ONLY PERSON FROM THE AMERICAN EMBASSY WHO HAS BEEN IN TOUCH WITH THAT OFFICER SINCE THE RECENT COUP, DESCRIBED IN DETAIL MY VERY PERSONAL CONVERSATION WITH HIM, AND ASSURED FONMIN THAT SUBJECT OF ANY COUNTER-COUP COULD NOT HAVE BEEN FURTHER FROM OUR DISCUSSION. I THEN REVIEWED FOR HIM SIMILAR REPORTS ARISING ON PREVIOUS OCCASION S DURING ROMERO ADMINISTRATION AND

CAUTIONED AGAINST TAKING LOCAL RUMOR MILL TOO SERIOUSLY. IN POINT OF FACT, I AID, USG FEELS THAT JRG MAY BE BEST POSSIBLE ANSWER TO EL SALVADOR'S LONGSTANDING PROBLEMS AND IS THEREFORE INTERESTED IN SUPPORTING AND STRENGTHENING IT RATHER THAN ENCOURAGING MOVE-MENTS AGAINST IT. PARENTHETICALLY, I MENTIONED ONE REPORT REACHING US THAT HIGH-RANKING OFFICER IN QUESTION MIGHT BE SENT ABROAD ON A DIPLOMATIC ASSIGNMENT, WHEREUPON FONMIN LAUGHTED, SAID THAT HE WILL NEXT WEEK BE PROPOSING HIM FOR AN AMBASSADORIAL POST, AND CONFIDED THAT HE WOULD PROBABLY MAKE A CONSIDERABLY BETTER AMBASSADOR THAN MANY OTHERS NOW IN SERVICE.

8. AS CONVERSATION DREW TO A CLOSE, I TOLD FONMIN THAT IN VIEW OF OUR MANY SHARED INTERESTS AND USG DESIRE TO BE OF ASSISTANCE, I HOPED THERE MIGHT BE OPPORTUNITY FOR INFORMAL, OFF-THE-RECORD, FRIELDLY DISCUSSION FROM TIME TO TIME WITH MEMBERS OF JRG. HE ASSURED ME THAT THIS WOULD BE POSSIBLE.

9. AS I ESCORTED FONMIN TO THE DOOR, HE REMINDED ME THAT WE HAD FIRST MET LONG AGO AT TIME WHEN THEN ASSISTANT SECRETARY TODMAN HAD VISITED EL SALVADOR AND AS PART OF HIS PROGRAM HAD MET IN MY OFFICE WITH A GROUP OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC LEADERS. OVER-ALL, TODAY'S MEETING WAS FRIENDLY AND DEFINITELY PROMISING OF A USEFUL FUTURE RELATIONSHIP.

SUBJ: (U) ARCHBISHOP STRONGLY CONDEMNS VIOLENCE OF PAST WEEK

1. (C) BEGIN SUMMARY AND COMMENT. ARCHBISHOP ROMERO IN HOMILY NOVEMBER 4 ATTACKED SECURITY FORCES'V VIOLENCE DURING PRECEDING WEEK IN TERMS AS HARSH AS THOSE HE HAD EMPLOYED AGAINST ROMERO REGIME. DIFFERENCE WAS THAT ARCHBISHOP INDICATED WILLINGNESS TO ACCEPT GOOD FAITH OF JUNTA AND YOUNG MILITARY IN REFORM EFFORTS. FACT THAT ARCHBISHOP DEVOTED MAJOR PROTION OF HIS HIMILY WHICH IS BROADCAST NATIONWIDE TO THIS SUBJECT IS EVIDENCE OF DELICACY OF SITUATION AND STRONG PASSIOS AROUSED. WHEN ARCHBISHOP, WHO IS UNQUESTIONABLY BASIC SUPPORTER OF COUP CRITICIZES SECURITY FORCES VIOLENCE IN SUCH TERMS, CREDIBILITY OF EXTREME LEFT IN OPPOSITION TO COUP BECOMES MORE APPARENT.

ARCHBISHOP PROPOSED ANY U.S. MILITARY ASSISTANCE BE TIED TO CONTROLLING SECURITY FORCES, AN APPARENT SLIGHT CHANGE FROM PREVIOUS POSITION OF REJECTING ANY SUCH ASSISTANCE, AND CITED RESTRAINED METHODS USED BY U.S. MARINES IN REPELLING ATTACK ON EMBASSY AS MODEL FOR SALVADORAN FORCES. ARCHBISHOP AGAIN REITERATED DEMAND FOR INVESTIGATION OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS ISSUE WITH INDEMNIFICATION OF FAMILIES OF VICTIMS AND PUNISHMENT OF GUILTY.

2. (U) ARCHBISHOP LAMENTED VIOLENCE OF PAST WEEK WHICH HE SAID RESULTED IN MORE THAN 80 DEAD AND 100 WOUNDED. HE DEMANDED INCIDENTS BE INVESTIGATED AND RESULTS BE MADE PUBLIC, BUT CONTINUED THAT BRUTALITY WITH WHICH SECURITY FORCES HAD ATTACKED COULD BE CONDEMNED WITHOUT INVESTIGATION. (THIS DREW LONG, SUSTAINED APPLAUSE FROM AUDIENCE). INVESTIGATION, HE SAID, COULD EXPLAIN, BUT IN NO WAY JUSTIFY NUMBER OF DEATHS, FOR WHICH SECURITY FORCES BORE MAJOR RESPONSIBILITY. AT ANOTHER POINT ARCHBISHOP SAID SECURITY FORCE ACTIONS WERE MORE BRUTAL THAN THEY HAD BEEN UNDER ROMERO REGIME. HE CONTRASTED THIS WITH MEASURES OF U.S. MARINES IN REPELLING ATTACK ON EMBASSY, USING TEAR GAS AND RESULTING ONLY MINOR INJURIES.

3. (U) ARCHBISHOP SAID BELIEVED IN HONESTY OF YOUNG SALVADORAN MILITARY NOW IN COMMAND, AND CALLED ON THEM TO COOPERATE IN CLEANING UP BY SECACITY FORCES. SITUATION, HOWEVER, WAS WORSE THAN BEFORE BECAUSE THE GUILTY ARE NOW COMMITTING NEW CRIMES TO COVER OLD ONES. HE NOTED THAT SECURITY FORCE AGENTS GUILTY OF ABUSES HAD ACTED UPON COMMANDS OF THEIR LEADERS AND IT IS LEADERS WHO MUST BE INDICATED AND PUNISHED. THIS HE SAID IS TASK OF NEW GOVERNMENT.

[redacted]

4. (L) ARCIBHSHOP READ LETTER FROM LP-28 DENYING IT HAD PROVOKED INCIDENTS OF OCT 29 AND ALSO QUOTED FROM SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHT COMMISSION COMMUNIQUE WHICH AMONG OTHER THINGS SAID REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERMENT (JRG) USE OF FORCE CONTRADICTED COUP PROCLAMATION AND WAS ISOLATING "ALMOST IRREVERSIBLY" JRG FROM PEOPLE. ARCHBISHOP SAID HE ALSO COULD NOT EXPLAIN JUNTA JUSTIFICATION OF MASSACRES. HE TERMED "MAGNIFICENT" BUT UNSATISFACTORY

FIRING OF TREASURY POLICE PUBLIC RELATIONS OFFICER FOR DENYING TREASURY POLICE HAD BEEN INVOLLED IN AN INCIDENT. FIRING DID NOT EXPLAIN WHY OFFICER FELT IT NECESSARY TO LIE IN FIRST PLACE.

5. (U) NOTHING U.S. OFFERS OF ECONOMIC AND MILITARY ASSISTANCE TO JRG ARCHBISHOP SAID ASSISTANCE SHOULD BE TIED TO ENDING ABUSES OF SECURITY FORCES AND SATISFACTORY RESOLUTION OF QUESTIONS OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS. OTHERWISE, HE SAID, MILITARY ASSISTANCE WOULD ONLY REINFORCE OPPRESSION OF PEOPLE.

6. (U) ARCHBISHOP WENT ON TO CONDEMN VIOLENCE OF EXTREME LEFT, INCLUDING ASSASSINATION OF EIGHT MEMBERS OF SECURITY FORCES AND KIDNAPPING OF BUSSINESSMEN. HE EXPRESSED CONCERN EXESSES OF LEFT WOULD BE USED AS JUSTIFICATION FOR COUTER COUP. HE SUPPORTEE JRG EFFORTS FOR DIALOGUE WITH POULAR REVOLUTIONARY BLOC (BPR) OCCUPIERS OF TWO MINISTRIES, BUT EXPRESSED UNDERSTANDING FOR BPR RELUCTANCE OT GIVE UP HOSTAGES WHO ARE PROTECTION AGAINST VIOLENT DISLODGEMENT. HE DESCRIBED BURIAL OF 23 OF POPULAR LEAGUES OF 28 FEB DEAD IN EL ROSARIO CHURCH AS "PRUDENT" IN VIEW OF

ADDITIONAL VIOLENCE THAT MARCH TO CEMETERY MIGHT HAVE ENTAILED. IN NOFURLA TIMES, HE NOTED, BURIAL WITHIN CHURCH WOULD REQUIRE APPROVAL OF POPE AND IVIL AUTHORITIES, BUT UNDER CIRCUMSTANCES HE WOULD INFORM POPE WHAT HAD OCCURRED. (BISHOP APARICIO OF SAN VICENTE PROTESTED BURIAL IN CHURCH.)

7. (U) TENSE SITUATION NIGHT OF NOV 1-2 WAS ALSO REFERRED TO BY ARCHBISHOP. HE RELATED THAT ARMED [redacted]

NATIONAL GUARD HAD TRIED TO ENTER EL ROSARIO CHURCH AND WAS CAPTURED BY LP-28 OCCUPIERS.47(DETAILS OF CAPTURE ARE MATTER OF DISPUTE.) NATIONAL GUARD FORCES WERE THEN DRAWN UP AROUND CHURCH AND THREATENED TO STORM IT TO OBTAIN RELEASE OF THEIR COMRADE. DISASTER WAS AVERTED WHEN ARCHBISHOP AND OTHERS WERE ABLE TO OBTAIN GUARD'S RELEASE TO NEW ATTORNEY GENERAL.

8. (U) URG ANNOUNCEMENT OF COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE ISSUE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS WAS WELCOMED BY ARCHBISHOP. HE CALLED UPON PUBLIC TO SUPPORT INVESTIGATION TO ENSURE IT WOULD BE TRUE AND THOROUGH. NOT LIKE PREVIOUS GOVERNMENT INVESTIGATIONS. ARCHBISHIP ALSO CALLED FOR INDEMNIFICATION OF FAMILIES OF VICTIMS AND PUNSIHMENT OF GUILTY. ARCHBISHIP FURTHER NOTED URG WAS CALLING THIS PROBLEM "INHERITANCE" FROM ROMERO REGIME, WHEN IN FACT THERE HAVE ALSO BEE DISAPPEARANCES UNDER URG.
ARCHBISHBHIP CITED AGAIN MISSING SACRISTAN OF SOYAPANGO CHURCH.

2. INTRODUCTION -- AFTER THREE WEEKS IN POWER, THE REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERNMENT (JRG) HAS ONLY NOW BEGUN TO GET ITS ACT TOGETHER AND DEFINE A POLICY AND PROGRAM WHICH HOPEFULLY WILL ENABLE IT TO WITHSTAND THE AGGRESSIVE ATTACKS MOUNTED BY THE EXTREME LEFT AND THE LESS APPARENT BUT ALWAYS LATENT THREAT OF A RIGHTIST COUNTERCOUP. EMBASSY HAS, OF COURSE, ALREADY REPORTED EXTENSIVELY ON COUP AND MANY OF THE QUESTIONS RAISED REFTEL, BUT THIS [redacted]

3. AS REFTEL INDICATES, THE INITIAL DAYS OF THE JUNTA WERE MARKED BY CONSIDERABLE DEGREE OF CONFUSION AND LACK OF DEFINITION ARISING FROM THE PURELY MILITARY CHARACTER OF THE COUP, THE NEED TO SEEK MAXIMUM POLITICAL REPRESENTATION FROM A BROAD RANGE OF POLITICAL SECTORS, THE HETEROGENEOUS AND COLLEGIATE CHARACTER OF A FIVE-MAN GOVERNMENT SPLIT BETWEEN MILITARY INSTIGATORS OF

THE COUP AND CIVILIANS HASTILY RECRUITED TO REPRESENT DIFFERENT SECTORS AND THE LABORIOUS AND POLIICCALLY COMPLICTED PROCESS OF CONSULTATION REQUIRED TO FORM A NEW CABINET. LACKING BOTH POLITICAL COHERENCE, EXPERIENCE AND CLEAR LINES OF LEADERSHIP, FACED WITH AN IMMEDIATE AND VIOLENT CHALLENGE BY THE EXTREME LEFT AND CONFLICTING POLITICAL INTERESTS AND PRESSURES, IT IS NOT SURPRISING THAT THE JUNTA SEEMED TO BE DRIFTING AND ON THE DEFENSIVE DURING THE FIRST TWO WEEKS.

4. NOW THAT THE JRG HAS BEEN FORMED AND THE ARDUOUS PROCESS OF CABINET SELECTION COMPLETED, THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEGUN TO ARTICULATE PUBLICLY THE BROAD OUTLINE OF ITS POLICY AND PROGRAMS. THE FIRST COHERENT, PUBLIC PRESENTATION IN THIS RESPECT WAS THE JRG HOUR-LONG TV APPEARANCE ON NOV 1 (SEE SAN SALVADOR 6353) WHICH REPRESENTED AN OVERDUE BUT ESSENTIAL FIRST STEP TO HOLD AND EXPAND THE PUBLIC SUPPORT ENGENDERED BY THE COUP. WHILE EARLY AND EFFECTIVE FOLLOW-UP WILL BE REQUIRED TO BUILD AND SUSTAIN MOMENTUM, THE JRG HAS AT LEAST BEGUN TO FUNCTION AS A GOVERNMENT AND TO DEFINE ITS POLICY AND PROGRAM.

5. THE REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERNMENT (JRG) -- MUCH HAS BEEN SAID ABOUT THE WEAKNESSES OF THE JUNTA, PARTICULARLY ITS HETEROGENEOUS AND CUMBERSOME COMPOSITION OF TWO MILITARY AND THREE CIVILIAN MEMBERS, SLOWNESS IN GETTING ORGANIZED, AND ITS PERCEIVED [redacted]

INACTION. WHILE THERE ARE GROUNDS FOR CRITICISM, PARTICULARLY IN THE AREA OF THE JUNTA'S STRUCTURAL COMPLEXITY, MUCH OF THIS IS THE UNAVOIDABLE PRODUCT OF THE JUNTA'S ORIGINS, THE NEED FOR MAXIMUM POLITICAL REPRESENTATION AND THE AMOUNG OF TIME REQUIRED FOR AN AD HOC SELECTION OF FIVE MEN TO STRUCTURE AN ENTIRELY NEW GOVERNMENT WHILE SIMULTANEOUSLY COPING WITH AN AGGRESSIVE AND UNRELENTING ATTACK FROM THE LEFT.

6. JUNTA HETEROGENEOUS COMPOSITION IS BOTH A LIABILITY AND AN ASSET BUT THUS FAR THE FIVE MEMBERS REPRESENTING DIFFERENT GROUPS AND INTERESTS SEEM TO BE WORKING TOGETHER IN REMARKABLE HARMONY. THE TWO MILITARY LEADERS -- GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO -- ARE NEW FIGURES, UNACCUSTOMED TO THE POLITICAL WARS IN EL SALVADOR BUT THEY SEEM SINCERELY INTERESTED IN RESTORING THE WELFARE OF BOTH THE ARMED FORCES AND THE COUNTRY, ARE HIGHLY RECEPTIVE TO ADVICE AND DESPITE THEIR CONTROL OF THE IMMEDIATE LEVERS OF POWER, SEEM TO WORK WELL WITH CIVILIAN MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA. GUILLERMO UNGO, WHO REPRESENTS THE 14 GROUPS OF THE POPULAR FORUM, IS ONE MOST POLITICALLY EXPERIENCED MEMBER OF THE JUNTA, BASICALLY A MODERATE AND A GOOD PERSONAL FRIEND OF JUNTA MEMBER ROMAN MAYORGA. HE MUST TRY TO ACCOMMODATE THE BROAD AND IDEOLOGICALLY DIVERSE POLITICAL INTERESTS IN THE POPULAR FORUM WITH JUNTA POLICY SO AS TO KEEP THE BROADEST POSSIBLE POPULAR SUPPORT FOR THE JRG. SO FAR HE HAS MANEUVERED THROUGH

THIS DIFFICULT MINE FIELD RATHER WELL, ALTHOUGH THE DIVERSE

INTEREST GROUPS IN THE POPULAR FORUM WILL PROVE VERY DIFFICULT TO RECONCILE IN THE LONG TERM. ROMAN MAYORGA REPRESENTS THE THINKING OF THE ACADEMIC, TECHNOCRATIC AND PROGRESSIVE CATHOLIC INTERESTS IN EL SALVADOR. INEXPERIENCED POLITICALLY, BUT A MAN OF GREAT INTEGRITY AND DEDICATION, HE IS AN IMPORTANT INDIRECT LINK TO AND REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ROMERO WING OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND SOCIALLY CONCERNED PROFESSIONALS. CRITICISM OF HIS ACADEMIC BENT AND THUS FAR ALLEGEDLY INDECISIVE APPROACH TO CONCRETE ISSUES MAY OR MAY NOT BE JUSTIFIED BUT HE HAS THE INTELLECTUAL CAPACITY TO GROW AND MATURE IN THE JOB. MARIO ANTONIO ANDINO APPEARS TO BE AN EXCELLENT CHOICE TO BRING PRACTICAL EXPERIENCEAND BALANCE TO THE JUNTA WHILE EFFECTIVELY REPRESENTING THE MORE PROGRESSIVE OR CHANGE-ORIENTED MEMBERS OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR. A QUIET MAN, HE HAS REPORTEDLY SHOWN HIMSELF TO BE DECISIVE, ARTICULATE AND AN EFFECTIVE FOIL TO THE MORE THEORETICAL ORIENTATION OF SOME JUNTA MEMBERS.

7. IN SUM, THE JUNTA, WHILE CUMBERSOME, IS A DIVERSE BUT SEEMINGLY BALANCED COLLECTION OF INDIVIDUALS WHO SO FAR ARE WORKING MORE EFFECTIVELY TOGETHER THAN SOME HAVE ANTICIPATED. LAST WEEK THEY REPORTEDLY DIVIDED UP THEIR RESPECTIVE AREAS OF CABINET RESPONSIBILITY AND BEGAN TO FURTHER DEFINE A PROGRAM.

8. RELATIONS BETWEEN JRG AND VARIOUS SECTORS OF SOCIETY -- LIKE EVERYTHING IN THE POST-COUP CONFUSION, THE JRG RELATIONSHIP TO PRINCIPAL SECTORS OF THE SOCIETY IS STILL IN FLUX AND EVOLUTION BUT CERTAIN TENTATIVE COMMENTS CAN BE MADE.

9. MILITARY -- THE JUNIOR OFFICER CORPS (LIEUTENANTS THROUGH MAJORS), WHO ORGANIZED THE 15 OCTOBER 1979 COUP, NAMED COLONELS GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO AS THEIR REPRESENTATIVES ON THE GOVERNING JUNTA. THE COUP OBJECTIVES OF THE JUNIOR OFFICERS WERE: (1) TO PUT THE GOVERNMENT BACK ON STEADY FOOTING AND GET IT HEADED TOWARD DEMOCRATIC PROCESS, WITH ULTIMATE OGJECTIVE OF TURNING OVER EXECUTIVE POWER TO AN ELECTED CIVILIAN PRESIDENT, (2) TO ELIMINATE CORRUPTION IN THE ARMED/SECURITY FORCES AND (3) TO AVOID THE FATE OF THE NATIONAL GUARD IN NICARAGUA. THESE SAME YOUNG OFFICERS HAVE FORMED A "COMMITTEE" (ONE OFFICER FROM EACH MAJOR CUARTEL - APPROXIMATELY TWENTY IN TOTAL) WHICH SERVES AS AN OVERSIGHT GROUP TO INSURE THE JUNTA'S DIRECTION REMAINS CONSISTENT WITH THEIR STATED OBJECTIVES. MEMBERS CLAIM -- PERHAPS WITH SOME EXAGGERATION -- THAT

THEY HAVE TOPPLED ONE CORRUPT GOVERNMENT AND COULD REPLACE THE ENTIRE JUNTA OR ANY MEMBER WHO IS EITHER INEFFECTIVE OR STRAYS FROM THE ESTABLISHED SHORT-TERM GOALS. THE COMMITTEE REPORTEDLY DOES NOT INVOLVE ITSELF IN DAY-TO-DAY ACTIVITIES OF THE JUNTA BUT RATHER IN A BROADER SENSE HOLDS A DEGREE OF POWER OVER THE DIRECTION OF THE JRG.

10. IN A ROUGH DIVISION OF LABOR WITHIN THE JUNTA, COL. MAJANO HAS EMERGED AS SOMEWHAT OF THE SPOKESMAN OR PUBLIC RELATIONS FIGURE FOR THE GROUP, AND -- PROBABLY MORE IMPORTANTLY -- THE LIAISON WITH THE YOUNGER MILITARY AND THE GARRISONS. COL. GUTIERREZ, PRESUMABLY THE STRONGEST FIGURE IN THE JUNTA, HAS TAKEN ON HIMSELF LIAISON WITHIN THE JUNTA, THE QUESTION OF APPOINTMENTS, AND PROBABLY THE MOST SENSITIVE ISSUE FACING THE JRG, THAT OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS. WITHIN THE JUNTA, MILITARY-CIVILIAN RELATIONSHIPS THUS FAR APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN HARMONIOUS, WITH NEITHER GROUP ATTEMPTING TO GAIN ASCENDANCY AT THE EXPENSE OF THE OTHER.

11. THE GREATEST DANGER TO THE MILITARY IS THE LOSS OF DISCIPLINE THROUGH THE RUPTURE IN A FUNCTIONING CHAIN OF COMMAND BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE DISCARDING OF SOME FIFTY SENIOR OFFICERS AND MASSIVE PERSONNEL SHIFTS. A MAJOR CONCERN OF SENIOR MILITARY OFFICERS IS THE REESTABLISHMENT OF THAT CHAIN OF COMMAND TO CONTROL THE JUNIOR OFFICERS. THE YOUNGER OFFICERS APPEAR CAPABLE OF MANAGING THE MILITARY UNITS, BUT HAVE EXPERIENCED SOME DIFFICULTY IN CONTROLLING THE SECURITY FORCES WHO ENVISION THEMSELVES AS THE PAWNS IN THE POLITICAL PRISONER/DISAPPEARED PERSONS GAMBIT.

12. CHURCH -- RELATIONS WITH THE ROMERO WING OF THE CHURCH ARE [redacted]

GOOD BUT DELICATE ON BOTH SIDES. MAYORGA IS CONSIDERED (WITH MUCH JUSTIFICATION) TO REPRESENT CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY AND JESUIT INTERESTS CLOSELY TIED TO ARCHBISHOP ROMERO. THE ARCHBISHOP, HOWEVER, WHILE CLEARLY SUPPORTING THE JUNTA, WISHES TO AVOID CHARGES OF OVERT POLITICAL ACTIVISM/INDENTIFICATION AND TO MAINTAIN HIS POPULAR PRESTIGE AND CREDIBILITY SO AS TO DRAW SUPPORT FROM THE EXTREME LEFT. HENCE, HE MUST ADOPT A HELPFUL BUT NOT UNCRITICAL PUBLIC POSTURE TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT WHICH PRESERVES HIS POPULAR INFLUENCE. TO DATE HIS PUBLIC STATEMENTS HAVE BEEN GENERALLY HELPFUL TO THE JUNTA. IF AND WHEN THE SECURITY FORCES USE EXCESSIVE FORCE AGAINST EVEN THE FAR LEFT, HOWEVER, ROMERO FEELSCOMPELLED BOTH MORALLY ANDPRACTICALLY TO TAKE A CRITICAL STANCE. SIMILARLY, HE MUST AND DOES PRESS THE JRG PUBLICLY ON HIGHLY EMOTIONAL ISSUE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS WHILE PRIVATELY RECOGNIZING THAT NEW MILITARY LEADERS WHO ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR PAST SINS HAVE A NEARLY IMPOSSIBLE JOB OF INVESTIGATING AND PUNISHING THE GUILTY WITHOUT RIPPING APART THE FABRIC OF MILITARY UNITY. AS LONG AS THE JRG AND THE MILITARY SINCERELY TRY TO DEVELOP A NEW APPROACH TO HUMAN RIGHTS, THE ROMERO WING OF THE CHURCH WILL PROVIDE IMPORTANT, IF NOT UNCRITICAL, SUPPORT AND ALL THE INTELLECTUAL RESOURCES OF THE IMPORTANT CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY-JESUIT COMMUNITY WILL BE AVAILABLE TO THE JUNTA.

TO THE JUNTA AND WILL ONLY SUMMARIZE THE HIGHLIGHTS. INITIALLY AMBIVALENT TOWARD PARTICIPATION IN JRG, PDC SUBSEQUENTLY TRIED UNSUCCESSFULLY TO GET MEMBER APPOINTED TO JUNTA ITSELF AND AGREED TO SETTLE FOR CABINET AND SUB-SECRETARY POSITIONS. WHILE WISHING POTENTIAL POLITICAL AND ELECTORAL ADVANTAGE OF INDEPENDENT POSITION, PDC'S FUTURE IS CLOSELY TIED TO JUNTA'S SURVIVAL AND SUCCESS IN WAY WHICH ENSURES PARTY BACKING FOR NEW GOVERNMENT. INDEED, PDC'S CURRENT FRUSTRATION THAT IT DOES NOT HAVE GREATER DIRECT ROLE IN FORMULATING JUNTA'S POLITICAL STRATEGY DERIVES FROM ITS IMPOSSIBLE DESIRE TO HAVE IT BOTH WAYS, I.E., THE ELCTORAL BENEFITS OF INDEPENDENCE VERSUS THE MORE IMMEDIATE POLITICAL BENEFIS OF SHAPING JRG POLICY IN A WAY MOST CALCULATED TO ENSURE ITS SURVIVAL. IN ESSENCE, HOWEVER, THE PDC HAS AND CAN BE EXPECTED TO CONTINUE SUPPORTING THE JUNTA WHILE SEEKING EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO DERIVE MAXIMUM POLITICAL BENEFIT FROM ITS STILL AMBIVALENT POSITION. SINCE PDC DOES LOOM AT LEAST INITIALLY AS STRONGEST SINGLE POLITICAL PARTY, ITS POSITION AND RELATIONSHIP TO THE JRG WILL REMAIN IMPORTANT FACTORS IN THE POLITICAL QUESTION.

14. PRIVATE SECTOR RELATIONS WITH THE JRG ARE ALSO COMPLICATED, INFLUX AND COVERED IN PREVIOUS EMBASSY REPORTING. IN SUMMARY, #923;34, PROGRESSIVE BUSINESSMEN AND GROUPS -- WHO ARE AN INCREASINGLY IMPORTANT FORCE -- SUPPORT THE JRG AND JUNTA LEADER MARIO ANDINO. WITHIN THE LAST FEW DAYS, FOR EXAMPLE, THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY APPOINTED A MIXED COMMISSION TO WORK WITH AND SUPPORT ANDINO. CONSERVATIVE BUSINESS INTERESTS -- TRADITIONALLY VOCAL THROUGH THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PRIVATE ENTERPRISE (ANEP) -- HAVE TAKEN A WAIT-AND-SEE ATTITUDE AND ARE LESS HOSTILE TO THE JUNTA THAN MIGHT HAVE BEEN ANTICIPATED. THEY ARE, HOWEVER, NERVOUS ABOUT THE PROMISE OF JRG REFORMS AD WILL SEEK TO BLUNT OR MODERATE ANY FAR-REACHING JUNTA PROGRAMS WHILE RELUCTANTLY ACCOMMODATING OTHERS. THE MOST CONSERVATIVE AND POLITICALLY ACTIVE ELEMENTS OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR, WHO WERE THE POWER BEHIND THE RECENTLY DEPOSED LEADERSHIP

OF ANEP, ARE AT LEAST TEMPORARILY DISCREDITED, INTERESTED IN PLOTTING BUT SEEMINGLY FRUSTRATED, AND TENDING TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY TO AVOID REPRISALS. IN THIS CONTEXT PUBLIC DISCUSSIONS OF COUP PLOTTING, THE KIDNAPPING OF JAIME HILL (COUSIN OF REACTIONARY AGRICULTURALIST, BANKER ROBERTO HILL AND A CLOSE FRIEND OF EX-PRESIDENT ROMERO), THE REMOVAL OF QUESTIONABLE MILITARY OFFICERS FROM ACTIVE DUTY AND THE DEPARTURE OF FORMER ANPE LEADERS MAY TEMPORARILY DEFUSE A RIGHIST COUNTERCOUP. THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF THE JRG'S REFORM PROGRAM AND (B) THE SHIFTING AND STILL UNCLEAR BALANCE BETWEEN SO-CALLED PROGRESSIVE/ MODERATES IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR AND THE MORE TRADITIONAL CONSERVATIEVE OR REACTIONARY GROUPS.

15. LABOR -- REACTION OF EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION, DEMOCRATICALLY-ORIENTED FEDERAL OF UNIONS OF CONSTRU TION AND TRANSPORTATION WORKERS (FESINCONSTRAINS), AND OF EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST RURAL CO-OPERATIVE ORGANIZATION, THE UNION COMUNAL SALVADORENA (UCS), TO THE JRG HAS GENERALLY BEEN FAVORABLE, WITH BOTH CITING THE JRG'S WILLINGNESS TO CONSULT THEM ON IMPORTANT CABINET APPOINTMENTS AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS (SAN SALVADOR 5983, 6087, 6143, 5992, 6191). REACTION FROM CONSERVATIVE SECTOR OF LABOR MOVEMENT -- AS REPRESENTED BY DEMOCRATICALLY-ORIENTED GENERAL CONFEDERATION OF SALVADORAN UNIONS-CGS (EL SALVADOR'S THIRD-LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION) -- HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLY LESS ENTHUSIASTIC, PROBABLY DUE TO CGS'S CLOSE IDENTIFICATION WITH PREVIOUS ROMERO GOVERNMENT. EL SALVADOR'S SECOND-LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION, THE PREDOMINANTLY COMMUNIST UNITED CONFEDERATION OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (CUTS) IS A MEMBER OF POPULAR FORUM AND AS SUCH HAS GIVEN SUPPORT TO JRG. HOWEVER, ITS LARGEST COMPONENT, THE NATIONAL LABOR FEDERATION OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (FENASTRANS) -- WHICH HAS TIES [redacted]

TO LEFTIST UNIONED POPULAR ACTION FRONT (FAPU) -- RECNTLY ANNOUNCED ITS WITHDRAWAAL FROM THE POPULAR FORUM, DENOUNCING WHAT IT SAID WERE SOME OF JRG'S "REPRESSIVE" ACTIONS. ON THE EXTREME LEFT OF LABOR SPECTRUM, EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST TEACHERS ORGANIZATION, A"ANDES 21 DE JUNIO" AND THE JOSE GUILLERMO RIVAS UNION COORDINATING COMMITTEE- CS (LARGELY RESPONSIBLE FOR PRE-COUP PERIOD WAVE OF PLANT TAKEOVERS) HAVE BOTH COME OUT AGAINST JRG. HOWEVER, ANDES IS ACTIVELY INVOLVED IN NEGOTIATING WITH THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION. BOTH ANDES AND CCS ARE CONTROLLED BY LEFTIST POPULAR REVOLUTIONARY BLOC (BPR). IN SUM, JRG IS DRAWING SUPPORT FROM MODERATE AND CENTRIST SECOTRS OF ORGANIZED LABOR WHILE LABOR GROUPS ASSOCIATED WITH EXTREME LEFTIST SPECTRUM OF SALVADORAN LABOR MOVEMENT GAVE GONE INTO OPEN OPPOSITION.

16. MEDIA -- THE ESTABLISHED SALVADORAN MEDIA, WWHICH IS VERY CONSERVATIVE BY LATIN AMERICAN STANDARDS (ITS COMPLAINTS WERE DIRECTED AT WEAK GOVERNMENT LEADERSHIP IN CRACKING DOWN ON "LEFT", INTERFERENCE WITH UNFETTERED FREE ENTERPRISE AND EXCESSIVE CONCERN ABOUT US HUMAN RIGHTS' POLICY) WAS CAUGHT OFF-GUARD BY THE COUP. IT IS NOW FOLLOWING CAREFUL AND OSTENSIBLY NEUTRAL POLITICAL LINE TOWARD JRG WITH CONTINUING ATTACKS OB LEFT. ESTABLISHED PRESS INTERESTS WILL TRY AND SURVIVE BY ADOPTING TO THE CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT. WITHOUT OVERTLY ATTACKING JUNTA, AS LONG AS ITS POWER IS INTACT, CONSERVATIVE MEDIA WILL PROBABLY INVOKE FREEDOM OF PRESS TO SLOW OR BLOCK ANY JRG REFORM EFFORTS AIMED AT REAL STRUCTURAL CHANGE. THE CATHOLIC NEWSPAPER "ORIENTATION" WILL

17. CHALLENGE FROM RIGHT AND LEFT -- THE EXTREME LEFT AND RIGHT WERE CAUGHT OFF-GUARD BY THE COUP AND HAVE BEEN FORCED TO REVISE THEIR RESPECTIVE STRATEGIES. THE RIGHT, IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE ROMERO REGIME, HAD REPORTEDLY BEEN PLANNING A MASSIVE CRACKDOWN AFTER THE OAS CONSIDERED THE HUMAN RIGHTS REPORT ON EL SALVADOR AND THE COUNTRY HOPEFULLY AVERTED CONDEMNATION. WHEN REPORTS OF THE COUP PLOT BY YOUNG MILITARY OFFICERS REACHED PRESIDENT ROMERO, THERE WAS APPARENTLY A FUTILE EFFORT TO ORGANIZAE A COUNTERCOUP AND THEN A TENSE PERIOD OF NEGOTION ON OCT 15 BETWEEN ROMERO LOYALISTS IN THE ARMED FORCES AND THE GOLISTAS. DETAILS OF WHAT WAS AGREED ARE NOT KNOW BUT CLEARLY ROMERO'S INNTER CIRCLE COMPOSED OF SOME MILITARY OFFICERS AND PRESUMABLY SOME CABINET MINISTERS, WERE GUARANTEED SAFE PASSAGE OUT OF THE COUNTRY. IN ADDITION, THE COUP ORGANIZERS MAY HAVE GIVEN SOME ASSURANCE THAT THEY WOULD NOT TAKE STRONG ACTION AGAINST OTHER FIGURES IN THE ROMERO GOVERNMENT WHO CHOSE TO REMAIN. IN ANY EVENT, WHATEVER AGREEMENT WAS REACHED ENABLED ROMERO AND COMPNY TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY PEACEFULLY AND AVOIDED AN INTERNAL CONFRONTATION IN THE ARMED FORCES WHICH WOULD HAVE BEEN DISASTEROUS.

18. FOLLOWING THE COUP THE MOST IMMEDIATE THREAT FROM THE RIGHT APPEARS TO STEM FROM A POTENTIAL COMBINATION OF TWO GROUPS: A REACTIONARY ELEMENT IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR WHICH WAS ENGAGED INRIGHTIST TERRORISM UNDER ROMERO AND DISGRUNTLED SEGMENTS OF THE ARMED FORCES WHO WERE DISPLACED BY THE COU BUT DO NOT SUPPORT THE NEW MILITARY LEADERSHIP OR THE OBJECTIVES AND ORIENTATION OF THE JRG. DESPITE STRONG INITIAL CONCERN THAT THESE TWO GROUPS MIGHT UNITE IN A COUNTERCOUP, THE IMMEDIATE THREAT MAY BE RECEDING SOMEWHAT AS PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF A WOULD-BE COUNTERCOUP SURFACES. EXTREMISTS OF THE RIGHT EXIT THE COUNTRY, THE NEW MILITARY LEADERSHIP ACTS TO EXERCISE CONTROL OVER WOULD-BE COUP PLOTTERS AMONG DISPLACED OR INITIALLY DISAFFECTED MILITARY OFFICERS. THE JUNTA MOVEMENT TO DEFINE A POLITICAL STRATEGY FOR SEEKING BROADER SUPPORT AND ITS DESIRE TO DEV-ELOP BETTER ORGANIZATION AND TACTICS FOR COPING WITH THE VIOLENT

CHALLENGE ON THE EXTREME LEFT SHOULD ALSO BE HELPFUL. TO THE EXTENT THAT THE JUNTA AND NEW MILITARY LEADERSHIP CAN GET THEIR ACT IN ORDER,

IT WILL HELP UNDERCUT THE IMMEDIATE MACHINATION OF THE FAR RIGHT. ANOTHER AND PROBABLY MORE SERIOUS THREAT FROM THIS QUARTER MAY ARISE LATER IF AND WHEN THE JUNTA DECIDES TO LAUNCH A MEANINGFUL REFORM PROGRAM WHICH WOULD SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECT THE TRADITIONALLY DOMINANT AND CONSERVATIVE INTERESTS IN EL SALVADOR.

19. THE TIMETABLE AND STRATEGY OF GROUPS ON THE EXTREME LEFT WERE ALSO JOLTED BY THE MILITARY COUP. AFTER INITIAL CONFUSION AND SOME INTERNAL DIVISIONS, HOWEVER, THEY APPEAR TO HAVE SOMEWHAT RECOVERED. WHETHER SEPARATELY OR IN CONCERT, THREE CLANDESTINE GROUPS AND THEIR POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS HE APARENTLY DECLARED WAR ON THE JUNTA AND ARE ENGAGED IN AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN OF MASS DEMONSTRATIONS, SELECTIVE TERRORISM, POLITICALLY PROVOCATIVE ACTIONS AND EVEN LOW-LEVEL GUERRILLA ATTACKS TO KEEP THE JUNTA OFF-GUARD AND ON THE DEFENSIVE. A PRIMARY OBJECTIVE AT THIS STAGE IS TO PROVOKE THE JUNTA INTO A REACTIVE AND REPRESSIVE POSTURE; ONE CALCULATED TO GENERATE MORE MARTYRS, TARNISH THE DEMOCRATIC IMAGE OTLOHE JUNTA, PROMOTE POLARIZATION AND RECAPTURE POPULAR SUPPORT WHICH MIGHT OTHERWISE FLOW TO MODERATE GROUPS LIKE THE PDC. INITIALLY, AT LEAST THIS AGGRESSIVE TACTIC HAS BEEN A PARTIAL SUCCESS. IT HAS SLOWED JU TA PLANNING (THE BPR'S OCCUPATION OF MINISTRIES AND SEUZIRE OF LEADING CABINET MEMBERS AS HOSTAGE HAS BEEN PARTICULARLY DAMAGING) AND PROVOKED OCCASIONAL OVER-REACTION BY SECURITY FORCES AND NEW MARTYRS. ON THE OTHER HAND, IT HAS GLEARLY REVEALED THE VIOLENT AND EXTREMIST GOALS AND METHODS OF THE FAR LEFT IN A WAY WHICH IF ACTIVELY AND INTELLIGENTLY COUNTERED

BY THE JUNTA AND THE ARMED FORCES COULD DISCREDIT AND UNDERMINE POPULAR SYMPATHY FOR THE EXTREMIST CAUSE.

PAGE 03 SAN SA 06376 04 OF 05 0620542

20. IN GENERAL TERMS THE JRG HAS TRIED TO REACT IN A RESTRAINED AND POLITICAL WAY TO THE CHALLENGE OF THE LEFT EMPHASIZING THE NEED FOR A DEMOCRATIC AND NON-VIOLENT SOLUTION TO THE NATION'S PROBLEMS AND UNMASKINGLTHE DEMOGOGIC DEMANDS OF HE FAR LEFT. THUS FAR THE JUNTA'S BASICALLY SOUND POSTURE HAS BEEN WEAKENED BY A VARIETY OF FACTORS: INADEQUATE ORGANIZATION OF JRG'S PUBLIC RELATIONS AND INFORMATION EFFORTS THE DIFFICULTY OF RETRAINING AND RESTRAINING A MILITARY FORCE ACCUSTOMED AND EQUIPPED TO USING VIOLENCE TO CONTROL VIOLENCE, POOR OR ALMOST NON-EXISTENT INTELLIGENCE CAPABILITY, SELF-CONSTRAINTS IMPOSED BY THE NEED TO SAFEGUARD THE LIVES OF MINISTRIAL HOSTAGES HELD BY THE BPR.

20.A. TWO ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS WHICH HAVE DEDEVILED THE JUNTA'S EFFORTS TO BUILD POLITICAL SUPPORT AND ISOLATE THE EXTREME LEFT BY TAKING AWAY ITS POLITICAL BANNERS ARE (A) THE NEARLY INSOLVABLE PROBLEM OF DISAPPEARED PERSONS/POLITICAL PRISONERS AND (B) THE DEMOGOGICAND IMPOSSIBLE ECONOMIC DEMANDS OF THE FAR LEFT. REGARDING THE FIRST ISSUE, THE JUNTA HAS FINALLY ADMITTED IT CAN FIND NO PRISONERS BUT APPOINTED A COMMISSSION RESPONSIBLE FOR AN INVESTIGATION AND REPORT IN 60 DAYS. THE BASIC ISSUE SEEMS CLEAR. MOST, IF NOTALL, THE PRISONERS/ DISAPPEARED PERSONS ARE PROBABLY DEAD BUT THERE IS A QUESTION OF HOW FAR THE JUNTA CAN GO TOWARD FULLY REVEALING AND PUNISHING THOSE RESPONSIBLE WITHOUT THREATENINGLTHE FRAGILE UNITY OF THE ARMED FORCES

IN THIS CRITICAL PERIOD, WHATEVER THE JUNTA DOES IN THIS AREA WILL NOT SATISFY THE
FAR LEFT WHICH NEEDS THIS EMOTIONAL POLITICAL ISSUE. NEVERTHELESS, IT MAY HAVE TO GO MUCH FATHER THAN IT ORIGINALLY HOPED AND CONTINUES TO PLAN IN ORDER TO MAKE CREDIBLE ITS COMMITMENT TO FUTURE HUMAN RIGHTS REFORM AND SATISFY MODERATE POLITICAL GROUPS, THE CHURCH, AND PUBLIC OPINION IN GENERAL THAT THERE WILL BE CHANGE AND THAT PAST RESPONSIBILITY WILL NOT BE IGNORED.

21. ON THE ECONOMIC DEMANDS OF THE LEFT, THE JUNTA MUST

PAGE 04 SAN SA 06378 04 OF 05 062054Z

BEGIN TO ADOPT AN EMERGENCY ECONOMIC PROGRAM WHICH WILL UNDERCUT, IF NOT SATIFY, POPULAR ASPIRATIONS. THIS IS NOT AN EASY STEP AFTER THREE TURBULENT WEEKS WHEN KEY ECONOMIC MINISTERS ARE BEING HELD AND THE COUNTRY IS UNDER LEFTIST ASSAULT, BUT

PLANNING IS UNDERWAY AND THE JUNTA HAS PROVIDED THE BROAD OUTLINES OF AN EMERGENCY ECONOMIC PROGRAM WITH MORE SPECIFIC MEASURES TO BE ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK.

BUT FIRM RESTRAINT COUPLED WITH A COHERENT POLITICAL STRATEGY TO DISCREDIT THE EXTREME LEFT. BOTH ARE RECOGNIZED BY THE JRG AND IN THE PROCESS OF INITIAL ELABORATION BUT FACE TREMENDOUS OBSTACLES, PARTICULARLY IN THE SECURITY AREA WHERE TRADITIONAL RESPONSES AND POOR CAPABILITY CANNOT BE CHANGED OVERNGITH. THE CHURCH AND MODERATE POLITICAL SECTORS ARE PRIVATELY MORE UNDERSTANDING AND TOLERANT TO THE JRG PROBLEMS IN THIS AREA THAN THEIR PUBLIC STATEMENTS AIMED AT MAINTAINING POPULAR CREDIBILITY MIGHT SUGGEST.

23. IN THE MEDIUM AND LONGER TERN, THE JRG NEEDS TO REGAIN THE POLITICAL INITIATIVE, FURTHER ELABORATE ITS POSITION ON HOLDING DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS AND DEFIPE ITS ROLE AS A TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT PLEDGED TO REFORM OR AT LEAST TO LAY THE GROUND WORK FOR OVERDUE POLITICALAND SOCIO-ECONOMIC REFORMS. AT THIS EARLY POINT, IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO ASSESS THE JRG ABILITY TO REACH THESE OBJECTIVES. WE DO KNOW THAT JUNTA MEMBERS RECOGNIZE AND ARE ACTIVELY WEIGHTING THESE ISSUES. THE DIVERSITY OF POLITICAL INTERESTS INVOLVED AND REFLECTED N THE JUNTA TENDSTO FORCE A SLOWER DECISION-MAKING PROCESS BASED ON CONSULTATION, BUT IF AGREEMENT CAN BE REACHED BY THIS ROUTE, THE RESULTS MAY BE MORE

ACCEPTABLE, ENDURING AND HELPFUL TO THE JUNTA'S STRUGGLE TO BUILD A MODERATE CONCENSUS WHICH WILL ISOLATE THE EXTREME LEFT.

24. FINALLY, THE ECONOMIC QUESTIONS AND ASSESSMENT REQUESTED (REFTEL) ARE COVERED IN A SEPARATE MESSAGE ALONG WITH SONE POLICY QUESTIONS WHICH THEY RAISE FOR USG RESPONSE.

25. HOW CAN THE USG BEST HELP THE JRG? -- AT THIS DELICATE STAGE IN THE JUNTA'S LIFE, THE USG'S ROLE IS VERY IMPORTANT BUT REQUIRES POLITICAL UNDERSTANDING AND SENSITIVITY TO LOCAL REALITIES. AMBASSADOR DEVINE CAN BEST ADDRESS THE COMPLEX QUESTIONS ATTACHED TO THE USG'S POSTURE AND POLICY TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT DURING CONSULTATION IN WASHINGTON. NEVERTHELESS, SEVERAL GENERAL OBSERVATIONS SEEM WORTH MENTIONING OR REITERATING AT THIS TIME:

A. US SECURITY AND ECONOIC ASSISTANCE MAY WEL PROVE ESSENTIAL TO THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL BUT THE TIMING, AMOUNT AND

PAGE 02 SAN SA 06376 05 OF 05 062104Z

ABSORPTIVE CAPACITY MUST DEPEND IN LARGE MEASURE ON THE JUNTA'S POLITICAL JUDGMENT OF WHAT IS REQUIRED AND APPROPRIATE.

B. A CLOSE CONTINUOUS BUT DISCREET POLITICAL AND ECNOMIC DIALOGUE WITH THE JUNTA AND OTHER KEY OFFICIALS OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT IS NECESSARY BUT REQUIRES CAREFUL DEVELOPMENT SO AS TO AVOID THE INTERNAL POLITICAL STIGMA OF EXCESSIVE PUBLIC ASSOCIATION.

C. IN ADDITION TO USG ASSISTANCE, IT WOULD SEEM DESIRABLE

FOR US TO TAKE THE LEAD PRIVATELY ENCOURAGING OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES FAVORABLY DISPOSED TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT TO OFFE APPROPRIATE POLITICAL AND MATERIAL SUPPORT. BILATERAL US ASSISTANCE MIGHT BE MORE POLITICALLY ACCEPTABLE TO THE JUNTA EITHER IN THE CONTEXT OF A MULTILATERAL EFFORT OR IF COMPLEMENTED BY BILATERAL ASSISTANCE FROM A VARIETY OF LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES.

D. WE MUST ENCOURAGETHE JUNTA IN THEIR OWN EFFORTS TO DEVISE A SHORT AND MEDIUM-TERM POLITICAL STRATEGY WHICH CAN BE PUBLICLY ARTICULATED IN A WAY THAT ISOLATES THE FAR LEFT. IN ADDITION TO REGULAR CONSULTATION WITH THE GOVERNMENT, WE MUST CONTINUE TO URGE DIALOGUE AND CONSULTATION AMONG ALL MODERATE SECTORS WHOSE SUPPORT IS NEEDED FOR THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL. WE MUST COOPERATE WHEREVER POSSIBLE IN ASSITING THE JUNTA TO COPE WITH CHALLENGES ON THE EXTREME LEFT OR RIGHT. THIS IMPLIES SOME SHARING OF APPROPRIATE INTELLIGENCE AND OTHER INFORMATION.

26. STRENGTHENING CONTACTS WITH THE JRG AND OTHER SECTORS -- AS THE DEPARTMENT IS AWARE, BOTH FROM STATE CABLES, MILITARY [redacted] MESSAGES, THE MISSION HAS HAD SUBSTANTIAL CONTACT BOTH FORMALLY AND INFORMALLY WITH MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA DURING ITS SHORT TENURE IN POWER. MORE CONTACT IS OF COURSE DESIRABLE AND WILL BE ACTIVELY PURSUED IN THE DAYS AND WEEKS AHEAD, BUT [redacted]

THE NATURE AND FREQUENCY OF SUCH CONTACTS MUST BE CONSIDERED IN THE LIGHT OF POLICY, POLITICAL, AND PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS ENGENDERED BY CERTAIN INTERNAL REALITIES IN EL SALVADOR. IN THE FIRST PLACE, CONSTRUCTIVE PUBLIC AND, TO A LESSER EXTENT, PRIVATE CONTACT WITH THE JUNTA DURING THE FIRST TWO WEEKS WAS LIMITED BY THE INCIPENT JRG'S OWN ABSORPTION AND PREOCCUPATION WITH THE DIFFICULT CONSULTATIVE PROCESS OF (A) FORMING AN ENTIRELY NEW GOVERNMENT, (B) DEFINING INTERNAL LINES OF AUTHORITY, (C) DEFINING THE BROAD OUTLINE OF A POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC POLICY, AND (D) REACTING TO THE ALMOST IMMEDIATE ONSLAUGHT FROM THE FAR LEFT. CONTACTS WERE ESTABLISHED THROUGH A VARIETY OF CHANNELS, BUT TO HAVE BURDENED THE HARD-PRESSED JUNTA MEMBERS WITH REQUESTS FOR FURTHER MEETINGS WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN PRODUCTIVE. EQUALLY IMPORTANT -- AT LEAST AT THIS STAGE -- WAS THE NEED TO AVOID EXCESSIVE US PUBLIC IDENTIFICATION WITH A NEW GOVERNMENT. MODERATE BUT STILL POLITICALLY SHAKY IT IS SEEKING TO ESTABLISH A BROAD POLITIAL LBASE BY REACHING OUT TO AN IDEOLOGICALLY DIVERSE POLITICAL CONSTITUENCY, PART OF WHICH WOULD RESIST OR EVEN OPPOSE A CLOSE, OVERT YELATIONSHIP WITH THE US.

UNCLASSIFIED

27. IN THIS CONTEXT, PUBLIC OFFERS OF US ASSISTANCE, PARTICULARLY IN THE AREA OF RIOT CONTROL, WHILE PRIVATELY HEARTENING TO MOST MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA, ARE ALSO A POTENTIAL SOURCE OF EMBARRASSMENT IN THEIR EFFORTS TO BUILD PLURALISTIC POLITICAL SUPPORT. TO GIVE ONLY ONE EXAMPLE, THE CHURCH FELT COMPELLED TO PUBLICLY

NOTE AND OPPOSE REFERENCES TO POSSIBILITY OF US MILITARY ASSISTANCE WHILE RADICAL GROUPS ON THE NON-EXTREMIST LEFT, WHICH THE JUNTA SEEKS TO ATTRACT, WILL BE WARY AND PUBLICLY CRITICAL OF CLOSE JUNTA ASSOCITION WITH THE US. IN REALITY USG SUPPORT -- POLITICAL AS WELL AS MATERIAL -- IS LIKELY TO PROVE ESSENTIAL TO THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL BUT IT MUST BE PROFERRED WITH CARE AND SOPHISTICATION, TAKING INTO ACCOUNT INTERNAL POLITICAL REALITIES AND SENSITIVITIES.

28. FINALLY, THE MISSION HAS DEVELOPED AND WILL CONTINUE TO

CULTIVATE A WIDE RANGE OF POLITICAL GROUPS AND SECTORS WHOSE SUPPORT CONTRIBUTES TO STABILITY AND WHICH CAN INFLUENCE THE JUNTA IN POSITIVE DIRECTIONS THAT WILL STRENGTHEN ITS PROSPECTS FOR SURVIVAL. INFORMALLY AND PRIVATELYO WE HAVE LONG MOVED ACTIVELY ALONG THESE LINES. NEVERTHELESS, IT IS CLEAR FROM THEIR PERSPECTIVE AT LEAST THAT OUR ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE SHOULD BE CATALYTIC AND SUPPORTIVE OF THE JUNTA MEMBERS WHO, KNOWING BEST THEIR OWN POLITICAL REALITY, CAN MOST EFFECTIVELY DEVISE A STRATEGY APPROPRIATE TO THE COMPLEX SITUATION HERE. 1. (LOU) ALTHOUGH POPULAR FORUM IS COMPOSED OF DIVERSE GROUPS, IT SHOWS SIGNS OF BECOMING MORE VIABLE AS A CONTINUING FORCE IN SALVADORAN POLITICAL SCENE. BUT ITS COHESIVENESS WILL CONTINUALLY BE TESTED. JUNTA MEMBER GUILLERMO UNGO ON NOVEMBER 1 APPEARED BEFORE POPULAR FORUM MEETING TO REACKNOWLEDGE HIS STATUS AS REPRESENTATIVE OF POPULAR FORUM ON JUNTA. HE REPEATED POINT THAT SAME EVENING IN JUNTA TELEVISION BROADCAST TO NATION, OFFICIALLY ANNOUNCING PLANS AND PROGRAMS.

1. (U) AT 9:20 AM NOVEMBER 7 THE MINISTRY OF ECONOMY VEHICLE IN WHICH THE SECRETARY OF TREASURY, JUAN ALEMANN, WAS TRAVELING TO WORK WAS INTERCEPTED AT OR NEAR A MAJOR THOROUGHFARE IN THE BELGRANO DISTRICT OF BUENOS AIRES BY A PICK-UP TRUCK REPORTEDLY CARRYING THREE INDIVIDUALS WHO HURLED AN INCENDIARY GRANADE INTO AND FIRED ON ALEMANN'S CAR WITH SEMI-AUTOMATIC WEAPONS. THE UNIDENTIFIED ATTACKERS EVIDENTLY GOT AWAY.

2. (U) ALEMANN, HIS CHAUFFEUR AND THE POLICE GUARD TRAVELING WITH HIM ARE NOW ALL IN A LOCAL POLICE HOSPITAL. ALEMANN REPORTEDLY IS UNINJURED, BUT THE BODYGUARD IS SERIOUSLY HURT.

3. [redacted] THE ATTACK ON ALEMANN FOLLOWS THE SEPTEMBER 27 BOMBING OF THE HOME OF ANOTHER KEY ECONOMY MINISTRY OFFICIAL, SECRETARY OF PLANNING AND ECONOMIC COORDINATION WALTER KLEIN (REF A), WHICH THE GOVERNMENT ATTRIBUTED TO MONTONERO TERRORISTS WHO REPORTEDLY ENTERED THE COUNTRY CLANDESTINELY IN RECENT MONTHS. REPORTS CIRCULATING AS A RESULT OF THE KLEIN INVESTIGATION SUGGESTED THAT THE MONTONERO OBJECTIVE WAS TO ATTACK OFFICIALS CONNECTED WITH THE ECONOMIC POLICIES OF THE GOVERNMENT IN AN ATTEMPT TO INGRATIATE THEMSELVES AND DEMONSTRATE SOLIDARITY WITH WORKERS AND POOR PEOPLE ADVERSELY AFFECTED BY THE GOA'S DEFLATIONARY PROGRAM. ALEMANN HAS ACHIEVED NOTORIETY FOR HIS OUTSPOKEN, HARD-HITTING DEFENSE OF GOA ECONOMIC OBJECTIVES, MOST RECENTLY HAVING GOTTEN HIMSELF INTO A PUBLIC ARGUMENT WITH THE ARGENTINE TRADE UNION LEADERSHIP KNOWN AS "CATA" WHEN HE ISSUED A CHALLENGE TO THEM TO PUT UP OR SHUT UP WITH RESPECT TO THEIR ABILITY TO CALL A GENERAL STRIKE (REF B). FOLLOWING THIS INCIDENT RUMORS HAVE CIRCULATED THAT ALEMANN WOULD BE ASKED TO RESIGN.

4. [redacted] ACTION REQUESTED: IN LINE WITH POLICY PROPOSALS OUTLINED REF C AND THE DEPARTMENT'S RESPONSE IN THE KLEIN PRECEDENT, REQUEST THAT DEPARTMENT ISSUE A STATEMENT DEPLORING THIS TERRORIST ACTION AND TERRORISM GENERALLY WITHOUT ANY REFERENCE OR IMPLICATIONS CONCERNING THE IDENTITY OF THE ASSAILANTS IN THIS CASE, I.E. AVOIDING THE "WHOEVER THEY MAY BE" FORMULA USED IN THE KLEIN STATEMENT.

3. (U) FULL AUTONOMY OF COMMISSION WAS REITERATED. NECESSARY RESOURCES AND AUXILIARY PERSONNEL ARE TO BE PROVIDED BY MINISTRY TO THE PRESIDENCY. SECURITY FORCES ARE ENJOINED TO COMPLETE COOPERATION. AFTER SWEARING-IN, COL MAJANO SAID THAT RESULTS OF COMMISSION'S INVESTIGATIONS "WILL DEPEND UPON THE RESOLUTION OF EXTRADITION OF THOOTTOWOH OFFICIALS, CIVILIAN AND MILITARY, THAT ARE FOUND GUILTY OF THESE CHARGES".

4. (U) IN PAID PRESS INSERTION APPEARING PRIOR TO SEEARING-IN, LARA VELADO, WITHOUT SPECIFYING POSITION FOR WHICH HE WAS BEING CONSIDERED, LAYED DOWN FIVE DEMANDS WHICH HE SAID WERE "INDISPENSABLE PREREQUISITES" FOR ACCEPTING ANY POSITION PROPOSED BY JRG.

A. ACTIONS BY SECURITY FORCES MUST BE STRICTLY WITHIN THE LAW.
B. ALL LIBERTIES AND HUMAN RIGHTS OF CITIZENRY MUST BE RESPECTED.
C. POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS, INCLUDING THOSE CONSIDRED ILLEGAL UNDER PREVIOUS GOVERNMENTS, MUST BE LEGALLY RECOGNIZED.
D. JRG MUST PUBLICLY COMMIT ITSELF TO DETERMINE [redacted]

RESPONSIBILITY FOR ACTS OF CORRUPTION OR FOR VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND PUNISH THEM ACCORDING TO LAW.
E. JRG MUST PUBLICLY RECOGNIZE INDEPENDENCE OF ACTION IN POSITION HE (LARA VELADO) WOULD FILL.

(NOTE: AVAILABLE INFORMATION DOES NOT YET DEFINITIVELY INDICATE EXTEPT TO WHICH LARA VELADO(S DEMANDS WERE MET.)

5. (U) POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS WERE EITHER SUBJECT OF OR IMPORTANT ELEMENT IN TWO FULL-PAGE PRESS INSERTIONS ALSO APPEARING MORNING NOV 7. COMMITTEE OF MOTHERS CRITICIZED 60 DAYS LIMIT FOR CEI REPORT ON BASIS IT WOULD ALLOW TIME FOR DISAPPEARED PERSONS STILL ALIVE TO BE KILLED AND FOR GUILTY TO LEAVE COUNTRY. IT FURTHER DEMANDED THAT JRG PUBLISH NAMES OF CHIEFS OF SECURITY FORCES WHO WERE IN COMMAND AT TIMES EACH OF 300 LISTED PERSONS "DISAPPEARED", AND THAT NAMES BE PUBLISHED OF MILITARY CHIEFS RESPONSIBLE FOR "MASSACRES" INCLUDING THOSE OF OCTOBER 16, 19, 22, AND 31 UNDER PRESENT GOVERNMENT.ANOTHER INTERESTING FEATURE OF INSERTION WAS CALL BY MOTHERS, IF JRG FAILED TO MEET DEMANDS, FOR ESTABLISHMENT OF "POPULAR TRIBUNALS" WITH PARTICIPATION

OF INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS, POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS, FAMILIES OF VICTIMS OF REPRESSION, SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION, ARCHBISHOP OF SAN SALVADOR, AND "HONEST" LAW PROFESSIONALS.

6. (U) WIDE-RANGING SUTC (CONSTRUCTION WORKERS UNION) PRESS INSERTION CARRIED POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS ISSUE STEP FURTHER THAN PREVIOUS NORM. IT DEMANDED RESTRUCTURING OF SECURITY FORCES BECAUSE CHIEFS AT MEDIUM AND LOW LEVELS ARE STILL THOSE [redacted]

RESPONSIBLE FOR REPRESSION, DISAPPEARANCES, AND TORTURE. WHILE HIGH GOVERNMENT LEVELS ARE MAKING PROMISES, AT LOWER LEVELS THERE STILL EXISTS MENTAL TENDENCY TOWARD REPRESSION OF PEOPLE, RESULTING IN "REPRESSIVE ACTS" OF RECENT DAYS, WHICH SUTC CONDEMNS.

7. (C) COMMENT: POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS ISSUE APPEARS DESTINED TO HAUNT JRG NO MATTER WHAT ACTION IT TAKES. NOT ONLY CAN IT NOT ESCAPE PAST, BUT IS BEING HELD STRICTLY ACCOUNTABLE FOR INCIDENTS SINCE OCTOBER 15. EVEN WITH PROMPT DRAMATIC ACTION IT IS QUESTIONABLE WHETHER JRG COULD HAVE DIFFUSED ISSUE, BUT DELAYS HAVE VIRTUALLY GUARANTEED ESCALATION OF DEMANDS AS EVIDENCED BY MOTHERS' AND SUTC DECLARATIONS. SUTC DEMAND IS PARTICULARLY INTERESTING AS IT INDICATES EVALUATION BY STRONGEST AND MOST ASTUTE LABOR LEADER OF COUNTRY, FELIPE ZALDIVAR, AS TO WHERE POLITICAL ADVANTAGE IN ISSUE LIES.

8. (LOU) ON MORE POSITIVE SIDE, DECISION BY ROBERTO LARA VELADO TO ACDEPT JRG INVITATION TO SERVE AS ONE OF THREE MEMBERS OF THE CEI SHOULD STRENGTHEN PUBLIC CREDIBILITY OF INVESTIGATIVE PROCESS AS LARA VELADO HAS BEEN CONSISTENT CHAMPION OF HUMAN RIGHTS IN EL SALVADOR WITH BROAD CONNECTIONS THROUGHOUT POLITICAL SPECTRUM INCLUDING POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS ON THE EXTREME LEFT.

YESTERDAY THAT THERE WOULD BE NO MORE DISAPPEARANCES, SUGGESTING THAT ACCUSED TERRORISTS WOULD WIND UP IN MILITARY COURTS. BIGNONE ADDED THAT THE OFFICIAL CUT OFF DATE FOR DISAPPEARANCES WAS SEPTEMBER 12 THE DAY ON WHICH THE CONTROVERSIAL LAW ON PRESUMPTIVE DEATHS WAS OFFICIALLY PUBLISHED. WHILE WE KNOW OF ONE UNEXPLAINED DISAPPEARANCE SINCE SEPTEMBER 12, THE ARMY ANNOUNCEMENT THAT THEY HAVE PORTER IN JAIL IS DISTINCT FROM GENERAL PAST PRACTICE AND HOPEFULLY WILL BE A PRECEDENT.

3. [redacted] THE ARMY DID NOT, WE NOTE, ATTEMPT TO EXPLOIT RUBEN PORTER'S EMPLOYMENT IN THE HERALD PRINTING PLANT. RATHER, THE ANNOUNCEMENT STATED PORTER WAS USING THE JOB AS "COVER", IMPLYING THAT THE HERALD WAS INNOCENTLY VICTIMIZED.

4. [redacted] WE HAVE NO WAY OF EVALUATING THE CHARGE THAT RUBEN PORTER IS A MONTONERO. RECENTLY, THOUGH, THE GOA'S RECORD ON SUCH CHARGES HAS BEEN REASONABLY ACCURATE. HIS FAMILY STATED TO US THAT HE WAS NOT INVOLVED IN POLITICS AS FAR AS THEY KNEW. ON THE OTHER HAND, THEY ALSO SAY THAT MANY OF HIS FRIENDS IN ARGENTINA WERE POLITICALLY ACTIVE AND THAT WAS ONE REASON THEY SENT HIM TO MEXICO TO STUDY IN 1976. HE RETURNED TO ARGENTINA FROM MEXICO AT THE BEGINNING OF THIS YEAR.

INTRODUCTION -- AFTER THREE WEEKS IN POWER, THE REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERNMENT (JRG) HAS ONLY NOW BEGUN TO GET ITS ACT TOGETHER AND DEFINE A POLICY AND PROGRAM WHICH HOPEFULLY WILL ENABLE IT TO WITHSTAND THE AGGRESSIVE ATTACKS MOUNTED BY THE EXTREME LEFT AND THE LESS APPARENT BUT ALWAYS LATENT THREAT OF A RIGHTIST

COUNTERCOUP. EMBASSY HAS, OF COURSE, ALREADY REPORTED EXTENSIVELY ON COUP AND MANY OF THE QUESTIONS RAISED REFTEL, BUT THIS REPORT IS DESIGNED TO SUMMARIZE AND FURTHER ANALYZE FLUID POLITICAL SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR.

3. AS REFTEL INDICATES, THE INITIAL DAYS OF THE JUNTA WERE MARKED BY CONSIDERABLE DEGREE OF CONFUSION AND LACK OF DEFINITION ARISING FROM THE PURELY MILITARY CHARACTER OF THE COUP. THE NEED TO SEEK MAXIMUM POLITICAL REPRESENTATION FROM A BROAD RANGE OF

POLITICAL SECTORS, THE HETEROGENEOUS AND COLLEGIATE CHARACTER OF A FIVE-MAN GOVERNMENT SPLIT BETWEEN MILITARY INSTIGATORS OF THE COUP AND CIVILIANS HASTILY RECRUITED TO REPRESENT DIFFERENT SECTORS AND THE LABORIOUS AND POLITICALLY COMPLICTED PROCESS OF CONSULTATION REQUIRED TO FORM A NEW CABINET. LACKING BOTH POLITICAL COHERENCE, EXPERIENCE AND CLEAR LINES OF LEADERSHIP, FACED WITH AN IMMEDIATE AND VIOLENT CHALLENGE BY THE EXTREME LEFT AND CONFLICTING POLITICAL INTERESTS AND PRESSURES, IT IS NOT SURPRISING THAT THE JUNTA SEEMED TO BE DRIFTING AND ON THE DEFENSIVE DURING THE FIRST TWO WEEKS.

4. NOW THAT THE JRG HAS BEEN FORMED AND THE ARDUOUS PROCESS OF CABINET SELECTION COMPLETED, THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEGUN TO ARTICULATE PUBLICLY THE BROAD OUTLINE OF ITS POLICY AND PROGRAMS. THE FIRST COHERENT PUBLIC PRESENTATION IN THIS RESPECT WAS THE JRG HOUR-LONG TV APPEARANCE ON NOV 1 (SEE SAN SALVADOR 6353) WHICH REPRESENTED AN OVERDUE BUT ESSENTIAL FIRST STEP TO HOLD AND EXPAND THE PUBLIC SUPPORT ENGENDERED BY THE COUP. WHILE EARLY AND EFFECTIVE FOLLOW-UP WILL BE REQUIRED TO BUILD AND SUSTAIN MOMENTUM, THE JRG HAS AT LEAST BEGUN TO FUNCTION AS A GOVERNMENT AND TO DEFINE ITS POLICY AND PROGRAM.

EROGENEOUS AND CUMBERSOME COMPOSITION OF TWO MILITARY AND THREE CIVILIAN MEMBERS, SLOWNESS IN GETTING ORGANIZED, AND ITS PERCEIVED INACTION. WHILE THERE ARE GROUNDS FOR CRITICISM, PARTICULARLY IN THE AREA OF THE JUNTA'S STRUCTURAL COMPLEXITY, MUCH OF THIS IS THE UNAVOIDABLE PRODUCT OF THE JUNTA'S ORIGINS, THE NEED FOR MAXIMUM POLITICAL REPRESENTATION AND THE AMOUNG OF TIME REQUIRED FOR AN AD HOC SELECTION OF FIVE MEN TO STRUCTURE AN ENTIRELY NEW GOVERNMENT WHILE SIMULTANEOUSLY COPING WITH AN AGGRESSIVE AND UNRELENTING ATTACK FROM THE LEFT.

6. JUNTA HETEROGENEOUS COMPOSITION IS BOTH A LIABILITY AND AN ASSET BUT THUS FAR THE FIVE MEMBERS REPRESENTING DIFFERENT GROUPS AND INTERESTS SEEM TO BE WORKING TOGETHER IN REMARKABLE HARMONY. THE TWO MILITARY LEADERS -- GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO -- ARE NEW FIGURES, UNACCUSTOMED TO THE POLITICAL WARS IN EL SALVADOR BUT THEY SEEM SINCERELY INTERESTED IN RESTORING THE WELFARE OF BOTH THE ARMED FORCES AND THE COUNTRY, ARE HIGHLY RECEPTIVE TO ADVICE AND DESPITE THEIR CONTROL OF THE IMMEDIATE LEVERS OF POWER, SEEM TO WORK WELL WITH CIVILIAN MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA. GUILLERMO UNGO, WHO REPRESENTS THE 14 GROUPS OF THE POPULAR FORUM, IS GHE MOST POLITICALLY EXPERIENCED MEMBER OF THE JUNTA, BASICALLY A MODERATE AND A GOOD PERSONAL FRIEND OF JUNTA MEMBER ROMAN MAYORGA. HE MUST TRY TO ACCOMMODATE THE BROAD AND IDEOLOGICALLY DIVERSE POLITICAL INTERESTS IN THE POPULAR FORUM WITH JUNTA POLICY SO AS TO KEEP THE BROADEST POSSIBLE POPULAR SUPPORT FOR THE JRG. THIS DIFFICULT MINE FIELD RATHER WELL, ALTHOUGH THE DIVERSE INTEREST GROUPS IN THE POPULAR FORUM WILL PROVE VERY DIFFICULT TO RECONCILE IN THE LONG TERM. ROMAN MAYORGA REPRESENTS THE THINKING OF THE ACADEMIC, TECHNOCRATIC AND PROGRESSIVE CATHOLIC INTERESTS IN EL SALVADOR. INEXPERIENCED POLITICALLY, BUT A MAN OF GREAT INTEGRITY AND DEDICATION, HE IS AN IMPORTANT INDIRECT LINK TO AND REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ROMERO WING OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND SOCIALLY CONCERNED PROFESSIONALS. APPROACH TO CONCRETE ISSUES MAY OR MAY NOT BE JUSTIFIED BUT HE HAS THE INTELLECTUAL CAPACITY TO GROW AND MATURE IN THE JOB. MARIO ANTONIO ANDINO APPEARS TO BE AN EXCELLENT CHOICE TO BRING PRACTICAL EXPERIENCEAND BALANCE TO THE JUNTA WHILE EFFECTIVELY REPRESENTING THE MORE PROGRESSIVE OR CHANGE-ORIENTED MEMBERS OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR. A QUIET MAN, HE HAS REPORTEDLY SHOWN HIMSELF TO BE DECISIVE, ARTICULATE AND AN EFFECTIVE FOIL TO THE MORE THEORETICAL ORIENTATION OF SOME JUNTA MEMBERS.

7. IN SUM, THE JUNTA, WHILE CUMBERSOME, IS A DIVERSE BUT SEEMINGLY BALANCED COLLECTION OF INDIVIDUALS WHO SO FAR ARE WORKING MORE EFFECTIVELY TOGETHER THAN SOME HAVE ANTICIPATED. LAST WEEK THEY REPORTEDLY DIVIDED UP THEIR RESPECTIVE AREAS OF CABINET RESPONSIBILITY AND BEGAN TO FURTHER DEFINE A PROGRAM.

8. RELATIONS BETWEEN JRG AND VARIOUS SECTORS OF SOCIETY -- LIKE EVERYTHING IN THE POST-COUP CONFUSION, THE JRG RELATIONSHIP TO PRINCIPAL SECTORS OF THE SOCIETY IS STILL IN FLUX AND EVOLUTION BUT CERTAIN TENTATIVE COMMENTS CAN BE MADE.

9. MILITARY -- THE JUNIOR OFFICER CORPS (LIEUTENANTS THROUGH MAJORS), WHO ORGANIZED THE 15 OCTOBER 1979 COUP, NAMED COLONELS GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO AS THEIR REPRESENTATIVES ON THE GOVERNING JUNTA. THE COUP OBJECTIVES OF THE JUNIOR OFFICERS WERE: (1) TO PUT THE GOVERNMENT BACK ON STEADY FOOTING AND GET IT HEADED TOWARD DEMOCRATIC PROCESS, WITH ULTIMATE OGJECTIVE OF TURNING OVER EXECUTIVE POWER TO AN ELECTED CIVILIAN PRESIDENT, (2) TO ELIMINATE CORRUPTION IN THE ARMED/SECURITY FORCES AND (3) TO AVOID THE FATE OF THE NATIONAL GUARD IN NICARAGUA. THE ENTIRE JUNTA OR ANY MEMBER WHO IS EITHER INEFFECTIVE OR STRAYS FROM THE ESTABLISHED SHORT-TERM GOALS. THE COMMITTEE REPORTEDLY DOES NOT INVOLVE ITSELF IN DAY-TO-DAY ACTIVITIES OF THE JUNTA BUT RATHER IN A BROADER SENSE HOLDS A DEGREE OF POWER OVER THE DIRECTION OF THE JRG.

10. IN A ROUGH DIVISION OF LABOR WITHIN THE JUNTA, COL. MAJANO HAS EMERGED AS SOMEWHAT OF THE SPOKESMAN OR PUBLIC RELATIONS FIGURE FOR THE GROUP, AND -- PROBABLY MORE IMPORTANTLY -- THE LIAISON WITH THE YOUNGER MILITARY AND THE GARRISONS. COL. GUTIERREZ, PRESUMABLY THE STRONGEST FIGURE IN THE JUNTA, HAS TAKEN ON HIMSELF LIAISON WITHIN THE JUNTA, THE QUESTION OF APPOINTMENTS, AND PROBABLY THE MOST SENSITIVE ISSUE FACING THE JRG, THAT OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS. WITHIN THE JUNTA, MILITARY-CIVILIAN RELATIONSHIPS THUS FAR APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN HARMONIOUS, WITH NEITHER GROUP ATTEMPTING TO GAIN ASCENDANCY AT THE EXPENSE OF THE OTHER.

11. THE GREATEST DANGER TO THE MILITARY IS THE LOSS OF DISCIPLINE THROUGH THE RUPTURE IN A FUNCTIONING CHAIN OF COMMAND BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE DISCARDING OF SOME FIFTY SENIOR OFFICERS AND MASSIVE PERSONNEL SHIFTS. A MAJOR CONCERN OF SENIOR MILITARY OFFICERS IS THE REESTABLISHMENT OF THAT CHAIN OF COMMAND TO CONTROL THE JUNIOR OFFICERS. THE YOUNGER OFFICERS APPEAR CAPABLE OF MANAGING THE MILITARY UNITS, BUT HAVE EXPERIENCED SOME DIFFICULTY IN CONTROLLING THE SECURITY FORCES WHO ENVISION THEMSELVES AS THE PAWNS IN THE POLITICAL PRISONER/DISAPPEARED PERSONS GAMBIT.

12. CHURCH -- RELATIONS WITH THE ROMERO WING OF THE CHURCH ARE [redacted]

GOOD BUT DELICATE ON BOTH SIDES. MAYORGA IS CONSIDERED (WITH MUCH JUSTIFICATION) TO REPRESENT CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY AND JESUIT INTERESTS CLOSELY TIED TO ARCHBISHOP ROMERO. THE ARCHBISHOP, HOWEVER, WHILE CLEARLY SUPPORTING THE JUNTA, WISHES TO AVOID CHARGES OF OVERT POLITICAL ACTIVISM/INDENTIFICATION AND TO MAINTAIN HIS POPULAR PRESTIGE AND CREDIBILITY SO AS TO DRAW SUPPORT FROM THE EXTREME LEFT. HENCE, HE MUST ADOPT A HELPFUL BUT NOT UNCRITICAL PUBLIC POSTURE TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT WHICH PRESERVES HIS POPULAR INFLUENCE. TO DATE HIS PUBLIC STATEMENTS HAVE BEEN GENERALLY HELPFUL TO THE JUNTA. IF AND WHEN THE SECURITY FORCES USE EXCESSIVE FORCE AGAINST EVEN THE FAR LEFT, HOWEVER, ROMERO FEELSCOMPELLED BOTH MORALLY ANDPRACTICALLY TO TAKE A CRITICAL STANCE. SIMILARLY, HE MUST AND DOES PRESS THE JRG PUBLICLY ON HIGHLY EMOTIONAL ISSUE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS WHILE PRIVATELY RECOGNIZING THAT NEW MILITARY LEADERS WHO ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR PAST SINS HAVE A NEARLY IMPOSSIBLE JOB OF INVESTIGATING AND PUNISHING THE GUILTY WITHOUT RIPPING APART THE FABRIC OF MILITARY UNITY. AS LONG AS THE JRG AND

THE MILITARY SINCERELY TRY TO DEVELOP A NEW APPROACH TO HUMAN RIGHTS, THE ROMERO WING OF THE CHURCH WILL PROVIDE IMPORTANT, IF NOT UNCRITICAL, SUPPORT AND ALL THE INTELLECTUAL RESOURCES OF THE IMPORTANT CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY-JESUIT COMMUNITY WILL BE AVAILABLE TO THE JUNTA.

13. CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY -- EMBASSY HAS REPORTED EXTENSIVELY ON RELATIONS OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) TO THE JUNTA AND WILL ONLY SUMMARIZE THE HIGHLIGHTS. INITIALLY AMBIVALENT TOWARD PARTICIPATION IN JRG, PDC SUBSEQUENTLY TRIED UNSUCCESSFULLY TO GET MEMBER APPOINTED TO JUNTA ITSELF AND AGREED TO SETTLE FOR CABINET AND SUB-SECRETARY POSITIONS. WHILE WISHING POTENTIAL POLITICAL AND ELECTORAL ADVANTAGE OF INDEPENDENT POSITION, PDC'S FUTURE IS CLOSELY TIED TO JUNTA'S SURVIVAL AND SUCCESS IN WAY WHICH ENSURES PARTY BACKING FOR NEW

GOVERNMENT. INDEED, PDC'S CURRENT FRUSTRATION THAT IT DOES NOT HAVE GREATER DIRECT ROLE IN FORMULATING JUNTA'S POLITICAL STRATEGY DERIVES FROM ITS IMPOSSIBLE DESIRE TO HAVE IT BOTH WAYS, I.E., THE ELCTORAL BENEFITS OF INDEPENDENCE VERSUS THE MORE IMMEDIATE POLITICAL BENEFIS OF SHAPING JRG POLICY IN A WAY MOST CALCULATED TO ENSURE ITS SURVIVAL. IN ESSENCE, HOWEVER, THE PDC HAS AND CAN BE EXPECTED TO CONTINUE SUPPORTING THE JUNTA WHILE SEEKING EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO DERIVE MAXIMUM POLITICAL BENEFIT FROM ITS STILL AMBIVALENT POSITION. SINCE PDC DOES LOOM AT LEAST INITIALLY AS STRONGEST SINGLE POLITICAL PARTY, ITS POSITION AND RELATIONSHIP TO THE JRG WILL REMAIN IMPORTANT FACTORS IN THE POLITICAL QUESTION.

14. PRIVATE SECTOR RELATIONS WITH THE JRG ARE ALSO COMPLICATED. INFLUX AND COVERED IN PREVIOUS EMBASSY REPORTING. IN SUMMARY, #923;34, PROGRESSIVE BUSINESSMEN AND GROUPS -- WHO ARE AN INCREASINGLY IMPORTANT FORCE -- SUPPORT THE JRG AND JUNTA LEADER MARIO ANDINO. WITHIN THE LAST FEW DAYS, FOR EXAMPLE, THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY APPOINTED A MIXED COMMISSION TO WORK WITH AND SUPPORT ANDINO. CONSERVATIVE BUSINESS INTERESTS -- TRADITIONALLY VOCAL THROUGH THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PRIVATE ENTERPRISE (ANEP) -- HAVE TAKEN A WAIT-AND-SEE ATTITUDE AND ARE LESS HOSTILE TO THE JUNTA THAN MIGHT HAVE BEEN ANTICIPATED. THEY ARE, HOWEVER, NERVOUS ABOUT THE PROMISE OF JRG REFORMS AD WILL SEEK TO BLUNT OR MODERATE ANY FAR-REACHING JUNTA PROGRAMS WHILE RELUCTANTLY ACCOMMODATING OTHERS. THE MOST CONSERVATIVE AND POLITICALLY ACTIVE ELEMENTS OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR, WHO WERE THE POWER BEHIND THE RECENTLY DEPOSED LEADERSHIP OF ANEP, ARE AT LEAST TEMPORARILY DISCREDITED, INTERESTED IN PLOTTING BUT SEEMINGLY FRUSTRATED, AND TENDING TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY TO AVOID REPRISALS. IN THIS CONTEXT PUBLIC DISCUSSIONS OF COUP PLOTTING, THE KIDNAPPING OF JAIME HILL (COUSIN OF REACTIONARY AGRICULTURALIST, BANKER ROBERTO HILL AND A CLOSE FRIEND OF EX-PRESIDENT ROMERO), THE REMOVAL OF QUESTIONABLE MILITARY OFFICERS FROM ACTIVE DUTY AND THE DEPARTURE OF FORMER ANPE LEADERS

RELATIONS BETWEEN THE PRIVATE SECTOR AND THE JRG WILL BE SHAPED BY (A) THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF THE JRG'S REFORM PROGRAM AND (B) THE SHIFTING AND STILL UNCLEAR BALANCE BETWEEN SO-CALLED PROGRESSIVE/ MODERATES IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR AND THE MORE TRADITIONAL CONSERVATIEVE OR REACTIONARY GROUPS.

15. LABOR -- REACTION OF EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION, DEMOCRATICALLY-ORIENTED FEDERAL OF UNIONS OF CONSTRU TION AND TRANSPORTATION WORKERS (FESINCONSTRAINS), AND OF EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST RURAL CO-OPERATIVE ORGANIZATION, THE UNION COMUNAL SALVADORENA (UCS), TO THE JRG HAS GENERALLY BEEN FAVORABLE, WITH BOTH CITING THE JRG'S WILLINGNESS TO CONSULT THEM ON IMPORTANT CABINET APPOINTMENTS AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS (SAN SALVADOR 5983, 6087, 6143, 5992, 6191). REACTION FROM CONSERVATIVE SECTOR OF LABOR MOVEMENT -- AS REPRESENTED BY DEMOCRATICALLY-ORIENTED GENERAL CONFEDERATION OF SALVADORAN UNIONS-CGS (EL SALVADOR'S THIRD-LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION) -- HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLY LESS ENTHUSIASTIC, PROBABLY DUE TO CGS'S CLOSE IDENTIFICATION WITH PREVIOUS ROMERO GOVERNMENT. EL SALVADOR'S SECOND-LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION, THE PREDOMINANTLY COMMUNIST UNITED CONFEDERATION OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (CUTS) IS A MEMBER OF POPULAR FORUM AND AS SUCH HAS GIVEN SUPPORT TO JRG. HOWEVER, ITS LARGEST COMPONENT, THE NATIONAL LABOR FEDERATION OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (FENASTRANS) -- WHICH HAS TIES TO LEFTIST UNIONED POPULAR ACTION FRONT (FAPU) -- RECNTLY ANNOUNCED ITS WITHDRAWAAL FROM THE POPULAR FORUM, DENOUNCING WHAT IT SAID WERE SOME OF JRG'S "REPRESSIVE" ACTIONS. ON THE EXTREME LEFT OF LABOR SPECTRUM, EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST TEACHERS ORGANIZATION, A"ANDES 21 DE JUNIO" AND THE JOSE GUILLERMO RIVAS UNION COORDINATING COMMITTEE- CS (LARGELY RESPONSIBLE FOR PRE-COUP PERIOD WAVE OF PLANT TAKEOVERS) HAVE BOTH COME OUT AGAINST JRG. HOWEVER, ANDES IS ACTIVELY INVOLVED IN NEGOTIATING WITH THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION. BOTH

ANDES AND CCS ARE CONTROLLED BY LEFTIST POPULAR REVOLUTIONARY BLOC (BPR). IN SUM, JRG IS DRAWING SUPPORT FROM MODERATE AND CENTRIST SECOTRS OF ORGANIZED LABOR WHILE LABOR GROUPS ASSOCIATED WITH EXTREME LEFTIST SPECTRUM OF SALVADORAN LABOR MOVEMENT GAVE GONE INTO OPEN OPPOSITION.

WITH UNFETTERED FREE ENTERPRISE AND EXCESSIVE CONCERN ABOUT US HUMAN RIGHTS' POLICY) WAS CAUGHT OFF-GUARD BY THE COUP. IT IS NOW FOLLOWING CAREFUL AND OSTENSIBLY NEUTRAL POLITICAL LINE TOWARD JRG WITH CONTINUING ATTACKS OB LEFT. ESTABLISHED PRESS INTERESTS WILL TRY AND SURVIVE BY ADOPTING TO THE CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT. WITHOUT OVERTLY ATTACKING JUNTA, AS LONG AS ITS POWER IS INTACT, CONSERVATIVE MEDIA WILL PROBABLY INVOKE FREEDOM OF PRESS TO SLOW OR BLOCK ANY JRG REFORM EFFORTS AIMED AT REAL STRUCTURAL CHANGE. THE CATHOLIC NEWSPAPER "ORIENTATION" WILL FOLLOW THE LINE OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO AND OPENLY CRITICAL AND AND OPINIONATED LEFTIST DAILY "LA CRONICA" WILL CONTINUE TO WEAVE BETWEEN THE RADICAL AND ORTHODOX LEFT, CRITICIZING ANY JUNTA ACTIONS DEEMED
REPRESSIVE OR DIRECTED AGAINST PUBLIC. RADIO WILL REMAIN A VERY INFLUENTIAL MEDIA WHICH IS FAR MORE OPEN THAN PRESS OR TV TOWARDS POLITICAL PLURALISM. EVENTUALLY, MORE PROGRESSIVE AND MODERATE MEDIA INTERESTS MAY EMERGE IN SUPPORT OF THE JUNTA BUT THE PREPONDERANT QUALITY AND ORIENTATION OF THE MEDIA IS AT PRESENT LOW AND GENERALLY CONSERVATIVE. EVEN BEFORE THE COUP, HOWEVER, THE MEDIA WAS SHOWING SIGNS OF OPENING UP TO THE OPPOSITION, AND THAT TREND HAS SINCE ACCTOTY PG.

18. FOLLOWING THE COUP THE MOST IMMEDIATE THREAT FROM THE RIGHT APPEARS TO STEM FROM A POTENTIAL COMBINATION OF TWO GROUPS: A REACTIONARY ELEMENT IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR WHICH WAS ENGAGED INRIGHTIST TERRORISM UNDER ROMERO AND DISGRUNTLED SEGMENTS OF THE ARMED FORCES WHO WERE DISPLACED BY THE COU BUT DO NOT SUPPORT THE NEW MILITARY LEADERSHIP OR THE OBJECTIVES AND ORIENTATION OF THE JRG. DESPITE STRONG INITIAL CONCERN

THAT THESE TWO GROUPS MIGHT UNITE IN A COUNTERCOUP. THE IMMEDIATE THREAT MAY BE RECEDING SOMEWHAT AS PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF A WOULD-BE COUNTERCOUP SURFACES. EXTREMISTS OF THE RIGHT EXIT THE COUNTRY, THE NEW MILITARY LEADERSHIP ACTS TO EXERCISE CONTROL OVER WOULD-BE COUP PLOTTERS AMONG DISPLACED OR INITIALLY DISAFFECTED MILITARY OFFICERS. THE JUNTA MOVEMENT TO DEFINE A POLITICAL STRATEGY FOR SEEKING BROADER SUPPORT AND ITS DESIRE TO DEVELOP BETTER ORGANIZATION AND TACTICS FOR COPING WITH THE VIOLENT

IT WILL HELP UNDERCUT THE IMMEDIATE MACHINATION OF THE FAR RIGHT. ANOTHER AND PROBABLY MORE SERIOUS THREAT FROM THIS QUARTER MAY ARISE LATER IF AND WHEN THE JUNTA DECIDES TO LAUNCH A MEANINGFUL REFORM PROGRAM WHICH WOULD SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECT THE TRADITIONALLY DOMINANT AND CONSERVATIVE INTERESTS IN EL SALVADOR.

19. THE TIMETABLE AND STRATEGY OF GROUPS ON THE EXTREME LEFT WERE ALSO JOLTED BY THE MILITARY COUP. AFTER INITIAL CONFUSION;AND SOME INTERNAL DIVISIONS, HOWEVER, THEY APPEAR TO HAVE SOMEWHAT RECOVERED. WHETHER SEPARATELY OR IN CONCERT, THREE CLANDESTINE GROUPS AND THEIR POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS HE APARENTLY DECLARED WAR ON THE JUNTA AND ARE ENGAGED IN AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN OF MASS DEMONSTRATIONS, SELECTIVE TERRORISM, POLITICALLY PROVOCATIVE ACTIONS AND EVEN LOW-LEVEL GUERRILLA ATTACKS TO KEEP THE JUNTA OFF-GUARD AND ON THE DEFENSIVE. A PRIMARY OBJECTIVE AT THIS STAGE IS TO PROVOKE THE JUNTA INTO A REACTIVE AND REPRESSIVE POSTURE; ONE CALCULATED TO GENERATE MORE MARTYRS, TARNISH THE DEMOCRATIC IMAGE OTLOHE JUNTA, PROMOTE POLARIZATION AND RECAPTURE POPULAR SUPPORT WHICH MIGHT OTHERWISE FLOW TO MODERATE GROUPS LIKE THE PDC. INITIALLY, AT LEAST THIS AGGRESSIVE TACTIC HAS BEEN A PARTIAL SUCCESS. IT HAS SLOWED JU TA PLANNING (THE BPR'S OCCUPATION OF MINISTRIES AND SEUZIRE OF LEADING CABINET MEMBERS AS HOSTAGE HAS BEEN PARTICULARLY DAMAGING) AND PROVOKED OCCASIONAL OVER-REACTION BY SECURITY FORCES AND NEW MARTYRS. ON THE OTHER HAND, IT HAS QLEARLY REVEALED THE VIOLENT AND EXTREMIST GOALS AND METHODS OF THE FAR LEFT IN A WAY WHICH IF ACTIVELY AND INTELLIGENTLY COUNTERED

BY THE JUNTA AND THE ARMED FORCES COULD DISCREDIT AND UNDERMINE POPULAR SYMPATHY FOR THE EXTREMIST CAUSE.

AND POLITICAL WAY TO THE CHALLENGE OF THE LEFT EMPHASIZING THE NEED FOR A DEMOCRATIC AND NON-VIOLENT SOLUTION TO THE NATION'S PROBLEMS AND UNMASKINGLTHE DEMOGOGIC DEMANDS OF HE FAR LEFT. THUS FAR THE JUNTA'S BASICALLY SOUND POSTURE HAS BEEN WEAKENED BY A VARIETY OF FACTORS: INADEQUATE ORGANIZATION OF JRG'S PUBLIC RELATIONS AND INFORMATION EFFORTS THE DIFFICULTY OF RETRAINING AND RESTRAINING A MILITARY FORCE ACCUSTOMED AND EQUIPPED TO USING VIOLENCE TO CONTROL VIOLENCE, POOR OR ALMOST NON-EXISTENT INTELLIGENCE CAPABILITY, SELF-CONSTRAINTS IMPOSED BY THE NEED TO SAFEGUARD THE LIVES OF MINISTRIAL HOSTAGES HELD BY THE BPR.

20.A. TWO ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS WHICH HAVE DEDEVILED THE JUNTA'S EFFORTS TO BUILD POLITICAL SUPPORT AND ISOLATE THE EXTREME LEFT BY TAKING AWAY ITS POLITICAL BANNERS ARE (A) THE NEARLY INSOLVABLE PROBLEM OF DISAPPEARED PERSONS/POLITICAL PRISONERS AND (B) THE DEMOGOGICAND IMPOSSIBLE ECONOMIC DEMANDS OF THE FAR LEFT. REGARDING THE FIRST ISSUE, THE JUNTA HAS FINALLY ADMITTED IT CAN FIND NO PRISONERS BUT APPOINTED A COMMISSSION RESPONSIBLE FOR AN INVESTIGATION AND REPORT IN 60 DAYS. THE BASIC ISSUE SEEMS CLEAR. MOST, IF NOTALL, THE PRISONERS/ DISAPPEARED PERSONS ARE PROBABLY DEAD BUT THERE IS A QUESTION OF HOW FAR THE JUNTA CAN GO TOWARD FULLY REVEALING AND PUNISHING THOSE RESPONSIBLE WITHOUT THREATENINGLTHE FRAGILE UNITY OF THE ARMED FORCES

IN THIS CRITICAL PERIOD. WHATEVER THE JUNTA DOES IN THIS AREA WILL NOT

SATISFY THE
FAR LEFT WHICH NEEDS THIS EMOTIONAL POLITICAL ISSUE. NEVERTHELESS, IT MAY HAVE TO GO MUCH FATHER THAN IT ORIGINALLY HOPED AND CONTINUES TO PLAN IN ORDER TO MAKE CREDIBLE ITS COMMITMENT TO FUTURE HUMAN RIGHTS REFORM AND SATISFY MODERATE POLITICAL GROUPS, THE CHURCH, AND PUBLIC OPINION IN GENERAL THAT THERE WILL BE CHANGE AND

THAT PAST RESPONSIBILITY WILL NOT BE IGNORED.

21. ON THE ECONOMIC DEMANDS OF THE LEFT, THE JUNTA MUST BEGIN TO ADOPT AN EMERGENCY ECONOMIC PROGRAM WHICH WILL UNDERCUT, IF NOT SATIFY, POPULAR ASPIRATIONS. THIS IS NOT AN EASY STEP AFTER THREE TURBULENT WEEKS WHEN KEY ECONOMIC MINISTERS ARE BEING HELD AND THE COUNTRY IS UNDER LEFTIST ASSAULT, BUT

PLANNING IS UNDERWAY AND THE JUNTA HAS PROVIDED THE BROAD OUTLINES OF AN EMERGENCY ECONOMIC PROGRAM WITH MORE SPECIFIC MEASURES TO BE ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK.

BUT FIRM RESTRAINT COUPLED WITH A COHERENT POLITICAL STRATEGY TO DISCREDIT THE EXTREME LEFT. BOTH ARE RECOGNIZED BY THE JRG AND IN THE PROCESS OF INITIAL ELABORATION BUT FACE

TREMENDOUS OBSTACLES, PARTICULARLY IN THE SECURITY AREA WHERE TRADITIONAL RESPONSES AND POOR CAPABILITY CANNOT BE CHANGED OVERNGITH. THE CHURCH AND MODERATE POLITICAL SECTORS ARE PRIVATELY MORE UNDERSTANDING AND TOLERANT TO THE JRG PROBLEMS IN THIS AREA THAN THEIR PUBLIC STATEMENTS AIMED AT MAINTAINING POPULAR CREDIBILITY MIGHT SUGGEST.

23. IN THE MEDIUM AND LONGER TERM, THE JRG NEEDS TO REGAIN THE POLITICAL INITIATIVE, FURTHER ELABORATE ITS POSITION ON HOLDING DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS AND DEFIPE ITS ROLE AS A TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT PLEDGED TO REFORM OR AT LEAST TO LAY THE GROUND WORK FOR OVERDUE POLITICALAND SOCIO-ECONOMIC REFORMS. AT THIS EARLY POINT, IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO ASSESS THE JRG ABILITY TO REACH THESE OBJECTIVES. WE DO KNOW THAT JUNTA MEMBERS RECOGNIZE AND ARE ACTIVELY WEIGHTING THESE ISSUES. THE DIVERSITY OF POLITICAL INTERESTS INVOLVED AND REFLECTED N THE JUNTA TENDSTO FORCE A SLOWER DECISION-MAKING PROCESS BASED ON CONSULTATION, BUT IF AGREEMENT CAN BE REACHED BY THIS ROUTE, THE RESULTS MAY BE MORE

24. FINALLY, THE ECONOMIC QUESTIONS AND ASSESSMENT REQUESTED (REFTEL) ARE COVERED IN A SEPARATE MESSAGE ALONG WITH SOME POLICY QUESTIONS WHICH THEY RAISE FOR USG RESPONSE.

25. HOW CAN THE USG BEST HELP THE JRG? -- AT THIS DELICATE STAGE IN THE JUNTA'S LIFE, THE USG'S ROLE IS VERY IMPORTANT BUT REQUIRES POLITICAL UNDERSTANDING AND SENSITIVITY TO LOCAL REALITIES. AMBASSADOR DEVINE CAN BEST ADDRESS THE COMPLEX QUESTIONS ATTACHED TO THE USG'S POSTURE AND POLICY TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT DURING CONSULTATION IN WASHINGTON. NEVERTHELESS, SEVERAL GENERAL OBSERVATIONS SEEM WORTH MENTIONING OR REITERATING AT THIS TIME:

A. US SECURITY AND ECONOIC ASSISTANCE MAY WEL PROVE ESSENTIAL TO THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL BUT THE TIMING, AMOUNT AND ABSORPTIVE CAPACITY MUST DEPEND IN LARGE MEASURE ON THE JUNTA'S POLITICAL JUDGMENT OF WHAT IS REQUIRED AND APPROPRIATE.

B. A CLOSE CONTINUOUS BUT DISCREET POLITICAL AND ECNOMIC DIALOGUE WITH THE JUNTA AND OTHER KEY OFFICIALS OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT, IS NECESSARY BUT REQUIRES CAREFUL DEVELOPMENT SO AS TO AVOID THE INTERNAL POLITICAL STIGMA OF EXCESSIVE PUBLIC ASSOCIATION.

C. IN ADDITION TO USG ASSISTANCE, IT WOULD SEEM DESIRABLE FOR US TO TAKE THE LEAD PRIVATELY ENCOURAGING OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES FAVORABLY DISPOSED TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT TO OFFE APPROPRIATE POLITICAL AND MATERIAL SUPPORT. BILATERAL US ASSISTANCE MIGHT BE MORE POLITICALLY ACCEPTABLE TO THE JUNTA EITHER IN THE CONTEXT OF A MULTILATERAL EFFORT OR IF COMPLEMENTED

BY BILATERAL ASSISTANCE FROM A VARIETY OF LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES.

D. WE MUST ENCOURAGETHE JUNTA IN THEIR OWN EFFORTS TO DEVISE A SHORT AND MEDIUM-TERM POLITICAL STRATEGY WHICH CAN BE PUBLICLY ARTICULATED IN A WAY THAT ISOLATES THE FAR LEFT. IN ADDITION TO REGULAR CONSULTATION WITH THE GOVERNMENT, WE MUST CONTINUE TO URGE DIALOGUE AND CONSULTATION AMONG ALL MODERATE SECTORS WHOSE SUPPORT IS NEEDED FOR THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL. WE MUST COOPERATE WHEREVER POSSIBLE IN ASSITING THE JUNTA TO COPE WITH CHALLENGES ON THE EXTREME LEFT OR RIGHT. THIS IMPLIES SOME SHARING OF APPROPRIATE INTELLIGENCE AND OTHER INFORMATION.

26. STRENGTHENING CONTACTS WITH THE JRG AND OTHER SECTORS -- AS THE DEPARTMENT IS AWARE, BOTH FROM STATE CABLES, [redacted], THE MISSION HAS HAD SUBSTANTIAL CONTACT BOTH FORMALLY AND INFORMALLY WITH MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA DURING ITS SHORT TENURE IN POWER. MORE CONTACT IS OF COURSE DESIRABLE AND WILL BE ACTIVELY PURSUED IN THE DAYS AND WEEKS AHEAD, BUT THE NATURE AND FREQUENCY OF SUCH CONTACTS MUST BE CONSIDERED IN THE LIGHT OF POLICY, POLITICAL, AND PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS ENGENDERED BY CERTAIN INTERNAL REALITIES IN EL SALVADOR. IN THE FIRST PLACE, CONSTRUCTIVE PUBLIC AND, TO A LESSER EXTENT, PRIVATE CONTACT WITH THE JUNTA DURING THE FIRST TWO WEEKS WAS LIMITED BY THE INCIPENT JRG'S OWN ABSORPTION AND PREOCCUPATION WITH THE DIFFICULT CONSULTATIVE PROCESS OF (A) FORMING AN ENTIRELY NEW GOVERNMENT, (B) DEFINING INTERNAL LINES OF AUTHORITY, (C) DEFINING THE BROAD OUTLINE OF A POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC POLICY, AND (D) REACTING TO THE ALMOST IMMEDIATE ONSLAUGHT FROM THE FAR LEFT. CONTACTS WERE ESTABLISHED THROUGH A VARIETY OF CHANNELS, BUT TO HAVE BURDENED THE HARD-PRESSED JUNTA MEMBERS WITH REQUESTS FOR FURTHER MEETINGS WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN PRODUCTIVE. EQUALLY IMPORTANT -- AT LEAST AT THIS STAGE -- WAS THE NEED TO AVOID EXCESSIVE US PUBLIC IDENTIFICATION WITH A NEW GOVERNMENT. MODERATE BUT STILL POLITICALLY SHAKY IT IS SEEKING TO ESTABLISH A BROAD POLITIAL LBASE BY REACHING OUT TO AN IDEOLOGICALLY DIVERSE POLITICAL

CONSTITUENCY, PART OF WHICH WOULD RESIST OR EVEN OPPOSE A CLOSE, OVERT YELATIONSHIP WITH THE US.

27. IN THIS CONTEXT, PUBLIC OFFERS OF US ASSISTANCE, PARTICULARLY IN THE AREA OF RIOT CONTROL, WHILE PRIVATELY HEARTENING TO MOST MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA, ARE ALSO A POTENTIAL SOURCE OF EMBARRASSMENT IN THEIR EFFORTS TO BUILD PLURALISTIC POLITICAL SUPPORT. TO GIVE ONLY ONE EXAMPLE, THE CHURCH FELT COMPELLED TO PUBLICLY

DECLASSIFIED IN PART

NOTE AND OPPOSE REFERENCES TO POSSIBILITY OF US MILITARY ASSISTANCE WHILE RADICAL GROUPS ON THE NON-EXTREMIST LEFT, WHICH THE JUNTA SEEKS TO ATTRACT, WILL BE WARY AND PUBLICLY CRITICAL OF ANY CLOSE JUNTA ASSOCITION WITH THE US. IN REALITY USG SUPPORT -- POLITICAL AS WELL AS MATERIAL -- IS LIKELY TO PROVE ESSENTIAL TO THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL BUT IT MUST BE PROFERRED WITH CARE AND SOPHISTICATION, TAKING INTO ACCOUNT INTERNAL POLITICAL REALITIES AND SENSITIVITIES.

28. FINALLY, THE MISSION HAS DEVELOPED AND WILL CONTINUE TO CULTIVATE A WIDE RANGE OF POLITICAL GROUPS AND SECTORS WHOSE SUPPORT CONTRIBUTES TO STABILITY AND WHICH CAN INFLUENCE THE JUNTA IN POSITIVE DIRECTIONS THAT WILL STRENGTHEN ITS PROSPECTS FOR SURVIVAL. INFORMALLY AND PRIVATELYQ WE HAVE LONG MOVED ACTIVELY ALONG THESE LINES. NEVERTHELESS, IT IS CLEAR FROM THEIR PERSPECTIVE AT LEAST THAT OUR ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE SHOULD BE CATALYTIC AND SUPPORTIVE OF THE JUNTA MEMBERS WHO, KNOWING BEST THEIR OWN POLITICAL REALITY, CAN MOST EFFECTIVELY DEVISE A STRATEGY APPROPRIATE TO THE COMPLEX SITUATION HERE.

2. INTRODUCTION -- AFTER THREE WEEKS IN POWER, THE REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERNMENT (JRG) HAS ONLY NOW BEGUN TO GET ITS ACT TOGETHER AND DEFINE A POLICY AND PROGRAM WHICH HOPEFULLY WILL ENABLE IT TO WITHSTAND THE AGGRESSIVE ATTACKS MOUNTED BY THE EXTREME LEFT AND THE LESS APPARENT BUT ALWAYS LATENT THREAT OF A RIGHTIST [redacted]

COUNTERCOUP. EMBASSY HAS, OF COURSE, ALREADY REPORTED EXTENSIVELY ON COUP AND MANY OF THE QUESTIONS RAISED REFTEL, BUT THIS REPORT IS DESIGNED TO SUMMARIZE AND FURTHER ANALYZE FLUID POLITICAL SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR.

3. AS REFTEL INDICATES, THE INITIAL DAYS OF THE JUNTA WERE MARKED BY CONSIDERABLE DEGREE OF CONFUSION AND LACK OF DEFINITION ARISING FROM THE PURELY MILITARY CHARACTER OF THE COUP, THE NEED TO SEEK MAXIMUM POLITICAL REPRESENTATION FROM A BROAD RANGE OF

POLITICAL SECTORS, THE HETEROGENEOUS AND COLLEGIATE CHARACTER OF A FIVE-MAN GOVERNMENT SPLIT BETWEEN MILITARY INSTIGATORS OF THE COUP AND CIVILIANS HASTILY RECRUITED TO REPRESENT DIFFERENT SECTORS AND THE LABORIOUS AND POLIICCALLY COMPLICTED PROCESS OF CONSULTATION REQUIRED TO FORM A NEW CABINET. LACKING BOTH POLITICAL COHERENCE, EXPERIENCE AND CLEAR LINES OF LEADERSHIP, FACED WITH AN IMMEDIATE AND VIOLENT CHALLENGE BY THE EXTREME LEFT AND CONFLICTING POLITICAL INTERESTS AND PRESSURES, IT IS NOT SURPRISING THAT THE JUNTA SEEMED TO BE DRIFTING AND ON THE DEFENSIVE DURING THE FIRST TWO WEEKS.

4. NOW THAT THE JRG HAS BEEN FORMED AND THE ARDUOUS PROCESS OF CABINET SELECTION COMPLETED, THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEGUN TO ARTICULATE PUBLICLY THE BROAD OUTLINE OF ITS POLICY AND PROGRAMS. THE FIRST COHERENT PUBLIC PRESENTATION IN THIS RESPECT WAS THE JRG HOUR-LONG TV APPEARANCE ON NOV 1 (SEE SAN SALVADOR 6353) WHICH REPRESENTED AN OVERDUE BUT ESSENTIAL FIRST STEP TO HOLD AND EXPAND THE PUBLIC SUPPORT ENGENDERED BY THE COUP. WHILE EARLY AND EFFECTIVE FOLLOW-UP WILL BE REQUIRED TO BUILD AND SUSTAIN MOMENTUM, THE JRG HAS AT LEAST BEGUN TO FUNCTION AS A GOVERNMENT AND TO DEFINE ITS POLICY AND PROGRAM.

5. THE REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERNMENT (JRG) -- MUCH HAS BEEN SAID ABOUT THE WEAKNESSES OF THE JUNTA, PARTICULARLY ITS HET-

EROGENEOUS AND CUMBERSOME COMPOSITION OF TWO MILITARY AND THREE CIVILIAN MEMBERS, SLOWNESS IN GETTING ORGANIZED, AND ITS PERCEIVED INACTION. WHILE THERE ARE GROUNDS FOR CRITICISM, PARTICULARLY IN THE AREA OF THE JUNTA'S STRUCTURAL COMPLEXITY, MUCH OF THIS IS THE UNAVOIDABLE PRODUCT OF THE JUNTA'S ORIGINS, THE NEED FOR MAXIMUM POLITICAL REPRESENTATION AND THE AMOUNG OF TIME REQUIRED FOR AN AD HOC SELECTION OF FIVE MEN TO STRUCTURE AN ENTIRELY NEW GOVERNMENT WHILE SIMULTANEOUSLY COPING WITH AN AGGRESSIVE AND UNRELENTING ATTACK FROM THE LEFT.

6. JUNTA HETEROGENEOUS COMPOSITION IS BOTH A LIABILITY AND AN ASSET BUT THUS FAR THE FIVE MEMBERS REPRESENTING DIFFERENT GROUPS AND INTERESTS SEEM TO BE WORKING TOGETHER IN REMARKABLE HARMONY. THE TWO MILITARY LEADERS -- GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO -- ARE NEW FIGURES, UNACCUSTOMED TO THE POLITICAL WARS IN EL SALVADOR BUT THEY SEEM SINCERELY INTERESTED IN RESTORING THE WELFARE OF BOTH THE ARMED FORCES AND THE COUNTRY, ARE HIGHLY RECEPTIVE TO ADVICE AND DESPITE THEIR CONTROL OF THE IMMEDIATE LEVERS OF POWER, SEEM TO WORK WELL WITH CIVILIAN MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA. GUILLERMO UNGO, WHO REPRESENTS THE 14 GROUPS OF THE POPULAR FORUM, IS GHE MOST POLITICALLY EXPERIENCED MEMBER OF THE JUNTA. BASICALLY A MODERATE AND A GOOD PERSONAL FRIEND OF JUNTA MEMBER ROMAN MAYORGA. HE MUST TRY TO ACCOMMODATE THE BROAD AND IDEOLOGICALLY DIVERSE POLITICAL INTERESTS IN THE POPULAR FORUM WITH JUNTA POLICY SO AS TO KEEP THE BROADEST POSSIBLE POPULAR SUPPORT FOR THE JRG. SO FAR HE HAS MANEUVERED THROUGH

THIS DIFFICULT MINE FIELD RATHER WELL, ALTHOUGH THE DIVERSE INTEREST GROUPS IN THE POPULAR FORUM WILL PROVE VERY DIFFICULT TO RECONCILE IN THE LONG TERM. ROMAN MAYORGA REPRESENTS THE THINKING OF THE ACADEMIC, TECHNOCRATIC AND PROGRESSIVE CATHOLIC INTERESTS IN EL SALVADOR. INEXPERIENCED POLITICALLY, BUT A MAN OF GREAT INTEGRITY AND DEDICATION, HE IS AN IMPORTANT INDIRECT LINK TO AND REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ROMERO WING OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND SOCIALLY CONCERNED PROFESSIONALS. CRITICISM OF HIS ACADEMIC BENT AND THUS FAR ALLEGEDLY INDECISIVE

APPROACH TO CONCRETE ISSUES MAY OR MAY NOT BE JUSTIFIED BUT HE HAS THE INTELLECTUAL CAPACITY TO GROW AND MATURE IN THE JOB. MARIO ANTONIO ANDINO APPEARS TO BE AN EXCELLENT CHOICE TO BRING PRACTICAL EXPERIENCEAND BALANCE TO THE JUNTA WHILE EFFECTIVELY REPRESENTING THE MORE PROGRESSIVE OR CHANGE-ORIENTED MEMBERS OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR. A QUIET MAN, HE HAS REPORTEDLY SHOWN HIMSELF TO BE DECISIVE, ARTICULATE AND AN EFFECTIVE FOIL TO THE MORE THEORETICAL ORIENTATION OF SOME JUNTA MEMBERS.

7. IN SUM, THE JUNTA, WHILE CUMBERSOME, IS A DIVERSE BUT SEEMINGLY BALANCED COLLECTION OF INDIVIDUALS WHO SO FAR ARE WORKING MORE EFFECTIVELY TOGETHER THAN SOME HAVE ANTICIPATED. LAST WEEK THEY REPORTEDLY DIVIDED UP THEIR RESPECTIVE AREAS OF CABINET RESPONSIBILITY AND BEGAN TO FURTHER DEFINE A PROGRAM.

8. RELATIONS BETWEEN JRG AND VARIOUS SECTORS OF SOCIETY -- LIKE EVERYTHING IN THE POST-COUP CONFUSION, THE JRG RELATIONSHIP TO PRINCIPAL SECTORS OF THE SOCIETY IS STILL IN FLUX AND EVOLUTION BUT CERTAIN TENTATIVE COMMENTS CAN BE MADE.

9. MILITARY -- THE JUNIOR OFFICER CORPS (LIEUTENANTS THROUGH MAJORS), WHO ORGANIZED THE 15 OCTOBER 1979 COUP, NAMED COLONELS GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO AS THEIR REPRESENTATIVES ON THE GOVERNING JUNTA. THE COUP OBJECTIVES OF THE JUNIOR OFFICERS WERE: (1) TO PUT THE GOVERNMENT BACK ON STEADY FOOTING AND GET IT HEADED TOWARD DEMOCRATIC PROCESS, WITH ULTIMATE OGJECTIVE OF TURNING OVER EXECUTIVE POWER TO AN ELECTED CIVILIAN PRESIDENT, (2) TO ELIMINATE CORRUPTION IN THE ARMED/SECURITY FORCES AND (3) TO AVOID THE FATE OF THE NATIONAL GUARD IN NICARAGUA. THESE SAME YOUNG OFFICERS HAVE FORMED A "COMMITTEE" (ONE OFFICER FROM EACH MAJOR CUARTEL - APPROXIMATELY TWENTY IN TOTAL)

THE ENTIRE JUNTA OR ANY MEMBER WHO IS EITHER INEFFECTIVE OR STRAYS FROM THE ESTABLISHED SHORT-TERM GOALS. THE COMMITTEE REPORTEDLY DOES NOT INVOLVE ITSELF IN DAY-TO-DAY ACTIVITIES OF THE JUNTA BUT RATHER IN A BROADER SENSE HOLDS A DEGREE OF POWER OVER THE DIRECTION OF THE JRG.

10. IN A ROUGH DIVISION OF LABOR WITHIN THE JUNTA, COL. MAJANO HAS EMERGED AS SOMEWHAT OF THE SPOKESMAN OR PUBLIC RELATIONS FIGURE FOR THE GROUP, AND -- PROBABLY MORE IMPORTANTLY -- THE LIAISON WITH THE YOUNGER MILITARY AND THE GARRISONS. COL. GUTIERREZ, PRESUMABLY THE STRONGEST FIGURE IN THE JUNTA, HAS TAKEN ON HIMSELF LIAISON WITHIN THE JUNTA, THE QUESTION OF APPOINTMENTS, AND PROBABLY THE MOST SENSITIVE ISSUE FACING THE JRG, THAT OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS. WITHIN THE JUNTA, MILITARY-CIVILIAN RELATIONSHIPS THUS FAR APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN HARMONIOUS, WITH NEITHER GROUP ATTEMPTING TO GAIN ASCENDANCY AT THE EXPENSE OF THE OTHER.

11. THE GREATEST DANGER TO THE MILITARY IS THE LOSS OF DISCIPLINE THROUGH THE RUPTURE IN A FUNCTIONING CHAIN OF COMMAND BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE DISCARDING OF SOME FIFTY SENIOR OFFICERS AND MASSIVE PERSONNEL SHIFTS. A MAJOR CONCERN OF SENIOR MILITARY OFFICERS IS THE REESTABLISHMENT OF THAT CHAIN OF COMMAND TO CONTROL THE JUNIOR OFFICERS. THE YOUNGER OFFICERS APPEAR CAPABLE OF MANAGING THE MILITARY UNITS, BUT HAVE EXPERIENCED SOME DIFFICULTY IN CONTROLLING THE SECURITY FORCES WHO ENVISION THEMSELVES AS THE PAWNS IN THE POLITICAL PRISONER/DISAPPEARED PERSONS GAMBIT.

GOOD BUT DELICATE ON BOTH SIDES. MAYORGA IS CONSIDERED (WITH MUCH JUSTIFICATION) TO REPRESENT CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY AND JESUIT INTERESTS CLOSELY TIED TO ARCHBISHOP ROMERO. THE ARCHBISHOP, HOWEVER, WHILE CLEARLY SUPPORTING THE JUNTA, WISHES TO AVOID CHARGES OF OVERT POLITICAL ACTIVISM/INDENTIFICATION AND TO MAINTAIN HIS POPULAR PRESTIGE AND CREDIBILITY SO AS TO DRAW SUPPORT FROM THE EXTREME LEFT. HENCE, HE MUST ADOPT A HELPFUL BUT NOT UNCRITICAL PUBLIC POSTURE TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT WHICH PRESERVES HIS POPULAR INFLUENCE. TO DATE HIS PUBLIC STATEMENTS HAVE BEEN GENERALLY HELPFUL TO THE JUNTA. IF AND WHEN THE SECURITY FORCES USE EXCESSIVE FORCE AGAINST EVEN THE FAR LEFT, HOWEVER, ROMERO FEELSCOMPELLED BOTH MORALLY ANDPRACTICALLY TO TAKE A CRITICAL STANCE. SIMILARLY, HE MUST AND DOES PRESS THE JRG PUBLICLY ON HIGHLY EMOTIONAL ISSUE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS WHILE PRIVATELY RECOGNIZING THAT NEW MILITARY LEADERS WHO ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR PAST SINS HAVE A NEARLY IMPOSSIBLE JOB OF INVESTIGATING AND PUNISHING THE GUILTY WITHOUT RIPPING APART THE FABRIC OF MILITARY UNITY. AS LONG AS THE JRG AND

THE MILITARY SINCERELY TRY TO DEVELOP A NEW APPROACH TO HUMAN RIGHTS, THE ROMERO WING OF THE CHURCH WILL PROVIDE IMPORTANT, IF NOT UNCRITICAL, SUPPORT AND ALL THE INTELLECTUAL RESOURCES OF THE IMPORTANT CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY-JESUIT COMMUNITY WILL BE AVAILABLE TO THE JUNTA.

GOVERNMENT. INDEED, PDC'S CURRENT FRUSTRATION THAT IT DOES NOT HAVE GREATER DIRECT ROLE IN FORMULATING JUNTA'S POLITICAL STRATEGY DERIVES FROM ITS IMPOSSIBLE DESIRE TO HAVE IT BOTH WAYS, I.E., THE ELCTORAL BENEFITS OF INDEPENDENCE VERSUS THE MORE IMMEDIATE POLITICAL BENEFIS OF SHAPING JRG POLICY IN A WAY MOST CALCULATED TO ENSURE ITS SURVIVAL. IN ESSENCE, HOWEVER, THE PDC HAS AND CAN BE EXPECTED TO CONTINUE SUPPORTING THE JUNTA WHILE SEEKING EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO DERIVE MAXIMUM POLITICAL BENEFIT FROM ITS STILL AMBIVALENT POSITION. SINCE PDC DOES LOOM AT LEAST INITIALLY AS STRONGEST SINGLE POLITICAL PARTY, ITS POSITION AND RELATIONSHIP TO THE JRG WILL REMAIN IMPORTANT FACTORS IN THE POLITICAL QUESTION.

14. PRIVATE SECTOR RELATIONS WITH THE JRG ARE ALSO COMPLICATED, INFLUX AND COVERED IN PREVIOUS EMBASSY REPORTING. IN SUMMARY, #923;34, PROGRESSIVE BUSINESSMEN AND GROUPS -- WHO ARE AN INCREASINGLY IMPORTANT FORCE -- SUPPORT THE JRG AND JUNTA LEADER MARIO ANDINO. WITHIN THE LAST FEW DAYS, FOR EXAMPLE, THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY APPOINTED A MIXED COMMISSION TO WORK WITH AND SUPPORT ANDINO. CONSERVATIVE BUSINESS INTERESTS -- TRADITIONALLY VOCAL THROUGH THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PRIVATE ENTERPRISE (ANEP) -- HAVE TAKEN A WAIT-AND-SEE ATTITUDE AND ARE LESS HOSTILE TO THE JUNTA THAN MIGHT HAVE BEEN ANTICIPATED. THEY ARE, HOWEVER, NERVOUS ABOUT THE PROMISE OF JRG REFORMS AD WILL SEEK TO BLUNT OR MODERATE ANY FAR-REACHING JUNTA PROGRAMS WHILE RELUCTANTLY ACCOMMODATING OTHERS. THE MOST CONSERVATIVE AND POLITICALLY ACTIVE ELEMENTS OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR, WHO WERE THE POWER BEHIND THE RECENTLY DEPOSED LEADERSHIP OF ANEP, ARE AT LEAST TEMPORARILY DISCREDITED, INTERESTED IN PLOTTING BUT SEEMINGLY FRUSTRATED, AND TENDING TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY TO AVOID REPRISALS. IN THIS CONTEXT PUBLIC DISCUSSIONS OF COUP PLOTTING, THE KIDNAPPING OF JAIME HILL (COUSIN OF REACTIONARY AGRICULTURALIST, BANKER ROBERTO HILL AND A CLOSE FRIEND OF EX-PRESIDENT ROMERO), THE REMOVAL OF QUESTIONABLE MILITARY OFFICERS FROM ACTIVE DUTY AND THE DEPARTURE OF FORMER ANPE LEADERS

RELATIONS BETWEEN THE PRIVATE SECTOR AND THE JRG WILL BE SHAPED BY (A) THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF THE JRG'S REFORM PROGRAM AND (B) THE SHIFTING AND STILL UNCLEAR BALANCE BETWEEN SO-CALLED PROGRESSIVE/ MODERATES IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR AND THE MORE TRADITIONAL CONSERVATIEVE OR REACTIONARY GROUPS.

15. LABOR -- REACTION OF EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION, DEMOCRATICALLY-ORIENTED FEDERAL OF UNIONS OF CONSTRU TION AND TRANSPORTATION WORKERS (FESINCONSTRAINS), AND OF EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST RURAL CO-OPERATIVE ORGANIZATION, THE UNION COMUNAL SALVADORENA (UCS), TO THE JRG HAS GENERALLY BEEN FAVORABLE, WITH BOTH CITING THE JRG'S WILLINGNESS TO CONSULT THEM ON IMPORTANT CABINET APPOINTMENTS AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS (SAN SALVADOR 5983, 6087, 6143, 5992, 6191). REACTION FROM CONSERVATIVE SECTOR OF LABOR MOVEMENT -- AS REPRESENTED BY DEMOCRATICALLY-ORIENTED GENERAL CONFEDERATION OF SALVADORAN UNIONS-CGS (EL SALVADOR'S THIRD-LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION) -- HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLY LESS ENTHUSIASTIC, PROBABLY DUE TO CGS'S CLOSE IDENTIFICATION WITH PREVIOUS ROMERO GOVERNMENT. EL SALVADOR'S SECOND-LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION, THE PREDOMINANTLY COMMUNIST UNITED CONFEDERATION OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (CUTS) IS A MEMBER OF POPULAR FORUM AND AS SUCH HAS GIVEN SUPPORT TO JRG. HOWEVER, ITS LARGEST COMPONENT, THE NATIONAL LABOR FEDERATION OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (FENASTRANS) -- WHICH HAS TIES TO LEFTIST UNIONED POPULAR ACTION FRONT (FAPU) -- RECNTLY ANNOUNCED ITS WITHDRAWAAL FROM THE POPULAR FORUM, DENOUNCING WHAT IT SAID WERE SOME OF JRG'S "REPRESSIVE" ACTIONS. ON THE EXTREME LEFT OF LABOR SPECTRUM, EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST TEACHERS ORGANIZATION, A"ANDES 21 DE JUNIO" AND THE JOSE GUILLERMO RIVAS UNION COORDINATING COMMITTEE- CS (LARGELY RESPONSIBLE FOR PRE-COUP PERIOD WAVE OF PLANT TAKEOVERS) HAVE BOTH COME OUT AGAINST JRG. HOWEVER, ANDES IS ACTIVELY INVOLVED IN NEGOTIATING WITH THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION. BOTH [redacted]

ANDES AND CCS ARE CONTROLLED BY LEFTIST POPULAR REVOLUTIONARY BLOC (BPR). IN SUM, JRG IS DRAWING SUPPORT FROM MODERATE AND CENTRIST SECOTRS OF ORGANIZED LABOR WHILE LABOR GROUPS ASSOCIATED WITH EXTREME LEFTIST SPECTRUM OF SALVADORAN LABOR MOVEMENT GAVE GONE INTO OPEN OPPOSITION.

WITH UNFETTERED FREE ENTERPRISE AND EXCESSIVE CONCERN ABOUT US HUMAN RIGHTS' POLICY) WAS CAUGHT OFF-GUARD BY THE COUP. IT IS NOW FOLLOWING CAREFUL AND OSTENSIBLY NEUTRAL POLITICAL LINE TOWARD JRG WITH CONTINUING ATTACKS OB LEFT. ESTABLISHED PRESS INTERESTS WILL TRY AND SURVIVE BY ADOPTING TO THE CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT. WITHOUT OVERTLY ATTACKING JUNTA, AS LONG AS ITS POWER IS INTACT, CONSERVATIVE MEDIA WILL PROBABLY INVOKE FREEDOM OF PRESS TO SLOW OR BLOCK ANY JRG REFORM EFFORTS AIMED AT REAL STRUCTURAL CHANGE. THE CATHOLIC NEWSPAPER "ORIENTATION" WILL FOLLOW THE LINE OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO AND OPENLY CRITICAL AND AND OPINIONATED LEFTIST DAILY "LA CRONICA" WILL CONTINUE TO WEAVE BETWEEN THE RADICAL AND ORTHODOX LEFT, CRITICIZING ANY JUNTA ACTIONS DEEMED
REPRESSIVE OR DIRECTED AGAINST PUBLIC. RADIO WILL REMAIN A VERY INFLUENTIAL MEDIA WHICH IS FAR MORE OPEN THAN PRESS OR TV TOWARDS POLITICAL PLURALISM. EVENTUALLY, MORE PROGRESSIVE AND MODERATE MEDIA INTERESTS MAY EMERGE IN SUPPORT OF THE JUNTA BUT THE PREPONDERANT QUALITY AND ORIENTATION OF THE MEDIA IS AT PRESENT LOW AND GENERALLY CONSERVATIVE. EVEN BEFORE THE COUP, HOWEVER, THE MEDIA WAS SHOWING SIGNS OF OPENING UP TO THE OPPOSITION, AND THAT TREND HAS SINCE ACCTOTY PG.

18. FOLLOWING THE COUP THE MOST IMMEDIATE THREAT FROM THE RIGHT APPEARS TO STEM FROM A POTENTIAL COMBINATION OF TWO GROUPS: A REACTIONARY ELEMENT IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR WHICH WAS ENGAGED INRIGHTIST TERRORISM UNDER ROMERO AND DISGRUNTLED SEGMENTS OF THE ARMED FORCES WHO WERE DISPLACED BY THE COU BUT DO NOT SUPPORT THE NEW MILITARY LEADERSHIP OR THE OBJECTIVES AND ORIENTATION OF THE JRG. DESPITE STRONG INITIAL CONCERN

THAT THESE TWO GROUPS MIGHT UNITE IN A COUNTERCOUP, THE IMMEDIATE THREAT MAY BE RECEDING SOMEWHAT AS PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF A WOULD-BE COUNTERCOUP SURFACES. EXTREMISTS OF THE RIGHT EXIT THE COUNTRY, THE NEW MILITARY LEADERSHIP ACTS TO EXERCISE CONTROL OVER WOULD-BE COUP PLOTTERS AMONG DISPLACED OR INITIALLY DISAFFECTED MILITARY OFFICERS. THE JUNTA MOVEMENT TO DEFINE A POLITICAL STRATEGY FOR SEEKING BROADER SUPPORT AND ITS DESIRE TO DEV-ELOP BETTER ORGANIZATION AND TACTICS FOR COPING WITH THE VIOLENT

IT WILL HELP UNDERCUT THE IMMEDIATE MACHINATION OF THE FAR RIGHT. ANOTHER AND PROBABLY MORE SERIOUS THREAT FROM THIS QUARTER MAY ARISE LATER IF AND WHEN THE JUNTA DECIDES TO LAUNCH A MEANINGFUL REFORM PROGRAM WHICH WOULD SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECT THE TRADITIONALLY DOMINANT AND CONSERVATIVE INTERESTS IN EL SALVADOR.

19. THE TIMETABLE AND STRATEGY OF GROUPS ON THE EXTREME LEFT WERE ALSO JOLTED BY THE MILITARY COUP. AFTER INITIAL CONFUSION AND SOME INTERNAL DIVISIONS, HOWEVER, THEY APPEAR TO HAVE SOMEWHAT RECOVERED. WHETHER SEPARATELY OR IN CONCERT, THREE CLANDESTINE GROUPS AND THEIR POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS HE APARENTLY DECLARED WAR ON THE JUNTA AND ARE ENGAGED IN AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN OF MASS DEMONSTRATIONS, SELECTIVE TERRORISM, POLITICALLY PROVOCATIVE ACTIONS AND EVEN LOW-LEVEL GUERRILLA ATTACKS TO KEEP THE JUNTA OFF-GUARD AND ON THE DEFENSIVE. A PRIMARY OBJECTIVE AT THIS STAGE IS TO PROVOKE THE JUNTA INTO A REACTIVE AND REPRESSIVE POSTURE; ONE CALCULATED TO GENERATE MORE MARTYRS, TARNISH THE DEMOCRATIC IMAGE OTLOHE JUNTA, PROMOTE POLARIZATION AND RECAPTURE POPULAR SUPPORT WHICH MIGHT OTHERWISE FLOW TO MODERATE GROUPS LIKE THE PDC. INITIALLY, AT LEAST THIS AGGRESSIVE TACTIC HAS BEEN A PARTIAL SUCCESS. IT HAS SLOWED JU TA PLANNING (THE GPR'S OCCUPATION OF MINISTRIES AND SEUZIRE OF LEADING CABINET MEMBERS AS HOSTAGE HAS BEEN PARTICULARLY DAMAGING) AND PROVOKED OCCASIONAL OVER-REACTION BY SECURITY FORCES AND NEW MARTYRS. ON THE OTHER HAND, IT HAS CLEARLY REVEALED THE VIOLENT AND EXTREMIST GOALS AND METHODS OF THE FAR LEFT IN A WAY WHICH IF ACTIVELY AND INTELLIGENTLY COUNTERED

BY THE JUNTA AND THE ARMED FORCES COULD DISCREDIT AND UNDERMINE POPULAR SYMPATHY FOR THE EXTREMIST CAUSE.

20. IN GENERAL TERMS THE JRG HAS TRIED TO REACT IN A RESTRAINED

20.A. TWO ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS WHICH HAVE DEDEVILED THE JUNTA'S EFFORTS TO BUILD POLITICAL SUPPORT AND ISOLATE THE EXTREME LEFT BY TAKING AWAY ITS POLITICAL BANNERS ARE (A) THE NEARLY INSOLVABLE PROBLEM OF DISAPPEARED PERSONS/POLITICAL PRISONERS AND (B) THE DEMOGOGICAND IMPOSSIBLE ECONOMIC DEMANDS OF THE FAR LEFT. REGARDING THE FIRST ISSUE, THE JUNTA HAS FINALLY ADMITTED IT CAN FIND NO PRISONERS BUT APPOINTED A COMMISSSION RESPONSIBLE FOR AN INVESTIGATION AND REPORT IN 60 DAYS. THE BASIC ISSUE SEEMS CLEAR. MOST, IF NOTALL, THE PRISONERS/ DISAPPEARED PERSONS ARE PROBABLY DEAD BUT THERE IS A QUESTION OF HOW FAR THE JUNTA CAN GO TOWARD FULLY REVEALING AND PUNISHING THOSE RESPONSIBLE WITHOUT THREATENINGLTHE FRAGILE UNITY OF THE ARMED FORCES

FAR LEFT WHICH NEEDS THIS EMOTIONAL POLITICAL ISSUE. NEVERTHELESS, IT MAY HAVE TO GO MUCH FATHER THAN IT ORIGINALLY HOPED AND CONTINUES TO PLAN IN ORDER TO MAKE CREDIBLE ITS COMMITMENT TO FUTURE HUMAN RIGHTS REFORM AND SATISFY MODERATE POLITICAL GROUPS, THE CHURCH, AND PUBLIC OPINION IN GENERAL THAT THERE WILL BE CHANGE AND

THAT PAST RESPONSIBILITY WILL NOT BE IGNORED.

21. ON THE ECONOMIC DEMANDS OF THE LEFT, THE JUNTA MUST BEGIN TO ADOPT AN EMERGENCY ECONOMIC PROGRAM WHICH WILL UNDERCUT, IF NOT SATIFY, POPULAR ASPIRATIONS. THIS IS NOT AN EASY STEP AFTER THREE TURBULENT WEEKS WHEN KEY ECONOMIC MINISTERS ARE BEING HELD AND THE COUNTRY IS UNDER LEFTIST ASSAULT, BUT

PLANNING IS UNDERWAY AND THE JUNTA HAS PROVIDED THE BROAD OUTLINES OF AN EMERGENCY ECONOMIC PROGRAM WITH MORE SPECIFIC MEASURES TO BE ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK.

BUT FIRM RESTRAINT COUPLED WITH A COHERENT POLITICAL STRATEGY TO DISCREDIT THE EXTREME LEFT. BOTH ARE RECOGNIZED BY THE JRG AND IN THE PROCESS OF INITIAL ELABORATION BUT FACE

TREMENDOUS OBSTACLES, PARTICULARLY IN THE SECURITY AREA WHERE TRADITIONAL RESPONSES AND POOR CAPABILITY CANNOT BE CHANGED OVERNGITH. THE CHURCH AND MODERATE POLITICAL SECTORS ARE PRIVATELY MORE UNDERSTANDING AND TOLERANT TO THE JRG PROBLEMS IN THIS AREA THAN THEIR PUBLIC STATEMENTS AIMED AT MAINTAINING POPULAR CREDIBILITY MIGHT SUGGEST.

23. IN THE MEDIUM AND LONGER TERM, THE JRG NEEDS TO REGAIN THE POLITICAL INITIATIVE, FURTHER ELABORATE ITS POSITION ON HOLDING DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS AND DEFIPE ITS ROLE AS A TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT PLEDGED TO REFORM OR AT LEAST TO LAY THE GROUND WORK FOR OVERDUE POLITICALAND SOCIO-ECONOMIC REFORMS. AT THIS EARLY POINT, IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO ASSESS THE JRG ABILITY TO REACH THESE OBJECTIVES. WE DO KNOW THAT JUNTA MEMBERS RECOGNIZE AND ARE ACTIVELY WEIGHTING THESE ISSUES. THE DIVERSITY OF POLITICAL INTERESTS INVOLVED AND REFLECTED N THE JUNTA TENDSTO FORCE A SLOWER DECISION-MAKING PROCESS BASED ON CONSULTATION, BUT IF AGREEMENT CAN BE REACHED BY THIS ROUTE, THE RESULTS MAY BE MORE

24. FINALLY, THE ECONOMIC QUESTIONS AND ASSESSMENT REQUESTED (REFTEL) ARE COVERED IN A SEPARATE MESSAGE ALONG WITH SOME POLICY QUESTIONS WHICH THEY RAISE FOR USG RESPONSE.

25. HOW CAN THE USG BEST HELP THE JRG? -- AT THIS DELICATE STAGE IN THE JUNTA'S LIFE, THE USG'S ROLE IS VERY IMPORTANT BUT REQUIRES POLITICAL UNDERSTANDING AND SENSITIVITY TO LOCAL REALITIES. AMBASSADOR DEVINE CAN BEST ADDRESS THE COMPLEX QUESTIONS ATTACHED TO THE USG'S POSTURE AND POLICY TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT DURING CONSULTATION IN WASHINGTON. NEVERTHELESS, SEVERAL GENERAL OBSERVATIONS SEEM WORTH MENTIONING OR REITERATING AT THIS TIME:

A. US SECURITY AND ECONOIC ASSISTANCE MAY WEL PROVE ESSENTIAL TO THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL BUT THE TIMING, AMOUNT AND ABSORPTIVE CAPACITY MUST DEPEND IN LARGE MEASURE ON THE JUNTA'S POLITICAL JUDGMENT OF WHAT IS REQUIRED AND APPROPRIATE.

B. A CLOSE CONTINUOUS BUT DISCREET POLITICAL AND ECNOMIC DIALOGUE WITH THE JUNTA AND OTHER KEY OFFICIALS OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT IS NECESSARY BUT REQUIRES CAREFUL DEVELOPMENT SO AS TO AVOID THE INTERNAL POLITICAL STIGMA OF EXCESSIVE PUBLIC ASSOCIATION.

C. IN ADDITION TO USG ASSISTANCE, IT WOULD SEEM DESIRABLE FOR US TO TAKE THE LEAD PRIVATELY ENCOURAGING OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES FAVORABLY DISPOSED TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT TO OFFE APPROPRIATE POLITICAL AND MATERIAL SUPPORT. BILATERAL US ASSISTANCE MIGHT BE MORE POLITICALLY ACCEPTABLE TO THE JUNTA EITHER IN THE CONTEXT OF A MULTILATERAL EFFORT OR IF COMPLEMENTED

BY BILATERAL ASSISTANCE FROM A VARIETY OF LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES.

D. WE MUST ENCOURAGETHE JUNTA IN THEIR OWN EFFORTS TO DEVISE A SHORT AND MEDIUM-TERM POLITICAL STRATEGY WHICH CAN BE PUBLICLY ARTICULATED IN A WAY THAT ISOLATES THE FAR LEFT. IN ADDITION TO REGULAR CONSULTATION WITH THE GOVERNMENT, WE MUST CONTINUE TO URGE DIALOGUE AND CONSULTATION AMONG ALL MODERATE SECTORS WHOSE SUPPORT IS NEEDED FOR THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL. WE MUST COOPERATE WHEREVER POSSIBLE IN ASSITING THE JUNTA TO COPE WITH CHALLENGES ON THE EXTREME LEFT OR RIGHT. THIS IMPLIES SOME SHARING OF APPROPRIATE INTELLIGENCE AND OTHER INFORMATION.

26. STRENGTHENING CONTACTS WITH THE JRG AND OTHER SECTORS -- AS THE DEPARTMENT IS AWARE, BOTH FROM STATE CABLES, [redacted], THE MISSION HAS HAD SUBSTANTIAL CONTACT BOTH FORMALLY AND INFORMALLY WITH MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA DURING ITS SHORT TENURE IN POWER. MORE CONTACT IS OF COURSE DESIRABLE AND WILL BE ACTIVELY PURSUED IN THE DAYS AND WEEKS AHEAD, BUT THE NATURE AND FREQUENCY OF SUCH CONTACTS MUST BE CONSIDERED IN THE LIGHT OF POLICY, POLITICAL, AND PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS ENGENDERED BY CERTAIN INTERNAL REALITIES IN EL SALVADOR. IN THE FIRST PLACE, CONSTRUCTIVE PUBLIC AND, TO A LESSER EXTENT, PRIVATE CONTACT WITH THE JUNTA DURING THE FIRST TWO WEEKS WAS LIMITED BY THE INCIPENT JRG'S OWN ABSORPTION AND PREOCCUPATION WITH THE DIFFICULT CONSULTATIVE PROCESS OF (A) FORMING AN ENTIRELY NEW GOVERNMENT, (B) DEFINING INTERNAL LINES OF AUTHORITY, (C) DEFINING THE BROAD OUTLINE OF A POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC POLICY, AND (D) REACTING TO THE ALMOST IMMEDIATE ONSLAUGHT FROM THE FAR LEFT. CONTACTS WERE ESTABLISHED THROUGH A VARIETY OF CHANNELS, BUT TO HAVE BURDENED THE HARD-PRESSED JUNTA MEMBERS WITH REQUESTS FOR FURTHER MEETINGS WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN PRODUCTIVE. EQUALLY IMPORTANT -- AT LEAST AT THIS STAGE -- WAS THE NEED TO AVOID EXCESSIVE US PUBLIC IDENTIFICATION WITH A NEW GOVERNMENT. MODERATE BUT STILL POLITICALLY SHAKY IT IS SEEKING TO ESTABLISH A BROAD POLITIAL LBASE BY REACHING OUT TO AN IDEOLOGICALLY DIVERSE POLITICAL

27. IN THIS CONTEXT, PUBLIC OFFERS OF US ASSISTANCE, PARTICULARLY IN THE AREA OF RIOT CONTROL, WHILE PRIVATELY HEARTENING TO MOST MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA, ARE ALSO A POTENTIAL SOURCE OF EMBARRASSMENT IN THEIR EFFORTS TO BUILD PLURALISTIC POLITICAL SUPPORT. TO GIVE ONLY ONE EXAMPLE, THE CHURCH FELT COMPELLED TO PUBLICLY

NOTE AND OPPOSE REFERENCES TO POSSIBILITY OF US MILITARY ASSISTANCE WHILE RADICAL GROUPS ON THE NON-EXTREMIST LEFT, WHICH THE JUNTA SEEKS TO ATTRACT, WILL BE WARY AND PUBLICLY CRITICAL OF ANY CLOSE JUNTA ASSOCITION WITH THE US. IN REALITY USG SUPPORT -- POLITICAL AS WELL AS MATERIAL -- IS LIKELY TO PROVE ESSENTIAL TO THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL BUT IT MUST BE PROFERRED WITH CARE AND SOPHISTICATION, TAKING INTO ACCOUNT INTERNAL POLITICAL REALITIES AND SENSITIVITIES.

28. FINALLY, THE MISSION HAS DEVELOPED AND WILL CONTINUE TO CULTIVATE A WIDE RANGE OF POLITICAL GROUPS AND SECTORS WHOSE SUPPORT CONTRIBUTES TO STABILITY AND WHICH CAN INFLUENCE THE JUNTA IN POSITIVE DIRECTIONS THAT WILL STRENGTHEN ITS PROSPECTS FOR SURVIVAL. INFORMALLY AND PRIVATELYO WE HAVE LONG MOVED ACTIVELY ALONG THESE LINES. NEVERTHELESS, IT IS CLEAR FROM THEIR PERSPECTIVE AT LEAST THAT OUR ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE SHOULD BE CATALYTIC AND SUPPORTIVE OF THE JUNTA MEMBERS WHO, KNOWING BEST THEIR OWN POLITICAL REALITY, CAN MOST EFFECTIVELY DEVISE A STRATEGY APPROPRIATE TO THE COMPLEX SITUATION HERE.

INFLUENCED BY RECENT REPORTS FROM THEIR EMBASSY THAT THE JUNTA'S HOPES ARE WANING FOR ESTABLISHING EFFECTIVE CONTACT WITH, OR ISOLATING, OR EFFECTIVELY COMBATTING RIGHT WING ELEMENTS. AT THE SAME TIME, AN MNR OFFICIAL, BASSERA ESCOBAR, WHO VISITED GERMANY LAST WEEK AT THE INVITATION OF THE FRIEDRICH EBERT STIFTUNG (INSTITUTE), EXPRESSED TO THE GERMANS HIS DEEP CONCERN ABOUT THE DANGER FROM BOTH THE RIGHT AND THE LEFT. ESCOBAR FERVENTLY HOPES THE JUNTA CAN SURVIVE SO AS TO HELP MODERATE ELEMENTS GAIN SWAY AND TO OPEN THE WAY FOR A BROADENING OF DEMOCRACY. THE FOREIGN OFFICE AND THE EBERT INSTITUTE SHARE THIS HOPE.

4. STATING THAT SUPPORT OF THE CHURCH IS CRITICAL, OUR CONTACT VOICED DOUBTS WHETHER IT WILL ULTIMATELY BACK THE JUNTA. HE NOTED THE TRADITIONAL SPLIT BETWEEN LEFT AND MODERATE FACTIONS WITHIN THE CHURCH AND TOLD US HE UNDERSTANDS ARCHBISHOP ROMERO MAY BE BACKING AWAY FROM HIS INITIAL SUPPORT OF THE JUNTA.

5. OUR SOURCE ALSO NOTED THAT THE JUNTA COULD RECEIVE POTENTIALLY STRONG SUPPORT FROM CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATS. HE POINTED TO THE RETURN OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRAT LEADER DUERTE AS A GOOD SIGN IN THIS REGARD. NOTING THE ABSENCE OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC REPRESENTATION ON THE JUNTA, HOWEVER, OUR CONTACT SUGGESTED IT WOULD BE WELL ADVISED SOMEHOW TO WORK WITH DUERTE AND OTHERS IN HIS PARTY.

6. REGARDING GERMANY'S OWN POSSIBILITIES, OUR CONTACT WAS EXTREMELY CAUTIOUS. HE POINTED OUT THAT THE FRG IS CONTINUING ITS ONGOING ASSISTANCE, E.G. IRRIGATION PROJECTS, AND HE EXPRESSED A BELIEF THE FRG WOULD BE WILLING TO EXPAND AID IF THE JUNTA ASKED FOR IT, IF IT WINS MODERATE SUPPORT AND EFFECTIVE CONTROL, AND IF IT PROCEEDS TO IMPROVE EL SALVADOR'S HUMAN RIGHTS IMAGE AND TO INTRODUCE DEMOCRACY.

7. COMMENTING ON THE LAST POINTS, OUR CONTACT SAID THE JUNTA HAS UNFORTUNATELY NOT ESCAPED THE NEGATIVE IMAGE OF THE PREVIOUS GOVERNMENT IN THE EYES OF THE GERMAN PUBLIC. CONSEQUENTLY, THE FRG FEELS A NEED TO MOVE CAUTIOUSLY.

8. NEVERTHELESS, THE FRG REMAINS INTERESTED AND ANXIOUS TO HELP WHERE IT CAN. ECONOMIC COOPERATION MINISTER OFFERGELD HAD BEEN CONSIDERING AN UNOFFICIAL STOP IN EL SALVADOR IN CONNECTION WITH A TRIP IN MID-NOVEMBER TO NICARAGUA AND MEXICO. UNFORTUNATELY, HOWEVER, THE FRG EMBASSY HAS NOW RECOMMENDED AGAINST THIS ON SECURITY GROUNDS. 10. REGARDING POSSIBLE US ACTIONS, OUR CONTACT SUGGESTED THAT ANYTHING THE U.S. CAN DO TO HELP ENHANCE THE JUNTA'S PUBLIC IMAGE WOULD IMPROVE BONN'S ABILITY TO ASSUME A MORE OPEN, ACTIVE POLICY TOWARD EL SALVADOR.

11. OUR CONTACT ALSO MENTIONED THE ACTIVE ROLE THE VATICAN HAS HAD IN EL SALVADOR, IN CONNECTION WITH THE KEY POSITION OF THE LOCAL CATHOLIC CHURCH. IN THIS CONNECTION HE REITERATED THE IMPORTANCE OF THE SALVADOREAN CHURCH'S UNITING BEHIND THE JUNTA, OBSERVING HOWEVER THAT THE TRADITIONAL FACTIONALISM OF THE CHURCH'S LEFT WING MIGHT OBSTRUCT SUCH UNITY.

Dear Claus:

This note is being rushed to meet the pouch since we have the feeling there may be some perception gaps opening up with ARA on the topic of the "high road".

Your letter of November 2nd related Timerman's description of the Argentine political scene and his conclusion that the pragmatic approach to our human rights objectives is ineffective. It was suggested that the US should simply take the high road because our efforts to work with the moderate factions in military regimes have produced modest results. Without calling a meeting to canvas Embassy opinion, I believe there would be virtually unanimity that supporting the moderates in Argentina is the only realistic alternative. Who is there to support other than the moderates? The Montoneros or the military hardliners? The existing political parties are not a realistic option in the near term and do not even pretend to be. It was not clear how Timerman's option for Argentina would work. The "high road" sounds suspiciously like a euphemism for cutting off all relations with the GOA until its behavior suits us better. Timerman's position that the pragmatic approach was wrong and that we should work with Venezuela and Mexico to build up democracy strikes me as the height of inconsistency. Mexico's track record in international politics is as pragmatic as they come, and we note that the Andean group is not stampeding into the Bolivian situation on the side of the angels.

We are eager to join this issue if it is to be raised in the short term human rights strategy. We would prefer to have the issue stated somewhat differently than it is in the first full paragraph on page 3 of your letter. As stated it appears to prejudge the issue somewhat. It would also be helpful to have a specific description of what the "high road" is. We have done a number of assessments on the quantitative and qualitative improvements in the GOA's human rights record in the past year and while the progress has certainly not been fast or far enough, there can be no question that it has been substantial. The GOA's assertion that some things are very difficult for them to do was certainly born out by the Menéndez episode. It is also significant to me that only last month did the Vatican finally adopt a firm position on human rights in Argentina, and success will require further efforts with the hierarchy and the clergy here.

Finally, I was a bit puzzled by your remark that "ARA was perhaps too successful at its efforts at muting the Timerman visit," when in fact the Secretary rejected ARA's position on his visit to the President.

The announcements of assignments and promotions should start coming out about the end of next week if they are on schedule. Once these have been digested, then the Argentine military can return to giving some thought to running the country, provided it does not interfere with the vacation period.

Best regards,

Sincerely,

Maxwell Chaplin

PS: Here follows our rapid attempt to provide you with language for the HR Report on the topic of disappeared children:

There are numerous reports of minor children and adolescents who have disappeared, though it is very difficult to establish precise numbers. One category of these minors, which one source estimates at around 50, is constituted of children under the age of ten who disappeared with their parents and have not since been turned over to their relatives. Another category, estimated at between 55-60, are the children born to women who were pregnant at the time they were seized. According to testimony, these women, most of whom have not reappeared, gave birth while in detention. The children, like the minors under the age of ten, were apparently given out for adoption--indeed there is one case on the public record where two small children of a disappeared mother were found in Chile. Finally there is a more substantial group of adolescents between 11 and 20 who figure among the disappeared, totaling, by some estimates, more than 500.

2. INTRODUCTION -- AFTER THREE WEEKS IN POWER, THE REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERNMENT (JRG) HAS ONLY NOW BEGUN TO GET ITS ACT TOGETHER AND DEFINE A POLICY AND PROGRAM WHICH HOPEFULLY WILL ENABLE IT TO WITHSTAND THE AGGRESSIVE ATTACKS MOUNTED BY THE EXTREME LEFT AND THE LESS APPARENT BUT ALWAYS LATENT THREAT OF A RIGHTIST [redacted]

COUNTERCOUP. EMBASSY HAS, OF COURSE, ALREADY REPORTED EXTENSIVELY ON COUP AND MANY OF THE QUESTIONS RAISED REFTEL, BUT THIS REPORT IS DESIGNED TO SUMMARIZE AND FURTHER ANALYZE FLUID POLITICAL SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR.

UNCLASSIFIED

3. AS REFTEL INDICATES, THE INITIAL DAYS OF THE JUNTA WERE MARKED BY CONSIDERABLE DEGREE OF CONFUSION AND LACK OF DEFINITION ARISING FROM THE PURELY MILITARY CHARACTER OF THE COUP, THE NEED TO SEEK MAXIMUM POLITICAL REPRESENTATION FROM A BROAD RANGE OF

POLITICAL SECTORS. THE HETEROGENEOUS AND COLLEGIATE CHARACTER OF A FIVE-MAN GOVERNMENT SPLIT BETWEEN MILITARY INSTIGATORS OF THE COUP AND CIVILIANS HASTILY RECRUITED TO REPRESENT DIFFERENT SECTORS AND THE LABORIOUS AND POLIICCALLY COMPLICTED PROCESS OF CONSULTATION REQUIRED TO FORM A NEW CABINET. LACKING BOTH POLITICAL COHERENCE, EXPERIENCE AND CLEAR LINES OF LEADERSHIP, FACED WITH AN IMMEDIATE AND VIOLENT CHALLENGE BY THE EXTREME LEFT AND CONFLICTING POLITICAL INTERESTS AND PRESSURES, IT IS NOT SURPRISING THAT THE JUNTA SEEMED TO BE DRIFTING AND ON THE DEFENSIVE DURING THE FIRST TWO WEEKS.

4. NOW THAT THE JRG HAS BEEN FORMED AND THE ARDUOUS PROCESS OF CABINET SELECTION COMPLETED, THE GOVERNMENT HAS BEGUN TO ARTICULATE PUBLICLY THE BROAD OUTLINE OF ITS POLICY AND PROGRAMS. THE FIRST COHERENT PUBLIC PRESENTATION IN THIS RESPECT WAS THE JRG HOUR-LONG TV APPEARANCE ON NOV 1 (SEE SAN SALVADOR 6353) WHICH REPRESENTED AN OVERDUE BUT ESSENTIAL FIRST STEP TO HOLD AND EXPAND THE PUBLIC SUPPORT ENGENDERED BY THE COUP; WHILE EARLY AND EFFECTIVE FOLLOW-UP WILL BE REQUIRED TO BUILD AND SUSTAIN MOMENTUM, THE JRG HAS AT LEAST BEGUN TO FUNCTION AS A GOVERNMENT AND TO DEFINE ITS POLICY AND PROGRAM.

EROGENEOUS AND CUMBERSOME COMPOSITION OF TWO MILITARY AND THREE CIVILIAN MEMBERS, SLOWNESS IN GETTING ORGANIZED, AND ITS PERCEIVED INACTION. WHILE THERE ARE GROUNDS FOR CRITICISM, PARTICULARLY IN THE AREA OF THE JUNTA'S STRUCTURAL COMPLEXITY, MUCH OF THIS IS THE UNAVOIDABLE PRODUCT OF THE JUNTA'S ORIGINS, THE NEED FOR MAXIMUM POLITICAL REPRESENTATION AND THE AMOUNG OF TIME REQUIRED FOR AN AD HOC SELECTION OF FIVE MEN TO STRUCTURE AN ENTIRELY NEW GOVERNMENT WHILE SIMULTANEOUSLY COPING WITH AN AGGRESSIVE AND UNRELENTING ATTACK FROM THE LEFT.

6. JUNTA HETEROGENEOUS COMPOSITIDN IS BOTH A LIABILITY AND AN ASSET BUT THUS FAR THE FIVE MEMBERS REPRESENTING DIFFERENT GROUPS AND INTERESTS SEEM TO BE WORKING TOGETHER IN REMARKABLE HARMONY. THE TWO MILITARY LEADERS -- GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO -- ARE NEW FIGURES, UNACCUSTOMED TO THE POLITICAL WARS IN EL SALVADOR BUT THEY SEEM SINCERELY INTERESTED IN RESTORING THE WELFARE OF BOTH THE ARMED FORCES AND THE COUNTRY, ARE HIGHLY RECEPTIVE TO ADVICE AND DESPITE THEIR CONTROL OF THE IMMEDIATE LEVERS OF POWER, SEEM TO WORK WELL WITH CIVILIAN MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA. GUILLERMO UNGO, WHO REPRESENTS THE 14 GROUPS OF THE POPULAR FORUM, IS ONE MOST POLITICALLY EXPERIENCED MEMBER OF THE JUNTA, BASICALLY A MODERATE AND A GOOD PERSONAL FRIEND OF JUNTA MEMBER ROMAN MAYORGA. HE MUST TRY TO ACCOMMODATE THE BROAD AND IDEOLOGICALLY DIVERSE POLITICAL INTERESTS IN THE POPULAR FORUM WITH JUNTA POLICY SO AS TO KEEP THE BROADEST POSSIBLE POPULAR SUPPORT FOR THE JRG. SO FAR HE HAS MANEUVERED THROUGH

THIS DIFFICULT MINE FIELD RATHER WELL, ALTHOUGH THE DIVERSE INTEREST GROUPS IN THE POPULAR FORUM WILL PROVE VERY DIFFICULT TO RECONCILE IN THE LONG TERM. ROMAN MAYORGA REPRESENTS THE THINKING OF THE ACADEMIC, TECHNOCRATIC AND PROGRESSIVE CATHOLIC INTERESTS IN EL SALVADOR. INEXPERIENCED POLITICALLY, BUT A MAN OF GREAT INTEGRITY AND DEDICATION, HE IS AN IMPORTANT INDIRECT LINK TO AND REPRESENTATIVE OF THE ROMERO WING OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH AND SOCIALLY CONCERNED PROFESSIONALS. CRITICISM OF HIS ACADEMIC BENT AND THUS FAR ALLEGEDLY INDECISIVE

APPROACH TO CONCRETE ISSUES MAY OR MAY NOT BE JUSTIFIED BUT HE HAS THE INTELLECTUAL CAPACITY TO GROW AND MATURE IN THE JOB. MARIO ANTONIO ANDINO APPEARS TO BE AN EXCELLENT CHOICE TO BRING PRACTICAL EXPERIENCEAND BALANCE TO THE JUNTA WHILE EFFECTIVELY REPRESENTING THE MORE PROGRESSIVE OR CHANGE-ORIENTED MEMBERS OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR. A QUIET MAN, HE HAS REPORTEDLY SHOWN HIMSELF TO BE DECISIVE, ARTICULATE AND AN EFFECTIVE FOIL TO THE MORE THEORETICAL ORIENTATION OF SOME JUNTA MEMBERS.

7. IN SUM, THE JUNTA, WHILE CUMBERSOME, IS A DIVERSE BUT SEEMINGLY BALANCED COLLECTION OF INDIVIDUALS WHO SO FAR ARE WORKING MORE EFFECTIVELY TOGETHER THAN SOME HAVE ANTICIPATED. LAST WEEK THEY REPORTEDLY DIVIDED UP THEIR RESPECTIVE AREAS OF CABINET RESPONSIBILITY AND BEGAN TO FURTHER DEFINE A PROGRAM.

8. RELATIONS BETWEEN JRG AND VARIOUS SECTORS OF SOCIETY -- LIKE EVERYTHING IN THE POST-COUP CONFUSION, THE JRG RELATIONSHIP TO PRINCIPAL SECTORS OF THE SOCIETY IS STILL IN FLUX AND EVOLUTION BUT CERTAIN TENTATIVE COMMENTS CAN BE MADE.

9. MILITARY -- THE JUNIOR OFFICER CORPS (LIEUTENANTS THROUGH MAJORS), WHO ORGANIZED THE 15 OCTOBER 1979 COUP, NAMED COLONELS GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO AS THEIR REPRESENTATIVES ON THE GOVERNING JUNTA. THE COUP OBJECTIVES OF THE JUNIOR OFFICERS WERE: (1) TO PUT THE GOVERNMENT BACK ON STEADY FOOTING AND GET IT HEADED TOWARD DEMOCRATIC PROCESS, WITH ULTIMATE OGJECTIVE OF TURNING OVER EXECUTIVE POWER TO AN ELECTED CIVILIAN PRESIDENT, (2) TO ELIMINATE CORRUPTION IN THE ARMED/SECURITY FORCES AND (3) TO AVOID THE FATE OF THE NATIONAL GUARD IN NICARAGUA. THESE SAME YOUNG OFFICERS HAVE FORMED A "COMMITTEE" (ONE OFFICER FROM EACH MAJOR CUARTEL - APPROXIMATELY TWENTY IN TOTAL)

THE ENTIRE JUNTA OR ANY MEMBER WHO IS EITHER INEFFECTIVE OR STRAYS FROM THE ESTABLISHED SHORT-TERM GOALS. THE COMMITTEE REPORTEDLY DOES NOT INVOLVE ITSELF IN DAY-TO-DAY ACTIVITIES OF THE JUNTA BUT RATHER IN A BROADER SENSE HOLDS A DEGREE OF POWER OVER THE DIRECTION OF THE JRG.

10. IN A ROUGH DIVISION OF LABOR WITHIN THE JUNTA, COL. MAJANO HAS EMERGED AS SOMEWHAT OF THE SPOKESMAN OR PUBLIC RELATIONS FIGURE FOR THE GROUP, AND -- PROBABLY MORE IMPORTANTLY -- THE LIAISON WITH THE YOUNGER MILITARY AND THE GARRISONS. COL. GUTIERREZ, PRESUMABLY THE STRONGEST FIGURE IN THE JUNTA, HAS TAKEN ON HIMSELF LIAISON WITHIN THE JUNTA, THE QUESTION OF APPOINTMENTS, AND PROBABLY THE MOST SENSITIVE ISSUE FACING THE JRG, THAT OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS. WITHIN THE JUNTA, MILITARY-CIVILIAN RELATIONSHIPS THUS FAR APPEAR TO HAVE BEEN HARMONIOUS, WITH NEITHER GROUP ATTEMPTING TO GAIN ASCENDANCY AT THE EXPENSE OF THE OTHER.

11. THE GREATEST DANGER TO THE MILITARY IS THE LOSS OF DISCIPLINE THROUGH THE RUPTURE IN A FUNCTIONING CHAIN OF COMMAND BROUGHT ABOUT BY THE DISCARDING OF SOME FIFTY SENIOR OFFICERS AND MASSIVE PERSONNEL SHIFTS. A MAJOR CONCERN OF SENIOR MILITARY OFFICERS IS THE REESTABLISHMENT OF THAT CHAIN OF COMMAND TO CONTROL THE JUNIOR OFFICERS. THE YOUNGER OFFICERS APPEAR CAPABLE OF MANAGING THE MILITARY UNITS, BUT HAVE EXPERIENCED SOME DIFFICULTY IN CONTROLLING THE SECURITY FORCES WHO ENVISION THEMSELVES AS THE PAWNS IN THE POLITICAL PRISONER/DISAPPEARED PERSONS GAMBIT.

12. CHURCH -- RELATIONS WITH THE ROMERO WING OF THE CHURCH ARE [redacted]

GOOD BUT DELICATE ON BOTH SIDES. MAYORGA IS CONSIDERED (WITH MUCH JUSTIFICATION) TO REPRESENT CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY AND JESUIT INTERESTS CLOSELY TIED TO ARCHBISHOP ROMERO. THE ARCHBISHOP, HOWEVER, WHILE CLEARLY SUPPORTING THE JUNTA, WISHES TO AVOID CHARGES OF OVERT POLITICAL ACTIVISM/INDENTIFICATION AND TO MAINTAIN HIS POPULAR PRESTIGE AND CREDIBILITY SO AS TO DRAW SUPPORT FROM THE EXTREME LEFT. HENCE, HE MUST ADOPT A HELPFUL BUT NOT UNCRITICAL PUBLIC POSTURE TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT WHICH PRESERVES HIS POPULAR INFLUENCE. TO DATE HIS PUBLIC STATEMENTS HAVE BEEN GENERALLY HELPFUL TO THE JUNTA. IF AND WHEN THE SECURITY FORCES USE EXCESSIVE FORCE AGAINST EVEN THE FAR LEFT, HOWEVER, ROMERO FEELSCOMPELLED BOTH MORALLY ANDPRACTICALLY TO TAKE A CRITICAL STANCE. SIMILARLY, HE MUST AND DOES PRESS THE JRG PUBLICLY ON HIGHLY EMOTIONAL ISSUE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS WHILE PRIVATELY RECOGNIZING THAT NEW MILITARY LEADERS WHO ARE NOT RESPONSIBLE FOR PAST SINS HAVE A NEARLY IMPOSSIBLE JOB OF INVESTIGATING AND PUNISHING THE GUILTY WITHOUT RIPPING APART THE FABRIC OF MILITARY UNITY. AS LONG AS THE JRG AND

THE MILITARY SINCERELY TRY TO DEVELOP A NEW APPROACH TO HUMAN RIGHTS, THE ROMERO WING OF THE CHURCH WILL PROVIDE IMPORTANT, IF NOT UNCRITICAL, SUPPORT AND ALL THE INTELLECTUAL RESOURCES OF THE INPORTANT CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY-JESUIT COMMUNITY WILL BE AVAILABLE TO THE JUNTA.

13. CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY -- EMBASSY HAS REPORTED EXTENSIVELY ON RELATIONS OF CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) TO THE JUNTA AND WILL ONLY SUMMARIZE THE HIGHLIGHTS. INITIALLY AMBIVALENT TOWARD PARTICIPATION IN JRG, PDC SUBSEQUENTLY TRIED UNSUCCESSFULLY TO GET MEMBER APPOINTED TO JUNTA ITSELF AND AGREED TO SETTLE FOR CABINET AND SUB-SECRETARY POSITIONS. WHILE WISHING POTENTIAL POLITICAL AND ELECTORAL ADVANTAGE OF INDEPENDENT POSITION, PDC'S FUTURE IS CLOSELY TIED TO JUNTA'S SURVIVAL AND SUCCESS IN WAY WHICH ENSURES PARTY BACKING FOR NEW

GOVERNMENT. INDEED, PDC'S CURRENT FRUSTRATION THAT IT DOES NOT HAVE GREATER DIRECT ROLE IN FORMULATING JUNTA'S POLITICAL STRATEGY DERIVES FROM ITS IMPOSSIBLE DESIRE TO HAVE IT BOTH WAYS, I.E., THE ELCTORAL BENEFITS OF INDEPENDENCE VERSUS THE MORE IMMEDIATE POLITICAL BENEFIS OF SHAPING JRG POLICY IN A WAY MOST CALCULATED TO ENSURE ITS SURVIVAL. IN ESSEMCE, HOWEVER, THE PDC HAS AND CAN BE EXPECTED TO CONTINUE SUPPORTING THE JUNTA WHILE SEEKING EVERY OPPORTUNITY TO DERIVE MAXIMUM POLITICAL BENEFIT FROM ITS STILL AMBIVALENT POSITION. SINCE PDC DOES LOOM AT LEAST INITIALLY AS STRONGEST SINGLE POLITICAL PARTY, ITS POSITION AND RELATIONSHIP TO THE JRG WILL REMAIN IMPORTANT FACTORS IN THE POLITICAL QUESTION.

14. PRIVATE SECTOR RELATIONS WITH THE JRG ARE ALSO COMPLICATED, INFLUX AND COVERED IN PREVIOUS EMBASSY REPORTING. IN SUMMARY, #923;34. PROGRESSIVE BUSINESSMEN AND GROUPS -- WHO ARE AN INCREASINGLY IMPORTANT FORCE -- SUPPORT THE JRG AND JUNTA LEADER MARIO ANDINO. WITHIN THE LAST FEW DAYS, FOR EXAMPLE, THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND INDUSTRY APPOINTED A MIXED COMMISSION TO WORK WITH AND SUPPORT ANDIND. CONSERVATIVE BUSINESS INTERESTS -- TRADITIONALLY VOCAL THROUGH THE NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF PRIVATE ENTERPRISE (ANEP) -- HAVE TAKEN A WAIT-AND-SEE ATTITUDE AND ARE LESS HOSTILE TO THE JUNTA THAN MIGHT HAVE BEEN ANTICIPATED. THEY ARE, HOWEVER, NERVOUS ABOUT THE PROMISE OF JRG REFORMS AD WILL SEEK TO BLUNT OR MODERATE ANY FAR-REACHING JUNTA PROGRAMS WHILE RELUCTANTLY ACCOMMODATING OTHERS. THE MOST CONSERVATIVE AND POLITICALLY ACTIVE ELEMENTS OF THE PRIVATE SECTOR, WHO WERE THE POWER BEHIND THE RECENTLY DEPOSED LEADERSHIP OF ANEP, ARE AT LEAST TEMPORARILY DISCREDITED, INTERESTED IN PLOTTING BUT SEEMINGLY FRUSTRATED, AND TENDING TO LEAVE THE COUNTRY TO AVOID REPRISALS. IN THIS CONTEXT PUBLIC DISCUSSIONS OF COUP PLOTTING, THE KIDNAPPING OF JAIME HILL (COUSIN OF REACTIONARY AGRICULTURALIST, BANKER ROBERTO HILL AND A CLOSE FRIEND OF EX-PRESIDENT ROMERO), THE REMOVAL OF QUESTIONABLE MILITARY OFFICERS FROM ACTIVE DUTY AND THE DEPARTURE OF FORMER ANPE LEADERS

RELATIONS BETWEEN THE PRIVATE SECTOR AND THE JRG WILL BE SHAPED BY (A) THE NATURE AND EXTENT OF THE JRG'S REFORM PROGRAM AND (B) THE SHIFTING AND STILL UNCLEAR BALANCE BETWEEN SO-CALLED PROGRESSIVE/ MODERATES IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR AND THE MORE TRADITIONAL CONSERVATIEVE OR REACTIONARY GROUPS.

15. LABOR -- REACTION OF EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION, DEMOCRATICALLY-ORIENTED FEDERAL OF UNIONS OF CONSTRU TION AND TRANSPORTATION WORKERS (FESINCONSTRAINS), AND OF EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST RURAL CO-OPERATIVE ORGANIZATION, THE UNION COMUNAL SALVADORENA (UCS), TO THE JRG HAS GENERALLY BEEN FAVORABLE, WITH BOTH CITING THE JRG'S WILLINGNESS TO CONSULT THEM ON IMPORTANT CABINET APPOINTMENTS AND GOVERNMENT POSITIONS (SAN SALVADOR 5983, 6087, 6143, 5992, 6191). REACTION FROM CONSERVATIVE SECTOR OF LABOR MOVEMENT -- AS REPRESENTED BY DEMOCRATICALLY-ORIENTED GENERAL CONFEDERATION OF SALVADORAN UNIONS-CGS (EL SALVADOR'S THIRD-LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION) -- HAS BEEN CONSIDERABLY LESS ENTHUSIASTIC, PROBABLY DUE TO CGS'S CLOSE IDENTIFICATION WITH PREVIOUS ROMERO GOVERNMENT. EL SALVADOR'S SECOND-LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION, THE PREDOMINANTLY COMMUNIST UNITED CONFEDERATION OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (CUTS) IS A MEMBER OF POPULAR FORUM AND AS SUCH HAS GIVEN SUPPORT TO JRG. HOWEVER, ITS LARGEST COMPONENT, THE NATIONAL LABOR FEDERATION OF SALVADORAN WORKERS (FENASTRANS) -- WHICH HAS TIES TO LEFTIST UNIONED POPULAR ACTION FRONT (FAPU) -- RECNTLY ANNOUNCED ITS WITHDRAWAAL FROM THE POPULAR FORUM, DENOUNCING WHAT IT SAID WERE SOME OF JRG'S "REPRESSIVE" ACTIONS. ON THE EXTREME LEFT OF LABOR SPECTRUM, EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST TEACHERS ORGANIZATION, A"ANDES 21 DE JUNIO" AND THE JOSE GUILLERMO RIVAS UNION COORDINATING COMMITTEE- CS (LARGELY RESPONSIBLE FOR PRE-COUP PERIOD WAVE OF PLANT TAKEOVERS) HAVE BOTH COME OUT AGAINST JRG. HOWEVER, ANDES IS ACTIVELY INVOLVED IN NEGOTIATING WITH THE MINISTRY OF EDUCATION. BOTH [redacted]

ANDES AND CCS ARE CONTROLLED BY LEFTIST POPULAR REVOLUTIONARY BLOC (BPR). IN SUM, JRG IS DRAWING SUPPORT FROM MODERATE AND CENTRIST SECOTRS OF ORGANIZED LABOR WHILE LABOR GROUPS ASSOCIATED WITH EXTREME LEFTIST SPECTRUM OF SALVADORAN LABOR MOVEMENT GAVE GONE INTO OPEN OPPOSITION.

WITH UNFETTERED FREE ENTERPRISE AND EXCESSIVE CONCERN ABOUT US HUMAN RIGHTS' POLICY) WAS CAUGHT OFF-GUARD BY THE COUP. IT IS NOW FOLLOWING CAREFUL AND OSTENSIBLY NEUTRAL POLITICAL LINE TOWARD JRG WITH CONTINUING ATTACKS OB LEFT. ESTABLISHED PRESS INTERESTS WILL TRY AND SURVIVE BY ADOPTING TO THE CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT. WITHOUT OVERTLY ATTACKING JUNTA, AS LONG AS ITS POWER IS INTACT, CONSERVATIVE MEDIA WILL PROBABLY INVOKE FREEDOM OF PRESS TO SLOW OR BLOCK ANY JRG REFORM EFFORTS AIMED AT REAL STRUCTURAL CHANGE. THE CATHOLIC NEWSPAPER "ORIENTATION" WILL FOLLOW THE LINE OF ARCHBISHOP ROMERO AND OPENLY CRITICAL AND AND OPINIONATED LEFTIST DAILY "LA CRONICA" WILL CONTINUE TO WEAVE BETWEEN THE RADICAL AND ORTHODOX LEFT, CRITICIZING ANY JUNTA ACTIONS DEEMED
REPRESSIVE OR DIRECTED AGAINST PUBLIC. RADIO WILL REMAIN A VERY INFLUENTIAL MEDIA WHICH IS FAR MORE OPEN THAN PRESS OR TV TOWARDS POLITICAL PLURALISM. EVENTUALLY, MORE PROGRESSIVE AND MODERATE MEDIA INTERESTS MAY EMERGE IN SUPPORT OF THE JUNTA BUT THE PREPONDERANT QUALITY AND ORIENTATION OF THE MEDIA IS AT PRESENT LOW AND GENERALLY CONSERVATIVE. EVEN BEFORE THE COUP, HOWEVER, THE MEDIA WAS SHOWING SIGNS OF OPENING UP TO THE OPPOSITION. AND THAT TREND HAS SINCE ACCTOTY PG.

18. FOLLOWING THE COUP THE MOST IMMEDIATE THREAT FROM THE RIGHT APPEARS TO STEM FROM A POTENTIAL COMBINATION OF TWO GROUPS: A REACTIONARY ELEMENT IN THE PRIVATE SECTOR WHICH WAS ENGAGED INRIGHTIST TERRORISM UNDER ROMERO AND DISGRUNTLED SEGMENTS OF THE ARMED FORCES WHO WERE DISPLACED BY THE COU BUT DO NOT SUPPORT THE NEW MILITARY LEADERSHIP OR THE OBJECTIVES AND ORIENTATION OF THE JRG. DESPITE STRONG INITIAL CONCERN

THAT THESE TWO GROUPS MIGHT UNITE IN A COUNTERCOUP, THE IMMEDIATE THREAT MAY BE RECEDING SOMEWHAT AS PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF A WOULD-BE COUNTERCOUP SURFACES. EXTREMISTS OF THE RIGHT EXIT THE COUNTRY, THE NEW MILITARY LEADERSHIP ACTS TO EXERCISE CONTROL OVER WOULD-BE COUP PLOTTERS AMONG DISPLACED OR INITIALLY DISAFFECTED MILITARY OFFICERS. CHALLENGE ON THE EXTREME LEFT SHOULD ALSO BE HELPFUL. TO THE EXTENT THAT THE JUNTA AND NEW MILITARY LEADERSHIP CAN GET THEIR ACT IN ORDER

IT WILL HELP UNDERCUT THE IMMEDIATE MACHINATION OF THE FAR RIGHT. ANOTHER AND PROBABLY MORE SERIOUS THREAT FROM THIS QUARTER MAY ARISE LATER IF AND WHEN THE JUNTA DECIDES TO LAUNCH A MEANINGFUL REFORM PROGRAM WHICH WOULD SIGNIFICANTLY AFFECT THE TRADITIONALLY DOMINANT AND CONSERVATIVE INTERESTS IN EL SALVADOR.

19. THE TIMETABLE AND STRATEGY OF GROUPS ON THE EXTREME LEFT WERE ALSO JOLTED BY THE MILITARY COUP. AFTER INITIAL CONFUSION AND SOME INTERNAL DIVISIONS, HOWEVER, THEY APPEAR TO HAVE SOMEWHAT RECOVERED. WHETHER SEPARATELY OR IN CONCERT, THREE CLANDESTINE GROUPS AND THEIR POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS HE APARENTLY DECLARED WAR ON THE JUNTA AND ARE ENGAGED IN AN ACTIVE CAMPAIGN OF MASS DEMONSTRATIONS, SELECTIVE TERRORISM, POLITICALLY PROVOCATIVE ACTIONS AND EVEN LOW-LEVEL GUERRILLA ATTACKS TO KEEP THE JUNTA OFF-GUARD AND ON THE DEFENSIVE. A PRIMARY OBJECTIVE AT THIS STAGE IS TO PROVOKE THE JUNTA INTO A REACTIVE AND REPRESSIVE POSTURE; ONE CALCULATED TO GENERATE MORE MARTYRS, TARNISH THE DEMOCRATIC IMAGE OTLOHE JUNTA, PROMOTE POLARIZATION AND RECAPTURE POPULAR SUPPORT WHICH MIGHT OTHERWISE FLOW TO MODERATE GROUPS LIKE THE PDC. INITIALLY, AT LEAST THIS AGGRESSIVE TACTIC HAS BEEN A PARTIAL SUCCESS. IT HAS SLOWED JU TA PLANNING (THE BPR'S OCCUPATION OF MINISTRIES AND SEUZIRE OF LEADING CABINET MEMBERS AS HOSTAGE HAS BEEN PARTICULARLY DAMAGING) AND PROVOKED OCCASIONAL OVER-REACTION BY SECURITY FORCES AND NEW MARTYRS. ON THE OTHER HAND, IT HAS CLEARLY REVEALED THE VIOLENT AND EXTREMIST GOALS AND METHODS OF THE FAR LEFT IN A WAY WHICH IF ACTIVELY AND INTELLIGENTLY COUNTERED

BY THE JUNTA AND THE ARMED FORCES COULD DISCREDIT AND UNDERMINE POPULAR SYMPATHY FOR THE EXTREMIST CAUSE.

AND POLITICAL WAY TO THE CHALLENGE OF THE LEFT EMPHASIZING THE NEED FOR A DEMOCRATIC AND NON-VIOLENT SOLUTION TO THE NATION'S PROBLEMS AND UNMASKINGLTHE DEMOGOGIC DEMANDS OF HE FAR LEFT. THUS FAR THE JUNTA'S BASICALLY SOUND POSTURE HAS BEEN WEAKENED BY A VARIETY OF FACTORS: INADEQUATE ORGANIZATION OF JRG'S PUBLIC RELATIONS AND INFORMATION EFFORTS THE DIFFICULTY OF RETRAINING AND RESTRAINING A MILITARY FORCE ACCUSTOMED AND EQUIPPED TO USING VIOLENCE TO CONTROL VIOLENCE, POOR OR ALMOST NON-EXISTENT INTELLIGENCE CAPABILITY, SELF-CONSTRAINTS IMPOSED BY THE NEED TO SAFEGUARD THE LIVES OF MINISTRIAL HOSTAGES HELD BY THE BPR.

20.A. TWO ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS WHICH HAVE DEDEVILED THE JUNTA'S EFFORTS TO BUILD POLITICAL SUPPORT AND ISOLATE THE EXTREME LEFT BY TAKING AWAY ITS POLITICAL BANNERS ARE (A) THE NEARLY INSOLVABLE PROBLEM OF DISAPPEARED PERSONS/POLITICAL PRISONERS AND (B) THE DEMOGOGICAND IMPOSSIBLE ECONOMIC DEMANDS OF THE FAR LEFT. REGARDING THE FIRST ISSUE, THE JUNTA HAS FINALLY ADMITTED IT CAN FIND NO PRISONERS BUT APPOINTED A COMMISSSION RESPONSIBLE FOR AN INVESTIGATION AND REPORT IN 60 DAYS. THE BASIC ISSUE SEEMS CLEAR. MOST, IF NOTALL, THE PRISONERS/ DISAPPEARED PERSONS ARE PROBABLY DEAD BUT THERE IS A QUESTION OF HOW FAR THE JUNTA CAN GO TOWARD FULLY REVEALING AND PUNISHING THOSE RESPONSIBLE WITHOUT THREATENINGLTHE FRAGILE UNITY OF THE ARMED FORCES

FAR LEFT WHICH NEEDS THIS EMOTIONAL POLITICAL ISSUE. NEVERTHELESS, IT MAY HAVE TO GO MUCH FATHER THAN IT ORIGINALLY HOPED AND CONTINUES TO PLAN IN ORDER TO MAKE CREDIBLE ITS COMMITMENT TO FUTURE HUMAN RIGHTS REFORM AND SATISFY MODERATE POLITICAL GROUPS, THE CHURCH, AND PUBLIC OPINION IN GENERAL THAT THERE WILL BE CHANGE AND [redacted]

21. ON THE ECONOMIC DEMANDS OF THE LEFT, THE JUNTA MUST BEGIN TO ADOPT AN EMERGENCY ECONOMIC PROGRAM WHICH WILL UNDERCUT, IF NOT SATIFY, POPULAR ASPIRATIONS. THIS IS NOT AN EASY STEP AFTER THREE TURBULENT WEEKS WHEN KEY ECONOMIC MINISTERS ARE BEING HELD AND THE COUNTRY IS UNDER LEFTIST ASSAULT. BUT

PLANNING IS UNDERWAY AND THE JUNTA HAS PROVIDED THE BROAD OUTLINES OF AN EMERGENCY ECONOMIC PROGRAN WITH MORE SPECIFIC MEASURES TO BE ANNOUNCED THIS WEEK.

BUT FIRM RESTRAINT COUPLED WITH A COHERENT POLITICAL STRATEGY TO DISCREDIT THE EXTREME LEFT. BOTH ARE RECOGNIZED BY THE JRG AND IN THE PROCESS OF INITIAL ELABORATION BUT FACE

TREMENDOUS OBSTACLES, PARTICULARLY IN THE SECURITY AREA WHERE TRADITIONAL RESPONSES AND POOR CAPABILITY CANNOT BE CHANGED OVERNGITH. THE CHURCH AND MODERATE POLITICAL SECTORS ARE PRIVATELY MORE UNDERSTANDING AND TOLERANT TO THE JRG PROBLEMS IN THIS AREA THAN THEIR PUBLIC STATEMENTS AIMED AT MAINTAINING POPULAR CREDIBILITY MIGHT SUGGEST.

23. IN THE MEDIUM AND LONGER TERM, THE JRG NEEDS TO REGAIN THE POLITICAL INITIATIVE, FURTHER ELABORATE ITS POSITION ON HOLDING DEMOCRATIC ELECTIONS AND DEFIPE ITS ROLE AS A TRANSITIONAL GOVERNMENT PLEDGED TO REFORM OR AT LEAST TO LAY THE GROUND WORK FOR OVERDUE POLITICALAND SOCIO-ECONOMIC REFORMS. AT THIS EARLY POINT, IT IS NOT POSSIBLE TO ASSESS THE JRG ABILITY TO REACH THESE OBJECTIVES. WE DO KNOW THAT JUNTA MEMBERS RECOGNIZE AND ARE ACTIVELY WEIGHTING THESE ISSUES. THE DIVERSITY OF POLITICAL INTERESTS INVOLVED AND REFLECTED N THE JUNTA TENDSTO FORCE A SLOWER DECISION-MAKING PROCESS BASED ON CONSULTATION, BUT IF AGREEMENT CAN BE REACHED BY THIS ROUTE, THE RESULTS MAY BE MORE

ACCEPTABLE, ENDURING AND HELPFUL TO THE JUNTA'S STRUGGLE TO BUILD A MODERATE CONCENSUS WHICH WILL ISOLATE THE EXTREME LEFT.

24. FINALLY, THE ECONOMIC QUESTIONS AND ASSESSMENT REQUESTED (REFTEL) ARE COVERED IN A SEPARATE MESSAGE ALONG WITH SOME POLICY QUESTIONS WHICH THEY RAISE FOR USG RESPONSE.

25. HOW CAN THE USG BEST HELP THE JRG? -- AT THIS DELICATE STAGE IN THE JUNTA'S LIFE, THE USG'S ROLE IS VERY IMPORTANT BUT REQUIRES POLITICAL UNDERSTANDING AND SENSITIVITY TO LOCAL REALITIES. AMBASSADOR DEVINE CAN BEST ADDRESS THE COMPLEX QUESTIONS ATTACHED TO THE USG'S POSTURE AND POLICY TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT DURING CONSULTATION IN WASHINGTON. NEVERTHELESS, SEVERAL GENERAL OBSERVATIONS SEEM WORTH MENTIONING OR REITERATING AT THIS TIME:

A. US SECURITY AND ECONOIC ASSISTANCE MAY WEL PROVE ESSENTIAL TO THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL BUT THE TIMING, AMOUNT AND ABSORPTIVE CAPACITY MUST DEPEND IN LARGE MEASURE ON THE JUNTA'S POLITICAL JUDGMENT OF WHAT IS REQUIRED AND APPROPRIATE.

B. A CLOSE CONTINUOUS BUT DISCREET POLITICAL AND ECNOMIC DIALOGUE WITH THE JUNTA AND OTHER KEY OFFICIALS OF THE NEW GOVERNMENT, IS NECESSARY BUT REQUIRES CAREFUL DEVELOPMENT SO AS TO AVOID THE INTERNAL POLITICAL STIGMA OF EXCESSIVE PUBLIC ASSOCIATION.

C. IN ADDITION TO USG ASSISTANCE, IT WOULD SEEM DESIRABLE FOR US TO TAKE THE LEAD PRIVATELY ENCOURAGING OTHER LATIN AMERICAN COUNTRIES FAVORABLY DISPOSED TOWARD THE NEW GOVERNMENT TO OFFE APPROPRIATE POLITICAL AND MATERIAL SUPPORT. BILATERAL US ASSISTANCE MIGHT BE MORE POLITICALLY ACCEPTABLE TO THE JUNTA EITHER IN THE CONTEXT OF A MULTILATERAL EFFORT OR IF COMPLEMENTED

D. WE MUST ENCOURAGETHE JUNTA IN THEIR OWN EFFORTS TO DEVISE A SHORT AND MEDIUM-TERM POLITICAL STRATEGY WHICH CAN BE PUBLICLY ARTICULATED IN A WAY THAT ISOLATES THE FAR LEFT. IN ADDITION TO REGULAR CONSULTATION WITH THE GOVERNMENT, WE MUST CONTINUE TO URGE DIALOGUE AND CONSULTATION AMONG ALL MODERATE SECTORS WHOSE SUPPORT IS NEEDED FOR THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL. WE MUST COOPERATE WHEREVER POSSIBLE IN ASSITING THE JUNTA TO COPE WITH CHALLENGES ON THE EXTREME LEFT OR RIGHT. THIS IMPLIES SOME SHARING OF APPROPRIATE INTELLIGENCE AND OTHER INFORMATION.

26. STRENGTHENING CONTACTS WITH THE JRG AND OTHER SECTORS -- AS THE DEPARTMENT IS AWARE, BOTH FROM STATE CABLES, [redacted], THE MISSION HAS HAD SUBSTANTIAL CONTACT BOTH FORMALLY AND INFORMALLY WITH MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA DURING ITS SHORT TENURE IN POWER. MORE CONTACT IS OF COURSE DESIRABLE AND WILL BE ACTIVELY PURSUED IN THE DAYS AND WEEKS AHEAD, BUT THE NATURE AND FREQUENCY OF SUCH CONTACTS MUST BE CONSIDERED IN THE LIGHT OF POLICY, POLITICAL, AND PRACTICAL CONSIDERATIONS ENGENDERED BY CERTAIN INTERNAL REALITIES IN EL SALVADOR. IN THE FIRST PLACE, CONSTRUCTIVE PUBLIC AND, TO A LESSER EXTENT, PRIVATE CONTACT WITH THE JUNTA DURING THE FIRST TWO WEEKS WAS LIMITED BY THE INCIPENT JRG'S OWN ABSORPTION AND PREOCCUPATION WITH THE DIFFICULT CONSULTATIVE PROCESS OF (A) FORMING AN ENTIRELY NEW GOVERNMENT, (B) DEFINING INTERNAL LINES OF AUTHORITY, (C) DEFINING THE BROAD OUTLINE OF A POLITICAL AND ECONOMIC POLICY, AND (D) REACTING TO THE ALMOST IMMEDIATE ONSLAUGHT FROM THE FAR LEFT. CONTACTS WERE ESTABLISHED THROUGH A VARIETY OF CHANNELS, BUT TO HAVE BURDENED THE HARD-PRESSED JUNTA MEMBERS WITH REQUESTS FOR FURTHER MEETINGS WOULD NOT HAVE BEEN PRODUCTIVE. EQUALLY IMPORTANT -- AT LEAST AT THIS STAGE -- WAS THE NEED TO AVOID EXCESSIVE US PUBLIC IDENTIFICATION WITH A NEW GOVERNMENT, MODERATE BUT STILL POLITICALLY SHAKY IT IS SEEKING TO ESTABLISH A BROAD POLITIAL LBASE BY REACHING OUT TO AN IDEOLOGICALLY DIVERSE POLITICAL

A5

27. IN THIS CONTEXT, PUBLIC OFFERS OF US ASSISTANCE, PARTICULARLY IN THE AREA OF RIOT CONTROL, WHILE PRIVATELY HEARTENING TO MOST MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA, ARE ALSO A POTENTIAL SOURCE OF EMBARRASSMENT IN THEIR EFFORTS TO BUILD PLURALISTIC POLITICAL SUPPORT. TO GIVE ONLY ONE EXAMPLE, THE CHURCH FELT COMPELLED TO PUBLICLY

NOTE AND OPPOSE REFERENCES TO POSSIBILITY OF US MILITARY ASSISTANCE WHILE RADICAL GROUPS ON THE NON-EXTREMIST LEFT, WHICH THE JUNTA SEEKS TO ATTRACT, WILL BE WARY AND PUBLICLY CRITICAL OF ANY CLOSE JUNTA ASSOCITION WITH THE US. IN REALITY USG SUPPORT -- POLITICAL AS WELL AS MATERIAL -- IS LIKELY TO PROVE ESSENTIAL TO THE JUNTA'S SURVIVAL BUT IT MUST BE PROFERRED WITH CARE AND SOPHISTICATION, TAKING INTO ACCOUNT INTERNAL POLITICAL REALITIES AND SENSITIVITIES.

28. FINALLY, THE MISSION HAS DEVELOPED AND WILL CONTINUE TO CULTIVATE A WIDE RANGE OF POLITICAL GROUPS AND SECTORS WHOSE SUPPORT CONTRIBUTES TO STABILITY AND WHICH CAN INFLUENCE THE JUNTA IN POSITIVE DIRECTIONS THAT WILL STRENGTHEN ITS PROSPECTS FOR SURVIVAL. INFORMALLY AND PRIVATELYO WE HAVE LONG MOVED ACTIVELY ALONG THESE LINES. NEVERTHELESS, IT IS CLEAR FROM THEIR PERSPECTIVE AT LEAST THAT OUR ADVICE AND ASSISTANCE SHOULD BE CATALYTIC AND SUPPORTIVE OF THE JUNTA MEMBERS WHO, KNOWING BEST THEIR OWN POLITICAL REALITY, CAN MOST EFFECTIVELY DEVISE A STRATEGY APPROPRIATE TO THE COMPLEX SITUATION HERE.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES WASHDC

1. DEAR CONGRESSMAN ROSENTHAL:
THANK YOU FOR YOUR LETTER OF OCT 16, 1979 ASKING ABOUT DANIEL LAZARO RUS. WE HAVE NO LATER INFORMATION IN THIS CASE BEYOND THAT WHICH WE FORWARDED VIA THE DEPARTMENT OF STATE IN OUR CABLE 1311 OF FEBRUARY 15, 1979.

2. IN THAT MESSAGE I STATED THAT THE ARGENTINE MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS WORKING GROUP ON HUMAN RIGHTS HAD REITERATED THAT THE GOVERNMENT OF ARGENTINA HAS NO RECORD ON THE ARREST OF DANIEL LAZARO RUS AND NO INFORMATION ON HIS WHEREABOUTS. AS YOU KNOW, THIS IS THE USUAL REPLY THE EMBASSY RECEIVES IN CASES OF UNEXPLAINED DISAPPEARANCES. WE WILL, HOWEVER, CONTINUE TO MONITOR THIS CASE AND WILL INFORM YOU SHOULD THERE BE ANY FURTHER DEVELOPMENTS.

COMMISSION FOR POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS - CEI (SAN SALVADOR 6436). JUNTA EMPHASIZED THAT FIVE DEMANDS PREVIOUSLY MADE BY CEI MEMBER DR. ROBERTO LARA VELADO BEFORE BECOMING MEMBER OF COMMISSION HAD BEEN SPECIFICALLY ACCEPTED BY JRG, A POINT THAT HAD PREVIOUSLY REMAINED UNCLEAR.

9. DURING HIS PORTION OF SPEECH, MAYORGA DISCUSSED CERTAIN ECONOMIC MEASURES THAT HAD BEEN TAKEN BY JRG, SPECIFICALLY ANNOUNCING THAT DECREE HAD BEEN ISSUED FIXING PRICES OF CERTAIN BASIC FOOD ITEMS (EGGS, CHICKEN, MILK, ETC.) AT CERTAIN LEVELS FOR THIRTY DAYS. MAYORGA SAID THAT DURING THE 30-DAY PERIOD JRG WOULD MAKE EFFORT TO DETERMINE COST OF PRODUCTION FOR THESE ITEMS IN ORDER TO DETERMINE A FAIR PRICE AND GUARANTEE JUST RETURN TO PRODUCERS OF THESE ITEMS WHILE AT THE SAME TIME ENSURING THAT PRICES FOR THESE ITEMS WOULD REMAIN AS LOW AS POSSIBLE FOR SALVADORAN CONSUMING PUBLIC. MAYORGA STATED THAT SALES ESTABLISHMENTS WOULD BE ORDERED TO DISPLAY SIGNS INDICATING PRICES FIXED IN DECREE. MAYORGA SET FORTH THE SANCTIONS FOR THOSE BUSINESS ESTABLISHMENTS WHO VIOLATED THE DECREE (FIRST VIOLATION WOULD MEAN ESTABLISHMENT WOULD BE [redacted]

CLOSED FOR EIGHT DAYS, SECOND VIOLATION WOULD ENTAIL THREE-MONTH CLOSING, AND THIRD VIOLATION WOULD RESLT IN PERMANENT CLOSING). MAYORGA STATED MINISTRY OF ECONOMY WOULD SET UP SPECIAL BANK OF TELEPHONES TO RECEIVE COMPLAINTS WITH REGARD TO DECREE.

4. MAYORGA ALSO TOUCHED ON THE SUBJECT OF MINIMUM WAGES, STATING THAT JRG HAD THEM UNDER ACTIVE CONSIDERATION, SPECIFICALLY MENTIONING THE UPCOMING WAGES THAT WOULD BE SET FOR HARVEST WORKERS IN THE COFFEE, SUGAR CANE, AND COTTON SECTORS. MAYORGA STATED THE JRG STILL HAD THE WHOLE QUESTION OF MINIMUM WAGES UNDER CONSIDERATION BUT THAT A KEY CRITERION WOULD BE THAT THERE SHOULD BE SALARY INCREASES TO A LEVEL THAT WOULD HELP TO INCREASE INTERNAL MARKET FOR SALVADORAN MANUFACTURED GOODS. IN THIS CONTEXT, MAYORGA STATED THAT THIS WOULD NOT ONLY HELP SALVADORAN WORKER BUT ALSO SALVADORAN MANUFACTURING INDUSTRIES IN THE LONG-RUN.

5. COL. MAJANO ADDRESSED QUESTION OF MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT, COMMENTING THAT HERETOFORE MAYORALTIES HAD NOT HAD REAL POWER. MAJANO ANNOUNCED THAT JRG HAD GIVEN INSTRUCTIONS TO THE MINISTRY OF INTERIOR TO PERMIT LOCAL MUNICIPALITIES TO ENGAGE IN THEIR OWN ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT WITHOUT UNDUE

INTERFEERENCE FROM THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT. MAJANO ALSO ANNOUNCED THAT NEW MAYORS WOULD BE SELECTED BY JRG FOR EL SALVADOR'S 261 MUNICIPALITIES AND THAT EL SALVADOR'S ESTABLISHED POLITICAL PARTIES WOULD PARTICIPATE IN THE SELECTION PROCESS. FINALLY, HE ANNOUNCED THAT SUCH GOVERNMENT ENTITIES AS SALVADORAN INSTITUTE FOR DEVELOPMENT OF COOPERATIVES (INSAFOCOOP) AND PRIDECO WOULD CEASE TO BE INSTRUMENTS OF CENTRAL GOVERNMENT AND WOULD BE HENCEFORTH AT DISPOSAL OF LOCAL GOVERNMENTS. MAJANO EMPHASIZED

THAT THIS DECENTRALIZATION OF GOVERNMENTAL FUNCTIONS WOULD HOPEFULLY GIVE SALVADORAN CITIZENS A GREATER SENSE OF POLITICAL PARTICIPANTION.

6. COMMENT: JRG ADDRESS TO SALVADORAN PUBLIC WAS NOTEWORTHY NOT ONLY FOR MEASURES ANNOUNCED BUT ALSO BECAUSE IT SEEMED TO INDICATE THE JRG IS TRYING TO ENGAGE IN GREATER PUBLIC RELATIONS EFFORT TO RALLY SUPPORT TO JRG. MORE DETAILED SEPTELS WILL FOLLOW, TOUCHING SPECIFICALLY ON ASPECTS OF ECONOMIC MEASURES ANNOUNCED BY JRG.

CEI WOULD YIELD CLARIFICATION OF WHOLE PROBLEM.

B. IN PAID PRESS INSERTION THAT APPEARED IN NOVEMBER 9 EDITION OF NEWSPAPER "EL MUNDO", CDHES CLAIMED THAT TEN PERSONS HAD "DISAPPEARED" BETWEEN OCTOBER 16-31 AFTER BEING ARRESTED BY NATIONAL GUARD AND NATIONAL POLICE.

C. LEFTIST UNITED POPULAR ACTION FRONT (FAPU) ANNOUNCED THAT ON NOVEMBER 9, REYNALDO CRUZ MENJIVAR (WHO CLAIMED TO HAVE ESCAPED FROM CLANDESTINE JAIL CELL OF POLICIA DE HACIENDA IN SEPTEMBER 1978 - 78 SAN SALVADOR 5396 AND 5525; HE SUBSEQUENTLY SOUGHT ASYLUM IN VENEZUELAN EMBASSY) WOULD BE GIVENG TALK AT NATIONAL UNIVERSITY (UES) ON HIS EXPERIENCES AT HANDS OF SECURITY FORCES AS "DISAPPEARED PERSON" PRIOR TO HIS ESCAPE. FAPU INVITED LOCAL AND FOREIGN JOURNALISTS TO ATTEND SPEECH.

D. IN ITS NOVEMBER 7 RESPONSE TO JRG FORMATION OF CEI, BPR-CONTROLLED TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION [redacted]

"ANDES 21 DE JUNIO" ANNOUNCED THAT IT WAS UNWILLING TO ABIDE WITH 60-DAY PERIOD GIVEN TO CEI TO COME UP WITH INFORMATION ON POLITICAL PRISONERS. INSTEAD ANDES GAVE JRG UNTIL NOVEMBER 12 TO COME UP WITH INFORMATION CONCERNING "DISAPPEARANCES" OF FIVE ANDES MEMBERS. TWO OF THESE MEMBERS WERE ALLEGEDLY ARRESTED IN NOVEMBER 1977, ONE IN APRIL 1978, ONE IN AUGUST 1979, AND THE LAST IN SEPTEMBER 1979.

E. MINISTER TO PRESIDENCY RUBEN ZAMORA RIVAS ON NOVEMBER 7 INDICATED WILLINGNESS TO TESTIFY BEFORE CEI ABOUT HIS PERSONAL DETENTION AS REQUESTED BY MOTHERS' COMMITTEE IN NOVEMBER 7 PRESS INSERTION (SAN SALVADOR 6436). ZAMORA RIVAS WAS DETAINED BY SECURITY FORCES IN 1976-77 TIME PERIOD AND REPORTEDLY SAW SOME OF POLITICAL PRISONERS WHOSE NAMES HAVE APPEARED ON LISTS OF ALLEGED POLITICAL PRISONERS.

F. MOTHERS' COMMITTEE HAD 15-MINUTE TELEVISION BROADCAST AT 1830 HOURS NOVEMBER 8. BASICALLY, PARTICIPANTS JUST READ FROM TEXT OF NOV 7 PRESS INSERTION. THEY CLAIMED THERE HAD BEEN ELEVEN MORE CASES OF "DISAPPEARED PERSONS" SINCE OCTOBER 15 COUP.

TEXT OF TELEGRAM 79SAN SA006499

2. COMMENT: DUE TO EFFORTS OF SUCH GROUPS AS COHES AND MOTHERS' COMMITTEE, ISSUE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS WILL PROBABLY CONTINUE FOR SOME TIME TO BE AT FOREFRONT OF PROBLEMS CONFRONTING JRG. HOPEFULLY, CEI WILL WITHIN 60 DAYS BE ABLE TO COME UP WITH INFORMATION THAT WILL HELP TO DEFUSE THIS EMOTIONAL AND POLITICALLY SENSITIVE QUESTION AND, MORE IMPORTANTLY, TO RESOLVE SOME OF VERY REAL QUESTIONS STILL SURROUNDING WHOLE ISSUE OF POLITICAL PRISONERS

IN A NOVEMBER 8 CONVERSATION WITH EMBOFFS, MARIO ZAMORA RIVAS, MEMBER OF PDC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE, STATED THAT PDC HAD BECOME SOMEWHAT DISENCHANTED WITH THE PERFORMANCE TO DATE OF THE REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERNMENT (JRG) AND HAD PRESENTED A CONFIDENTIAL MEMORANDUM TO HIGH-LEVEL JRG OFFICIALS OUTLINING PDC CONDITIONS FOR PARTICIPATION IN NEW GOVERNMENT. ALTHOUGH ZAMORA DID NOT CLEARLY DEFINE THESE CONDITIONS, HE COMMENTED THAT SECURITY FORCES UNDER JRG HAD ENGAGED IN

3. HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION UNDER JRG. ZAMORA REFERRED TO THE OCTOBER 29 INCIDENT IN THE DOWNTOWN AREA OF SAN SALVADOR IN WHICH AT LEAST 24 PERSONS WERE KILLED (SAN SALVADOR 6283). ZAMORA SAID THAT REPORTS ON INCIDENT WERE CONFUSED AND CONFLICTING BUT THAT THERE DID APPEAR TO BE EVIDENCE THAT SECURITY FORCES HAD PREVIOUSLY SURROUNDED DEMONSTRATORS BELONGING TO LEFTIST POPULAR LEAGUES OF FEBRUARY 28 (LP-28) BEFORE SHOOTING BROKE OUT. HE STATED THAT OCTOBER 31 INCIDENT (SAN SALVADOR 6336) IN WHICH SEVEN MEMBERS OF THE LEFTIST POPULAR REVOLUTIONARY BLOC (BPR) WERE KILLED IN CONFRONTATION WITH MEMBERS OF POLICIA DE HACIENDA HAD RESULTED IN TROOPS INVOLVED BEING DETAINED AND WITH THE JRG WITHDRAWING ITS PREVIOUS ASSERTION THAT POLICIA DE HACIENDA FORCES WERE NOT INVOLVED. ZAMORA SAID THAT THERE HAD BEEN NO DOUBT THAT IN THIS PARTICULAR CASE SECURITY FORCES HAD DELIBERATELY FIRED ON PERSONS ENGAGING IN ESSENTIALLY PEACFUL DEMONSTRATION. ZAMORA SAID THAT THE JRG AND SECURITY FORCES WERE MAKING A REAL EFFORT TO ISSUE CLEAR INSTRUCTIONS TO ALL LEVELS OF THE SECURITY FORCES TO ENSURE THAT SUCH INCIDENTS DID NOT OCCUR AGAIN. HOWEVER, HE SAID THAT THERE APPEARED TO BE SOME PROBLEMS OF COMMAND AND CONTROL WITHIN AND BETWEEN [redacted]

VARIOUS ELEMENTS OF THE SECURITY FORCES. HE ADDED THAT THE FRAGILITY OF THE JRG WAS SUCH THAT IT WAS NOT TO BE EXPECGED THAT MEMBERS OF SECURITY FORCES ENGAGING IN SUCH VIOLATIONS WOULD BE PUNISHED SEVERELY.

4. PDC PARTICIPATION IN NEW GOVERNMENT: ZAMORA COMMENTED THAT WITH EXCEPTION OF HIS BROTHER RUBEN ZAMORA RIVAS (MINISTER TO THE PRESIDENCY) PDC HAD NOT SUBMITTED NAMES OF ITS MOST IMPORTANT OFFICIALS FOR CABINET POSTS. ZAMORA STATED THERE HAD BEEN CONSIDERABLE PRESSURE FOR PDC SECRETARY GENERAL JOSE ANTONIO MARALES EHRLICH TO TAKE FOREIGN MINISTER POST BUT THAT THERE HAD BEEN CONSCIOUS DECISION ON PART OF PDC LEADERSHIP THAT MOST IMPORTANT PDC OFFICIALS SHOULD DEVOTE THEMSELVES TO PARTY ORGANIZATION IN PREPARATION FOR UPCOMING ELECTIONS. ZAMORA COMMENTED THAT BY HAVING ACCEPTED CABINET LEVEL POST THE PDC HAD SHOWN ITS APPROVAL OF JRG. HOWEVER, ZAMORA EMPHASIZED THAT THIS APPROVAL HAD ITS LIMITS AND THAT THE PDC HAD RECENTLY SUBMITTED CONFIDENTIAL MEMORANDUM TO JRG STATING THAT PDC WOULD WITHDRAW ITS MEMBERS FROM THE CABINET UNLESS CERTAIN CONDITIONS WERE MET. ZAMORA SAID THAT THE PDC WAS CHIEFLY CONCERNED WITH JRG'S DECIDING AND PUTTING INTO EFFECT RAPIDLY CONCRETE MEASURES THAT WOULD ENSURE VIABILITY OF JRG. HE ALSO MENTIONED PDC WAS QUITE CONCERNED ABOUT SOME OF THE HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS THAT HAD BEEN ENGAGED IN BY JRG AND HE SUPPORTED ARCHBISHOP' ROMERO'S COMMENTS CONCERNING THE JRG'S VIOLATIONS, SET FORTH IN HIS NOVEMBER 4 HOMILY (SAN SALVADOR 6379).

5. ZAMORA SAID THAT MEMBERS OF JRG ITSELF, WITH THE EXCEPTION OF UNGO, WERE POLITICALLY INEXPERIENCED AND WERE IN EFFECT ENGAGING IN ON-THE-JOB TRAINING. HE COMMENTED THAT EVEN UNGO TENDED TO ENGAGE IN LONG

ABSTRACT DISCUSSIONS RATHER THAN IN SETTING FORTH CONCRETE PROPOSALS. ACCORDING TO ZAMORA, EVEN COLONELS ABDUL GUTIERREZ AND MAJANO LIKED TO ENGAGE IN LONG DISCUSSIONS AND THAT THIS HAD IN EFFECT CONSIDERABLY SLOWED DOWN THE JRG'S DECISION MAKING PROCESS.

6. PDC PARTICIPATION IN POPULAR FORUM. ZAMORA SAW A CONTINUING ROLE FOR THE POPULAR FORUM ONLY IF THE COMMUNIST-DOMINATED NATIONALIST DEMOCRATIC UNION (UDN)

DID NOT SUCCEED IN GETTING ITS ORGANIZATIONAL PROPOSALS ADOPTED. ACCORDING TO ZAMORA, UDN WAS ENGAGING IN OLD-FASHIONED COMMUNIST TACTIC TRYING TO CREATE A UNITED FRONT, EVEN AT DEPARTMENTAL AND MUNICIPAL LEVELS. ZAMORA ALSO SAID THE UDN WAS TRYING TO HAVE DECISIONS OF POPULAR FORUM BE MADE BY MAJORITY DECISION, AN ARRANGEMENT THAT WOULD BENEFIT UDN SINCE PLURALITY OF MEMBERS (UDN, CAMPESINO ORGANIZATIONS ATACES, LABOR ORGANIZATIONS CUTS AND FUSS) ARE DMONINATED BY COMMUNISTS. ZAMORA SAID THAT PDC HAD MADE IT KNOWN THAT IT OPPOSIED HAVING POPULAR FORUM TRYING TO ENGAGE IN SUCH ORGANIZATIONAL EFFORTS. HE ADDED PDC HAD MADE IT QUOTE CLEAR THAT AS AFAR AS IT WAS CONCERNED DECISIONS OF POPULAR FORUM WOULD HAVE TO BE MACE ON CONCENSUS BASIS INSTEAD OF BY A SIMPLE MAJORITY.

7. ZAMORA REMARKED THERE WAS LITTLE POSSIBILITY THAT LOP-28 OR NATIONAL LABOR FEDERATION OF SALVADORAN WORKERS -- FENASTRANS (WHICH HAD BEEN INDIRECTLY REPRESENTING LEFTIST UNITED POPULAR ACTION FRONT - FAPU) - WOULD RESUME MEMBERSHIP IN POPULAR FORUM. HOWEVER, HE SAID PDC HAD ONLY RECENTLY STARTED HOLDING DISCUSSIONS WITH FAPU, WHICH HAD SHOWN CONCILIATORY ATTITUDE AFTER ITS PRIMARY RESPONSIBILITY FOR DISRUPTING OCT 25 ARRIVAL OF PDC LEADER JOSE NAPOLEON DUARTE. HOWEVER, HE THOUGHT PDC-FAPU TALKS MIGHT HAVE FRUITMFUL RESULTS, SINCE FAPU APPEARED TO BE THE MOST INTERESTED OFALL THE LEFTIST PEOPLES' ORGANIZATIONS ENGAGING IN NORMAL POLITICAL ACTIVITY.

8. PDC PROSPECTS: ZAMORA COMMENTED THAT IF ELECTIONS WERE HELD TOMORROW THAT DUARTE WOULD BE EASILY ELECTED PRESIDENT. HOWEVER, HE SAID THAT THERE WAS SOME DANGER THAT DUARTE'S IMAGE COULD BE ERODED BY EFFORTS OF SUCH GROUPS AS BPR. ZAMORA MADE PERSONAL OBLSERVATION THAT PDC MIGHT HAVE BEEN BETTER ADIVSED TO TAKE CABINET POSITIONS THAT BETTER CORRESPONDED TO EL SALVADOR'S SOCIAL AND ECONOMIC PROBLEMS. HE SAID THAT OF THE POSITIONS NOW HELD BY PDC (FOREIGN MINISTER, SUSECRETARY OF INTERNATIONAL ECONOMY, SUB-SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE, AND MINISTER TO THE PRESIDENCY, PLUS - INDIRECTLY - SUB-SECRETARY OF LABOR) ONLY SUBSECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE JORGE VILLACORTA WAS IN A POSITION TO ENGAGE IN ACTIONS THAT MIGHT HELP PDC'S FUTURE ELECTION PROSPECTS. HE SAID THAT HE THOUGHT IT MIGHT HAVE ALSO BEEN BETTER FOR THE PDC TO HAVE ACCEPTED MINISTRY OF INTERIOR POST (BECAUSE OF ITS OVERALL SUPERVISION OF SALVADORAN MUNICIPAL GOVERNMENT) THAN MINISTER TO THE PRESIDENCY, WHICH MIGHT OVERLY IDENTIFY PDC WITH ACTIONS OF FIVE-MEMBER JUNTA.

DECLASSIFIED

9. HOWEVER, ZAMORA THOUGHT THERE COULD BE SOME BENEFIT FOR THE PDC IN HAVING HECTOR DADA AS FOREIGN MINISTER SINCE LATTER COULD APPOINT PDC MEMBERS TO IMPORTANT AMBASSADORSHIPS (HE MINTIONED U.S. AND GUATEMALA AS BEING PARTICULARLY IMPORTANT ONES) THAT COULD HELP RALLY INERNATIONAL SUPPORT FOR JRG. ZAMORA ALSO SAID THAT PDC WOULD CONTINUE ITS CONTACTS WITH FELIPE ZALDIVAR, SECRETARY GENERAL OF EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST LABOR FEDERATION FESINCONSTRANS, AND WITH UNION COMUNAL SALVADORENA (UCS), EL SALVADOR'S LARGEST CAMPESINO COOPERATIVE ORGANIZATION, WITH A VIEW TO GETTING THEIR POLITICAL SUPPORT. OVERALL, ZMAORA WAS QUITE OPTIMISTIC ABOUT PDC ELEDTION PROSPECTS AND CITED PDC'S PAST ELECTION SUCCESSES, PARTICULARLY AT THE MUNICIPAL LEVEL, AS HOPEFUL OMENS FOR THE FUTURE.

10. COMMENT: ZAMORA RIVAS IS ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT MEMBERS OF PDC EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND IS ALSO THE PDC REPRESENTATIVE ON THE POPULAR FORUM COORDINATING COMMITTEE (SAN SALVADOR 6410). ZAMORA CLAIMED THAT THERE HAD EVEN BEEN THE POSSIBILITY OF HIS BECOMING MINISTER OF INTERIOR BUT THAT HE HAD THOUGHT THAT HAVING TWO BROTHERS IN CABINET-LEVEL POSITIONS WOULD CAUSE CRITICISM. ZAMORA HAS A DETAILED KNOWLEGE OF PDC AFFAIRS AND SALVADORAN POLITICS IN GENERAL AND

1. [redacted] LIKE OTHERS, WE HAVE BEEN STRUCK BY THE ABSENCE OF OBSERVABLE GRIEF OVER THE DEATH OF PRESIDENT PARK. ALTHOUGH FEW PEOPLE HAVE SHOWN DISRESPECT AND MANY HAVE PRAISED HIS CONTRIBUTION TO KOREA'S PLACE IN THE SUN, PARK'S DEATH HAS NOT BEEN ACCOMPANIED BY THE KIND OF EMOTIONAL OUTPOURING THAT ONE MIGHT HAVE EXPECTED IN A CASE OF ASSASSINATION. THE OBVIOUS EXPLANATION, WHICH IS OFFERED BY KOREANS WHEN ASKED, IS THAT PRESIDENT PARK HAD SERVED TO THE POINT WHERE HIS INCREASINGLY AUTHORITARIAN POLITICAL POLICIES WERE BEGINNING TO OBSCURE HIS ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS. PEOPLE WERE TIRED OF EIGHTEEN YEARS OF ONE-MAN RULE AND IN A SENSE SEEM RELIEVED THAT PARK HAS LEFT THE SCENE BEFORE MORE SERIOUS DAMAGE WAS DONE.

2. [redacted] A TAXI DRIVER PUT IT TO ME RATHER APTLY THE OTHER DAY. WHEN ASKED WHAT HE THOUGHT OF ACTING PRESIDENT CHOI'S SPEECH OF NOVEMBER 10 REGARDING CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT, HE REPLIED THAT IT WAS A GOOD SPEECH AND THAT MOST OF HIS FRIENDS FELT THE SAME WAY. HE WENT ON TO SAY THAT HE FELT SORRY FOR PRESIDENT PARK BECAUSE HE HAD COME TO SUCH A CRUEL END. YET IN A WAY HE HAD IT COMING TO

REF: CARACAS 9884

1. C - ENTIRE TEXT.

2. SUMMARY. NAPOLEON DUARTE ASKED TO SEE ME ON NOVEMBER 13 A FEW DAYS PRIOR TO HIS RETURN TO SALVADOR. HE IS OPTIMISTIC. HE GAVE HIS ANALYSIS OF THE CURRENT SITUATION, SAID HE THINKS THE PDC CAN BE RESTRUCTURED WITHIN SIX MONTHS AND BELIEVES THAT THE ELECTION PROCESS MUST BE UNDERWAY WITHIN SIX MONTHS WITH AN ELECTED PRESIDENT IN PLACE BEFORE A YEAR IS OUT. HE BELIEVES THE LEFT HAS THE INITIATIVE NOW BUT THAT IF THE JUNTA AND THE PDC CAN EFFECTIVELY MORE TOWARD ELECTIONS AND, IN THE PROCESS, PASS SOME REFORMS, THE LEFT COULD BECOME MORE ISOLATED. THE [redacted]

MOST CRITICAL SHORT-TERM ISSUE IS THE HANDLING OF THE "DISAPPEARED PERSONS" ISSUE. HE THINKS THE JUNTA CAN MANAGE IT IF IT ADOPTS DUARTE'S PLAN WHICH HAS RECEIVED GOOD RESPONSE FROM MILITARY OFFICERS. ALTHOUGH THE JUNTA IS WEAK IT IS CAPABLE OF SOME MOVEMENT. HE BELIEVES THAT HE, BISHOP ROMERO AND THE TWO MILITARY OFFICERS IN THE JUNTA, WORKKING TOGETHER, CAN MORE THINGS ALONG MORE RAPIDLY. FINALLY, HE IS NEGATIVE ABOUT U.S. MILITARY SUPPORT OT THE JUNTA AND BELIEVES ECONOMIC SUPPORT SHOULD BE CONDITIONED ON PRESSING FOR EARLY ELECTIONS. AS TO ANDEAN PACT INVOLVEMENT, HE BELIEVES VISITS CAN BE EFFECTIVE IF TIMED TO INTERNAL EVOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF THE DEMOCRATIC FORCES. END SUMMARY.

3. NAPOLEON DUARTE VISITED ME ON NOVEMBER 13 AT HIS REQUEST FOR A LONG REVIEW FOLLOWING UP ON OUR EARLIER DISCUSSUION (REFTEL). HE SAID HE IS OPTIMISTIC ABOUT THE PROCESS EVEN THOUGH HE FOUND THE SITUATION IN SALVADOR MUCH TOUGHER THAN HE HAD IMAGINED. HE SAID THAT HE BELIEVED AT LEAST FOUR ATTEMPTS WERE MADE ON HIS LIFE -- ONE AT THE AIRPORT IN PANAMA ENROUTE TO SAN SALVADOR WHERE HE WAS OFFERED "ASSISTANCE" IN HIS ONWARD TRAVEL PLANS BY SANDINISTAS WHO CEASED THEIR INTEREST WHEN THEY LEARNED HE WAS ON A VENEZUELAN AIR FORCE PLANE. THEN HE SAID THERE WERE THREE ATTEMPTS AFTER HIS ARRIVAL IN SALVADOR.

4. STATUS OF THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PCD). DUARTE SAID THE PDC STRUCTURE HAD VIRTUALLY DISAPPEARED, BUT THAT THE TOP LEADERSHIP AND THE BASE AROUND THE COUNTRY STILL WAS PRETTY MUCH IN PLACE. THE PARTY LACKS FUNDS TO REBUILD THE PARTY STRUCTURE, BUT HE BELIEVES MUCH CAN BE DONE WITHIN FOUR TO SIX MONTHS TO GIVE AN EFFECTIVE ELECTROAL STRUCTURE TO THE PDC. MANY "BASE" SUPPORTERS WHO IN THE PAST SEVERAL YEARS, [redacted]

DECLASSIFIED

DEFECTED TO THE LEFT, WILL RETURN TO THE PDC. HE SAID THAT THE PDC HAS SUPPORTERS IN EVERY LITTLE TOWN ALL OVER THE COUNTRY. WHEREAS THE LEFT IS CONCENTRATED IN THE URBAN AREAS SINCE THEIR OBJECTIVES ARE SUBVERSION AND DEMONSTRATIONS. HE RETURNED TO SALVADOR TO FIND THAT DURING HIS ABSENCE HIS EARLIER POLITICAL SUCCESSES HAD BEEN MAGNIFIED TO THE POINT WHERE HE HAS BECOME A MYTH. HE SAID THIS GIVES THE PDC A POLITICAL ADVANTAGE -- A KNOWN LEADER -- THAT THE LEFT DOES NOT HAVE. HE STRESSED THAT HE WAS AWARE THAT THE "MYTH OF DUARTE" COULD LAST FOR ONLY ABOUT SIX MONTHS TO A YEAR. HE SHOULD, THEREFORE, BE USED EFFECTIVELY IN THAT PERIOD TO SEIZE THE INITIATIVE FROM THE LEFT, MOVE ELECTIONS FORWARD AND BEGIN THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS WITH A NEW PRESIDENT. AFTER HIS RETURN TO SALVADOR THIS WEEK, HE WILL BEGIN A LOW KEY NATION-WIDE EFFORT THROUGH THE MASS MEDIA, PARTICULARLY TELEVISION, AND PLANS TO TRAVEL IN THE COUNTRY TO BEGIN TO BUILD SUPPORT FOR THE PDC AND THE DEMOCRATIC PROCESS. HE SAID THE PDC PLANS TO EXPAND THE NUMBER OF "MESAS" (WHICH WE TRANSLATED AS "ROUNDTABLES" IN OUR EARLIER CABLE - REFTEL). THE SECOND MESA BECAME THE "POPULAR FORUM" USED BY THE ROMERO GOVERNMENT. THE FIRST MESA IS COMPOSED OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE MAJOR ECONOMIC GROUPS. THE THREE NEW MESAS WILL GATHER TOGETHER LEADERS FROM: 1) PROFESSIONAL GROUPS; 2) TECHNICAL GROUPS AND 3) POPULAR GROUPS. THE THRID NEW MESA WILL DUPLICATE THE EARLIER SECOND MESA, BUT THEY HOPE TO MAKE THE NEW "POPULAR" MESA STRONGER LEAVING

THE LEFT SOMEWHAT ISOLATED IN THE "SECOND MESA".

5. THE LEFT. DUARTE HAS TALKED WITH THE COMMUNIST PARTY AND WITH FAPU, BUT HAS NOT YET TALKED TO THE LEAGUE OF 28 WHICH HE PLANS TO DO. HE WILL NOT BE TALKING TO THE BLOQUE (BPR) WHICH HE IS CONVINCED DOES NOT WANT TO DEAL WITH HIM OR THE PDC. HE BELIEVES THE LEFT, AS OF NOW, HAS THE INITIATIVE. THE COMMUNISTS AND THE FAPU, WHO HE MET WITH SEPARATELY, HAD USED ALMOST IDENTICAL LANGUAGE, SUGGESTING A VERY CLOSE LINKAGE WITH EACH OTHER. FAPU AND THE COMMUNISTS [redacted]

WANT TO PLAY A SEMI-SUPPORTIVE ROLE FOR THE TIME BEING FOR THE JUNTA. HE SAID BOTH ARE FULLY CONVINCED THAT THE JUNTA WILL FAIL BUT THEY WANT TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THIS PERIOD TO EXPAND THEIR POPULAR BASE AND DEMOCRATIC IMAGE, BUT THEY WILL MOVE INCREASINGLY TOWARD INSURRECTION AGAIN AS THE JUNTA FALTERS. THE BPR, MEANWHILE, WILL CONTINUE TO BE INTRANSIGENT AND WILL PROBABLY MAKE DUARTE A PRIMARY TARGET OF VIOLENCE. THE BPR OBJECTIVE AND ULTIMATELY THE OBJECTIVE OF THE COMMUNISTS AND FAPU, DUARTE BELIEVES, IS TO POLARIZE THE POLITICAL PROCESS AGAIN BETWEEN THE RIGHT AND LEFT. THIS POLARIZATION, DUARTE BELIEVES, CAN BE ACHIEVED IF THE ELECTION PROCESS IS NOT BEGUN SOON AND IF THE JUNTA DOES NOT UNDERTAKE REFORMS IN THE INTERIM. OBVIOUSLY, IN A NEW POLARIZATION PROCESS THE PDC AND OTHER DEMOCRATIC PARTIES BECOME IRRELEVANT AGAIN.

6. THE JUNTA. DUARTE SAYS THE JUNTA IS WEAK AND INDECISIVE. IT WAS BORN OUT OF A GOLPE ACTING ALMOST INDEPENDENTLY. THE FACTIONS WITHIN THE JUNTA AND GOVERNMENT MAKE EVERY DECISION VERY DIFFICULT. THE RESULT IS THERE HAVE BEEN VIRTUALLY NO CHANGES IN ANY OF THE GOVERNMENT INSTITUTIONS OTHER THAN THE LEADERS AND THE MINISTERS. HE SAID STRUCTURAL CHANGES BELOW THE CABINET MUST BEGIN SOON PARTICULARLY IN THE SECURITY FORCES. HE SPOKE OF MAYORGA, WHO HE SAID WAS THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE JESUITS WHO ARE "DESK POLITICIANS" WITH A DESIRE TO CARRY OUT SOCIAL REFORM BASED ON "THEORY" AND PROBABLY ARE ARGUING TO KEEP THE PRESENT GOVERNMENT FOR FIVE YEARS LONGER. DUARTE BELIEVES THAT MAYORGA, HOWEVER, IS COMING AROUND, SLOWLY, TO THE PDC VIEW OF EARLY ELECTIONS WHILE MOVING FORWARD ON SOCIAL REFORM.

7. DUARTE'S STRATEGY. JUST BEFORE COMING TO CARACAS, DUARTE ANNOUNCED ON TELEVISION THE NEED FOR THE ELECTION PROCESS TO

BEGIN WITHIN SIX MONTHS AND CALLED ON THE JUNTA TO DECLARE ITSELF "TRANSITIONAL." HE SAID HE HAD DISCUSSED HIS TELEVISION ANNOUNCEMENT WITH THE JUNTA PRIOR TO APPEARING ON TLEVISION AND HE BELIEVES THE JUNTA IS WITH HIM. DUARTE'S BELIEF IS THAT THE ELECTIONS MUST BE HELD SOME TIME AFTER SIX MONTHS. THE ELECTIONS SHOULD BE FOR A CONSTITUTIONAL ASSEMBLY, FOR MUNICIPAL LEADERS AND FOR THE PRESIDENT. HE SAID THE NEWLY ELECTED PRESIDENT SHOULD BE IN OFFICE UNTIL A NEW CONSTITUTION IS WRITTEN BY THE ASSEMBLY WHICH WOULD THEN APPROVE THE INCUMBENT PRESIDENT FOR A SET

DECLASSIFIED

DECLASSIFIED

Special Project (1993)

TERM OF OFFICE. THE CONSTITUTIONAL ASSEMBLY WOULD THEN RECONSTITUTE ITSELF AS A CONGRESS. HE BELIEVES THIS FORMULA IS ESSENTIAL TO PROVIDE A STRONG BEGINNING FOR A DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENT. HE HAS TOLD THE JUNTA THAT HE WILL CONTINUE TO SUPPORT THEM AS LONG AS THEY MOVE IN THE DIRECTION OF ELECTIONS SOON. HE SAYS HE HAS NOT YET GIVEN THE JUNTA A FULL EXPLANATION OF WHAT HIS AND THE PDC VIEWS ARE WITH REGARD TO TIMING OF ELECTIONS AND HOW THEY WOULD BE CONDUCTED. HE HAS TOLD THE JUNTA THAT IF THEY BECOME TOO FOND OF POWER AND DO NOT MOVE RAPIDLY, HE WILL BE PREPARED TO GO INTO THE STREETS AGAINST THEM. HE SAID THAT HIS RELATIONSHIP WITH ARCHBISHOP ROMERO IS EXCELLENT AND THAT THEY SEE THE SITUATION ALMOST IDENTICALLY. HE BELIEVES THAT HE, THE ARCHBISHOP AND THE TWO MILITARY MEMBERS OF THE JUNTA CAN MOVE TOGETHER TO GET THE PROCESS MOVING ALONG RAPIDLY.

8. THE ISSUE OF "DISAPPEARED PERSONS". THE CURRENT MOST CRITICAL ISSUE FOR THE JUNTA IS HOW TO DEAL WITH THE DISAPPEARED PERSONS ISSUE WITHOUT DESTROYING THE STRUCTURE OF THE SECURITY FORCES. HE SAID THAT WITHIN THE SECURITY FORCES SENIOR OFFICERS HAVE A STRING OF ACCOMPLICES IN MURDER ALL THE WAY DOWN TO THE BASE. ONE AN ANNOUNCEMENT IS MADE ON THE "DISAPPEARED" AND INVESTIGATIONS ARE BEGUN THE SECURITY FORCES WILL BECOME UNRAVELED. HE SAID THAT IN HIS DISCUSSIONS WITH THE ARMY [redacted]

HE HAS BECOME CONVINCED THAT VIRTUALLY EVERY DISAPPEARED PERSON COULD BE TRACED. HE HAS PROPOSED TO SOME SAMLL GROUPS OF MILITARY THAT AN ANNOUNCEMENT BE MADE SOON OF WHAT HAPPENED TO ALL OF THE DISAPPEARED PERSONS. WHEN DEMANDS ARE MADE AS TO WHO IS RESPONSIBLE, THE GOVERNMENT WOULD ANNOUNCE THAT IT WAS THE PROBLEM OF THE SYSTEM OF THE ROMERO GOVERNMENT AND THAT THE JUNTA HAS NOW REMOVED THAT GOVERNMENT AND ALL OF THE MILITARY LEADERS THAT GAVE THE ORDERS. DUARTE BELIEVES A STRONG CASE COULD BE MADE AND THAT MOST OF THE PEOPLE WOULD ACCEPT THIS EXPLANATION ULTIMATELY. DUARTE ALSO SAID THAT A MAJOR SHIFT THAT MUST BE MADE SOON IS FOR THE SECURITY FORCES TO THINK ABOUT PROTECTION OF PUBLIC FACILITIES AND REAL SECURITY ISSUES RATHER THAN HAVING THE MENTALITY AND FUNCTION OF SEEKING OUT GUERILLAS. HE SAID THE LATTER SHOULD BE THE JOB OF THE MILITARY.

9. ROLE OF THE U.S. AND ANDEAN PACT. DUARTE SAID A MAJOR U.S. ROLE WILL BE TO REINFORCE DOMESTIC PRESSURE ON THE JUNTA TO MOVE TOWARD ELECTIONS SOON. HE SAID WE COULD DO THIS, IN PART, BY CONDITIONING OUR ECONOMIC ASSISTANCE ON PROGRESS MADE ON REFORMS AND TOWARD ELECTIONS. HE WAS SKEPTICAL ABOUT U.S. OFFERS OF MILITARY AID TO THE JUNTA. PARTICULARLY, HE BELIEVES THAT THE U.S. SHOULD NOT MAKE A BIG PUBLIC DISCUSSION OF MILITARY AID SINCE THE PEOPLE OF SALVADOR WILL NOT UNDERSTAND WHY THE UNITED STATES IS SUPPLYING ARMS TO THE JUNTA. HE WAS SURPRISINGLY RESERVED ABOUT WHETHER THE ANDEAN PACT

RELEASED

Special Project (1993)

UNCLASSIFIED

COULD BE OF SUPPORT. HE SAID THEY CAN BE OF HELP IN VISITING SALVADOR IF THE TIMING OF THE TRIP IS SUPPORTIVE OF INTERNAL DEMOCRATIC DEVELOPMENT. THE MAJOR OBJECTIVE IS TO KEEP UP PRESSURE ON THE JUNTA TO MOVE TOWARD A DEMOCRACY. HE WAS CLEAR, HOWEVER, THAT PRESIDENT HERRERA, WHOM HE SAW THE EVENING BEFORE HE SAW ME, WAS FULLY SUPPORTIVE OF THE EFFORTS. HE ALSO WAS CLEAR THAT HE COULD NOT APPEAR IN ANY WAY PUBLICLY, ASSOCIATED WITH VENEZUELA OR THE UNITED STATES IN ORDER TO MAINTAIN HIS POLITICAL CREDIBILITY IN SALVADOR.

10. VENEZUELAN HELP.
DUARTE SAID THAT HE HAD ACCOMPLISHED TWO THINGS DURING HIS RECENT VISIT TO CARACAS. FIRST, HE HAD RECEIVED ASSURANCES THAT A VENEZUELAN GROUP WOULD DESIGN AND POSSIBLY FUND A POLL IN SALVADOR WHICH WOULD IDENTIFY THE TYPES AND LOCATIONS OF POLITICAL SUPPORT FOR THE LEFT, PARTICULARLY THE BPR. HE BELIEVES THAT SUCH A POLL IS POSSIBLE. SECONDLY, HE RECEIVED ASSURANCES FROM THE MINISTER OF MINES THAT THEY WOULD SEND A TECHNICAL GROUP TO SALVADOR TO DISCUSS WITH THE GOVERNMENT HOW TO SET UP MORE EFFECTIVE MANAGEMENT OF THE PETROLEUM INDUSTRY, PARTICULARLY THE EXXON REFINERY.

11. DUARTE THEN RAISED A PERSONAL PROBLEM. HE SAID THAT THOUGH HE HAS NO PLANS TO GO TO THE U.S. IN THE IMMEDIATE FUTURE, ON PREVIOUS VISITS HE HAS BEEN SUBJECTED TO RIGOROUS QUESTIONING AND DELAY BY US IMMIGRATION OFFICIALS. "AM I ON SOME SORT OF LIST?" HE ASKED. I PROMISED THAT THIS COMPLAINT WOULD BE LOOKED INTO EXPEDITIOUSLY AND THAT I WOULD TELL HIM OF THE RESULTS WHEN WE NEXT TALK.

12. DUARTE SAID THAT HE WOULD BE RETURNING TO CARACAS PROBABLY EVERY MONTH EVEN THOUGH HE PLANS TO HAVE HIS FAMILY MOVE TO SALVADOR TO BE WITH HIM IN EARLY DECEMBER. HE WOULD TRY TO SEE ME ON EVERY OCCASION WHEN HE RETURNS TO GIVE ME A THOROUGH REPORT. HE SAID HE ALSO PLANNED TO SEE AMBASSADOR DEVINE SHORTLY AFTER HIS RETURN TO SALVADOR. THE REASON HE WANTS TO GIVE ME THESE SUPPLEMENTARY BRIEFINGS IS THAT HE CAN DO SO IN A SOMEWHAT DETACHED WAY SINCE HE IS OUT OF SALVADOR. IT ALSO PROVIDES A MORE DISCREET, UNPUBLICIZED SETTING.

13. COMMENT: I AM INCREASINGLY IMPRESSED BY DUARTE'S CLARITY AND COMMITMENT TO THE TASK AHEAD. I WILL, UNLESS

MEMORANDUM FOR: THE PRESIDENT

From: Cyrus Vance

Subject: El Salvador: Prospects for the Junta and U.S. Policy

THE SITUATION

The five-man military/civilian Junta that took office following the October 15 military coup against the repressive government of President Romero finds itself in serious difficulties because of inherent weaknesses, the immediate violent opposition of the extreme left, and the latent threat of the far right. In trying to follow a reformist program it is buffeted by cross currents and challenges that inhibit resolute action to implement specific projects or deal effectively with disruption of public order.

Junta's Program: The Junta has called for fundamental socio-economic reforms, including higher wages, nationalization of the marketing of export crops, agrarian reform, free trade union organization and tax reform. On the political side it has called for the democratization of the political process, including free elections and the right of all political groupings to organize freely, and respect for human rights. It has failed, however, to come up with concrete proposals on many of these key issues and has not yet developed a consensus within the Junta on many points essential to governing effectively. This has produced a dangerous sense of drift.

Vulnerabilities: Consolidation of the Junta's position is hampered by these vulnerabilities:

-- The Junta has inherent weaknesses, including political inexperience, ineffective collegial decision making, fundamental philosophical and ideological differences and a tendency to hold to the views of their constituencies rather than working for consensus.

-- The left's systematic use of violent tactics to undermine the Junta's authority and provoke a repressive reaction results from a realization that the Junta's reformist program would destroy the extreme left's use of widespread popular discontent as a vehicle to power.

-- The Junta's proposed reforms, which are essential for building a strong popular following and depriving the extreme left of appealing issues, threaten the economic interests of the still powerful right; this poses the danger of a coup by conservative elements and produces caution and indecision in the Junta.

-- Many of the progressive young military officers who promoted the coup are becoming increasingly impatient at the apparent lack of action by the Junta and could move to take power into their own hands.

-- At the same time the proficiency of the security forces has deteriorated to such a degree that their ability to deal with a sustained guerrilla effort by the extreme left is in question.

Factors favoring the Junta: Despite the foregoing weaknesses, the Junta still has these factors working in its favor:

-- The Junta has its priorities straight in emphasizing socio-economic reforms and moving cautiously in dealing with public disturbances so as not to adversely affect its popular base.

-- Broad support from the Church and moderate organizations which opposed the previous governments, conditioned on implementation of the reform program.

-- Continuing approbation and support of most of the international community.

-- An extreme left still not unified or able to launch a full-scale offensive against the government.

-- An economy which although under increasing attack by the extreme left retains a strong productive capacity.

THE PROSPECTS

In the two months it has been in office, the Junta has not consolidated its position as it should. It is aware of this and under the continued pressure of the extreme left has come to realize that it must act on both the reform/development and security fronts if it is to halt the deterioration of its position.

The Junta's most immediate threat is a determined and violent challenge from the groups which comprise the extreme left. Intelligence sources indicate that preparations to launch a concerted attack on the government are under way.

The danger from elements of the far right is still incipient, but nonetheless real. How they react will depend on their perception of the reforms and the ability of the Junta to control leftist violence.

We believe the Junta can meet these threats if it:

-- moves quickly to organize itself and implement significant elements of its reform and development program;

-- responds firmly (but with due regard to human rights) to current efforts to undermine its authority;

-- takes immediate steps to upgrade the capabilities of its security forces; and

-- does a much better job of publicizing the mobilizing public opinion in support of its programs.

In order to improve the lot of the underprivileged the Junta has raised wages significantly in certain sectors and frozen the prices of some essential commodities. Over the weekend it announced the nationalization of the foreign marketing of principal agricultural products. Last week it decided to use measured force in dealing with the violent tactics of the far left and is already acting on this decision. It has been slow to upgrade its security forces, but under the prodding of our intelligence and military survey teams it has formally requested USG assistance. It has also invited a New York public relations firm with considerable experience in advising democratic governments in Latin America to help devise a strategy for winning support at home and abroad.

We cannot predict whether the Junta will correct the deficiencies in time to meet the challenge from the left or possibly from the right. The imponderables are too many. But with the advantages it now enjoys, coupled with timely action along the lines described above, the Junta stands a better than even chance to consolidate its position. In this confrontation with the far left the role of our Embassy in counseling the Junta and our ability to respond rapidly to essential needs will be very important.

UNITED STATES POLICY

In supporting the Junta we identify with forces advocating basic economic and social change and a return to democratic procedures. The alternatives to the Junta are inimical to our interest: a takeover by the far right will further polarize and radicalize the crisis, while a victory by the far left, because of the strong class antagonism existing in El Salvador, will usher in a revolutionary regime more radical than the Sandinistas. The impact on Honduras and Guatemala of either outcome, following on the heels of revolutionary success in Nicaragua, would be highly destabilizing.

We therefore need to give maximum support to the Junta while avoiding too close an identification that could be exploited by the extreme left. The far right will be inhibited by our involvement especially as it serves to bolster the Junta against the radical left. Our strategy for helping the Junta is based on these elements:

We have already:

-- asked Ambassador Devine to increase his efforts as a catalyst in helping the Junta see the seriousness of the extreme left's challenge and the need for cohesion and decisiveness in maintaining its authority;

-- asked Ambassador Devine to devise an approach to the Junta to elicit Andean and Mexican assistance in order to multilateralize the support effort. We would move behind the Junta's initiative and encourage those governments to be forthcoming;

-- provided the GOES with tear gas and other non-lethal crowd control equipment and an MTT to give instruction in its use ($205,000);

-- sent an AID team to develop with GOES officials high-impact projects in rural and urban areas pegged to a target FY 80 aid level of $35 million;

-- sent intelligence and military teams to assess needs for U.S. remedial assistance in training and equipment;

-- reached inter-agency agreement to reprogram $3.5 million of FMS financing (when we have our FY 80 appropriation) for purchases of most immediately needed materiel; and

-- notified Congress of our intent to reprogram $300,000 of IMET for provision of MTT's and other training to cover most immediate deficiencies.

We have under consideration:

-- a visit by Junta members to the U.S. for discussions with official and private groups in early February. (If your schedule is too full to receive them, we might follow the pattern used with the Nicaraguan Junta and have them meet with the Vice President with you dropping in.);

-- in connection with the foregoing visit an appropriate high-level statement welcoming their plans to return to constitutional procedures with full respect for human rights and indicating support for their reform and development programs;

-- a visit to El Salvador in early January by a high U.S. official to underscore our support of the Junta; and

-- gearing up a people-to-people program for El Salvador as soon as the security situation permits Americans to travel there without serious risk; meanwhile we are working on efforts which do not require such travel.

In order to reduce our vulnerabilities we are:

-- substantially reducing the number of U.S. mission dependents;

-- closing out the small HEW-malaria and IAGS-mapping operations; and

-- working on a further scale-down of the Peace Corps presence, looking toward close-out if the situation deteriorates further.

Mexico and Central America: A Global Perspective

Introduction

Today, far more than at any time in the past, extreme leftist forces in Central America are supported by an extensive foreign intelligence and training apparatus, modern military equipment and a large and sophisticated propaganda network. With Soviet bloc support, Cuba is using contacts nurtured over more than 20 years to provide political and military training, plus material and propaganda support, to many violent groups in a number of Central American countries. The immediate goals are to consolidate control of the Sandinista Directorate in Nicaragua and to overthrow the Governments of El Salvador and Guatemala. Honduras and Costa Rica also have been targeted (see Map #1).

[redacted] in Cuba, he set the pattern [redacted] the Sandinistas are repeating in Nicaragua. [redacted] an inner core of trusted [redacted] and built the instruments of power (the army, [redacted] revolutionary tribunals," and new mass [redacted] democratic allies were kept busy in [redacted] such as the Council of State and government [redacted] helped him consolidate power and [redacted] allies until they could no longer unite [redacted] many of these allies later were executed or [redacted] left the country.

[redacted] democratic opposition to Somoza established a "broad opposition front" in coalition with the Sandinistas, who assured their democratic allies (as Castro had done in 1957-59) of their commitment to democratic elections "after Somoza." The presence of noncommunist elements in the Sandinista-led "broad coalition" served to deceive many Western governments about the true character of the Sandinista Directorate. As in Cuba, two decades earlier, this broad coalition provided a political network that could be used by the extreme left to mislead Western opinion [redacted] On June 21, 1979 the OAS gave provisional recognition to the anti-Somoza forces, contingent upon the establishment of a democratic political system including free political parties, free elections, free trade unions, religious freedom and an independent [redacted] the Sandinistas, the Sandinista [redacted] that they would hold free elections and [redacted] freedoms. The Sandinistas have yet to implement this promise.

During this period, Cuba provided about 500 tons of weapons and other military supplies directly to the Sandinista [redacted] also trained and deployed an "Internationalist Brigade," whose personnel fought with the Sandinistas. And on July 18, 1979, Julian Lopez Diaz, a leading Cuban covert action operative, flew to Managua from Costa Rica, where he had been the Sandinistas' key adviser. He became, and remains, the Cuban Ambassador.

After their victory, the Sandinistas followed Castro's example and established a dual governing structure. The inner core was headed by the Sandinista National Liberation Front (FSLN), a nine-person Directorate, which immediately moved with Cuban help to establish a new army, an internal security apparatus and a variety of controlled organizations: neighborhood "defense committees," trade unions, professional organizations and media organs. The Sandinistas also came to dominate the nominally independent executive branch: the Junta, the quasi-legislative Council of State, and most government ministries.

The Sandinistas encouraged their democratic allies to participate in these executive branch institutions, both to use the skills of [illegible] and their international credibility. This helped obtain more than $1.6 billion in Western aid from July 1979 to the end of 1982. The United States, along with other democracies, immediately recognized the new government. During the first 18 months of the regime, the United States provided more than $118 million in direct aid and endorsed more than $220 million in Inter-American Development Bank credits.

Repression of the democratic political parties, trade unions, and media began within weeks of Somoza's departure. In August and September 1979, the Sandinistas launched a campaign against the social democratic and Christian Democratic trade unions and their national federations, and tried to consolidate organized labor in two Sandinista-controlled groupings. A conference of Sandinista leaders in late September 1979 produced a specific plan for consolidating power. It stated that the democratic groups were to be "isolated" and brought under Sandinista control and that "while political parties must be permitted to exist" because of "international opinion," the Sandinistas would "work within them to get them to support the revolution."

Finally, in August 1980, the Sandinistas declared publicly that elections would not be held until 1985. Even then, these are not to be "[illegible]" and will serve only to "ratify" the revolution.

As a further measure of internal repression, in December 1981 the Sandinistas began destroying more than 40 villages of the [illegible] in northeastern Nicaragua. [illegible] Killing by the Sandinistas [illegible] from this [illegible]. The proof of this [illegible] (Photos 1, 2, and 3 provide photographic evidence [illegible] of these villages.)

[illegible] campaign has served to consolidate [illegible] the [illegible] genuinely democratic groups and [illegible] have been excluded from real political influence. Although some are permitted to survive under surveillance, [illegible] political control is held only by the Marxist-Leninist Sandinista directorate.

Within a week after the Sandinistas' takeover, Cuba had some 100 military and security personnel in Nicaragua. Three months later, by October 1979, this figure had increased to 200. Today, Nicaragua "hosts" 7,000 to 8,000 Cubans, including 1,500 to 2,000 military and security advisers, and many high-level Sandinistas have counterpart Cuban advisers. Cubans have trained virtually all Nicaraguan recruits in the General Directorate of Sandinista State Security, the new State police organization responsible for maintaining Sandinista control over the populace.

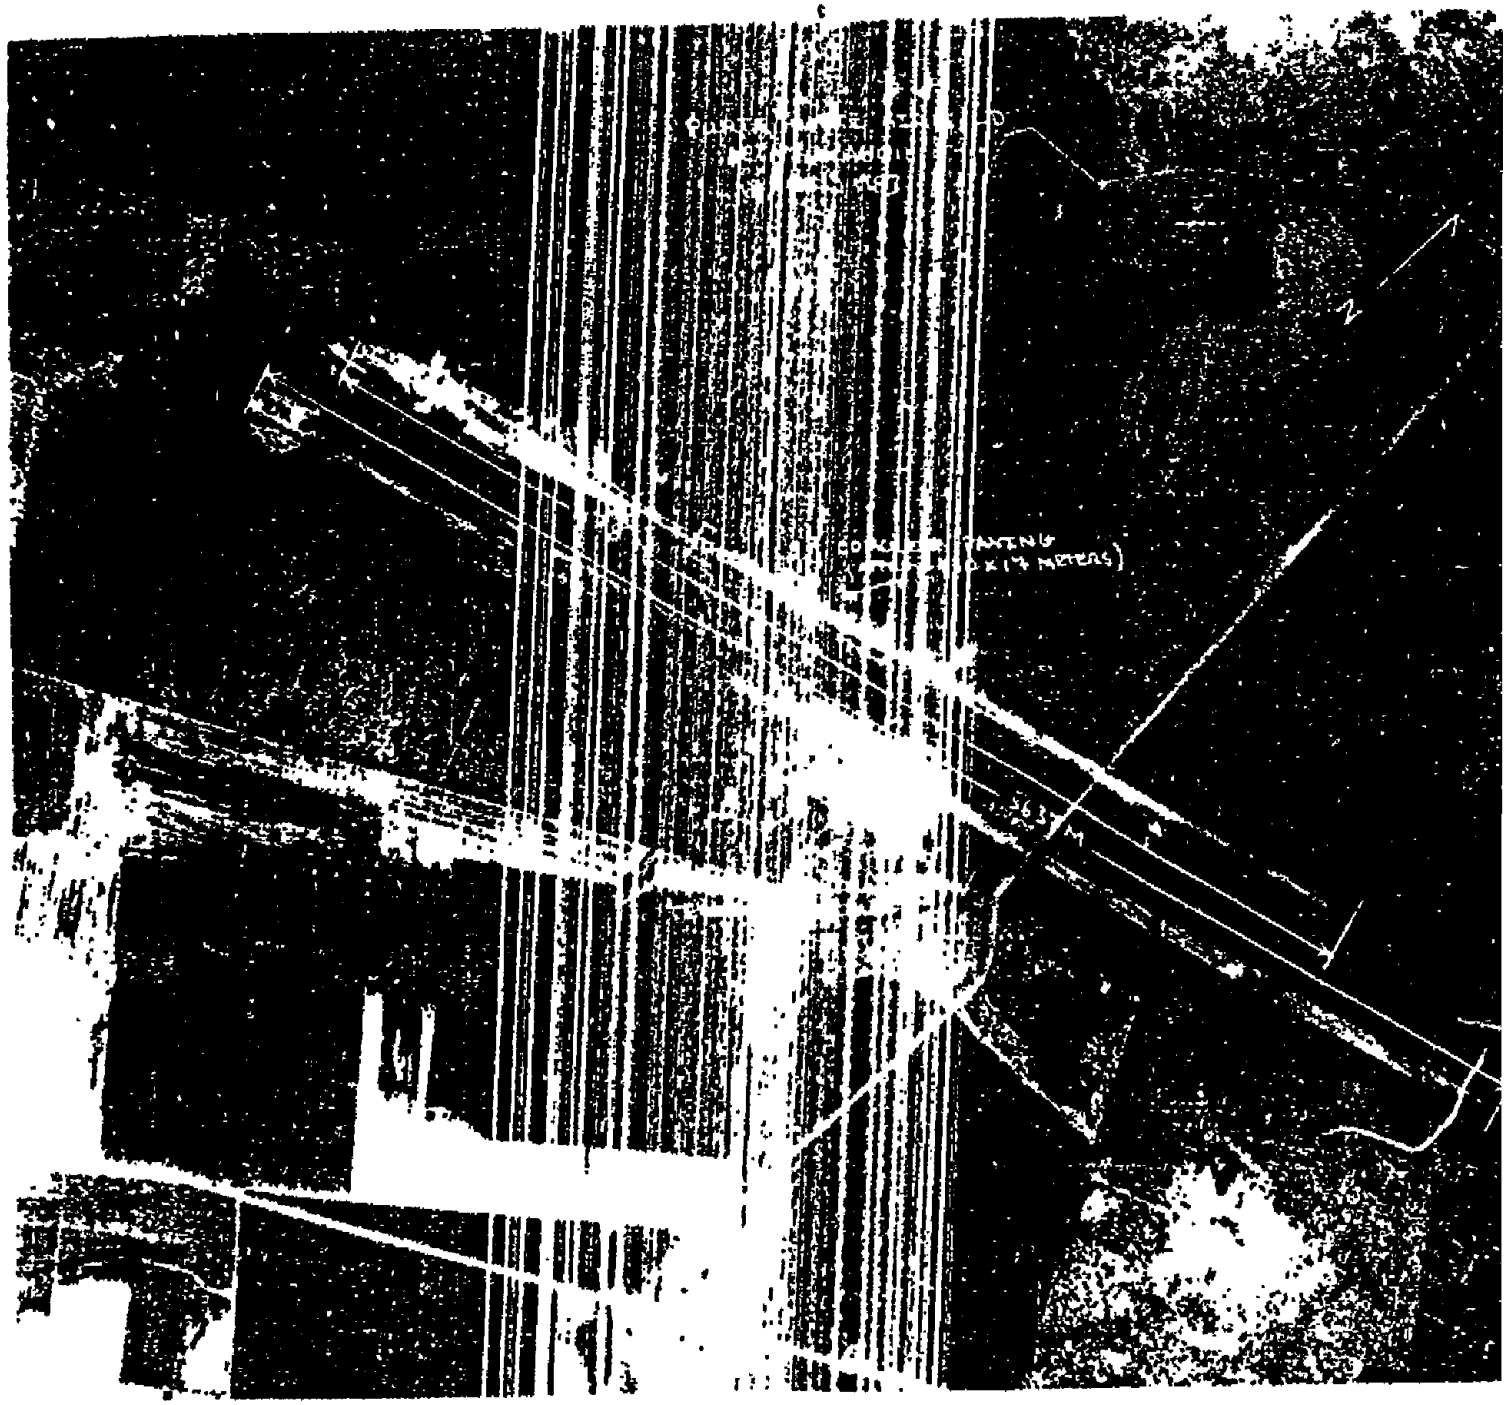
NICARAGUA



The Sandinista military buildup also began immediately. Somoza's National Guard numbered about 9,000 before 1977, and 15,000 at the height of the fighting. The Sandinistas have increased their armed forces to some 25,000 regular troops on active duty, with another 50,000 in active reserve and militia forces. In addition, they have added 36 new military bases and Soviet-bloc weaponry, including 45-50 tanks, armored personnel carriers, mobile rocket-launchers and helicopters. Airfields are being constructed or improved which could service military jet aircraft.

For example, construction of a new dual runway airfield at Punta Huete, near Managua, is proceeding at an extremely rapid pace. About 800 meters of the estimated 3,600 meter main runway have been completed and work has begun on a parallel runway-taxiway; large, square area is being leveled for a probable parking apron. The location of Punta Huete strongly suggests that the new airfield, when completed, will be Nicaragua's main military airbase as well as the largest military airfield in Central America. This conclusion is based on: the relatively isolated location near Lake Managua (7 miles northwest of Managua); the estimated length of the runway, as well as the fact it will have a dual runway-taxiway nearly two decades of [illegible] collaboration with the Soviet KGB and Soviet military. He also has cultivated close ties with the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO), Libya and pro-Soviet factions in Africa and the Middle East in support of terrorism and subversion. Castro has a method of operation with the following principal components:

-- Establishment of a "broad coalition"--led by the extreme left but including some noncommunist opposition elements--which makes direct or ambiguous promises of a "broad based" government after victory;

-- Use of the "broad coalition" and systematic propaganda and political action techniques in order to obtain noncommunist international support and isolate the target governments from Western political and material help;

-- Provision of Soviet bloc, Cuban, and other anti-Western military support as an incentive for extreme left unity.

This approach proved successful in Nicaragua. It was then turned against El Salvador in late 1979. Similar efforts have been made in Guatemala since 1980, accompanied by stepped-up covert activities against Honduras and Costa Rica starting in 1981 and 1982. The rapid expansion of these violent techniques in Central America is illustrated by the fact that while the total armed strength of the extreme left in El Salvador, Guatemala, Honduras and Costa Rica was estimated at about 1,450 in 1978, by 1981 it was nearly 8,000.

III. El Salvador

Soon after defeating Somoza, the Sandinistas began training guerrillas from El Salvador and other Central American countries. This was the beginning of a steadily expanding partnership between Cuba and the Sandinistas in exporting subversion in the region--a partnership that has included the establishment in Nicaragua of numerous guerrilla training camps, the transportation of tons of weapons and the establishment on Nicaraguan territory of guerrilla command and control facilities along with a variety of propaganda and covert activities.

Three small noncommunist groups in El Salvador formed the "Democratic Front" in April 1980. Shortly thereafter, the Marxist-Leninist leaders and the noncommunist leaders of the "Democratic Front" formed the "Revolutionary Democratic Front" [redacted] thereby establishing the "Broad Coalition" which has been used to give the impression that the guerrillas are democratic and not Marxist-led. In June 1980, a meeting in Cuba united the military and political components of the extreme left under a "United Revolutionary Directorate" (DRU). In November 1980, a military alliance of the five insurgent factions, the Farabundo Marti Liberation Front (FMLN), was created. Chart #1 depicts the evolution of this organizational framework.

The DRU became the command structure for the Marxist-Leninist organizations and also the directing authority over the "Democratic Front," for which representatives of three small noncommunist groups often act as spokesmen. The result was an unequal coalition in which the Marxist-Leninist groups controlled the armed units, weapons, intelligence, and covert support from the Soviet bloc/Cuba, while the non-Marxist-Leninist element provided a useful facade for maintaining international respectability.

RT #1

Having achieved the unified command for the extreme left, a communist-led "broad coalition," and some noncommunist international support, Cuba moved to increase the military strength of the Salvadoran guerrillas with full but discreet support from the Soviets. In April 1980, Salvadoran guerrilla leaders met in the Hungarian Embassy in Mexico City with representatives of Cuba, the USSR, Bulgaria, East Germany, Poland and Vietnam. In June and July 1980, the Salvadoran communist leaders went to Moscow and then with Soviet endorsement visited East Germany, Bulgaria, Vietnam and Ethiopia--all of which promised them military and other support. The commitment of weapons was estimated at about 800 tons.

The Cuban/Soviet bloc military supply operation used Western weapons (some from Vietnam) for "cover" and covertly shipped some 200 tons of weapons through Cuba and Nicaragua to arm the Salvadoran guerrillas for their intense but unsuccessful "final offensive" in January 1981.

Although the offensive failed, it led President Carter to authorize U.S. military aid for arms, ammunition and equipment for the first time since 1977 to "support the Salvadoran government in its struggle against left-wing terrorism supported covertly with arms, ammunition, training and political and military [illegible]

The FMLN headquarters in Nicaragua also coordinates propaganda and logistical support for the insurgents, including food, medicines, clothing, money and--most importantly--weapons and ammunition.

Although some guerrilla actions take place as targets of opportunity appear, the headquarters in Nicaragua decides on most locations to be attacked and coordinates supply deliveries. The guerrillas themselves have centralized their control procedures. For example, on March 14, 1982, the FMLN clandestine Radio Venceremos, then located near the Salvadoran border, broadcast a message to guerrillas in El Salvador urging them "to maintain their fighting spirit 24 hours a day to carry out the missions ordered by the FMLN general command (emphasis supplied)." I. Nicaragua

When Fidel Castro seized power in Cuba, he set the pattern which, 20 years later, the Sandinistas are repeating in Nicaragua. Castro established a dual government. An inner core of trusted guerrillas controlled and built the instruments of power (the army, the secret police, "revolutionary tribunals," and new mass organizations), while his democratic allies were kept busy in formal institutions such as the Council of State and government ministries. This tactic helped him consolidate power and neutralize his democratic allies until they could no longer unite against him. Many of these allies later were executed or imprisoned, or left the country.

In Nicaragua, the democratic opposition to Somoza established a "broad opposition front" in coalition with the Sandinistas, who assured their democratic allies (as Castro had done in 1957-59) of their commitment to democratic elections "after Somoza." Managua from Costa Rica, where he had been the Sandinistas' adviser. He became, and remains, the Cuban Ambassador.

After their victory, the Sandinistas followed Castro's example and established a dual governing structure. The inner core was headed by the Sandinista National Liberation Front (FSLN), a nine-person Directorate, which immediately moved with Cuban help to establish a new army, an internal security apparatus and a variety of controlled organizations: neighborhood "defense committees," trade unions, professions. organizations and media organs. The Sandinistas also came to dominate the nominally independent executive branch: the Junta, the quasi-legislative Council of State, and most government ministries.

The Sandinistas encouraged their democratic allies to participate in these executive branch institutions, both to use the skills of their allies and their international credibility. This helped obtain more than $1.5 billion in Western aid from July 1979 to the end of 1981. The United States, along with other democracies, immediately recognized the new government. During the first 18 months of the regime, the United States provided more than $118 million in direct aid and endorsed more than $220 million in Inter-American Development Bank credits.

Repression of the democratic political parties, trade unions, and media began within weeks of Somoza's departure. In August and September 1979, the Sandinistas launched a campaign against the social democratic and Christian Democratic trade unions and their national federations, and tried to consolidate organized labor in two Sandinista-controlled groupings. A conference of Sandinista leaders in late September 1979 produced a specific plan for consolidating power. It stated that the democratic groups were to be "isolated" and brought under Sandinista control and that "while political parties must be permitted to exist" because of "international opinion," the Sandinistas would "work within them to get them to support the revolution."

Finally, in August 1980, the Sandinistas declared publicly that [illegible] Even then, these are not [illegible]

Within a week after the Sandinistas' takeover, Cuba had some 100 military and security personnel in Nicaragua. Three months later, by October 1979, this figure had increased to 200. Today, Nicaragua "hosts" 7,000 to 8,000 Cubans, including 1,500 to 2,000 military and security advisers, and many high-level Sandinistas have counterpart Cuban advisers. Cubans have trained virtually all Nicaraguan recruits in the General Directorate of Sandinista State Security, the new State police organization responsible for maintaining Sandinista control over the populace.

alleged suicide of leaders of El Salvador's largest guerrilla group (the FPL) residing in Managua in April 1983 provided dramatic evidence of the guerrillas' base in Nicaragua.

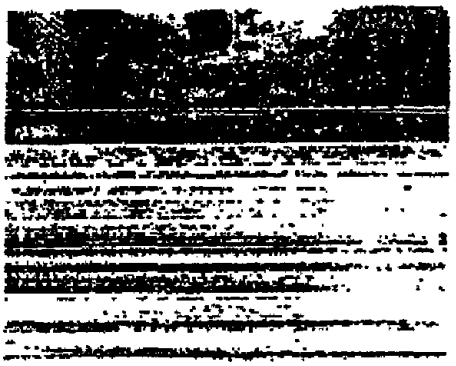
After El Salvador scheduled free elections for a Constituent Assembly for March 28, 1982, the Salvadoran Government invited the Social Democrats (MNR) and the Communist-front UDN, both of which support the FMLN, to compete openly in those elections. This offer was rejected and the top priority of the guerrillas became the disruption or prevention of these elections. In December 1981, after meetings in Havana with Salvadoran guerrilla leaders, Fidel Castro directed that external supplies of arms to FMLN units be stepped up to launch a offensive to disrupt the elections.

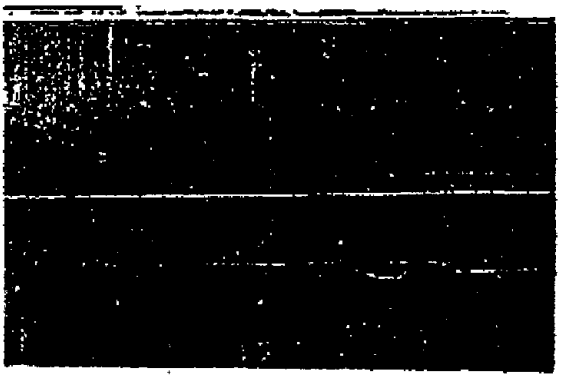
During the first 3 months of 1982, arms shipments into El Salvador surged. Cuban-Nicaraguan arms flowed through Honduras into El Salvador by sea, air, and overland routes. In February, for example, Salvadoran guerrilla groups picked up a large shipment on the Salvadoran coast, near Usulutan, after the shipment arrived by sea from Nicaragua.

In addition to vitally needed ammunition, these supply operations included greater quantities of more sophisticated heavy [illegible] several thousand sticks of TNT and detonators from Nicaragua [illegible] five sticks are needed to blow up an electrical pylon. Individual [illegible] explosives, uniforms, passports, documents, [illegible] guerrillas. Map #2 displays the known major [illegible] for arms being [illegible] El Salvador.

With this support, thousands of Salvadoran guerrillas attempted to prevent the March 1982 election by destroying public buses, blocking highways and attacking villages, town, and voting places. Nonetheless, with several hundred election observers from democratic countries and about 700 foreign journalists as witnesses, the people of El Salvador repudiated the extreme left by voting in overwhelming numbers. More than 80% of the eligible voters participated.

Following their obvious repudiation in the elections, the FMLN leaders reacted as they had after their failed 1981 "final offensive." They consulted the Nicaraguan and Cuban officials [illegible]





plan strategy and to obtain more and better military and communications equipment for their forces. For the next 6 months, they continued terrorist harrassment and economic sabotage. In mid-October 1982, they used their expanded capabilities to begin a new series of military attacks. By early 1983 the guerrillas had controlled about a dozen towns for more than 2 months, and their morale clearly had recovered--in part due to the continued Cuban, Nicaraguan, and Soviet bloc support, which enabled them to sustain operations despite their rejection by the Salvadoran people. During 1982, guerrilla operations resulted in about 2,500 government forces wounded and 1,300 killed. These intensified attacks have continued through the first 5 months of 1983.

Although Castro has often denied responsibility for shipping weapons to the Salvadoran guerrillas, German Social Democrat leader Hans-Jurgen Wischnewski stated publicly in 1981 that Castro had admitted the Cuban role. Cuban Vice President Carlos Rafael Rodriguez confirmed Cuban training of Salvadoran guerrillas in interviews given in the fall of 1981. In an article published in the Toronto Globe and Mail on February 12, 1982, a reporter interviewed a Salvadoran guerrilla trainee who described courses for Salvadoran guerrillas in demolition and intelligence operations, taught by Cubans, and attended by the Salvadorans at that time.

Several pilots who regularly flew the route into El Salvador have been identified in Nicaragua. This particular route has been closed down, but air infiltration over new routes continues to this day.

In addition to the air infiltration routes, the Salvadoran guerrillas make extensive use of sea and overland infiltration routes through Honduras and Guatemala from Nicaragua. Photo #5 taken in May 1983, in San Salvador, demonstrates that the guerrillas use sophisticated vehicular concealment devices to confound detection by local authorities.

Details of Cuban/Nicaraguan support have been provided by two high-level FMLN leaders captured in mid-1982. One of them, known as "Alejandro Montenegro," was seized on August 22, 1982, in conjunction with a raid on an FMLN safehouse in Honduras. Montenegro's importance is underscored by the fact that the September 1982 taking of 108 civilian hostages in San Pedro Sula, Honduras, was essentially an attempt by a leftist Honduran terrorist group (with close ties to the Salvadoran insurgents) to secure his release. The hostage seizure failed because Montenegro had already been transferred to Salvadoran military authorities. Montenegro provided some significant information:

-- He said that the Cubans played a major role in training those who conducted the successful January 27, 1982, raid on the Salvadoran air base at Ilopango, which damaged or destroyed a dozen aircraft.

-- Montenegro himself directed the attack, leading an eight-man team that had received 5 months of special infiltration and sabotage training in Cuba.

-- He said that he personally had attended two high-level meetings with Cuban officials in 1981--one in Havana and the other in [illegible]

The other captured Salvadoran guerrilla leader, Lopez Arriola, admitted attending a platoon leaders' course in Cuba in July 1979. He said that:

-- Hundreds of Salvadoran guerrillas have received military training in Cuba;

-- Cubans give special courses for combatants, commanders, staff officers, and intelligence officials;

-- He had attended an insurgent strategy meeting in Havana in June 1981, at which Castro himself appeared.

Lopez Arriola also revealed that the Sandinistas control weapons delivered from Vietnam to Nicaragua for the Salvador insurgents and that the guerrillas must ask for permission to draw on the supplies. He added that the Sandinistas give the insurgents an extensive base of operations in and around Managua and provide a school for their children.

IV. Guatemala

In Guatemala, although there was increased guerrilla activity in the months proceeding the elections, this violence failed to disrupt the national elections of March 7, 1982. A widespread, but unconfirmed, perception of extensive electoral fraud by the government together with pervasive and excessive government corruption and international isolation led to a junior officer coup on March 23, 1982. The new President, General Efrain Rios Montt, who had been on inactive duty for four years, acted quickly.

He disbanded various semi-official groups that had taken part in violence against opposition leaders and offered amnesty for guerrillas who surrendered before the end of June 1982. (The Guatemalan Government has since renewed this offer and it is currently in force). From that point on, the Guatemalan Government [illegible] intensive counter-insurgency program. V. Honduras

The new democratic government of Honduras--inaugurated in January 1982--increased its cooperation with the United States and neighbors in the region to neutralize the threat posed by the large military buildup in Nicaragua as well as by the guerrillas in the region. Having failed in 1981 to persuade Honduras to be neutral by promising that Cuba and Nicaragua would "spare Honduras" from the terrorism affecting El Salvador and Guatemala, Cuba now seeks to intimidate Honduras and its leaders into passivity through acts of terrorism. By doing so, the Cubans hope to eliminate a major obstacle to arms shipments to El Salvador and thus to increase the chance that the Salvadoran guerrillas can succeed.

Cuba and Nicaragua have worked actively to keep the Honduran Government from cooperating with El Salvador's efforts to prevent the transit of guerrilla supplies. Increased Cuban/Nicaraguan training and support have been provided to the Honduran extreme left, and Havana has stepped up efforts to promote unity among the Honduran leftist groups as part of a campaign to destablize the Honduran Government. Examples of extreme leftist actions in Honduras during 1981 included the following:

-- In early January 1981, Honduran police caught six persons unloading weapons from a truck enroute from Nicaragua. The six identified themselves as members of the International Support Commission of the Salvadoran Popular Liberation Forces, a part of the FMLN. They had in their possession a large number of altered and forged Honduran, Costa Rican, and Salvadoran passports and other identity documents. One truck contained more than 100 M-16/AR-15 automatic rifles, 50 81mm mortar rounds, about 100,000 rounds of 5.56mm ammunition, machineguns belts, field packs, and [illegible]

[illegible] for the Morazanist Front for the Liberation of [illegible] was described in the pro-government Nicaraguan newspaper El Nuevo Diario, by "Octavio," one of its founders, as a political-military organization formed as part of the "increasing regionalization of the Central American conflict." The raid occurred on November 27, 1981, in Tegucilgalpa. Following a gunfight the Honduran police captured several members of this group. This cell included a Honduran, a Uruguayan, and several Nicaraguans. The captured terrorists told Honduran authorities that the Nicaraguan Government had provided them with funds for travel expenses, as well as explosives.

Captured documents and statements by detained guerrillas further indicated that the group was formed in Nicaragua at the instigation of high-level Sandinista leaders. The group's chief of operations resided in Managua. Members of the group received military training in Nicaragua and Cuba. The documents included classroom notebooks from a 1-year training course held in Cuba in 1980. Other captured documents revealed that guerrillas at one safehouse were responsible for transporting arms and ammunition into Honduras from Esteli, Nicaragua.

Our information shows that Nicaraguan agents and Salvadoran extreme left groups have played a leading role in the Honduran operation:

-- The Salvadoran guerrillas have links with almost all Honduran terrorist groups and assist them in subversive planning, training, and operations.

-- The December 1982, kidnapping of Honduran President Suazo's daughter in Guatemala was the work of a Guatemalan Marxist-Leninist guerrilla faction.

-- [illegible] reportedly, was held in mid-1982 among the [illegible]

Because his government has attempted to stop the continued use of its territory for the supply of weapons to the region's Marxist-Leninist guerrillas, Cuba and Nicaragua also have made Costa Rica a target for subversion. During 1982, for example:

-- Cuba funded a new leftist political party designed to unify various leftist elements and attract broader popular support;

-- The Cubans and Sandinistas provided weapons and training for Costa Rican leftist terrorists;

-- Since the beginning of 1982, several guerrilla arms caches and safehouses have been discovered in Costa Rica.

-- In March 1982, the Costa Rican Judicial Police discovered a large arms cache in a house in San Jose. Among the nine people arrested there were Salvadorans, Nicaraguans, an Argentine, a Chilean, and a Costa Rican. Costa Rican police so far have seized 13 vehicles designed for arms smuggling and more than 170 weapons, including machineguns, TNT, fragmentation grenades, a grenade-launcher, ammunition and 500 combat uniforms.

-- Nicaragua has instigated terrorist actions in Costa Rica, leading to increased tensions between the two countries. Although the Sandinistas denied complicity, the July 3, 1982, bombing of the Honduran airlines office in San Jose took place at Nicaragua's direction, according to a Colombian M-19 member arrested by Costa Rican authorities on July 14, 1982.

-- The captured terrorist also stated that the July 3, bombing was part of a broader Nicaraguan plan that included sabotage, kidnappings, bank robberies, and other terrorist acts designed to discredit Costa Rica internationally.

-- In November 1982, Salvadoran guerrillas attempted to kidnap [illegible] Costa Rica to destabilize the [illegible].

[illegible] to invade El Salvador using the armies of Honduras and Guatemala with assistance from Brazil, Argentina, and [illegible] was characterized as a last ditch effort by the U.S. [illegible] transform the situation in El Salvador in favor of government forces prior to the U.S. elections in November 1980.

Captured documents indicate that the FMLN has coordinated the FDR's international activities (in the United States, Canada, and Europe) from Mexico City. The Soviets in Mexico City are also in contact with the Salvadoran guerrillas. Logistics and international relations policy, however, are handled in Havana. The Cuban press agency, Prensa Latina, provides international communications for the FDR and its representatives abroad.

The Soviets and Cubans met in June 1980 with several Salvadoran insurgent leaders in Havana to establish a strategy for an international political campaign on El Salvador. Evidence from captured guerrilla documents indicates that the strategy includes:

-- Propaganda: Spokesmen should emphasize that the Salvadoran "revolution" represents the people and is fighting against oppression and for freedom from outside intervention. The United States seeks direct military intervention in El Salvador to keep the "junta" in power.

-- International Support: Representatives should gain recognition and support for the insurgents from a broad range of international organizations and political and regional groups.

-- U.S. Initiatives: Representatives should strengthen ties with sympathetic American organizations and seek support from American politicians.

-- Public Posture: From the outset, representatives should call for a dialogue to seek resolution of the conflict. "The policy of a dialogue is a tactical maneuver to broaden [illegible] peace and justice."

[illegible]

[illegible] El Salvador, and widespread use has been made of disinformation to substantiate the message. Moscow also has employed its international fronts, such as the World Peace Council and the World Federation of Trade Unions, in support of the propaganda campaign.

Communist parties in Europe, Latin America, Canada and Australia have participated in the propaganda campaign and helped organize demonstrations. Their publications have continuously printed articles on El Salvador and contributed to disinformation circulating about the situation in that country. For instance, the Communist Party of Spain, in its maganzine Mundo Obrero Semanal amid pictures of blood-covered bodies, accused the United States of encircling El Salvador with the aid of Honduras and Guatemala, of sending tanks and helicopters "piloted by Yankees," of invading El Salvador, and of murdering Salvadoran Archbishop Romero.

Meanwhile, the FDR-FMLN, with Soviet and Cuban support, has directed the establishment of "Solidarity Committees" throughout Europe and Canada, Australia and New Zealand. These serve as propaganda outlets and conduits for contributions to the guerrillas. These committees also have helped plan, in conjunction with Communist parties and local leftist groups, many of the demonstrations that have taken place in support of the Salvadoran guerrillas. The timing and location of the demonstrations, such as those held worldwide after the failure of the January 1981 FMLN "final offensive" and those to protest the March 1982 Salvadoran elections, show that they resulted from a well-coordinated effort.

VIII. Extent of Outside Support

Since the Sandinista victory in July 1979, both Cuba and Nicaragua have steadily increased the size and quality of their "Revolutionary" military forces. The Soviets have played a major role in this militarization of the region.

[redacted]

-- In April 1982, a communist bloc ship delivered four Soviet heavy tank ferries, one small patrol boat, and 12 small mobile multiple-rocket-launchers.

-- The tank ferries provide the Sandinista army with an offensive water-crossing capability, while the mobile rocket-launchers gave them a mass firepower weapon unmatched in the region.

-- In mid-1982, the Sandinistas completed a new garrison for their Soviet T-54/55 tank battalion just outside of Managua. They also completed two new infantry battalion garrisons near Managua and have begun work on another major military installation south of the capital.

-- As is evident from photos #6-8, all of these military installations have a common layout similar to Cuban garrisons designed and constructed with Cuban assistance.

-- It is noteworthy that Cuban Defense Minister Raul Castro visited Nicaragua in mid-1982 with a high-level military delegation, ostensibly to offer aid for flood damage. It was announced later that 2,000 Cuban construction workers were being sent to Nicaragua. Since then, we have detected a spurt in military construction activity.

-- In November 1982, a Soviet bloc ship delivered an additional group of 25 T-54/55 tanks, bringing the total to about 50. The delivery followed a visit by Sandinista Directorate member, Daniel Ortega, to Moscow earlier in the year. To enhance the mobility of Sandinista ground forces, the Soviets have delivered MI-8 helicopters. AN-2 aircraft and armored personnel carriers also have been provided.

-- During early December 1982, eight new 122mm howitzers were delivered, supplementing the twelve 152mm guns delivered in 1981.

-- Finally, in late December 1982, the first delivery was made of sophisticated Soviet electronic gear--a high frequency/

the security services, and the others are attached to the Nicaraguan General Staff and the Ministries of Interior services. By mid-1982, they had concluded military agreements with Nicaragua estimated to be worth at least $125 million.

There are also about 35 military and 200 economic advisors from East European countries in Nicaragua. Most are East Germans, but some Bulgarians, Czechoslovakians, Poles and Hungarians are also present. The East Germans are most active in the Nicaraguan internal security organizations.

As many as 50 Libyan and PLO advisors have been active in Nicaragua. The Libyan advisors have been engaged mostly in assisting the Soviet-built Mi-8 light helicopters they provided the Sandinistas. Last May, the Libyans also provided the Sandinistas with four small training aircraft useful in counter-insurgency operations.

In April 1983, Honduras detained four Libyan aircraft transporting large quantities of weapons to Nicaragua, including two jet aircraft. This event, and a high-level delegation to Managua in May underscored Libyan leader Qadhafi's commitment to the Central American struggle (see photos 39 and 40). (Salvadoran guerrilla leader Cayetano Carpio returned to Nicaragua from Libya immediately before his April 12 purported suicide in Managua.)

PLO leader Yasir Arafat agreed to provide military equipment to Nicaragua, including arms and aircraft, when he was in Managua on July 22, 1980. The PLO has trained selected Salvadorans in the Mideast and in Nicaragua. Arafat affirmed to a group of Palestinian journalists in Beirut on January 11, 1982, that "there are Palestinian revolutionaries with the revolutionaries in El Salvador..." About 30 PLO personnel are providing pilot training and aircraft maintenance in Nicaragua.

A NOVEMBER 21 BIOPSY AT A BUENOS AIRES HOSPITAL CONFIRMED THAT AILING FORMER PRESIDENT HECTOR CAMPORA HAS METASTATIZED CANCER WITH SERIOUS COMPLICATIONS. THE MILITARY HAD MADE SUCH A BIOPSY A CONDITION PRECEDENT TO ISSUING CAMPORA A SAFE CONDUCT OUT OF THE COUNTRY FROM HIS MEXICAN EMBASSY ASYLUM. THOUGH THE JUNTA HAD EARLIER INDICATED THAT A FINDING OF SERIOUS CANCER WOULD BE SUFFICIENT TO GRANT THE EX-PRESIDENT SAFE CONDUCT, THE MILITARY WAS STILL WRESTLING WITH THE ISSUE AS OF MIDDAY NOVEMBER 23. (WE ARE TOLD THAT SOURCES CLOSE TO THE PERSON WHO PERFORMED THE BIOPSY SAY THAT CAMPORA HAS ONLY THREE MONTHS TO LIVE.)

5. TERRORISM----

THE LINE IS THE SAME: ALL GOA SPOKESMEN CONTINUE TO MINIMIZE THE SIGNIFICANCE OF THE RECENT TERRORIST INCIDENTS. THE LINE THE SERVICE COMMANDERS AND OTHERS (INCLUDING GENERAL BUSSI) TAKE IN THEIR PUBLIC REMARKS IS THAT THE MONTONERO ATTACKS ARE THE WORK OF ISOLATED FANATICS FROM WHICH NO SOCIETY IS IMMUNE TODAY. AS

Case Number: 200000044

WE HAVE NOTED BEFORE A MOST PALPABLE ACHIEVEMENT OF THIS GOVERNMENT FOR MOST ARGENTINES WAS ITS ABILITY TO RESTORE ORDER AND ELIMINATE TERRORIST VIOLENCE. FROM ONE POINT OF VIEW IT WOULD HARDLY PAY POLITICAL BENEFITS TO THE JUNTA TO ALLOW FEARS TO BE FED HERE THAT THE TERRORISTS ARE MAKING A COMEBACK. NEVERTHELESS, THE GOA DID HAVE OTHER OPTIONS -- INCLUDING AN EFFORT TO GATHER SUPPORT BY EXAGGERATING THE DANGER WHILE GEARING UP FOR ANOTHER ROUND AT BASHING "SUBVERSIVES" AND TERRORISTS. MOREOVER, THERE WERE AND ARE ELEMENTS IN THE MILITARY WHO WOULD HAVE SUPPORTED SUCH A REGRESSION AND USED IT FOR THEIR OWN POLITICAL PURPOSES. THEREFORE, THE GOVERNMENTS.S SINGLE-MINDED SOUNDING OF REASSURANCES AT VARIOUS LEVELS IS A WELCOME AND POSITIVE DEVELOPMENT.

RECENT CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT

1. (C - ENTIRE TEXT)

2. OCTOBER 15 CHANGE OF GOVERNMENT -- RESULTING IN ESTABLISHMENT OF REVOLUTIONARY JUNTA GOVERNMENT (JRG) -- HAS BROUGHT NEW HOPES TO THOSE SEEKING IMPROVEMENT IN HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN EL SALVADOR. JRG HAS TAKEN SUCH ACTIONS AS DECLARING AN AMNESTY FOR POLITICAL PRISONERS AND ESTABLISHING SPECIAL INVESTIGATIVE COMMISSION (CEI) TO DETERMINE WHEREABOUTS OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS WHOSE NAMES WERE FIRST BROUGHT [redacted]

FORTH UNDER THE MOLINA AND ROMERO REGIMES. PERHAPS MORE IMPORTANT THAN ANY SPECIFIC SHORT TERM MEASURES THAT JRG HAS TAKEN THUS FAR IS THE HOPE THAT IT CAN ESTABLISH A RELATIVELY FREE AND OPEN POLITICAL CLIMATE LEADING TO FAIR ELECTIONS, THEREBY REVERSING THE PROCESS OF POLITICAL POLARIZATION THAT TOOK PLACE UNDER THE MOLINA AND ROMERO REGIMES.

3. MANY OBSERVERS WOULD ATTRIBUTE THE HUMAN RIGHTS

ABUSES THAT HAVE CHARACTERIZED SALVADORAN POLITICAL LIFE OVER THE LAST SEVEN YEARS TO THE SUPPRESSION OF SO-CALLED CATEGORY III RIGHTS (POLITICAL AND CIVIL RIGHTS), CLASSIFICATION USED BY DEPARTMENT (CATEGORY I RIGHTS OF COURSE REFER TO SO-CALLED INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS AND INTEGRITY OF PERSON WHILE CATEGORY II REFER TO SOCIO-ECONOMIC RIGHTS). BEGINNING WITH THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS, OF 1972, OFFICE PARTY -- NATIONAL CONCILIATION PARTY (PCN) -- AND GOVERNMENT THEN IN POWER RESORTED TO SUCH TACTICS AS OUTRIGHT FRAUD AND DISQUALIFYING SLATES OF CANDIDATES PUT FORTH BY THE OPPOSITION. THIS PRACTICE INCREASINGLY RESORTED TO OVER THE LAST SEVEN YEARS RESULTED IN SUCH OCCURENCES AS THE ESTABLISHED OPPOSITION POLITICAL PARTIES REFUSING TO EVEN PARTICIIPATE IN THE MARCH 1978 LEGISLATIVE AND MAYORALTY ELECTIONS.

DECLASSIFIED

4. GOVERNMENT SUPPRESSION OF CATEGORY III RIGHTS CAN BE SAID IN TURN TO HAVE LED TO SERIOUS ABUSES IN CATEGORY I AND CATEGORY II RIGHTS AS WELL. WITH RESPECT TO THE CATEGORY I RIGHTS, THE GOVERNMENT, HAVING TO CONTEND WITH A RADICALIZED OPPOSITION USING VIOLENT RATHER THAN LEGAL METHODS, FELT ITSELF LESS RESTRAINED IN RESORTING TO VIOLENT TACTICS SUCH AS HAVING [redacted]

PERSONS "DISAPPEAR" AS A MEANS OF SILENCING OPPOSITION. IT ALSO MEANT THAT THERE COULD BE LESS HOPE FOR IMPROVEMENT IN THE CATEGORY II RIGHTS AS WELL SINCE THE OPPOSITION, RESPRESENTING MIDDLE CLASS AND LOWER-INCOME SEGMENTS OF THE POPULATION, HAD LESS CHANCE OF GETTING SOCIO-ECONOMIC REFORM MEASURES ADOPTED BY THE EXISTING POLITICAL SYSTEM CONTROLLED BY THE MILITARY AND THE OLIGARCHY.

5. INITIALLY THE POLITICAL SYSTEM OFFERED SOME HOPE OF ACCOMODATING PRESSURES FOR CHANGE. THUS, IT IS USEFUL TO REMEMBER THAT FROM 1962-1972, UNDER THE JULIO RIVERA (1962-67) AND FIDEL SANCHEZ HERNANDEZ (1967-72) REGIMES, ESTABLISHED OPPOSITION PARTIES -- SUCH AS THE CHRISTIAN DEMOCRATIC PARTY (PDC) -- WERE ABLE TO FUNCTION IN THE OPEN AND ELECT A SIGNIFICANT NUMBER OF DEPUTIES TO THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY AND ALSO A SIGNIFICANT NUMBER OF MAYORS, INCLUDING THOSE OF SAN SALVADOR AND SOME OF EL SALVADOR'S OTHER MAJOR CITIES. PCN ITSELF HAD SOME PROGRESSIVE ELEMENTS AS WELL WITH SOME -- SUCH AS THE PRESENT MINISTER OF AGRICULTURE ENRIQUE ALVAREZ -- PROPOSING ADOPTION OF REAL REFORMS IN AGRARIAN SECTOR. WITH RESTRAINTS ON THE POLITICAL ACTIVITIES INCREASINGLY RESOLRTED TO AFTER 1972 BY GOVERNMENTS THEN IN POWER, HOWEVER, THERE WAS MUCH LESS CHANCE FOR REFORM

MEASURES TO BE ADOPTED AND FOR INDIVIDUAL RIGHTS TO BE PROTECTED. PRESSURES BUILT UP TO AN EXTENT THAT A SUCCESSION OF NON-DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENTS INCREASINGLY FOUDN IT NECESSARY TO VIOLATE HUMAN RIGHTS IN ORDER TO RETAIN POWER.

6. THE GROWTH OF ESTABLISHED OPPOSITION POLTICIAL GROUPS SUCH AS THE PDC DURING THE 1960'S IN A SENSE WAS A REFLECTION OF THE INCREASING ECONOMIC GROWTH AND DIVERSIFICATION -- INCLUDING ESTABLISHMENT OF LIGHT [redacted]

INDUSTRIES -- THAT OCCURRED IN EL SALVADOR AT THAT TIME. THE SIGNIFICANT GROWTH OF THE MIDDLE CLASS IN THIS PERIOD HELPED IN SOME RESPECTS TO LESSEN THE GLARING DISPARTIES IN THE RELATIVE ECONOMIC WEALTH CONTROLLED BY THE SO-CALLED "FOURTEEN FAMILIES" AND THE POVERTY LEVEL CONDITIONS OF MOST O F EL SALVADOR'S POPULATION. AT THE SANE TIME THE GROWTH OF ESTABLISHED OPPOSITION PARTIES SERVED AS A MEASNS OF CHANNELING OPPOSITION TO THE GOVERNMENT AND TO THE ESTABLISHED ORDER INTO LEGITIMATE CHANNELS AND THEREBY HELPED EL SALVADOR TO AVOID WHAT WAS HAPPENING IN A NEIGHBORING COUNTRY SUCH AS GUATEMALA WHERE THERE WAS AN INCREASING [redacted]

7. THIS CONDITION CHANGED STARTING IN 1972 WHEN A SERIES OF NON-DEMOCRATIC GOVERNMENTS HELD POWER THROUGH ELECTIORAL FRAUD AND INTIMIDATION, WITH LEGAL CHANNELS OF DISSENT CLOSED, BOTH EXTREME LEFTIST AND EXTREME RIGHTIST TERRORIST GROUPS STARTED UP IN EL SALVADOR DURING THE EARLY '70'S AND CONTINUED TO EXPAND THEIR ACTIVITIES DURING REST OF DECADE. PERHAPS MORE DRAMTIACLLY, ESTABLISHED OPPOSITION PARTIES LIKE THE PED LOST ADHERENTS AND SUPPORT WHEN SIGNIFICANT SEMGMENTS OF SALVADORAN POPULACE LOST FAITH IN LEGALLY ESTABLISHED POLITICAL PROCESS. THIS LED TO GROWTH OF SO-CALLED LEFTIST POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS, SUCH AS THE POPULAR REVOLUTIONARY BLOC (BPR), WHICH AT THE SAME [redacted]

TIME SERVED AS FRONT ORGANIZATIONS FOR EXTREME LEFTIST TERRORIST GROUPS. GROWTH OF THESE POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS WAS PERHAPS MADE EVEN MORE INEVITABLE BY FACT THAT THERE HAD BEEN A RELATIVELY LONG PERIOD OF POLITICAL LIBERALIZATION IN EL SALVADOR AND SIGNIFICANT SEGMENTS OF SALVADORAN POPULATION WERE NOT WILLING TO RETURN TO THE PRE-1962 STATUS QUO.

8. DESPITE THE RECENT OVERTHROW OF PRESIDENT

ROMERO AND PLEDGES TO RE-ESTABLISH A DEMOCRATIC SYSTEM, THE POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS AND EXTREME LEFTIST TERROSIST GROUPS ARE NOT LIKELY TO DISAPPEAR COMPLETELY IN THE NEAR FUTURE. UNDER PRESIDENT MOLINA AND PARTICULARLY UNDER PRESIDENT ROMERO, LEFTIST GROUPS SEIZED ON GOVERNMENT VIOLATIONS OF HUMAN RIGHTS AS A MAJOR POLITICAL BANNER TO RALLY POPULAR SUPPORT AND THEY MADE MANY CONVERTS. THE NEW JRG HOPES TO RE-ESTABLISH ON A CREDIBLE BASIS SO-CALLED CATEGORY III RIGHTS, THEREBY HALTING AND HOPEFULLY REVERSING THE PROCESS OF POLITICAL POLARIZATION THAT CHARACTERIZED LAST SEVEN YEARS. AT BEST, HOWEVER, THIS WILL TAKE TIME.

9. MEANWHILE, THE EXTREME LEFTIST TERRORIST GROUPS ARE LIKELY TO CONTINUE OPERATIONS, AND GIVEN RECENT REPORTS THAT GROUPS SUCH AS ORDEN MIGHT GO UNDERGROUND (SAN SALVADOR 6593) IT IS LIKELY THAT TERRORIST OPERATIONS WILL CONTINUE IN EL SALVADOR AT LEAST FOR THE NEAR FUTURE. ALSO, LEFTIST POPULAR ORGANIZATIONS WILL AT LEAST FOR NEAR FUTURE PROBABLY CONTINUE DEMONSTRATIONS AND OCCUPATION OF BUILDINGS. THEIR OBJECTIVE IS TO PROVOKE GOVERNMENT REPRESSION. RESUME THE PROCESS OF POLARIZATION AND RECAPTURE POPULAR SUPPORT. TO MAINTAIN POLITICAL MOMENTUM THEY MUST [redacted]

CONTINUE TO PROVOKE THE GOVERNMENT INTO HUMAN RIGHTS VIOLATIONS OR FAILING IN THIS THEY WILL SEEK TO USE THE JRG'S RESPONSE TO THE VIOLATIONS OF PAST GOVERNMENTS AS POLITICAL ISSUE TO DISCREDIT THE NEW GOVERNMENT AND MAINTAIN POPULAR SUPPORT. WHATEVER STEPS THE NEW GOVERNMENT TAKES TO TRY AND RECTIFY OR CORRECT HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, THEREFORE, THE RADICAL LEFT USING ITS PARTICIPATION IN HUMAN RIGHTS ORGANIZATIONS SUCH AS COMMITTEE OF MOTHERS AND RELATIVES OF POLITICAL PRISONERS AND DISAPPEARED PERSONS OR THE NOW RADICALIZED SALVADORAN HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION (CDHES) CAN BE EXPECTED TO HEAVILY PUBLICIZE CONTINUED ANOMALIES IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS AREA IN TURN WILL LEAD TO CONTINUED CHARGES OF HUMAN RIGHS VIOLATIONS UNDER THE NEW JUNTA.

10. IN A REAL SENSE THE RADICAL LEFT, IGNORING ITS OWN DISMAL RECORD OF HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES, WILL NOW SEEK TO USE THIS ISSUE TO UNDERMINE THE FIRST SALVADORAN GOVERNMNEBT IN OVER A DECADE WHICH SEEMS SINCRELY COMMITTED TO DEMOCRATIC REFORM AND REAL IMPROVEMENT IN THE COUNTRY'S DISMAL HUMAN RIGHST RECORD. GIVEN PROVOCATIONS THAT WILL BE LEVELED AT SECURITY FORCES AND LOW LEVEL OF TRAINING AND ECUATION AMONG MOST OF THEIR CADRE, IT IS DOUBTFUL THAT ALLEGATIONS OF ABUSES OF CATEGORY I RIGHTS WILL COMPLETELY DISAPPEAR IN FUTURE. EVEN IF SUCH ABUSES CAN BE SIGNIFICANTLY
